

TRIAD is a chord containing three notes: the root, the third and the fifth. O Canada begins on the third of the triad (B), followed by the fifth (D) and root (G) respectively.

(The New International Dictionary of Music)

Click on the "◀◀" button above to return to the text.