THE MOUNTAIN AND ME

Richard Langlais
Trumpeter

The mountain is everything
it can be;
there is nothing else
it can be,
but everything
that is a mountain
is also me running
along the farmer's path being careful with my knees.
I am the field of rapeseed
when running on two legs,
breathing heavily,
noticing the dark shadows,
the golden highlights,
as the enjoyment of the setting sun is deeply
thinking about missing you
loping along beside me, also being everything you are,
you the smiling field, the path thinking,
as I know that I am you
missing me.
