WHAT DO YOU SEE?

Angela Semmons
Trumpeter

In a world where cities wear grey coloured garments -- observe to match a grey earth, chokingly dusty with the hurried feet of humanity, - observe the observer there are those that dwell in an invisible land - and close your eyes beside river banks hidden in mists and whispering winds - what do you see?
In the world of cities they breathe in car fumes - breathe gently but in their dwelling place, - look in elbows resting upon earthly green cushions -- listen it is the healing perfume of a jasmine breeze they inhale - can you hear?
