re. "missing hard drives"

how will anyone know these are real if you don't tell everyone, on the front page.
why not let every one know you aren't sure it's real code?
Need any actors?

I do not like secrets to begin with and we should get rid of those big toys now, before some kid gets hurt.

The excuse for violence by broadcasters is that there was violence in Shakespeare.
This point is brought up in the book "abandoned in the wasteland". However my recent viewing of the films with keyword "computers" indicates that there is a ratio of nine to one of violence in these films has opposed to one to nine in classic theater or isn't " Henry the 5th" a sufficient example of the war religion propaganda like the "Thin red line".

re: Lithuanian Ancestral Wisdom Tradition and Globalization

"Media Anonymous Meditation Series"

i used the Word "structure" in reference to religion 100/200 not the idea of "focused"...

It always triggers the "native" association common in Frazer et al Imperial attitude.
I'm sensitive to the ethnic lower socioeconomic strata message ("i don't need focus just capital). "Those Indians just don't know what higher religion is all about." type of message.

Just because it's non linear, doesn't mean its not "focused".

Poetics is "soft focus". So is yoga. Doesn't mean they don't function.

In page 551 of "world religions, Western tradition" Oxtoby talks about me, at the world parliament of religions in 1993 : "there are also problems if a religious community is not organized with a central authority structure to validate the ideas of a particular spokesperson as those of the community rather than simply his or her own private musings." i was not invited and i did not register and it was a Zoroastrian that suggested that i may be a Lithuanian, my spirituality was representing the 12 steps also does that mean they do not exist either. And in answer he should look at his own words from page 544" Christianity frequently looked for the conversion of an entire population through the conversion of its ruler. If missions to the Slavs or the Chinese Could result in the rulers favor to Christianity, an entire nation could be incorporated into the christian fold." In this case the indigenous lands of the Lithuanians,(extending from the Baltic to the Black sea, the size of the Holy Roman Empire, the murder of Kestutis my namesake, now we have Yalta Two, Nato in Neutral turf, the return of 777 yrs. of surfdome of Roman orthodoxy, after 50 yrs. hyatus of " their" version of socialisms,Hitler from West Stalin from the EAst, but don't tell anyone this genocide continues see my essays on "Neutral Baltic" in "media free times" at Can.nat.lib... my parentheses)--- Could (After the Lithuanian diasporas of the world Wars, the Lithuanian spiritual kingdom is spread all over the Globe. ... so Oxtoby points out unless you are Roman in stucture or one of its franchise operations you are not registered (like students or out patients, if your not under a doctors care you must not be sick???), certified and they paint the religio/political maps what ever color they like. This does not mean there is no focus or that the 40,000 year old tradition does not exist . It just means that if you can't see it unless you wear 3d glasses...or conversly if you" poke out the eyes of the poor and then chastize them for not seeing" doesn't mean they're stupid but they must be if they have their eyes poked out? I didn't get five thousand for my film project of 16yrs. in the making , about the "Baltic religion" from the Ontario Film Council this year , so there must not be such a thing as the "Baltic Religion", or because i do not have a doctorate at the inquisition school , i'm so out of focus i can't possibly be the representative spokesman for it ? "...the nerve ...he does not even have a degree, know how to write an essay or even speek proper English!"
