REGULAR MEMBER APPLICANT QUESTIONNAIRE PRE-EMPLOYMENT SUITABILITY, RELIABILITY AND SECURITY POLYGRAPH INTERVIEW AND EXAMINATION

Before writing answers to the questions contained in this form (RCMP GRC 5096e), Applicants are advised to:

- carefully read the information and notices on Pages 1, 2, and 3;
- read, initial and sign the Declaration, Acknowledgment, and Consent on Page 4;
- follow the instructions listed on Page 5.

PRE-EMPLOYMENT POLYGRAPH INTERVIEW and EXAMINATION

The Pre-Employment Polygraph (PEP) Interview and Examination is part of the RCMP Regular Member Recruiting Process. The PEP is used to assist in determining suitability and reliability, and to contribute to the security screening assessment of a RCMP Regular Member Applicant.

You, as the Applicant, must first complete the Regular Member Applicant Questionnaire, Pre-Employment Suitability, Reliability and Security Polygraph Interview and Examination (referred to herein as the Applicant Questionnaire). The questions contained in this Applicant Questionnaire pertain to your honesty, integrity and ethics. Should you be successful at all preceding stages of the Recruiting Process, you will be requested to participate in a PEP Interview during which you will be asked to undergo a Polygraph Examination. The purpose of the PEP Interview and Examination is to assist in verifying your truthfulness, and in verifying that you are the person you claim to be in your employment application forms, questionnaires, and interviews.

The RCMP is not looking for perfect people, but will recruit applicants who reflect the RCMP's core values, and who, in the RCMP's assessment, are the best qualified to serve Canadians as RCMP Regular Members.

NOTICE REGARDING THE APPLICANT QUESTIONNAIRE

Your decision to complete the Applicant Questionnaire must be voluntary, based on your desire to pursue a career as a RCMP Regular Member. You may withdraw or stop the application process at any time. You may refuse to provide answers to any or all of the questions contained in the Applicant Questionnaire. Such a refusal may result in your disqualification from the Recruiting Process.

You should answer the questions contained in the Applicant Questionnaire accurately, completely, thoroughly, and honestly to the best of your knowledge and belief. An incomplete Applicant Questionnaire may result in your disqualification from the Recruiting Process.

You are not obliged to provide any information in the Applicant Questionnaire that relates to a conviction for which a pardon has been received, or a conviction that was processed pursuant to the Young Offenders Act (R.S.C., 1985, c. Y-1, now repealed) or the Youth Criminal Justice Act (S.C., 2002, c.1).

You are under no obligation to disclose any information regarding a crime where you were a victim.

You may amend your answer(s) to any question(s) contained in the Applicant Questionnaire at any time prior to the scheduled date for the PEP Interview and Examination by contacting the Recruiting Office.

Deceit, dishonesty, or non-disclosure in any part of the application process are likely to result in your disqualification from the Recruiting Process and/or any future employment at the RCMP.

If you apply for any other employment with, or at, the RCMP within the next five (5) years, the information provided in the Applicant Questionnaire may be used to determine your suitability and reliability, and for security screening. This may result in your disqualification from the employment process in question.

If you are currently employed by or working at the RCMP, the information provided in the Applicant Questionnaire may be used to determine your suitability and reliability, and for security screening. This may result in your disqualification from the employment process in question. This may also lead to, where applicable, the imposition of discipline, the revocation of an existing security clearance, and/or possible dismissal from current employment.

The information is collected under the authority of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police Act (R.S.C., 1985, c. R-10), and is protected and managed in conformity with the provisions of the Privacy Act (R.S.C., 1985, c. P-21).

The information collected will be stored by the RCMP in Personal Information Bank CMP PPU 065, and may be disclosed pursuant to the Privacy Act. However, if an Applicant admits to having committed a serious and undetected criminal offence, or is deemed to pose a serious risk to the safety of others, the RCMP may use or disclose specific information for a law enforcement or public safety purpose. While cases of such use and disclosure outside of the Recruiting Process are rare and exceptional, the RCMP strongly discourages any Applicant from completing the Applicant Questionnaire or attending the PEP Interview and Examination if you believe this Notice applies to you.

If you admit to having committed one or a number of serious criminal offence(s) on the Applicant Questionnaire or during the PEP Interview or Examination, be advised that the information may be disclosed to entities with lawful authority to collect such information (e.g. police of jurisdiction or child protection agency).

If, in light of the information provided on the Applicant Questionnaire or during the PEP Interview or Examination, you are deemed to pose a serious threat to others, be advised that the information may be disclosed to entities with lawful authority to collect such information (e.g. police of jurisdiction or child protection agency).

Such disclosures could also lead to an investigation, arrest, charge(s), criminal prosecution, conviction, and, ultimately, imposition of a sentence.
