

FIRST REPORT OF THE CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION

TABLE OF CONTENTS.

	PAGE
Order in Council appointing Commission.....	9
Report of Sub-Committee of Privy Council.....	9

FIRST REPORT.

SECTION

1. Recognition of the difficulty and importance of the duty assigned to the Commission.....	11
2. Previous attempts to improve the Service.....	11
3. Civil Service Act of 1868.....	11
4. Defects in the Act of 1868.....	11
5. Bill introduced in 1875.....	12
6. Committee of House of Commons, 1877.....	12
7. Condition of the question when Commission was appointed.....	12
8. Civil Service Reform in the United Kingdom.....	12
9. Civil Service in France.....	12
10. " " Sweden.....	12
11. " " Germany.....	12
12. " " Belgium.....	13
13. " " United States.....	13
14. State of public opinion on the subject.....	13
15. Erroneous impressions as to the possibility of an effective reform.....	13
16. Statements in order of reference as to defects in the Service.....	13
17. Instructions of a general nature.....	14
18. Mode of procedure adopted by the Commission in conducting its enquiries.....	14
19. Enquiry has had a wider range than at first contemplated.....	15
20. The reticence of some of the witnesses made this wider range necessary.....	15
21. Classification of evidence.....	15

APPOINTMENT TO OFFICE.

22. The present mode of recruiting the Service by means of political nominations most unsatisfactory.....	15
23. The state of the Service justifies most of the propositions stated in the order of reference.....	16
24. Baneful influence of political patronage.....	16

PROMOTION.

25. Disastrous effects of unjust promotions.....	17
26. Promotions too frequently made regardless of system.....	17

SECTION	PAGE
27. Men whose just claims to promotion are disregarded become discouraged.....	17
28. Observations directed against the system, not against individuals.....	17
29. Consideration of the remedy.....	18
30. We have no doubt as to what the remedy should be.....	18
31. Precis of the Civil Service regulations of the United Kingdom.....	18
32. The Civil Service regulations of the United Kingdom have been well considered. Their essential principle competitive examination and promotion by merit...	19
33. Considerations that have induced the Commission to recommend appointments by open competitive examination for Canada. It will give the best servants to the public, and will raise the educational status of the Service.	20
34. Public Service would be open to the public instead of only to a party.....	20
35. Civil servants would escape the imputation of partisanship, and would gain both in self respect and in the estimation of the public.....	20
BOARD OF CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSIONERS.
36. Institution of Board of Civil Service Commission recommended.....	21
37. Board to consist of three, one a French Canadian, to hold office on the same tenure as the Judges.....	21
38. Primary duties of Board to conduct the competitive examinations.....	21
39. Expense of Board considered and justified.....	21
40. Duties to be assigned to the Board	22
41. Where examinations should be held.....	22
42. Who should be admitted to the examinations.....	22
43. All appointments after 1st day of January, 1882, to be by open competitive examina- tion.....	22
44. Examination to be open to all of requisite age, health and character.....	22
45. Number of appointments for six months to be estimated and published in advertise- ment.....	22
46. List of competitors to be made out and published in "Canada Gazette".....	22
47. To what grades first appointments should be made.....	22
48. Examinations for special qualifications.....	23
49. Subjects for examination for first entrance, preliminary and competitive.....	23
50. Mode of making first appointments in third class.....	23
51. First appointment to be probationary for six months.....	24
52. Some knowledge of both French and English essential for civil servants in the Pro- vince of Quebec.....	24
53. Subjects for examination for promotions	24
54. Mode of conducting examinations for promotions, and of making promotions.....	24
55. All appointments and promotions to be gazetted.....	24
56. The Board to make regulations for their own government.....	24
ACCOUNTS.
17. Board to take necessary steps for securing uniformity of accounts.....	25
18. Civil Service Commission to report to Parliament.....	25

SECTION	PAGE
REVENUE BOARD.
59. Proposed Revenue Board for the investigation of fines and seizures.....	25
ORGANIZATION OF THE INSIDE SERVICE.
60. Salaries of Deputy Heads.....	26
61. The present practice of augmenting the salaries of Deputy Heads.....	26
62. Apportionment of proposed salaries.....	26
63. Re-adjustment of salaries from time to time.....	26
64. How Deputy Heads should be appointed.....	26
65. Great bulk of the work is done by clerks in the lower class.....	26
66. Existing classification too complicated.....	27
67. Proposed classification.....	27
Chief Clerks.
68. Chief Clerkship, how established, salaries and duty pay.....	27
First Class Clerks.
69. First Class Clerkships, how established, salaries and duty pay.....	27
Second Class Clerks.
70. Second Class Clerkships, how established, salaries and duty pay.....	27
Third Class Clerks.
71. Third Class Clerks and their salaries.....	28
72. Duty pay.....	28
Temporary Clerks.
73. Temporary Clerks, how appointed and paid.....	28
Extra Remuneration.
74. Conditions under which extra work may be remunerated.....	28
Messengers, &c.
75. Messengers and Assorters and Packers, their salaries.....	29
Female Clerks.
76. Existing circumstances unfavourable to employment of female clerks.....	29
Duty Pay.
77. Duty pay, how granted.....	29
78. Improper payments of salaries, &c., to be prevented by Auditor.....	30
Widening the Area of Promotion.
79. A wide area of promotion necessary to the encouragement of deserving employees... 30	30
80. Existing irregularities of salaries.....	30
81. Necessity of equalising salaries.....	30
82. How it may be done.....	30
Superannuation.
83. Superannuation accounts as published, very imperfect	31
84. Accounts take no cognizance of reduction of salaries by superannuation	31
85. Summary of returns as to financial results of superannuation during ten years.....	31

SECTION	PAGE
86. Saving of $217,325 in ten years.....	31
87. The Act sometimes unwisely strained.....	32
DISCIPLINE.
88. Discipline mainly depends on Deputy Heads and Chief Clerks.....	32
89. Bad effect of neglect of duty by heads of branches.....	32
90. The existing rules not observed.....	32
91. Present hours of attendance.....	32
92. Clerks generally go out to luncheon.....	32
93. Office hours should be enlarged and luncheon hour established. Proposed regulations as to the Attendance Books.....	33
Security, when required, should be that of a Guarantee Company	33
Fines for breach of discipline.....	33
Leave of Absence.
94. Absence on leave during stated periods each year should be obligatory.....	33
95. Additional rules to be made by Civil Service Board.....	34
Office Accommodation.
96. Defective arrangement of the offices.....	34
97. Enquiry recommended as to whether any improvement as to the offices is possible..	34
OUTSIDE SERVICE.
98. Visits of Committees of the Commission to principal cities.....	34
99. Officers outside receiving lower salaries than clerks in the Departments.....	34
100. Average cost of collecting duties of Customs and Excise.....	35
101. Excessive cost of collecting Customs duties at the smaller ports.....	35
102. Objections to the small ports.....	5
103. Tendency to multiply places at which Excise duties are collected.....	35
Customs Service.
104. Excessive salaries for Collectors of the larger ports cannot be justified.....	36
105. Salaries of Inspectors of Ports too low in proportion to Collectors' salaries.....	36
106. Classification of ports and periodical adjustment of salaries.....	36
107. Proposed manner of dealing with the small ports.....	37
108. Classification of outside Customs service and scale of salaries.....	37
109. As to Appraisers and their salaries.....	37
110. Rules as to appointment and promotion in outside Customs service to be the same in principle as in the inside.....	38
111. Inspection of ports has been very imperfect.....	38
112. Proposed improvement of Inspection Service.....	38
113. Improvements in the warehousing system necessary.....	38
114. Suggestions for improving the manner of receiving and accounting for Customs collections.....	39
115. Sight entries.....	39
116. Administration of oaths.....	39

SECTION

PAGE

Inland Revenue.

117. Enumeration of services from whence the Inland Revenues are derived. Productive and non-productive branches..... 39
118. Organization of Inland Revenue Service satisfactory..... 40
119. System of Examination in Outside Excise Service..... 40
120. Number of higher officers limited and promotion therefore slow..... 40
121. Salaries fairly proportioned to each other..... 40
122. Present classification of officers preserved and new scale of salaries suggested..... 41

Post Office Department.

123. Present classification of officers meets the requirements of the service..... 41
124. Salaries of some of the city postmasters too high..... 41
125. Female Clerks..... 41
126. Promotions should extend over both Inside and Outside Service..... 41
- City Postmasters :—Classification and proposed salaries..... 41*
- Clerks in City Post Offices..... 42*
- Letter Carriers, Messengers, Box Collectors and Porters..... 42*
- Post Office Inspectors..... 42*
- Assistant Inspectors..... 42*
- Railway Mail Clerks..... 42*
- Marine Mail Officers..... 43*

Department of Marine and Fisheries.

127. Nature of Outside Service..... 43
128. Technical duties..... 43
129. Classification of certain branches..... 43

Registration of Shipping.

130. Legislation and regulations..... 43
131. Registration at too many places objectionable..... 44
132. Registration imposes additional work on Customs officers, for which they receive no consideration..... 44

Inspection of Steamboats.

133. Present arrangements require modifications so as to avoid conflict of authority and give better security to the public..... 44

Transferring Revenue Officers.

134. Necessary in the public interest..... 44

GENERAL OBSERVATIONS.

135. Aim of Commission to make the enquiry thorough..... 45
136. Men in the Service who can never become efficient..... 45
137. How the number of employés may be reduced..... 45
138. Unjust to dismiss employés so long as they are not guilty of mis-conduct..... 45
139. New theoretical organization to be considered in a second report..... 45
140. Recommendations of Commission would effectually reform the Service..... 46
141. An Act of Parliament necessary for dealing with the question effectually..... 46