

Charles Wugk SABATIER (1819-1862) was born in France and came to Montreal in 1848 where he taught Calixa Lavallée. "As a truly gifted virtuoso he won the respect of his colleagues; as a tempermental and restless but handsome man, inclined to an immoderate and bohemian lifestyle, he was a fascinating subject for gossip among the public" EMC 2.

Click on the "◀◀" button above to return to the text.