

CONTENTS

	Page
INTRODUCTION.....	9
SECTION A—THE ALLOCATION OF JURISDICTION.....	13
The Civil Service and the Reallocation of Functions.....	14
CHAPTER I—The Social Services.....	15
1. The Disparity between Jurisdiction and Financial Resources.....	15
The Existing Division of Jurisdiction.....	15
Social Changes 1867-1930.....	15
Effect of Relief on Municipal Finances.....	18
Effect of Relief Expenditures on Provincial Finances.....	19
Increased Costs of Other Welfare Services.....	20
Municipal Administration of Relief.....	21
Grants-in-Aid.....	21
The Failure of Remedial Action.....	22
Economic and Financial Consequences of Divided Responsibility.....	22
2. The Reallocation of Responsibility in the Social Services.....	24
Prevention and Relief of Unemployment.....	24
Definition of Employability and Eligibility for Unemployment Aid.....	25
The Employment Service.....	26
Administration of Unemployment Aid.....	26
The Prevention of Unemployment.....	27
Relief to Primary Industries.....	29
Provincial Welfare Functions.....	30
Indigency or "Poor Relief".....	30
Widows' Pensions, Mothers' Allowances, Child Welfare.....	31
Old Age Pensions.....	31
3. State Medicine and Public Health.....	32
Division of Functions in Public Health.....	34
4. Social Insurance and Contributory Social Services.....	35
Social Insurance Aspects of the American Social Security Program.....	37
Unemployment Insurance.....	38
Contributory Old Age Pensions.....	40
Health Insurance.....	42
Workmen's Compensation.....	43
Jurisdiction in Social Insurance—Conclusions.....	43
5. The Financing of Provincial and Municipal Social Services.....	44
CHAPTER II—Labour Legislation.....	45
Wages; Hours of Labour; Age of Employment.....	46
Enforcement of Labour Legislation.....	47
Status of Labour Unions and Jurisdiction in Industrial Disputes.....	47
International Labour Conventions.....	48
Dominion-Provincial Labour Conferences.....	49
Conclusions.....	49
CHAPTER III—Education.....	50
CHAPTER IV—The Regulation of Certain Economic Activities.....	53
1. Marketing of Natural Products.....	53
2. Company Incorporation and Regulation.....	56
Incorporation of Companies.....	56
The Sale of Securities.....	57
Uniformity in Company returns.....	57
3. Fisheries.....	58

CONTENTS—*Continued*SECTION A—THE ALLOCATION OF JURISDICTION—Concluded

	PAGE
CHAPTER IV— Concluded
4. Insurance.....	59
Summary of Conclusions.....	62
5. Prevention of Interference with Interprovincial Trade.....	62
Examples of Provincial Protectionism.....	63
The case for and against Provincial Protection.....	63
Possible Methods of Prevention.....	65
Conclusions.....	67
CHAPTER V—Facilities for Dominion-Provincial Co-operation.....	68
1. Dominion-Provincial Conferences.....	68
2. Delegation of Powers.....	72
SECTION B—PUBLIC FINANCE.....	75
CHAPTER I—The Canadian Economy and Public Finance.....	77
CHAPTER II—Plan I.....	81
Summary of Plan I.....	86
1. Prince Edward Island.....	87
2. Nova Scotia.....	89
3. New Brunswick.....	91
4. Quebec.....	93
5. Ontario.....	96
6. Manitoba.....	98
7. Saskatchewan.....	100
8. Alberta.....	103
9. British Columbia.....	105
10. The Dominion.....	108
CHAPTER III—Tax Transfer Recommendations.....	111
1. Personal Income Taxes.....	111
2. Corporation Taxes.....	113
Annex—Provincial Corporation Taxes.....	115
3. Inheritance Taxes.....	117
Federal Administration of Inheritance Taxes.....	120
4. Summary of Tax Recommendations.....	121
CHAPTER IV—Dominion and Provincial Debts.....	122
CHAPTER V—National Adjustment Grants.....	125
Yardsticks.....	128
Educational and Welfare Services on the Canadian Average.....	128
Developmental and Conservation Services.....	129
CHAPTER VI—Plan II.....	131
Possible Additional Provisions for Plan II.....	135
CHAPTER VII—Municipal Finances.....	137
1. The Background.....	137
2. Municipal Functions.....	142
Education and Public Welfare.....	142
Streets and Roads.....	143
3. Municipal Revenues.....	144
Taxation of Real Estate.....	144
Tax Exempt Crown Property.....	146
4. Municipal Debts.....	147
Provincial Supervision of Municipal Borrowing.....	148
In Conclusion.....	149

CONTENTS—Continued

	PAGE
SECTION B—PUBLIC FINANCE— Concluded
CHAPTER VIII—Equity and Efficiency in Taxation.....	150
Efficiency in Taxation.....	150
Inefficiency of Taxation on Costs.....	150
Inefficiency Incidental to other Repressive Taxes.....	152
Inefficiency Arising from High Cost of Tax Compliance.....	154
Equity in Taxation.....	155
Equities as between Individuals.....	156
Inequities as between Different Regions of Canada.....	157
Questions of Equity and Efficiency relating to Particular Taxes.....	158
SECTION C—ADMINISTRATIVE ECONOMIES.....	165
CHAPTER I—Union of Certain Provinces.....	167
(a) Union of Prairie Provinces.....	167
(b) Union of the Maritime Provinces.....	169
(c) Appeal Courts, Maritime and Prairie Provinces.....	170
(d) The Quinquennial Census.....	171
CHAPTER II—Avoidance of Overlapping and Duplication.....	172
Agriculture.....	173
Agricultural Research.....	175
Experimental Farms.....	175
Grants to Fairs and Agricultural Organizations.....	176
Collection of Taxes.....	177
Public Health.....	178
Police Services.....	178
Unemployment Relief and Old Age Pensions.....	179
Research.....	180
Tourist and Trade Promotion.....	180
Statistics.....	181
Geological Survey.....	181
Labour Legislation.....	182
Jails; Penitentiaries; Law Enforcement.....	182
Transportation.....	182
Company Incorporation and Regulation; Insurance; Fisheries.....	183
Summary of Overlapping and Duplication.....	183
SECTION D—DOMINION-PROVINCIAL ASPECTS OF TRANSPORTATION.....	187
CHAPTER I—The Freight Rate Structure.....	189
The Order in Council of June 5, 1925.....	189
Summary of Representations.....	190
Ontario Representations.....	191
Submissions on Behalf of the Maritime Provinces.....	193
Saskatchewan Submission.....	193
Alberta Submissions.....	194
British Columbia Submission.....	194
The Nature and Control of the Present Freight Rates Structure.....	194
Proposal to Enlarge Powers of Board of Transport Commissioners.....	198
CHAPTER II—The Problem of Railway and Highway Competition.....	200
Jurisdiction over Transportation.....	200
CHAPTER III—British and United States Experience.....	209
British Experience.....	209
The United States Experience.....	210
Present Conditions.....	213
Rail-Motor Co-ordination.....	214
CHAPTER IV—The Basis for Dominion-Provincial Co-operation.....	216
Possible Methods of Co-operation.....	216
Taxation of Motor Carriers.....	218
Control of New Investment.....	218
Planning and Research.....	218
Summary.....	219

CONTENTS—Continued

	PAGE
SECTION E—MISCELLANEOUS SUBMISSIONS TO THE COMMISSION.....	223
SECTION F—SPECIAL CLAIMS.....	229
CHAPTER I—Compensation for the Adverse Effects of Federal Policies.....	230
CHAPTER II—Claim of British Columbia for Revision of Subsidies.....	234
History of Subsidy Relations with British Columbia.....	234
Summary of the Case for Revision of Subsidies.....	235
Claim Based on High Cost of Government.....	236
Claim Based on Contributions to Federal Revenues.....	237
Claims Based on Inequalities of Subsidies and Debt Allowance.....	238
(a) Nature of the Grant for Railway Lands.....	238
(b) The Assumed Population of 1871.....	239
(c) Revision of Per Capita Subsidies and Debt Allowances.....	240
Summary and Recommendations.....	243
CHAPTER III—British Columbia's Claim as to the Pacific Great Eastern Railway.....	244
CHAPTER IV—Saskatchewan's Claim for Revision of the Natural Resources Award.....	246
CHAPTER V—Claims Concerning Trade through Maritime Ports.....	247
The Transportation Provisions of Confederation.....	249
Meaning of Term "Improvements".....	249
Meaning of the Term "Seaboard".....	252
Operation of the Intercolonial Railway.....	253
National Transportation Policies and Maritime Ports.....	254
The "Short Line".....	255
The National Transcontinental.....	256
Controversy Over Freight Rates.....	257
CHAPTER VI—Other New Brunswick Claims.....	260
The Halifax Award.....	260
Compensation for Excess Freight Rates 1912-1927.....	262
CHAPTER VII—Prince Edward Island Claims.....	264
Continuous Communication with the Mainland.....	264
Cancellation of Land Purchase Loan.....	265
SECTION G—ABSTRACT OF THE LEADING RECOMMENDATIONS.....	269
INDEX.....	279

TABLES

	PAGE
Expenditures on Social Welfare by all Governments, 1913, 1921, 1926, 1930.....	17
Changes in Upper Age Groups 1871-1931.....	17
Per Capita Cost of Total Relief Expenditures, 1931, 1932, 1933, 1934, 1935, 1936, 1937.....	19
Relief Expenditures by Provincial and Municipal Governments as a Percentage of Current Revenue for 1930..	19
Dominion Loans to Provinces for Relief Purposes.....	20
Expenditures on Social Welfare by all Governments, 1926, 1930, 1937, 1939.....	20
Provincial Expenditures on Public Health, 1936.....	33
Effect of General Provisions of Plan I on Prince Edward Island.....	87
Budgetary Position of Prince Edward Island under Plan I.....	88
Effect of General Provisions of Plan I on Nova Scotia.....	89
Budgetary Position of Nova Scotia under Plan I.....	90
Effect of General Provisions of Plan I on New Brunswick.....	91
Budgetary Position of New Brunswick under Plan I.....	92
Effect of General Provisions of Plan I on Quebec.....	94
Budgetary Position of Quebec under Plan I.....	95
Effect of General Provisions of Plan I on Ontario.....	96
Budgetary Position of Ontario under Plan I.....	97
Effect of General Provisions of Plan I on Manitoba.....	98
Budgetary Position of Manitoba under Plan I.....	99
Effect of General Provisions of Plan I on Saskatchewan.....	101
Budgetary Position of Saskatchewan under Plan I.....	102
Effect of General Provisions of Plan I on Alberta.....	103
Budgetary Position of Alberta under Plan I.....	104
Effect of General Provisions of Plan I on British Columbia.....	106
Budgetary Position of British Columbia under Plan I.....	106
Additional Taxation per Family Necessary Under the Present System to put Provincial and Municipal Budgets in the Same Position as Provided by Plan I, Year 1937.....	110
Dominion, Provincial and Municipal Income Taxes Payable by a Married Man with No Children.....	111
Succession Duty Collections in Relation to Provincial Revenues, 1926-1937.....	119
Public Welfare Expenditures, 1937-9.....	119
Provincial Subsidies, 1937.....	126
Provincial and Municipal Relief Expenditures on Unemployed Employables, 1937.....	132
Municipal Expenditures, 1937.....	142
Municipal Revenues, 1937.....	144
Municipal Debts, 1937.....	147
Provincial Income Tax—Proportion of Gross Income.....	158
Dominion Income Tax Payable.....	161
Expenditures of the Prairie Provinces on Legislation and General Government in 1936.....	167
Expenditures of the Maritime Provinces on Legislation and General Government in 1936.....	169
Appeal Cases 1929 to 1938.....	170
Supreme Court Judges in Proportion to Population.....	170

ERRATA

P. 43, Col. 2. line 1, "judicial officers" should read "judges of the superior courts."
P. 93, Col. 2. line 37, insert p. 82.

CITATIONS

For brevity in footnotes references to Exhibits filed with the Commission are cited Ex. with the number of the exhibit following, (see Book III, p. 209, for list of Exhibits); references to Report of Proceedings are cited Ev.; and Provincial Briefs are usually referred to as Brief with the name of the Province following.