

Biography for the Cohen Commission

Grand Chief Ken Malloway

Grand Chief Malloway, also known as Wileleq, is an active fisherman and member of the Stó:lō Tribal Council. He is a Hereditary Chief of the Chilliwack Tribe and presently a council member for the Kwaw-Kwaw-Apilt First Nation, where he carries the fisheries portfolio. He has been actively involved in fisheries management with the Stó:lō community since 1985.

His current involvement in fisheries-related processes includes:

- Chair, Fraser Valley Aboriginal Fisheries Society (FVAFS)
- Vice President, Fraser Salmon Table
- Member, Pacific Salmon Commission, Fraser River Panel
- Member, Monitoring and Compliance Panel, Integrated Salmon Dialogue Forum (ISDF)
- Member, Fraser Valley/Lower Fraser, First Nations Fisheries Council (FNFC)
- Member, Fraser River Aboriginal Fisheries Secretariat (FRAFS), Executive Committee
- Member, Forum on Conservation & Harvest Planning for Fraser Salmon (Forum)
- Member, Lower Fraser Fisheries Alliance, Executive Committee