

Elisabeth Jacquet DE LA GUERRE (1659-1729) was a French composer and harpsichordist from a family of professional musicians, and a child prodigy. Louis XIV took interest in her abilities and supported her career; many of her works are dedicated to him. She composed sonatas, harpsichord works, sacred choral pieces and three cantatas.

Click on the "◀◀" button above to return to the text.