5 THE REGISTRAR: Please be seated.

6 Veuillez-vous asseoir.

7 THE COMMISSIONER: Good morning.

8 MR. DAVID: Good morning,

9 Mr. Commissioner.

10 We have Nancy Collins with us this
11 morning. Ms Collins is with DFAIT and was a 12 collaborator of Maureen Girvan -- collaborator in 13 the sense that Ms Collins works out of the Ottawa
14 JPO office, and so we will have the Ottawa pendant
15 of the Girvan testimony.

16 Could we swear in Ms Collins?

17 THE COMMISSIONER: Do you wish to 18 be sworn, Ms Collins?

19 MS COLLINS: Yes.

20 SWORN: NANCY COLLINS

21 THE COMMISSIONER: And your full
22 name?

23 MS COLLINS: Nancy Collins.

24 THE COMMISSIONER: Thank you. You
25 may be seated.

1 MR. DAVID: As I was saying,
2 Ms Collins was desk officer for the United States
3 with DFAIT headquarters here in Ottawa.

4 If we could file Ms Collins' CV at 5 this point, I would appreciate it.

6 THE COMMISSIONER: P-81.

7 MR. DAVID: Thank you.

8 EXHIBIT NO. P-81: Curriculum
9 Vitae of Nancy Collins

10 EXAMINATION

11 MR. DAVID: Ms Collins, I would
12 like to review a few highlights of your CV with 13 you.

14 First of all, you have been in the 15 employ of DFAIT since what year?

16 MS COLLINS: Exactly Foreign
17 Affairs, since 1999.

18 MR. DAVID: Since 1999. I see
19 that you have overseas experience with the 20 Canadian government going back to July of 1996?

21 MS COLLINS: That is correct.

22 MR. DAVID: You are presently a
23 Case Management Officer within the headquarters
24 office of the Department of Foreign Affairs, and 25 your particular task is with regard to the United

1 States?

2 MS COLLINS: That is correct.

3 MR. DAVID: This is a position,
4 Ms Collins, that you have occupied since November
5 of 2001?

6 MS COLLINS: Yes.

7 MR. DAVID: So during the relevant
8 period that we are concerned with, what we call
9 the Arar chronology, you were in fact in the same
10 position?

11 MS COLLINS: Yes, I was.

12 MR. DAVID: And previous to 13 occupying that position of desk officer or case
14 management officer, you were involved with the 15 emergency operations department of the Department
16 of Foreign Affairs in Ottawa?

17 MS COLLINS: Yes, I was.

18 MR. DAVID: Which is what we have 19 referred to in the past on the organization chart
20 as JPE?

21 MS COLLINS: Yes.

22 MR. DAVID: And just to situate
23 us, Ms Collins, Ms Helen Harris was the 24 director --

25 MS COLLINS: At that time, she

1 was.

2 MR. DAVID: At that time, okay.
3 And this is a position that you occupied from 4 August 1999 to November of 2001?

5 MS COLLINS: Yes.

6 MR. DAVID: Previous to that, you
7 were posted with the Department of Foreign Affairs
8 in China?

9 MS COLLINS: I was not. I was a
10 spouse.

11 MR. DAVID: Okay.

12 MS COLLINS: And I was employed at 13 the embassy.

14 MR. DAVID: I understand.

15 Just coming back in terms of your 16 responsibilities as case management officer for 17 the United States, your CV provides quite a bit of 18 detail, and I would just like to review that with 19 you.

20 MS COLLINS: Yes.

21 MR. DAVID: In fact of the five
22 bullets that are listed, there are maybe three I
23 would like to spend some time with you on, and 24 that's to describe the work you do as a case
25 management officer.

1                   The first bullet refers to the 2 fact that you manage requests for emergency
3 assistance for Canadians arrested in the United
4 States and abroad. That you deal with various 5 situations, such as extradition, death penalties,
6 deportation, immigration issues, terrorism, and 7 matters concerning the Vienna Convention of 8 consular relations.

9                   So if you could just maybe add the 10 real-life realities of this description.

11                   MS COLLINS: Sure. We have 12 currently about 1,700 active cases of arrest or 13 detentions in the United States. Throughout the 14 year we probably have in the norm of 2,500 to 15 3,000 cases, but all given time I have as a case
16 management officer in the United States 1,700
17 active cases.

18                   We also deal with extradition
19 because we have people who are in Canada who are 20 going to be extradited into the United States who 21 will become an arrest and detention case to us.

22                   We also have Canadian citizens and 23 other people who are also arrested in the United 24 States who actually are pending an extradition
25 back to Canada.

1                   As for the death penalties, we
2                   have dealt with various -- actually not various 3                   but a few cases. We have now one Canadian that is 4                   under the death penalty in the United States at 5                   the present. So we have worked on two other cases
6                   in order to assist with the attorneys to avoid the 7                   death penalty.

8                   Immigration/deportation -- anybody
9                   who has committed an offence in the United States
10                  are deemed deportable. We also have people that 11                  have acquired -- sorry, have entered the United 12                  States illegally or have overstayed their stay 13                  where they will face a deportation, and that's the 14                  deportation.

15                  Immigration issues is anyone who 16                  has -- at the time back in 2001, we were dealing 17                  with the National Security Entry Exit
18                  Registration, which is the NSEERS. We also work 19                  with immigration issues with people who are having 20                  difficulties in renewing their green cards or 21                  other cases.

22                  Terrorism, I think that's a fairly
23                  new one since post-9/11, where we had to deal with 24                  a couple of -- well, a few cases where people were 25                  arrested for alleged terrorism activities or

1           suspected terror activities or are being charged
2           with activities.

3                           MR. DAVID:  As you know, with 4           Ms Girvan we have covered the cases of Mr. X and 5           Mr. Y, and I understand that you are quite 6           familiar with those two scenarios.

7                           MS COLLINS:  At the time I was 8           working on the cases.

9                           MR. DAVID:  And you would be in a
10          position to give us some description, some detail, 11          about the chronology of those.

12                          MS COLLINS:  Some general context,
13          yes.

14                          MR. DAVID:  We will come back to 15          that.

16                          The third bullet on your CV
17          concerning again your position as case management
18          officer, refers to the fact that you:

19                                   "alert and work with federal 20                                   Canadian authorities"

21                                   And you give as an example
22          Canadian Citizenship and Immigration as well as 23          the Canadian Border Services Agency, what we call
24          CBSA:

25                                   "... in conjunction with

1                   relevant authorities of
2                   foreign countries to resolve
3                   cases with respect for 4                   Canadian interests and 5                   rights."

6                   Perhaps you could give us a more
7                   detailed appreciation of that function.

8                   MS COLLINS: Yes. Number one and 9                   foremost is that when a person is arrested in the 10                  United States -- I will just talk about the United 11                  States, but we also try to identify and verify the 12                  Canadian citizenship of the individual. So we 13                  work with Citizenship and Immigration if they are 14                  a landed immigrant or if they were a naturalized
15                  citizen. And we also work with vital statistics
16                  to get confirmation of the Canadian citizenship,
17                  because it's going to be important for us on two 18                  aspects. One is if the offender wants to apply 19                  for a treaty transfer of offenders, or in the 20                  eventuality that they will be deported to Canada.

21                  So we do work with these 22                  organizations and also with the border so that we 23                  facilitate travel back to Canada.

24                  As you know, a Canadian has a
25                  right of entry. When a person is normally

1           arrested and is deported, they don't necessarily
2           have the documentations to return to Canada.
3           Therefore, we try to facilitate their entry back
4           into Canada.

5                           MR. DAVID: All right; thank you.

6                           My final reference would be to the 7           fifth bullet on your CV, concerning again your
8           function as case management officer, and it
9           describes that you:

10                           "... provide staff at 11           Canadian missions with expert
12           advice to enhance their 13           performance and adherence to 14           corporate policies, recommend
15           courses of action to senior
16           DFAIT authorities up to the 17           Minister, the Prime Minister,
18           MPs and other Ministers of 19           the Crown concerned with 20           distressed Canadians."

21                           Could you provide us with an 22           appreciation of that function?

23                           MS COLLINS: Sure. In the United
24           States we have one embassy and we have 12
25           consulates, that are divided into consulate

1           generals and also consulates. So when a person at 2           the mission needs an advice on what to do, or they 3           have a case that they are not sure on how to 4           proceed, they will come to me and ask for my 5           advice.

6                               We go within the context of the 7           MCI, which is the Manual of Consular Instructions,
8           and also with the legal, because we do have at 9           headquarters a little bit more, I guess, easy
10          reference to speak with our legal.

11                              So they will come to me and ask
12          me, "What should I do? Give me some advice." And 13          what I do is, if I cannot answer, I will seek the 14          advice and get back to them.

15                              As for the recommended courses of 16          action for senior officials, if I value that a
17          case is going to be a high-profile case or a
18          sensitive case or a case that needs to be brought 19          up to the attention of senior officials, then it
20          is my responsibility to ensure that the Minister,
21          the Parliamentary Secretary, our directors, and 22          everybody that needs to know, are informed.

23                              MR. DAVID: The final reference I
24          would like to make to your CV is the fact that in 25          1998 you followed what is called the Consular

1 Programs Officer's Course?

2 MS COLLINS: Yes.

3 MR. DAVID: Which is essentially a
4 training program, I understand, for consular
5 officers, for the position of consular officers?

6 MS COLLINS: Yes, that's correct.

7 MR. DAVID: Could you describe the 8 course, its duration, and briefly cover the 9 contents of this course and the purpose it serves.

10 MS COLLINS: Sure. I believe the 11 course was one-week long. We touched all aspects
12 of the consular mandates and services. That deals
13 with medical repatriation, passports, arrest
14 detention, wellbeing/whereabouts, assistance, lost
15 communications. And that gave an overview of what 16 is required of us and what can we do to assist the 17 individual in time of crisis.

18 MR. DAVID: All right.

19 I would like to refer you to the 20 organization chart and in fact it's to a very 21 specific reference, just to situate your office,
22 Ms Collins.

23 That would be Exhibit P-51. I
24 believe it's the third page of that exhibit that 25 situates your office.

1                   If you go to page 3, it's the Case
2                   Management JPO organization chart, and I believe
3                   your name appears in the second column, the third
4                   box down, at the bottom of the page --

5                   MS COLLINS: Yes.

6                   MR. DAVID: You see that? Okay.

7                   So we have your name that appears
8                   as a Case Management Officer?

9                   MS COLLINS: Yes.

10                  MR. DAVID: And we also have Myra
11                  Pastyr-Lupul, whose name also appears as a Case
12                  Management Officer, underneath you?

13                  MS COLLINS: Yes.

14                  MR. DAVID: And your immediate
15                  superior was John Carisse at the relevant time?

16                  MS COLLINS: Yes, it was.

17                  MR. DAVID: And Mr. Carisse was 18                  replaced in his function by Mr. Dave Dyet?

19                  MS COLLINS: Yes. No.

20                  Mr. Carisse was replaced by Dave Dyet.

21                  MR. DAVID: Yes.

22                  MS COLLINS: Sorry, yes.

23                  MR. DAVID: That was in 2003, I
24                  believe, that that replacement took place?

25                  And in effect the director of the

1 JPO is Mr. Gar Pardy?

2 MS COLLINS: The director of --
3 the Director General of JPO. He is the Director
4 General of all consular programs.

5 MR. DAVID: So you report to John
6 Carisse and to Gar Pardy?

7 MS COLLINS: Yes.

8 MR. DAVID: In terms of being a
9 desk officer here in Ottawa for DFAIT, you were 10 responsible for our relevant time period for the 11 United States.

12 Were you the only officer to play
13 that role?

14 MS COLLINS: At that time I was,
15 yes.

16 MR. DAVID: And since that time,
17 has the situation changed?

18 MS COLLINS: Since July 2003, I
19 now have Mr. Lindsay Highsler(ph), who has now
20 undertaken certain functions of responsibilities
21 within the United States.

22 MR. DAVID: So in effect there are 23 now two people that are handling your function for 24 the United States?

25 MS COLLINS: Yes. We have

1 separated a couple of the functions.

2 MR. DAVID: What did that bring
3 out -- is that because of the workload?

4 MS COLLINS: The workload is
5 extremely demanding, yes.

6 MR. DAVID: And is it fair to say
7 that the United States is probably the country
8 that provides the most work in terms of JPO?

9 MS COLLINS: I don't know if I can 10 say that, but I can tell you that it is extremely 11 busy.

12 MR. DAVID: Okay. In terms of the 13 embassy, in terms of the 12, I believe you said 12
14 consular offices in all for the United States?

15 MS COLLINS: Twelve in all, yes.

16 MR. DAVID: How many people would 17 be dealing with you directly in terms of --

18 MS COLLINS: If you think about
19 it, it's two to three people per consulate.

20 MR. DAVID: So in the area of 30
21 to 40 people. Would that be a fair assessment?

22 MS COLLINS: Around the area of 30
23 people, yes.

24 MR. DAVID: Those would be people
25 involved directly with providing consular

1 services?

2 MS COLLINS: Consular officers and
3 consular program officers and consuls.

4 MR. DAVID: Okay. And at the
5 relevant time, Ms Collins, how many JPO officers,
6 case management officers, were working in Ottawa
7 for the entire --

8 MS COLLINS: Well, we can go from 9 the chart. We had one, two, three -- we had 12
10 fulltime consular officers at that time.

11 MR. DAVID: And that was covering
12 the entire planet?

13 MS COLLINS: That's correct.

14 MR. DAVID: For the role that you
15 play, we have seen some of the description of the 16 functions that you carry out in your CV. Just to 17 summarize, is it a fair assessment that you act as 18 a reference point for the various consular
19 officers --

20 MS COLLINS: And with families as 21 well.

22 MR. DAVID: And with families,
23 okay. Be they the families in the United States
24 or in Canada?

25 MS COLLINS: That's correct.

1 MR. DAVID: Okay. You provide
2 advice concerning policy, DFAIT policy, to the 3 consular missions?

4 MS COLLINS: Yes, I could.

5 MR. DAVID: Okay. But you are
6 basically a resource person for a consular officer
7 in the United States?

8 MS COLLINS: Yes, I am.

9 MR. DAVID: In terms of the
10 authorizations that may be sometimes sought by a 11 consular officer, do you play a role in terms of 12 seeking authorizations from superiors?

13 MS COLLINS: Absolutely.

14 MR. DAVID: Could you give some 15 examples of the kinds of situations that require 16 your intervention for seeking authorizations?

17 Would the issuance of a diplomatic
18 note be an example?

19 MS COLLINS: Absolutely. We can
20 go back on the issuance of a diplomatic note.

21 Consul generals and consulates do
22 not send diplomatic notes. They are normally sent 23 either from Foreign Affairs or directly from the 24 embassy.

25 A diplomatic note is a formal --

1           it's the highest level of formal written to 2           another country to raise -- you can raise -- it's
3           a last resort we use it. I think Maureen used it
4           as a weaponry.

5                           When a person comes to us and asks
6           us about using a diplomatic note, we have to weigh 7           in of the pros and the cons of the diplomatic 8           notes.

9                           MR. DAVID: We will be covering
10          the use of diplomatic notes in quite some detail a
11          little later on in your examination. At this 12          point I am just looking for examples of situations
13          where you are intervening in terms of 14          authorization.

15                          MS COLLINS: Sure. I can give you
16          another example.

17                          We have an instance where a
18          Canadian citizen dies in prison. The mission is 19          informed. The mission will provide me with a 20          report and asks me what should they do. What we 21          do is we will weigh -- we will read everything
22          that is going on and see if the protest to the 23          U.S. is deemed reasonable or not.

24                          MR. DAVID: Okay. Now, if I am a 25          Canadian and I have a relative that is in the

1 United States that is experiencing some problems,
2 do I call you directly?

3 In other words, how does it come
4 to your attention that a Canadian or a family of a
5 Canadian requires the services of your office?

6 MS COLLINS: It can come under
7 various ways. They could have contacted the 8 emergency operation centre, JPE, after hours.
9 They could have received my name or my contact
10 number through various contacts, their MPs, I
11 guess from our website under international.gc.ca
12 as well, or through the mission. The mission may 13 have been in contact directly with the individual
14 or a friend.

15 Normally what they would do is we
16 try to facilitate that all calls in Canada come
17 through Foreign Affairs, and calls from the United 18 States stay within Foreign Affairs. It's not 19 necessarily done all that. We can't dictate the 20 family to call me only and not call the consulate,
21 so it's whatever it feels perfectly capable
22 between the two.

23 MR. DAVID: And in carrying out
24 your functions here in Ottawa, are you dealing 25 directly with U.S. officials in handling specific

1 cases?

2 MS COLLINS: No.

3 MR. DAVID: So whose
4 responsibility does that fall upon?

5 MS COLLINS: It falls under the
6 responsibilities of the missions.

7 MR. DAVID: In coming back to the 8 workload description, you referred to the fact
9 that there are approximately 1,700 active files at 10 any given time concerning the United States?

11 MS COLLINS: Yes.

12 MR. DAVID: And that there are 13 approximately 3,000 files per year, on an annual 14 basis that are coming from the United States?

15 MS COLLINS: Yes.

16 MR. DAVID: In terms of detainees,
17 worldwide Canadian detainees abroad, do you know
18 what percentage the United States represents?

19 MS COLLINS: I believe it's in the 20 85 per cent.

21 MR. DAVID: So it's a very high
22 percentage. The vast majority of Canadians that 23 are detained abroad are detained in the United 24 States.

25 MS COLLINS: In the United States.

1 MR. DAVID: And in terms of cases
2 where Ottawa is required to intervene, do you have 3 any idea of the number of cases that there is 4 direct intervention from the Ottawa office?

5 MS COLLINS: There are a few, but
6 not many. Numbers? I would say about -- less
7 than a dozen.

8 MR. DAVID: So the vast majority
9 of detained Canadian cases are dealt with by the 10 local missions in the United States?

11 MS COLLINS: Correct.

12 MR. DAVID: Are you informed,
13 however, of all the cases that do exist in the 14 United States, or are you only coming --

15 MS COLLINS: Just about.

16 MR. DAVID: What is coming across
17 your office, is it only the cases where you are 18 intervening directly, or are you somehow looped
19 into the existence of cases?

20 MS COLLINS: Through CAMANT, I am
21 normally infocopied on the majority of the cases
22 in the United States.

23 MR. DAVID: Obviously then there
24 is certainly a distinction to be made in terms of 25 the various complexities that may exist in

1 handling a situation. There are cases that are 2 very complex and there are cases that are very 3 simple.

4 MS COLLINS: Yes.

5 MR. DAVID: Would that be a fair
6 way of putting it?

7 MS COLLINS: I guess so, yes.

8 MR. DAVID: If you had to describe
9 what Mr. Arar's case represented in terms of 10 complexity, could you gauge the complexity of that 11 case in terms of your services and the services of 12 the mission?

13 MS COLLINS: Mr. Arar's case at 14 the very beginning was an ordinary consular case,
15 an arrest/detention, until I guess when it
16 developed and we lost Mr. Arar. Then of course it
17 became a higher consular case, absolutely.

18 MR. DAVID: Okay. I would like
19 now, Ms Collins, to cover with you the 20 relationship that you may, that you have in your 21 office in your function with the office of ISI.

22 We have had so far in public
23 testimony the testimony of Mr. Daniel Livermore in 24 this regard, and he has well described the 25 functions of ISD and ISI and the distinctions that

1           need to be made.

2                           I understand that you on occasion
3 do have direct dealings with the officers within 4 the office of ISI?

5                           MS COLLINS: I have had dealings
6 with ISI, but I just want to go back here.

7                           Any dealings with ISI had to be
8 authorized by the Director General.

9                           MR. DAVID: That would be Gar
10 Pardy?

11                          MS COLLINS: Absolutely. If they
12 needed something, they would go through Mr. Pardy,
13 and Mr. Pardy would give them the authorization or 14 consent to see me.

15                          If there was something that I did
16 know that I could give, or I could provide 17 information to ISI, it was always in accordance 18 and with the authorization of Mr. Pardy.

19                          MR. DAVID: Okay. I understand
20 that basically there are two scenarios. One
21 scenario would be that you -- when I say "you", I
22 mean your office or consular affairs -- would be 23 going to ISI seeking information or seeking 24 collaboration from the officers within ISI.

25                          And then the more usual scenario

1 is the ISI officers would be coming to the
2 consular affairs office seeking, again, assistance
3 or information.

4 Could you describe the two
5 scenarios that exist?

6 MS COLLINS: In cases with ISI,
7 there has been times where we were looking for an 8 individual. We had known that the person may have 9 been detained in the United States. We are not 10 getting any responses or we needed some 11 clarifications. Then ISI would be our point of 12 contact to get us the information in order for us
13 to better assist the Canadian.

14 I guess the reverse is that there
15 has been times when ISI would have come up to us
16 and would have told us that we are informed that 17 there is a Canadian citizen detained in the United 18 States. You might look at this area. And with 19 the assistance of ISI, we were able to locate a 20 couple of offenders that we wouldn't have been 21 informed.

22 MR. DAVID: Okay. And is it your
23 understanding that in those scenarios, the ISI
24 would sometimes refer to the RCMP or to CSIS, or 25 do you have any information in that regard?

1 MS COLLINS: No, I don't.

2 MR. DAVID: And in the scenarios
3 where ISI is coming to consular seeking advice,
4 could you maybe just give us some examples of 5 situations where that has occurred that you know
6 of?

7 MS COLLINS: Personally, in my
8 instance? I don't know.

9 MR. DAVID: Okay. And in terms of
10 a counterpart, is it fair to say that 11 Mr. Heatherington, the director of ISI, was 12 dealing mostly with Mr. Pardy?

13 MS COLLINS: That's correct.

14 MR. DAVID: And in terms of when
15 you had direct dealings with the office of ISI,
16 you would be dealing with Jonathan Solomon at the 17 relevant time?

18 MS COLLINS: At the relevant time,
19 yes.

20 MR. DAVID: Okay. Before we 21 review some documents that are part of our 22 chronology, there is one last issue I would like
23 to cover very briefly, and that is your use of a
24 notebook as a tool.

25 We will produce, and in fact we

1           could maybe do so now. It would be useful at this
2           point if we file your personal notes, Ms Girvan --
3           Ms Collins. I am sorry about that.

4                           THE COMMISSIONER: That would be
5           82.

6                           MR. DAVID: Thank you.

7                                   EXHIBIT NO. P-82: Personal
8                                   notes of Nancy Collins

9                           MR. DAVID: What is the use that 10          you make of a notebook?

11                           MS COLLINS: I think everybody has 12          a general different use of it. I am a person that 13          will take notes, and I use my books as a 14          reference. When you are dealing with so many 15          incoming calls and so many things, for me it's a
16          point of reference that I use. If I can't enter
17          the CAMANT note immediately, then I will go back
18          into my notes and I will be able to enter the 19          information. Or if someone says, have you spoken,
20          have you received a call from this individual, I
21          could obviously go back into my book and say, yes,
22          I did speak to the individual or I received a
23          message or I left a message.

24                                   So it's a really good reference
25          book for myself.

1 MR. DAVID: So you would be
2 logging in essentially in your notebook the phone
3 calls that may be coming to your desk?

4 MS COLLINS: Essentially almost
5 everything, yes.

6 MR. DAVID: In terms of meetings,
7 would you be using your notebook for --

8 MS COLLINS: Not always.

9 MR. DAVID: On occasion you would?

10 MS COLLINS: On occasions, yes.

11 MR. DAVID: Just give us an idea:
12 How many calls do you handle on an average day in 13 your office on your desk?

14 MS COLLINS: Thirty, 40 calls?

15 These are messages incoming. It could be that 16 people sometimes will call me -- I have had cases
17 where the person will call me 15, 20 times.
18 That's just one person. And then I have a series
19 of other people calling me.

20 I try to return the calls very 21 promptly, but it varies. There are cases where 22 you have individuals that will just call and call,
23 and you have a case where the person will call and 24 will wait for your return call.

25 So from an ordinary day it can be

1 from 40, 50, 30. But it varies in the margin.

2 MR. DAVID: Okay. And is e-mail
3 part of your work habits also?

4 MS COLLINS: Yes, the voice
5 messages, e-mail and CAMANT as well.

6 MR. DAVID: How many e-mails would
7 you, on average, receive in a day?

8 MS COLLINS: Seventy-five, a
9 hundred, if not more.

10 MR. DAVID: And the final point
11 before looking at some documents, Ms Collins, is 12 that you as a desk officer for the United States,
13 your functions or your implication in terms of the 14 Arar time line, when did that end, officially end?
15 When was it shifted over?

16 I understand that it shifted over
17 to the Middle East desk.

18 MS COLLINS: That's correct.

19 MR. DAVID: And that was occupied
20 by Ms Myra Pastyr-Lupul?

21 MS COLLINS: Yes.

22 MR. DAVID: So when did that 23 transfer occur?

24 MS COLLINS: If I recollect, I
25 believe it was October 16th.

1 MR. DAVID: Of 2002?

2 MS COLLINS: Of 2002.

3 MR. DAVID: Okay. So if we could
4 now go to the volumes, which is Exhibit P-42, I
5 believe, and look at tab 1.

6 THE COMMISSIONER: Sorry, what
7 number was it?

8 MR. DAVID: Tab 1.

9 THE COMMISSIONER: Of the DFAIT
10 documents?

11 MR. DAVID: Of the DFAIT
12 documents, yes.

13 I am just referring you to tab 1
14 very briefly. We have covered this tab with 15 Ms Girvan this week. It's to establish the 16 starting point of DFAIT's intervention in the Arar
17 time line.

18 And this is a message coming in to 19 what you have described already, it's the 20 emergency services office, JPE, and it's a call
21 coming in from Taufik Arar, the brother of Maher,
22 signalling that his brother has been missing since 23 the 27th; so for two days, approximately.

24 And basically New York City or the 25 New York consular general's office is being tasked

1 in this message.

2 MS COLLINS: Yes.

3 MR. DAVID: And we see that in
4 fact the message is going from JPE. It's 5 essentially going to New York City?

6 MS COLLINS: Yes.

7 MR. DAVID: There is an info copy,
8 however, to yourself, to the Ottawa branch of JPO,
9 and your name appears on the bottom line?

10 MS COLLINS: Correct.

11 MR. DAVID: Could you explain the 12 procedure involved here? Why are you being looped
13 in at this point?

14 MS COLLINS: It's standard
15 procedures that when you work in emergency
16 operations centre, when you open a file, of course
17 the CAMANT note goes to the mission for action,
18 and you infocopy the case management officer so
19 that they are aware that there is a new case
20 opened.

21 MR. DAVID: Did you act at this
22 point on this information? Did you have any 23 duties?

24 MS COLLINS: No.

25 MR. DAVID: Or did you do anything

1 in terms of receiving this message?

2 MS COLLINS: No.

3 MR. DAVID: I would like to bring
4 you now to tab 4, and this is a CAMANT note for 5 October the 1st, which is the Tuesday.

6 MS COLLINS: Mm-hmm.

7 MR. DAVID: Again, you are not
8 directly infocopied on this, but it is going to 9 your immediate superior, John Carisse, as an 10 infocopy.

11 It is information that is coming
12 from Tunis, from the Tunis office, and it's simply 13 explaining that Mr. Arar is travelling with the 14 expired passport of his son Houd. As you know,
15 the itinerary of Mr. Arar was to fly into the 16 United States and then fly from the United States
17 to Canada.

18 I was wondering if you have any 19 comments about the fact that Mr. Arar was 20 travelling with two sets of travel documents, of 21 passports?

22 MS COLLINS: Especially after
23 post-9/11, it was not recommended. I can't say it
24 was illegal, but it was highly not recommended
25 that people travel with two passports, especially

1 the dual nationals. They reinforced that.

2 It's always been given in the
3 United States that you should not be travelling
4 with two passports.

5 With the fact of the passport of a
6 child, of course that could alert the authorities
7 of other -- you know, of other activities.

8 But Mr. Arar was travelling with I
9 guess his son's passport that was no longer valid.

10 MR. DAVID: Okay.

11 MS COLLINS: So nothing was really
12 drawn more than that.

13 MR. DAVID: Was that a potential
14 concern in terms of your office?

15 MS COLLINS: Not necessarily. I
16 mean, it's something that -- it's good to know.

17 MR. DAVID: If we could now go to 18 tab 9, Ms Collins, again this is on Tuesday,
19 October 1st?

20 MS COLLINS: Yes.

21 MR. DAVID: If it can assist you,
22 there is a calendar there for the month of October
23 2002, just to situate you.

24 Here we have a message coming from 25 New York City confirming that Mr. Arar is being

1           detained at MDC.

2                           MS COLLINS:   Mm-hmm.

3                           MR. DAVID:   Is there any 4           significance -- and you are being infocopied on 5           this message.

6                           Is there any significance that you
7           attach to the fact that Mr. Arar is detained at 8           MDC at this point?  Are you familiar with MDC?

9                           MS COLLINS:   I am familiar with 10          MDC.

11                          MR. DAVID:   And is there any 12          significance to the fact that he is detained --

13                          MS COLLINS:   No.

14                          MR. DAVID:   -- at the Metropolitan
15          Detention Centre?

16                          MS COLLINS:   No.  Not at this
17          point, no.

18                          MR. DAVID:   Okay.  If we could go
19          to the next tab and that is again for Tuesday,
20          October 1st.  That is tab 10.

21                          Here you are directly involved.
22          You are having a phone conversation with 23          Mr. Taufik Arar, the brother, and it's being 24          signalled to you that he is extremely afraid -- or 25          you are noting anyhow of his extreme fear that he

1           may be deported to Syria, and your CAMANT note is
2           quite clear. In fact, it refers to the fact that
3           Mr. Taufik Arar is in a state of panic.

4                           MS COLLINS: Yes.

5                           MR. DAVID: In this message you
6           are tasking New York to forward a letter of 7           introduction, and signalling that the family would 8           like to visit the subject and are there any 9           particular guidelines.

10                           Do you have any comments about 11           this?

12                           MS COLLINS: Sure. Most people
13           when they call, from experience as a consular
14           officer, is that when they learn a loved one, a 15           friend, a family member that are arrested, or 16           something is happening, they are always, always in 17           extreme emotional state. We have a tendency, as 18           consular officers, of trying to reflect that in 19           our note-taking because we want to know how the 20           person is feeling.

21                           The subject about deportation to 22           Syria, I had asked Mr. Taufik what was the fear of 23           being deported --

24                           MR. DAVID: Have you ever been 25           confronted with a similar situation where somebody

1 fears being deported to a country that they are
2 normally not going to, that they are not destined
3 to?

4 MS COLLINS: We do, even today, we
5 still do. It's perfectly, I guess -- a person in 6 a family, when they are born of another country
7 and I guess they are placed in front of a
8 deportation, that's their initial fear, is am I
9 going to be deported to the country of birth?

10 And if we are in contact with 11 these individuals and we know they are Canadian 12 citizens, we always let them know that -- we 13 confirm the nationality of the Canadian
14 citizenship. That's why we communicate directly
15 with the vital statistics of each province,
16 Citizenship and Immigration Canada, to determine
17 that this individual is indeed a Canadian and that 18 they have a right of entry into Canada.

19 So that is a normal fear of dual 20 nationals.

21 MR. DAVID: If we could just refer 22 now to your personal notes, which we filed as 23 P-82?

24 MS COLLINS: Yes.

25 MR. DAVID: For this phone call, I

1 believe there is an entry -- or there are entries,
2 I should say.

3 Could you look at pages 2 and 3 of 4 this document and maybe just explain to us the 5 chronology of details with respect to this call?

6 MS COLLINS: Yes. I believe that
7 page 2 is October 1st. The two in a circle for me
8 means that it's a message. I am on the phone, and 9 then after I hang up, I pick up my messages and 10 then I note all the messages.

11 And "brother detained deportation"
12 is normally a reference point for me what the 13 message was about.

14 MR. DAVID: And can you indicate
15 the time for that message?

16 MS COLLINS: I am sorry, I don't
17 see anything. It must have been in the morning
18 because later on it says 12:00. So it had to be 19 in the morning.

20 Again, this is all part of my 21 messages, and he has called twice while I was on 22 another call.

23 MR. DAVID: And this brother that
24 you identify, is this Mr. Taufik Arar?

25 MS COLLINS: Yes, it is.

1 MR. DAVID: Okay. And then can
2 you just continue on?

3 MS COLLINS: Sure. I returned his
4 call. He was not there. I speak with his wife.
5 I tell him I am returning his voice message and to 6 please call me back.

7 And then again I speak with -- at 8 this point it's noon and I get a chance to speak
9 with Mr. Taufik at that time.

10 MR. DAVID: Okay. And do you
11 recall the duration of that phone call?

12 MS COLLINS: I don't recall.

13 MR. DAVID: Okay. What
14 information did you try to assess and obtain from 15 Mr. Arar with respect to his concerns about the 16 deportation to Syria?

17 MS COLLINS: I asked Mr. Taufik if 18 he could help me with as much information as he 19 can provide me in order to understand the case and 20 also to provide with adequate consular services.
21 I remember Mr. Taufik indicating that he was 22 afraid his brother would be deported to Syria. I
23 asked him why was he afraid and what belief did he 24 have that he would be deported to Syria?

25 I asked him if one of the fears is

1           because he had not served -- I didn't know, I
2           assumed at that time -- military service.

3                         And then I asked him again if he
4           had travelled on a Canadian passport. And 5           normally a person, when one enters any country,
6           you assume the nationality of the passport that 7           you have entered. And I asked him if he had 8           travelled on his Canadian passport, and he told me
9           yes.

10                        All he kept on saying after that,
11           when I tried to ask him any other questions to 12           help me, was "get him out, get him home".

13                        And I thought that trying to speak
14           with Mr. Taufik made it very, very difficult for 15           me. He was not able to give me some of the 16           details that I wanted. He was very, very firm,
17           "Get him out, get him out", and I was trying to 18           understand, trying to explain, and he wouldn't 19           understand. So he made my job very, very 20           difficult.

21                        MR. DAVID: Did you get an 22           understanding as to why certain information was 23           not being provided to you?

24                        MS COLLINS: I had no
25           understanding. I didn't know why.

1 MR. DAVID: Okay. And you
2 referred, Ms Collins, to the fact that you sought
3 clarification as to whether Mr. Arar had served or 4 done his military service in Syria.

5 What was the basis for that
6 question?

7 MS COLLINS: Working in emergency
8 operations centre, you have calls coming in from 9 people, and they ask questions about travel -- you
10 know, the country reports. "I am going there. Do
11 I need a visa?" So they do ask you certain 12 questions about the country. "Is there a travel
13 advisory?" "Can I travel to Syria if I am a 14 Syrian and I haven't served my military. What 15 should I do?"

16 Normally we refer them to the 17 country travel report and we also advise them that 18 they should communicate with the embassy of Syria,
19 or the embassy of Lebanon, or whatever the 20 embassy, for them to seek further clarification.

21 We are there to provide them with 22 a basic principle of information, and it's up to 23 the individual to ensure that they know fully what 24 they are getting themselves into.

25 MR. DAVID: And had you had any

1 specific previous experience with regard to the 2 situation that may exist in Syria --

3 MS COLLINS: No.

4 MR. DAVID: -- with any other
5 detained Canadian?

6 MS COLLINS: No.

7 MR. DAVID: And did you have any
8 specific information concerning how military
9 service is carried out in Syria and the 10 consequences of that?

11 MS COLLINS: No, I don't.

12 MR. DAVID: So this was just based 13 on your general reflexes --

14 MS COLLINS: My general knowledge.

15 MR. DAVID: General knowledge,
16 okay.

17 MS COLLINS: Yes.

18 MR. DAVID: We see again, coming
19 back to tab 10, that you also informed Taufik Arar
20 that his brother was in fact located by consular
21 services?

22 MS COLLINS: Yes, I did.

23 MR. DAVID: And that you were 24 seeking to clarify the charges about him.

25 MS COLLINS: Yes.

1 MR. DAVID: In terms of the
2 chronology of events, I refer you now to page 4 of 3 your notes for that same day, and there is an 4 entry at 1314.

5 Could you describe to us what is
6 occurring in this entry?

7 MS COLLINS: I am trying to
8 remember this. I mean, this is a long time ago --

9 MR. DAVID: I believe it's a call
10 from Ms Marlene Catterall's office, who is an MP?

11 MS COLLINS: No. Actually, it's a
12 call from Helen Harris, and we are discussing two 13 points.

14 One is that -- I am not sure if
15 she has spoken with the office of Marlene
16 Catterall, or she had received a message. I am
17 unclear.

18 And we also talked about NSEERS.

19 MR WALDMAN: And what does NSEERS
20 mean?

21 MS COLLINS: NSEERS is the 22 National Security Entry Exit Registration.

23 MR. DAVID: And what is that?
24 Could you just describe that for us?

25 MS COLLINS: After 9/11 the

1 Americans started fingerprinting and interviewing
2 people of Arab descents, and that was at that
3 time. And we were working on, I guess, getting
4 the information in order to publish this in a
5 travel report.

6 MR. DAVID: If we go now to tab
7 11, Ms Collins, this is an entry again for 8 Tuesday, October 1st. It's a fairly lengthy 9 message from Ms Girvan and Lisiane Le Floc'h from 10 New York City and describes the unfolding of the 11 day's events as they occurred.

12 MS COLLINS: Yes.

13 MR. DAVID: Again, you are being
14 infocopied on this message.

15 When did you, first of all, take 16 cognisance of the existence of the message, or the 17 contents of the message?

18 MS COLLINS: The following
19 morning.

20 MR. DAVID: Why is that?

21 MS COLLINS: It came in after I
22 had left for the day.

23 MR. DAVID: Okay. This is 24 dated -- the hour that appears is 1647, so you
25 were not in your office when you received this

1 message?

2 MS COLLINS: Correct.

3 MR. DAVID: There is reference in
4 the third paragraph -- I would like to bring you
5 to the third paragraph here -- to the fact that
6 the New York office contacted the INS Public
7 Affairs office:

8 "... and was again told that
9 no one was there to discuss
10 the case. Lisiane asked to 11 speak to the superior, and we
12 then spoke with Officer ...
13 As Officer was not aware of 14 the case, he undertook to 15 contact ..."

16 His own INS office at JFK airport
17 and obtain information for consular staff. This 18 officer then called back within the next 15
19 minutes.

20 "Officer ... called us back
21 as promised and informally
22 advised us that this case was 23 of a seriousness that should
24 be taken to the highest
25 level, i.e. he suggested that

1                   our Ambassador in Washington
2                   should contact the Department
3                   of Justice."

4                   First of all, I want to know what
5                   is your appreciation of the language used in this 6                   message, the fact that it refers to a serious case
7                   and the suggestion is being made here that the 8                   Canadian ambassador contact the Department of 9                   Justice in the United States?

10                   MS COLLINS: May I read it so I
11                   can --

12                   MR. DAVID: Sure.

13                   --- Pause

14                   MS COLLINS: Okay.

15                   MR. DAVID: So again, you read
16                   this message on the next day, on the Wednesday,
17                   October 2nd?

18                   MS COLLINS: Yes.

19                   MR. DAVID: And how do you act on 20                   the message? How do you react to it and how do
21                   you act on it?

22                   MS COLLINS: Well, when this
23                   message had been edited -- or written, I also 24                   noticed that Maureen had spoken with Helen Harris, 25                   who was the acting director general at that time.

1           And when a person says the highest level,
2           "suggesting the ambassador in Washington talk to 3           the Department of Justice", these are not the 4           normal procedures that are undertaken. There are 5           levels that need to be done before this is 6           reached.

7                           I mean, you cannot just call --
8           Maureen cannot just pick up the phone and talk to 9           the ambassador and ask the ambassador to 10          intervene. It's a decision that needs to be taken
11          with Foreign Affairs at a higher level, and then 12          from there it would be decided what would be the 13          best course of action.

14                          MR. DAVID: Okay. We see that 15          Ms Girvan attempted to contact Gar Pardy with 16          regard to what had occurred on the Tuesday and 17          spoke to Helen Harris.

18                          MS COLLINS: Yes.

19                          MR. DAVID: Was Mr. Pardy away at 20          this time?

21                          MS COLLINS: I believe so, yes.

22                          MR. DAVID: Did you go and speak
23          to Ms Harris about the contents of this message?

24                          MS COLLINS: I believe we met the 25          next day.

1 MR. DAVID: And what was -- were
2 there any decisions --

3 MS COLLINS: About the diplomatic
4 note you are talking about, or any decision about
5 this?

6 MR. DAVID: Yes.

7 MS COLLINS: The whole context,
8 there was -- and I think we can go back into the 9 other tabs for justifications of the diplomatic 10 note.

11 I think the main point here was to 12 locate Mr. Arar and see what were the charges in 13 order to evaluate what seriousness this was.

14 MR. DAVID: If you read the 15 before-last paragraph, it says:

16 "Actions: New York will 17 speak to JPE ..."

18 Which is Helen Harris.

19 "... and Washington, D.C..."

20 And we understand from Ms Girvan
21 that that was Mr. Bob Archambault.

22 MS COLLINS: Yes.

23 MR. DAVID: "... firs thing in the 24 morning as to the 25 advisability of a Dipnote to

1 State in order to obtain
2 information about this case,
3 and to advise U.S.
4 authorities that we were not
5 officially notified of the 6 arrest."

7 Did you have a discussion at this
8 point with Helen Harris about the advisability of 9 the issuance of a Dipnote?

10 MS COLLINS: The next morning.

11 MR. DAVID: On the Wednesday?

12 MS COLLINS: Yes.

13 MR. DAVID: Did you come to any 14 sort of conclusion or position with Ms Harris or 15 did Ms Harris give you direction in this regard on 16 the Wednesday?

17 MS COLLINS: We talked about a
18 diplomatic note, and it was agreed that we would 19 wait, first of all, as to the fax from the MDC
20 about the charges, the confirmation of where he 21 was.

22 About the notification of arrest,
23 that's something that we -- I guess it's further 24 on that Washington is doing on our behalf in an 25 informal way. Canada is not a mandatory country,

1 has not signed a multilateral treaty with the
2 United States to be a mandatory notification
3 country. They do, under Article 36, indicate that 4 "without delay". But without delay is -- it could 5 be 24, 72 hours, sometimes never. It depends on 6 which country.

7 So it is up to the individual to
8 advise us, the families, or sometimes the police
9 force.

10 There is an outreach program from 11 the State Department and they are trying to do
12 that.

13 MR. DAVID: Again coming back to 14 the message coming from the senior INS officer
15 that the ambassador in Washington intervene with 16 the Department of Justice, had you ever seen that 17 kind of suggestion made in the past: that there
18 be, in other words, communication between the 19 Washington embassy, the Washington Canadian 20 embassy, and the Department of Justice of the 21 United States?

22 MS COLLINS: No.

23 MR. DAVID: And what did you make
24 of that suggestion on the part of the INS officer?

25 Did you have any reaction to that

1 suggestion?

2 MS COLLINS: Not necessarily, no.

3 MR. DAVID: We can go now to

4 Wednesday, October 2nd, Ms Collins, and I bring

5 you to tab 23. This is a series of five e-mails

6 that exist that deal specifically with the issue

7 of the advisability of a diplomatic note as had

8 been referred to in the message we just reviewed.

9 Let me start with the first e-mail

10 at the very bottom of the page, the first page?

11 MS COLLINS: May I read the full

12 content?

13 MR. DAVID: I was just going to 14 bring you to them.

15 So the first message, Ms Collins,

16 is being cc'd to you?

17 MS COLLINS: Yes.

18 MR. DAVID: It is a message that

19 is coming from Maureen Girvan going to her

20 counterpart in Washington, Mr. Archambault.

21 It says:

22 "Bob, if you have had time to

23 read the CAMANT note of Oct.

24 1 on this case, perhaps we

25 could talk this morning. At

1 issue is what is the best way
2 to proceed - through Embassy
3 contacts or through
4 Diplomatic Note. Helen
5 Harris and I spoke last night
6 and we are tending to think
7 that the latter will be
8 necessary as we have been
9 referred by local authorities
10 to the Department of Justice
11 for any information on this
12 arrest and detention. Family
13 are very anxious for 14 information."

15 Signed Maureen. And it's 16 infocopied to you.

17 You respond to this message. This
18 message was sent at 8:49 in the morning, and you
19 respond at 9:30. And your response to Maureen is 20 as follows:

21 "I suggest that we treat this
22 case the same way as we did
23 with the ..."

24 MS COLLINS: The "X" case.

25 MR. DAVID: It's the "X" case?

1 Thank you.

2 And then you refer to a CAMANT
3 note in that regard.

4 "As you will certainly
5 recall, we had the same
6 problem when we tried to get 7 confirmation of ..."

8 And I guess that would be "X."

9 "... X's detention and our 10 request to have consular
11 access with him. In 12 addition, we did send a dip
13 note."

14 Let me first ask you: You are 15 making correlation between what is happening to 16 Mr. Arar at this present time with what happened
17 to Mr. X, or what you had experienced in terms of 18 a scenario in the "X" case.

19 Can you please provide us with 20 your appreciation of what the similarities were.

21 MS COLLINS: Sure.

22 MR. DAVID: In that regard, I
23 refer you to the two exhibits, P-52 and P-53,
24 which we have already filed. They are a summary
25 of the cases that concern Mr. X and Mr. Y.

1 MS COLLINS: Thank you.

2 MR. DAVID: Exhibit P-52 is the
3 scenario that we have on Mr. X, and P-53 is the 4 scenario for Mr. Y.

5 Let's deal with Mr. X for the time
6 being.

7 Could you give us a description of
8 the time line of the chronology concerning Mr. X,
9 as you recall it?

10 MS COLLINS: Mr. X, if I recall,
11 the call that came in started as a wellbeing/
12 whereabouts.

13 MR. DAVID: That's a term of 14 art within DFAIT.

15 MS COLLINS: I am sorry.

16 MR. DAVID: Could you give us what
17 that means, wellbeing --

18 MS COLLINS: A wellbeing/
19 whereabouts meaning that Mr. X normally contacted 20 his wife, and it had been two weeks that there was 21 no calls, and it was very unusual for the wife.
22 She contacted Foreign Affairs to see if there was 23 any reports or if we had been informed of an 24 arrest or what she could do to locate her --
25 Mr. X. I believe that was in September 2001.

1                   We were later informed by his
2 attorney -- I will just go back, sorry.

3                   Attempts in trying to locate Mr. X
4 were undertaken at that time. Nothing came out of 5 it. Negative.

6                   MR. DAVID: And to be maybe a
7 little bit more specific, when you say "attempts",
8 that was the mission, the consular general's 9 office in New York City --

10                  MS COLLINS: Correct.

11                  MR. DAVID: -- was actually taking 12 steps to locate --

13                  MS COLLINS: Mr. X.

14                  MR. DAVID: -- with the U.S.
15 authorities, where Mr. X was being --

16                  MS COLLINS: We didn't know if he 17 was detained.

18                  MR. DAVID: You didn't know.

19                  MS COLLINS: That was one thing.
20 Normally when a person had not heard from an 21 individual, I guess we assume sometimes that they 22 may have been detained either by the police or by 23 immigration.

24                  So attempts in locating Mr. X at 25 that time, the calls were placed through INS and

1           also to the Bureau of Prisons, or the Department
2           of Corrections, and it came negative. We didn't
3           have anything out of it.

4                       MR. DAVID: So in effect the U.S.
5           authorities were providing you with information
6           that they did not hold Mr. X --

7                       MS COLLINS: At that time,
8           correct.

9                       MR. DAVID: At that point.
10           Do you recall when those efforts
11           were undertaken with the U.S. authorities to 12           locate Mr. X?

13                      MS COLLINS: That was shortly
14           after the first call.

15                      MR. DAVID: And in terms of 16           timeframe, when was that, if you recall?

17                      MS COLLINS: Normally, when a call
18           will come in and a note is taken into CAMANT, and 19           the action is sent to the mission, the action is 20           normally taken almost immediately, if not within a
21           day. It's taken relatively quickly.

22                      MR. DAVID: How much time was 23           spent trying to locate Mr. X by the mission?

24                      MS COLLINS: I don't remember.

25                      MR. DAVID: How is it that you

1           were able to locate, in the end, Mr. X?

2                           MS COLLINS: We received a phone
3           call from his attorney and I believe, if I read
4           here ...

5                           MR. DAVID: It's in the second --

6                           MS COLLINS: In mid-November.

7                           MR. DAVID: In mid-November, okay.

8                           So Mr. X was missing as of 9           September 2001?

10                          MS COLLINS: Yes.

11                          MR. DAVID: And so it took several 12           weeks before he was located?

13                          MS COLLINS: Correct.

14                          MR. DAVID: He was located by his 15           attorney, and it was his attorney that advised the 16           Department of Foreign Affairs where he was 17           located?

18                          MS COLLINS: Yes.

19                          MR. DAVID: And what did you find 20           out about where he was located from his attorney?

21                          MS COLLINS: We found out that 22           Mr. X was at MDC on the 9th floor, which at this 23           point we had no idea what the 9th floor was.

24                          MR. DAVID: Did you find out since
25           when he was detained?

1 MS COLLINS: We had been told that
2 he had been detained shortly after, a couple of 3 weeks after 9/11.

4 MR. DAVID: Okay. So he was
5 detained as of September?

6 MS COLLINS: Yes.

7 MR. DAVID: Do you know if
8 specifically the steps that the consular office in 9 New York undertook to locate him would have 10 included being informed that he was detained at 11 MDC?

12 In other words, was MDC one of the 13 facilities that was on the request list of the 14 consulate office to try to locate him?

15 MS COLLINS: I am not sure I am
16 ...

17 MR. DAVID: Well the question -- I
18 guess what I am trying to get to is: Were you
19 misinformed by the U.S. authorities as to the fact
20 that Mr. X was not detained when he was detained?

21 MS COLLINS: At the time when we 22 called, absolutely. The MDC indicated that they
23 did not have him on the list. We later found out
24 that he was on a special list, and that when you
25 call the records they didn't have access to the

1 special list.

2 MR. DAVID: Okay. So it's not so
3 much that you were being misinformed on purpose;
4 it's just that the procedure that had been
5 followed did not allow for his specific location?

6 MS COLLINS: Correct.

7 MR. DAVID: Was this the first
8 time that you had found out about the existence of 9 a special list in a special area of MDC for the 10 possibility of detention?

11 MS COLLINS: Yes, it was.

12 MR. DAVID: Coming back,
13 Ms Collins, to the message that you are sending to 14 Maureen on October the 2nd, and it's the second
15 message that we have identified, you are comparing 16 Mr. Arar's scenario to the scenario of Mr. X, and 17 I am just wondering what is going through your 18 mind to make that comparison.

19 MS COLLINS: I guess what I am
20 comparing is the difficulty in finding out
21 anything about Mr. Arar, locating him. It just 22 seemed so similar as Mr. X, that we had been given 23 the run-around.

24 MR. DAVID: Okay.

25 MS COLLINS: And the difficulty of

1 getting the cooperation of the Americans. And
2 that was where the similarity was at that time.

3 MR. DAVID: Do you recall whether
4 in the "X" scenario there was difficulty in 5 ascertaining the charges also concerning this
6 detained Canadian?

7 MS COLLINS: Yes.

8 MR. DAVID: Okay. We understand
9 that Mr. X was a terrorism suspect.

10 MS COLLINS: He was an alleged,
11 yes.

12 MR. DAVID: So in that regard
13 there was also -- well, I guess you don't have 14 that confirmation at this point concerning
15 Mr. Arar?

16 MS COLLINS: No, we don't, not at 17 this point.

18 MR. DAVID: But you are starting
19 to see similarities in terms of the situation?

20 MS COLLINS: Yes.

21 MR. DAVID: Let us proceed now to 22 the third message, which is coming again from you,
23 a few minutes later. It is at 9:53. Again it is 24 going to Maureen Girvan and to Mr. Archambault.

25 You are saying the following:

1 "Maureen, Bob
2 Before we proceed with a dip
3 note, I suggest that we wait
4 and see if the MDC will reply
5 to our fax sent last evening.
6 Should they fail to provide
7 us with a response, I then
8 suggest that we then send the
9 dip note."

10 So on one hand, from your previous
11 message, it seems to be that Helen Harris and you
12 have discussed the advisability of a dipnote and 13 fundamentally are in agreement that maybe a
14 dipnote should be resorted to concerning Mr. Arar?

15 MS COLLINS: Yes.

16 MR. DAVID: And then you are sort
17 of maybe nuancing that position in this third
18 message at 9:53?

19 MS COLLINS: That's correct. We
20 want to give some time because the MDC had told
21 Ms Girvan that they wanted to have a fax in order
22 to proceed with the charges, or any information.

23 They wanted to make sure that
24 Ms Girvan was calling from the Canadian Consul
25 General of Canada and not calling from somewhere

1 else.

2 So they wanted two things: one, is
3 confirmation of the macro; and, two, they wanted
4 something in writing.

5 They didn't say they were not
6 going to give us access or give us any 7 information. All she said is, "Send me a fax and 8 I'll get back to you."

9 So before proceeding and jumping
10 right to the diplomatic note is to give the time
11 of that person. There was a fax I sent that 12 evening. We are now early in the morning. Let's
13 wait a little bit. If they don't come back, then 14 absolutely. We have now a stand, an argument, to 15 use a diplomatic note.

16 MR. DAVID: And just for the 17 record, the fax in question was filed before the 18 Commission as P-57, which was sent on October 1st,
19 requesting the charges.

20 We move now to the fourth message,
21 and this is now coming from Maureen Girvan and 22 it's going to you.

23 It says:

24 "Nancy: Yes, and in fact we 25 are going to follow up on the

1 fax with a call this morning,
2 though the advice we received
3 from public relations
4 suggests that we are unlikely
5 to be successful, I will
6 speak with Robert Archambault
7 a little later (I missed
8 their first call), but 9 understand from Helen ..."

10 And that we understand is Helene
11 Bouchard in Washington?

12 MS COLLINS: Yes.

13 MR. DAVID: "... that they are
14 likely to check with their
15 contact at Justice informally
16 as a first step at their end.
17 The Dipnote, if necessary,
18 can follow that."

19 Signed Maureen Girvan.

20 So in the end there seems to be a
21 general consensus between both Ottawa and the New 22 York City office that we are going to wait, we are 23 going to stand down on the issue, on the idea of 24 sending the dipnote?

25 MS COLLINS: That's correct.

1 MR. DAVID: A dipnote was in fact
2 sent in the case of Mr. X, if you recall.

3 MS COLLINS: Yes.

4 MR. DAVID: Could you give us some
5 background as to when that was resorted to and why
6 it was resorted to? What was the purpose of the 7 dipnote in the "X" case?

8 MS COLLINS: The diplomatic
9 note -- I am just trying to remember here. The 10 diplomatic note was sent after our first visit
11 with Mr. X. It is after we had received our first 12 visit with Mr. X.

13 MR. DAVID: It was a consular
14 visit?

15 MS COLLINS: It was a consular
16 visit.

17 MR. DAVID: At MDC?

18 MS COLLINS: Correct.

19 MR. DAVID: All right.

20 MS COLLINS: We had been told by
21 Mr. X that he had asked on numerous occasions, 22 that he had asked to speak with the consulate and 23 he had been denied.

24 We also in a diplomatic note
25 raised two issues: one is the lack of consular

1 notification; and also the fact that we had been
2 looking for him and we had called the MDC, and the 3 MDC had said that he wasn't there when in fact he
4 was there.

5 So these were the arguments that
6 we had used in a diplomatic note.

7 So two aspects: one is lack of
8 consular notification, which we later found out
9 that he had signed something.

10 MR. DAVID: Requesting --

11 MS COLLINS: Requesting -- not 12 requesting.

13 MR. DAVID: Not requesting.

14 MS COLLINS: Not requesting. And 15 the other one the argument was we had called the 16 MDC, from the time we were informed to the time we 17 had access, and we had been told over and over
18 that he wasn't there when in fact he was there.

19 So that was our argument with in 20 the diplomatic note.

21 MR. DAVID: Okay. Let's just
22 spend a few minutes now on a general discussion
23 concerning diplomatic notes.

24 MS COLLINS: Yes.

25 MR. DAVID: Can you give us your

1 sense of how often they are resorted to as a means
2 of communication with another government, in
3 consular cases --

4 MS COLLINS: I can only speak with 5 myself.

6 MR. DAVID: Sure.

7 MS COLLINS: Not often. The 8 diplomatic note is a form -- like I have
9 mentioned, it's a high level of communications
10 between two countries, and those normally are 11 issued -- we issue a diplomatic note or we send a
12 diplomatic note as a last resort where we are not 13 getting the collaborations. We have exhausted all
14 levels of communications at the informal channels,
15 and now we have no choice than to go to the formal
16 channels.

17 You have to be careful with a
18 diplomatic note, because in this instance if we 19 would have gone the route of the diplomatic note,
20 we would have frozen everything, every contact
21 with MDC, every contact at the lower level. Once
22 you send a diplomatic note to the State
23 Department, you now have to deal with them.

24 They now send a request for
25 investigation at MDC. You call MDC. They want

1 nothing to do with you. You have now launched
2 something higher, and you have to deal with them.

3 We didn't want to do that. We
4 wanted to have all of our options open here.

5 MR. DAVID: And could you give us
6 an idea of annually, with regards to the United
7 States, how many dipnotes are used, on average?

8 MS COLLINS: Three?

9 MR. DAVID: Three per year, so
10 it's a rare --

11 MS COLLINS: Approximately, yes.

12 MR. DAVID: And that would be with 13 regard to about 3,000 cases?

14 MS COLLINS: Yes.

15 MR. DAVID: So it's really quite 16 exceptional.

17 And the response time, can you
18 give us --

19 MS COLLINS: It's a game.
20 Sometimes you get an answer, sometimes you don't 21 get an answer. There is no time limit for them to 22 reply to you.

23 MR. DAVID: So in terms of their
24 efficiency, I am getting a sense from you that 25 having direct dealings with counterparts and

1 contacts is a more efficient way of dealing with a
2 detained Canadian situation than through a
3 dipnote?

4 MS COLLINS: Absolutely.

5 MR. DAVID: Is that your sense?

6 MS COLLINS: Informal channels.

7 MR. DAVID: In terms of your
8 organization, who is the authorizing party? Who 9 can issue a dipnote?

10 MS COLLINS: Normally, in my case
11 I would draft a diplomatic note, pass it on to the 12 Director, or the Director General, and they would 13 make sure everything is okay. We would issue it
14 through our embassy in Washington.

15 So Mr. Archambault would be the 16 final person who would use the text, put it in the 17 logo, and hand-deliver it directly to the State
18 Department.

19 MR. DAVID: Would it be 20 Mr. Pardy's decision whether a dipnote is used or 21 not in a specific case?

22 MS COLLINS: Mr. Pardy or
23 Mr. Carisse at that time, yes.

24 MR. DAVID: If they decide that a
25 dipnote is going to be used, Mr. Archambault in

1 Washington cannot counteract that?

2 MS COLLINS: No. The final, final
3 decision is Mr. Pardy.

4 MR. DAVID: So the decision is
5 made from Ottawa in all cases?

6 MS COLLINS: Normally they can be
7 suggested, but the decision is taken in Ottawa,
8 yes.

9 MR. DAVID: There is another
10 scenario that we were also provided with, and 11 that's the case of Mr. Y. That's Exhibit P-53.

12 Can you briefly describe for us
13 the chronology in the "Y" case, as you recall it.

14 First of all, I understand that 15 Mr. Y was not a Canadian citizen, that he was a
16 landed immigrant in Canada.

17 MS COLLINS: That is correct.

18 We became aware of Mr. Y -- the 19 consul became aware, I should say, during his 20 first visit with Mr. X. That's how we found out
21 about Mr. Y.

22 MR. DAVID: Again, Mr. Y was 23 detained for several weeks before you knew of his 24 detention?

25 MS COLLINS: Correct.

1 MR. DAVID: And do you recall
2 whether a diplomatic note was used in the case of 3 Mr. Y?

4 MS COLLINS: No, it wasn't.

5 MR. DAVID: And do you recall what 6 factors accounted for that?

7 MS COLLINS: I think we had
8 consular access and -- there was no -- I am not 9 sure.

10 MR. DAVID: Okay. I would like to
11 refer you now, Ms Collins, to your personal notes
12 for October 2nd, if you could just refer to page
13 5.

14 Could you bring us through pages 5
15 and 6, in fact page 7 also, and comment on your 16 entries for October 2nd?

17 MS COLLINS: DCL is the -- it's 18 the parliamentary secretary -- sorry, it's the --

19 MR. DAVID: You are now at the 20 9:20 entry?

21 MS COLLINS: 9:20. DCL is the 22 cabinet liaison, I guess. They deal with the 23 Q&As, the questions and answers, for the 24 Minister's office. They are calling me.

25 This is totally irrelevant to

1 Mr. Arar, by the way.

2 I was dealing on other cases --

3 MR. DAVID: If it's irrelevant,
4 let's just move on.

5 MS COLLINS: The only thing that
6 was relevant here is 9:29, which I receive a
7 message from Mr. Taufik Arar.

8 9:32 is relevant to 9:20.

9 MR. DAVID: So you have a message
10 from Taufik Arar.

11 MS COLLINS: At 9:29.

12 MR. DAVID: Basically at 9:30 in 13 the morning.

14 MS COLLINS: Yes.

15 MR. DAVID: And then on page 6?

16 MS COLLINS: I spoke to Mr. Taufik
17 that morning at 10:25, and it's a short
18 conversation. He now tells me that Mr. Maher
19 Arar's mother-in-law, I believe in Ottawa, is 20 being threatened. And I tried to obtain some 21 information with Mr. Taufik in getting a sense of 22 who was threatening, what relevancy it was, why
23 was the mother-in-law being threatened?

24 I mean, I have no idea here. And 25 he got really angry and he said, "That's not

1 relevant. Get him out." And hung up on me.

2 MR. DAVID: And the mother-in-law
3 in question would have been Ms Mazigh's mother?

4 MS COLLINS: Which I now know,
5 yes.

6 MR. DAVID: Which you now know?

7 MS COLLINS: Yes.

8 MR. DAVID: He did identify
9 specifically his mother-in-law?

10 MS COLLINS: That's correct.

11 MR. DAVID: And you had no detail
12 as to the nature of the threat.

13 MS COLLINS: No. I mean, our 14 conversation is less than a minute. I tried to 15 get some information with him, because I told him,
16 "If you are raising this, then perhaps you could 17 give me some indication or some understanding of 18 why you are raising that." And it was very, very 19 short.

20 MR. DAVID: The next entry?

21 MS COLLINS: I am looking at my
22 messages, and I return messages with Washington.
23 Again, this is relevant to another case.

24 MR. DAVID: Okay. So let's move
25 on.

1 MS COLLINS: I remember, just
2 after speaking with Washington, I went to see
3 Mr. Pardy because that was troubling to me. I
4 didn't understand --

5 MR. DAVID: You are referring to 6 the threat?

7 MS COLLINS: To the threat.

8 MR. DAVID: Okay.

9 MS COLLINS: I spoke with
10 Mr. Pardy and I asked him --

11 MR. DAVID: Is Mr. Pardy now -- I
12 mean, there was a period of time where Mr. Pardy
13 was absent and Helen Harris had been taking --

14 MS COLLINS: Yes. It could be
15 Mr. Pardy or Miss Harris, but I remember
16 distinctively that after this call I had sought an 17 opinion: What do we do with this?

18 MR. DAVID: Mm-hmm.

19 MS COLLINS: And I was told that
20 we should go to ISI and see if they can help us,
21 and then that's when I make my first call to 22 Jonathan Solomon in ISI.

23 MR. DAVID: He was your contact
24 person?

25 MS COLLINS: He was my contact,

1           yes.

2                           MR. DAVID:  So you call him at 3           10:36?

4                           MS COLLINS:  Yes.

5                           MR. DAVID:  We can go now to page
6           7.

7                           MS COLLINS:  We are playing phone
8           tags here.

9                           MR. DAVID:  Mm-hmm.

10                          MS COLLINS:  He leaves me a 11           message.  I leave him a message again in the 12           afternoon.

13                          MR. DAVID:  And at 1409 on page 7
14           we see --

15                          MS COLLINS:  I am calling him.  I
16           don't think that I was able to speak with him.

17                          MR. DAVID:  So was the issue of 18           the threats to the mother-in-law ever addressed
19           with Mr. Solomon?

20                          MS COLLINS:  At 10:36.  I spoke
21           with Mr. Solomon at 10:36.

22                          MR. DAVID:  And what did you
23           advise Mr. Solomon?

24                          MS COLLINS:  I just asked him if 25           he was able to assist me in a case.  I remember

1           telling him that I had received a call from an
2           individual, the brother of an individual who was 3           arrested in the United States, and that the 4           mother-in-law of the individual, Mr. Arar, who was 5           detained in the United States, the mother-in-law
6           was being threatened and I asked whether it was 7           possible perhaps to help me to understand or to 8           see what we can find out.

9                           MR. DAVID:  And what was his
10          reaction?

11                          MS COLLINS:  He asked me for the 12          name of the detainee, the date of birth, and he 13          told me he would check into it and possibly get 14          back to me.

15                          MR. DAVID:  To your knowledge, was 16          there any follow-up on this issue?

17                          MS COLLINS:  I don't recall
18          getting anything back from Jonathan at all on 19          this.

20                          MR. DAVID:  We can now go to tab
21          16, Ms Collins, and that would be for Wednesday,
22          October 2nd.  This is a phone call.

23                          MS COLLINS:  Yes.

24                          MR. DAVID:  Again, you are simply
25          being infocopied.  It's a call between Ms Girvan

1 and Ms Ward, who is an official at MDC and there
2 is a reference to the charges. This would be the 3 fourth paragraph.

4 There is also a reference to the 5 possibility of a lawyer visiting.

6 But the fourth paragraph reads as 7 follows:

8 "On the charges: Ms Ward
9 said that all she can tell me
10 is that he is being held for 11 an 'immigration violation'.
12 She realized that this was 13 not very specific, but 14 suspected that wherever we 15 might go, we would get 'the 16 same runaround.'"

17 Reading this message or getting 18 this message, did you consider the necessity of 19 resorting to a diplomatic note on this issue?

20 MS COLLINS: No.

21 MR. DAVID: Did that come back up
22 as a possibility?

23 MS COLLINS: No.

24 MR. DAVID: Because you will
25 recall that there was an acceptance or an

1           agreement amongst all -- when I say "all", I mean
2           Ottawa and New York -- that we are going to wait
3           to see what they say about the charges as to 4           whether we are going to resort to a diplomatic
5           note.

6                               Here you are getting very vague
7           information that it's a immigration violation, and 8           the prediction from this official that you are 9           going to get the runaround if it comes to seeking 10          further detail.

11                              So I am just asking you: Did you
12          reconsider the issue of the diplomatic note at 13          this point on getting this information?

14                              MS COLLINS: To tell you the 15          truth, I don't remember if this was still an issue
16          at this time. I know that Ms Girvan was also 17          seeking consular access. I believe that if the 18          consular access would not be permitted, then 19          absolutely we would have proceeded with the 20          diplomatic note.

21                              We were trying to weigh everything
22          here before taking action, so we wanted to see if 23          they would get back to us.

24                              I guess immigration violation is 25          very, very broad, and it's not up to us to decide

1 if the person will be charged or not.

2 MR. DAVID: Okay. There is also
3 mention in the last paragraph that Mr. Arar is 4 being detained in the special security unit.

5 Did you understand that to be the 6 same unit in question that you had experienced in 7 "X" and "Y"?

8 MS COLLINS: I had presumed, yes.

9 MR. DAVID: So now you are making
10 the complete link --

11 MS COLLINS: Yes.

12 MR. DAVID: -- that has to be made
13 between Mr. Arar's situation and those two 14 individuals.

15 MS COLLINS: "X" and "Y."

16 MR. DAVID: Thank you.

17 If we could go now to Tab 17, it's 18 a reference to a Q&A, and Ms Girvan suggesting you
19 want to develop press lines for this case.

20 I guess that's again just
21 confirming that this is going to be a situation
22 that is going to potentially draw media attention?

23 MS COLLINS: It could, yes.

24 MR. DAVID: Okay. Now, in terms
25 of your responsibilities -- and we can go to tab

1           20 -- on the issue of a Q&A, it's my understanding
2           that part of your functions also is to draft Q&As?

3                       MS COLLINS: Yes.

4                       MR. DAVID: Could you just tell us
5           what the purpose of these are?

6                       MS COLLINS: The Q&As are used to 7           assist the Minister in dealing and answering and 8           also we also have a spokesperson within Foreign 9           Affairs and these are the questions and answers to 10          answer to the media.

11                      MR. DAVID: And what is the 12          process? What procedure do you follow when you do
13          draft a Q&A?

14                      MS COLLINS: The process?

15                      MR. DAVID: Yes.

16                      MS COLLINS: We draft the Q&A, we 17          have them approved by the director, and then it's 18          automatically sent directly to the DCL, which is 19          the division responsible for this.

20                      MR. DAVID: All right. We see on 21          the first page the anticipated question, and then 22          there is a suggested reply. You would be drafting
23          that?

24                      MS COLLINS: Yes.

25                      MR. DAVID: Okay. And on the

1 second page, there is a background or assessment?

2 MS COLLINS: Yes.

3 MR. DAVID: Advice to the
4 Minister. And below that we see "Consultation".

5 In this case two entities were
6 consulted. One was JPE and the other was the 7 Consul General's Office in New York?

8 MS COLLINS: Yes.

9 MR. DAVID: So that is part of how 10 these are prepared?

11 MS COLLINS: Yes.

12 MR. DAVID: Okay.

13 MS COLLINS: And it is approved by 14 Helen Harris as well.

15 MR. DAVID: And this was dated
16 October 2nd?

17 MS COLLINS: Yes.

18 MR. DAVID: We can go to tab 18.
19 Again, we've seen this with Ms Girvan in detail.

20 So very quickly here, Ms Girvan is 21 requesting yourself to inform the family of her
22 intended visit, and this is on Wednesday, October
23 2nd?

24 Do you see that message?

25 MS COLLINS: Yes, I do.

1 MR. DAVID: Okay. We can go to
2 tab 19, which is a reference to a call from
3 Marlene Catterall's office, and we see the 4 involvement of the local MP in this case.

5 Is that a common occurrence?

6 MS COLLINS: Yes, it is.

7 MR. DAVID: We move on now to
8 October 3rd, the Wednesday, and we know that 9 Ms Girvan visited Mr. Arar at MDC in the morning.
10 We've heard her testimony.

11 I would like to bring you to tab
12 26. This is a fax that is coming from Ms Girvan
13 to MDC, to Ms Ward in fact, where she is advising
14 MDC that a lawyer is going to or is likely to 15 contact them to visit Mr. Arar.

16 Is this a normal consular
17 function, to do this kind of thing?

18 MS COLLINS: Consular are not
19 responsible for an attorney to see their clients.
20 That's their own responsibility. But in this 21 instance Maureen felt that it warranted just to 22 advise the facility that, I guess, an attorney or 23 a lawyer would be seeing.

24 So she is just going above and
25 beyond here the context of the responsibilities.

1 MR. DAVID: I would like to bring
2 you now to your personal notes for that same day,
3 October 3rd, and if you could go to pages 8 and 9
4 to review your entries on this day.

5 There is an entry at page 8 at 6 9:27:

7 "Called T. Arar. Line busy"?

8 MS COLLINS: Yes.

9 MR. DAVID: The next page, 11:31:

10 "Arar, no answer. Message
11 left."

12 And then at 1339 you have a
13 conversation with Mr. Taufik Arar.

14 Could you describe that
15 chronology?

16 MS COLLINS: I am informing him of 17 the visit, of the prison visit.

18 MR. DAVID: That has occurred?

19 MS COLLINS: Yes. I am giving --

20 MR. DAVID: You are following up
21 on what Ms Girvan requested in her message to you?

22 MS COLLINS: Yes, I am.

23 MR. DAVID: Tab 29, we can go
24 through this quickly.

25 Again, this is the phone call with

1           you with Taufik that you have just referred to,
2           and you will see that the entry is at 1354.

3                       So your notes reflect a
4           conversation at 1339, and a few minutes later you
5           are making this entry.

6                       We can go now to tab 31, and this
7           is the first visit report filed by Ms Girvan in 8           terms of her access to Mr. Arar.

9                       MS COLLINS:   Mm-hmm.

10                      MR. DAVID:   I have two questions
11           with regards to this entry.

12                      There is reference, and it's the 13           fourth paragraph, or the fourth entry, which 14           refers to the fact that Mr. Arar is:

15                               "... a member of an 16                               organization that has been
17                               designated by the Secretary
18                               of State as a Foreign 19                               Terrorist organization, to 20                               wit Al Qaeda aka Al Qa'ida."

21                      How do you react to this 22           information? Does it raise the level of 23           seriousness of this consular case? Had you seen
24           this type of allegation before?

25                      MS COLLINS:   I have seen it

1 before, yes.

2 MR. DAVID: Would that have been
3 in the cases of "X" and "Y"?

4 MS COLLINS: And other cases as
5 well.

6 MR. DAVID: And other cases
7 previous to Mr. Arar's?

8 MS COLLINS: Yes.

9 MR. DAVID: Where a similar
10 allegation was made?

11 MS COLLINS: Yes.

12 MR. DAVID: In a document that
13 was -- in description was it similar to this?

14 MS COLLINS: I can't tell you it
15 was similar to this, but the allegations, yes.

16 MR. DAVID: Okay. Again, at the 17 bottom of this message, Ms Girvan is referring to 18 the fear of being deported to Syria and says the 19 following:

20 "... two immigration officers
21 spoke to him ..."

22 That is Mr. Arar.

23 "... and told him that they 24 were going to send him to 25 Syria. He said that asked

1                   why, since he had not been to
2                   Syria for years and all his
3                   family is in Canada."

4                   So this is the second reference
5                   now being made to a Syrian scenario in terms of 6                   deportation.

7                   How do you react to this? Does
8                   this change anything?

9                   MS COLLINS: I think the reaction
10                  was I think was pretty much the same all around, 11                  is the fact that we now have confirmation with the 12                  MDC, with the authorities, that Mr. Arar is a 13                  Canadian citizen. We are now given access to 14                  Mr. Arar, meaning that they approve the fact that 15                  he is a Canadian national.

16                  So we had no reason to believe at 17                  this point that he was going to be deported to 18                  Syria. We had no precedent cases before, or even 19                  after Mr. Arar's, to base our point on this.

20                  MR. DAVID: If we can go now to 21                  what I have termed the third visit report, and 22                  that is at tab 34, Ms Collins.

23                  And here you are being actually
24                  tasked by Ms Girvan, and the message is -- 25                  Ms Girvan is confirming that Mr. Arar had

1 requested consular access or consular contact?

2 MS COLLINS: Yes.

3 MR. DAVID: That there had been no
4 official notification by the U.S. authorities?

5 MS COLLINS: Mm-hmm.

6 MR. DAVID: And in the third
7 paragraph she says the following:

8 "Gar, Nancy, Bob ..."

9 Gar would be Gar Parady, Nancy is 10 you, and Bob is Bob Archambault.

11 "Can we discuss tomorrow..."

12 That would have been for the 13 Friday.

14 "... what steps the Canadian
15 government can take to learn
16 the basis for the charges.

17 Maureen."

18 And obviously I guess there is now
19 a reference to the al-Qaeda allegations.

20 Did this discussion ever take
21 place, to your recollection?

22 MS COLLINS: Yes it did, and I
23 think it's reflected in my note that we have just 24 added, on October 4th.

25 MR. DAVID: If we can now --

1 MS COLLINS: On page 11.

2 MR. DAVID: So on page 11 --

3 THE COMMISSIONER: Is this on
4 October 4th?

5 MS COLLINS: October 4th.

6 MR. DAVID: This is the entry in 7 regards to this.

8 MS COLLINS: It's actually at two
9 o'clock and I believe that I put down, from 1400
10 to 1428 that a conversation did -- a conference
11 call did in fact take place with Mr. Pardy,
12 Ms Girvan, Mr. Archambault and myself.

13 MR. DAVID: Could you describe to 14 us what --

15 MS COLLINS: Sure. Maureen
16 discussed the case and what she had known -- what 17 she found out up to that point. Mr. Archambault,
18 and I do recall, had indicated that he had 19 received a phone call that day from the State
20 Department acknowledging the detention.

21 So we now have a consular
22 notification of the arrest of Mr. Arar.

23 We discussed -- I believe Maureen,
24 as well, mentioned the fact that there was going
25 to be a visit by the attorney the next day.

1                   So the issue of the diplomatic
2 note was now null. We didn't think that it would
3 go into effect.

4                   MR. DAVID: In terms of getting 5 more precision or more precise information on the 6 charges --

7                   MS COLLINS: That's up to the 8 attorney. The attorney is seeing Mr. Arar the 9 next day. That's the responsibility of the 10 attorney, to represent her client and the best
11 interests to her client. And if there is anything
12 that the attorney wants us, then they are to place
13 that in writing and that would be sent to us at 14 headquarters. And Mr. Pardy -- myself would look 15 at it and Mr. Pardy, if we needed to have legal 16 advice to see if we can assist the attorney.

17                   MR. DAVID: Okay. We can now go
18 to the next day, the Friday, October 4th, and go 19 to tab 39. Again, we've covered this with 20 Ms Girvan.

21                   Very quickly, Ms Girvan is 22 requesting that you provide the CCR, which is the 23 Centre for Constitutional Rights, phone number to 24 Mr. Taufik?

25                   MS COLLINS: Yes.

1 MR. DAVID: And we see at tab 40
2 that you follow through, and that in fact you
3 provide the information to Ms Mazigh, Mr. Arar's
4 wife?

5 MS COLLINS: No. This is 6 Mr. Taufik's wife.

7 MR. DAVID: Okay; thank you.

8 I would like now to bring you to 9 your personal notes for this day, and that would
10 be an entry on page 10? There's an entry at, I
11 believe, it's 1158.

12 Could just read that for us.

13 MS COLLINS: Okay. I don't have a
14 time.

15 THE COMMISSIONER: This is the ISA
16 J. Solomon?

17 MR. DAVID: Yes.

18 MS COLLINS: That's when Jonathan
19 was trying to request a meeting to discuss 20 Mr. Arar because we had not spoken and now he is 21 calling me to set up a meeting with myself and 22 also Mr. Pardy.

23 MR. DAVID: So it's now
24 Mr. Solomon's initiative to set up a meeting?

25 MS COLLINS: He is asking. He is

1 asking for a meeting with myself and Mr. Pardy. I
2 don't recall that we ever did have a meeting until
3 the 16th.

4 MR. DAVID: Okay. Do you get an
5 indication -- and we have to be maybe a little 6 careful here. But do we have an indication what 7 the purpose of this meeting is at this point?

8 MS COLLINS: No, I don't.

9 MR. DAVID: And is this a normal
10 course of business type of call to you on the 11 ISI's part, to meet on a consular case?

12 MS COLLINS: It all depends. But
13 in this instance I believe he couldn't speak over 14 the phone, and that means that we would go and 15 have a meeting. To me that's what it means.

16 MR. DAVID: So simply on this
17 request you go to see Mr. Pardy and you would 18 inform him of --

19 MS COLLINS: And then we would
20 meet downstairs -- or upstairs in Mr. Pardy's
21 office and discuss this case.

22 MR. DAVID: Continuing on now on 23 the day, on page 10 there is an entry at 1320?

24 MS COLLINS: Yes.

25 MR. DAVID: Could you tell us what

1 this is about?

2 MS COLLINS: The first one is not
3 relevant to this case. I have a message
4 Mr. Taufik at 1320.

5 MR. DAVID: And then at page 11,
6 we have the follow-through?

7 MS COLLINS: Yes. At 1338 I
8 return Mr. Taufik's message and I leave a message.

9 MR. DAVID: Okay. And do you
10 recall any --

11 MS COLLINS: It's reflected in my
12 note, and I believe I leave a message with his 13 wife, and I give the phone number of the CCR.

14 MR. DAVID: Okay.

15 Mr. Commissioner, it's now 11
16 o'clock, and I think it's an appropriate time to 17 take the morning break.

18 THE COMMISSIONER: All right. We 19 will rise for 15 minutes.

20 MR. DAVID: Thank you.

21 THE REGISTRAR: Please stand.
22 Veuillez-vous lever.

23 --- Upon recessing at 11:02 a.m. /

24 Suspension à 11 h 02

25 --- Upon resuming at 11:19 a.m. /

1 Reprise à 11 h 19

2 THE REGISTRAR: Please be seated.
3 Veuillez-vous asseoir.

4 MR. DAVID: Ms Collins we are
5 going to now go to Monday, October 7th, and I
6 bring you to your own -- I am sorry. Mr. Baxter
7 just wants to clarify the issue of the personal
8 notes for October.

9 MR. BAXTER: At page 11,
10 Mr. Commissioner, Ms Collins called your attention
11 to an entry from 1400 to 1428 that was mistakenly
12 taken out of the bottom half there.

13 Since she deals with so many other
14 cases, there is a lot of information obviously 15 that deals with other cases. The actual entry
16 reads "1400-1428 Gar's office."

17 That's all that it says. And we 18 weren't able to recopy it, but it's in the bottom
19 white box at page 11.

20 THE COMMISSIONER: Thank you,
21 Mr. Baxter. That's helpful.

22 MR. DAVID: So, Ms Collins, I was
23 referring you to page 12 of your personal notes
24 for Monday, October 7th?

25 MS COLLINS: Yes.

1 MR. DAVID: And at the bottom
2 there is an entry.

3 MS COLLINS: There is a message
4 from Mr. Taufik Arar asking for an appointment
5 with Foreign Affairs to discuss the case of his 6 brother.

7 MR. DAVID: Okay. With anybody
8 specifically or ...

9 MS COLLINS: He just said I want
10 to meet somebody at Foreign Affairs.

11 MR. DAVID: Do you know if that 12 was followed up, to your knowledge?

13 MS COLLINS: I believe, yes, it
14 was, after -- I don't remember the date, but 15 Mr. Pardy did meet with the family.

16 MR. DAVID: I bring you now to Tab
17 44, and this is an entry for 11:31. It's coming
18 from New York. It refers to three phone
19 conversations that Ms Girvan is having with Monia
20 Mazigh, with a lawyer by the name of Oummih, and 21 also with a friend of the family.

22 I bring you to that third
23 telephone conversation, which is the second
24 paragraph, to the family friend.

25 MS COLLINS: May I just have a

1 moment to read it?

2 MR. DAVID: Sure. I was going to
3 read it with you and that way --

4 MS COLLINS: Okay, perfect.

5 MR. DAVID: So the friend:

6 "... called. He asked if
7 there would be consular
8 representation at the meeting
9 with INS this evening. I
10 said 'not normally'. In 11 fact, we are not even usually
12 informed. Clearly in this 13 case, they are saying that
14 the lawyer can attend. I
15 said that I would not be able 16 to attend the hearing this 17 evening."

18 And that is in reference to a
19 message that had been coming in from Ms Oummi, h,
20 informing Ms Girvan that there was to be an 21 interview. She was informed of the fact that the 22 district director of the INS had called Ms Oummi, h,
23 informing her that they would like to interview
24 Mr. Arar this evening, that is the Monday evening,
25 at 7 p.m.?

1 MS COLLINS: Yes.

2 MR. DAVID: And so what the friend
3 is inquiring about is whether, in addition to the 4 lawyer being present, whether the consul would be
5 present at this interview.

6 MS COLLINS: We never attend --

7 MR. DAVID: That is my question.
8 What is the procedure in this regard in terms of 9 the services you offer?

10 MS COLLINS: We never attend any 11 INS deportation hearing or interviews, ever. In 12 my time that I have been with consular affairs, we 13 have not done so previously and we are not doing
14 it so now. So it's not a normal procedure that we 15 do.

16 MR. DAVID: Okay. Are there
17 proceedings, judicial proceedings, where you are 18 in attendance?

19 MS COLLINS: Yes, as an observer
20 only.

21 MR. DAVID: And what sort of 22 scenario would that cover?

23 MS COLLINS: It depends on the 24 case. We have cases where we have a person who 25 possibly could face the death penalty. Absolutely

1 we would want a Canadian representative to be at 2 the court, at the sentencing, absolutely.

3 MR. DAVID: I bring you now to 4 your personal notes, page 13 and page 14 for the 5 same date, Monday, October 7th. There is an entry
6 at 12:26.

7 "Message from Jonathan
8 Solomon."

9 And then the entry at 1516 on page
10 14.

11 Could you tell us what that
12 concerns, again from Mr. Solomon?

13 MS COLLINS: I am not sure exactly
14 if this deals with Mr. Arar or not, or if it was 15 dealing to another particular case.

16 On the other one, I don't 17 recall -- I think maybe following up on the 18 meeting again, but I don't remember.

19 MR. DAVID: Okay. I bring you now
20 to Tuesday, October 8th, tab 45. Ms Girvan is now
21 informing you, as well as others, that Mr. Arar
22 has been removed from MDC between three and four 23 o'clock in the morning.

24 Can you tell us what this brought
25 to your mind at this time?

1 MS COLLINS: I am referring to
2 Mr. X again, where we had lost him.

3 MR. DAVID: Mm-hmm.

4 MS COLLINS: This is not, I guess,
5 an odd practice in America. They do not only with 6 U.S. INS but also with regular prisoners, that is 7 transported by the Bureau of Prisons or the U.S.
8 Marshalls, and they do that in the middle of the 9 night. We are never told. And the reason behind
10 that is that it's for security reasons.

11 MR. DAVID: And if the scenario is 12 a deportation scenario, is this a common
13 occurrence, to be transferred from a federal 14 prison to an INS immigration holding centre?

15 MS COLLINS: Yes, and that's where 16 we are referring to INS Manhattan, because in the 17 previous two cases, Mr. X and Y had been 18 transported to INS Manhattan.

19 MR. DAVID: If we could now go to
20 tab 47, this is for again Tuesday, October 8th.

21 Now in this message, through a
22 contact that had already been established a few 23 days before that had been a helpful source of 24 information for the Consul General's office in New 25 York concerning Mr. Arar and locating him, this

1 same contact is verifying on behalf of the 2 personnel, the consular personnel in New York, and
3 is being referred to now INS headquarters in 4 Washington.

5 Had this, to your knowledge, from
6 your point of view, ever occurred before?

7 MS COLLINS: No.

8 MR. DAVID: And again you are
9 being infocopied on this.

10 How did you react to this
11 information that now you are being referred -- you
12 don't know where Mr. Arar is. He has been removed 13 from MDC. And a helpful contact is referring you
14 to INS headquarters in Washington.

15 MS COLLINS: We are trying to 16 locate Mr. Arar. We have had in other cases lost
17 individuals, and it took us a while to locate the 18 individual. So I would presume in this that the 19 INS doesn't know, and I guess the official channel
20 now who would know would be U.S. Immigration in 21 Washington because they would have access now to,
22 I would believe, the database, as U.S. Immigration
23 in Manhattan may have only access to their own
24 database.

25 So now go to Washington and see if

1 they can give you some insight.

2 MR. DAVID: Okay. There is an
3 entry in your personal notes on page 15.

4 MS COLLINS: Page 15?

5 MR. DAVID: And we see that the 6 CAMANT note at tab 47 is entered at 1422 by 7 Ms Girvan?

8 MS COLLINS: Yes.

9 MR. DAVID: You have an entry at 10 1443, that you are getting a call concerning 11 Mr. Arar from the New York office?

12 MS COLLINS: Yes.

13 MR. DAVID: Do you recall what
14 that call was about?

15 MS COLLINS: I believe she is
16 giving me a "compte rendu" of what is happening,
17 what the process, what she is doing, what she is 18 undertaking at this point. She is following up
19 with a voice message.

20 MR. DAVID: In addition to the 21 CAMANT note, Ms Girvan is also following up on 22 this issue with you by phone?

23 MS COLLINS: She wants to make
24 sure that I see this message, absolutely.

25 MR. DAVID: At this time,

1 Ms Collins, there is a conference that is about to
2 take place. We are now at Tuesday, October 8th,
3 to situate you.

4 There is a conference that is
5 going to be taking place in Washington, D.C. --

6 MS COLLINS: Yes, on the 9th and 7 10th.

8 MR. DAVID: I understand that you
9 were the principal organizer of this conference?

10 MS COLLINS: Yes.

11 MR. DAVID: Could you just tell us
12 what this conference was about, what you were 13 doing, and who was attending from Ottawa and give 14 us some background?

15 MS COLLINS: Sure. Myself, Helene
16 Bouchard, and at the time also Janis Lawson --

17 MR. DAVID: So Helene Bouchard was 18 in Washington, at the Canadian embassy in 19 Washington?

20 MS COLLINS: Correct. And Janis
21 Lawson was in our division. She had just returned 22 from post and was waiting to have a position where 23 she could fill.

24 The consular conference was
25 normally held annually or biannually, and that was

1 to bring all the U.S. posts to discuss policies,
2 to discuss changes, problems that they were
3 experiencing.

4 So it was really to bring
5 everybody on board and see what was the problem,
6 what were the problems they were experiencing,
7 that it be vis-à-vis citizenship, passport,
8 transfer of offenders -- because we do deal with 9 the transfer of offenders. We have four transfers
10 yearly with the United States.

11 And also what was the other
12 questions we had at that time. This was after 13 9/11. There was a lot of different things the 14 Americans were changing all the time, so we wanted
15 to be aware of what they were experiencing.

16 The level, I guess, of deportation
17 cases were on the rise as well.

18 MR. DAVID: That affected
19 Canadians?

20 MS COLLINS: Absolutely.

21 MR. DAVID: Do you recall if on 22 the agenda of this conference -- first of all, the 23 conference was for what duration?

24 MS COLLINS: It was for the two
25 days, the 10th and the 11th.

1 MR. DAVID: Okay. And so you left
2 Ottawa. Do you recall when you left?

3 MS COLLINS: I left early morning
4 on the 9th.

5 MR. DAVID: And you returned to 6 Ottawa when?

7 MS COLLINS: Around midnight on
8 the 11th -- well, turning the 12th.

9 MR. DAVID: Do you recall if on
10 the agenda items at this conference was a
11 discussion about security cases?

12 You had experienced the "X" and 13 "Y" scenario at the very least. Was that one of 14 the topics that was discussed, the security
15 cases --

16 MS COLLINS: It was raised with 17 the State Department. That was something that was 18 raised as well within everybody of the concerns.

19 MR. DAVID: As part of the new 20 realities of the --

21 MS COLLINS: Absolutely.

22 MR. DAVID: -- geography in the 23 United States?

24 MS COLLINS: Yes.

25 MR. DAVID: And do you recall if

1           there was any particular discussions about the 2           treatment of people of Arabic descent in these
3           deportation cases in the United States?

4                       MS COLLINS:  I know we raised the 5           Arabic deportation, and I believe we were given an 6           estimation they had over -- let's say, for 7           instance, 300,000, and 6,000 were Arabs.  So I do
8           remember being given a statistical point.

9                       But what exactly what they were, I
10          don't remember.

11                      MR. DAVID:  So in attendance at 12          this conference were all the Canadian consular
13          personnel working in the United States?

14                      MS COLLINS:  Most of them were.

15                      MR. DAVID:  Most of them.  And we 16          understand that Ms Girvan was there from the New 17          York office --

18                      MS COLLINS:  Along with --

19                      MR. DAVID:  Go ahead; sorry?

20                      MS COLLINS:  With Ms Lisiane
21          LeFloch as well.

22                      MR. DAVID:  Exactly.  From Ottawa,
23          from JPO, who was there?

24                      MS COLLINS:  Myself.

25                      MR. DAVID:  And was Gar Pardy

1           there?

2                           MS COLLINS:   Yes, he was.

3                           MR. DAVID:   He was.   Was there
4           anybody else from the Ottawa office in attendance?

5                           MS COLLINS:   From Ottawa we had
6           citizenship and passport individuals.

7                           MR. DAVID:   Okay.   But from 8           consular --

9                           MS COLLINS:   From consular, we 10          were the only two.

11                          MR. DAVID:   So this is now very 12          much part of your daily activities, your daily
13          responsibilities, making sure the organization of 14          this conference is going smoothly?

15                          MS COLLINS:   Yes.

16                          MR. DAVID:   Okay.   I bring you now
17          to tab 54, and this is an entry for Wednesday,
18          October 9th.   As you say, you had left early in 19          the morning on that day to go to Washington.

20                          It's a message where essentially
21          Helen Harris, the JPE, is intervening.   Could you
22          give us a sense of why now JPE is involved?

23                          MS COLLINS:   Yes.   It was arranged
24          that while both Mr. Pardy and myself would be gone
25          on a conference, Ms Harris would be the acting

1 Director General and also the JPE would also reply
2 to the calls that I would normally receive. So
3 JPE would now undertake my function.

4 MR. DAVID: So they are
5 essentially stepping in for you?

6 MS COLLINS: Yes.

7 MR. DAVID: In your absence?

8 MS COLLINS: Yes.

9 MR. DAVID: Let's just go through
10 this message because Ms Harris is making a
11 suggestion to you while you are in Washington in 12 terms of seeking information on Mr. Arar.

13 Mr. Arar is still missing?

14 MS COLLINS: Yes.

15 MR. DAVID: And Ms Harris makes a
16 recommendation in the second paragraph:

17 "Contacted Nancy Collins/JPO
18 in Washington on her cell and 19 suggested that she put a call
20 in to ..."

21 Who I understand is a U.S.
22 official?

23 MS COLLINS: Yes.

24 MR. DAVID: Okay.

25 "Thrust of call would be that

1 we would like to take the
2 opportunity of being in
3 Washington to follow-up re
4 info on subject and suggest a
5 possible meeting this
6 afternoon with Gar Pardy."

7 So it's quite obvious that this
8 official is also in Washington?

9 MS COLLINS: Yes.

10 MR. DAVID: Okay.

11 "Without commenting on 12 percentages of getting this 13 meeting, it might put their 14 feet to the fire about 15 providing us with some 16 information on his 17 whereabouts and wellbeing."

18 And then we see that:

19 "Nancy agreed to place the 20 call (provided the phone 21 number) to ... office, as 22 well as name of his assistant
23 ... who has also been
24 contacted on this case.
25 Nancy is meeting Gar at the

1 Embassy at 2:00 p.m. and
2 hopefully will have made
3 contact in order to further
4 discuss with Gar Pardy."

5 And now we see that this is
6 actually being sent to you as a follow-up. It is 7 "to" message, not an "info" message.

8 MS COLLINS: Yes.

9 MR. DAVID: Do you recall this
10 conversation with Helen Harris?

11 MS COLLINS: Yes, I do.

12 MR. DAVID: And do you recall
13 following up on this conversation?

14 MS COLLINS: Yes, I do.

15 MR. DAVID: Could you just give us
16 some details about that.

17 MS COLLINS: I recall, because I
18 was just arriving. I was still at the airport and 19 I had just turned on my cell and it started
20 ringing. I spoke with Ms Harris and I told her
21 that I would be following up.

22 I immediately proceeded to my
23 hotel. From the hotel, checked in and went to the 24 embassy immediately. I placed a call, and I
25 believe I also make a note eventually that I tried

1 calling the officials at that time. But we are
2 now looking at lunchtime, so I was unable to reach
3 anybody.

4 I also met with Mr. Pardy and
5 Mr. Archambault at the embassy at two o'clock that 6 afternoon and we did discuss the case.

7 MR. DAVID: Was this the first of 8 what you heard about calling this particular
9 official at this time? Was this the first 10 reference to it, or had this been the subject of 11 other CAMANT communications, if you recall?

12 MS COLLINS: I don't recall. It
13 could have, but I don't recall.

14 MR. DAVID: Okay. And in terms of
15 Helen Harris' suggestion, it was the first time
16 that she suggested this to you?

17 MS COLLINS: Yes.

18 MR. DAVID: So this you inform 19 Mr. Pardy of --

20 MS COLLINS: Absolutely.

21 MR. DAVID: -- as "demarche", as 22 something to do?

23 MS COLLINS: Absolutely.

24 MR. DAVID: I bring you now to tab
25 55.

1                   Before we look at this
2 information, was Ms Girvan involved with this
3 procedure also, to your knowledge, at this time?

4                   MS COLLINS: Yes she was. I
5 believe she was also trying to communicate
6 directly with that official as well.

7                   MR. DAVID: Okay. So there were 8 two channels or two approaches, I guess you could 9 say, to get this official to respond to the 10 situation?

11                  MS COLLINS: Yes. She was 12 undertaking it and I was taking it from the other
13 side, from Washington.

14                  MR. DAVID: Both of you knew what 15 each other's efforts were about?

16                  MS COLLINS: Absolutely.

17                  MR. DAVID: So we go now to tab
18 55, and this is an entry at 1538 for the 19 Wednesday. We see that you leave a message with 20 the Washington official?

21                  MS COLLINS: Yes.

22                  MR. DAVID: As well, it is 23 indicated that Maureen Girvan is also awaiting for 24 a reply?

25                  MS COLLINS: That's right. I

1 recall that when we spoke with Mr. Pardy, we had a
2 meeting with Mr. Pardy and Mr. Archambault, we 3 immediately proceeded in calling Maureen to see if 4 she had been successful. And I presume that as 5 well, according to my notes, she was now at the 6 airport. As you can see from here, she was on the 7 phone with the individual who promised to get back
8 to us shortly with a response.

9 So she had been successful in
10 reaching someone, that individual.

11 MR. DAVID: Now, interestingly,
12 this is an entry into the CAMANT system by 13 yourself?

14 MS COLLINS: Yes.

15 MR. DAVID: Are you doing this
16 from the Canadian embassy in Washington?

17 MS COLLINS: Yes, I am.

18 MR. DAVID: So you have access to 19 CAMANT though you are in Washington?

20 MS COLLINS: Yes.

21 MR. DAVID: And again you mention
22 that this case is shaping up just like the -- and 23 is that a reference to one of our --

24 MS COLLINS: Mr. X.

25 MR. DAVID: To Mr. X. So this is

1 the second time you are making this point now?

2 MS COLLINS: Yes.

3 MR. DAVID: And you are also
4 referring to the fact that there is a consensus
5 that you would wait 24 hours before taking any 6 action.

7 I am just wondering why you agreed
8 to this 24-hour grace period?

9 MS COLLINS: It was agreed
10 because, again, when we spoke with Ms Girvan, she 11 was on the phone with the official and he had 12 promised to get back. So we figured we will give 13 a day and see if we are going to get a reply, if 14 we are going to get a response. I believe that 15 was the decision at that time.

16 MR. DAVID: To your knowledge was
17 this a new approach, a new avenue being explored, 18 as compared to what you had done in the past in 19 any other case?

20 MS COLLINS: That's something we
21 may want to ask Mr. Parady, really, about the 22 approach. I think there was a consensus that we 23 would wait.

24 MR. DAVID: I am just talking
25 about the actual official that you are trying to

1 get contact with?

2 MS COLLINS: We had never been in
3 contact with that official previously, ever.

4 MR. DAVID: To deal with any other
5 case?

6 MS COLLINS: No.

7 MR. DAVID: Okay. At this point
8 there is Mr. Pardy who is in Washington, Ms Girvan
9 is there, yourself are there. The three perhaps 10 most involved people in the Arar fact line are 11 present.

12 Are you speculating as to what has 13 happened to Mr. Arar at this time?

14 MS COLLINS: Absolutely, we are 15 very puzzled.

16 MR. DAVID: What is the scenario
17 that you are now -- how do you explain what's 18 happened?

19 MS COLLINS: I think everybody is
20 very puzzled, is perplexed as to what happened,
21 trying to get answers. We are placing calls. We 22 are calling everybody that we know that could try
23 to assist us in any way in trying to locate
24 Mr. Arar.

25 I remember speaking with

1 individuals myself.

2 MR. DAVID: And is Syria in the
3 possible scenarios that you are considering to 4 explain the situation?

5 MS COLLINS: Not at that present
6 time. We believed that he may have been moved to 7 another facility. I can't tell you that it was 8 not in our minds. We were just hoping not. But 9 it was not really our main, I guess, target or our 10 belief. We believed that he had just been moved 11 to another facility, and that we were given the 12 runaround again like we had been given --

13 MR. DAVID: So the operating 14 assumption is that Mr. Arar is still in the United 15 States?

16 MS COLLINS: At that present time,
17 absolutely.

18 MR. DAVID: I understand that
19 there was a cocktail reception at the embassy that 20 evening, Ms Girvan -- Ms Collins, sorry.

21 MS COLLINS: That's okay.

22 MR. DAVID: Counterparts from the 23 U.S. State Department had been invited, and it
24 seemed that few showed up.

25 Did you make anything of the fact

1           that there were few show-ups there?

2                       MS COLLINS:  We asked questions.
3           There is a few people that had confirmed their
4           attendance at the cocktail that didn't show up,
5           and that was one of the questions we were asking
6           ourselves.

7                       MR. DAVID:  And did you make any 8           sort of correlation to the fact that there was an 9           unexplained absence of Mr. Arar at this time?

10                      MS COLLINS:  I can't say.

11                      MR. DAVID:  But you did find it
12           strange that --

13                      MS COLLINS:  I think, yes.

14                      MR. DAVID:  -- that certain 15           American guests were not present at this 16           reception?

17                      MS COLLINS:  Right.

18                      MR. DAVID:  We go now to tab 57,
19           Ms Collins.  We are now on the next day, on 20           Thursday, October the 10th.  And this is a message
21           that is quite significant.

22                      Mr. Arar is confirmed to Maureen
23           Girvan as not being in the United States.  In 24           other words, the U.S. official Ms Girvan had been 25           seeking answers from was confirming to Ms Girvan

1           that Mr. Arar was no longer in the United States,
2           and we see in this message that in fact certain
3           efforts are being put on foot by DFAIT to see if 4           we can't locate Mr. Arar in Syria.

5                           MS COLLINS:    Yes.

6                           MR. DAVID:   When do you get this
7           information from Ms Girvan?

8                           MS COLLINS:   I think -- I am just 9           trying to remember here.  During the conference
10          both Ms Girvan and Mr. Pardy would leave the 11          conference on the side and place calls while the 12          conference was still ongoing.

13                          MR. DAVID:    Okay.

14                          MS COLLINS:   So it could have been
15          in between pauses, or breaks, or lunch that I
16          would have been made aware at that time.

17                          So I can't say exactly when was I
18          informed.

19                          MR. DAVID:   So the avenue that 20          Ms Girvan was trying to get answers from actually
21          came through, and there is an official, a U.S.
22          official, who did provide Ms Girvan with the 23          confirmation that Mr. Arar was no longer in the 24          country.  And we've heard Ms Girvan's testimony in 25          this regard.

1                   It's also my understanding that 2                   separate sources that concern you directly also 3                   confirmed.

4                   I know that -- and we are going to 5                   be very careful in dealing with this issue because 6                   part of this testimony will have to be heard in 7                   camera. There is an issue of protecting who 8                   provided you the information and the circumstances 9                   in which it was provided in order to protect 10                  certain sources that have been developed.

11                  But I just want to get a sense
12                  from you, for the public record, that 13                  independently of Ms Girvan's confirmation, you are 14                  also obtaining your own confirmation from U.S.
15                  officials. And I just want to know what 16                  confirmation you are getting.

17                  MS COLLINS: Both Helene Bouchard
18                  and myself met with an American official who had 19                  placed a call on our behalf.

20                  MR. DAVID: And in response to 21                  this call, what information are you obtaining?
22                  What confirmation are you getting with regard to
23                  Mr. Arar?

24                  MS COLLINS: That's very delicate,
25                  but it was confirmed the American official could

1 no longer speak to us.

2 MR. DAVID: Okay.

3 MS COLLINS: And we then asked the
4 American official if it would be okay if we asked
5 questions and if she can answer with a yes and a
6 no without breaching any -- well, I guess she was 7 still breaching it.

8 MR. DAVID: And through this
9 process you got the confirmation that Mr. Arar was 10 not in the United States?

11 MS COLLINS: Absolutely.

12 MR. DAVID: As I say, we will hear 13 the rest of your testimony in that regard in 14 camera.

15 MS COLLINS: Okay.

16 MR. DAVID: So let us move on now
17 to tab 59. Again, this is an entry for Thursday, 18 the 10th of October. This is an entry from 19 Ottawa.

20 But it's confirming that:

21 "JPD/Pardy has confirmed
22 through Canadian sources that
23 subject has been removed to
24 Syria."

25 And this is again on the same

1 date?

2 MS COLLINS: Yes.

3 MR. DAVID: Do you know anything
4 with regard to this confirmation that Mr. Arar is 5 no longer in the United States and has in fact
6 been removed to Syria?

7 MS COLLINS: As soon as I met with
8 the American official, we immediately proceeded
9 into alarming Mr. Pardy of the information that we 10 had obtained, and Mr. Pardy proceeded on in trying 11 to clarify and also obtain clarification and 12 confirmation about the information we had passed
13 on.

14 MR. DAVID: Mr. Pardy was
15 successful in his seeking further clarifications?

16 MS COLLINS: I would presume so.

17 MR. DAVID: We will ask Mr. Pardy.
18 We can go now to tab 60, and this
19 is an entry for 1731, coming from Madame Helene
20 Bouchard.

21 MS COLLINS: Yes.

22 MR. DAVID: Essentially it's
23 providing information to Helen Harris in Ottawa
24 for an update on the Q&A.

25 There is a reference in the

1 headnote to the information that -- and the
2 information that is being provided, it's in the 3 second paragraph for the Q&A:

4 "After further research, we
5 were informed on October 10
6 by the American authorities
7 that Mr. Arar had been
8 removed from the U.S. due to 9 an immigration infraction."

10 And from the headnote we see that 11 this information was coming from JPD. So that's 12 Gar Pardy?

13 Do you see that?

14 MS COLLINS: Yes.

15 MR. DAVID: There is also
16 reference to CNGNY which was, I gather, Maureen
17 Girvan?

18 MS COLLINS: Yes, it was.

19 MR. DAVID: We are going to have
20 to change volumes here, Ms Collins, if we could go
21 to tab 709 in Volume 8. Keep that one handy,
22 though. Don't put that too far.

23 MR. WALDMAN: You will come back
24 to that?

25 MR. DAVID: Yes.

1                   This is the chronology that was
2 prepared by the Department of Foreign Affairs, and
3 I bring you to page 5 of the chronology.

4                   It's a bit confusing because there
5 are two reference numbers for pages. There is the 6 6 of 19 at the bottom right, and in the bottom
7 middle there is also a page reference and they are 8 not the same.

9                   So if you could go to page 6 of 10 19.

11                  MS COLLINS: Six of 19, okay.

12                  MR. DAVID: Which is page 5 of the 13 chronology.

14                  MS COLLINS: Okay.

15                  MR. DAVID: There is an entry here
16 for the 10th of October, so it's the same day we 17 are talking about.

18                  It says:

19                         "Consul is advised by ...
20                         that Mr. Arar has been 21                         removed from the USA. He 22                         advises Consul that he is not 23                         able to provide any 24                         additional information."

25                  The consul in question, to your

1 knowledge, is that Ms Girvan?

2 MS COLLINS: Yes, it is.

3 MR. DAVID: We go on. It says:

4 "JPO is officially informed
5 by the INS that, because of
6 an immigration infraction,
7 Arar was removed from the US
8 to Syria, where he holds
9 citizenship, as well as being
10 a Canadian citizen and a long
11 time resident of Canada.
12 Later they indicate that Arar
13 may be in Jordan."

14 Is the reference to JPO a
15 reference to you or to Mr. Pardy?

16 MS COLLINS: That's to myself.

17 MR. DAVID: To you. So is this 18 the independent source that you consulted that is 19 providing this information?

20 MS COLLINS: Sure, yes.

21 MR. DAVID: We go now to October
22 15th, which is the Tuesday, and I bring you to 23 your personal notes, Ms Collins.

24 MS COLLINS: Thank you.

25 MR. DAVID: It would be page 17.

1           And there are entries on both pages 17 and 18, if
2           you could briefly go through those.

3                       MS COLLINS: Well on 17 the 4           message is I am coming in the morning. There are 5           messages. The first one is not relevant to this
6           case.

7                       There is a message by Mr. Taufik
8           Arar. I called him back at 9:19. The line was 9           busy. And I spoke with him at 9:29 that morning
10          again.

11                      MR. DAVID: And do you know what 12          that concerned?

13                      MS COLLINS: It reflects, I
14          believe, that while I was speaking with him I was 15          also writing a CAMANT.

16                      MR. DAVID: Okay. If we could go
17          to tab 78, I believe that would be the reference?

18                      Is that the conversation in 19          question?

20                      MS COLLINS: Yes, it is.

21                      MR. DAVID: So you are simply
22          confirming to Mr. Taufik Arar that your department
23          has resorted to using a diplomatic note for both 24          Syria and Jordan, seeking confirmation of 25          Mr. Arar's presence?

1 MS COLLINS: Yes.

2 MR. DAVID: Now, interestingly
3 enough, we do use here fairly quickly the means of 4 the diplomatic note, if you have any comments in 5 that regard?

6 MS COLLINS: Absolutely. I mean,
7 just under the way that Mr. Arar had been
8 deported, that was not a normal procedure. So
9 technically that's the reason why we used it
10 immediately: is that Mr. Arar, under normal
11 procedures of deportation, should have been sent
12 back to Canada where he had, I would presume,
13 requested, and we had received official
14 confirmation by giving consular access that he was 15 indeed a Canadian national.

16 So by Mr. Arar being removed to a
17 third country, we immediately proceeded in getting 18 the diplomatic note out, sent immediately.

19 MR. DAVID: And they were sent to 20 both Jordan and Syria?

21 MS COLLINS: I presume, yes.

22 MR. DAVID: That's what your 23 message says.

24 It says that diplomatic note was 25 sent to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs in

1           Damascus and Amman.

2                           MS COLLINS:   The reason why I am
3           saying that is that while I was in Washington we 4           did talk about the diplomatic notes being sent.
5           So that was Mr. Pardy who was in communications
6           with Ms Harris, for them to send out -- to advise
7           the mission to send out a diplomatic note.

8                           MR. DAVID:   Can you tell us
9           whether, to your knowledge, diplomatic notes are 10          used on occasion to protest the treatment by a 11          foreign country of the handling of a Canadian 12          citizen's case?

13                          MS COLLINS:   Yes.

14                          MR. DAVID:   And was it considered
15          whether a diplomatic note -- first of all, let me
16          ask you:   Was a diplomatic note sent by Canada to 17          the United States on their handling of Mr. Arar's
18          case?

19                          MS COLLINS:   I don't recall.

20                          MR. DAVID:   And was that 21          considered as a possibility?

22                          MS COLLINS:   I know we discussed
23          the potential of the diplomatic note, yes.

24                          MR. DAVID:   And do you know when 25          that was discussed?

1 MS COLLINS: When this was all
2 happening, absolutely.

3 MR. DAVID: In the end, to your
4 knowledge, a diplomatic note by Canada was not
5 sent to the United States?

6 MS COLLINS: I don't know.

7 MR. DAVID: You don't know?

8 MS COLLINS: No.

9 MR. DAVID: Coming back now to
10 your notes for the 15th of October, I am at page
11 17. We left off at the last entry.

12 If we go to page 18 now, could you
13 describe those entries?

14 MS COLLINS: Sure. I get a call
15 from Mr. Ken England which I believe was the PRPA
16 officer, which is the Public Affairs Relations
17 officer at the Canadian Consul General in New 18 York, who would normally be the person if we 19 receive a media inquiry. He is calling me,
20 wanting an update on the Q&A, which is the 21 question and answer, and then I call him back. I
22 am returning his call.

23 MR. DAVID: The next item in the 24 chronology was tab 78, and I think we've already 25 covered that in the detail I wanted to, and that

1 was your conversation with Mr. Taufik Arar on the 2 Tuesday.

3 If we could go now, with your
4 personal notes, for the 16th of October, I bring
5 you to page 19.

6 There is a lot of black and there
7 is little written, but there is a reference here
8 to a meeting with ISI, CSIS/RCMP?

9 MS COLLINS: Yes.

10 MR. DAVID: And underneath is the 11 name "Arar".

12 MS COLLINS: I can't see -- okay.

13 MR. DAVID: Is this the meeting in 14 question that Mr. Solomon had requested a few days 15 previous?

16 MS COLLINS: No. This is a
17 meeting that was convened by Mr. Pardy after I
18 returned from Washington.

19 MR. DAVID: Okay. And you
20 attended this meeting?

21 MS COLLINS: Yes, I did.

22 MR. DAVID: And Mr. Pardy was also
23 in attendance?

24 MS COLLINS: Yes, he was.

25 MR. DAVID: I would like to bring

1           you to three references to that meeting. Your 2 notes have been redacted for concerns of national
3 security confidentiality, but I would like to 4 bring you to some public documents that concern
5 this meeting.

6                           MS COLLINS: Okay.

7                           MR. DAVID: My first reference
8 would be to tab 84.

9                           First of all, for the record, this 10 is a briefing note. Is this what --

11                           MS COLLINS: I have never seen
12 this.

13                           MR. DAVID: Or it's a memo anyhow?

14                           MS COLLINS: Yes, it is a memo.

15                           MR. DAVID: It is dated the 16th
16 of October, which is the date of the meeting, and 17 it is going to the Minister -- MINA is the 18 Minister of Foreign Affairs -- from Gar Pardy.
19 GPD is Gar Pardy.

20                           MS COLLINS: Yes.

21                           MR. DAVID: If you could go to the 22 bottom bullet at the very bottom of the page, I
23 will read that to you:

24                           It says:

25                           "This afternoon a Globe and

1 Mail correspondent called the
2 departmental press office and
3 advised that he interviewed
4 the American ambassador this
5 afternoon. In summary, the 6 American will be quoted ..."

7 And that would be Mr. Cellucci.
8 "... will be quoted as saying
9 'I think that the USINS
10 authorities acted properly in 11 deporting Mr. Arar to Syria.
12 You should talk to your local
13 people who may know the 14 reasons.'"

15 MS COLLINS: Mm-hmm.

16 MR. DAVID: Again, this is just a
17 reference to a press conference or press
18 information.

19 And if you go to the next page,
20 Ms Collins, it says:

21 "The RCMP indicated they will
22 provide DFAIT with a response
23 by close of business Thursday
24 16 October. At that time, we
25 will provide a memorandum

1 with suggestions as to what
2 could be done to deal further
3 with this matter."

4 So my question is very simple to
5 you, Ms Collins. There is a reference to the fact
6 here that the RCMP is undertaking to provide DFAIT
7 a response with regard to, I gather, the Arar
8 affair.

9 Was that part of the discussions
10 at this meeting on October 16th that you attended?

11 MS COLLINS: Yes.

12 MR. DAVID: I bring you now to the 13 Garvie report that has been filed at Exhibit P-19.

14 MS COLLINS: Thank you.

15 MR. DAVID: If you could go to 16 page 28 -- and again I am referring you to the 17 public record of this meeting as I think it
18 exists, and if I am misleading you please correct
19 me in my understanding of events.

20 If you go to page 28 -- this is a
21 report that was filed by a senior RCMP officer --
22 there is an entry for the 16th of October at the 23 very top of the page, and I will read you the 24 extract.

25 It says:

1 "A meeting hosted by DFAIT
2 was attended by the RCMP and
3 ... Superintendent Pilgrim
4 represented the RCMP at that
5 meeting. During the meeting
6 a request was made by Mr. Gar
7 Pardy, who was then the 8 Director General of the 9 Consular Affairs Bureau,
10 DFAIT, for further
11 information. Superintendent
12 Pilgrim agreed to provide
13 answers to the specific
14 questions that Gar Pardy had
15 asked on behalf of DFAIT."

16 Does this correspond to your
17 recollection of this meeting?

18 MS COLLINS: Yes, it does.

19 MR. DAVID: And my last reference
20 with regard to this meeting is at tab 104.

21 This is a memorandum that is
22 signed by Mr. Pilgrim, whose name we had just 23 reviewed or seen in the Garvie report. It is a
24 memorandum that is dated the 18th of October, and 25 it's a memorandum that is addressed to the liaison

1 officer of the RCMP at DFAIT, Mr. Richard Roy.

2 The memorandum begins at the very
3 top with the following mention:

4 "CID/NSOS has prepared the 5 following response to
6 specific questions posed by 7 DFAIT concerning the
8 deportation of Maher Arar to
9 Syria."

10 And then we see a list of what I
11 can count on this document to be seven questions
12 that are answered by the RCMP. I just want to 13 read you the questions. I am not concerned with 14 the answers, just the questions, and if you could 15 tell me if you recall these questions as being the 16 relevant questions asked by Mr. Pardy.

17 The first was:

18 "What information has been
19 shared with the U.S.
20 concerning Maher ARAR?"

21 MS COLLINS: Yes.

22 MR. DAVID: The second:

23 "How did the U.S. become 24 aware/interested in ARAR?"

25 Do you recall that?

1 MS COLLINS: Yes.

2 MR. DAVID: And the third:

3 "What triggered the U.S.

4 decision to deport ARAR?"

5 MS COLLINS: Yes.

6 MR. DAVID: And fourthly:

7 "Did the U.S. approach

8 Canadian authorities

9 regarding the possibility of

10 ARAR's deportation?"

11 MS COLLINS: Yes.

12 MR. DAVID: And the fifth, on the 13 next page, is:

14 "What was the level of threat

15 relating to ARAR's presence

16 in the U.S.?"

17 MS COLLINS: Yes.

18 MR. DAVID: And the sixth:

19 "Is there a question of 20 mistaken identity concerning

21 ARAR's deportation/

22 detention?"

23 MS COLLINS: Yes.

24 MR. DAVID: And finally:

25 "Is ARAR being held in Jordan

1 as possibly suggested by the
2 INS?"

3 And the INS I would understand is
4 the U.S. INS?

5 MS COLLINS: Yes.

6 MR. DAVID: And you recall these
7 as being the relevant questions that Mr. Pardy
8 asked?

9 MS COLLINS: Yes.

10 MR. DAVID: Thank you.

11 We can go now again for the same
12 date, October 16th, to tab 88. I think we see
13 evidence in this CAMANT note of the transition
14 from yourself to Myra Pastyr-Lupul, where you are 15 requesting to make sure that Myra is included on 16 all messages pertaining to the Arar case?

17 MS COLLINS: That's correct.

18 MR. DAVID: So we are shifting
19 over now to Myra's desk.

20 MS COLLINS: I am now, yes.

21 MR. DAVID: Although Mr. Arar is 22 not confirmed to be in Syria, the suspicion is at 23 this time that he is there?

24 MS COLLINS: That's correct.

25 MR. DAVID: If we could go to your

1 personal notes on page 22, there is an entry for
2 October -- well, I understand it to be October
3 31st with regard to Jonathan Solomon.

4 Could you speak to that, please?

5 MS COLLINS: October 23? I don't
6 recollect. He may have called me for an update,
7 and I told him that I was no longer the case
8 officer involved in this case.

9 MR. DAVID: And for the record,
10 Ms Collins, you were out of the office from 11 October 17th to the 22nd?

12 MS COLLINS: Yes, I was.

13 MR. DAVID: Your personal notes
14 for the 18th of November, if you could go to page
15 23, there is an entry at 12:02.

16 Do you have any recollection of 17 that message?

18 MS COLLINS: There is a message,
19 and I don't think that I return his call. I may 20 have passed it on to Mr. Pardy or Myra
21 Pastyr-Lupul.

22 MR. DAVID: If we could change
23 volumes and go to tab 209, this is an entry for 24 the 18th of November into the CAMANT system?

25 MS COLLINS: Yes.

1 MR. DAVID: You are simply
2 uploading an article that appeared in the Ottawa
3 Citizen?

4 MS COLLINS: I believe this was an
5 e-mail that was sent to me, and I am just putting 6 it into the case.

7 MR. DAVID: And is this a common
8 practice?

9 MS COLLINS: Yes, it is.

10 MR. DAVID: We are now going to 11 move ahead to June of 2003, and I bring you to tab
12 416, Volume 5. And if you could go to the third
13 and fourth page, it's actually page 3 of 6 at the 14 bottom -- actually, you should maybe go to page 4
15 of 6.

16 I just want to put on the record
17 the issue of the description of claim that was 18 being sent to DFAIT by the CCR, the Centre for 19 Constitutional Rights, the context, Ms Collins:
20 that there is civil action being contemplated on 21 behalf of the Arar family in the United States at 22 this time and input is being sought from the 23 Department of Foreign Affairs, so I just want to 24 put that on the record.

25 At tab 416 there is a message that

1 is coming to you. This is at page 3 of 6?

2 MS COLLINS: Yes, it is.

3 MR. DAVID: There is a message
4 that is coming from Maureen Girvan to yourself as 5 well a cc to Gar Pardy, where Maureen is raising
6 concerns that she has with regard to DFAIT's
7 contribution on this description of claim with 8 regard to two issues. One is the privacy issue
9 and, secondly, the issue of political sensitivity.

10 MS COLLINS: Yes, that's correct.

11 MR. DAVID: If we could now go to 12 tab 436, I think Ms Girvan has sufficiently given
13 us detail on that regard.

14 Tab 436, however, is unique to 15 you, and it's your message to Myra on June 11th in 16 this regard?

17 MS COLLINS: Yes.

18 MR. DAVID: And you are simply
19 indicating to Myra that:

20 "It would be greatly
21 appreciated if you could look
22 at the last couple of 23 paragraphs of the attached
24 file, since I was not
25 involved in the dealings with

1                    Syria. It would then be
2                    decided whether the
3                    information from our files
4                    should go to Mr. Arar's wife
5                    for her to give to the Center
6                    for Constitutional Rights
7                    (CCR), or whether we could
8                    give the information directly
9                    to Steven Watt at CCR."

10                    And there is a follow-up at tab
11                    434 on the same day. Again, this is an entry by 12                    you?

13                    MS COLLINS: Yes.

14                    MR. DAVID: It's addressed to 15                    Maureen, and you are just saying here's our input.

16                    Had it been agreed at this point
17                    that on a tentative basis Mr. Pardy had instructed 18                    you to collaborate with the description of the 19                    claim?

20                    MS COLLINS: Yes, he did.

21                    MR. DAVID: Okay. And at tab 434,
22                    we see your input going to Maureen in this regard.

23                    In effect, to your knowledge,
24                    DFAIT's participation in the description of claim 25                    was not sent in the end to CCR?

1 MS COLLINS: That's correct.

2 MR. DAVID: And can you tell us
3 why it was not done so?

4 MS COLLINS: That was a decision
5 that was taken by Mr. Pardy, and I believe that he
6 didn't see anything -- I am not sure exactly what
7 his response or his decision was based on, but I
8 know he basically said we are not sending it.
9 This is --

10 MR. DAVID: So in the end, there
11 was no collaboration offered?

12 MS COLLINS: There was not.

13 MR. DAVID: At tab 435 we have the 14 draft description of claim.

15 And simply for the record at tab
16 662 -- and we are going to have to change volumes,
17 to Volume 7, thank you -- we simply have the 18 confirmation in this document --

19 MS COLLINS: Excuse me. What was 20 the tab?

21 MR. DAVID: It is tab 662. It's 22 the very last tab.

23 Simply for the record, Ms Girvan
24 was explaining that in the end DFAIT's input was 25 not communicated to Mr. Watt and to CCR.

1 MS COLLINS: Yes.

2 MR. DAVID: The last tab I would
3 like to deal with you is tab 697, which is in 4 Volume 8. It is an entry for November 7th, 2003.

5 It concerns the issue --

6 MS COLLINS: Sorry, what was the 7 tab again?

8 MR. DAVID: I am sorry. It is 9 697.

10 MS COLLINS: Thank you. Yes?

11 MR. DAVID: It's through e-mail
12 correspondence between Maureen Girvan and Dave
13 Dyet, and the issue is Maureen Girvan is 14 explaining the circumstances for not sending a
15 diplomatic note at the time it was contemplated,
16 going back to October of 2002.

17 So Ms Girvan is giving additional 18 input in regard to the decision of not sending the 19 dipnote.

20 You are simply adding something
21 here -- no, I shouldn't say that you are adding 22 it. There is a reference to your involvement in 23 this regard. Let's just read that message. It's 24 at the bottom.

25 It would be the first message,

1 November 7, 2003, at 12:18, and it says the
2 following:

3 "Have sent you a faxed copy
4 of discussions on possible
5 dipnotes with WSHDC and then
6 Nancy's response, which show
7 that I raised the possibility
8 of the dipnote with WSHDC
9 (they in fact did a draft and 10 were readying it)..."

11 And that is where my question
12 lies: To your recollection, to your knowledge,
13 Ms Collins, was a dipnote prepared, a draft
14 dipnote prepared at this time?

15 MS COLLINS: To my knowledge, no.

16 MR. DAVID: Okay. Those are my
17 questions. Thank you very much.

18 THE COMMISSIONER: Mr. Waldman?
19 Take your time.

20 MR. WALDMAN: I need the podium.

21 THE COMMISSIONER: Get organized
22 there. Just take your time. Mr. David can help
23 you. Here's the other one.

24 --- Pause

25 MR. WALDMAN: Before I start,

1 Mr. Commissioner, I just wanted to raise one
2 matter.

3 There were one or two issues that
4 emerged from the testimony that we had not been
5 aware of, and during the break Mr. Arar called me,
6 because he is at home watching via the Internet.

7 THE COMMISSIONER: Right.

8 MR. WALDMAN: And so I am going to 9 have to consult with him about those. But I can 10 start my cross-examination now.

11 THE COMMISSIONER: Absolutely,
12 yes.

13 MR. WALDMAN: And then at some
14 point I am going to have to break before I finish.

15 THE COMMISSIONER: Sure. No
16 difficulty with that at all. Take whatever time
17 you need to get instructions.

18 MR. WALDMAN: Right. It was just 19 one or two matters that were not --

20 THE COMMISSIONER: Now, there is a
21 chap here that was -- I beg your pardon?

22 --- Off microphone / Sans microphone

23 THE COMMISSIONER: Please do.

24 --- Pause

25 THE COMMISSIONER: Mr. Baxter, if

1           you need one, you can probably use the one behind
2           you there.

3                           MR. BAXTER:  Thanks,
4           Mr. Commissioner.

5                           THE COMMISSIONER:  We expect
6           silence from that table.

7           --- Laughter / Rires

8                           MR. WALDMAN:  Actually, I thought
9           Mr. Baxter was going to go before me.

10          EXAMINATION

11                          MR. WALDMAN:  Anyway, I am going 12          to deal first with your experience, and I just 13          want to clarify a few points about your resume,
14          which is P-81.

15                          Do you have that in front of you?

16                          MS COLLINS:  No, I do not.

17                          Thank you.

18                          MR. WALDMAN:  Am I right to 19          understand from your resume that you only started
20          working with DFAIT in 1999?

21                          MS COLLINS:  I was employed at the 22          Canadian Embassy in Beijing and doing the 23          functions of consular officer, but I was a local 24          engaged staff.  I didn't enter into Foreign
25          Affairs until 1999.

1 MR. WALDMAN: If we go back at
2 your experience at Beijing, you start -- am I
3 correct you told us that you are a spouse of a
4 Foreign Affairs officer.

5 Is that what happened?

6 MS COLLINS: I was the spouse of a
7 Canadian that was posted to --

8 MR. WALDMAN: Right. And am I
9 correct in understanding it's not uncommon for 10 spouses of Canadian officers to be hired as 11 locally engaged staff?

12 MS COLLINS: That's correct.

13 MR. WALDMAN: So you didn't go
14 through any competition or anything to --

15 MS COLLINS: Yes, I did.

16 MR. WALDMAN: You did.

17 MS COLLINS: Absolutely.

18 MR. WALDMAN: So you went through
19 a competition before you left or when you --

20 MS COLLINS: No. It's 21 competitions that are held at the embassy.

22 MR. WALDMAN: At the embassy.

23 MS COLLINS: Yes.

24 MR. WALDMAN: So this is a
25 competition at the embassy to be hired --

1 MS COLLINS: An interview.

2 MR. WALDMAN: Right, an interview.

3 MS COLLINS: Yes.

4 MR. WALDMAN: Right. But it's not
5 the same rigorous process normally one would get
6 in order to become a DFAIT officer?

7 MS COLLINS: That's correct.

8 MR. WALDMAN: So your functions at 9 the embassy were, between July 1996 and until June
10 1999, as a locally engaged officer working, doing
11 functions of an assistant to a consular officer.

12 Is that correct?

13 MS COLLINS: Yes.

14 MR. WALDMAN: So your first
15 functions were assisting in the Immigration
16 Department?

17 MS COLLINS: Correct.

18 MR. WALDMAN: And then after that
19 you did some administrative work for CIDA for a 20 period of time, for two years?

21 MS COLLINS: Yes.

22 MR. WALDMAN: And then you briefly
23 assisted on the Prime Minister's visit. And after 24 that, in the period just before your departure,
25 for a period of about one year, you were

1 interviewing people applying for passports. So
2 this is more work --

3 MS COLLINS: One of my functions.
4 I was a Consular Program Officer at the embassy.
5 So one of my functions was dealing with passports,
6 dealing with medical issues, citizenship. I was 7 just not dealing strictly with passports.

8 MR. WALDMAN: I am correct in 9 assuming you didn't become a fulltime employee of 10 DFAIT until August of 1999?

11 MS COLLINS: Correct.

12 MR. WALDMAN: And in order to 13 become a fulltime employee, did you have to go
14 through some kind of different hiring process?

15 MS COLLINS: Yes, I did.

16 MR. WALDMAN: Did you have to 17 write some kind of exam?

18 MS COLLINS: Yes, I did.

19 MR. WALDMAN: And then you were 20 formally hired?

21 MS COLLINS: Yes, I was.

22 MR. WALDMAN: And are you now a
23 fulltime employee of DFAIT?

24 MS COLLINS: Yes, I am.

25 MR. WALDMAN: On a permanent

1 contract?

2 MS COLLINS: No, I am
3 independent -- indeterminate employee.

4 MR. WALDMAN: So what's the
5 difference between an indeterminate and --

6 MS COLLINS: That means you are
7 not on contract; you are fulltime.

8 MR. WALDMAN: Fulltime. That's 9 just another way of saying you are a permanent 10 employee?

11 MS COLLINS: I am a permanent,
12 yes.

13 MR. WALDMAN: So then I am correct
14 in assuming that you have been only a permanent --
15 at the time of Mr. Arar's case, you had been a 16 full-time employee of DFAIT for about three years?

17 MS COLLINS: Correct.

18 MR. WALDMAN: Can I ask you to go
19 to Exhibit P-49? That's Ms Girvan's CV.

20 MS COLLINS: Thank you.

21 MR. WALDMAN: Are you familiar
22 with Ms Girvan's CV?

23 MS COLLINS: No, I am --

24 MR. WALDMAN: Maybe you can just 25 take a second to look at that.

1 MS COLLINS: Thank you.

2 --- Pause

3 MR. WALDMAN: It would appear from
4 this that Ms Girvan became a fulltime employee of 5 DFAIT in 1993. Is that correct?

6 MS COLLINS: I would presume so.
7 You would have to ask Ms Girvan directly.

8 MR. WALDMAN: I think she gave us
9 that evidence.

10 In 1993/1994 she was doing the 11 same function that you were doing?

12 MS COLLINS: I assume so, yes.

13 MR. WALDMAN: Consular Officer,
14 JPO U.S. That is your function?

15 MS COLLINS: Yes.

16 MR. WALDMAN: And 1994 to 1997 she
17 was doing the same function as Myra Lupul.

18 Is that correct?

19 MS COLLINS: Correct.

20 MR. WALDMAN: Then she became a
21 consular manager. Is that a fairly senior 22 position of responsibility as a manager of the 23 consul?

24 MS COLLINS: She was now at the 25 embassy in Rome, which is totally different

1 titles. She was now in charge of the consular
2 program at the embassy in Rome.

3 MR. WALDMAN: Right. Okay.

4 So is it fair to say, comparing
5 your experience to Ms Girvan's, Ms Girvan had 6 considerably more experience than you?

7 MS COLLINS: Ms Girvan had been --
8 yes.

9 MR. WALDMAN: And she had done the 10 same function as you, albeit in 1993 to 1994.

11 Is that fair to say?

12 MS COLLINS: That's fair to say.

13 MR. WALDMAN: Now, if I understand
14 Ms Girvan's evidence correctly, she told the 15 Commissioner, however, that the hierarchy was 16 there was a dual hierarchy. She reported both to 17 the Consul General and also to you in terms of 18 seeking advice and getting instructions.

19 Is that correct?

20 MS COLLINS: What Ms Girvan said
21 is that she would answer to Mr. Laporte and then 22 eventually all the way to the Consul General, and 23 then she would answer to headquarters, that
24 including myself and Mr. Pardy as well.

25 MR. WALDMAN: So you were

1 directing her with respect to her action on files
2 that came to your attention? That is how the 3 hierarchy works.

4 Am I correct?

5 MS COLLINS: Normally when the
6 message -- that's right, it comes to my desk and 7 then we -- yes.

8 MR. WALDMAN: Doesn't it seem
9 strange to you that given the fact she had had 10 considerably more experience you would be giving
11 her direction with respect to consular matters?

12 MS COLLINS: That is something you
13 would have to ask Mr. Pardy about. My function of 14 my duties, my responsibilities, were to cover all
15 of the United States, which I did. What happens
16 is that when we had detained -- or any files, the 17 protocol was that the mission would advise JPO at 18 headquarters.

19 MR. WALDMAN: Right. And you were 20 the ones who were supposed to give -- according to 21 Ms Girvan, she repeatedly said that she would get 22 instructions from you on that.

23 MS COLLINS: From myself. That is
24 correct.

25 MR. WALDMAN: So you were the one

1           who was giving the instructions?

2                           MS COLLINS:  Not the only one, but
3           I was, yes.

4                           MR. WALDMAN:  Right.  Okay.  And
5           your immediate superior was Mr. Carisse?

6                           MS COLLINS:  Mr. John Carisse.

7                           MR. WALDMAN:  Carisse.  Okay.  he 8           is the head of case management?

9                           MS COLLINS:  Correct.

10                          MR. WALDMAN:  He reports to 11           Mr. Pardy?

12                          MS COLLINS:  Yes.

13                          MR. WALDMAN:  Was he in Ottawa
14           during this -- I'm focusing now on the time
15           between September 26th when Mr. Arar arrived in 16           New York and October 10th when you found out he 17           had been deported to Syria.

18                          Was Mr. Carisse in Ottawa during 19           that time?

20                          MS COLLINS:  He was in Ottawa.
21           Was he at the office?  I don't recall.

22                          MR. WALDMAN:  I didn't notice you
23           mentioning him in any of your comments with 24           Mr. David.

25                          Did he have anything to do with

1 the Arar file, as far as you can recall?

2 MS COLLINS: I don't recollect.

3 MR. WALDMAN: You don't recollect
4 that he did, or you don't recollect?

5 MS COLLINS: I don't know if he
6 was involved in Mr. Arar's file. I would presume
7 he was, but I don't remember.

8 MR. WALDMAN: Okay. But did you
9 have any direct conversations with him about the 10 Arar file that you recollect?

11 MS COLLINS: I presume I would,
12 yes. I can't remember. This is three years ago.
13 I would presume that, yes, I would have consulted
14 with Mr. Carisse, absolutely.

15 MR. WALDMAN: But you are not even
16 sure if he was there during that time?

17 MS COLLINS: I don't remember.
18 This is three years ago. I really don't remember.

19 If he was there I would have 20 spoken with him, or I would have spoken with Helen 21 Harris or Mr. Pardy.

22 MR. WALDMAN: So what do you
23 remember, if you don't remember that. You
24 remember what is in your notes.

25 MS COLLINS: I remember dealing

1 with higher up than myself, absolutely. If
2 Mr. Carisse wasn't there, if Mr. Pardy wasn't 3 there, I would go down who was the acting, and 4 that would be Helen Harris.

5 If Mr. Pardy was there, then we
6 had an open-door policy; we would walk in and we
7 would talk about the case openly with Mr. Pardy
8 and seek guidance, seek advice. That was the 9 procedures that we undertook.

10 MR. WALDMAN: I understand. So
11 the normal procedure was you would talk to whoever
12 was there.

13 But in terms of your specific
14 recollections, we have gone through the notes, we 15 have gone through the CAMANT file.

16 MS COLLINS: Yes.

17 MR. WALDMAN: So are you telling
18 me that your recollection is restricted to what is 19 in the notes and what is in the CAMANT files?

20 MS COLLINS: No. What I'm saying
21 is that you are asking me about Mr. Carisse, about 22 the recollection of me dealing with Mr. Carisse.
23 I don't remember that point.

24 MR. WALDMAN: You don't remember
25 if you dealt with him or not?

1 MS COLLINS: I don't remember.

2 No, I don't remember that point.

3 MR. WALDMAN: But you would
4 agree with me there is no reference in CAMANT
5 notes or in your notes to having any conversations
6 with him?

7 MS COLLINS: If they are not
8 there, then, no.

9 MR. WALDMAN: Presumably, did you
10 put everything that was important in your notes
11 into the CAMANT notes?

12 MS COLLINS: I tried, certainly.

13 MR. WALDMAN: I also want to
14 clarify with respect to Mr. Pardy, because I am a 15 bit confused as to when he came back on the 16 picture and I wanted to know if you could help me
17 with that.

18 We know that there is a phone call
19 from Ms Girvan. I think she testified she got a
20 message when she called Mr. Pardy that he was out
21 of town and that Ms Harris was acting.

22 MS COLLINS: Yes.

23 MR. WALDMAN: You recall that?

24 MS COLLINS: Yes.

25 MR. WALDMAN: That was, I believe,

1 on the 1st?

2 MS COLLINS: Yes.

3 MR. WALDMAN: On the 4th --

4 MS COLLINS: The 1st or 2nd, I'm 5 not sure.

6 MR. WALDMAN: The 1st, yes. That
7 was on the 1st, which was the Tuesday.

8 You tell us now, it was added to 9 your notes, that there was a meeting with 10 Mr. Pardy on the 4th?

11 MS COLLINS: Yes.

12 MR. WALDMAN: Okay. Do you recall
13 any other conversations prior to the 4th that you
14 had with Mr. Pardy, because there is nothing that 15 I can see in any of the other notes but I wanted
16 to know if there was anything else?

17 MS COLLINS: I believe Mr. Pardy
18 may have returned to the office on the 3rd and I
19 recall meeting with him in the morning, because he 20 had spoken with Ms Harris, who had totally fully 21 briefed him on the case. I recollect vaguely that 22 we did speak about the case because he told me
23 that he was aware of the case.

24 MR. WALDMAN: That was on the 3rd
25 or the 4th?

1 MS COLLINS: The 3rd, I believe.

2 MR. WALDMAN: But you don't have
3 any note of that?

4 MS COLLINS: I don't have access
5 to my notes, so I don't --

6 MR. WALDMAN: Because we have
7 looked through these very carefully and we don't
8 see any reference to Mr. Pardy being on the scene
9 until the 10th in fact in any of the CAMANT notes,
10 unless someone can point me to something else. We 11 had been under the impression that he wasn't in 12 fact there until the 10th.

13 So I'm just trying to clarify
14 from you for sure that he arrived on the 3rd or 15 the 4th.

16 You don't know. Okay. We will
17 check with Mr. Pardy. I'm sure he can assist us
18 on that point. Okay.

19 I want to just clarify then your 20 responsibilities.

21 You give instructions to Ms Girvan
22 about difficult consular cases?

23 MS COLLINS: That is correct.

24 MR. WALDMAN: Okay. And to all
25 the other people in the other offices throughout

1 the United States?

2 MS COLLINS: Yes.

3 MR. WALDMAN: Right. And you can
4 give the instructions yourself or, in fact, you
5 can decide to consult with one of your superiors.

6 Is that correct?

7 MS COLLINS: That's correct.

8 MR. WALDMAN: Up the chain of 9 command the first person would be Mr. Carisse?

10 MS COLLINS: Yes.

11 MR. WALDMAN: So he would be the 12 first person you would go to?

13 MS COLLINS: Yes. If he is not
14 there I go directly to Mr. Pardy.

15 MR. WALDMAN: And you can go
16 directly to Mr. Pardy?

17 MS COLLINS: Yes.

18 MR. WALDMAN: Could you help us
19 out, are all the offices situated more or less in 20 the same area?

21 MS COLLINS: I am just a couple
22 metres away from Mr. Pardy's office, so we are on 23 the same level in the same area.

24 MR. WALDMAN: All the case
25 management offices for all the consular offices

1           around the world --

2                           MS COLLINS:   Yes.

3                           MR. WALDMAN:   -- as you said,
4           there are 12 or --

5                           MS COLLINS:   Twelve, yes.

6                           MR. WALDMAN:   You are all situated
7           in the same area?

8                           MS COLLINS:   Yes, we are.

9                           MR. WALDMAN:   And then you have 10          access to both Mr. Carisse and Mr. Pardy?

11                          MS COLLINS:   Correct.

12                          MR. WALDMAN:   Would there any 13          reason you might choose going to -- would you
14          normally go to Mr. Carisse first and then to 15          Mr. Pardy, or would it depend on the nature of the 16          case, or would there be some cases where you go to 17          Mr. Carisse and some cases you go to Mr. Pardy?

18                          MS COLLINS:   I don't think 19          there was some procedures of just always going to 20          Mr. Carisse.  It was an understanding if 21          Mr. Carisse was there and could help us, or we 22          went directly to Mr. Pardy.  That was always an 23          open door.  So if you wanted to go to see 24          Mr. Pardy directly instead of going to 25          Mr. Carisse, you went to see Mr. Pardy.

1 MR. WALDMAN: Okay. But would
2 you normally go to Mr. Carisse and only go to 3 Mr. Pardy if it was more complicated, assuming 4 they were both there?

5 MS COLLINS: Not necessarily.

6 MR. WALDMAN: No?

7 MS COLLINS: No.

8 MR. WALDMAN: Why would you go to 9 one over the other?

10 MS COLLINS: It all depends.
11 Mr. Pardy is very -- to me he is considered an 12 expert in consular services. If he was in his 13 office, then I would ask him for a moment to seek 14 guidance or advice. If he said, "Yes, I have a 15 moment to spend with you and let's discuss," then
16 I would discuss the case with him.

17 MR. WALDMAN: My sense then you
18 are telling me, with all due respect to 19 Mr. Carisse, given Mr. Pardy's great expertise if 20 you had the opportunity of discussing a
21 complicated case you would prefer to go to 22 Mr. Pardy as opposed to Mr. Carisse?

23 MS COLLINS: Depending on the 24 nature, yes.

25 MR. WALDMAN: So if I understand

1           you correctly then, you would normally -- I mean,
2           what percentage of the cases would you have to
3           speak to Mr. Pardy about as opposed to just 4           dealing with him by yourself? You told him there
5           was 75 e-mails a day, 30 to 40 phone calls?

6                           MS COLLINS: Mm-hmm.

7                           MR. WALDMAN: Were you in 8           Mr. Pardy's office every day, or was it rather 9           unusual for you to get a case that you would need
10          his guidance on?

11                          MS COLLINS: It all depends at 12          which time, it depends on which case, the nature
13          of the case. That's how it depends. So I can't 14          tell you honestly how many times or every day. I
15          didn't go to Mr. Pardy's office every day.

16                          MR. WALDMAN: Would you go once a
17          week to see him about a case?

18                          MS COLLINS: That could very 19          well be.

20                          MR. WALDMAN: Okay. So on average
21          in a month?

22                          MS COLLINS: In a month? Maybe --
23          it depends on the case. So I can't honestly tell
24          you that one month I would have gone to see him
25          twice and another month I would have been there

1 every day. I mean, it all depends on the case.

2 MR. WALDMAN: If you had a
3 case like Mr. Arar you might be in the office
4 every day?

5 MS COLLINS: That's right. That's 6 right.

7 MR. WALDMAN: But it would all be
8 with respect to one case. In other words, when 9 you got a really complicated case you might be in 10 his office every day?

11 MS COLLINS: That's right.
12 Depending on the complexity of the case, yes.

13 MR. WALDMAN: Maybe it would be
14 more helpful -- because I'm trying to get a sense
15 of how often -- what percentage of the cases you
16 would need to get --

17 MS COLLINS: In Mr. Arar,
18 everything that we did with Mr. Arar, when we drew
19 up that it was becoming a high profile case, if it
20 wasn't Mr. Pardy it was Ms Harris, and I believe 21 Mr. Carisse, if he was there, I would have 22 consulted with him in Mr. Arar.

23 I can only speak to you in 24 Mr. Arar right now.

25 MR. WALDMAN: Okay. I'm just

1           trying to get an understanding because this would
2           be relevant to where I'm moving in a minute, as to
3           what -- like what percentage of the cases you
4           would have to consult Mr. Pardy on.

5                           MS COLLINS:  Out of the 6           1,700 cases?

7                           MR. WALDMAN:  Right.

8                           MS COLLINS:  A very few
9           percentage.

10                          MR. WALDMAN:  A very small
11           percentage?

12                          MS COLLINS:  Yes, depending on,
13           again, the nature of the charges, the nature of 14           the cases, and the sensitivity or the high
15           profiles.

16                          MR. WALDMAN:  So out of 17           1,700 cases you are dealing with, would you have 18           consulted him on 20, 30?  I'm just asking for a
19           rough estimate.

20                          MS COLLINS:  I mean, I can't give 21           you a number.

22                          How many cases?  Mr. Pardy
23           was very, very well aware of many cases because 24           you could see he was cc'd, carbon copied, on a lot
25           of cases.

1                   It would depend. If we were
2                   dealing with a death penalty case, we were
3                   dealing with a sensitive nature case, absolutely
4                   Mr. Pardy would have been informed.

5                   So I can't honestly tell you that 6                   out of 1,700 cases it would be 12 cases. I cannot 7                   honestly tell you. But I can tell you that it all
8                   depended on the nature of the case.

9                   MR. WALDMAN: Okay. So from your 10                  point of view most of the routine cases you could 11                  handle and it would be an exception where you
12                  would have to go to Mr. Pardy.

13                  Is that fair?

14                  MS COLLINS: That's right.

15                  MR. WALDMAN: Okay. In Mr. Arar's
16                  case, when was it the first time you felt the need 17                  to consult with -- you became aware of the case on 18                  the 1st. You spoke to his brother.

19                  When was it that you felt the 20                  need to first consult with your superior about
21                  the case?

22                  MS COLLINS: I believe on
23                  October 2nd.

24                  MR. WALDMAN: On the 2nd. So
25                  almost right after you got involved with the case?

1 MS COLLINS: Yes.

2 MR. WALDMAN: Okay. I asked you
3 that because in evidence that you gave in 4 examination-in-chief you said to Mr. David that at 5 the beginning it was an ordinary consular case of 6 arrest, but after you lost him, after he was 7 deported and you didn't know where he went, it
8 became a higher profile consular case.

9 That is what you told Mr. David,
10 is that correct?

11 MS COLLINS: If you recollect I
12 guess that is what I said.

13 MR. WALDMAN: I'm trying to
14 understand how that is consistent with what you
15 are telling me now, because you told me it would 16 be only in a very exceptional case that you would 17 consult with your higher-ups, and yet you are 18 telling me that on the 1st you became aware of a
19 case and already the next day you thought you
20 consulted.

21 MS COLLINS: That's right.

22 MR. WALDMAN: So is it not fair to 23 say that it became very clear very quickly to you
24 that this was not a normal case?

25 MS COLLINS: No, I -- no. When I

1 sought guidance the first time it was because of
2 the message of my conversation with Mr. Taufik
3 about the mother-in-law being threatened. That's 4 when I'm talking to you that the first time I
5 spoke with my superior as I had no idea what this 6 was coming from.

7 So it was nothing to do with
8 Mr. Arar being deported or anything like that. My 9 first initial call with the superiors was, here I
10 have a case of an arrest/detention in New York. I
11 speak with the brother. The brother now tells me
12 that Mr. Arar's mother-in-law is being threatened.
13 I don't understand this.

14 So I would believe, if you were in 15 my same position, you would have done the same
16 thing; you would have sought guidance by your 17 superiors in trying to understand this.

18 Because I asked Mr. Taufik if he
19 could elaborate. If you could see from my notes,
20 the conversation lasts less than a minute.

21 MR. WALDMAN: Okay. That's fine.

22 We will come back to that. That
23 is one of the issues I am going to have to come
24 back to after lunch.

25 MS COLLINS: That's fine.

1 MR. WALDMAN: When was the next
2 time you consulted your superiors?

3 On the 2nd you told us you had a
4 meeting with Pardy.

5 MS COLLINS: I believe the 2nd. I
6 believe the next time I saw Mr. Pardy -- I
7 remember the conference call on the 4th.

8 MR. WALDMAN: So by the 4th
9 already, prior to Mr. Arar's deportation, there
10 was already a conference call taking place with 11 Mr. Pardy involved with other individuals --

12 MS COLLINS: As requested by 13 Ms Girvan, yes.

14 MR. WALDMAN: Yes?

15 MS COLLINS: So I went in his
16 office as requested by Ms Girvan. She wanted to 17 talk about the case, her visit, the upcoming visit
18 of the attorney. I believe that was --

19 MR. WALDMAN: Was this normal,
20 unusual --

21 THE COURT REPORTER: I'm sorry.
22 You said "I believe" --

23 MS COLLINS: Sorry, I don't
24 know exactly.

25 MR. WALDMAN: Sorry.

1 THE COMMISSIONER: Mr. Baxter...?

2 MR. BAXTER: Mr. Commissioner,
3 could I call the witness' attention as well to
4 tab 23.

5 Sorry for this awkward
6 microphone arrangement.

7 MS COLLINS: I'm sorry.

8 --- Pause

9 MR. BAXTER: I think that is clear
10 that on October 2nd the superiors were involved in 11 an e-mail chain there.

12 --- Pause

13 MR. WALDMAN: I'm just trying to 14 put together two things you are saying and I'm 15 suggesting to you that it is not very consistent.

16 On the one hand, you are telling
17 us that it only became a higher profile consular
18 case after you lost him.

19 On the other hand, you told us
20 that you didn't normally consult with your cases
21 except on a very small percentage of the more
22 difficult cases?

23 MS COLLINS: Mm-hmm.

24 MR. WALDMAN: We have just now
25 learned that there are e-mails on the 2nd to

1 your superiors and on the 4th there is a
2 conference call.

3 How usual was it for there to be a
4 conference call about a file? How many conference
5 calls have you had in the last year involving the 6 Canadian Consulate, the Washington Consulate,
7 Mr. Pardy and yourself?

8 MS COLLINS: Today compared to
9 back then, back then we used to have frequent
10 conference calls on different cases that were 11 ongoing at that time.

12 So I cannot compare what I'm doing
13 today to what I was doing in 2002.

14 MR. WALDMAN: Okay. In 2002, how 15 common was it for you to have a conference call on 16 a file? Was it --

17 MS COLLINS: We have had several
18 conference calls, yes.

19 MR. WALDMAN: "Several"?

20 MS COLLINS: "Several".

21 MR. WALDMAN: But that suggests to 22 me it is not very common.

23 It wasn't very common?

24 MS COLLINS: It wasn't common, but
25 again it depended on the case.

1 MR. WALDMAN: So you are telling
2 us now that you had a conference call, which was
3 not very common, on the 4th, that you --

4 MS COLLINS: I'm not saying it is
5 not common. It happened, but it depended on the 6 case, on the request of the mission. If the 7 mission -- like Ms Girvan has requested, she is 8 asking for the conference call.

9 MR. WALDMAN: That's right.

10 MS COLLINS: So we are doing the
11 conference call.

12 It depends on the cases. If we 13 are dealing with a sensitive case, we are dealing 14 with a case where the attorney wants us to 15 participate or to have a say, then, yes, we 16 establish a conference call. But this is at the 17 request of Maureen that we are doing this.

18 MR. WALDMAN: Right. Mr. Pardy
19 and yourself are involved at a very early stage in 20 this process, and you told us that it was very 21 unusual for Mr. Pardy to be consulted --

22 MS COLLINS: In normal cases.

23 MR. WALDMAN: In normal cases?

24 MS COLLINS: That's right.

25 MR. WALDMAN: Exactly. And I'm

1 putting to you --

2 MS COLLINS: Sorry. Ms Girvan,
3 that night previously, had spoken with 4 Mrs. Harris, so she initiated the process of 5 having the Director General or the Acting General
6 involved, not myself.

7 MR. WALDMAN: Okay --

8 MS COLLINS: So it was already
9 initiated by New York, not by me.

10 MR. WALDMAN: I still don't
11 understand the distinction. The point I am trying 12 to make was: Was it not apparent by the 3rd or 13 the 4th that this was not an unusual case but this 14 was a very serious case, given the steps that were 15 being taken, including the arrangement of a
16 conference call?

17 MS COLLINS: The conference call
18 was to discuss the case.

19 MR. WALDMAN: Right. I am just
20 asking you a simple question. I want a yes or a
21 no answer, if you can give me one.

22 Is it not fair to say that by the 23 3rd or the 4th it was apparent to you that this
24 was a complex case, not a simple case?

25 MS COLLINS: It could have -- yes.

1 MR. WALDMAN: It was apparent.

2 So in other words, your evidence
3 that you gave to Mr. David, that it was only after 4 the deportation that you realized that this was a
5 high-profile case, is not correct?

6 MS COLLINS: I don't recall saying
7 that. But what I am saying is that the 8 escalation -- I mean, the fact of the matter is 9 that when the case of Mr. Arar really grows to the 10 high profile was when we lost him. Absolutely.

11 MR. WALDMAN: Well, I am
12 suggesting --

13 MS COLLINS: We were dealing
14 with -- we were dealing with a sensitive case. I
15 am not saying that we didn't treat this as a high
16 profile. But it wasn't at that time -- it wasn't 17 at the same level as what we undertook it when we 18 lost him. That's what I am saying.

19 MR. WALDMAN: Okay, I understand.
20 I understand. So I can pause at this.

21 Would it be fair to say that it
22 became very clear quite early that this was a very 23 complex case, but it became an extremely urgent
24 case when you lost him? Is that a fair statement?

25 MS COLLINS: I can't say that it

1 was a complex case at the beginning. The 2 contemplation of a diplomatic note -- I think we 3 have answered this -- that the similarities of 4 between Mr. X, Mr. Y, and Mr. Arar, okay, was that 5 MDC, at the 9th floor, okay? So those are the 6 similarities.

7 The diplomatic note, we decided
8 not to send them is because we knew where he was.
9 We had been given -- we were going to be given
10 access. We knew where he was. So this is what I
11 am saying. The complexity is when you are having 12 a case where you don't have any information, you
13 don't have access to that individual. That's a 14 complex.

15 At this point is we are -- it's a
16 presumption. It was a presumption at that --

17 MR. WALDMAN: Well I am going to 18 suggest to you that there were other factors that 19 you had in your file which clearly suggested that 20 this was not a normal case. I mean, aside from 21 the fact that it seems apparent that it wasn't
22 because you were consulting with Mr. Pardy and you
23 told us you only did that -- I want to remind you
24 of the e-mail that Ms Girvan sent, in which she 25 told you of her conversation with the superior

1 official at INS in which he said, go to the 2 ambassador -- get your ambassador to go to DOJ.

3 Did I understand you correctly
4 when you said that you had never heard such a
5 suggestion ever being given before?

6 MS COLLINS: That's right.

7 MR. WALDMAN: All right. So
8 doesn't that immediately suggest to you that this 9 is an extremely unusual case, when a superior at 10 INS is telling you to contact the ambassador in 11 Washington?

12 Doesn't that, in and of itself --
13 something that you had never heard of before --
14 suggest to you that this is a very unusual case?

15 MS COLLINS: Depending on -- yes,
16 because Mr. Arar was being alleged at that time,
17 and, of course, anybody being alleged of being a
18 member or anyone is serious, absolutely. But it
19 doesn't mean that we would go right away with the 20 ambassador to contact the Department of Justice.

21 MR. WALDMAN: Well, okay. The
22 conversation with INS I think took place before
23 you learned the allegations of Mr. Arar being a 24 member of al-Qaeda. That only came to your 25 knowledge when Ms Girvan visited Mr. Arar on the 1 3rd.

2 MS COLLINS: Okay.

3 MR. WALDMAN: The e-mail to
4 Ms Girvan about her conversation with the 5 gentleman at INS was on the 2nd.

6 MS COLLINS: I would need to go
7 back to the tab of that series, please.

8 MR. WALDMAN: It's tab 11.

9 MS COLLINS: Okay.

10 MR. WALDMAN: The third paragraph.

11 MS COLLINS: Thank you.

12 --- Pause

13 MS COLLINS: Yes.

14 MR. WALDMAN: Okay. So you told
15 us that you never heard anyone ever suggest to any 16 another consular official that our ambassador in 17 Washington should contact the Department of 18 Justice.

19 Is that correct?

20 MS COLLINS: That's correct.

21 MR. WALDMAN: So this was
22 extremely -- how did you react? Were you
23 surprised?

24 MS COLLINS: I was surprised.

25 MR. WALDMAN: Did you take this

1 information and discuss it with Mr. Carisse?

2 Mr. Pardy wasn't there; right?

3 MS COLLINS: No. Following this,
4 MS Girvan spoke with Helen Harris that evening,
5 and they did discuss this case. They did discuss
6 the seriousness. They did discuss the whole issue
7 of the conversation that they had had.

8 MR. WALDMAN: Okay. And did you
9 discuss it with MS Harris yourself?

10 MS COLLINS: I believe the next
11 day, yes.

12 MR. WALDMAN: Okay. Do you recall
13 the contents of your conversation with MS Harris?
14 I don't see it reflected in any CAMANT --

15 MS. COLLINS: No. We discussed
16 about the whole topic of this and that we would 17 proceed in to finding Mr. Arar and trying to get 18 access to him.

19 MR. WALDMAN: So do you recall
20 discussing with MS Harris the unusual nature of 21 this suggestion that our ambassador in Washington
22 should contact the Department of Justice and what 23 was her response?

24 MS COLLINS: I believe we did, but 25 I don't remember exactly what was said, what

1 was --

2 MR. WALDMAN: So the bottom line
3 was at this point you decided to hold off on the 4 dipnote to see if you could get access to
5 Mr. Arar?

6 MS COLLINS: Correct. We didn't
7 want to freeze any communication.

8 MR. WALDMAN: And the idea of 9 following up with the suggestion of getting the 10 ambassador to talk to the Department of Justice,
11 what happened with that suggestion? Did anyone
12 ever follow up on that, to your recollection?

13 MS COLLINS: I don't recollect
14 about the ambassador with the Department of 15 Justice. I recollect that our embassy in 16 Washington did speak with the Department of 17 Justice.

18 MR. WALDMAN: Are you aware if a
19 conversation actually took place between the 20 embassy and the Department of Justice?

21 MS COLLINS: I do recollect, yes.
22 I do remember there was a call placed.

23 MR. WALDMAN: Okay. I think MS
24 Girvan testified, and over lunch I will try and 25 see if I can find her evidence on that point.

1 MS COLLINS: Sure. I believe it
2 was Helene Bouchard that made that call.

3 MR. WALDMAN: So your recollection
4 is that there was a call from the Washington
5 embassy to the Department of Justice?

6 MS COLLINS: That's right, I do.

7 MR. WALDMAN: And you don't recall
8 what the nature of that -- what the result of that 9 conversation was?

10 MS COLLINS: I don't. No, I
11 don't.

12 MR. WALDMAN: So I want to go on 13 to -- I don't have a watch. Do we know?

14 THE COMMISSIONER: Quarter to one.

15 MR. WALDMAN: I could try and
16 finish this one area before we break for lunch.

17 THE COMMISSIONER: That would be
18 fine.

19 MR. WALDMAN: I will try to deal
20 with the issue of the seriousness of the case.

21 You said in your
22 examination-in-chief that you have dealt with 23 terrorism cases; right?

24 MS COLLINS: Yes.

25 MR. WALDMAN: People where there's

1 the allegation.

2 We know on the 3rd that MS Girvan
3 came back and said that Mr. Arar had an 4 immigration paper, which we will discuss later, in 5 which the allegation was that he was a member of 6 al-Qaeda; right?

7 MS COLLINS: Mm-hmm.

8 MR. WALDMAN: So by this time you
9 knew that this was an extremely serious case; is 10 that fair? He was on the 9th floor of the MDC.

11 MS COLLINS: That's correct.

12 MR. WALDMAN: Aside from "X" and 13 "Y", how many other people had you been involved
14 with on the 9th floor of the MDC?

15 MS COLLINS: I am not exactly --
16 those were the only three.

17 MR. WALDMAN: Mr. Arar, "X" and 18 "Y".

19 MS COLLINS: That's correct.

20 MR. WALDMAN: Is it not fair to 21 say, that in and of itself, you have a detainee in 22 this very secure ward for people only -- dealing
23 with people that have allegations of terrorism --

24 MS COLLINS: I had other inmates
25 in other States, so they wouldn't have been held

1 in MDC. They would have been held in the same
2 type of institution but in a different State.

3 MR. WALDMAN: How many other
4 people?

5 MS COLLINS: There was about four
6 cases, three to four cases.

7 MR. WALDMAN: Three to four cases
8 outside of the two -- so seven all together; is 9 that fair?

10 MS COLLINS: About seven to eight,
11 yes.

12 MR. WALDMAN: Okay. So we are now
13 talking -- you said you were dealing with 1700
14 cases we are had -- and this is cumulative, or at 15 the time of Mr. Arar's case?

16 MS COLLINS: I didn't hear you,
17 sorry.

18 MR. WALDMAN: Sorry. It gets a
19 bit difficult when we are talking about your 20 experience over a period of years.

21 At the time you were dealing with
22 Mr. Arar, you had "X" and "Y" and Mr. Arar. Did
23 you have any other terrorism cases at that time?

24 MS COLLINS: Yes, I did.

25 MR. WALDMAN: How many other at

1           that time?

2                           MS COLLINS:   Three, possibly four
3           at that time.

4                           MR. WALDMAN:   Okay.   So seven out
5           of 1700; is that fair?

6                           MS COLLINS:   Yes.

7                           MR. WALDMAN:   Does that not, in 8           and of itself, make this an extremely unusual and 9           extremely serious case?

10                          MS COLLINS:   At that time?
11           Absolutely.

12                          MR. WALDMAN:   Yes.

13           --- Off microphone / Sans microphone

14                          MR. WALDMAN:   I am going to go on 15           to another area, but I am not sure if it makes 16           sense to start it if we wanted to break at one --

17                          THE COMMISSIONER:   Sure, that 18           would be fine.  It's ten to one.  Do you want to 19           break until two?

20                          MR. WALDMAN:   2:15, because I am
21           going to have to consult with Mr. Arar.

22                          THE COMMISSIONER:   Okay.  We will
23           rise until 2:15.

24                          THE REGISTRAR:   Please stand.

25           --- Upon recessing at 12:50 p.m. /

1           Suspension à 12 h 50

2           --- Upon resuming at 2:15 p.m. /

3           Reprise à 14 h 15

4                   THE REGISTRAR: Please be seated.

5           Veuillez-vous asseoir.

6                   MR. WALDMAN: Okay. I am going to 7           just pick up from where I left off.

8                   Did you ever speak with anyone in 9           the RCMP about Mr. Arar's case prior to his
10          deportation to Syria?

11                   MS COLLINS: No, I did not.

12                   MR. WALDMAN: You didn't discuss
13          this case, for example, with the RCMP liaison
14          officer, Mr. Roy?

15                   MS COLLINS: No.

16                   THE COMMISSIONER: Just a second.

17          --- Off microphone / Sans microphone

18                   TECHNICIAN: I am sorry.

19                   THE COMMISSIONER: That's okay.
20          You are doing a good job here. Don't worry about 21          it.

22          --- Pause

23                   MR. WALDMAN: We will give it a
24          try.

25                   TECHNICIAN: Okay? Thank you.

1 MR. WALDMAN: Thank you.

2 Were you aware that the RCMP had
3 provided information to the U.S. authorities
4 regarding Mr. Arar and were notified prior to his 5 arrival in New York that he was going to be 6 detained?

7 MS COLLINS: If I was ...

8 MR. WALDMAN: Aware of that during
9 this period of time?

10 MS COLLINS: At that time? No, I
11 did not.

12 MR. WALDMAN: Were you aware that
13 they were specifically asked to provide questions
14 for Mr. Arar's interrogation and faxed those 15 questions down to the U.S. authorities?

16 MS COLLINS: No, not at all.

17 MR. WALDMAN: Were you aware that
18 the RCMP and U.S. authorities were in continuous
19 communication during the time that Mr. Arar was in 20 detention and prior to his deportation?

21 MS COLLINS: No, I did not.

22 MR. WALDMAN: I am hearing a hum.
23 Can I proceed?

24 THE COURT REPORTER: Yes, go
25 ahead.

1 MR. WALDMAN: Were you aware that
2 U.S. authorities spoke to an unnamed RCMP officer
3 sometime over the weekend of the 5th and 6th and 4 discussed the deportation of Mr. Arar at that
5 time?

6 MS COLLINS: No, I did not.

7 MR. WALDMAN: Would it have been
8 of assistance to you to have been apprised by the 9 RCMP of these facts during this time that you were 10 trying to assist Mr. Arar?

11 MS COLLINS: The assistance of 12 being in touch -- I don't -- sorry.

13 MR. WALDMAN: Well, assist him in 14 terms of he was expressing his concerns about 15 being deported to Syria, he was expressing all of 16 his fears.

17 Would it have helped you evaluate
18 the seriousness of the case if you had been aware 19 that the RCMP had provided information to 20 Mr. Arar, connecting him to an al-Qaeda
21 investigation?

22 MS COLLINS: The RCMP does not
23 normally proceed in providing the information to 24 consular. They just don't give us that 25 information on any other cases.

1 MR. WALDMAN: Will they not give
2 the information to the ISI?

3 MS COLLINS: You would have to ask
4 ISI directly, but I was never provided with that 5 information, sorry.

6 MR. WALDMAN: Okay, you weren't.
7 I'm more asking you whether or not
8 this is the normal course. If you had been aware 9 of this, would it have affected your handling of 10 the case?

11 MS COLLINS: That is a
12 speculation. I would presume so, but that is a 13 speculation.

14 MR. WALDMAN: Yes. I am asking
15 you to speculate, yes?

16 MS COLLINS: It is a speculation,
17 but I would presume so, yes.

18 MR. WALDMAN: Yes. So if you had
19 been aware that Mr. Arar had been part of -- there 20 had been allegations that had been sent by the 21 RCMP saying that he was part of an al-Qaeda
22 investigation, that might have affected your 23 evaluation of the seriousness of the case?

24 MS COLLINS: Yes, but it would
25 also lead to a lot of questions as well to ask. I

1 mean, what type of questions are they asking? It
2 all depends, yes.

3 MR. WALDMAN: But it would
4 certainly have been information that would have 5 been helpful to you in evaluating how serious the 6 case was?

7 MS COLLINS: At that time, yes.

8 MR. WALDMAN: Thank you. Okay.
9 When the concern was expressed to 10 you, both through Mr. Arar's brother --

11 MS COLLINS: Mm-hmm.

12 MR. WALDMAN: -- and through
13 Ms Girvan through the note where he reiterated his 14 concern about being deported to Syria, and so
15 on -- this happened on two separate occasions --
16 were you aware at that time of the very serious
17 human rights violations committed by the Syrian
18 government?

19 MS COLLINS: No, I did not.

20 MR. WALDMAN: Did you take any
21 efforts to sort of consult with anyone in ISI
22 about the human rights record in Syria at that 23 time to determine whether there were serious
24 concerns if he were to be deported there?

25 MS COLLINS: No.

1 MR. WALDMAN: Did you consult with
2 anyone at ISI about Mr. Arar's concerns of being
3 deported to Syria in general?

4 MS COLLINS: No, I don't recall
5 saying much with ISI. The only thing that was a
6 concern was the allegation of something, but I
7 never shared anything else more with ISI, so I
8 didn't really speak with ISI on anything with 9 Mr. Arar's case.

10 MR. WALDMAN: I would like to ask
11 you if you could look at tab 11.

12 MS COLLINS: Yes.

13 --- Pause

14 MR. WALDMAN: So this is the first
15 CAMANT note where you are advised, first, that 16 there was no INS file on the subject and that 17 because he was MDC it wasn't a deportation case.
18 But in the very same CAMANT note you are advised
19 by a more senior official at INS that this is such 20 a serious case that it should be taken to the 21 highest level, the Ambassador in Washington.

22 Now, Ms Girvan testified that she
23 was of the belief that because Mr. Arar was in the 24 MDC it wasn't a deportation case?

25 MS COLLINS: That's correct. MDC

1 is a Metropolitan Detention Centre.

2 MR. WALDMAN: Right.

3 MS COLLINS: So it is a
4 detention centre.

5 MR. WALDMAN: Right. But is it
6 not also fair to say that the information that was 7 provided by a very senior INS officer, he told you
8 to get the Ambassador to speak to the Department
9 of Justice?

10 MS COLLINS: Mm-hmm.

11 MR. WALDMAN: Now, are you aware
12 that the head of INS is the Attorney General, was 13 the head of the Department of Justice?

14 MS COLLINS: If that person? No.

15 MR. WALDMAN: No, no. I'm asking
16 you are you aware that the person in the U.S.
17 Cabinet in charge of INS is the Attorney General.
18 Do you know?

19 --- Off microphone / Sans microphone

20 MR. WALDMAN: Okay. What I'm
21 suggesting to you is that the officer was telling 22 you to get your Ambassador in Washington to 23 speak to officials in Washington who were heading
24 the INS.

25 MS COLLINS: To us the Department

1 of Justice is the one that covers any legal
2 aspects of anything that has to deal with 3 criminality in the United States. It's not
4 necessarily with U.S. Immigration. We are now
5 dealing with -- the Department of Justice is 6 responsible for the Bureau of Prison and various 7 department of correctional services in the United
8 States as well.

9 MR. WALDMAN: Okay. Thank you.
10 So if you go to tab 14.

11 MS COLLINS: Yes.

12 MR. WALDMAN: This is sent to 13 a whole series of persons, but Mr. Pardy is not 14 copied.

15 Is there any reason why he wasn't
16 copied at this time on this?

17 MS COLLINS: On October 2nd
18 Mr. Pardy was not in Ottawa. Helen Harris, the 19 Acting Director General, was copied on the 20 message.

21 MR. BAXTER: Actually,
22 Mr. Pardy is copied as well. If you look at the 23 first set of cc's he is at the bottom on the 24 right-hand side.

25 MS COLLINS: Okay. Thank you.

1 THE COMMISSIONER: Thank you.

2 MR. WALDMAN: I'm sorry, I missed
3 that. Okay, that's fine.

4 So am I correct in understanding
5 that Ms Girvan told us that she tried to reach
6 Mr. Pardy and he wasn't there. That is precisely
7 why, he wasn't there and that's why she couldn't 8 reach him on the 2nd and she spoke to Helen 9 Harris?

10 MS COLLINS: That's correct.

11 MR. WALDMAN: Do you know what 12 Mr. Pardy was doing at the time, where he was?

13 MS COLLINS: He was out of 14 the country.

15 MR. WALDMAN: So could I ask you
16 to go to tab 23 for a second?

17 --- Pause

18 MR. WALDMAN: All right.

19 Now, you suggest to Ms Girvan that 20 she treat this case the same as "X's" case -- is 21 that correct -- where a diplomatic note was sent?
22 That is at the very --

23 MS COLLINS: Yes, that we suggest
24 that we treat this case -- yes, I do say that in 25 my note.

1 MR. WALDMAN: So that is at 9:30
2 you are suggesting that a diplomatic note should 3 be sent.

4 Then at 9:53, you say:

5 "Before we proceed with the
6 diplomatic note, I think that
7 we should wait and see if MDC
8 replied to our fax."

9 (As read)

10 MS COLLINS: In the first
11 message I'm not saying that we send a diplomatic 12 note, I am saying that we should treat this case
13 as Mr. "Y".

14 I am not making an allusion of 15 sending a diplomatic note. I don't say "Let's 16 send a diplomatic note" here.

17 MR. WALDMAN: Well, 23 minutes
18 later you send a follow-up e-mail I guess.

19 MS COLLINS: Yes.

20 MR. WALDMAN: "Before we proceed
21 with a diplomatic note"?

22 MS COLLINS: That's right.

23 MR. WALDMAN: So did you
24 consult with Ms Harris or anyone else during that 25 time period?

1 MS COLLINS: Yes, we did. It was
2 discussed that because the MDC had asked that a
3 fax be sent that we would give some time to MDC to 4 reply back to us. So we didn't want to jump right
5 away in sending a diplomatic note if we didn't
6 have -- give them sufficient time to reply.

7 The fax was sent in the
8 evening, we are now in early morning, I just feel 9 that it would be okay to give some time for the 10 MDC to reply.

11 MR. WALDMAN: Okay. I'm going to 12 move on to another area now.

13 I just want to talk to you a bit
14 because I'm a bit confused about how you are 15 recalling things through your evidence here. I
16 just want to understand how it is that you record
17 information.

18 You are dealing with 1,700 cases
19 at any one time. Right?

20 MS COLLINS: Mm-hmm.

21 MR. WALDMAN: So obviously it is
22 impossible for you to remember particular details
23 about individual cases, so you have to record
24 things in your notes in one fashion or another.

25 Is that correct?

1 MS COLLINS: A lot of the times,
2 but I do still remember quite clearly some other
3 cases. Yes, I do. Not necessarily all 1,700, but 4 I am pretty familiar with most of my cases.

5 MR. WALDMAN: Okay. So you
6 remember the general facts around the case and 7 things like that, but the very --

8 MS COLLINS: In general
9 terms, yes.

10 MR. WALDMAN: In the very specific
11 details you would have to refer to your notes?

12 MS COLLINS: Exactly. Some of 13 them are clear, some of them are not. I mean it
14 has been a while now.

15 MR. WALDMAN: Right. In 16 Mr. Arar's case we are talking about, as you have 17 told us when I asked you about whether you
18 consulted with Ms Harris, you can't remember
19 things that happened three years ago --

20 MS COLLINS: In this case
21 absolutely, I do know that I would.

22 Do I specifically remember when I
23 saw Ms Harris? I'm sure the first thing in the 24 morning when I opened up my system and I saw this 25 message, I'm sure that -- I'm pretty sure that I

1 would have went to see --

2 MR. WALDMAN: But you can't
3 recall. It is very important because it is one
4 thing to say "I saw Ms Harris", and I think what 5 I'm hearing you say now is: "I assume I would 6 have spoken to her when I saw the message because 7 it would have been my practice". It is a
8 different story. Right?

9 So if I'm understanding you
10 correctly, you are now telling me that you don't 11 recall whether you saw Ms Harris, but you are 12 pretty sure you would have seen her because of 13 course once you saw the message you would have 14 consulted with her.

15 Is that fair?

16 MS COLLINS: That's fair.

17 MR. WALDMAN: You don't recall the 18 conversation now that you had with Ms Harris three 19 years ago about Mr. Arar?

20 MS COLLINS: I know that we -- I
21 think there is also the press line I believe, the 22 Q&A, which has to be approved by her, so that 23 would indicate that, yes, we did meet.

24 MR. WALDMAN: But you can't recall
25 the meeting yourself. You are just relying on the

1 written material, the notes --

2 MS COLLINS: I can't physically
3 recall when exactly we met, exactly.

4 MR. WALDMAN: Right. The same
5 would be true you can't recall whether you met
6 with Mr. Carisse, you might have --

7 MS COLLINS: Mr. who?

8 MR. WALDMAN: I can't remember.
9 Carisse.

10 MS COLLINS: Carisse, yes.

11 MR. WALDMAN: You can't recall if
12 you did. You assume you probably did --

13 MS COLLINS: It would be
14 my typical -- yes.

15 MR. WALDMAN: It would be your 16 typical routine to have contacted him?

17 MS COLLINS: That's right.

18 MR. WALDMAN: But at this point,
19 given there is absolutely nothing in the notes,
20 you can't say one way or the other for certain?

21 MS COLLINS: Correct.

22 MR. WALDMAN: Is it fair to say,
23 then, if I understood Ms Girvan's testimony, the 24 most important information would be put into the 25 CAMANT notes?

1 MS COLLINS: Normally, yes.

2 MR. WALDMAN: Normally. So
3 anything that was really significant you would 4 want to keep a permanent record of it, so it would
5 go into the CAMANT notes, so that you could --

6 MS COLLINS: We try, yes. We 7 try to.

8 MR. WALDMAN: You try to put?

9 MS COLLINS: Yes.

10 MR. WALDMAN: So anything that was 11 really important would go into the CAMANT notes?

12 MS COLLINS: That at the time we 13 thought was relevant, yes.

14 MR. WALDMAN: Right. Okay.

15 You have also told us -- we have 16 looked at your notebook.

17 MS COLLINS: Yes.

18 MR. WALDMAN: It's fair to say,
19 aside from noting that conversations took place or 20 didn't take place, there is very little else
21 there. Right? An occasional notation, but mostly 22 it is just a time and a person and a call or 23 returning a call.

24 Is that fair?

25 MS COLLINS: No. There are times

1           where I had detailed notes. I mean, I can't just 2           presume why sometimes I would just take detailed 3           notes or not, but --

4                       MR. WALDMAN: In terms of what we 5           have in front of us -- I'm not asking you in 6           general, I'm asking you to turn to what we have 7           here in the notes.

8                       MS COLLINS: Mm-hmm.

9                       MR. WALDMAN: I really don't see
10          anything that is detailed.

11                      MS COLLINS: A lot of the times
12          with my conversation with Mr. Taufik Arar I was 13          immediately writing it into the computer.

14                      MR. WALDMAN: Right.

15                      MS COLLINS: A lot of the times.
16          I'm on the phone, I'm facing my computer, and I'm 17          entering the information as I go along.

18                      MR. WALDMAN: Right. And all
19          the important information would have been 20          entered into --

21                      MS COLLINS: The most pertinent
22          that I felt at the time, yes.

23                      MR. WALDMAN: So let me just 24          ask you about your conversations with Mr. Arar's
25          brother, Taufik.

1 MS COLLINS: Mm-hmm.

2 MR. WALDMAN: He was calling you
3 from Montreal.

4 Is that correct?

5 MS COLLINS: I believe so, yes.
6 It is a 450, so I would assume it's Montreal area.

7 MR. WALDMAN: Right. Do you
8 recall what language he spoke to you?

9 MS COLLINS: I think we spoke both
10 languages, mostly English or French.

11 MR. WALDMAN: You don't recall
12 which one?

13 MS COLLINS: I would presume it
14 was in English. It could have been in French. It
15 could have been both.

16 MR. WALDMAN: Presuming. But
17 I'm asking if you recall, and you are saying you
18 presume.

19 MS COLLINS: If I remember
20 distinctively with Mr. Taufik? Distinctively, no
21 I don't remember if I spoke French or English with 22 him. Very often I do speak both languages with a
23 client. They will start off with English and then 24 eventually we will end up speaking French or we 25 will switch back and forth. With people that are

1           bilingual it is a common process that we do.

2                       MR. WALDMAN: But you don't really
3 know what languages Mr. Taufik Arar speaks?

4                       MS COLLINS: If I recollect now?
5 I cannot recollect that now; sorry.

6                       MR. WALDMAN: Okay. So you don't 7 know if he had trouble speaking or he was fluent
8 in the language he spoke to you?

9                               You can't recall?

10                      MS COLLINS: I didn't see any 11 difficulties in his expression.

12                      MR. WALDMAN: All right. Let's
13 look at the CAMANT notes.

14                               I think the first one is 10. Can 15 I ask you to look at 10?

16                      MS COLLINS: Mm-hmm.

17           --- Pause

18                      MR. WALDMAN: So this is the first
19 conversation on October 1st, and he says:

20                               "Brother called this morning
21 in state of panic. Subject
22 was able to call him this
23 morning from MDC and informed
24 him that he would be deported
25 back to Syria where he is

1                   born. Both subject and
2                   brother extremely afraid that
3                   he would be deported back to
4                   Syria. Have informed brother
5                   we just received confirmation
6                   of whereabouts and that we 7                   are trying to confirm
8                   charges. I also informed
9                   without prior authorization
10                  we weren't able to provide
11                  any additional information."

12                   (As read)

13                   So then you asked to send the 14                  introduction letter.

15                   So that is the CAMANT notes of 16                  your first conversation.

17                   Is that correct?

18                  MS COLLINS: Yes.

19                  MR. WALDMAN: Is there anything
20                  more that is going to be of assistance to us in 21                  your handwritten notes?

22                   I don't think so, but I'm 23                  asking you --

24                  MS COLLINS: I don't think so.

25                  MR. WALDMAN: It's on page 2.

1 MS COLLINS: Yes.

2 MR. WALDMAN: Okay. So this
3 is the extent to which we have notes taken at 4 the time.

5 Do you recall the conversation
6 beyond that? You can't recall what language it's 7 in, so can you recall the conversation?

8 MS COLLINS: I recall the
9 conversation. I remember him talking about
10 deportation to Syria.

11 I remember asking him why he was 12 afraid that he would be deported to Syria. I
13 asked if it had anything to do -- I remember
14 asking a couple of questions. One is if he had 15 entered the United States on a Canadian passport.

16 MR. WALDMAN: Okay. So that is 17 what you remember?

18 MS COLLINS: I remember.

19 Second of all, I do remember
20 asking him about the military term in Syria, if 21 that was a reason why he was afraid.

22 MR. WALDMAN: Well, if I were
23 to put it to you that Mr. Taufik Arar's
24 recollection --

25 MR. BAXTER: Mr. Commissioner, I'm

1           sorry, we are running into the same problem here I
2           think we ran into with the cross-examination of
3           Ms Girvan.

4                           I don't know if you want to give
5           some guidance here?

6                           THE COMMISSIONER: Certainly.

7                           You can put to the witness what 8           Mr. Taufik Arar has told you if you undertake to 9           call him to support the suggestion.

10                          MR. WALDMAN: Mr. Taufik Arar was 11           supposed to be one of the witnesses that was going 12           to be called last summer before the family was --

13                          THE COMMISSIONER: And he wasn't.

14                          You can put the question if you
15           undertake now that you will call him with respect
16           to this matter.

17                          MR. WALDMAN: Okay. Well, I guess
18           the only difficulty I have is we were advised by 19           the Commission at that time that there might be 20           some issues of fairness that had to be addressed
21           with respect to whether any of Mr. Arar's family 22           members could testify prior to the receipt of the 23           interim report.

24                          So with respect to Mr. Taufik
25           Arar, certainly after we get that disclosure

1           there would be no difficulty with respect to him
2           testifying.  Prior to that time, I don't know
3           how we can give an undertaking without being
4           made aware as to whether it would be fair for him
5           to be called as a witness without reading the 6           interim report.

7                           THE COMMISSIONER:  On this
8           specific issue I'm not sure there is a fairness
9           problem.  What you are alluding to is what has now
10          found its way into my ruling with respect to 11          Mr. Arar testifying.  I'm sure you are familiar
12          with the ruling.

13                          But it is the situation that if 14          you wish to put statements somebody has made to 15          you out of court to a witness, if you wish to 16          assert that a witness would say something, then 17          you are going to have to undertake to call that 18          person as a witness.  It is just basic fairness.

19                          Let me just say this to you
20          about it:  I don't want to curtail your 21          cross-examination in the slightest.

22                          MR. WALDMAN:  Right.

23                          THE COMMISSIONER:  I understand,
24          given the nature of your questions, that there is 25          some upset about these conversations.  I would

1            simply urge you -- and if Mr. Arar is giving
2            instructions to you -- keep in mind my mandate and
3            the overall significance of what we are doing.

4                            I'm not suggesting you
5            shouldn't pursue this.  That said, I think if 6            you want to put the question the way you just 7            did you would have to undertake to call Mr. Taufik
8            Arar, at least to testify with respect to those 9            conversations.

10                           I'm not immediately aware of any 11            unfairness to him about testifying only about 12            those conversations because I would have thought
13            the only documents that relate to those 14            conversations are the ones that this witness has 15            already referred to, so that he would have the 16            advantage of having heard her evidence and seeing 17            these documents.  We could limit it to that.

18                           We would then be embarking upon a
19            course -- I am repeating -- about what is clearly 20            a collateral issue -- it can be important to 21            people, but it is clearly a collateral issue and 22            we are now calling other witnesses, and so on.

23                           That said, it's up to you.  This
24            witness did give the evidence, I heard it this 25            morning and I understand where you are coming

1 from, but that will be the way we have to proceed
2 with it.

3 MR. WALDMAN: Okay. Just let me
4 consult, because my colleague spoke to Mr. Arar.

5 THE COMMISSIONER: All right.

6 --- Pause

7 THE COMMISSIONER: Let me add this
8 to what I just said before you respond,
9 Mr. Waldman.

10 If there is something you would
11 wish to call by way of evidence that took place
12 during these conversations that you are of the 13 view is or may be relevant to this inquiry, then I
14 think we should explore ways for you to pursue
15 that.

16 MR. WALDMAN: The problem I have
17 is I can't give a firm undertaking about 18 Mr. Taufik being willing to testify without having 19 a much greater -- you see, part of the difficulty
20 was that we weren't aware that these issues would 21 emerge because they weren't included in the 22 witness statements.

23 THE COMMISSIONER: Can I suggest
24 that we handle it this way, and I will hear from 25 counsel, if necessary.

1                   Why don't you carry on with the 2 rest of your cross-examination. We will put to 3 one side, for the moment, this line of 4 questioning, that being the conversations with 5 Mr. Taufik Arar and this witness.

6                   You can then pursue it more fully
7 and, if necessary, we can have the witness
8 recalled. You can call whatever evidence you wish 9 to about those conversations, if you think that is 10 a desirable course. But you won't be prejudiced
11 by putting them to one side at this point.

12                  MR. WALDMAN: Let me just try 13 another way of doing it, which is putting the 14 information in a different way to the witness, and 15 if it doesn't work then maybe we will try that.

16                  I would rather try and finish and 17 not have to come back.

18                  THE COMMISSIONER: I agree with 19 that comment too.

20                  --- Laughter / Rires

21                  MR. WALDMAN: Okay. Let me put a
22 proposition to you: Is it not possible that it
23 was Mr. Taufik who expressed to you concern about 24 Mr. Arar having to do military service? Are you
25 sure that it was you who raised it first as

1           opposed to Mr. Arar's brother?

2                           MS COLLINS: I did raise it first.
3           I do recall that.

4                           MR. WALDMAN: You are sure about
5           that?

6                           MS COLLINS: Yes, I am sure about
7           it.

8                           MR. WALDMAN: Although it's not
9           mentioned in your notes?

10                          MS COLLINS: No.

11                          MR. WALDMAN: And it happened
12           three years ago and you are 100 per cent sure.

13                          MS COLLINS: The reason why I am
14           sure about that is within my functions of 15           emergency operations centre is we used to have a 16           lot of people that used to call and they were 17           Middle East people. And when he raised that 18           issue, automatically I thought about the military
19           service. That was a common knowledge of myself.
20           And I raised it with Mr. Taufik.

21                          MR. WALDMAN: Do you recall what
22           Mr. Taufik Arar's response was when you started
23           discussing the military service?

24                          MS COLLINS: He told me that it
25           didn't matter; that he was a Canadian citizen and

1           that he wanted him back to Canada.

2                       MR. WALDMAN: Right. Did he
3           express concern to you, do you recall, about the 4           fact that he might have to do military service in
5           Syria?

6                       MS COLLINS: I don't recall that
7           point.

8                       MR. WALDMAN: You don't recall one
9           way or the other whether he was concerned that --

10                      MS COLLINS: He was concerned for 11           him not to go to -- and I understand that. His 12           main concern was for him not to go to Syria.

13                      MR. WALDMAN: Do you recall
14           whether he expressed concern to you about the fact
15           that if Mr. Arar were sent to Syria he would be 16           forced to do the military service and he may end
17           up in prison?

18                      MS COLLINS: No, I do not recall
19           that.

20                      MR. WALDMAN: But he could have 21           said it. You are just not sure one way or the 22           other.

23                      MS COLLINS: If that would have
24           been something like that, I am pretty sure that I
25           would have taken notice and I would have noted it,

1           and I don't have anything there. So I don't
2           believe that that was said.

3                           I think that that was important
4           information that I think I would have noticed and
5           I would have put it in my notes.

6                           MR. WALDMAN: You have just told
7           me the issue of military service was raised,
8           either by you or by him. Or you say by you.

9                           MS COLLINS: Yes.

10                          MR. WALDMAN: But you didn't put 11           it in your note?

12                          MS COLLINS: At the time I felt it
13           was irrelevant to this because he was now in the 14           United States. He was at the MDC, which we 15           felt -- I mean, given this is the beginning of a 16           case, that he is in the United States and that we 17           would do anything to make sure he wasn't -- first 18           of all I asked about the passport, if he entered 19           the United States with a passport, and for us to 20           make sure that the American government knew he was 21           a Canadian citizen.

22                          We had no precedent case before
23           Mr. Arar or since, and I think that's very 24           important as well.

25                          MR. WALDMAN: Okay.

1                   Your CAMANT note suggests that the
2 phone call came -- that Mr. Arar made was made to 3 his brother.

4                   You said that:

5                   "Subject was able to call him
6 this morning"

7                   MS COLLINS: If I put that he 8 phoned him, then I guess -- I know that he phoned
9 him and also phoned the mother-in-law.

10                  MR. WALDMAN: So according to you,
11 there were two phone calls; right?

12                  MS COLLINS: I don't know if there
13 are two phone calls. I am not sure if it was -- 14 if I said it was put in, in the notes that he 15 phoned him, it could very well be. But I do
16 recollect something along the lines of the 17 mother-in-law. I do recollect something about the 18 mother-in-law.

19                  MR. WALDMAN: So could it not be 20 that this is mistaken. In fact, the call was not 21 made to Mr. Taufik Arar but made to the 22 mother-in-law?

23                  MS COLLINS: It could very well
24 be.

25                  MR. WALDMAN: So the other CAMANT

1 note dealing with the phone call is 29? That's
2 the only other -- if I am correct, there is only
3 two.

4 I am sure my friends will correct
5 me if I am wrong. This is on the 3rd?

6 MS COLLINS: Yes.

7 MR. WALDMAN: I am talking about
8 before -- there were calls after he was deported.
9 I am focusing on the time prior, so these are the 10 two. Because in your notes it seems there might 11 have been one or two other calls, but you didn't 12 make any CAMANT notes except for these two prior 13 to the deportation.

14 Is that correct?

15 MS COLLINS: I presume so, yes.

16 MR. WALDMAN: Is this the call
17 that's marked in your book with the "mother 18 threatened"?

19 MS COLLINS: No.

20 MR. WALDMAN: That's on page 6.

21 You see, I am having difficulty
22 trying to ascertain the date of that call.

23 MS COLLINS: That's the 2nd of 24 October.

25 MR. WALDMAN: So there was another

1 call on the 2nd of October?

2 MS COLLINS: Yes.

3 MR. WALDMAN: In which the
4 mother-in-law -- and how long did that -- you see,
5 there is an arrow.

6 Can you read when --

7 MS COLLINS: Ten.

8 MR. WALDMAN: Is that 10:25 and 9 10:26?

10 MS COLLINS: Yes.

11 MR. WALDMAN: So this was a
12 one-minute phone call?

13 MS COLLINS: That's correct.

14 MR. WALDMAN: And then the 15 one-minute phone call -- the notation is 16 "mother-in-law" and then "threatened"?

17 MS COLLINS: That's what I
18 recollect him telling me.

19 MR. WALDMAN: Do you recollect the 20 call itself or just what's within the notes?

21 MS COLLINS: I do. I recollect
22 Mr. Taufik calling me and telling me that 23 Mr. Arar's mother-in-law is being threatened. He 24 was very agitated and I asked him, by whom, why,
25 what was the relevancy of the mother-in-law to be

1           threatened? And he got very angry and hung up on 2           me; told me that he didn't need to answer the 3           questions, that all I needed to do was to get his 4           brother out.

5                           MR. WALDMAN: Okay. And yet this 6           call was -- and you told us this call was very 7           significant and after this you went to speak to 8           Ms Harris. Is that correct?

9                           MS COLLINS: Well, I didn't know
10          the relevancy of the mother-in-law being 11          threatened, so I did see my superior, my 12          supervisors, and asking what do I do with this?
13          You know, what are the guidance about this 14          information? I don't have a lot of information.
15          This is the only information I am given. I don't 16          even know the name of the mother-in-law.

17                           The contact, the phone call that I
18          have is very, very short. It's under a minute.
19          It was very, very puzzling for me as well.

20                           MR. WALDMAN: Is it not possible
21          that you misunderstood and that in fact the intent 22          was to relate to you the fact that the 23          mother-in-law had been advised by Mr. Arar that he 24          was being threatened with deportation to Syria?

25                           MS COLLINS: I strongly --

1           according to this is that I believe that that was
2           her. That was my understanding, because I started
3           asking questions directly to Mr. Taufik about the 4           mother-in-law.

5                           I mean, I can't answer that
6           question; I am sorry.

7                           MR. WALDMAN: But it's fair to say
8           that there is no CAMANT note?

9                           MS COLLINS: No, because there was 10          not enough information. I didn't know what to do
11          with this information. And it didn't seem 12          relevant at the time to enter this in CAMANT and 13          to put what? So I didn't.

14                          MR. WALDMAN: But do you have a
15          recollection of the call or are you just assuming 16          based upon your notes?

17                          MS COLLINS: I have some 18          recollections and also based on my notes.

19                          MR. WALDMAN: So some 20          recollection?

21                          MS COLLINS: Yes.

22                          MR. WALDMAN: So if I asked you
23          precisely what the call was, or the content, you
24          can't say?

25                          MS COLLINS: Pardon me?

1 MR. WALDMAN: If I asked you
2 precisely what the contents of the call was, you
3 couldn't tell us?

4 MS COLLINS: It was very short.

5 MR. WALDMAN: It was very short.
6 So it should be easier for you to remember if it
7 was a short call.

8 MS COLLINS: It was a very short
9 phone call.

10 MR. WALDMAN: So do you remember
11 what he said?

12 MS COLLINS: I just explained.

13 MR. WALDMAN: Beyond that you
14 don't remember.

15 I think we are going to have to 16 put this aside, and I will get instructions from 17 Mr. Arar.

18 THE COMMISSIONER: If I can
19 comment, the way you are handling the question
20 accomplishes much the same thing. What I ruled is 21 inadmissible for you to assert that a witness
22 would say something, but in any event.

23 MR. BAXTER: If it becomes
24 material to any of your considerations, certainly 25 Ms Collins can be recalled. She is in the area.

1 I can't imagine -- well, I am not
2 sure how significant it will be in the long run.

3 THE COMMISSIONER: All right. Why
4 don't you put it to one side and carry on?

5 MR. WALDMAN: Okay. I would like
6 to deal now with -- Ms Girvan gave us four reasons
7 why she didn't believe Mr. Arar would be deported
8 to Syria.

9 MS COLLINS: Mm-hmm.

10 MR. WALDMAN: They had never done
11 it before. He was travelling under Canadian 12 passport. They had been given consular access.
13 And it had not happened in the "X" and "Y" cases.

14 MS COLLINS: That's right.

15 MR. WALDMAN: And you agree with 16 that assessment?

17 MS COLLINS: I do. I do agree.

18 MR. WALDMAN: So key to your 19 evaluation was that this case, in your view, was 20 very similar to "X" and "Y"?

21 MS COLLINS: It had some
22 similarities, absolutely, yes.

23 MR. WALDMAN: So could we look at 24 the note -- We have been given the summaries of 25 "X" and "Y", and perhaps we can go through that.

1           They are 52 and 53.

2                           Is it fair to say that Mr. "Y",
3           who wasn't a citizen, that's a significant
4           difference; right?

5                           MS COLLINS:   He was a landed
6           immigrant, absolutely.

7                           MR. WALDMAN:   Right.   And you
8           became aware of Mr. "Y"'s detention as a result of 9           Mr. "X" telling you about it?

10                          MS COLLINS:   During the first
11           visit, that's correct.

12                          MR. WALDMAN:   Right.   And you had 13           consular visits even though he wasn't a Canadian 14           citizen?

15                          MS COLLINS:   That's correct.

16                          MR. WALDMAN:   And he was in the 17           MDC because there was apparently an investigation
18           as to whether he might be involved in terrorism?

19                          MS COLLINS:   That's correct.

20                          MR. WALDMAN:   Ultimately what 21           happened was he was deported based on an 22           immigration violation.

23                          Is that correct?

24                          MS COLLINS:   That's correct.   What 25           happened is that he was under investigations and

1           then eventually was charged for an immigration
2           violation and received, I believe, time served and 3           deported eventually.

4                         MR. WALDMAN:   Okay.

5                         MS COLLINS:   There was as well
6           other things he was charged as well, of having 7           documents, and other things as well.

8                         MR. WALDMAN:   All right.  And 9           Mr. "X" -- this is the fellow you describe in some 10          detail -- was a Canadian citizen.  He was arrested
11          in New York in September and the family contacted 12          you in October.  You kept contacting MDC and they 13          kept saying he wasn't there until November, when 14          you found out through a lawyer that he was there.

15                        MS COLLINS:   Okay.  Actually the 16          call was placed in JPO.  It wasn't myself.  I
17          wasn't in JPO at that time.  I came in in 18          November.

19                        MR. WALDMAN:   Right.

20                        MS COLLINS:   So I can only give 21          you the information at that time.

22                        But I do know from the files and 23          working with the files at that time that the 24          original call came in from the wife as a
25          wellbeing/whereabout.  She was trying to locate --

1           there was no indication that Mr. "X" had been
2           arrested.  And then there was no call from the 3           spouse until we heard back in mid-November by the 4           attorney who called us.

5                       MR. WALDMAN:  And again, as in the 6           case of Mr. "Y", ultimately what happened was 7           Mr. "X", although there was a terrorism
8           investigation, he was charged with an immigration
9           violation, sentenced with time served, and then he 10          was --

11                      MS COLLINS:  Deported back to 12          Canada.

13                      MR. WALDMAN:  -- deported back to 14          Canada?

15                      MS COLLINS:  Correct.

16                      MR. WALDMAN:  I would like to put 17          to you that there are a lot of very significant
18          differences between Mr. Arar's case and either "X"
19          and "Y," and I would just ask you to confirm those 20          for me.

21                      At any point -- and I don't see
22          anything in the evidence, and correct me if I am
23          wrong.

24                      Is it not correct to say that at 25          no point were either "X" or "Y" threatened with

1           deportation to any country other than Canada?

2                       MS COLLINS:   That I cannot
3           guarantee you.  There could have been the 4           possibility.  They just may have not brought it
5           up.  We were not told.  I don't know.

6                       That is something we would have to 7           ask either the person who visited.  If it wasn't
8           recorded, I would not --

9                       MR. WALDMAN:  Based upon the 10          information in your possession at this time -- and 11          I am sure if someone has contrary information from 12          the government, they will bring it forward.  But 13          based upon the information that you have from your 14          review of the files, was there ever any indication
15          that "X" or "Y" was told by anybody that they were 16          going to be deported to any other country?

17                      MS COLLINS:  At that time, no.

18                      MR. DAVID:  So isn't that a 19          significant difference between their case and 20          Mr. Arar's, because you were advised at least on 21          two different occasions by different people that 22          he had been threatened with deportation to Syria?

23                      MR. BAXTER:  Mr. Commissioner, I
24          have some concerns about this line of questioning
25          given that we have a half-page summary of one

1 CAMANT file and a one-page summary of the other.

2 If my friend is going to make much
3 of a meal of this, perhaps we can take it as an 4 undertaking to review the entire CAMANT file,
5 speak to the people that have more direct
6 knowledge -- because Ms Collins has just said in 7 one case she wasn't there for the first two or 8 three months -- and report back to the Commission
9 on that.

10 It just seems to me, to assert on 11 the basis -- when my friend says what you have 12 before you today, you have no information. Yes,
13 that's true. But these summaries of Messrs. "X"
14 and "Y" have been prepared for a particular
15 purpose.

16 THE COMMISSIONER: So that we
17 reduce the likelihood of having to call Ms Collins
18 back, I suggest that we proceed with the line of 19 questioning. If there is information you don't 20 know about "X" or "Y", simply please point that 21 out. I am sure Mr. Waldman would expect that.

22 The government, having heard the 23 line of questioning, is certainly open to review
24 those files thoroughly, and if as a result of that 25 the line of questioning or answers appears to be

1 misleading in any significant way would be given
2 an opportunity of then introducing the corrected
3 information.

4 But in that fashion I think what
5 we can do is proceed.

6 MR. BAXTER: Certainly. I am not
7 uncomfortable with proceeding. I believe the 8 witness has already indicated that she may not 9 have the answers to these questions.

10 THE COMMISSIONER: Right.

11 MR. BAXTER: So my friend is 12 proceeding based on her personal knowledge at this 13 time with these --

14 THE COMMISSIONER: That's clear
15 from her answers. Let's see how we go.

16 MR. WALDMAN: I just want to point
17 out that having said that, it was Ms Girvan who 18 referred us to Ms Collins as being the one,
19 because we tried to ask the similar questions to 20 Ms Girvan and she said Ms Collins would be the one
21 who could answer, so in anticipation of that.

22 It also strikes me that Mr. Pardy
23 is testifying on Monday, and certainly between now
24 and Monday -- or Tuesday, it's a long weekend.
25 And certainly between now and Tuesday if it's

1           necessary and there is something, I am sure he
2           could educate himself on these two files.

3                         THE COMMISSIONER:  Sure.  You can 4           carry on.

5                         MR. WALDMAN:  I am going to carry
6           on.  We all understand that.

7                         And if you don't recall, you don't 8           recall.

9                         MS COLLINS:  Okay.

10                        MR. WALDMAN:  Is that fair?  Okay.

11                        So as far as you are aware -- and 12           I just want to clarify.

13                        With respect to -- I understood
14           that you were involved in all of "Y" and most of 15           "X"; is that fair?

16                        MS COLLINS:  Yes.

17                        MR. WALDMAN:  So it's just the 18           initial month, because you started in November at 19           JPO.

20                        MS COLLINS:  Yes, I did.

21                        MR. WALDMAN:  And the initial
22           contact with the wife would have been in October?

23                        MS COLLINS:  Around that -- no,
24           November.  It would have been after November.

25                        MR. WALDMAN:  Oh, because the

1 summary here says that the contact was in October?

2 MS COLLINS: That's right. She
3 called -- she initially called my office, but I
4 wasn't the case management officer at that time.
5 So whoever was at that function, or that
6 responsibility, took the phone call from the wife
7 at that time.

8 MR. WALDMAN: I understand. But
9 as of November, she was your file?

10 MS COLLINS: That's right.

11 MR. WALDMAN: And you dealt with 12 it all the way through until the end?

13 MS COLLINS: Until the end, yes.

14 MR. WALDMAN: And the first
15 contact indeed with Mr. "X" wasn't until November,
16 and by then you were on the file?

17 MS COLLINS: That's correct.

18 MR. WALDMAN: So to repeat and 19 just reiterate, there was no indication in 20 Mr. "X"'s file, based upon your recollection --

21 MS COLLINS: Yes. I didn't study
22 the case, so I --

23 MR. WALDMAN: Okay. That's fine.

24 And is it also fair to say that
25 there was never any indication from any U.S.

1 official in Mr. "X"'s case that you should get
2 your ambassador in Washington to speak to the 3 Department of Justice?

4 MS COLLINS: There was no calls --
5 there was no calls made through the interlocutor
6 or through U.S. Immigration at that time because 7 they were already at MDC. So I can't say that 8 there would have been; it's just there weren't.
9 He is already at the 9th level at MDC.

10 MR. WALDMAN: But there is no
11 indication from any senior U.S. government
12 official that this was a very serious case that 13 required reaction at the highest levels?

14 MS COLLINS: He was already at 15 MDC. He was already on the 9th level.

16 MR. WALDMAN: And with respect to 17 any of these other cases, was there ever a
18 document similar to the one that Ms Girvan sent 19 you in the CAMANT note under 235(c) of the 20 Immigration and Naturalization Act?

21 Did either of these people get one
22 of those documents under an Expedited Removal
23 Process?

24 MS COLLINS: If they were, we were 25 not provided with a copy. That was up to the

1 individual to provide us. That's normally given
2 to their attorneys, not necessarily to us. It's 3 up to the individual.

4 MR. WALDMAN: But to the best of
5 what you know, you had no indication that such a
6 document --

7 MS COLLINS: I don't recall; no, I
8 don't.

9 MR. WALDMAN: I would like to go
10 to that document, if you can just give me a second
11 to find it. It is in the CAMANT note.

12 Tab 31. I will give you time to 13 get to it.

14 So on October 3rd, Ms Girvan took
15 the trouble to type out on CAMANT the actual 16 allegation under section 235(c) of the Immigration
17 and Nationality Act. So you were apprised at that 18 date that there was a process going on under 19 section 235 and that the allegation was that 20 Mr. Arar was inadmissible as a member of al-Qaeda?

21 MS COLLINS: Mm-hmm.

22 MR. WALDMAN: Is that fair?

23 MS COLLINS: Yes.

24 MR. WALDMAN: Did you take the 25 time to find out what section 235(c) of the

1 Immigration and Naturalization Act was?

2 MS COLLINS: No. Normally that
3 would be the responsibility of the attorney of the 4 client.

5 MR. WALDMAN: But at this time,
6 Mr. Arar had not seen a lawyer.

7 MS COLLINS: At that time there
8 was talks of -- and I believe during the visit
9 that Miss Maureen Girvan informs Mr. Arar that the 10 family is hiring an attorney. So that would be 11 the responsibility of the attorney to really 12 address this issue and not for us to address that 13 issue.

14 MR. WALDMAN: Okay. You had been
15 told by Mr. Arar, and you reiterate it on the 3rd,
16 and indeed it said in the note that he was afraid
17 that he was going to be deported back to Syria.

18 You get this document under 19 section 235(c) of the Immigration and 20 Naturalization Act. You know he doesn't have a 21 lawyer at the time, and you don't check to find
22 out -- do you think it would be difficult to find
23 out what 235(c) of the Immigration and 24 Naturalization Act is?

25 MS COLLINS: It wouldn't be

1           difficult, but it is something that we do not do.
2           That is the responsibility of an attorney --

3                         MR. WALDMAN:  You don't do it in a
4           case when you are being told by a senior
5           official --

6                         MS COLLINS:  We don't deal with 7           the charges per se.  What we try to do is we try
8           to assist the individual.  If he wouldn't have had 9           an attorney, we would have provided him with a 10          list or we would have provided him with the 11          information on how to obtain a public defender in 12          the United States.  We don't defend a person in a 13          court of law or U.S. Immigration.  That's not our 14          functions.  And I think that's what's important
15          here.

16                        We are aware of what is said.  But 17          that's not up to us to represent him.

18                        MR. WALDMAN:  No, no one is 19          suggesting that you represent him, ma'am.  All I
20          am suggesting is it might have been important for 21          you to check and understand -- I mean, given the 22          fact that you have been warned that this was a
23          very serious case and you should go to Washington,
24          and you have been waiting, you tell us, to find 25          the charges, it might have been helpful for you to

1 check.

2 I would suggest to you that if you
3 do a Google search, it's very easy. There are 4 numerous copies online available of the 5 Immigration and Naturalization Act. It couldn't
6 have taken you more than ten minutes to find it.
7 And it might have helped you understand the 8 seriousness of the allegation if you had taken the 9 time to do that.

10 MS COLLINS: I guess I could have 11 done it.

12 MR. WALDMAN: I just want to
13 clarify one little housekeeping matter this
14 morning, because you suggested that there was a 15 conversation between Mr. Archambault and the 16 Department of Justice. Are you sure about that?

17 I believe Ms Girvan's evidence on 18 this point is not consistent with yours.

19 MS COLLINS: Helene Bouchard made
20 a call, I believe, if I recollect?

21 THE COMMISSIONER: That's what you
22 said this morning.

23 MS COLLINS: Yes. I didn't say
24 Mr. Archambault.

25 MR. WALDMAN: Oh, sorry,

1 Ms Bouchard.

2 But I believe that we asked
3 Ms Girvan, and she said there are no contacts
4 between April 3rd --

5 MS COLLINS: I think there is an
6 e-mail to that effect, if we want to go back and 7 probably look.

8 MR. BAXTER: I believe Ms Girvan
9 was taken to tab 703, Mr. Commissioner.

10 THE COMMISSIONER: Tab 703?

11 MR. BAXTER: Yes. It speaks about
12 a call later in the process, in the seventh 13 paragraph down, beginning with:

14 "I was asked by BCM ..."

15 The second line says:

16 "... as I believe that
17 Washington and Mr. Gar Pardy
18 were in touch with officials
19 at the Department of Justice
20 and with State on the 9th of 21 October and subsequently."

22 I also believe there was a line of 23 questioning, and I don't have the transcript
24 here --

25 MR. WALDMAN: I have it here.

1 MR. BAXTER: -- that may have
2 touched on other references to DOJ contact. But
3 certainly this is one relatively contemporaneous
4 document that speaks about that.

5 I don't know if the witness had
6 another one in mind, Ms Collins.

7 MR. WALDMAN: My only concern was
8 our understanding was that there was no contact,
9 and Ms Girvan on page 2228 of the transcript -- it
10 says:

11 "My question is that neither
12 you, nor anyone to your
13 knowledge, contacted U.S.
14 authorities between your 15 interview on October 3 and
16 Mr. Arar's deportation at 3
17 a.m. on October 8...

18 And she says:

19 "To my knowledge, no."

20 THE COMMISSIONER: The call
21 referred to in 703 wouldn't fall within that 22 question.

23 MR. WALDMAN: No.

24 THE COMMISSIONER: Your question
25 is before October 8th.

1 MR. WALDMAN: Before his
2 deportation, right.

3 THE COMMISSIONER: Right.

4 MR. WALDMAN: So are you sure that
5 there was contact before the deportation?

6 MS COLLINS: I am not sure.

7 THE COMMISSIONER: Sorry. I
8 missed the answer.

9 MS COLLINS: Oh, sorry. I am not
10 sure.

11 THE COMMISSIONER: And I am sure
12 you don't mind me asking this, Mr. Waldman.

13 MR. WALDMAN: No.

14 THE COMMISSIONER: Is anyone aware
15 whether there is any reference to such a phone
16 conversation before October 8th in the documents?

17 MR. WALDMAN: I looked. I
18 couldn't find it. I am in other people's hands.
19 Maybe someone else did.

20 There's lots of documents I may 21 not have seen.

22 MR. DAVID: We have no indication
23 of any.

24 THE COMMISSIONER: Thank you.
25 Carry on, Mr. Waldman.

1                   MR. WALDMAN: I just want to go
2 back to 235(c). So you didn't undertake the
3 research yourself. You didn't ask anyone else --
4 if I understood Ms Girvan, that would have been a
5 function that you might have asked ISI about?

6                   MS COLLINS: 235? No.

7                   MR. WALDMAN: No. If you wanted
8 to get information about 235(c) and you couldn't
9 find it yourself, who would be your resource 10 person to go to?

11                  MS COLLINS: The resource? It
12 could have been our Justice people. We could have 13 done a local search. We could have gone back to 14 Washington and asked them, because most of the 15 time, as they are in Washington, they have direct
16 contacts with the local authorities there.

17                  We also have -- they are able to 18 access that information as well through our senior 19 immigration officer at the Canadian embassy in 20 Washington.

21                  MR. WALDMAN: Right. And you
22 didn't take any of those steps?

23                  MS COLLINS: No, I did not.

24                  MR. BAXTER: Mr. Commissioner, I
25 have just had drawn to my attention, the top

1 e-mail at tab 23 -- and I knew there was another
2 reference to a more timely discussion.

3 It says:

4 "... but understand from
5 Helene that they are likely
6 to check with their contact
7 at Justice informally as a
8 first step at their end. The 9 Dipnote, if necessary, can
10 follow that. Cheers,
11 Maureen."

12 I do recall I think Ms Girvan was 13 taken to this section too. This is on October 2nd
14 at 10:09 a.m. I don't frankly recall what the 15 answer was, and we may have to make some inquiries
16 down with the folks in Washington, D.C. to 17 understand about that.

18 But that may have been the 19 reference that Madame Collins was referring to 20 earlier about Helene --

21 MS COLLINS: Helene Bouchard.

22 MR. BAXTER: -- Bouchard.

23 MR. WALDMAN: My recollection,
24 Mr. Commissioner, is that there were discussions
25 about it, but when Ms Girvan was expressly asked,

1 at least as far as she was aware, it had not
2 occurred. But, you know, if it did, it did.

3 But the record, as I understood
4 it, indicated that it had not. It would be
5 important to know that, I think.

6 MS COLLINS: I don't know. We
7 would have to ask --

8 THE COMMISSIONER: Yes, I think it
9 would.

10 And your answer is you don't know.

11 MS COLLINS: I don't know.

12 THE COMMISSIONER: I think that's 13 probably as far as we can go then.

14 MR. WALDMAN: I agree on that
15 point.

16 THE COMMISSIONER: Thank you.

17 MR. WALDMAN: Just to be clear on 18 this, 235(c), had you ever seen one of these 19 before?

20 MS COLLINS: That one before? No.

21 MR. WALDMAN: Have you seen one
22 since?

23 MS COLLINS: No.

24 MR. WALDMAN: So Mr. Arar's was 25 the only time you ever confronted --

1 MS COLLINS: I don't normally see
2 these types of documents. So that's the reason
3 why I haven't seen them since.

4 MR. WALDMAN: In fact, just for
5 your information, if I recall correctly, Ms Girvan
6 gave us the evidence that ultimately they obtained
7 the information on 235(c) through the CCR.

8 Do you recall that?

9 You don't recall that, okay.

10 MS COLLINS: No, I don't.

11 MR. WALDMAN: You told us about 12 the possible -- the diplomatic note as being the 13 most significant thing that could have happened.
14 I am going to ask you if that's correct.

15 Is it not possible that other
16 steps could have been taken besides the diplomatic
17 note?

18 MS COLLINS: Certainly, there are
19 many steps that can be undertaken, absolutely.

20 MR. WALDMAN: Like what other
21 steps could have been taken?

22 MS COLLINS: What other steps can
23 be taken? Informal communications. There would 24 have been regular, I guess -- that's normally what 25 it is. Again, what Helene has demonstrated, they

1 are informal calls. So these are the normal steps
2 that we would undertake.

3 If that fails, then we normally
4 proceed on with a diplomatic note.

5 MR. WALDMAN: Ms Girvan was asked
6 the question, but I will ask it to you again.
7 It's a hypothetical.

8 If we assume for a moment that on
9 October 2nd or 3rd when you saw this form saying
10 that he was a member of al-Qaeda and you had been 11 told that he was being threatened with deportation
12 to Syria, assuming you had received information
13 from other sources or something that led you to 14 take this threat seriously, what other steps could 15 you have taken in that circumstance?

16 MS COLLINS: I mean, that's a
17 hypothetical question --

18 MR. WALDMAN: Yes, I know. It's a
19 hypothetical I am asking you because it may be 20 something that you may be confronted with and it's 21 part of your function. So I think it's a fair
22 question, to try and tell us what you might have 23 done if on October 3rd, 2002, all of a sudden you
24 said to Mr. Pardy, "My god, I think they may 25 deport Mr. Arar to Syria. Let's try and stop it."

1                   What could you have done?

2                   MS COLLINS: Normally it would
3 have been raised at a higher level, with 4 Mr. Pardy, who may have placed a call to the 5 embassy, the U.S. embassy here in Ottawa. I would 6 presume that would be one of the steps.

7                   There would also be
8 Mr. Archambault meeting with the State Department
9 as well because the two foreign ministries. These 10 would be the steps.

11                   And then eventually if they 12 decided to go higher and go to the administrative 13 level, then they would have gone at the level.

14                   MR. WALDMAN: So let's just be 15 clear. There were steps that might have been 16 taken if on the 3rd of October someone had said,
17 "Oh, my god, they may really deport him to Syria."
18 And we will go through those one by one.

19                   Number one, Mr. Pardy could have 20 called the U.S. ambassador?

21                   MS COLLINS: But these are 22 hypothetical --

23                   MR. WALDMAN: Yes. We know they 24 didn't happen. Unfortunately, none of them
25 happened. We are trying to say hypothetically

1           what could have been done so that we can
2           understand what might have happened.

3                       Okay.  So one possibility would 4           have been for Mr. Pardy to get on the phone and 5           ask to speak to the U.S. ambassador, Mr. Cellucci,
6           at the time; right?

7                       MS COLLINS:  Mr. Pardy would have
8           not called Mr. Cellucci --

9                       MR. WALDMAN:  No.  He wouldn't 10          call, no.  That's what I thought you said, he 11          would call the ambassador.

12                      MS COLLINS:  No, he would have
13          called the embassy.  I didn't say the ambassador.

14                      MR. WALDMAN:  Sorry, I
15          misunderstood you.

16                      MS COLLINS:  No.

17                      MR. WALDMAN:  So who would he call
18          in the embassy?

19                      MS COLLINS:  He would have called
20          the consul, on the consular side of the U.S.
21          embassy, which was Ms Gerson at the time.

22                      MR. WALDMAN:  Ms...?

23                      MS COLLINS:  Leslie Gerson or Mary
24          Topalovich(ph).

25                      MR. WALDMAN:  So he would go to 1 his level.

2 MS COLLINS: Absolutely, yes.

3 MR. WALDMAN: Mr. Pardy wouldn't 4 call the ambassador.

5 MS COLLINS: No, no.

6 MR. WALDMAN: You are smiling. I
7 mean, I am --

8 MS COLLINS: No, it's okay.

9 MR. WALDMAN: Okay.

10 MS COLLINS: No, he would go at 11 the level. Again, you just don't go up to the top
12 immediately. You work your way up.

13 Mr. Pardy wouldn't have called
14 Mr. Cellucci. That would have been something for 15 Minister Graham to do at the time.

16 MR. WALDMAN: Just so I can
17 understand, the general rule is everyone operates
18 at their own level. So Mr. Pardy would call
19 someone at his level. He couldn't go up and call
20 someone at a higher level. That's not done?

21 MS COLLINS: Normally, that's
22 correct.

23 MR. WALDMAN: So Mr. Pardy could
24 have called the consul. If he didn't get 25 satisfaction, then what would have been --

1 something could have happened in Washington at the
2 embassy?

3 MS COLLINS: That would be up to
4 him to decide if he would go through the ADM,
5 which is the Assistant Deputy Minister, and all
6 the way up to the Deputy Minister, or if it would
7 have been up to Washington.

8 I think that would be a decision
9 for him to take at that time.

10 MR. WALDMAN: Right. And the 11 ultimate recourse would be the Minister calling
12 either the ambassador or the Secretary of State?

13 MS COLLINS: I would presume so.

14 MR. WALDMAN: That would be if
15 they really thought it was a really grave
16 situation?

17 MS COLLINS: Yes.

18 MR. WALDMAN: All of those are 19 hypothetical things that might have happened, but 20 because you at the time didn't believe that
21 Mr. Arar was in danger of being deported --

22 MS COLLINS: I don't think that
23 it's fair to say that I didn't believe. I think
24 what is going on is the details of the information
25 is given to me. We now know -- we presume that

1 the attorney is going to be there. I don't think
2 we are jumping to the conclusion immediately.
3 Mr. Pardy is also infocopied on the document as 4 well, and he's also looking at the document as 5 well.

6 MR. WALDMAN: I guess I am a bit
7 confused because up until now -- and I asked you a
8 little bit earlier -- my understanding was that 9 based upon Ms Girvan's assessment the week of 10 September 30th to October -- that critical period
11 from October 1st to October 8th, no one thought 12 that there was a serious possibility that he would 13 be deported to Syria.

14 MS COLLINS: We did not think it
15 was -- yes, exactly. We did not think that would 16 be.

17 MR. WALDMAN: So that was my 18 understanding.

19 MS COLLINS: Yes.

20 MR. WALDMAN: Because you didn't
21 think it was possible, you didn't take these other
22 steps that you might have taken if you thought it
23 might occur.

24 MS COLLINS: That wouldn't be a
25 step that I would take. It would have been

1 Mr. Pardy to decide the steps that he would have 2 undertaken.

3 So I think that probably that
4 question should be asked to Mr. Pardy.

5 MR. WALDMAN: We will be asking
6 him, I promise.

7 MS COLLINS: Okay.

8 MR. WALDMAN: Thank you very much.

9 Just to clarify one point, I am
10 assuming the answer is no but I just want to make
11 sure.

12 As far as you were concerned, no
13 one in DFAIT ever spoke to the Americans between 14 the 1st and 8th of October and expressed to them
15 Mr. Arar's concern about being deported to Syria?
16 This was never raised with them?

17 MS COLLINS: To my recollection, I
18 don't think so.

19 MR. WALDMAN: Have you heard of 20 the concept of extraordinary rendition?

21 MS COLLINS: No, I did not, not 22 until --

23 MR. WALDMAN: You didn't then, but
24 you now do?

25 MS COLLINS: Now I do, yes.

1 MR. WALDMAN: So at the time you
2 weren't aware of this practice that the Americans
3 engage in of --

4 MS COLLINS: No, I did not.

5 MR. WALDMAN: -- shipping
6 individuals off to countries where they are 7 interrogated using less-than-savory methods.

8 MS COLLINS: I did not, no.

9 MR. WALDMAN: You were not aware 10 of that?

11 MS COLLINS: No.

12 MR. WALDMAN: Were you of the 13 detention conditions that Mr. Arar was being 14 subjected to while he was in MDC?

15 MS COLLINS: No, I was not.

16 MR. WALDMAN: From your experience
17 with the other two detainees, you didn't have 18 knowledge?

19 MS COLLINS: I didn't have a full
20 description of the detention facilities. No, I
21 did not.

22 MR. WALDMAN: So in neither your
23 dealings with "X" nor "Y" you hadn't been apprised
24 of the fact that they were kept shackled and 25 handcuffed and had difficulty getting access to

1 the telephone?

2 You weren't aware of those facts?

3 MS COLLINS: No, no.

4 MR. WALDMAN: That wouldn't be
5 something that would be of concern to you in your 6 consular functions, to be aware of conditions of 7 detention of Canadian citizens?

8 MS COLLINS: We have Canadians
9 that are under those types of terms right now
10 when they are in administrative segregation, so we 11 do have people that are incarcerated 23 hours a 12 day. These are considered under administrative 13 segregation.

14 MR. WALDMAN: One of the matters
15 that intrigues me is, one of the things that 16 Ms Girvan raised was the fact that you weren't 17 given notification under the Vienna Convention.

18 MS COLLINS: Yes.

19 MR. WALDMAN: Mr. Arar, according 20 to Ms Girvan at least, indicated that he had asked 21 for that.

22 MS COLLINS: Mm-hmm.

23 MR. WALDMAN: Right?

24 MS COLLINS: On the conversation
25 of October 4th, the conference call that we had

1 with Mr. Pardy, Mr. Archambault, Ms Girvan and 2 myself, Mr. Archambault did indicate at that time
3 that he had received a call from the State
4 Department acknowledging the detention on
5 October 4th.

6 MR. WALDMAN: Okay. So that was
7 compliance with the Vienna Convention?

8 MS COLLINS: Under the Vienna
9 Convention, yes.

10 MR. WALDMAN: One thing that
11 intrigued me -- and I don't know how much you can 12 answer but it is an interesting point -- 85 per 13 cent of consular cases are in the United States?

14 MS COLLINS: Approximately, yes.

15 MR. WALDMAN: And yet you told
16 us that we hadn't entered into some kind of 17 understanding or --

18 MS COLLINS: A multilateral treaty
19 with the United States for mandatory notification.

20 MR. WALDMAN: Right. So tell us
21 about this multilateral treaty. I would like to 22 understand that.

23 MS COLLINS: Sure. It is a
24 multilateral treaty that other nations have signed
25 an agreement with the United States that no matter

1           what, that the individual wants us to be informed
2           or not, that they are obligated by that treaty to 3           inform the country of their detention.

4                       Canada did not sign that
5           multilateral treaty because in Canada we cannot --
6           I guess it is under our Charter of Rights and our 7           privacy, that we -- it is reciprocal. And we 8           can't do that under our own system, and therefore 9           we have not signed that multilateral treaty.

10                      MR. WALDMAN: Okay. I wanted to 11           understand why we hadn't done it, because it might 12           have saved a little bit of trouble in this and 13           other cases?

14                      MS COLLINS: It's the justice --
15           it is a very legal -- that is something that is 16           very, very justice.

17                      MR. WALDMAN: So you understand
18           there is a legal reason why, based upon our 19           Charter and our inability to reciprocate with the 20           Americans --

21                      MS COLLINS: To notify -- yes.
22           Not just -- yes.

23                      MR. WALDMAN: Thank you.

24           --- Pause

25                      I'm just getting to the end. I'm

1 just checking my notes.

2 THE COMMISSIONER: Take your time.

3 --- Pause

4 MR. WALDMAN: I just want to pose
5 one last question to you.

6 I know we all look with the
7 benefit of hindsight, but I want to posit with you
8 that perhaps you ought to have taken more
9 seriously the threat -- the information that was 10 provided.

11 I posit to you that Mr. Arar told
12 Ms Girvan on the 3rd of the threat of Syria. This 13 had not happened in "X" and "Y's" cases. You were 14 given a notification on the 3rd that clearly
15 indicated he was under expedited removal process.
16 You got a warning from very senior INS officials,
17 which you yourself acknowledged was something that 18 had never happened before.

19 I just want to suggest to you
20 that you fumbled the ball and you should have 21 taken the warnings more seriously, and maybe if 22 you had and had undertaken the steps that you
23 described to us, Mr. Arar might not have been 24 deported.

25 MR. BAXTER: Is that a question,

1 Mr. Commissioner?

2 MR. WALDMAN: Do you want to
3 respond to that.

4 THE COMMISSIONER: I took it as a
5 question. It was a suggestion that you should 6 have taken it more seriously, shouldn't you have.

7 MR. WALDMAN: Yes.

8 Don't you think you should have?

9 MS COLLINS: At the time I
10 feel that given the information that we had 11 received -- and I mean in conjunction in also 12 seeking guidance and advice, it was not judged
13 that it was a potential threat of Mr. Arar being 14 deported to Syria.

15 I mean, we were surprised to find
16 out that is where he went. I mean, no one would 17 have guessed it. No one.

18 MR. WALDMAN: Okay. Undoubtedly,
19 if you would had have had some of the information
20 that the RCMP had received, it might have changed
21 your opinion. Right?

22 MS COLLINS: But then again, we 23 did not get that.

24 MR. WALDMAN: We didn't have it.
25 That's right.

1 MS COLLINS: No. We had the
2 information that we had on hand.

3 MR. WALDMAN: How does it make you
4 feel now to know that other officials in the 5 Canadian government were privy to information
6 which might have affected your conduct but they 7 didn't provide it to you?

8 MS COLLINS: Can you repeat again;
9 sorry?

10 MR. WALDMAN: How does it make you
11 feel now to think that there are other officials
12 in the Canadian government who are privy to the 13 information that might have affected your judgment
14 about how serious to take this case, but it wasn't 15 provided to you?

16 MS COLLINS: That's -- that's -- I
17 mean, that's --

18 MR. WALDMAN: Okay. Thank you
19 very much.

20 THE COMMISSIONER: Mr. Baxter...?
21 EXAMINATION

22 MR. BAXTER: Let's speak about
23 that last question, if that is indeed what it was.

24 Ms Collins, Mr. Waldman asked you
25 about a telephone call which took place, he said

1           on the weekend, I think the 5th and the 6th -- if
2           that is the dates of the weekend -- between U.S.
3           officials and Canadian officials prior to the 4           deportation.

5                           Can you describe what the standard
6           practice is on deportation between Canada and the 7           United States, based on your experience?

8                           MS COLLINS:   Sure.  The normal
9           process for deportation, with any Canadians I
10          guess is an understanding with Canada and the 11          United States, is that when a person is deemed to 12          be inadmissible or ineligible to be in the United 13          States, that they have overstayed their length,
14          that they have committed a crime which is deemed 15          deportable, the process is that when the person
16          receives an order by an immigration judge to be 17          deported, the procedure is for the deportation
18          officer who will receive the file to communicate
19          directly with the Canadian Mission, that it be the 20          consulate, the Consular General, or the embassy,
21          and to seek the confirmation of citizenship.  That 22          is one of the processes.

23                           We, in turn, will verify with 24          citizenship if the person has acquired Canadian 25          citizenship, or with vital statistics, given the

1 information.

2                   Once we have that confirmation, a
3 travel document is issued to the Department of 4 U.S. Immigration, the deportation officer, to 5 facilitate the travel of a Canadian citizen back
6 into Canada.

7                   MR. BAXTER: If I can stop
8 you there.

9                   If the detainee has a valid
10 Canadian passport, that travel document wouldn't 11 be required.

12                   Is that --

13                   MS COLLINS: Not necessarily.

14                   Most people, especially a
15 detainee, they lose all the documentation. It
16 gets lost within the American system.

17                   Once we do our steps of confirming 18 the citizenship, the deportation officer will send 19 a cable to the U.S. Embassy here in Canada who, in 20 turn, will send a message, a request to the 21 RCMP/Interpol to do a background check on the 22 individual to see if there are outstanding
23 warrants, if the is person wanted in Canada, and 24 then from there the communications would be done
25 between the RCMP and the U.S. Embassy.

1                   If the person is wanted in Canada,
2           then the communications between the two would be
3           set only. We would not be informed of this.

4                   MR. BAXTER: So communications
5           between the RCMP --

6                   THE COMMISSIONER: Just if I can,
7           do you mind standing, Mr. Baxter?

8                   MR. BAXTER: I'm sorry. No, not 9           at all. I thought I would be shorter than that.

10                  THE COMMISSIONER: We have 11           adjusted the process so that...

12           --- Laughter / Rires

13           --- Pause

14                  THE COMMISSIONER: Thank you.

15                  MR. BAXTER: So it is not unusual,
16           per se, to have some communication between the 17           RCMP and U.S. officials?

18                  MS COLLINS: For deportations?

19                  MR. BAXTER: Yes.

20                  MS COLLINS: Not at all.

21                  MR. BAXTER: And that is
22           deportation back to Canada?

23                  MS COLLINS: That is correct.

24                  MR. BAXTER: So had you known, as 25           my friend suggested, that there had been a phone

1 call, would that have rung any special bells in
2 your mind with respect to Mr. Arar's case?

3 MS COLLINS: No. That would have
4 meant to me that they were thinking about
5 deporting him back to Canada. That is what it
6 would have meant to me.

7 MR. BAXTER: Thank you.

8 The other area I want to cover --
9 Mr. David has told us there is an area that you
10 will need to cover in camera -- but you did
11 describe a conversation which, I think if we look 12 again at the time line, took place on the 10th of 13 October in the morning.

14 Is that accurate?

15 MS COLLINS: I believe so.

16 MR. BAXTER: This was with a
17 Canadian official in Washington?

18 MS COLLINS: It was with an
19 American official.

20 MR. BAXTER: Pardon me, an
21 American official. Correct.

22 Without going into anything you
23 can't divulge, this discussion with he or she, was 24 it face to face?

25 MS COLLINS: Yes, it was.

1 MR. BAXTER: You said that he
2 or she made certain phone calls in order to 3 inform you?

4 MS COLLINS: Yes, correct.

5 MR. BAXTER: Then what was the
6 reaction?

7 MS COLLINS: The reaction was --
8 the person's face was very, very -- became very 9 white. The person -- the American official was 10 astounded.

11 MR. BAXTER: What were his or her
12 words to you, if you remember them?

13 MS COLLINS: There were -- the 14 words were, if I recollect properly, "There is 15 nothing you could have done," meaning, i.e., 16 Canada. "Their minds were made up."

17 MR. BAXTER: "Their minds were 18 made up"?

19 MS COLLINS: Those were the exact
20 words that we were provided with.

21 MR. BAXTER: How clearly do you
22 remember that conversation today?

23 MS COLLINS: Oh, I remember very,
24 very clearly.

25 --- Pause

1 MR. BAXTER: Thank you. Those are
2 my questions.

3 THE COMMISSIONER: Mr. David...?
4 EXAMINATION

5 MR. DAVID: I just want to
6 clarify, if you could take Volume 1 with you and 7 just look at tab 10. Let's look at tabs 8 and 10.

8 MS COLLINS: Okay.

9 MR. DAVID: Let's start with 10,
10 and it is simply to clarify the issue of your 11 telephone conversation with Mr. Taufik Arar on 12 Tuesday, the 1st of October.

13 MS COLLINS: Yes.

14 MR. DAVID: It is reproduced in 15 this CAMANT note here at tab 10.

16 Essentially what is noted in 17 terms of the information that Taufik Arar is 18 giving you is that he and his brother fear a
19 deportation to Syria?

20 MS COLLINS: That's correct.

21 MR. DAVID: The CAMANT note also
22 refers to the fact that Maher Arar spoke to Taufik
23 this morning. That is what the CAMANT note says?

24 MS COLLINS: Yes.

25 MR. DAVID: Is that your

1 recollection of those events?

2 MS COLLINS: I would presume so.
3 I can't recollect --

4 MR. DAVID: So your recollection
5 is based on the contents of the CAMANT note?

6 MS COLLINS: Correct.

7 MR. DAVID: You have no
8 independent recollection?

9 MS COLLINS: Of that particular
10 note about if he had spoken with them or -- no.

11 MR. DAVID: About the fact that
12 there was a direct conversation between Maher
13 Arar, detained at MDC, and Taufik Arar?

14 MS COLLINS: I recollect that the 15 conversation -- not personally with Mr. Taufik,
16 but my recollection is I know that Mr. Taufik told 17 me about the call and I believe that it was with 18 him. I mean, if I would have entered a note, I
19 believe that the conversation was made with him.

20 MR. DAVID: Though we don't have 21 the times indicated in the extract that you have 22 of your notes with regard to this conversation --
23 and that would be on page 3 -- from the unredacted
24 version the time indicated for the duration of 25 that call is from 12:00 to 12:17.

1 MS COLLINS: Okay.

2 MR. DAVID: So the phone call from
3 your notes indicate a duration of 17 minutes.

4 MS COLLINS: Mm-hmm.

5 MR. DAVID: Do you recall that
6 that phone call lasted approximately 17 minutes?
7 Do you have an independent recollection of that,
8 or was this a brief call, or do you have any --

9 MS COLLINS: In this
10 conversation, the first call was not a brief call
11 with Mr. Taufik.

12 MR. DAVID: Okay. And this was 13 the first conversation?

14 MS COLLINS: This was my first
15 conversation, yes.

16 MR. DAVID: Okay. Let's go to
17 tab 8 if you will? This tab, you are not 18 infocopied on it, it is not sent to you. The 19 closest person that it is being sent to is John 20 Carisse, in your office?

21 MS COLLINS: Yes.

22 MR. DAVID: It refers to a chain
23 of three phone conversations.

24 MS COLLINS: Okay.

25 MR. DAVID: There is the first

1 conversation would have been between Maher Arar
2 and his mother-in-law in Ottawa.

3 The second phone conversation
4 would have been between Maher Arar's
5 mother-in-law, the mother of Monia Mazigh, and 6 Monia Mazigh, her daughter, in Tunisia?

7 MS COLLINS: I would presume
8 so, yes.

9 MR. DAVID: The third phone
10 conversation is between Monia Mazigh with the 11 consular officer in Tunis. So there is a chain of 12 three calls here.

13 What I want to bring you to is
14 with regard to the phone call between Maher Arar
15 and his mother-in-law. This call records
16 essentially three messages being sent from Maher
17 Arar to his mother-in-law.

18 The first message is that he is 19 being detained in New York City?

20 MS COLLINS: Yes.

21 MR. DAVID: And he is being
22 detained at an institution that he characterizes
23 as being the Federal Bureau of Brooklyn.

24 The second content of that
25 conversation is the fact that there are no reasons

1 or accusations that are being provided to Maher
2 Arar to explain why he finds himself in this
3 situation.

4 It is in the second paragraph; "No
5 reasons or accusations have been given to him".

6 MS COLLINS: Yes. I guess, yes.

7 MR. DAVID: Do you see that?

8 MS COLLINS: Yes.

9 MR. DAVID: The third item
10 indicated by Mr. Arar to his mother-in-law is that 11 he is not being well treated --

12 MS COLLINS: Mm-hmm.

13 MR. DAVID: -- by the authorities
14 in this institution, presumably.

15 Those three items, were they
16 discussed by Taufik Arar in your conversation with 17 Taufik Arar on that same day?

18 MS COLLINS: The only thing
19 that he told me was that he was in Brooklyn -- he 20 was in New York. So these things here were not 21 raised with me.

22 MR. DAVID: They were not raised
23 by Taufik Arar in your phone conversation --

24 MS COLLINS: No.

25 MR. DAVID: -- as recorded in

1 tab 10?

2 MS COLLINS: No.

3 MR. DAVID: Thank you.

4 THE COMMISSIONER: Is that it
5 then? Is that -- nothing else? Okay.

6 --- Off microphone / Sans microphone

7 THE COMMISSIONER: Thank you very
8 much, Ms Collins. That completes your evidence.

9 MS COLLINS: Thank you.

10 THE COMMISSIONER: Thank you for 11 the time and effort you took in preparing and 12 coming to give your evidence.

13 MS COLLINS: Thank you very much.

14 MR. WALDMAN: I just want to raise
15 one matter about how the proceedings were 16 conducted today, specifically about this
17 conversation that took place in Washington,
18 because Mr. David said it is going to be in 19 camera, I can't discuss it, and then my friend
20 asked the question --

21 THE COMMISSIONER: That is why I
22 looked at you. I'm wondering -- if you wish to 23 raise it --

24 MR. WALDMAN: There is a
25 problem now, which is how much can I ask given

1           that I have been told it is going to be in camera
2           and yet my friend chose to bring out a little 3           snippet of the information that he thought was 4           helpful but now we are being told we can't 5           challenge on it because it is --

6                         THE COMMISSIONER:  I don't 7           think that is the case.  I think that would be 8           unfair to you.

9                         I think Mr. Baxter chose to lead
10          that conversation, Mr. David did not.  You didn't 11          have an opportunity to cross-examine.  I think he 12          has opened the door.  I think you are free to 13          cross-examine on that conversation.

14                        MR. WALDMAN:  Yes.

15                        THE COMMISSIONER:  If you want to 16          take some time to look to see if there are notes
17          or whatever, otherwise, I think it would be 18          unfair.

19                        In future process the government
20          goes last.  I think we can sense that -- the 21          government goes last because they are counsel for 22          the witness, but if the government is intending on 23          raising new matters not raised in the 24          examination-in-chief, as in this case, I think 25          they should fairly give notice of that so that

1 Mr. Waldman and Ms Edwardh aren't left without the 2 opportunity to cross-examine.

3 MR. BAXTER: In fairness, and I
4 had anticipated that much coming out with 5 Mr. David's examination, I agree with you that 6 Mr. Waldman should be allowed to cross-examine 7 insofar as it doesn't reveal the identity of 8 individuals.

9 There is also a process
10 contemplated, Mr. Commissioner, whereby even if it
11 has to be conducted in camera, Mr. Waldman and 12 Mr. Arar's counsel team can make sure that certain 13 questions get posed and followed up upon.

14 But I certainly agree that today,
15 insofar as it wasn't raised by Mr. David and I
16 felt that it could be raised, at least the 17 substance of the conversation could be raised, I
18 agree that cross-examination --

19 THE COMMISSIONER: It is pretty 20 unusual. I don't know what your conversation with 21 Mr. David is, but the government routinely takes 22 the position that communications from officials of 23 other countries are protected by national security
24 confidentiality. Now, one would be concerned that 25 if they took that position only with respect to

1 some conversations and not others --

2 MR. BAXTER: In this case it is
3 the identity of the individual that is the issue
4 that Ms Collins has taken upon herself --

5 THE COMMISSIONER: I don't think
6 the identity is a matter of concern to
7 Mr. Waldman.

8 MR. BAXTER: Therefore I agree
9 that cross-examination is possible.

10 MR. WALDMAN: I just want to 11 clarify.

12 I am not interested in the 13 identity, I just want to know --

14 THE COMMISSIONER: Do you want
15 some time before you cross-examine to think 16 about it?

17 MR. WALDMAN: No.

18 THE COMMISSIONER: Go ahead.

19 MR. WALDMAN: It seems to me there
20 is only one issue that emerges, which is in terms
21 of given the nature of the information what 22 organization she worked for?

23 Did she work for INS?

24 MS COLLINS: It is an American
25 official. I cannot release any identity, I'm

1           sorry. I have to object.

2                       MR. WALDMAN: I mean, this is
3 another example of the government providing
4 selective disclosure of information --

5                       THE COMMISSIONER: Was there a
6 note made of the conversation?

7                       MS COLLINS: There is a notice by 8 Ms Harris from a conversation, because when I
9 received that information I pass it on to 10 Mr. Pardy. Mr. Pardy relays that information and 11 I believe there is a note in CAMANT. All it says
12 is "an American official".

13                      THE COMMISSIONER: But does it
14 reveal the content of the conversation as you
15 answered Mr. Baxter?

16                      MS COLLINS: All it reveals is 17 that he was on his way to Syria.

18                      THE COMMISSIONER: So the note
19 doesn't set out the information that you --

20                      MS COLLINS: Not necessarily all
21 that information, correct.

22                      MR. WALDMAN: Mr. Commissioner,
23 I have nothing more to say. It strikes me again
24 that this is just another example of the selective
25 disclosure the government is choosing to give in

1           this case. There is nothing you can do at this
2           point.

3                           Thank you.

4                           THE COMMISSIONER: Okay. Well,
5           then that completes today's proceedings.

6                           We resume on Tuesday at 7           10 o'clock.

8                           Am I right, Mr. David?

9                           MR. DAVID: That is correct,
10          Mr. Commissioner.

11                          THE COMMISSIONER: Okay. We will
12          rise until then.

13                          THE REGISTRAR: All rise.
14          Veuillez-vous lever.

15          --- Whereupon the hearing adjourned at 3:40 p.m., 16                           to resume on Tuesday, May 24, 2005 at 17                           10:00 a.m. / L'audience est ajournée à
