BREEZE: ON THE ORIGIN OF ECO-PHILOSOPHY

Sylvia Verity
Trumpeter

From beyond above
To one knows not where The unseen hand is felt
To blow away the webs of tangled thought Hold your breath
for fear this hand should pass you by
And be gone forever
A fleeting chance to feel
A spirit light of grace and charm
A spirit free
from bond of thought or deed
To travel to and fro with wanton bliss In knowledge that though not in form
Its hand has touched the souls of others
Ne'er to come again
