

JULIA BERARDINUCCI, B.Sc., M.Sc., P.Ag.

Career Chronology

District Manager, Metro Vancouver – Squamish District Ministry of Forests, Lands and Natural Resources Operations South Coast Region	Dec. 2010 – Present
Manager, Water Stewardship Ministry of Environment, South Coast Region	Sept. 2006 – Dec. 2010
Manager, Crown Land Adjudication Ministry of Agriculture and Lands, Coast Region	Sept. 2005 – Sept. 2006
Manager, Land and Water Land and Water BC; Ministry of Agriculture and Lands	August 2004 - Sept. 2005
Advisor, Water Power Project Land and Water BC Inc.	August 2002 – August 2004
Land Officer Ministry of Environment, Lands and Parks; BC Assets and Lands Corp.	March 1998 – July 2002
Consultant - Water Resources Management Independent consultant	Nov. 1997 - March 1998
Watershed Tours Co-ordinator Watershed Management Division, Greater Vancouver Regional District	May - Sept. 1997

PROFESSIONAL CERTIFICATION

Professional Agrologist (P.Ag), BC Institute of Agrologists (BCIA), (June 2000 - present)

EDUCATION

M.Sc. Resource Management and Environmental Studies

Natural Science and Engineering Research Council Scholarship

University of British Columbia, Vancouver, BC, 1994 - 1997

- M.Sc. thesis: “Local Groundwater Management for British Columbia: Linking Data to Protection Practices.”
- Research and course work on applied and pure science subjects, integrated land and water management, planning and Geographic Information Systems

B.Sc. Environmental Geography

Concordia University, Montreal, PQ, 1987-1991

- Honours research in snowpack runoff impact on stream pH.
- Interdisciplinary course work in hydrology, human and physical geography, geology, biology, cartography and environmental impact assessment.
- Borgdan Zaborsky Medal for Geography, top-of-class graduation medal - 1991