

John Philip SOUSA (1854-1932) was an American bandmaster known as "The March King". He led the Marine Corps Band, then formed his own immensely popular band in 1922. He is best known for his songs and marches.

Click on the "◀◀" button above to return to the text.