

Assiniboine
Community College is a progressive post-secondary institution providing individuals with knowledge, skills and credentials that are highly valued in the workforce.

Affirmative Action will be a factor in the selection process; therefore, applicants are asked to indicate if they are a member of a designated group; Aboriginal, visible minority, person with a disability or female.

We thank you for your interest, however, only those selected for further consideration will be contacted.

Instructor, Aboriginal Community Development

Brandon

Competition #27-02/03

Salary: $36,578 - $58,990 per annum

(depending on qualifications)

This two-year diploma program focuses on both social and economic development of Aboriginal Communities and on issues that affect Aboriginal people. Graduates will find employment with band office administrations, tribal councils, school divisions, women's shelters, government departments and social and human service organizations.

As instructor, you will work in a dynamic changing environment and teach a diversified slate of courses. Subject areas will include: Aboriginal Religions; Business Communications; Conflict Resolution; Family Systems; Healthy Communities; Negotiation, Theory and Practice; Organizational Behaviour; Planning Conferences; Project Planning; Seminar in Addictions; Topics and Violence Issues, Counseling and Practicum. Integrating employability skills content into the curriculum is expected.

You will have an appropriate degree supplemented with several years of related experience. You will have excellent communication skills with a demonstrated ability to work as part of a team. Knowledge of Microsoft Word and a valid driver's license are requirements. Experience working with diverse cultures and teaching experience in an adult environment is desirable. Preference will be given to Aboriginal candidates.

If you are interested in this opportunity, please forward your résumé and cover letter by November 8, 2002 to:

Human Resources Division Assiniboine Community College

1430 Victoria Avenue East
Brandon, Manitoba R7A 2A9

Fax: (204) 726-7013

E-mail: humanresources@assiniboine.net