

DATA SAMPLER

INJURIES ASSOCIATED WITH PLATFORM SHOES

CHIRPP database, females, all ages, 1996-2003, 107 cases

PROPORTION OF CASES PER YEAR

CIRCUMSTANCES

AGE DISTRIBUTION

OTHER RESULTS

- 80% of cases involved the ankle or the foot.
- Most frequent injuries were sprain/strain or dislocation (44%) followed by fractures (26%).
- No patients were admitted to hospital, but 47.7% required treatment with medical follow-up only if necessary and 37.4% required treatment with medical follow-up required.

For additional information on the CHIRPP program, please contact the Injury & Child Maltreatment Section, by phone at (613) 957-4689 by FAX at (613) 941-9927 or visit our website at <http://www.phac-aspc.gc.ca/injury-bles/>