

Is the class of product exempt from testing? (Refer to section U.1.1)	YES <input type="checkbox"/> NO <input type="checkbox"/>
Question one - Has the class been tested previously?	Award :
- Yes	0 points
- No	4 points
If yes, what were the results of the testing for the previous year?
- passed first round of testing successfully	0 points
- failed first round but passed second round successfully	1 point
- failed first two rounds but passed third round successfully	3 points
- failed first, second and third round but successfully returned to compliance	5 points
Question two - Has the establishment modified its manufacturing practice for the class of product?
- Yes	2 points
- No	0 points
Question three - What were the results of generic E. coli (biotype I) testing for the previous year?
- consistently met or occasionally exceeded the Performance Verification Criteria (PVC)	0 points
- regularly exceeded the PVC (twice or more per month on average)	2 points
Question four - Have written instructions been received from the CFIA Program Network Center which indicate that testing for this class is to be performed during the upcoming year?
- Yes	5 points
- No	0 points
Testing for Salmonella shall be done on:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- the class of product with the highest point score (in case of tie, testing for Salmonella will be done on the product which is produced in greater quantity); and</li> <li>- any class of products which have a total point score of 5 or more.</li> </ul>	