

James Arnott

Manager, Wastewater Section
Public & Resources Sectors Directorate
Environmental Stewardship Branch
Environment Canada

Not Relevant

Profile:

Twenty years of experience in environmental protection at various levels of government in Canada.

Experience in the planning, managing and directing the activities of a multi-disciplinary work unit.

Experience in developing and maintaining partnerships or working arrangements with external organizations (e.g. ENGOs; federal, provincial or municipal governments, first nations; industry or academia).

Experience in providing strategic advice and recommendations to senior management on scientific, technical studies and legislative developments, policy and program advice.

Wide range of knowledge of environmental protection legislation and policies in Canada including responsibilities of Environment Canada in the context of federal, provincial and territorial jurisdictions.

Knowledge of the key environmental protection challenges/issues facing Canada today in the context of program delivery and the science associated with addressing these challenges and issues.

Ability to direct and manage programs and teams to achieve results.

Ability to analyze scientific, legal and policy information to provide strategic advice and brief senior management on complex issues.

Ability to negotiate collaborative multi-agency arrangements to effectively achieve program objectives.

Education:

University of Waterloo, Bachelor of Environmental Studies

Employment:

March 2009 - present

Environment Canada (ESB-PRSD)

Manager, Wastewater Section

April 2002 – March 2009

Environment Canada (ESB-PRSD)

Head, Provincial and Municipal Sectors

Wastewater Section

September 2001 – March 2002

Environment Canada (EPS-ETAD)

Senior Technical Coordinator - Wastewater

January 2000 – September 2001

Environment Canada, Ontario Region

Compliance Promotion Officer

June 1999 – December 1999

Regional Municipality of Ottawa-Carleton

Supervisor, Wastewater Process Control

June 1994 – June 1999

Regional Municipality of Ottawa-Carleton

Industrial Pollution Compliance Officer (By-law and Provincial Offences Officer)

June 1991 – June 1994

City of Brantford, Ontario

Pollution Control Inspector (By-law and Provincial Offences Officer)

May 1988 – May 1991

Regional Municipality of Waterloo, Ontario

Environmental Field Officer

February – April 1988

ELI Eco Logic Inc., Rockwood, Ontario

Project Co-ordinator