Can you give me a call when you have a minute (or should I say....despite the fact that you'll have a minute in about 2012, could you give me a call and I promise to not take up more than a few minutes).

I need to talk to Sarah about TAPD opposition to PICFI negotiations, and potential refusal to sign off on agreements because of incorporation of FSC future needs into coastwide allocation framework. We've got a real problem brewing and I want to get your perspective before I get cranky with Sarah.

I thought she understood the issues but it seems everything is reverting back to the way it was. I don't want to say too much over email so could you give me a call? Thanks.
