Satisfaction: Workshop Elements

Which of the following elements were addressed to your satisfaction?

Satisfaction: Perceived Relevancy

How relevant was the content of the Fall 2011 workshop for new students?

Satisfaction: Activity Choices

How helpful was it to have a range of activity choices available in planning the Fall 2011 workshop?

Satisfaction: Overall Usefulness

2011 FTRS

78% found it useful

Previous FTRS

60% found it useful

What worked and what needs improvement

What they liked

best:

- Good basic introduction to searching in databases; good foundational IL content
- Explanations in the notes fields made it easy to understand the intended flow
- Options for activities
- Ready-made and customizable
- The updated slides

What they liked least:

- Content in a couple of slides was difficult to edit...took some time to reformat these
- The handout was too busy
- Lack of content specific to the Humanities and Social Sciences Library

Workshop Alterations

What changes did you make to the workshop?

Orientation Kit and Training

Response to Training

Did you feel better prepared for teaching Finding the Right Stuff after attending this staff training session?

Response to Training

“...a great initiative and should definitely continue! Teaching is so much more than having a PowerPoint template to click through, so it's great to discuss the session outline and activities in person.”

“Perhaps future sessions could include discussion about what worked well and what didn't from the previous year's presentations so that we can share and build on our experience.”

Lessons Learned and Future Directions

The Good

- Higher satisfaction from students and staff
- Positive buy-in about revised workshop
- Staff training – positive reception
- Improved awareness about campaign
- Insight into instruction experience of librarians
- Insight into commonly used elements

Room to Improve

- Content for different subject backgrounds
- Editing capability
- Supplementary materials

Going Forward

- Incorporate findings into future workshops
- Increase/improve supplementary materials
- Staff training every year
- Assessment is still fairly new
