

CV of Douglas Hill, P.Eng.

Education

B.Ap.Sc. Bio-Resource Engineering, University of British Columbia, 1989

Experience

2002 to present – Head, Environmental Management Section, Environmental Protection Division
Regional Operation, BC Ministry of Environment, Williams Lake

- Responsible for managing the provincial environmental management activities in the region. This includes supervision of technical staff, liaison with other natural resource agencies, planning and reporting on compliance verification activities, oversight of enforcement activities, statutory decision maker under the Environmental Management Act, undertaking consultation with First Nations, responding to appeals, resolution of complaints, and liaison with other agencies.

1998 to 2002 – Senior Environmental Protection Officer, Environmental Protection Division Regional Operation, BC Ministry of Environment, Williams Lake

- Lead staff person regarding waste management issues at mine sites in region. Responsible for ensuring compliance with permit requirements for waste discharges, assessing permit applications, negotiating terms and conditions of permits, recommending to statutory decision maker under the Waste Management Act, reviewer of waste management aspects of major mine projects, and site reclamation in the region.

1991 to 1998 – Municipal Pollution Prevention Officer, Pollution Prevention Division Regional Operation,
BC Ministry of Environment, Williams Lake

- Responsible for ensuring compliance with requirements for municipal waste facilities, assessing permit applications, negotiating terms and conditions of permits for municipal solid and liquid waste, and working with local government to develop waste management plans.

1989 – 1991 – Waste Management Technician, Waste Management Branch, BC Environment,
Prince George

- Responsible for compliance promotion and verification activities related to municipal waste discharge authorizations, including sampling and initiating enforcement actions