

Adrien Louis Victor BOIELDIEU (1815-1883), son of François Adrien Boieldieu, was a French composer and teacher who studied under his father at the Paris Conservatoire and later taught there. He wrote several comic operas, some of which were successfully performed at the Opéra-Comique.

Click on the "◀◀" button above to return to the text.