5 THE REGISTRAR: Please be seated.

6 Veuillez vous asseoir.

7 THE COMMISSIONER: Good morning.

8 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Good morning.

9 --- Pause

10 THE COMMISSIONER: Mr. Cavalluzzo?

11 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Thank you,

12 Commissioner.

13 Commissioner, this morning we have

14 Mr. Jack Hooper from CSIS. As you know,

15 Mr. Hooper has testified earlier last year in 16 respect of some contextual evidence relating to 17 CSIS, and he has also testified in camera. As a

18 result of that, he will not need to be sworn

19 again.

20 THE COMMISSIONER: Okay.

21 MR. CAVALLUZZO: However, just to 22 give some context for some background in respect

23 of Mr. Hooper, he did, as I say, testify over a

24 year ago, so let us just give a brief background

25 in terms of his experience.

1 PREVIOUSLY SWORN: WILLIAM JOHN HOOPER
2 EXAMINATION

3 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Mr. Hooper, you
4 joined CSIS upon its creation in 1984?

5 MR. HOOPER: That's correct.

6 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Before that time,
7 you were with the RCMP security services in 8 Vancouver?

9 MR. HOOPER: That's right.

10 MR. CAVALLUZZO: And you joined 11 the RCMP in 1974?

12 MR. HOOPER: Correct.

13 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Now, when you
14 came to CSIS, I understand in 1985, you were 15 transferred to national headquarters?

16 MR. HOOPER: That's right.

17 MR. CAVALLUZZO: And what did you 18 do there in 1985?

19 MR. HOOPER: Initially I was in 20 charge of the Service's Emergency Planning 21 Program, and later, when the offices of SIRC and 22 the Inspector General were constituted, I was 23 responsible for liaison of those two bodies.

24 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Now, from 1988
25 until 2000, I understand that your career was

1 devoted exclusively to counterterrorism
2 operations?

3 MR. HOOPER: That is correct.

4 MR. CAVALLUZZO: What did you do 5 between 2000 and 2002 when you came back to 6 headquarters?

7 MR. HOOPER: I was in charge of 8 our Toronto Regional Office, the Director General 9 of Toronto Region, which was responsible for the 10 Greater Toronto Metropolitan area and southwestern 11 Ontario.

12 MR. CAVALLUZZO: In June of 2002
13 you were transferred back to Headquarters?

14 MR. HOOPER: That is correct.

15 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Was that the time
16 at which you assumed your current duties?

17 MR. HOOPER: There has been a 18 little bit of a change since then. I came to 19 headquarters in 2002 as the Assistant Director 20 Operations. Since that time I have taken on the 21 job of Deputy Director Operations.

22 MR. CAVALLUZZO: So you are now
23 the Deputy Director of Operations?

24 MR. HOOPER: That is correct.

25 MR. CAVALLUZZO: If you could

1 briefly tell us what your duties and 2 responsibilities are in respect of that current 3 position?

4 MR. HOOPER: Basically it is 5 managing the Service's operational programs:
6 Counterterrorism, counterproliferation,
7 counterintelligence, the analysis and production 8 branch, foreign liaison, everything to do with 9 direct-line operations.

10 MR. CAVALLUZZO: So clearly in 11 respect of that responsibility, you oversee 12 counterterrorism?

13 MR. HOOPER: That is correct.

14 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Okay.

15 Commissioner, Mr. Hooper is both a 16 contextual witness for CSIS at this point in time, 17 as well as an adjudicative fact witness. He will 18 be testifying to certain things within his direct 19 knowledge, but much of the information he will be 20 sharing with us is public information of a 21 contextual nature which is now available to the 22 public and I will ask Mr. Hooper certain questions 23 about that.

24 THE COMMISSIONER: Thank you.

25 MR. CAVALLUZZO: I would like to

1 start, Mr. Hooper, in about October of 2001. At 2 that time we understand that within a month of 3 September 11, that CSIS extensively transferred to 4 the RCMP primary responsibility for a number of 5 files?

6 Is that correct?

7 MR. HOOPER: That is correct.

8 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Okay. I
9 understand, according to a redacted summary which 10 we have, the transfer allowed CSIS to focus its 11 resources on threats that were less clear than the 12 files that you had transferred to the RCMP?

13 MR. HOOPER: Correct.

14 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Do you recall 15 how many files, or how many persons were 16 transferred in terms of their responsibility to 17 the RCMP from CSIS?

18 MR. HOOPER: I do recall, 19 Mr. Cavalluzzo, but I won't go into details in 20 public testimony.

21 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Okay. You are 22 aware that as a result of that transfer of 23 responsibility that there was the creation of a 24 number of projects within the RCMP?

25 MR. HOOPER: Yes.

1 MR. CAVALLUZZO: There was
2 something called Project OCanada, which no doubt 3 you were aware of?

4 MR. HOOPER: Yes.

5 MR. CAVALLUZZO: That was located
6 in and around Toronto, your former jurisdiction 7 before 2002?

8 MR. HOOPER: Correct.

9 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Also we have 10 heard of something called Project A-OCANADA, which 11 was located in Ottawa?

12 MR. HOOPER: That's correct.

13 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Now, when you --
14 not you, obviously, but when CSIS transferred 15 responsibility for these files, I understand that 16 the RCMP was told that when dealing with foreign 17 security intelligence agencies the RCMP should 18 protect the integrity of the CSIS information that 19 had been given to the RCMP.

20 Is that correct?

21 MR. HOOPER: I know I made those 22 comments myself to RCMP officers. I specifically 23 recall making that comment after my return to 24 Headquarters in 2002. If there were previous 25 admonitions given out of Headquarters, I am not

1 specifically aware of them.

2 Thematically that is correct.

3 MR. CAVALLUZZO: In terms of that 4 that you refer as an admonition, or guidance, or 5 whatever one wants to call it, obviously that is 6 to ensure that any CSIS information that was 7 contained in the RCMP databases would be protected 8 appropriately?

9 MR. HOOPER: Precisely.

10 MR. CAVALLUZZO: We are not going
11 to get into operational detail now, but I 12 understand that after the transfer of 13 responsibility in respect of these persons that 14 CSIS continued to play a role in the sense that it 15 would share information with the RCMP if it was 16 relevant to their responsibility?

17 MR. HOOPER: That's correct.

18 MR. CAVALLUZZO: I wonder if you
19 might help us now in terms of after the transfer 20 as to the nature of the relationship between CSIS, 21 and in particular if we could focus in on Project
22 A-OCANADA in the Ottawa area?

23 MR. HOOPER: Okay. You are asking 24 me what the quality of the relationships were?

25 MR. CAVALLUZZO: No, the nature of 1 it. Not the quality, the nature of it. That is,

2 what were you doing, if anything, to assist
3 Project A-OCANADA?

4 MR. HOOPER: At some point after 5 A-OCANADA was established, we assigned an officer 6 with some knowledge of the substantive area of 7 interest to the RCMP to the project.

8 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Once again, we 9 are not going to get into specific ongoing 10 operational detail, but were there ongoing 11 meetings between both entities to ensure that the 12 file was being progressed as appropriately as it 13 should?

14 MR. HOOPER: I know there were a
15 number of meetings between our Ottawa region 16 personnel and Project A-OCANADA, so there were 17 frequent interactions between our officers in 18 Ottawa and the project.

19 MR. CAVALLUZZO: So that the 20 public is aware, in Ottawa we have an Ottawa
21 regional office for CSIS, but at the same time, 22 obviously, the national Headquarters of CSIS is in 23 Ottawa.

24 Is that correct?

25 MR. HOOPER: That is correct, yes.

1 MR. CAVALLUZZO: In terms of the 2 relationship with Project A-OCANADA, the 3 relationship was at the regional level, that is,
4 between Project A-OCANADA and the regional office
5 of CSIS?

6 MR. HOOPER: That's correct.

7 And if I may bring more precision,
8 Project A-OCANADA was operating out of RCMP "A" 9 Division and they are structured similarly. They 10 have the national Headquarters here in Ottawa and 11 they have a division, "A" Division, which has 12 broader responsibilities in the National Capital 13 Region and Eastern Quebec -- Western Quebec 14 rather.

15 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Now I would like
16 to move into an area of the sharing of information 17 after 9/11 because we have heard a great deal of 18 information about that particular process, and I 19 would ask the Clerk to give you Exhibit P-85, 20 volume 1.

21 --- Pause

22 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Mr. Hooper, if 23 you would refer to tab 21.

24 For those who do not have it, this 25 is a Briefing Note to the Commissioner of the RCMP

1 and it os dated January 29, 2004.

2 I'm just reading to you -- and I
3 will ask some questions about it -- the unredacted 4 portion of the note, wherein it states that:

5 "Following the events of 6 9-11, a new era of openness
7 and an environment of sharing
8 was necessitated by the need
9 to prevent further terrorist 10 acts from happening. In 11 particular, the RCMP, --"

12 And you will see that there is a 13 redacted portion there.

14 "-- agreed that all
15 information would be shared
16 between agencies as a matter
17 of course. Further, it was 18 agreed at Senior levels that 19 it would be the exception 20 rather than the rule to seek 21 permission prior to utilizing
22 or sharing the information
23 between the parties to the 24 agreement."

25 A redacted portion:

1 "... met periodically and 2 shared information of 3 relevance to ongoing
4 investigations."

5 Now, obviously that is an RCMP
6 document and the RCMP impression as what occurred 7 shortly after 9/11 and I have some questions for 8 you relating to CSIS.

9 The first question is whether 10 there were any suggestions at CSIS that because of 11 the exigencies created by 9/11 that caveats were 12 down, that information could be shared with 13 partner agencies without the imposition of 14 caveats?

15 MR. HOOPER: That was never our 16 understanding, nor was the Canadian Security
17 Intelligence Service party to that understanding.

18 To the contrary, our understanding 19 was that information we provided with anybody 20 would contain caveats and that those caveats would 21 be respected accordingly.

22 MR. CAVALLUZZO: In regard to 23 that, even if a partner agency -- and I can't be 24 specific in terms of that, but even if a partner 25 agency wanted to use CSIS information which was

1 caveated, your view was that after 9/11 the rules 2 applied in that they would have to come back to 3 you for CSIS's approval or consent?

4 MR. HOOPER: That was our 5 expectation.

6 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Was there any 7 change whatever in CSIS policies concerning the 8 sharing of information as a result of 9/11?

9 MR. HOOPER: No.

10 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Did CSIS have 11 difficulty sharing information on a timely basis 12 because of the problems created by 9/11 while 13 adhering to its own policies?

14 MR. HOOPER: No.

15 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Okay.

16 Mr. Hooper, I would now like to turn to what we 17 are calling the Arar chronology or the Arar time 18 line.

19 The first question I have for you
20 is: When and how did CSIS first learn that 21 Mr. Arar was detained in the United States?

22 MR. HOOPER: That would have been 23 on October 2, 2002 as a consequence of a telephone 24 call our communications branch received from, I 25 think their counterpart entity in the Department

1 of Foreign Affairs.

2 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Were you advised
3 at that point in time yourself that a Canadian 4 citizen had been detained in the United States?

5 MR. HOOPER: Yes, I was.

6 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Okay. As a
7 result of getting that information on October 2, 8 2002, did you do anything to seek clarification or 9 get more information in respect of Mr. Arar's 10 detention?

11 MR. HOOPER: Yes, we did.

12 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Could you tell us
13 what you did.

14 MR. HOOPER: Yes.

15 The first thing we did was -- 16 personally, I didn't know who this person was so I 17 asked for some briefing on who the individual was 18 and what he meant to us. I asked an officer of 19 our Counterterrorism Branch to get hold of our 20 Washington office and see if they could ascertain 21 information that led to this occurrence.

22 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Was that on or 23 about October 2nd?

24 MR. HOOPER: That was on 25 October 2nd.

1 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Okay. You
2 don't have to tell us what information you got 3 back, but do you recall when you received any 4 information back in respect of Mr. Arar from the 5 American contact?

6 MR. HOOPER: I don't believe we 7 ever did.

8 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Okay. Now, did
9 CSIS get any advance notice from the Americans 10 that Mr. Arar was going to be landing at JFK
11 Airport in New York and was going to be detained 12 prior to his arrival?

13 MR. HOOPER: No.

14 MR. CAVALLUZZO: So that the first 15 occasion upon which CSIS became aware of his 16 detention was October 2nd?

17 MR. HOOPER: That's correct.

18 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Now, at this
19 point in time, while Mr. Arar was being detained 20 in the United States, did you become aware that 21 the RCMP was attempting, at points in time, to 22 have an interview with Mr. Arar while he was 23 detained in the United States?

24 MR. HOOPER: At that time I wasn't 25 personally aware of that, but I do know -- in

1 preparation for these proceedings, I know my 2 officials were.

3 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Okay. Did CSIS
4 seek to have an interview with Mr. Arar in the 5 United States while he was detained?

6 MR. HOOPER: No, we did not.

7 MR. CAVALLUZZO: While Mr. Arar
8 was in the United States, other than the contact 9 that you refer to on October 2nd attempting to 10 seek clarification or further information, other 11 than that contact, while Mr. Arar was in the 12 United States, did CSIS have any contact whatever 13 with American agencies in respect of Mr. Arar?

14 MR. HOOPER: After the initial 15 phone call on October 2nd I believe there were a 16 number of what we call chasers, again trying to 17 elicit information around his detention. I know 18 that on October 9, 2002 we sent a written request 19 to American authorities eliciting that 20 information.

21 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Okay. So that 22 written request was on or about October 9th?

23 MR. HOOPER: I believe it was 24 October 9th, yes.

25 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Okay. Now,

1 between September 26, 2002 and October 8, 2002, 2 when Mr. Arar was deported or removed from the 3 United States, did CSIS give any American agency
4 any information relating to Mr. Arar?

5 MR. HOOPER: No.

6 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Could you tell us
7 when and how CSIS learned of Mr. Arar's 8 deportation or removal from the United States?

9 MR. HOOPER: I would have to think 10 for a moment on this.

11 --- Pause

12 MR. HOOPER: I would be assisted 13 by the time line, but by my recollection, 14 Mr. Cavalluzzo, it was on October -- I'm guessing 15 here. I think it was October 9th.

16 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Yes. The SIRC
17 report and the redacted summary both confirm that 18 it was October 9th that CSIS first learned of his 19 deportation.

20 Do you know how CSIS learned of 21 Mr. Arar's deportation from the United States?

22 MR. HOOPER: I believe we learned
23 of that through two channels, one at Foreign 24 Affairs and one through the RCMP.

25 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Now, at this

1 point in time, and we are talking about October 8, 2 2002, we have heard about a policy in the United 3 States called extraordinary rendition whereby 4 individuals may involuntarily be removed from 5 either a third country or whatever to another 6 country where the human rights record is not as 7 good as in Canada or the United States.

8 I'm asking you, at that point in 9 time, back in October 2002, were you aware of this 10 policy of extraordinary rendition?

11 MR. HOOPER: I was personally
12 aware of the U.S. engaging in rendition 13 operations, yes.

14 MR. CAVALLUZZO: When Mr. Arar was 15 deported, did you view that to be an example of 16 the rendition policy of the United States?

17 MR. HOOPER: That was a 18 difficult one. We had never seen -- in most 19 rendition operations that we had seen to that 20 point, I think in all of them, the rendition 21 involved bringing somebody from a third country 22 back to the United States. This is the first 23 time, and I believe it is the only time, to my 24 personal knowledge, that somebody in the United 25 States was sent somewhere else.

1 MR. CAVALLUZZO: In terms of 2 Mr. Arar being detained in the United States, the 3 fact that they deported him to Syria, initially to 4 Jordan and then to Syria, did that surprise you?

5 MR. HOOPER: Yes.

6 MR. CAVALLUZZO: What was your 7 expectation in respect of what was going to happen
8 to Mr. Arar?

9 MR. HOOPER: That he was going to 10 come back to Canada. He was a Canadian citizen.
11 He was 90 minutes from Canada.

12 MR. CAVALLUZZO: So that you were 13 surprised by the actions of the United States?

14 MR. HOOPER: Yes.

15 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Just a final 16 question in that regard: At any time during this 17 period did you have any discussions with the RCMP 18 advising them or exchanging views of the American 19 policy of rendition?

20 MR. HOOPER: No, I did not, nor 21 did the Service, to my knowledge.

22 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Now, as you know, 23 there was a period of time when there was some 24 confusion as to where Mr. Arar was after his 25 deportation on October 8th and 9th.

1 MR. HOOPER: Yes.

2 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Did CSIS expend 3 any of its resources trying to find out where 4 Mr. Arar was?

5 MR. HOOPER: I do know that the 6 principal resource expenditure around Mr. Arar's 7 whereabouts was being conducted out of Foreign 8 Affairs. I do know that there were occasional 9 discussions between officials of the Service, the 10 RCMP, and Foreign Affairs on where he might be and 11 there was some early speculation, given that he 12 was a dual Syrian-Canadian national, that he may 13 have ended up in Syria.

14 MR. CAVALLUZZO: So if he 15 wasn't coming back to Canada, it wouldn't be a 16 surprise that he ended up in Syria because he was 17 a dual national?

18 MR. HOOPER: It was a logical
19 conclusion at the time.

20 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Okay. Now I
21 would like to move on a wee bit in time to 22 October 15th and perhaps ask if the Clerk can give 23 you Exhibit P-83.

24 --- Pause

25 MR. CAVALLUZZO: What I would like

1 to do at this point in time, Mr. Hooper, is just 2 to lay the context for what was happening in 3 Canada at that point in time on October 15th, 4 particularly in regard to the Americans' reaction
5 to our concern about Mr. Arar.

6 I would ask you to go behind tab 3 7 of that book and go to page 106.

8 What we have here, we have a 9 number of statements that were given by RCMP and 10 DFAIT people to Mr. Garvie, who you may recall was 11 conducting a review of the RCMP's conduct, and I 12 just want to set the stage for some questions.

13 In particular, this is Mr. Pardy's
14 interview given with Mr. Garvie on December 12, 15 2003. If you look to around line 16 I am going to 16 pick up under where he says that Mr. Graham and 17 the Ambassador was present.

18 Let me just pick up the sentence:
19 "I'm not certain, but I know 20 that one of the results out 21 of the meeting was the 22 American Ambassador was 23 telling Mr. Graham, 'Look, go 24 talk to your own people about 25 all of this because they are

1 the ones that have the 2 information about this'.
3 That is the Americans were 4 acting on information -- on 5 Canadian information and 6 almost to the point where he 7 was saying act exclusively on 8 Canadian information."

9 (As read)

10 Then if you go down to the next
11 statement of Mr. Pardy at line 28, about halfway 12 through that paragraph it states:

13 "But the whole impression we 14 had during this period of 15 what the Americans were doing 16 when we were complaining to 17 them about their actions,
18 that they were pushing back
19 and saying, 'No, look, go 20 talk to your own people here.
21 We were acting on this 22 information that came from 23 Canada.' That was a 24 consistent message by 25 Ambassador Cellucci right up

1 to the present day. When 2 Secretary Powell came to 3 Ottawa in mid-November, he 4 repeated that information or 5 that position."

6 Now, with that context in mind, do 7 you recall in or about October and November of 8 2002 that that was the position the Americans were 9 taking, and that was, "Listen, Canadians, go and 10 talk to your own people. We are acting on their 11 information and they know what went down."

12 MR. HOOPER: I was acutely aware 13 of that.

14 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Okay. Now, we 15 heard that as a result of this meeting DFAIT, and 16 in particular Mr. Pardy, immediately conducted an 17 interagency meeting the next day, on October 16th, 18 both with the RCMP and CSIS, basically saying,
19 "What did you guys do in respect of Mr. Arar?"

20 Do you recall that particular 21 meeting?

22 MR. HOOPER: I know the meeting
23 happened. I wasn't at the meeting.

24 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Okay. Did you
25 get a report as to what occurred at the meeting?

1 MR. HOOPER: I didn't, but I know
2 what my people were saying at that meeting, and 3 that is that we provided no information that would 4 have led to the arrest and the detention of 5 Mr. Arar.

6 MR. CAVALLUZZO: I assume there is 7 no memorandum back to DFAIT from CSIS concerning 8 that meeting. There is one from the RCMP, but I 9 assume there is none from CSIS.

10 MR. HOOPER: I haven't seen one.
11 I don't believe there was.

12 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Okay. Now, there
13 was another meeting on October 21st, and I wonder 14 if the witness might be shown DFAIT tab 547?

15 --- Pause

16 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Yes, tab 547. It
17 is a memorandum within DFAIT dated September 8, 18 2003 to Mr. Saunders -- excuse me, to Mr. Jim 19 Wright from Mr. Saunders.

20 In the third paragraph, it states
21 in the second sentence, it says:

22 "We shared most of the 23 information we had on this 24 case with our RCMP Liaison
25 Officer who passed it on to 1 his headquarters."

2 Then it goes on:

3 "We also met with a group of 4 RCMP and CSIS officers on 5 October 21 to discuss the 6 case."

7 He is referring to October 21,
8 2002, and I'm wondering whether you are aware of 9 this interagency meeting between DFAIT ISI, RCMP, 10 and CSIS to discuss Mr. Arar's case?

11 MR. HOOPER: I know there were a
12 number of meetings going on around that time. I 13 don't recall specifically October 21st, but I 14 presume there was one.

15 I wasn't at that meeting. Again, 16 like the previous meeting, I know what our 17 Service's line was throughout this whole dialogue.

18 MR. CAVALLUZZO: And it was ...?

19 MR. HOOPER: That we had provided 20 no information to any American entity that would 21 have resulted in the arrest and detention and 22 ultimately the removal of Mr. Arar from the U.S.

23 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Now, how did
24 CSIS become aware that Mr. Arar was 25 authoritatively determined to be in Syria after

1 that period of confusion?

2 MR. HOOPER: We learned of that
3 through DFAIT sources on October 22, 2002.

4 MR. CAVALLUZZO: What, if any,
5 information did CSIS receive from DFAIT relating 6 to Mr. Arar at that time in October 2002?

7 MR. HOOPER: I think we received a
8 message from ISI. My memory is not clear on that.
9 I wouldn't have seen it at the time, but I believe 10 there was some written record of advice coming 11 from Foreign Affairs on that.

12 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Do you know if 13 there was anything in writing?

14 I'm talking about October now, not 15 November. October 2002?

16 MR. HOOPER: I'm not clear on 17 that, Mr. Cavalluzzo. If there was something in 18 writing, I wouldn't have seen it. I thought there 19 may have been.

20 I know initially we were advised
21 by phone call, is my understanding.

22 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Right. Perhaps 23 just to facilitate this I could read into the 24 record a portion of the redacted summary at 25 paragraph 27, and I would ask for the witness'

1 comments on this. It says:

2 "After Mr. Arar's deportation
3 CSIS continued to receive
4 information about Mr. Arar.
5 On October 24 CSIS received
6 information from DFAIT about 7 Mr. Arar from sources in 8 Syria. A DFAIT report was 9 generated, which included
10 statements --"

11 Then we are going to come to a 12 statement in early November.

13 Would you agree with that 14 description?

15 MR. HOOPER: Yes, sir.

16 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Okay. Now, we 17 are going to see in the evidence that CSIS did 18 receive at least two consular reports relating to 19 Mr. Arar, one on January 8, 2003 and one relating 20 to April 22, 2003. Just at this point in time I 21 wonder if you might share with us, what is the 22 practice between DFAIT and CSIS in respect of CSIS 23 receiving consular reports?

24 MR. HOOPER: We don't get them as 25 a matter of course. We get them occasionally when

1 there is a national security dimension to the 2 consular case. Typically, we will receive them in 3 the Headquarters branch that is concerned with the 4 individual or the particular case, and typically 5 we receive them from the Department of Foreign 6 Affairs so that we might provide them with some 7 assistance in executing their consular mandate.

8 It is the exception rather than 9 the rule that we will get these.

10 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Would you get the 11 consular reports from Consular Affairs or from ISI 12 of DFAIT?

13 MR. HOOPER: Always ISI.

14 MR. CAVALLUZZO: I'm wondering if 15 the witness might be shown Exhibit P-98?

16 --- Pause

17 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Now, P-98 is an 18 e-mail from Mr. Gar Pardy.

19 I assume you know Mr. Gar Pardy?

20 MR. HOOPER: Yes.

21 MR. CAVALLUZZO: You have known
22 Mr. Pardy for a number of years?

23 MR. HOOPER: Yes.

24 MR. CAVALLUZZO: You know that he 25 was the head of the Consular Division --

1 MR. HOOPER: Yes.

2 MR. CAVALLUZZO: -- and viewed
3 within the Government of Canada as being the most 4 knowledgeable person about consular affairs?

5 MR. HOOPER: He had been doing it
6 a long time, so yes.

7 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Okay. This is an 8 e-mail from Mr. Pardy to Damascus Head of Mission, 9 as well as Mr. Martel. In the fourth paragraph, 10 once again dated October 28th, he states:

11 "Would appreciate if you
12 could report if you obtain 13 any information on possible
14 visits by RCMP and CSIS
15 officials, either to meet
16 Maher or Syrian officials.
17 Many thanks,
18 Gar." (As read)

19 At this point in time, were you
20 aware of any possible visits to Syria by CSIS?

21 MR. HOOPER: I was aware that one 22 was under discussion.

23 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Okay. Then if 24 you go to the previous tab, at tab 97, you will 25 see this is another e-mail.

1 MR. HOOPER: I'm sorry, I gave my 2 book back.

3 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Oh, I'm sorry.
4 Exhibit P-97, yes.

5 --- Pause

6 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Exhibit P-97.
7 Sorry, it's another 97.

8 --- Pause

9 MR. CAVALLUZZO: You will see that 10 this is another e-mail from Mr. Pardy. You see 11 that "JPD", that is Mr. Pardy's acronym.

12 MR. HOOPER: Yes.

13 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Then, once again
14 in paragraph 2, it says:

15 "With respect to paragraph 6 16 of referenced message would 17 appreciate if Ambassador 18 could report if there has 19 been any contact with RCMP
20 and CSIS liaison officials."

21 (As read

22 Obviously that is a few days
23 later.

24 So Mr. Pardy seems to be concerned 25 that there may be possible visits by the RCMP and

1 CSIS to Syria, and you are saying at this point in 2 time there was discussion of one.

3 MR. HOOPER: That's correct.

4 MR. CAVALLUZZO: But one had not 5 happened by that point in time?

6 MR. HOOPER: That is correct.

7 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Now, if we move
8 into early November -- do you know Ambassador 9 Pillarella, who was the Ambassador to Syria?

10 MR. HOOPER: I have known
11 Mr. Pillarella for some years, yes.

12 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Okay. Are you 13 aware that in early November 2002 that 14 Mr. Pillarella brought back a statement to Canada 15 from Syrian authorities?

16 MR. HOOPER: Yes.

17 MR. CAVALLUZZO: I wonder if the 18 witness might be given Exhibit P-134?

19 --- Pause

20 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Just to give some 21 context, if we initially look at tab 8 of Exhibit 22 P-134, you will see that although this is an 23 e-mail from Jonathan Solomon, who, as you know, is 24 in ISI at DFAIT, dated November 19th, he makes 25 reference in the fifth line down, stating:

1 "You will remember that at 2 an interdepartmental meeting
3 held on Wednesday,
4 November 6, it was agreed
5 that it would be useful if 6 CSIS were to travel to Syria
7 to speak to Syrian
8 authorities on international 9 terrorism."

10 Then it goes on:

11 "We have consulted with CSIS
12 We have been informed
13 that --"

14 Then there is a redaction. It

15 says:

16 "The purpose of the visit is
17 to consult with Syrian
18 intelligence and to take
19 advantage of their knowledge
20 of Al-Qaida and terrorist
21 threats. CSIS is not 22 visiting Maher Arar, but 23 given the high profile of 24 this issue in Canada, we 25 suggest below press lines in

1 the unlikely event that there
2 will be press coverage of the 3 visit."

4 Now, were you aware that there was 5 this interdepartmental meeting on November 6th in 6 which CSIS participated?

7 MR. HOOPER: Yes.

8 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Did you attend
9 this meeting?

10 MR. HOOPER: No, I did not.
11 Officers from the Counterterrorism Branch did.

12 MR. CAVALLUZZO: From 13 Headquarters?

14 MR. HOOPER: That's correct.

15 MR. CAVALLUZZO: At this meeting
16 there was discussion that it would be a good idea 17 for CSIS to take a trip to Syria?

18 MR. HOOPER: Yes.

19 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Do you know that 20 at this particular meeting that it was discussed
21 that it would be preferable for CSIS to do it 22 rather than the RCMP, because the Syrian Military 23 Intelligence preferred to deal with security 24 agencies rather than police forces?

25 MR. HOOPER: That is my

1 understanding.

2 MR. CAVALLUZZO: If you stay in 3 Exhibit P-134 and we go back to tab 6, we see in 4 this particular entry -- which is once again a 5 DFAIT document -- it says:

6 "On November 3, 2002, the 7 Canadian Ambassador to Syria
8 received a document (written 9 in Arabic) from Syrian
10 Military Intelligence
11 The Ambassador brought the 12 document to Canada personally
13 and gave it to ISI on 14 November 6. ISI sent it to 15 CSIS for translation. The 16 document, an undated
17 three-paragraph bout de 18 papier, was translated on 19 November 7. The document
20 alleges that Arar spent time
21 in Afghanistan in Mujaheddin 22 camps and that he knew --"

23 Somebody, which is redacted.

24 "The document was sent to 25 CSIS for translation by the

1 CSIS Liaison Officer in ISI.
2 The translated document was 3 returned to ISI and the 4 information was shared with 5 JPD, the RCMP and CSIS."

6 Then, finally, if you go to tab 9
7 you will see that CSIS expresses its view as far 8 as this document is concerned. You will see in 9 the second paragraph reference is made to that 10 meeting between ISI, the Ambassador, CSIS and RCMP
11 on November 6th. Then it says:

12 "CSIS made no comments about
13 the credibility of the 14 document, but said that even 15 if true, it was not 16 necessarily damning evidence 17 against him."

18 Okay? So that was the position of 19 CSIS at that point in time, that even if it's 20 true, there is nothing there?

21 MR. HOOPER: That is essentially
22 correct, yes.

23 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Okay. Were you
24 apprised of this information from the people from 25 headquarters who attended these meetings?

1 MR. HOOPER: You are referring to 2 the information in the "bout de papier"?

3 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Yes, the 4 information in the "bout de papier"?

5 MR. HOOPER: Yes.

6 MR. CAVALLUZZO: And CSIS's view
7 that there was nothing there?

8 MR. HOOPER: Yes.

9 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Okay.

10 I would like to move to 11 November 12, 2002 and refer to Mr. Solomon's 12 notes.

13 If Mr. Hooper might be given 14 Exhibit P-85, volume 4?

15 --- Pause

16 MR. CAVALLUZZO: And if you would 17 go, Mr. Hooper, to tab 126 at page 30?

18 MR. HOOPER: Three zero?

19 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Three zero.

20 MR. HOOPER: I have it.

21 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Okay. This, 22 although being a note of Jonathan Solomon who, 23 once again, is a member of ISI in DFAIT, this is 24 an entry for, as you will see in the middle of the 25 page, November 12, 2002. Then there is a

1 reference there that says, "Hooper interpretation
2 of meeting." Then there is a slash "with Gar." I 3 think it's "exchange with Gar."

4 So "Hooper interpretation of 5 meeting/exchange with Gar."

6 Do you have any idea of what this 7 is about?

8 Were you speaking to Mr. Solomon
9 on or around this day?

10 MR. HOOPER: I don't have a 11 recollection of speaking with Mr. Solomon on that 12 date.

13 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Do you have any 14 idea? Do you recall discussing with him your 15 interpretation of that interagency meeting on 16 November 6th?

17 MR. HOOPER: I can't say with 18 certainty. I don't even know that this note 19 refers to a meeting of November 6th, and I will 20 explain that.

21 When I see the reference to 22 meeting with Gar Pardy, when I see the reference
23 to Peter Boehm, who was in our Washington Embassy 24 at that time, when I see the reference to 25 Ambassador Kergin from Washington, all of this

1 leads me to believe that this was in relation to a 2 matter having nothing to do with Mr. Arar.

3 That is the interpretation I take 4 from this.

5 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Now, we know from 6 the evidence that there was a meeting with 7 Mr. Powell, Colin Powell, the Secretary of State
8 at that time, on or about November 14th?

9 MR. HOOPER: Yes.

10 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Is that possible
11 what was discussed?

12 MR. HOOPER: It's possible.

13 MR. CAVALLUZZO: But nothing to do
14 with Mr. Arar?

15 MR. HOOPER: That is the 16 interpretation I draw from this.

17 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Okay.

18 Now, I wonder if the witness might 19 be given Exhibit P-137?

20 --- Pause

21 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Just give me a 22 second here.

23 --- Pause

24 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Actually, I'm 25 sorry, it's Exhibit P-134.

1 This line of questioning,
2 Mr. Hooper, relates to a conference call -- once 3 again, another interagency meeting, this time 4 through conference call between DFAIT, the 5 Solicitor General, CSIS and the PCO concerning the 6 Arar case.

7 If we look initially at tab 7. As 8 you can see, the title is "Trip to Syria," and 9 it's drafted by Jonathan Solomon, approved by 10 Livermore, and it states:

11 "For your personal
12 information, following a
13 meeting with DMA of
14 18 November, senior DFAIT
15 representatives asked CSIS to 16 delay their visit to Syria.
17 While CSIS indicated that 18 they would not attempt to 19 visit Arar, they still 20 intended to continue with 21 their planned visit to --"

22 The redacted agency.

23 "PCO chose not to intervene 24 on this debate, so unless the 25 Minister attempts to block

1 this visit, CSIS will arrive
2 in Damascus on schedule.
3 Updates to follow."

4 I'm wondering if you participated
5 in this particular conference call concerning 6 whether CSIS should delay its visit?

7 MR. HOOPER: I did not. I
8 believe that was the Director General of the 9 Counterterrorism Branch that participated in 10 that call.

11 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Let me show you
12 Jim Gould's notes. This would be Exhibit P-236, 13 Mr. Gould's notes, personal notes?
14 --- Pause

15 MR. CAVALLUZZO: If we pick it up
16 initially at page 4 of 16, which you are at, you 17 will see there, halfway down -- well, about a 18 third of the way down, it says:

19 "Arar - 9:30 conference call
20 with PCO/GMR".

21 Then it says "Conf call", and then
22 it says:

23 "Really & only issue is `you 24 don't deport a CDN to 25 Syria.'"

1 Then it goes on and it says:

2 "Jack Hooper..."

3 There is a redacted name or agency
4 and then it goes on:

5 "... re: trip to Syria to 6 meet with Arar.

7 - Optics are very bad this 8 week -- should not plan on 9 immediate visit."

10 Then at the bottom Mr. Gould's 11 notes state: "Jack H" and then it says "not 12 meeting with," and then it appears to be an "N" or 13 a question mark, and then it says, "meeting with," 14 and it is a blank, and then you can see "Arar" in 15 the right. I think that says, "was," or "N.B.
16 Arar," or something like that. Then it says:

17 "- have window of a few days
18 - will raise with War..."

19 I assume that is Ward Elcock:

20 "... and it will be his 21 call."

22 Then, for the continuation of 23 November 18th, if you go behind tab 2 at page 5
24 of 6, it states, and I'm reading:

25 "- they talk to these people

1 all the time so should be no
2 problem ...
3 - they hope to leave tomorrow
4 - I suggested that the optics
5 not good for this week at 6 least
7 - he said he had read article
8 in press and understood."

9 Does that refresh your memory as 10 to a conference call or a call you may have had 11 with Mr. Gould concerning the delay of the CSIS 12 trip because of the optics?

13 MR. HOOPER: No, I understand the 14 messages that are conveyed in these notes, but 15 whether they are attributed to comments that I may 16 have made at a conference call I don't see the 17 necessary linkage though.

18 Certainly some of the things that 19 are attributed in here are things that I would 20 have said. Whether they were said in the context 21 of a November 18th conference call or whether they 22 were said by others attributing them to me, I 23 don't know.

24 MR. CAVALLUZZO: But you do recall
25 that CSIS was not prepared to delay the visit,

1 that the PCO chose not to intervene, that the 2 Minister of Foreign Affairs was approached and he 3 said, "Let it go ahead so long as they give me a 4 report so that I will have that when I phone the 5 Minister of Foreign Affairs in Syria"?

6 MR. HOOPER: I do want to bring 7 some precision to that, Mr. Cavalluzzo, because we 8 weren't prepared to delay the visit based on the 9 rationale provided by Foreign Affairs for delaying 10 the visit. I thought at that time, in weighing 11 our interests versus the Foreign Affairs concerns, 12 that there was a more compelling case to be made 13 for going then than for not going then.

14 Specifically, as I recall, it
15 was related to me the Foreign Affairs concern 16 related around the media coverage, the high 17 profile that the Arar case had at that time, and 18 in my estimation -- and we discussed this among 19 officials at CSIS -- the Arar case was going to 20 have a high media profile for a long time and the 21 terrorists weren't downing tools waiting for us to 22 deal with Arar.

23 So that was basically the 24 balancing act that we were performing there.

25 MR. CAVALLUZZO: So that the trip

1 did go on the next day, as the note indicates, on 2 November 19th?

3 MR. HOOPER: That's correct.

4 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Okay. We have to 5 be very circumspect here but, from your knowledge, 6 what was the purpose of the trip?

7 MR. HOOPER: The purpose of the 8 trip was fundamentally to receive information from 9 the Syrian side that may have relevance to threats 10 to the security of Canada that we were mandated to 11 investigate.

12 MR. CAVALLUZZO: We understand 13 from the Solomon note that there was a prospect of 14 some kind of a relationship. What I would like to 15 do is read into the record from the redacted 16 summary.

17 We have to be very circumspect,
18 here, Mr. Commissioner, and so just let me read 19 into the record for the public paragraphs 28 and 20 29 of the summary.

21 It states:

22 "For national security
23 reasons, CSIS may have to 24 enter into relationships with 25 a foreign agency of a country

1 that has a poor human rights
2 record. In such cases CSIS
3 exercises caution by closely 4 scrutinizing the content of 5 information provided to or 6 obtained from the foreign 7 agency and by instituting 8 checks and balances to ensure 9 that none of the security
10 intelligence information 11 exchanged with the foreign 12 agency is used in the 13 commission of human rights
14 violations. Generally
15 speaking, CSIS only discloses
16 information to a foreign 17 agency of a country in which 18 there are human rights
19 concerns after considering 20 various issues. These issues 21 include the potential use to 22 which the foreign agency may 23 put the information,
24 especially if it concerns
25 Canadians, and the degree of 1 a threat that an affected

2 individual poses to national 3 security. Further, CSIS
4 considers the ability and 5 willingness of the foreign 6 agency to respect caveats and 7 protect the information from 8 public disclosure."

9 (As read)

10 MS McISAAC: Mr. Commissioner, if 11 I could just point out, it was not my 12 understanding that those two paragraphs related to 13 Syria per se, but rather to the general position 14 that the CSIS may find itself with respect to 15 relationships with various countries.

16 MR. CAVALLUZZO: That is 17 correct, it is a general statement that the 18 summary refers to.

19 First of all, just as a general
20 matter -- and there are many, many foreign nations 21 out there that we are aware of with poor human 22 rights records -- but in terms of the 23 considerations that I read to you from the 24 summary, would you agree with those statements?

25 MR. HOOPER: Yes.

1 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Okay.

2 Now, as far as the particular 3 consideration of the degree of threat that an 4 affected individual poses to national security, 5 I guess you have to be circumspect here as far 6 as Mr. Arar is concerned, but certainly the view 7 of CSIS, at least at that point in time, would 8 appear to be that the statement that came back 9 with Pillarella was really not worth the paper 10 it is written on as far as whether he was a threat 11 or not?

12 MR. HOOPER: It didn't 13 particularly inform our assessment of the threat.
14 It wasn't a particularly useful document in that 15 regard.

16 MR. CAVALLUZZO: But in any event,
17 obviously one of the key considerations that CSIS 18 would take into account in sharing information 19 with a country with a poor human rights record is 20 that: Is the guy a threat? What is the level of 21 the threat? That goes into the balance --

22 MR. HOOPER: Yes.

23 MR. CAVALLUZZO: -- in terms of 24 this very, very crucial balance regarding the 25 exchange of such information?

1 MR. HOOPER: I agree with that.

2 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Now, as far as 3 the trip is concerned, and we have heard some 4 evidence yesterday apparently -- from I believe it 5 was Mr. Gould or Mr. Livermore -- that some 6 information came back to Canada, and I won't ask 7 you about that.

8 But what I would like to ask you
9 about is that we do have evidence before us,
10 indeed from Mr. Pillarella, where he expressed a 11 great deal of dissatisfaction with CSIS.

12 I would ask you now to refer to 13 tab 10 of Exhibit P-134.

14 --- Pause

15 MR. CAVALLUZZO: And this is where 16 Mr. Pillarella states that:

17 "Following my meeting with 18 [redacted] it was agreed that 19 they would come back to the 20 Embassy ... for a debrief on 21 their meetings with Syrian 22 counterparts which would be 23 held Parallel to this 24 I, informed them that I was 25 trying to arrange a meeting

1 with General Khalil for 2 [whoever]. However, I could 3 not guarantee that the 4 meeting would take place
5 given the last minute
6 request. In the end, meeting
7 with General Khalil could not 8 be arranged and I never saw 9 [these people] again, as they 10 did not come back to the 11 Embassy on ... as previously
12 agreed. Several messages
13 left at their hotel on Sunday
14 to call me went unanswered
15 and I found out ... that they 16 had checked out of the hotel
17 and presumably had left 18 Damascus.

19 2. Maybe there is a good
20 explanation for this bizarre
21 behaviour but I confess that 22 I cannot think of one at the 23 moment. All I can say is 24 that in terms of co-operation 25 this is less than

StenoTran

1 satisfactory to say the
2 least."

3 It goes on for a couple of 4 sentences. I'm going to ask you -- and I'm not 5 going to ask you whether it was bizarre behaviour, 6 but ask you whether you were aware that CSIS
7 representatives left Damascus without briefing
8 Mr. Pillarella?

9 MR. HOOPER: Yes.

10 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Were they 11 admonished or disciplined for not having briefed
12 Mr. Pillarella?

13 MR. HOOPER: No. I became aware
14 of Mr. Pillarella's discontent around this issue 15 and made inquiries to find out why this had 16 happened and I received what I considered to be a 17 reasonable explanation as to why they never hooked 18 up with the Ambassador. I think a lot of that had 19 to do, if you read through Mr. Pillarella's memo 20 here, he had been trying to arrange a meeting with 21 his Syrian counterpart but couldn't nail it down 22 to a date, time and place.

23 What was provided to me was that 24 we had an understanding that it was to take place 25 Saturday, it never took place on Saturday.

1 Mr. Pillarella tried to get a hold of the CSIS
2 delegation. He couldn't contact us. We couldn't 3 contact him. It was just a case of, we never did 4 hook up. But there was certainly no intent on the 5 part of the Service personnel to avoid Ambassador 6 Pillarella.

7 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Right. What is 8 interesting for me, after seeing the evidence in 9 respect of other agencies, is that it is 10 interesting to see that CSIS is establishing a 11 direct relationship with an entity of another -- 12 in a foreign country without the intercession of 13 the Ambassador, which is not the case of other 14 Canadian organizations.

15 Is that common?

16 MR. HOOPER: Certainly when we are 17 embarking down the road towards establishing a 18 relationship with a foreign entity, there is 19 consultation. There has to be consultation.
20 There has to be concurrence with the department.

21 My expectation is, and my 22 understanding is, is there was exchanges between 23 Foreign Affairs and the Ambassador responsible for 24 the region or the area where we are considering a 25 relationship, so there is that consultative

1 process.

2 If there are pre-established
3 relationships between the Ambassador and the 4 entity that we are establishing a relationship 5 with, yes, occasionally the Ambassador will engage 6 or occasionally he will not, he or she will not.
7 So it is not a hard and fast rule in that regard.

8 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Once again we are 9 talking here generally.

10 What about a situation where you
11 establish a relationship with a foreign entity, 12 wherever that country might be, and you have a 13 relationship with that entity. Now, do you 14 normally go through the Ambassador when you want 15 to meet with that entity or want to have 16 discussions with that entity or is it just a 17 direct relationship?

18 MR. HOOPER: Where there is an 19 established relationship?

20 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Yes.

21 MR. HOOPER: Normally we just do 22 it directly.

23 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Okay. Now, I
24 would like to --

25 THE COMMISSIONER: I will just

1 make a point about the evidence in this area, 2 really for the public.

3 This is one of those areas where 4 we have heard a good deal of evidence about the 5 visit and any issues that may surround it in 6 camera. It' has been thoroughly canvassed and 7 several witnesses have been called.

8 The evidence here in public today 9 is being called for the purpose of informing the 10 public to the extent we can, but because of claims 11 of National Security Confidentiality obviously a 12 great deal of the detail of the evidence that we 13 have heard cannot be dealt with in public. Like 14 many other -- or several other areas in the 15 investigation, those are matters that I have heard 16 in camera.

17 I will be reporting on and giving 18 my views as to how much of that information, in my 19 opinion, can be made public, but that will all 20 occur in the report.

21 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Thank you.

22 Okay. Mr. Hooper, I would now
23 like to move into 2003. We understand from the 24 evidence that one of the consular reports that 25 CSIS received was the one in early January,

1 January 8, 2003. There is nothing special about 2 that report, it just said that Mr. Arar appeared 3 to be in good health and the Syrians were thinking 4 of charging him, thought that he was involved in 5 the Muslim Brotherhood, which is an organization 6 that we have heard some evidence about, and would 7 be detained for a lengthy period and would be 8 prosecuted.

9 I can show you the report, but it 10 would appear that at this point in time that 11 things are becoming focused as far as Mr. Arar is 12 concerned, and that is that the Syrians are 13 treating this in a very serious way. They are 14 going to be considering very serious charges.

15 As I assume you know from your 16 experience, the Syrians treat the Muslim
17 Brotherhood in a very, very severe way.

18 MR. HOOPER: Yes, they do.

19 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Now, if we go
20 back to the Pillarella book, because an important 21 event occurs in the middle of January. This is 22 Exhibit P-134.

23 --- Pause

24 MR. CAVALLUZZO: At tab 14, if you 25 go to the second page you will see that there is

1 an e-mail from Mr. Pillarella, which is dated 2 January 15, 2003 to different offices within 3 DFAIT, and the subject is "Arar meeting". You 4 will see that he "met this morning with" -- there 5 is a redacted name there, but it is Mr. Khalil.

6 But if you go to the second 7 paragraph it says:

8 "During the conversation,
9 [somebody] made two points
10 which I thought were rather 11 curious."

12 The first point relates to 13 Mr. Arar and is not relevant for our purposes.

14 Then the second point is. He 15 says:

16 "The second, again according 17 to his information, was that 18 CSIS would have indicated to 19 [this redacted person] that 20 they have no wish to see Arar 21 return to Canada and they 22 were quite content with the 23 way things were."

24 That statement there.

25 We will go on to another

1 document, but at this point in time did you become 2 aware that the SMI, the Syrian Military 3 Intelligence, was saying to the Canadian 4 government through Pillarella, "CSIS told us they 5 don't want this guy back? They are quite happy 6 with the way things are."

7 Did you discover that?

8 MR. HOOPER: Very quickly, yes.

9 MR. CAVALLUZZO: How did you
10 discover that the Syrians were giving this 11 impression?

12 MR. HOOPER: I don't know the 13 precise mechanism or path, but I believe I heard 14 it initially from the Department of Foreign 15 Affairs.

16 MR. CAVALLUZZO: As a result of 17 this did you or someone under your supervision 18 have a meeting or telephone call with anybody in 19 Foreign Affairs?

20 MR. HOOPER: I know what I did. I 21 asked to meet with the CSIS delegation that had 22 been in Syria.

23 First of all, I found this
24 allegation quite surprising to me because I had a 25 great awareness and some involvement in the 1 tasking around the initial visit to Syria in 2 November and there were strict admonitions as to 3 what we would do and what we wouldn't do over 4 there, and this was not in accord with those 5 instructions.

6 So I made inquiries, and I
7 determined that the Service gave nothing to the 8 Syrian side that to my mind would logically lead 9 to this conclusion and that was conveyed back to 10 Foreign Affairs. We did not say those words to 11 the Syrians.

12 I would also point out, if I have 13 the opportunity, with this memo in front of me, if 14 you put the first thing that Ambassador 15 Pillarella's interlocutor says against the second 16 thing, (a) Mr. Arar doesn't want to come back to 17 Canada, and CSIS is happy with him staying in 18 jail, I think you have to assign the same 19 credibility to both of those statements, in my 20 mind.

21 But in any event, I was satisfied, 22 after making inquiries around this, that we didn't 23 say anything to the Syrians that would lead to 24 that conclusion on their part.

25 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Now, did you

1 yourself or did you instruct anybody under your 2 supervision to contact the Syrian Military 3 Intelligence and say, "Listen, if you have this 4 impression it is wrong. Clearly wrong"?

5 Did you do that?

6 MR. HOOPER: I did not.

7 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Could you tell us
8 why not?

9 MR. HOOPER: At that time there
10 was a couple of things that happened.

11 First of all, on January 16, 2003
12 I was aware that there was a telephone call made 13 by the Minister of Foreign Affairs to his Syrian 14 counterpart.

15 MR. CAVALLUZZO: If you go to 16 tab 15 you will see reference to that.

17 You will see this is a 18 briefing note for the Minister, who would be 19 making a telephone call to the Syrian Foreign 20 Minister. You will see on the second page, the 21 last bullet, it says:

22 "I understand from recent 23 reports that the Syrian 24 authorities may have the 25 impression that Canada has no

1 wish to see Mr. Arar return
2 to Canada. I would like to 3 make it very clear that the 4 Canadian government would 5 like Mr. Arar to be returned
6 to Canada."

7 Then on the next page, you will 8 see in the last bullet it says:

9 "CSIS has had discussions
10 with the Syrian authorities
11 concerning Arar. The 12 [Whoever] informed the 13 Ambassador that, according to 14 his information, CSIS had 15 indicated to Syrian military 16 intelligence they have no
17 wish to see Arar return to 18 Canada and are quite content
19 with the way things are."

20 Then it goes on:

21 "CSIS has informed the 22 Department that this is not 23 the case, that they only told 24 the Syrians that Arar was not 25 an active target or priority

1 for them."

2 MR. HOOPER: Correct.

3 MR. CAVALLUZZO: So this is the 4 phone call that you are referring to?

5 MR. HOOPER: That is the phone
6 call that I'm making direct reference to.

7 There are a couple of other
8 points, if I may, Mr. Cavalluzzo?

9 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Yes.

10 MR. HOOPER: So you have the phone
11 call from Minister Graham to his Syrian 12 counterpart where effectively it is pre-emptive in 13 terms of what the Service might do, because he has 14 clearly conveyed the message that the Government 15 of Canada wants Mr. Arar back.

16 Second, and I believe it was the 17 same day following that telephone call, there was 18 either a meeting or a telephone call by 19 representatives of the Geographic Division at 20 Foreign Affairs Headquarters with the Syrian 21 Ambassador.

22 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Look at tab 16, 23 in the second bottom paragraph.

24 Just let me read it for the public
25 here. It says:

1 "GMR informed Syrian
2 Ambassador Arnous of the 3 phone call. ... Ambassador
4 Arnous was well aware of the 5 discussions regarding the 6 possible visit by Mrs. Arar
7 including the request of a
8 note verbale, which we 9 informed him had already been 10 sent. Ambassador Arnous also 11 was pleased to hear that 12 Minister Graham had informed 13 his Minister that it was the 14 position of the Canadian
15 Government that the preferred
16 option is the return of Arar
17 to Canada. Arnous
18 volunteered that he had also 19 been informed that the Syrian 20 security services had been 21 told by their Canadian 22 counterparts that Canada did
23 not wish to see Arar return
24 to Canada."

25 So that we have another person

1 now, we have Khalil saying it, now we have Arnous
2 saying, "I was told the same thing, that CSIS said
3 they don't want Arar back."

4 So is this the conversation or 5 meeting you are talking about the next day, or the 6 same day?

7 MR. HOOPER: That's correct.
8 Perhaps I am preempting your walking me through 9 this evidence, Mr. Cavalluzzo, but what I would 10 also say in this regard at the same tab, tab 16, 11 there was a comment.

12 "Ambassador Arnous also was 13 pleased to hear that Minister
14 Graham had informed his 15 Minister that it was the 16 position of the Canadian
17 Government that the preferred
18 option is the return of Arar
19 to Canada."

20 I take that to mean that by the 21 time Ambassador Graham has contacted his 22 counterpart, by the time GMR has contacted 23 Ambassador Arnous, everybody is on the same page.

24 There is a third element to this 25 and I would be prepared to speak to it in camera,

1 but I would say in public testimony that quite 2 independent of our learning these facts from the 3 Department of Foreign Affairs we had information 4 from an independent source that satisfied the 5 Service that notwithstanding what may have been 6 said, by the time these calls were made, the 7 discussions were held, there was no
8 misunderstanding on the part of any Syrian entity 9 as to what the position of the Government of 10 Canada was relative to Mr. Arar.

11 So all of this to say, by 12 January 16, 2003 the Service's understanding is 13 that there is no misunderstanding by the 14 Syrian side.

15 MR. CAVALLUZZO: You told us
16 that in terms of checking out your end that you 17 talked to the people that visited Syria in 18 November 2002?

19 MR. HOOPER: Yes.

20 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Did you talk to 21 anybody else in the Service that may have had 22 contact with the SMI?

23 MR. HOOPER: No, I did not.

24 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Okay. Once
25 again, I guess an objective observer may say, you

1 know, "Hooper's making good points there. But you 2 know what? This SMI, they like to deal with 3 intelligence agencies and all it would have taken 4 is a pick up the phone and say, "Listen, Khalil, 5 get it through your head, CSIS wants Mr. Arar's 6 return."

7 I guess that wasn't done and I
8 guess your answer would be, "Well, I thought it 9 had resolved itself," through these three points 10 you are making?

11 MR. HOOPER: That's correct.

12 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Now, we 13 understand from the evidence, and I won't show it 14 to you, but it's in the redacted summary at 15 page 8, and that is that in mid-January of 2003, 16 that CSIS and other Canadian agencies became aware 17 that Mr. Arar could be imprisoned in Syria for a 18 long time and indeed could be sentenced to death?

19 You will have to say "Yes, I agree 20 with that."

21 MR. HOOPER: Yes.

22 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Now, March 21,
23 2003 -- if the witness can be shown Exhibit P-99?
24 --- Pause

25 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Now, this is, as

1 you can see, a note dated March 24th. It relates 2 to a phone call that Myra Pastyr-Lupul, who is a 3 person engaged in consular services in DFAIT, she 4 had a telephone call with Madam Catterall, whom 5 you know is a politician who eventually went to 6 Syria.

7 For those who don't have it,
8 it says:

9 "Catterall and 10 Assadourian --"
11 That is the other parliamentarian.
12 "-- met with the Syrian
13 Ambassador last Wednesday, 14 March 21. They discussed the 15 case of Maher Arar and made a 16 personal and humanitarian 17 pitch for the release of 18 Mr. Arar and asked what the 19 Syrians need for this to 20 happen."

21 Then it goes on:

22 "They learned that initially 23 during this case that CSIS
24 officials told the Syrians 25 that they have no interest in

1 Arar. The Syrians took this 2 to mean that CSIS have no
3 interest in having Arar back.
4 They may have meant that they 5 have no security reasons to 6 investigate Arar in Canada.
7 Due to the miscommunication,
8 the Syrians believed that 9 CSIS did not want Arar back 10 in Canada and therefore 11 decided to detain him, keep 12 him in Syria."

13 Then, after that description of 14 the phone call, Ms Pastyr-Lupul goes on:

15 "What we need to do now is 16 send a clear message in 17 writing to the Syrians from 18 CSIS that outlines clearly
19 that we have no information
20 which has led us to believe 21 that Arar poses a security
22 threat to Canada.
23 Furthermore, the Syrians need
24 to hear from security people 25 in DFAIT in writing and if we

1 do have any information that 2 shows any involvement in 3 terrorist activity that we 4 will charge him in Canada and 5 deal with his case through 6 the usual law enforcement 7 channels."

8 So that it would appear that a 9 little over two months after January 15th, when 10 you and others thought that the misimpression that 11 the Syrians had about CSIS's position regarding 12 Mr. Arar was still prevailing on March 21st and I 13 would ask you whether you were aware that on March 14 21st, or March 24th, or anytime thereafter that 15 this information had been received from the Syrian 16 Ambassador to Canada?

17 MR. HOOPER: I wasn't aware of 18 this memo.

19 I would like to go back a little 20 bit, Mr. Cavalluzzo, because if I understand the 21 genesis of this memorandum correctly -- and I 22 would ask you to correct me if I'm wrong -- first 23 of all, the Service never became aware of this 24 memorandum until after the commencement of these 25 proceedings and we all embarked on a disclosure

1 exercise. So these sentiments were never 2 articulated to the Service.

3 Second, my understanding is this 4 memo was generated as a consequence of a call that 5 Ms Catterall made to Ms Pastyr-Lupul after her 6 lunch with Ambassador Arnous. When I go back to 7 the testimony of Ms Catterall, I don't know that 8 the contents of this memo directly flow from 9 Ms Catterall's testimony around that lunch meeting 10 because, as I recall, Ms Catterall testified to 11 the effect that Ambassador Arnous made a statement 12 that initially there was an understanding by the 13 Syrians that CSIS didn't want Mr. Arar back in 14 Canada, and also from my understanding of that 15 testimony, that's past tense. That's initially; 16 that's then.

17 Whether Ms Catterall came back
18 with the impression that that misunderstanding
19 still existed and that was communicated to Ms 20 Pastyr-Lupul, I don't know.

21 MR. CAVALLUZZO: We will review
22 the evidence of Ms Catterall, but certainly DFAIT, 23 certainly DFAIT as of March 24th, were of the view 24 that this misimpression that the Syrians had is 25 persisting, is that this is still going on a

1 couple of months after January 15th.

2 MR. HOOPER: I would agree with 3 that. And the disclosure exercise has been 4 instructive to a lot of us, and I'm -- I guess I'm 5 surprised and a little bit troubled by the 6 longevity of this impression within certain 7 sectors of Foreign Affairs, after we thought that 8 it had been put to rest.

9 MR. CAVALLUZZO: So that no one
10 from Foreign Affairs contacted CSIS and said, 11 "This misimpression is still on," so to speak?

12 MR. HOOPER: Nobody said that to 13 us, nobody said, "Do something to fix it." As far 14 as we were concerned, after January 16th this was 15 a non-issue.

16 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Okay.

17 THE COMMISSIONER: If somebody had 18 said to fix it, let's assume they had contacted 19 you and said "This is continuing. Can you pick up 20 the phone? It may not be that simple. Talk to 21 General Khalil and tell him once and for all CSIS 22 wants him back." I know nobody did that, but is 23 that not something that could have been done?

24 MR. HOOPER: I think if you bring 25 it back to the circumstances, Mr. Commissioner, if

1 we became aware of this -- and again bearing in 2 mind that we were in an assistance mode to Foreign 3 Affairs around the whole consular process, we 4 might say to them, "Would it be helpful?" and 5 there would have to be a dialogue between 6 ourselves and Foreign Affairs, but certainly we 7 would not unilaterally, without consultation with 8 Foreign Affairs, zip something over to the Syrian 9 side. It would be the subject of consultation.

10 But I can tell you that if it were 11 of assistance, I don't believe there would be any 12 hesitation on the part of our Service to fix this.

13 MR. CAVALLUZZO: I guess in terms 14 of going through Foreign Affairs and doing it on 15 your own, it would seem to me that this is a 16 statement or an allegation that is being made 17 about the Service, it is being made by another 18 security intelligence service that you have had 19 some contact with, and it would seem to me that 20 there could be a direct contact with that entity 21 that is making these statements about you without 22 going through Foreign Affairs because the 23 allegation, once again, is being made against you.
24 You know these guys. You know that they like to 25 deal with you guys.

1 I guess my point would be, if you
2 are aware of this, I guess, you could have dealt 3 with them directly and shut it down?

4 MR. HOOPER: I think, in most 5 instances generally speaking that's true. But I 6 think there is evidence before the Commission that 7 while Syrian military intelligence apparatus might 8 have had a preference to deal with us rather than 9 a police service, there is evidence that there was 10 a much stronger relationship on the ground in 11 Damascus between Ambassador Pillarella and the 12 Syrian Military Intelligence service.

13 So all things weighed equally,
14 Ambassador Pillarella probably had a better in 15 than we did, given the state of our relationship 16 with the Syrians at the time.

17 MR. CAVALLUZZO: I am in a 18 position where I know of in-camera evidence that 19 would raise serious questions with that statement
20 and I will deal with that in camera.

21 MR. HOOPER: Okay. I would be 22 pleased to.

23 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Just a couple of 24 final questions before the break, because I want 25 to move on to the Pardy letters.

1 As I said before, the 2 parliamentarians, Assadourian and Catterall, went 3 to Damascus on April 22nd and CSIS received a 4 consular report relating to that visit.

5 you will agree with that?

6 MR. HOOPER: Yes, some time in 7 early May, first week of May.

8 MR. CAVALLUZZO: That is the other
9 document or consular report which CSIS received 10 relating to Mr. Arar.

11 Finally, before the break, if you
12 could have the witness see Exhibit P-67?

13 --- Pause

14 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Do you have that?

15 MR. HOOPER: I have that.

16 Is there an attachment to that,
17 Mr. Cavalluzzo?

18 MR. CAVALLUZZO: No. This is the 19 exhibit. And what it is, it is a facsimile, and 20 this was obtained through Access, and it is dated 21 May 21, 2003, and it states:

22 "Please find attached
23 information that was provided
24 to the ADM as he visited
25 Syria.

1 I have also been advised that
2 DFAIT ISI [something] re
3 ARAR."

4 Then it goes:

5 "Along this line, do you have 6 any questions you would like
7 posed to ARAR."

8 I'm wondering if you have any 9 information whatever relating to ISI asking CSIS 10 if they had any questions that they would like to 11 pose to Mr. Arar, who obviously at this point in 12 time is in Syria?

13 MR. HOOPER: I think this may be 14 the first time I'm seeing this, so the short 15 answer to your question is no.

16 MR. CAVALLUZZO: So that you have 17 no information whatever concerning CSIS giving 18 questions to be posed to Mr. Arar from DFAIT, or 19 any other entity for that matter?

20 MR. HOOPER: That is correct.

21 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Why don't we just 22 deal with this at this time?

23 At no time during Mr. Arar's stay
24 in Syria did CSIS visit or interview Mr. Arar?

25 MR. HOOPER: That's correct.

1 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Commissioner,
2 it's about 20 to 11:00. It may be an appropriate 3 time to take the break.

4 THE COMMISSIONER: We will take 5 the morning break for 15 minutes.

6 THE REGISTRAR: Please stand.

7 --- Upon recessing at 10:40 a.m. /

8 Suspension à 10 h 40

9 --- Upon resuming at 10:58 a.m. /

10 Reprise à 10 h 58

11 THE REGISTRAR: Please be seated.

12 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Okay.

13 Mr. Hooper, we are really into the early part of 14 2003, and we went through that note that 15 Pastyr-Lupul made that, at least from her 16 perspective, the Syrians were still under the 17 impression that CSIS was of the view that they 18 didn't want Mr. Arar back. You told us that you 19 were unaware of that note until the commencement 20 of these proceedings.

21 I would like to move on from there 22 into May of 2003, and ask if the witness can be 23 given Exhibit P-117, volume 1 -- I'm sorry, it's 24 volume 2. It's the Easter book, volume 2.

25 If you go behind tab 75,

1 sub tab 3?

2 MR. HOOPER: I have it.

3 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Okay. We have 4 heard a great deal of evidence about this 5 memorandum which was drafted by Mr. Gar Pardy who, 6 as you know, was head of Consular Affairs in 7 DFAIT. It is dated May 5, 2003.

8 Just let me highlight certain 9 portions of the memorandum and ask you questions 10 about it.

11 Once again, this is an action
12 memorandum for the Minister of Foreign Affairs.
13 The first page, under "Recommendations," just 14 referring to the first and last bullet points.

15 First one -- "Recommendations":

16 "Efforts continue to 17 establish a common 18 understanding within the 19 government of Canada on this 20 case with the objective of 21 the issuance of a statement
22 signed by the Solicitor
23 General and the Minister of 24 Foreign Affairs that could be 25 used with Syrian

1 authorities."

2 Then in the last bullet:

3 "If necessary that you meet
4 with the Solicitor General
5 and Deputy Prime Minister to 6 arrive at a common
7 understanding on the case."

8 Then on the third page, page 3, in 9 paragraph 8 it states that:

10 "CSIS officials visited Syria
11 earlier this year and 12 discussed Mr. Arar with their
13 counterparts. They did not
14 meet Mr. Arar. Subsequent to 15 these discussions Syrian
16 officials informed us that
17 they were informed by CSIS
18 officials that Canada did not
19 want to have Mr. Arar
20 returned. The CSIS officials
21 denied that they had said
22 this to the Syrians."

23 Then if you go on to the next 24 paragraph, wherein it is stated:

25 "It remains our view that the

1 following elements need to be 2 in place if there can be any 3 expectation that the Syrians
4 might be prepared to release
5 Mr. Arar and permit him to 6 return to Canada".

7 The top bullet there on page 4: 8 "there is a need for an 9 unambiguous statement by the 10 government of Canada,
11 preferably signed by the 12 Solicitor General and the 13 Foreign Minister, to the 14 effect that we have no
15 evidence in Canada, or from 16 foreign sources, that
17 Mr. Arar is or was a member
18 of al-Qaida, that we do not
19 believe that such information
20 exists and that Mr. Arar
21 should be permitted to return
22 to Canada."

23 Then, finally, in the next 24 paragraph, paragraph 10, it says:

25 "In the days ahead, our

1 efforts will concentrate on:
2 - convening a meeting of 3 Canadian officials
4 representing CSIS, RCMP, PCO,
5 and office of the Deputy 6 Prime Minister to develop a 7 common Canadian approach that 8 could be sufficiently clear
9 to communicate to the Syrian
10 authorities."

11 I would ask whether you ever saw 12 this memorandum from Mr. Pardy?

13 MR. HOOPER: No, sir.

14 MR. CAVALLUZZO: You never saw 15 this memorandum?

16 MR. HOOPER: I saw it in 17 preparation for my testimony, but I did not see it 18 before that.

19 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Okay. Now, we 20 understand that there were meetings at which CSIS
21 representatives attended on May 8th and 12th, 22 wherein this memorandum was discussed.

23 Are you aware of that?

24 MR. HOOPER: I know there were 25 meetings about that time. I accept that they

1 probably were the 8th and the 12th. We did have 2 officers attending these meetings, yes.

3 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Did you get 4 reports back from those officers as to what 5 occurred at these meetings?

6 MR. HOOPER: In general terms,
7 yes.

8 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Did these 9 officers tell you -- did these officers tell you 10 that this May 5th memo -- this May 5th memo is 11 saying that there is still ambiguity in the 12 Syrians' minds as to whether Canada wants Arar 13 returned home?

14 Did they point that out to you?

15 MR. HOOPER: No. The quality of 16 discussions I had with the people who were 17 attending these meetings were around the wisdom of 18 having the Minister of Foreign Affairs and the 19 Solicitor General being co-signatories to a letter 20 and the language that would be acceptable, in our 21 view, to the Service and to the Solicitor General.

22 But I was, in general terms, aware 23 of the tenor of the discussions and certainly 24 aware the Department of Foreign Affairs was on 25 this issue.

1 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Leaving aside the 2 discussion on language, were you aware that the 3 tenor of this memo was that the Syrians still had 4 this ambiguity in their mind as to whether the 5 Canadian government wanted Arar back or not?

6 MR. HOOPER: I know that there
7 was, within the Government of Canada, a perception 8 that the Syrians had some ambiguity around what 9 the message was.

10 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Right. And I
11 guess the question would be: If you were advised 12 of -- so if you had read this memo of May 5th, you 13 would have said, "Holy God, they still think that 14 we don't want this guy back. I had better phone 15 Khalil immediately"?

16 MR. HOOPER: If I had seen this 17 at the time that it was written, at the time that 18 these discussions were ongoing, my initial 19 reaction would be to question Mr. Pardy and say, 20 "Where is this ambiguity coming from?" Because, 21 to my knowledge, the ambiguity had been dispensed 22 with.

23 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Right. But
24 surely to God at this point in time there was only 25 one ambiguity that we are aware of, that you are

1 aware of.

2 MR. HOOPER: Yes.

3 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Surely the 4 ambiguity was coming from CSIS, and I put it to 5 you that if you had read this memo, or if you had 6 been -- if you had been advised of the contents of 7 this memo, that you would have picked up the phone 8 and called Khalil, or had somebody call Khalil, 9 and say, "Correct any ambiguity you have in your 10 mind: CSIS, along with every other entity in 11 Canada, wants Arar's return to Canada"?

12 Do you agree with that?

13 MR. HOOPER: That is the easy
14 answer, but the truth of the matter is that if I 15 saw that statement my first call would be to Gar
16 Pardy, saying, "Where is this coming from, Gar?"
17 Because, again, I don't have any information to 18 hand at the beginning of May 2003 that suggests 19 there is ambiguity. And if Mr. Pardy came back to 20 me and said, you know, "Here is the reason for 21 this," then I would say, "Well, then we have to 22 clear it up."

23 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Okay. So what 24 you are saying is that if somebody from CSIS 25 called Gar Pardy and said, "Gar, you are talking

1 about ambiguity and let's clear it up in the 2 Syrians' mind," and if Gar Pardy said, "It's you 3 guys," you would have picked up the phone, or had 4 someone contact Mr. Khalil and say, "We are on 5 board with the other entities in Canada. We want 6 him home"?

7 MR. HOOPER: Not without some 8 further consultation with ISI, Dan Livermore and 9 Jim Wright, we wouldn't do that.

10 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Okay. But 11 whatever the consultations would be, the fact is 12 that that process would have been put in place?

13 MR. HOOPER: If that was the 14 result of the consultations, yes.

15 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Do you feel that 16 you should have been advised of this very 17 important fact that we see in this May 5th memo, 18 that there is still ambiguity in the Syrians' mind 19 according to the drafter of this memo?

20 MR. HOOPER: I wish I had been.

21 MR. CAVALLUZZO: So that just to 22 be clear in my own mind, that in these meetings 23 took place wherein this memo was discussed, no one 24 from CSIS who attended these meetings came back to 25 you and said, "Mr. Hooper, there is still

1 ambiguity in the Syrians' minds"?

2 MR. HOOPER: No.

3 --- Pause

4 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Now we come back
5 to what you said before, and that is, should there 6 be a letter co-signed by your Minister, the 7 Solicitor General, and the Minister of DFAIT, with 8 the appropriate language respecting Mr. Arar, that 9 is to use the language of the memo that there is 10 no evidence in Canada or from foreign sources that 11 Mr. Arar is or was a member of al-Qaeda and so on, 12 so that that process gets into play, and I
13 understand that as a result of this that a 14 briefing note was prepared by CSIS for the 15 Solicitor General.

16 Would you go to tab 4, sub 4.
17 Much of this is redacted, but let me read you the 18 portions that are not redacted. This relates, 19 obviously, to the issue of:

20 "DFAIT is requesting that the 21 Solicitor General and the
22 Minister of Foreign Affairs
23 co-sign a letter to the 24 Syrian government to secure
25 the release of Maher ARAR

1 from Syria, where he has been 2 detained since 2002 10 21."

3 Then in terms of the discussion it 4 states:

5 "DFAIT officials hope that 6 their DM may secure ARAR's
7 release by presenting Syrian
8 authorities a letter
9 co-signed by the Solicitor
10 General and Minister Graham.
11 DFAIT officials have also 12 suggested that the Service
13 and the RCMP interview ARAR
14 while in Syrian custody. As 15 to the Syrians intent to 16 bring ARAR to trial, they may 17 view such efforts as an 18 affront to their 19 sovereignty."

20 Then we have a redacted portion, 21 and then it goes on with another consideration and 22 says:

23 "Furthermore, the US
24 Government may also question
25 Canada's motives and resolve,

1 given that they had deported
2 ARAR to Syria because of 3 concerns about alleged 4 terrorist connections."

5 Then, finally, in terms of the 6 assessment, it says:

7 "As a Canadian, ARAR is 8 entitled to expect consular 9 assistance from the 10 Government. DFAIT has 11 provided such assistance and 12 has arguably fulfilled
13 Canada's obligations;
14 therefore, if Mr. Graham were 15 to raise the issue with the 16 Syrians this could be 17 characterized as simply an 18 extension of these efforts.
19 However, as noted above, it 20 would be problematic for 21 either the Solicitor General
22 or the Service to be a party
23 to the initiative. We would 24 therefore advise very 25 strongly that you decline the

1 request to sign a joint
2 letter with Mr. Graham."

3 Now, did you participate in the 4 drafting of this briefing note for Solicitor
5 General Easter?

6 MR. HOOPER: I likely would have 7 been consulted. I wouldn't have participated in 8 the drafting, although maybe that is a play on 9 words.

10 If I can explain this? This is a
11 briefing note for the Solicitor General,
12 ministerial bilateral. At that time, Mr. Elcock 13 had fairly regular bilateral meetings with the 14 Solicitor General. The purpose of these notes was 15 to inform the Department of issues that would be 16 brought to the Minister by the Director. These 17 are prepared usually within our Director's 18 Secretariat, but they would have consulted with 19 OPS personnel, operational personnel, and myself.

20 MR. CAVALLUZZO: But in any event,
21 it had the approval of CSIS?

22 MR. HOOPER: Yes.

23 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Now, if we look 24 at the considerations that we can see in public as 25 to whether Mr. Easter should co-sign the letter,

1 the one consideration we see, it says:

2 "... the US government may 3 also question Canada's 4 motives and resolve, given
5 that they had deported ARAR
6 to Syria because of concerns
7 about alleged terrorist
8 connections."

9 Now, I call this the American
10 resolve effect; that is, if we get this guy back 11 lo and behold the Americans are going to be angry 12 with us because they will question our resolve in 13 the global war against terrorism.

14 Now, that particular 15 consideration, you would agree with me, that that 16 goes beyond having the Minister co-sign a letter.
17 That argues against Mr. Arar's return to Canada.

18 You would agree with that?

19 MR. HOOPER: No, I wouldn't,
20 Mr. Cavalluzzo.

21 If I can explain?

22 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Yes.

23 MR. HOOPER: And I think you would 24 appreciate -- you know that there was a large 25 political dimension around the Arar case. Quite

1 apart from the consular and whatever operational 2 dimensions there may have been to the case. There 3 was that political dimension.

4 We have an obligation I think, as 5 senior bureaucrats, to inform our Minister of the 6 political considerations, and that was the point 7 of that statement, to let him know that if you are 8 a co-signatory to this letter, you know, it may 9 impact upon your capacity to deal with U.S.
10 counterparts.

11 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Right. But my 12 point is -- and I agree with that, and there is 13 absolutely nothing wrong, indeed it is your duty 14 to bring forward the relevant considerations to 15 your Minister, but my point is that that 16 particular consideration once again would argue 17 against bringing Mr. Arar back at all, because if 18 we did the Americans, lo and behold, who had 19 illegally sent him in the first place, might 20 question our motives in terms of the war against 21 terrorism?

22 You must agree with that?

23 MR. HOOPER: It would probably 24 bring into question the motives of the Government 25 of Canada, but it would, in our parlance, look

1 after our Minister in terms of the process.

2 MR. CAVALLUZZO: But once again
3 you would agree with me that that argues against 4 bringing Arar back, because if we bring him back
5 we could perturb the Americans, which is a 6 legitimate consideration. But that is the effect 7 of this argument?

8 MR. HOOPER: You could argue that.
9 That wasn't the intent of the advice.

10 MR. CAVALLUZZO: What other 11 interpretation could there be?

12 MR. HOOPER: To tell him that 13 there was some political jeopardy in doing this.
14 Leave it to your colleague, the Minister of 15 Foreign Affairs. It's his responsibility.

16 MR. CAVALLUZZO: I understand
17 that, and I understand the political 18 considerations and I understand the responsibility 19 of CSIS, the responsibility of Mr. Easter, but 20 what I'm putting to you once again is there is no 21 other inference that can be drawn that this says, 22 if you bring him back, you are going to create a 23 political hot potato because the Americans are 24 going to question our resolve?

25 MR. HOOPER: I think we were

1 reconciled to that very early on when the 2 Government of Canada spoke with one voice and 3 said. Our position is we want him back. We knew 4 that if he came back there was going to be a 5 political hot potato with the Americans.

6 MR. CAVALLUZZO: With the 7 Americans?

8 MR. HOOPER: Absolutely, yes.

9 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Okay. Okay. I'm 10 satisfied with that now.

11 There is another effect. We will 12 call that the American resolve effect.

13 There is another effect that I 14 refer to as the Khadr effect. If we look to 15 tab 49 of volume 1 --

16 MR. HOOPER: I'm sorry, tab 49?

17 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Forty-nine of 18 this Book of Documents, 117. It would be volume 1 19 of 117.

20 --- Pause

21 MR. CAVALLUZZO: This is, once
22 again, a Briefing Note to the Commissioner of the 23 RCMP, which is dated April 30, 2003, which is 24 around the same time.

25 On page 2, it states:

1 "The Members of Parliament
2 are seeking the intervention
3 at the Prime Ministerial
4 level for the release of ARAR
5 and his return to Canada.
6 The lobbyists are pressuring 7 for quick intervention in an 8 attempt to effect a return
9 prior to ARAR being charged
10 by the Syrians.

11 The potential
12 embarrassment exists should 13 the Prime Minister become 14 involved in a similar fashion
15 to the incident the Egyptian
16 Embassy bombing in 1995 in 17 Pakistan. In that situation,
18 the Prime Minister intervened
19 on behalf of Ahmed Said
20 KHADR, an Egyptian-Canadian,
21 who was subsequently released
22 from Pakistani custody.

23 KHADR is now recognized
24 internationally as a
25 high-ranking Al Qaeda member

1 and wanted by the Egyptians
2 for the bombing. The 3 intervention of the PM has 4 been raised on a number of 5 occasions in an attempt to 6 embarrass the government."

7 Now, I am putting it to you that 8 it was not just the RCMP that was using the Khadr 9 effect argument in respect of the Minister --
10 Solicitor General.

11 Isn't that correct?

12 MR. HOOPER: I know there was 13 a broad awareness of what you term the Khadr 14 effect, yes.

15 MR. CAVALLUZZO: And CSIS, in 16 fulfilling its duties, would have raised the Khadr
17 effect with the Solicitor General if Mr. Arar 18 returned?

19 MR. HOOPER: I don't know
20 categorically that we did, but it wouldn't be 21 unusual.

22 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Wouldn't be 23 unusual. In fact, it is not unusual, for example, 24 if we saw documents within CSIS where the Khadr 25 effect is discussed?

1 MR. HOOPER: Probably not.

2 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Now, I have 3 looked at this Briefing Note and I see negatives, 4 to the point of, "Let's not even bring him back 5 because of the political considerations."

6 I don't see any positives in here
7 arguing on behalf of Mr. Arar's return.

8 I'm wondering why that is?

9 MR. HOOPER: In which briefing
10 note, sir, or both of them?

11 MR. CAVALLUZZO: This is the 12 Briefing Note to the Solicitor General. We will 13 leave the RCMP to defend their own position.

14 MR. HOOPER: We do talk about 15 the assistance that has been provided by the 16 Department of Foreign Affairs in fulfilling its 17 obligation and the sentiment that when we talk 18 about the DM or the Minister signing off on the 19 letter by himself, that is an extension of the 20 efforts that have already been made by the 21 department that had the responsibility for these 22 issues.

23 I think the sentiment would be 24 there is an apparatus of government that deals 25 with this, let that apparatus deal with it.

1 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Well, let me give 2 you what I would have considered to be relevant 3 considerations that CSIS should have given their 4 Minister. I am referring actually to that 5 document that we read before when CSIS deals with 6 foreign countries with poor human rights records.

7 What you might have said, "You
8 know what, Minister, on the other hand, these guys 9 over there have a propensity to torture people.
10 You know what, Minister? If we look at our level 11 of interest in Mr. Arar, it is not that great.
12 You know what, Minister, he has been there a long 13 time. He has a couple of kids, he has a wife, he 14 is a Canadian citizen. Finally, you know what, 15 Minister, the Americans had no right whatever to 16 do what they did in rendering him to Syria. You 17 should consider those things, Minister, in terms 18 of making your decision."

19 Could you tell us why those 20 considerations weren't put in this Briefing Note?

21 MR. HOOPER: Those are the 22 considerations that I am absolutely positive would 23 have been put forward by the Department of Foreign 24 Affairs to its Minister, yes.

25 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Right. Which the 1 Solicitor General would never have seen.

2 Isn't that correct?

3 MR. HOOPER: I don't know whether 4 he would have seen them or not. They would have 5 gone to the Minister of Foreign Affairs.

6 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Right. But 7 wouldn't it have been better for CSIS to have 8 brought forward these considerations to the 9 Minister that was being asked to co-sign a letter 10 for a Canadian, that from an international law 11 perspective was illegally rendered by the United 12 States and was being held for months in conditions 13 that no human being could tolerate? Don't you 14 think the Solicitor General should have heard that 15 from CSIS and/or the RCMP?

16 MR. HOOPER: We have, I think -- I 17 don't want to give a lecture on our system of 18 governance, but there is a process and there is a 19 structure that allows people to provide Ministers 20 with advice that they have expertise on.

21 Our expertise came back to, in our 22 case, matters of security intelligence.

23 MR. CAVALLUZZO: I'm sorry.

24 MR. HOOPER: In Foreign Affairs, 25 their expertise comes back to consular issues as

1 it specifically related to Mr. Arar.

2 That is how the system works.

3 MR. CAVALLUZZO: But I'm putting 4 it to you, Mr. Hooper, that to the objective
5 observer it would appear that as of May 12, 2003 6 that CSIS was negative on Mr. Arar's return to 7 Canada?

8 MR. HOOPER: No, I -- well, the 9 objective observer? I don't know. I can speak 10 for myself. I consider myself an objective 11 observer.

12 We were putting the facts as we 13 saw them before our Minister that related to his 14 responsibilities as the Solicitor General. That's 15 our obligation.

16 Would it have been better? I
17 think that is a judgment that others can make.

18 MR. CAVALLUZZO: But I don't see
19 any positives here, and I see -- and maybe, you 20 know, I think the objective observer would see 21 from this note that CSIS is negative, and perhaps 22 rightfully so. Perhaps because of CSIS's mandate, 23 CSIS would be negative on this. There is the 24 Khadr effect, which is a political consideration; 25 there is the American resolve effect; there are

1 the resource issues, if somebody comes back you 2 have to worry about another person, you already 3 have depleted resources. There may be myriad 4 reasons why CSIS would not want Mr. Arar back, 5 which are all legitimate from your perspective 6 because of your mandate.

7 I am putting it to you the 8 objective observer would see that at least at this 9 point in time CSIS is negative on his return?

10 MR. HOOPER: I can say that we did 11 nothing as a Service to dissuade any element of 12 government to get in the way of Mr. Arar's lawful 13 return to Canada. We never said, "We don't want 14 him back." We never said, "Keep him there." We 15 provided this advice to our Minister and --

16 MR. CAVALLUZZO: I think the point
17 is, Mr. Hooper, you don't have to say, "We don't 18 want him back," if the relevant considerations you 19 give to your Minister are the American resolve 20 effect, the Khadr effect, and whatever is in 21 behind these redacted volumes that we will share 22 with you tomorrow. I'm putting it to you, you 23 don't have to say you want him back. It's clear.
24 There is no other inference.

25 MR. HOOPER: My Minister is not

1 going to make that decision. That is a decision 2 of the Government of Canada, and the Government of 3 Canada had been clear on where it stood on the 4 return of Mr. Arar to Canada.

5 We wanted him back. We were not 6 in disaccord with the position of the Government 7 of Canada. We can't be.

8 MR. CAVALLUZZO: I understand
9 that. But once again I'm putting it to you that 10 there is no other inference that can be drawn that 11 at this point in time CSIS is negative upon his 12 return because of your mandate and likely because 13 of the political considerations?

14 MR. HOOPER: Well, I can't accept
15 that, Mr. Cavalluzzo.

16 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Okay, then let us 17 move on.

18 The next matter in the piece is a 19 June 3rd memorandum, and perhaps the witness can 20 be shown Exhibit P-102.

21 --- Pause

22 MR. CAVALLUZZO: We have here,
23 Mr. Hooper, actually Exhibit P-102 and Exhibit 24 P-103. Exhibit P-102 is a June 3rd memo and then 25 Exhibit P-103 is a June 5th memo, which is

1 finally -- I'm sorry, I didn't realize you didn't 2 have it.

3 Exhibit P-103, is the final draft, 4 or the final memorandum, excuse me, that goes to 5 the Minister of Foreign Affairs. Okay?

6 So June 3 is the memo leading up 7 to it, which is very similar to May 3rd -- the 8 May 5th memo, excuse me, and June 5th is the final 9 document which will be going to the Minister.
10 Okay?

11 I would ask whether you saw, read,
12 or were apprised of the June 3rd memo, the draft?

13 MR. HOOPER: Not at the material
14 time, sir, no.

15 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Were you apprised
16 of the June 5th final memorandum that went to the 17 Minister?

18 MR. HOOPER: No, sir.

19 MR. CAVALLUZZO: You never saw
20 that?

21 MR. HOOPER: Not until the 22 commencement of these proceedings.

23 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Were you apprised
24 that there was a memorandum that Pardy had worked 25 out, after months of preparation, that was

1 co-signed by the Deputy Minister and that was 2 going to recommend that the Minister of Foreign 3 Affairs sign a letter to the Syrian Foreign 4 Minister with language to which neither CSIS nor 5 the RCMP had any objections to?

6 MR. HOOPER: I knew that, yes.

7 MR. CAVALLUZZO: You knew that.
8 Okay.

9 But you didn't read, once again,
10 either Exhibit P-102, which is the June 3rd, or 11 Exhibit P-103, which is the June 5th memorandum?

12 MR. HOOPER: No, sir.

13 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Okay. Well, let 14 me just share with you its content, other than 15 ultimately there is going to be a letter going to 16 the Minister. Just, if we can just save some 17 time. For example, if you refer to page 3, there 18 is a great deal of background that is set out 19 there --

20 THE COMMISSIONER: Is this the 21 June 3rd one?

22 MR. CAVALLUZZO: No, the June 5th.
23 Let's work with the final document.

24 At page 3, you will see in 25 paragraph 9, for example, it says:

1 "From the early days of this
2 case, Canadian police
3 officials ... (CSIS)
4 initially indicated it had no
5 interest in Mr. Arar), stated
6 that their interest in Arar
7 was based on his contacts
8 with persons in Ottawa who 9 were of interest to them."

10 Then it refers to the RCMP's 11 interests, which we have reviewed extensively with 12 other witnesses.

13 Then it goes on in the next 14 paragraph to talk about what the Americans are 15 saying and so on.

16 And then in paragraph 11, it goes 17 on and talks about:

18 "CSIS officials visited Syria
19 earlier this year and
20 discussed Mr. Arar with their
21 counterparts. They did not
22 meet Mr. Arar. Subsequent to
23 these discussions, Syrian
24 officials informed us that
25 they were informed by CSIS

1 officials that Canada did not
2 want to have Mr. Arar
3 returned. The CSIS officials
4 denied that ..."

5 And in 12:

6 "It is evident that we have 7 little or no leverage with 8 the Syrian authorities on 9 this"

10 Okay? This is DFAIT talking, 11 which probably would include Mr. Pillarella. But 12 in any event, this is DFAIT talking.

13 "It is evident that we have
14 little or no leverage with
15 the Syrian authorities on 16 this case. Our 17 representations, including 18 your telephone conversation 19 with the Foreign Minister and 20 your subsequent letter to 21 him, have not elicited formal 22 responses. Rather in the 23 intervening months, the 24 Syrians have hardened their 25 position and, as indicated

1 above, threaten to formally
2 charge Mr. Arar and conduct 3 some sort of a trial, most 4 likely a military one held in 5 secret."
6 And so on and so forth.
7 Finally, in paragraph 13, it says:
8 "In recent days, we have 9 discussed the case with both 10 CSIS and the RCMP. They have 11 maintained their position
12 that Mr. Arar, while not 13 under investigation in 14 Canada, is a person of 15 interest to them because of 16 the evidence of his 17 connection with others who 18 are. In these circumstances, 19 they will not provide any 20 direct support in having 21 Mr. Arar returned to Canada.
22 Should Mr. Arar return to 23 Canada, CSIS and the RCMP
24 have both indicated that they 25 want to interrogate him. As

1 such, the best we can do in 2 these circumstances is to 3 again raise the matter with 4 the Syrian Foreign Minister 5 and to that end we have 6 attached a letter for your 7 signature. We would also 8 recommend that you call in 9 the Syrian Ambassador..."

10 So what we see from this letter is 11 that DFAIT has really thrown their hands up and 12 said, "We have no leverage with the Syrians, 13 Syrian authorities. CSIS and the RCMP will not 14 provide us with direct support. And I guess all 15 we can do is send this letter again to the 16 Minister of Foreign Affairs, with language that 17 says, 'there is no Canadian government impediment 18 to his return.'" And that is, in effect, where 19 the process ended up.

20 Now, the question that I would 21 have for you is: In this light, seeing that DFAIT 22 is getting nowhere, got no leverage -- were you 23 aware of that, by the way?

24 MR. HOOPER: Aware of...?

25 MR. CAVALLUZZO: That DFAIT's

1 position in June, early June, is they have no
2 leverage -- or excuse me, "little or no leverage
3 with the Syrian authorities"?

4 MR. HOOPER: I didn't know that 5 was DFAIT's position, but I would certainly agree 6 with it. I don't think anybody at that point in 7 the Government of Canada had any leverage with the 8 Syrian government.

9 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Now, I come back.
10 I have given you some, what I view to be, relevant 11 considerations that your Minister may have had, 12 because it was clear -- you would agree with me 13 that a letter signed by the Solicitor General and 14 the Minister of Foreign Affairs would have more 15 impact than a letter coming from Foreign Affairs?

16 MR. HOOPER: I don't agree with
17 that, Mr. Cavalluzzo.

18 MR. CAVALLUZZO: You don't?

19 MR. HOOPER: No. In my 20 experience, if you want to have greater impact, 21 you don't push it sideways, you push it up. You 22 can roll in any number of Ministers of the Crown; 23 I don't think it would have a broader impact than 24 if it came from the Minister of Foreign Affairs.
25 That is my view on it.

1 MR. CAVALLUZZO: I am putting it
2 to you, if you are dealing with Syrian Military 3 Intelligence who like to deal with security 4 intelligence agencies, that a letter that was 5 signed by their Minister, the Minister responsible 6 for them, would have far more impact than a letter 7 solely signed by the Minister of Foreign Affairs?

8 MR. HOOPER: I think I need to 9 point out the context of the Syrian Military 10 Intelligence Service liking to deal with 11 intelligence services. They have a preference for 12 dealing with intelligence services more than law 13 enforcement services. So that is really the 14 context that that comes from.

15 I don't know that the Syrians
16 understand our system of governance, our system
17 of Cabinet and political accountability. I 18 just don't think that it would have made a 19 difference, period.

20 MR. CAVALLUZZO: They don't like 21 dealing with politicians, they like dealing with 22 security agencies.

23 Let me just give you -- you have 24 read the evidence. Let me give you some of the 25 evidence here about how intelligence agency in

1 Syria viewed the Minister of Foreign Affairs.

2 We have evidence from Minister
3 Bill Graham, who testified that in October of this 4 year, 2003 he met the Syrian Foreign Minister at 5 the U.N. and he said to the Syrian Foreign 6 Minister, "Listen, if you guys want us to 7 cooperate in business, industry, trade, and so on, 8 you are going to have to cooperate with us and get 9 Arar back to Canada." And the Syrian Foreign 10 Minister says, "Yes, we are working on it, Bill.
11 We are working on it." And right beside him was a 12 member of the intelligence agency of Syria, and 13 they said, "Arar is not coming back."

14 MS McISAAC: Excuse me, sir, I'm 15 not sure we know who the gentleman was beside the 16 Foreign Minister. I think Mr. Graham was 17 speculating as to who he might be.

18 MR. CAVALLUZZO: I will accept
19 Mr. Graham's testimony as speculation on that. I 20 wasn't there. I would assume that a person in the 21 Minister's position would likely know who was 22 there.

23 In any event, assume Mr. Graham 24 was correct. This intelligence guy says -- the 25 Syrian Foreign Minister is standing right beside

1 him -- he says, "Arar is not coming back to 2 Canada. His wife has caused so much trouble.
3 It's not going to happen." Here is Mr. Graham 4 taken aback, saying, "Here is an intelligence guy
5 basically overriding the Syrian Foreign Minister 6 right in front of me."

7 That gives you some flavour, at 8 least in the evidence we have, as to the role of 9 the Syrian Military Intelligence and the Foreign 10 Minister over there.

11 Let me give you some more 12 evidence.

13 MR. HOOPER: I wasn't aware of 14 that evidence, by the way.

15 MR. CAVALLUZZO: You weren't?

16 MR. HOOPER: Not at the time.

17 MS McISAAC: Did Mr. Cavalluzzo
18 make that clear, that that was merely a month 19 before Mr. Arar did, in fact, return.

20 THE COMMISSIONER: I thought
21 he did, yes.

22 MR. CAVALLUZZO: I thought he did.

23 Let me give you some more evidence
24 we have. We had evidence from the DFAIT
25 officials, saying that the Syrian Military

1 Intelligence told us that if you want to see Arar 2 again you are going to have to go through the 3 Syrian Foreign Minister. The DFAIT officials 4 said, "Oh, God, whenever we deal with them we 5 never hear back. We have sent them five 6 diplomatic notes. We don't have an answer on any 7 of them."

8 Does that not indicate to you that 9 the Syrian Military Intelligence are the guys to 10 be dealing with on this file?

11 MR. HOOPER: It indicates to me
12 that the Syrians are a tough gang to deal with, no 13 matter how you cut them.

14 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Now, I come back.
15 I come back.

16 In terms of your Minister once
17 again, and I am not going to spend any more time 18 as to whether it would have made a difference if 19 CSIS or the Solicitor General co-signed a letter 20 for the Syrian Military Intelligence or for the 21 Syrian Foreign Minister, whoever.

22 But a couple of other relevant
23 considerations that I think CSIS should have 24 brought before the Solicitor General in terms of 25 whether he should co-sign.

1 One would be, "You know,
2 Minister, this poor guy was illegally removed 3 from the United States through whatever policy 4 they had. And you know what else, Minister, we 5 have information that it was because of 6 Canadian information that he was detained in 7 the United States. So, Minister, I think the 8 Canadian government has some responsibility, 9 quite apart from the human rights record, torture, 10 unbelievably poor living conditions, but it 11 was --"

12 MS McISAAC: I'm going to have to 13 object, Mr. Commissioner. This is a quite unfair 14 characterization. We do not know why the 15 Americans detained Mr. Arar.

16 MR. WALDMAN: Mr. Commissioner, 17 there is in evidence the letter that was addressed 18 from the Assistant Deputy Minister.

19 THE COMMISSIONER: I think it's 20 okay. I think Mr. Cavalluzzo can answer.

21 MR. WALDMAN: I'm sorry.

22 THE COMMISSIONER: Go ahead, if 23 you would like to answer it, Mr. Cavalluzzo.

24 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Mr. Hooper, 25 let me tell you what evidence we do have from

1 the Americans.

2 We have evidence from the second
3 highest person in the American government, at that 4 time his name was Colin Powell, Secretary of 5 State, who advised Minister Graham on December 1, 6 2003 that Mr. Arar would not have been on the 7 American radar screen if it wasn't for Canadians.

8 Did you know that?

9 MR. HOOPER: There was, I think,
10 considerable media reporting around that, so, yes, 11 I was aware of that.

12 MR. CAVALLUZZO: I come back then.
13 Don't you think a relevant consideration in terms 14 of CSIS's participation or the Solicitor General's 15 participation in this letter, are those two 16 important facts as well, illegally removed from 17 the United States, perhaps based on Canadian 18 information and Canadian interest, to a place that 19 no one would want to go to? Do you think that 20 might be a relevant consideration that should have 21 been brought before the Minister?

22 MR. HOOPER: Mr. Arar has been 23 known to have been in Syria for about seven months
24 to this point. There has been considerable media 25 reporting around his circumstances of arrest,

1 removal, and what he's confronting in Syria.

2 My understanding is that virtually 3 everybody in government knows the facts that 4 you're putting forward to me now.

5 The note that we put to our 6 Solicitor General was around the specific issue of 7 a letter that was under consideration to be sent 8 by the Government of Canada to the Government of 9 Syria, right? So ...

10 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Okay, okay. Now,
11 we're at June 5th, and on this day we've heard 12 evidence that you made a telephone call --

13 MR. HOOPER: Yes.

14 MR. CAVALLUZZO: -- to Ms
15 McCallion?

16 MR. HOOPER: Yes.

17 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Do you admit that 18 you made a telephone call?

19 MR. HOOPER: I acknowledge I made
20 a telephone call around that time. I don't have a 21 specific date, but June the 5th, I wouldn't argue 22 against.

23 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Do you have any 24 notes of that telephone call?

25 MR. HOOPER: No, I do not.

1 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Do you have any 2 record of that telephone call?

3 MR. HOOPER: No.

4 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Either from 5 yourself or from your assistant?

6 MR. HOOPER: No.

7 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Okay. Now --
8 okay. It's around this time. We've heard 9 evidence yesterday that it was on or around June 10 5th.

11 Now, could you tell us why you 12 called Ms McCallion?

13 MR. HOOPER: There's a few
14 things -- I know what my agenda was in calling Ms
15 McCallion, and I had one, and there were basically 16 three points -- three or four points that needed 17 to be made, and I think it's relevant for you to 18 know that I didn't know Ms McCallion. I have no 19 recollection of having any previous interaction 20 with her. But before I made the phone call, I 21 know that she has ADM line responsibility for 22 consular affairs.

23 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Okay.

24 MR. HOOPER: It's also in the 25 context of the negotiations around the letter that

1 was being presented to the Minister, as we 2 understood it.

3 First point I wanted to make to 4 Ms McCallion, apart from telling her who I was and 5 what I did, was I wanted to make sure that she 6 understood where my Service was coming from when 7 it made the points that (a) we did not want our 8 Minister or we would prefer that our Minister did 9 not sign that letter, and why we wanted certain 10 language or certain things said the way we wanted 11 it.

12 My concern, coming back to that 13 point, was that I know that the officials involved
14 in that discussion -- I wouldn't call them 15 relatively junior, but they were mid-manager up to 16 the DG level, if Mr. Pardy was involved in those 17 discussions, as I'm sure he was. I wanted to make 18 sure that she was not under any misapprehension 19 whatsoever as to why we were coming from a 20 particular point of view.

21 That was important to me, and it
22 was important to me because of the second point I 23 wanted to make with her, and that came back to 24 Mr. Arar is not the last case that you and I are 25 going to have to talk about because there were, to 1 my mind, I won't specify the number, but --

2 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Eleven.

3 MR. HOOPER: There was a lot of 4 Canadians detained abroad that had some kind of 5 security intelligence linkage to them. A lot of 6 them dual nationals. So Mr. Arar was a complex 7 case. We had a number of others coming down the 8 pipe at us. And I wanted to assure, or assure 9 myself, that she was aware that she hadn't seen 10 the end of any of these.

11 The third was I wanted to make a 12 point that we had to work out a way, not just 13 myself and Ms McCallion, but the Government of 14 Canada had to have a process that worked better in 15 terms of engaging interested parties at the 16 appropriate times and at the appropriate levels.
17 So those were effectively the three points that I 18 needed to make with -- or I felt I needed to make 19 with Ms McCallion.

20 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Now, was there
21 any discussion at all about Arar?

22 MR. HOOPER: Only insofar as the 23 Arar case kind of being the platform for the 24 discussion. It wasn't in terms of, you know, how 25 are we going to manage Arar, it was, "Here's my

1 Service's point of view in providing advice
2 relative to the letter that Mr. Graham was going 3 to send over."

4 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Now, why would 5 you have called McCallion, and not who I refer to 6 as Mr. Consular Affairs, Gar Pardy?

7 MR. HOOPER: Actually, my first
8 call wasn't to Mr. Pardy. I tried to get a hold 9 of Jim Wright, who was the ADM that I had more 10 regular interaction with.

11 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Right.

12 MR. HOOPER: And Mr. Wright was 13 not available. I wanted to go through Jim, 14 Mr. Wright, in the first instance because I knew 15 he and I were on the same page. I knew there was 16 no misunderstanding in Mr. Wright's mind as to 17 where the Service was coming from.

18 My point was to have him do some 19 what I call missionary work with his colleagues 20 over at the Foreign Affairs department, to kind of 21 sell our case and make sure that people at senior 22 levels understood, if there was any 23 misunderstanding coming from lower levels, that we 24 didn't object to Mr. Arar coming back, that the 25 objections we had were around language used in the 1 letter.

2 When he wasn't available, I
3 decided to do the missionary work myself.

4 MR. CAVALLUZZO: You still haven't
5 answered the question: Why wouldn't you call
6 Mr. Pardy who, of course, knows consular affairs 7 like no one else in the country, let alone the 8 government? Why didn't you call him?

9 MR. HOOPER: Ms McCallion would 10 have been my ADM counterpart over there, and she 11 had responsibility for the program so --

12 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Did you know that 13 Ms McCallion had very limited knowledge of this 14 issue?

15 MR. HOOPER: No, I didn't know
16 that. I understand that now. I perhaps made the 17 mistake of putting our bureaucratic governance
18 model over Foreign Affairs, but I presume the ADM 19 responsible for the program would be engaged.

20 MR. CAVALLUZZO: But you told us 21 before that you had known Pardy for a number of 22 years?

23 MR. HOOPER: Yes.

24 MR. CAVALLUZZO: And the evidence
25 from McCallion yesterday would appear to be that

1 Pardy gave her a heads-up that you would be 2 calling her. Do you know how Pardy got that 3 impression?

4 MR. HOOPER: I have no idea.

5 MR. CAVALLUZZO: You have no idea 6 how that -- did he suspect that you might call, or 7 is there --

8 MR. HOOPER: I don't know, because 9 I hadn't had a lot of direct interactions with 10 Mr. Pardy on the Arar case. I don't recall if I 11 spoke to him once. It certainly wouldn't have 12 been more than that.

13 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Now, how long did 14 the phone call last?

15 MR. HOOPER: I don't know.
16 It's -- I don't like to talk a lot on the phone.
17 Just knowing what I wanted to get out to Ms 18 McCallion, I would figure -- my estimation would 19 be around ten minutes.

20 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Okay. Now, you
21 said that Mr. Arar would be the first of a trail
22 of possible cases that CSIS would have to deal 23 with. I assume what you meant by that is that if 24 all of these guys -- I assume they're all guys. I 25 don't know. We'll look at that --

1 MR. HOOPER: Yeah.

2 MR. CAVALLUZZO: -- all of these 3 guys come back to Canada, that if they're threats 4 to the security of Canada, then CSIS, under its 5 statute, has to do whatever it has to to ensure 6 that they aren't a threat to the security of 7 Canada i.e., to conduct some kind of operation in 8 respect of them.

9 Isn't that correct?

10 MR. HOOPER: That may have been a
11 feature of the conversation. When I said, 12 indicated, to her that Mr. Arar's case would not 13 be the last, it was not that we would have to 14 manage, I meant we, Foreign Affairs, the RCMP, the 15 Government of Canada. But I take your point.

16 MR. CAVALLUZZO: You take my 17 point.

18 MR. HOOPER: Yeah.

19 MR. CAVALLUZZO: And that is, from 20 her perspective, if I was sitting in her shoes, 21 what I would see, I would say, "You know what, 22 he's talking about a person power issue. Like 23 every other department, their resources are being 24 depleted and lo and behold, they could have 25 another 11 guys back on their plate and they need

1 that like a hole in the head --"

2 MS McISAAC: Commissioner, again
3 I'm having some trouble here. Ms McCallion 4 testified yesterday as to what her side of the 5 conversation was. So I don't think it's fair for 6 Mr. Cavalluzzo to now say, well, you can see how 7 she could have taken this when, as I recall her 8 evidence, she didn't take that from the 9 conversation.

10 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Well, you know,
11 if you want me to put it another way, okay, I 12 think you understood where I was coming from, but 13 in any event --

14 MR. HOOPER: I know your point,
15 and I'd go back to your earlier comment, where I 16 think you said in the previous question CSIS will 17 do what CSIS has to do, and at the end of the day, 18 if we're confronted with 11 or 15 or 25 new 19 targets on the ground in Canada, we're going to do 20 what we have to do. We might not like it --

21 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Absolutely.

22 MR. HOOPER: But we're going to do
23 what we have to do.

24 MR. CAVALLUZZO: You don't like it 25 for a number of reasons, there are political

1 considerations that we talked about. But you
2 would also agree with me that there are resource 3 issues.

4 MR. HOOPER: There's always 5 resource issues. Always.

6 MR. CAVALLUZZO: But you've got 11
7 added resource issues if these guys come back to 8 Canada, right?

9 MR. HOOPER: Absolutely.

10 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Now, let's move
11 on in terms of this conversation.

12 You would also agree with me that 13 one of the concerns that CSIS had in this 14 situation was that if Arar returned to Canada and 15 he had stated that "I was mistreated in Syria, I 16 was tortured in Syria," or whatever, "I had a 17 small prison cell in Syria," that that could 18 contact on CSIS's mandate in respect of security 19 certificate cases.

20 Isn't that correct?

21 MR. HOOPER: It's certainly a 22 consideration. If he comes back and makes those 23 allegations, it would make it very difficult for 24 us to engage the full process considered under a 25 certificate.

1 MR. CAVALLUZZO: That's right.
2 Because, of course, what you're going to have is 3 every time you try to ship somebody to Syria under 4 a security certificate, they're going to raise the 5 issue of mistreatment and torture and that's going 6 to cause a problem for CSIS, and I assume that was 7 discussed with McCallion as well --

8 MR. HOOPER: No.

9 MR. CAVALLUZZO: -- that 10 ramification down the line?

11 MR. HOOPER: No.

12 MR. CAVALLUZZO: You didn't 13 discuss that?

14 MR. HOOPER: No.

15 MR. CAVALLUZZO: But it is a 16 consideration in your mind?

17 MR. HOOPER: Absolutely.

18 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Now, the other 19 thing you said you wanted to discuss with her is 20 that there's a need for a mechanism in government 21 to ensure that in the future these kinds of cases 22 are better dealt with, presumably from a 23 coordination kind of basis, from a consultation 24 kind of basis.

25 Is that fair?

1 MR. HOOPER: Yes.

2 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Okay. Were you
3 aware that Gar Pardy had prepared such a document?

4 MR. HOOPER: I wasn't, but I think
5 that speaks to the acute pain we were all feeling.

6 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Let me just show
7 you a document, which is dated April 7th of 2003.

8 THE COMMISSIONER: 238.

9 EXHIBIT NO. 238: Memorandum
10 prepared by Mr. Pardy,
11 co-signed by the Deputy
12 Minister of Foreign Affairs,
13 regarding "Improving
14 coordination across 15 government on 16 security-related consular
17 cases"

18 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Now, this is a
19 memorandum that was prepared by Mr. Pardy,
20 co-signed by the Deputy Minister of Foreign 21 Affairs, and the issue is "Improving coordination 22 across government on security-related consular
23 cases."

24 And, one, the background is 9/11
25 and so on, and I won't read that to you, but it

1 goes on in terms of paragraph 3 in 2 "Considerations." It says that:
3 "You will recall on February
4 24th officials briefed you 5 and several members of your 6 staff on this matter and 7 distributed a deck detailing 8 the background and 9 initiatives the department
10 would be undertaking. Since 11 then we have consulted with 12 the Director of CSIS, the 13 Deputy Solicitor General, the 14 Commissioner of the RCMP, and 15 senior officials at PCO and 16 Justice. There was a 17 consensus on the need for 18 closer consultation and 19 cooperation to achieve a more
20 coherent systematic approach
21 to security-related consular
22 cases. It was further agreed 23 that when such cases arise in 24 the future, when necessary 25 deputies will consult with

1 each other, exchange
2 information ..." (As read)
3 And so on and so forth.

4 I guess I'm asking you: At the 5 point in time when you made the telephone call to 6 McCallion, were you aware that Mr. Pardy had 7 already addressed the issues that you wanted to 8 deal with McCallion?

9 MR. HOOPER: I had a vague recall.
10 There's a reference here to a meeting of deputies, 11 and I do recall, in general terms, a deck having 12 been presented.

13 So I know the issues had been 14 floated. I personally didn't see any tangible 15 difference resulting as a consequence of those 16 February 24th discussions.

17 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Did McCallion say 18 to you, "Well, you know what, Jack? Gar Pardy has 19 already produced a memorandum on this"?

20 MR. HOOPER: I don't recall her 21 saying that.

22 MR. CAVALLUZZO: She probably 23 didn't know about it. She clearly didn't say 24 anything about it?

25 MR. HOOPER: No.

1 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Okay. If you go
2 to the page behind -- it's not numbered, but maybe 3 if we look at the bottom, 4 of 7, it's got 4 supplemental information on security-related 5 consular cases, and you'll see it says:

6 "At this time there are 11
7 cases of Canadian citizens
8 detained abroad in connection 9 with the war on terrorism or 10 the war in Afghanistan. And 11 these include: One in 12 Algeria, two in Egypt, one in 13 France, one in Israel, one in 14 Libya, two in Syria, one in 15 the United States and one in 16 the United 17 States/Guantanamo." (As 18 read)

19 So at the point in time when you
20 called McCallion, we're talking about 11 Canadians 21 detainees abroad related to the war on terrorism, 22 and Mr. Arar is really the first. As you put it, 23 the first of many possible problems?

24 MR. HOOPER: Yes.

25 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Now, in light of

1 your conversation with McCallion, is it fair to 2 say that the other participant to this 3 conversation would have left this conversation 4 thinking that these cases could pose a resource 5 problem for CSIS?

6 MR. HOOPER: That wasn't the point
7 of my discussion.

8 MR. CAVALLUZZO: That's not the 9 question. Is it fair to say that they could have 10 walked away with that impression?

11 MR. HOOPER: Sure.

12 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Okay. Is it also 13 fair to say that the other participant to this 14 conversation may have gotten the message that CSIS
15 did not want Arar back, for all of the reasons 16 we've discussed to this point in time -- listen to 17 the question. The political considerations that 18 we talked about, Khadr effect, U.S. resolve issue, 19 resource problems, and whatever other reasons that 20 CSIS may not want him back? Do you think that 21 that, even though it wasn't said expressly, that 22 it's possible that a participant walking away from 23 that said, "You know what? I get the clear 24 impression that CSIS doesn't want this guy back"?

25 MR. HOOPER: No, to the contrary.

1 I mean, one of the very clear messages that I 2 wanted to get to Ms McCallion at the outset of our 3 conversation was, (a) we never told the Syrian 4 that we didn't want him back, and (b) we accept 5 the position of the Government of Canada that he's 6 got to come back. That's it. I can't take any 7 other position, Mr. Cavalluzzo.

8 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Let me put it to 9 you, then. You're saying that this 10 miscommunication problem was discussed with 11 McCallion?

12 MR. HOOPER: I think it comes back 13 to the consultations around the language that was 14 to be used in the letter, and there were various 15 iterations of -- there was basically one line in 16 there that had various iterations, and I think 17 there was some -- certainly there was a lot of 18 speculation around January that we, nudge-nudged, 19 wink-winked at somebody has said, "We don't want 20 him back." And I needed her to know that was 21 never our position. Never. (a) we never said we 22 didn't want him back, (b) we never said we didn't 23 want a letter to go. Our concern was the accuracy 24 of the statements contained in the letter.

25 MR. CAVALLUZZO: But, Mr. Hooper,

1 you would agree with me that you don't have to say 2 you don't want him back. If you're only bringing 3 forward to your Minister negative considerations, 4 without bringing forward all of those positive 5 aspects that I reviewed with you, you would agree 6 with that?

7 MR. HOOPER: We've -- I guess
8 we've had that discussion. But as it relates to 9 the telephone call with Ms McCallion, I don't 10 think she had any way of knowing what went forward 11 by way of advice to our Minister apart from the 12 fact that our position had always been a 13 preference for the Minister of Foreign Affairs to 14 send a letter and that the language in the letter 15 be accurate.

16 MR. CAVALLUZZO: And you probably 17 were of the view that the letter was a done deal?

18 MR. HOOPER: As far as I was 19 concerned --

20 MR. CAVALLUZZO: As far as the 21 bureaucracy is concerned, it's gone too far down 22 the line.

23 MR. HOOPER: Just -- the 24 negotiations around the language, by my reckoning, 25 would have finished sometime around the middle of 1 May.

2 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Right.

3 MR. HOOPER: If I'm phoning
4 Kathryn McCallion on June the 5th, my 5 conclusion -- and it's hard for me to cast my mind 6 back there, because I wasn't concerned about where 7 the letter was.

8 MR. CAVALLUZZO: But don't you --

9 MR. HOOPER: I have to presume it 10 was on, it was done.

11 MR. CAVALLUZZO: But don't you
12 agree with me that at this point in time that you 13 thought that consular affairs had gone too far in 14 the case of Arar?

15 MR. HOOPER: Too far in what 16 respect?

17 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Asserting his 18 case, asserting his case, getting the politicians 19 involved?

20 MR. HOOPER: I don't think too
21 far. I think out ahead of the rest of government 22 might be a more apt description, and it comes back 23 to coordination.

24 We have a bunch of departments and 25 agencies of government that have different vested

1 interests in the Arar case, and I think absent
2 strong, high-level central direction, everybody 3 was proceeding down parallel tracks and they 4 weren't intersecting enough.

5 And I think from where I sat, a 6 more optimal situation would have been clear 7 direction, "You do this," "You do that," "You guys 8 are responsible for that." That was, you know, my 9 discontent with the way the case had been managed 10 to that point.

11 MR. CAVALLUZZO: So you were 12 dissatisfied with the way consular affairs had 13 pursued its mandate in the sense that, as you put 14 it, they had gotten too far ahead of the rest of 15 government?

16 MR. HOOPER: By that I mean 17 probably the consultative mechanisms that should 18 have applied to the case, when you have different 19 departments and agencies interested, ought to be 20 engaged more frequently at the right times.

21 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Right.

22 MR. HOOPER: The first point of 23 discontent comes back to our not even knowing 24 about Mr. Arar's detention until he had been in 25 New York for six days. From my point, I don't

1 know that that's an optimal scenario.

2 MR. CAVALLUZZO: It certainly 3 isn't. And of course DFAIT found out about it
4 through a phone call on, I guess, September 29th
5 or October 1st or whatever. The RCMP knew before 6 the guy landed. Now, obviously the RCMP did not 7 notify CSIS of this. But in any event, that's -- 8 you know, that's another problem.

9 Anyway, let us then move on from 10 the phone call. We understand that you had a 11 briefing on June 13th through Mr. Peter Harder, 12 who became the Deputy Minister of DFAIT?

13 MR. HOOPER: Yes.

14 MR. CAVALLUZZO: And in terms of 15 this letter that was going to go, what happens, 16 and if I can just tell you what the evidence is 17 and then ask you a question about it. What 18 happens is that Mr. Pardy sends the letter up to 19 the Minister's office, and the Minister's office 20 says, "Pardy, the language isn't strong enough.
21 What's this 'no Canadian impediment'? That and a 22 dime won't get you cup of coffee in Damascus."

23 MS McISAAC: Mr. Commissioner, 24 he's editorializing the question, and that is 25 unfair to the witness, and it's unfair to the 1 process, and it's unhelpful, both to you and to 2 the public.

3 An e-mail was sent back with very 4 specific wording. What the discussions in the 5 Minister's office were that led to that e-mail, 6 how they characterize it, is not a matter before 7 you. Mr. Cavalluzzo is simply editorializing and 8 speculating.

9 THE COMMISSIONER: As I recall the 10 evidence, it was that they thought the language 11 wasn't robust enough. I know somebody used the 12 word "robust."

13 MS McISAAC: That, "and a dime
14 won't get you a cup of coffee," and all that sort 15 of stuff is completely unhelpful and unnecessary.

16 MR. CAVALLUZZO: That's just 17 Mr. Cavalluzzo's way of asking a question. I 18 withdraw the coffee point, and if I offended you, 19 Mr. Hooper, I apologize.

20 MR. HOOPER: No need to apologize.
21 I'm hard to offend.

22 MR. CAVALLUZZO: So am I.

23 Now, what happens is that there is 24 a process that goes on. The Minister meets
25 Dr. Mazigh, who, as you know, is Maher Arar's

1 wife, there's a meeting, and then when the letter
2 goes to the Minister's office, the Minister's 3 office goes back to Pardy and says the language is 4 not strong enough -- robust enough, excuse me, not 5 robust enough. And they say why don't you try the 6 language of: "There is no evidence that Mr. Arar 7 is engaged in terrorist activities," words to that 8 effect. And the Minister's office said, "Could 9 you please check this out with the RCMP, CSIS, and 10 the Solicitor General's Department?"

11 And what happened there is that 12 wording was worked out between CSIS and the RCMP, 13 and just so I get the exact wording for you, let 14 me refer to the exhibit.

15 Just let me read it to you. This 16 is the language that was proposed from the 17 Minister's office:

18 "I assure you that there is 19 no evidence he is involved in 20 terrorist activity, nor is 21 there any Canadian government
22 impediment to Mr. Arar's
23 return to Canada." (As read)

24 So that's the language that was in 25 play in respect of CSIS and the RCMP.

1 And then language was worked out,
2 and this is sent to Gar from Scott Heatherington.
3 Do you know who he is?

4 MR. HOOPER: Yes.

5 MR. CAVALLUZZO: And it says:

6 "Gar, you will recall our 7 meeting of May 8 and 12. The 8 situation has not changed 9 since that time and as a 10 result the RCMP and CSIS have 11 concerns with the wording 12 proposed by some of the 13 Minister's advisors for your 14 draft letter. Both the Force
15 and the Service agree that 16 the following would be 17 accurate: 'Mr. Arar is 18 currently the subject of a 19 national security
20 investigation in Canada.
21 Although there is not 22 sufficient evidence at this 23 time to warrant Criminal Code
24 charges, he remains a subject
25 of interest. There is no

1 Canadian government
2 impediment to Mr. Arar's
3 return to Canada.'" (As 4 read)

5 Now, did you have any 6 participation in coming up with that language?

7 MR. HOOPER: No, sir.

8 MR. CAVALLUZZO: You would agree
9 with me that if General Khalil saw that language, 10 that Mr. Arar would still be in Syria?

11 MR. HOOPER: That's hard for me
12 to --

13 MR. CAVALLUZZO: They're tough
14 boys, as you said.

15 MR. HOOPER: Yeah, and it's hard 16 for me to know what goes through their minds at 17 any given time, so I really can't comment.

18 MR. CAVALLUZZO: But you would 19 agree with me that it really wouldn't be helpful
20 language to get Mr. Arar returned to Canada?

21 MR. HOOPER: There's one of two 22 ways -- this would be highly speculative, so I 23 perhaps shouldn't answer.

24 --- Pause

25 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Now I would like

1 to just refer finally, before we move on in this 2 area, to Mr. Pardy's evidence in public.
3 Mr. Pardy's evidence was really threefold: First,
4 that language was not helpful, was not helpful --

5 MR. HOOPER: Which language? The 6 end language?

7 MR. CAVALLUZZO: The "subject to 8 national security investigation."

9 MR. HOOPER: Okay.

10 MR. CAVALLUZZO: That language.

11 First of all, he said, it wouldn't 12 be helpful in getting his return to Canada.

13 Secondly, he said, by this time
14 RCMP and CSIS had hardened their position, and he 15 said the reason why -- one of the reasons, in his 16 view, why they hardened their position is because 17 of all the media attention that Mr. Arar's case 18 was getting, and I give you the opportunity to 19 comment on his views.

20 MR. HOOPER: First of all, I 21 wouldn't characterize our position as having 22 hardened. If trying to ensure that the language 23 that does go over is accurate, if that constitutes 24 hardening that's -- I just can't agree with that.

25 In terms of the media attention, I

1 can't really situate what was going on around that 2 time, but I do recall that virtually from the time 3 that Mr. Arar was found in Syria, found to be in 4 Syria, the profile that it had in the media was 5 high, so I don't know, to my mind, that I can make 6 a distinction between the quality of the media 7 attention the case was receiving around that time
8 versus, say, January of 2003. So I don't know 9 that I can agree with any of those statements.

10 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Now, did you
11 become aware that the Prime Minister was going to 12 get involved in the Arar situation by sending an 13 envoy over to Damascus with a Prime Ministerial 14 letter in July?

15 MR. HOOPER: No, I was not aware
16 of that.

17 MR. CAVALLUZZO: You weren't aware 18 of it?

19 MR. HOOPER: Not during July, no, 20 or not leading up to that.

21 MR. CAVALLUZZO: So that no one
22 sought CSIS's advice as to whether that was a good 23 idea?

24 MR. HOOPER: Not to my knowledge.

25 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Now, I'd like to

1 then move on. Maybe just one final question
2 relating to the phone call, and that is that you
3 raise, in my view, a very important policy issue, 4 and that is the conflicting -- perhaps conflicting 5 mandates between RCMP and perhaps CSIS on the one 6 hand, DFAIT on the other hand, in terms of 7 consular access rights that Canadian detainees 8 have.

9 I think you would agree with me
10 that how Canada approaches that issue, taking into 11 account human rights, on the one hand, national 12 security concerns on the other hand, is a policy 13 decision --

14 MR. HOOPER: Yes.

15 MR. CAVALLUZZO: -- you would 16 agree with that?

17 MR. HOOPER: Yes.

18 MR. CAVALLUZZO: I think you would 19 also agree with me it's such an important policy 20 decision that that decision should be made by 21 politicians who are accountable to the people 22 after a full public debate?

23 MR. HOOPER: Yes.

24 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Thank you. I
25 wonder if you might give the witness exhibit

1 P-117, volume 1, unless you have it?

2 MR. HOOPER: I have it.

3 --- Pause

4 MR. CAVALLUZZO: And I'd ask you,
5 Mr. Hooper, to refer to tab 23. We are still in 6 the month of June of '03. And you've seen this, 7 no doubt, before. This is a memorandum, a draft
8 memorandum, of Mr. Gould, who testified yesterday
9 as to this memorandum. Once again, it's a draft 10 memorandum that was only shared with a few of his 11 colleagues, but I'd like to read a portion of it 12 to you, and that is the last paragraph on the 13 first page. It states:

14 "There is not sufficient
15 evidence against Arar for him
16 to be charged with anything
17 in Canada. CSIS has made it 18 clear to the Department that 19 they would prefer to have him
20 remain in Syria, rather than 21 return to Canada."

22 And then it goes on.

23 Now, Mr. Gould testified that he 24 didn't talk to you; however, he said he made this 25 statement in writing as a result of his impression

1 of the telephone call between you and McCallion, 2 and what he was told about that telephone call, as 3 well as conversations he had with CSIS people at 4 meetings, as well as in-camera evidence that he 5 could not refer to publicly yesterday.

6 And I'm wondering, does that 7 surprise you, that Mr. Gould would get the 8 impression from discussions with CSIS people that 9 the preferred option for CSIS is that Mr. Arar 10 remain in Syria?

11 MR. HOOPER: Yes.

12 MR. CAVALLUZZO: That surprises
13 you?

14 MR. HOOPER: Yes.

15 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Now, once again,
16 if we look at all the considerations, we've talked 17 about, the Khadr effect, the American resolve 18 effect, resource issues, don't you think that 19 that's discussed that someone walking away would 20 say maybe legitimate? They've got their mandate.
21 But you know what? It appears that CSIS prefers 22 that this guy remains in Syria. Do you think 23 that's reasonable?

24 MR. HOOPER: I can say 25 categorically, that this was never the position of

1 the Canadian Security Intelligence Service.
2 Never. So how Mr. Gould arrived at this 3 conclusion, I don't know.

4 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Well, perhaps he 5 arrived at that position from listening to CSIS
6 people that said, "I just read that briefing note 7 to the Solicitor General, and this is what we've 8 told him. We've told him American resolve, we've 9 got to be concerned with the Americans if this guy 10 comes back, and you know what happened four or 11 five years ago with Mr. Khadr, we get the guy back 12 and lo, four or five months later, we find out 13 he's the second in command to Osama bin Laden. We 14 can't have that happen. We would be embarrassed, 15 we would be embarrassed in the international 16 community with respect to the war against 17 terrorism."

18 So those are the kinds of 19 considerations that may have been discussed and 20 someone walking away from the table said, "well, 21 you know what, I think that they would prefer that 22 he stay there?"

23 MR. HOOPER: Do you remember,
24 Mr. Cavalluzzo, when I started talking around my 25 agenda for calling Ms McCallion, it's for

1 precisely those reasons. Somebody coming away 2 from a discussion with that conclusion and from 3 that imputing an institutional position on the 4 part of the Canadian Security Intelligence Service 5 I think is a huge leap, and an unfair leap, and 6 part of my conversation with Ms McCallion was to 7 ensure that she understood where the Service was 8 coming from. Not from discussion around the pit 9 when people are having coffee, but 10 institutionally, this is where we're coming from.

11 MR. CAVALLUZZO: That indicates to 12 me, Mr. Hooper, that you were attempting to 13 correct an impression that CSIS may not want 14 Mr. Arar back. Is that what you're saying?
15 That's why you called, and one of the reasons why 16 you called was that you were trying to correct 17 that impression?

18 MR. HOOPER: There's a whole -- 19 well, there's a number of things going on --

20 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Before you get 21 into the number, was that one of them?

22 MR. HOOPER: Any mistaken
23 impression?

24 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Yes.

25 MR. HOOPER: I was concerned that

1 coming out of the negotiations around the language
2 of the proposed letter -- I've been in discussions
3 like that before on a whole bunch of issues, and I 4 know the things that get said, and how they get 5 said in those meetings. And I had a concern that 6 there may have been some inaccuracies put up out 7 of briefings because the discussions were -- they 8 were difficult.

9 MR. CAVALLUZZO: And I guess I
10 come back to what I said earlier, and this is the 11 last time I'm going to ask you about it, and that 12 is, it seems to me that the best way -- the best 13 way in this instance of resolving that 14 misimpression, misunderstanding and so on, is for 15 CSIS to pick up the phone and call Khalil and say, 16 "General, you got it wrong." And you never did
17 that?

18 MR. HOOPER: If I conclude that 19 there is any misunderstanding on the part of the 20 Syrians. I was more concerned that there was 21 misunderstanding in the messaging that was going 22 up to Ms McCallion from people at middle levels of 23 the Department of Foreign Affairs. That's where 24 the misunderstanding might have resided in my 25 mind.

1 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Is that why you
2 didn't call Mr. Pardy?

3 MR. HOOPER: No.

4 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Did you think
5 that Mr. Pardy had done a number and you were 6 going to go around Mr. Pardy and go to McCallion?

7 MR. HOOPER: No, not at all. I've 8 known Gar, Mr. Pardy, for a long time. I wanted 9 to talk to a colleague at the ADM level, not to 10 Mr. Pardy. I wanted to talk to his boss.

11 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Why? Why would 12 you want to talk to Pardy's boss?

13 MR. HOOPER: Because it comes back
14 to the point, Mr. Cavalluzzo, when we're talking 15 about strong, high-level central coordination of 16 these cases, it's not Mr. Pardy that's going to 17 apply that. It's going to be ADMs providing 18 advice to DMs.

19 MR. CAVALLUZZO: You see, the 20 problem with that, at least I'm having trouble 21 understanding, is that here we have -- and I'm not 22 being disrespectful. Here we have Mr. -- in fact, 23 I think it was Bill Graham, the Minister at the 24 time, call him Mr. Consular Affairs. Here we have 25 Mr. Consular Affairs. He's the guy that's written

1 the book on most things relating to consular 2 affairs, including the very issue you wanted to 3 raise with McCallion on more coordination across 4 government. You've known the guy for many years.
5 You've never spoken to McCallion before. You have 6 no idea what she knows about it. And I just have 7 that question in my mind: Well, why would he do
8 that?

9 MR. HOOPER: I would take offence,
10 if you put the shoe on the other foot, if Ms 11 McCallion picked up the phone and phoned one of my 12 Directors General. She has a level of interaction 13 that's at my level. Same with me.

14 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Surely we're not 15 coming down to a bureaucratic issue --

16 MR. HOOPER: That's where the 17 issue was. So, yes, we are.

18 MR. CAVALLUZZO: We are? We've 19 got a man that's been in Syria for nine months 20 now, subject to inhumane conditions, and we're 21 worried about dealing across a bureaucratic line?
22 Is that what we're saying?

23 MR. HOOPER: No. I'm not saying,
24 and I think it would be wrong to conclude, that 25 we've reduced Mr. Arar's case to a bureaucratic

1 exercise.

2 I think a lot of us thought we 3 could do better and there had to be a way of doing 4 better, and I chose to engage the person at 5 Foreign Affairs that had ADM responsibility and 6 could have some influence in effecting policy.

7 MR. CAVALLUZZO: I have,
8 Mr. Hooper, a couple of final questions, and this 9 can be very quick.

10 As you know, in the fall of '03,
11 there was an alleged leak to CTV News on 12 October 24th; there was another alleged leak to 13 the Ottawa Citizen on or about November 8th of 14 2003; and I understand, in accordance with its 15 policies, that CSIS conducted an internal review 16 in order to assess, first of all, the damage the 17 leaks may have caused as well as trying to 18 determine what happened?

19 Is that correct?

20 MR. HOOPER: That's correct.

21 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Okay. And I
22 understand that as far as those administrative -- 23 excuse me, administrative reviews are concerned, 24 that that was overtaken by criminal charges laid 25 in respect of particularly the November 8th leak?

1 MR. HOOPER: I think the criminal 2 investigation kind of overtook the administrative 3 review that was being conducted.

4 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Okay.

5 Commissioner, it's almost 6 lunchtime. I think I've completed my direct 7 examination, subject to one question concerning 8 leaks that I would like to speak to my friend 9 about.

10 THE COMMISSIONER: Okay.

11 MR. CAVALLUZZO: And perhaps I 12 have another question for Mr. Hooper after the 13 break.

14 THE COMMISSIONER: Okay. Should 15 we take --

16 MR. CAVALLUZZO: I think it would 17 be appropriate to take the break at this time.

18 THE COMMISSIONER: -- the lunch
19 break? For an hour and fifteen is okay for today?

20 MS McISAAC: Just one housekeeping
21 matter. Sorry. I don't think we marked the April 22 memorandum as an exhibit.

23 THE COMMISSIONER: Oh, thank you.

24 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Thank you.

25 THE COMMISSIONER: What number

1 would that be then, Monsieur le Greffier?

2 THE REGISTRAR: 239.

3 THE COMMISSIONER: 239.

4 --- Off microphone / Sans microphone

5 THE COMMISSIONER: Oh, it was?

6 --- Off microphone / Sans microphone

7 THE COMMISSIONER: I have this one
8 as 238. Is that the same one?

9 MS McISAAC: I don't recall -- I'm 10 sorry. I missed when it was marked.

11 THE COMMISSIONER: Okay? So we 12 will break till a quarter to two.

13 THE REGISTRAR: Please stand.

14 --- Upon recessing at 12:23 p.m. /

15 Suspension à 12 h 43

16 --- Upon resuming at 1:50 p.m. /

17 Reprise à 13 h 50

18 THE REGISTRAR: Please be seated.

19 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Mr. Commissioner,
20 just in closing, I've spoken to my friend
21 Ms McIsaac, and it relates to an allegation or a 22 complaint made by Mr. Waldman regarding a Toronto 23 Star article written by James Travers, and was 24 published in The Toronto Star I think on June 9th 25 of 2005. Mr. Waldman alleged that there had been

1 a breach of security as a result of the press
2 report.

3 As a result of his complaint, I
4 asked CSIS to conduct an inquiry in respect of 5 that allegation, and yesterday I received a letter 6 from CSIS, from the Assistant Director Corporate, 7 who advises after a review of the matter that CSIS 8 stated that there has been a breach of security.
9 However --

10 THE COMMISSIONER: A leak of 11 confidential information?

12 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Yes, that's 13 correct. And as a result, the view is that 14 because the information is such that hundreds of 15 people would have access to that information, that 16 an investigation into it would not be feasible 17 because we would be dealing with hundreds of 18 people, hundreds of interviews, and as a result of 19 resource issues and so on, it was felt not 20 practical to proceed with that investigation.

21 I will file that letter with the 22 Commission as an exhibit. I do not have it with 23 me today, but I will forward a copy to my friend.
24 Thank you.

25 THE COMMISSIONER: Thank you,

1 Mr. Cavalluzzo.

2 Mr. Waldman?

3 MR. WALDMAN: That was one area I
4 was going to cover, so thank you. That shortens 5 my cross-examination a little bit.

6 THE COMMISSIONER: How much?

7 --- Laughter / Rires

8 THE COMMISSIONER: How long do you 9 expect to be?

10 MR. WALDMAN: I don't know. I'm 11 not even going to try and guess.

12 THE COMMISSIONER: Well, no --

13 MR. WALDMAN: A few hours.

14 THE COMMISSIONER: I beg your 15 pardon?

16 MR. WALDMAN: A few hours.

17 THE COMMISSIONER: You are going 18 to be two hours?

19 MR. WALDMAN: A few hours, yes.

20 THE COMMISSIONER: Well...

21 MR. WALDMAN: Mr. Cavalluzzo
22 usually covers almost all of the areas that I want 23 to cover but today he left quite a few, so I think 24 I will be a bit. I don't think there is anything 25 I'm going to cover that isn't relevant.

1 THE COMMISSIONER: Okay.

2 MR. WALDMAN: We will see.

3 EXAMINATION

4 MR. WALDMAN: I just want to start
5 with some questions about the period when the file 6 was transferred.

7 We know from the CSIS summary that 8 is public that it was about a month or within a 9 month of September 11th that the CSIS files were 10 transferred to the RCMP and they started the 11 OCanada and A-OCANADA investigations?

12 MR. HOOPER: That's correct.

13 MR. WALDMAN: And we know from 14 other information that at least with respect to 15 the A-OCANADA investigations, now on the public 16 record, that there were two targets, Mr. Almalki 17 and Mr. El Maati, and that Mr. Arar was not a 18 target at that time?

19 MR. HOOPER: I won't go into 20 public testimony around who was or was not a 21 target, if the inference is that they were 22 targeted by our Service.

23 MR. WALDMAN: Well, I think the 24 evidence was that the -- at least the documents 25 suggested that they were targets and they were

1 transferred from CSIS to the RCMP.

2 MR. HOOPER: That's correct.

3 MR. WALDMAN: Right. And the 4 evidence was that Mr. Arar was not a target.

5 MR. HOOPER: Do you have -- I'm 6 sorry. Do you have a document that you are 7 referring to there, sir?

8 MR. WALDMAN: Well, you just said
9 in evidence that when you went to Syria, you told 10 the Syrians Mr. Arar wasn't a target and he wasn't 11 a priority? Isn't that what you said just a few 12 minutes ago?

13 MR. HOOPER: I think we said that 14 Mr. Arar was known to our Service. Perhaps if 15 you --

16 MR. WALDMAN: Well, if I'm not 17 mistaken, this morning you said Mr. Arar was not a 18 target, nor a priority. And there are documents 19 to that effect as well.

20 MR. HOOPER: Perhaps I'm 21 misunderstanding the question.

22 MS McISAAC: Mr. Commissioner, if 23 I could just put some parameters around what my 24 understanding is we are prepared to have 25 Mr. Hooper say.

1 Mr. Hooper is prepared to say, as 2 he just did, that Mr. Arar was known to the 3 Service, but he is not going into any details as 4 to whether Mr. Arar, or any other individual, was 5 or was not a target of the Service, either before 6 September, after September, or at any period of 7 time. Those are matters we are simply not 8 prepared to confirm or deny or give any further 9 information on in the public record.

10 THE COMMISSIONER: Thank you.

11 MR. WALDMAN: I guess I'm just a 12 bit surprised because my understanding was that 13 Mr. Arar was not known to the Service until 14 October 12th, when he was seen at the Mango Cafe.

15 You are not prepared to confirm or 16 deny that. Is that the position?

17 MR. HOOPER: I won't make any 18 comment on any meeting at any Mango Cafe, sir.

19 MR. WALDMAN: Well, let's go on 20 then and deal with -- it gets a bit frustrating 21 trying to ask questions when everything is "I 22 can't answer that", but we will try our best.

23 So we know that the information
24 was transferred, and at least as far as the RCMP 25 has told us, they have told us that the two main

1 targets were Mr. Almalki and Mr. El Maati. That's 2 on the public record. Whether they were your 3 targets or not, I don't care.

4 And we also know that files were 5 transferred, and that the first time the RCMP 6 became aware Mr. Arar was on October 12th. That's 7 also on the public record. Okay.

8 So I know that you are not going 9 to tell us anything about the pre-transfer period 10 in terms of your investigation, because it will 11 all be subject to an NSC claim, but I want to go 12 back to the evidence you gave last year --

13 MR. HOOPER: Yes.

14 MR. WALDMAN: -- about the 15 difference between an intelligence, CSIS work and 16 the RCMP work.

17 MR. HOOPER: Yes.

18 MR. WALDMAN: And I just wanted to 19 ascertain whether -- I'm going to try and 20 summarize -- I read your evidence. If you 21 disagree with what I'm saying, then you will let 22 me know; right?

23 CSIS gathers intelligence for the 24 purpose of advising its partners; right?

25 MR. HOOPER: Correct. Advising

1 government.

2 MR. WALDMAN: The different
3 partners in government?

4 MR. HOOPER: Yes.

5 MR. WALDMAN: And the RCMP gathers
6 intelligence mostly for the purposes of gathering 7 evidence for a criminal prosecution?

8 MR. HOOPER: Correct.

9 MR. WALDMAN: And generally 10 speaking CSIS gets involved much earlier in the 11 game, and the RCMP will get involved later on when 12 it's moving towards prosecution and there is some 13 overlap.

14 Is that a fair --

15 MR. HOOPER: That's typically the 16 case, and I recall that being my evidence.

17 MR. WALDMAN: So in the period up
18 until the transfer of the information by the RCMP, 19 the status of the file was an 20 intelligence-gathering operation?

21 MR. HOOPER: That's correct.

22 MR. WALDMAN: So up until 9/11,
23 the view of CSIS was that this was an intelligence 24 operation; correct?

25 MR. HOOPER: Correct.

1 MR. WALDMAN: There was no talk of 2 transferring the files to the RCMP prior to 9/11;
3 correct?

4 MR. HOOPER: That's correct.

5 MR. WALDMAN: Is it not also 6 correct that it was only after 9/11 that the 7 decision was made to transfer these files to the 8 RCMP?

9 MR. HOOPER: That's correct.

10 MR. WALDMAN: And is it also true
11 that the decision to transfer the files was made 12 in the aftermath of 9/11, as a result of 9/11 and 13 the upheaval that was caused by that?

14 MR. HOOPER: That's largely
15 correct, yes.

16 MR. WALDMAN: So that it's fair to 17 say that the decision to transfer the files was 18 made in the context of the very strong post-9/11 19 period?

20 MR. HOOPER: The post-9/11 period
21 and the threat environment at the time, yes.

22 MR. WALDMAN: Right. And there 23 was no decision prior to 9/11 to transfer these 24 files; correct?

25 MR. HOOPER: That's correct.

1 MR. WALDMAN: Or discussion of
2 that?

3 MR. HOOPER: Discussion of the 4 transfer of files?

5 MR. WALDMAN: Of these files.

6 MR. HOOPER: No, no.

7 MR. WALDMAN: And we know that the 8 threshold for intelligence is lower than criminal 9 investigation, or you told us that?

10 MR. HOOPER: Yes.

11 MR. WALDMAN: And we know that
12 once the file was transferred the RCMP created 13 A-OCANADA for the purposes of gathering evidence 14 for criminal prosecution; correct?

15 MR. HOOPER: As it relates 16 specifically to A-OCANADA. You will recall that 17 O-Canada was a precursor to A-OCANADA.

18 MR. WALDMAN: I only care
19 A-OCANADA. A-OCANADA was formed, and its purpose
20 was to gather evidence. The RCMP has told us 21 their two main targets were Mr. Almalki and Mr. El 22 Maati. You don't have to comment on that.

23 The RCMP has also told us that 24 they didn't know Mr. Arar at all until they saw 25 him at the Mango Cafe.

1 MR. HOOPER: Fine.

2 MR. WALDMAN: We also know that a
3 great deal of investigative resources have been 4 expended on the A-OCANADA investigation. There 5 has been a lot of evidence to that effect as well.

6 And we also know that Mr. Almalki
7 and Mr. El Maati were both detained in Syria and 8 subject to interrogation there. I gather you are 9 aware of that fact?

10 MR. HOOPER: Yes.

11 MR. WALDMAN: And we also know 12 that Mr. Almalki and Mr. El Maati are both back in 13 Canada now?

14 MR. HOOPER: Yes.

15 MR. WALDMAN: And that no charges
16 have been laid against them or Mr. Arar as of this 17 point. Is that correct?

18 MR. HOOPER: That's correct.

19 MR. WALDMAN: Now if we go back to 20 the difference between an intelligence
21 investigation and one involving the RCMP, I think 22 we agree that the main difference is 23 intelligence-gathering versus intelligence for 24 prosecution; correct?

25 MR. HOOPER: It's probably more

1 complex than that but I accept that that is the 2 basic theme.

3 MR. WALDMAN: And I think you
4 testified last year that intelligence operators 5 need a different type of expertise when they are 6 engaging in pure intelligence exercises as opposed 7 to criminal investigators dealing with criminal 8 prosecutions?

9 MR. HOOPER: I think that's
10 correct.

11 You were speaking rather 12 quickly --

13 MR. WALDMAN: People who are 14 working for CSIS have a different expertise and a 15 different set of skill-sets than RCMP
16 investigators?

17 MR. HOOPER: And vice versa, yes.

18 MR. WALDMAN: You would agree with 19 that?

20 MR. HOOPER: Yes.

21 MR. WALDMAN: And you have told us
22 that there is a great deal of training that a CSIS 23 operator requires before he can become a skilled 24 operative?

25 MR. HOOPER: We talked extensively

1 about that, yes.

2 MR. WALDMAN: I don't know if you
3 are aware of this evidence, but I think it's fair
4 to say that we received evidence -- and I'm 5 speaking of Sergeant Flewelling, for example -- 6 that after 9/11, the RCMP was overwhelmed with the 7 amounts of tips they got through Project Shock and 8 they had to reallocate resources, and indeed
9 Sergeant Flewelling told us that at the CID
10 intelligence centre that there were constant 11 complaints about the lack of resources and people 12 were being reallocated. In fact, he told us that 13 at one point he had to supervise a whole bunch of 14 inexperienced officers that were brought in.

15 So that at the CID level there was 16 a constant concern about getting qualified people
17 to oversee A-OCANADA.

18 Were you aware of that evidence?

19 MR. HOOPER: I wasn't aware of the 20 evidence. The facts of the matter wouldn't 21 surprise me.

22 MR. WALDMAN: Right. And indeed
23 you told us that you sent one CSIS person to 24 assist A-OCANADA?

25 MR. HOOPER: That's correct.

1 MR. WALDMAN: I think the Garvie
2 report talked about a lack of experienced 3 investigators in national security matters from 4 the RCMP. That's what is in the Garvie report?

5 MR. HOOPER: Yes.

6 MR. WALDMAN: Right. And would 7 you not agree with me that after 9/11 there was a 8 great deal of pressure to act quickly as a result 9 of the perceived threats?

10 MR. HOOPER: Absolutely.

11 MR. WALDMAN: I would ask you 12 this, sir. Given four years have past without any 13 charges being laid against the two principal 14 targets of the A-OCANADA investigation, would you 15 not agree with me that if there were enough 16 evidence to sustain charges, charges would in all 17 likelihood have been laid?

18 MR. HOOPER: Typically that's what 19 happens, yes.

20 MR. WALDMAN: So that four years
21 into the A-OCANADA investigation, there still 22 isn't enough evidence to sustain charges, correct, 23 or they would have been charged?

24 MR. HOOPER: A reasonable person
25 would conclude.

1 MR. WALDMAN: Right. So wouldn't 2 you agree with me then, sir, that given four years
3 have passed since the decision to transfer, no 4 charges have been laid, in light of what we have 5 just gone through, the fact that the A-OCANADA 6 team didn't have the experienced investigators, 7 they had a different skill-set, wouldn't you agree 8 with me that the decision to transfer the files 9 was premature? It was a wrong decision made in 10 the light -- made in the height of 9/11?

11 MR. HOOPER: I can see why you 12 would make that conclusion, but I think the 13 conclusion ignores the context of the immediate 14 post-9/11 environment, which I have testified to 15 extensively.

16 MR. WALDMAN: Right. So in the 17 context of the post-9/11 environment and the 18 pressures, that was why the decision was made, but 19 clearly, in retrospect, it probably wasn't the 20 right decision?

21 MR. HOOPER: No. I think from 22 where I sit, one of the fundamental considerations 23 around engaging law enforcement on these targets
24 which were the principles of OCanada and A-OCANADA 25 revolved around what we could do with an

1 intelligence-led investigation. We knew the 2 principals. We knew about them. We knew what 3 their inter-associations were. We had beliefs 4 around what they were up to, and continued
5 surveillance in the pure context of a security 6 intelligence investigation was unlikely to lead to 7 any more information that would advance the case.
8 We had taken it about as far as we could.

9 In consultation with law
10 enforcement, I think there was a mutual agreement 11 that what these individuals were doing fit better 12 within the law enforcement model than a security 13 intelligence kind of investigation.

14 MR. WALDMAN: But by transferring 15 the files, you transferred the files to an 16 organization that was overwhelmed, didn't have the 17 skill-sets that were required, didn't have the 18 proper supervisory controls in place. I would 19 suggest to you that, as a result, a whole series 20 of serious problems occurred, and I want to take 21 you to them.

22 For example, I would suggest to 23 you that what we have been calling the data dump 24 of April 2002, where all this information was 25 handed over by the RCMP to American partners

1 without caveats, including evidence presumably 2 that might have come from CSIS in breach of your 3 understanding, wouldn't have happened if you had 4 been running the operation.

5 Wouldn't you agree with me that 6 you would never have sanctioned or authorized or 7 permitted the kind of data dump that occurred?

8 MR. HOOPER: That's not something
9 we do as an organization.

10 MR. WALDMAN: And you wouldn't 11 have allowed it to happen if it had been on your 12 watch; correct?

13 MR. HOOPER: No.

14 MR. WALDMAN: Now, another point 15 that I want to deal with is the whole question of 16 the targeting.

17 You are not going to tell us in 18 specifics, but you would agree with me -- I mean, 19 in the context of this investigation, the RCMP
20 investigation, Mr. Arar has been referred to as a 21 peripheral person of interest, a person of 22 interest, a target of a national security 23 investigation, and a potential witness.

24 In fact, when RCMP operators have 25 been asked, they haven't really been able to

1 explain the difference and it has created, in our 2 minds at least, a great deal of confusion.

3 Is it not true that in the CSIS 4 process there is a process that you described in 5 great detail last year about creating targets that 6 go through a very careful screening process, and 7 that if it were a CSIS investigation, that kind of 8 targeting procedure would have been in place;
9 correct?

10 MR. HOOPER: We have what I
11 consider to be a very rigorous process, yes.

12 MR. WALDMAN: And it's very 13 rigorous and leads to clearly defined targets?

14 MR. HOOPER: Clearly defined
15 targets, and clearly defined investigative 16 techniques that can be used in the 17 investigation --

18 MR. WALDMAN: With respect to 19 those targets?

20 MR. HOOPER: Yes.

21 MR. WALDMAN: Right. And not this 22 kind of fuzzy situation that we see in the 23 different references that were made to Mr. Arar;
24 correct?

25 I mean, you wouldn't call someone

1 in the same investigation a potential target, a 2 possible target, a peripheral target, and a 3 target; right? He is either a target or he is 4 not?

5 MR. HOOPER: In our terminology
6 you are a target or you are not.

7 MR. WALDMAN: If this had been a
8 CSIS investigation, the confusion about the status 9 of the parties of the investigation that exists 10 here wouldn't have existed; correct?

11 MR. HOOPER: The process tries to 12 avoid that kind of confusion, yes.

13 MR. WALDMAN: Thank you very much.

14 The second area I wanted to cover
15 was this -- and Mr. Commissioner, things are going 16 a lot faster than I thought, so maybe I overstated 17 my time. Mr. Hooper and I don't seem to be 18 disagreeing on too many things so far.

19 MR. HOOPER: Well, we will see.

20 --- Laughter / Rires

21 MR. WALDMAN: After the 22 investigation was transferred, it was my 23 understanding that CSIS was less involved in the 24 investigation of the targets, but continued to 25 pass on evidence from time to time.

1 Is that correct?

2 MR. HOOPER: Correct.

3 MR. WALDMAN: Or information, not 4 evidence. We had this whole debate last year.
5 You pass on information; right?

6 MR. HOOPER: Correct.

7 MR. WALDMAN: I just want to 8 clarify one point on this matter, because some of 9 us were discussing this during the break and we 10 are a bit confused.

11 The evidence is you had a CSIS
12 person go and was sent to be part of the A-OCANADA 13 team; right?

14 MR. HOOPER: Correct.

15 MR. WALDMAN: Did he report back 16 to CSIS from time to time about the investigation?

17 MR. HOOPER: No.

18 MR. WALDMAN: That was not his 19 role at all?

20 MR. HOOPER: That was not his job, 21 no. Those weren't his terms of reference. He was 22 there as a secondee to the RCMP, so he effectively 23 came under the administrative and operational 24 ambit of the RCMP.

25 MR. WALDMAN: I think I remember

1 asking you last year, and you said that if he 2 would have come back to CSIS and gone into your 3 database, he would have been fired because that 4 wasn't what his role was?

5 MR. HOOPER: I don't think I said
6 he would be fired, but I would deal with it.

7 MR. WALDMAN: You would deal with 8 it, okay. So that if he heard on September 26th 9 that Mr. Arar was about to be detained, it wasn't 10 his role to call you up, or to call someone at 11 CSIS up and say, "Hey, one of the peripheral 12 persons of interest in the A-OCANADA investigation 13 is about to be detained"? You wouldn't expect --

14 MR. HOOPER: Again, he was an 15 employee of the RCMP at that time.

16 MR. WALDMAN: Thank you.

17 So the information that you 18 provided to the RCMP from time to time would have 19 been subject to caveats; right?

20 MR. HOOPER: They were, yes.

21 MR. WALDMAN: That's right. And 22 the information provided was not information that 23 would be admissible in a court of law; correct?

24 MR. HOOPER: Typically it's not,
25 no. That's not what -- I mean, it's not passed

1 with that intent.

2 MR. WALDMAN: So I take it from 3 this that the RCMP never objected to receiving 4 documents, or information, or intelligence from 5 CSIS because it wasn't admissible?

6 MR. HOOPER: Not to -- well, let 7 me be careful on that. With specific reference to 8 the material that was passed during the life of 9 A-OCANADA, not to my knowledge.

10 But I do have to acknowledge that 11 it's a debate that we have all of the time with 12 law enforcement as to whether or not they actually 13 want to receive information from us if it could 14 impact on a criminal prosecution.

15 MR. WALDMAN: Right. But with 16 respect to the A-OCANADA investigation, you are 17 not aware of them complaining to you, "Don't give 18 us this information, it's not going to be 19 admissible." Rather, they would take the 20 intelligence and use it as they saw fit, as far as 21 you are aware?

22 MR. HOOPER: As far as I'm aware,
23 yes.

24 MR. WALDMAN: So that if CSIS
25 operatives got information that they thought might

1 be relevant to the A-OCANADA investigation that 2 was not admissible, you will still tell your 3 operatives to pass it on to A-OCANADA, I assume.
4 There would be no reason not to?

5 MR. HOOPER: Sometimes it comes 6 both ways. If we develop information that we 7 think may be useful to the RCMP, there is a 8 process of disclosure that I talked about. In 9 other cases, the RCMP may actively elicit from us 10 information that may bear on their targeting, on 11 their investigations.

12 MR. WALDMAN: Part of the evidence
13 before us also indicated that one of the mandates 14 of the RCMP with respect to the A-OCANADA 15 investigation was criminal prosecution, and the 16 other mandate was prevention.

17 That was your understanding as 18 well?

19 MR. HOOPER: Correct.

20 MR. WALDMAN: And indeed the 21 primary one, I think we were told, was prevention?

22 MR. HOOPER: That's correct.

23 MR. WALDMAN: So that intelligence
24 that would shed light on potential terrorist 25 threats to the A-OCANADA investigation would be

1 important to them?

2 MR. HOOPER: Correct.

3 MR. WALDMAN: So that evidence
4 that was received only for -- that couldn't be 5 used in a criminal intelligence would not be 6 useless information to A-OCANADA if it was useful
7 intelligence; correct?

8 MR. HOOPER: I think I lost you
9 there, Mr. Waldman.

10 First of all, I just want to 11 clarify, we don't pass evidence --

12 MR. WALDMAN: No, I'm sorry. I 13 said it backwards.

14 Information that you got would 15 still be useful to you -- would still be useful to 16 A-OCANADA even if it wasn't admissible
17 information?

18 MR. HOOPER: I would hope, yes.

19 MR. WALDMAN: So what would you
20 say to Inspector Cabana's evidence that he chose 21 not to interview Mr. Arar because the intelligence 22 that he might -- or the information he might have 23 received, due to the conditions imposed by the 24 lawyer, wouldn't have been admissible? That was 25 the only reason why he rejected the evidence?

1 Would it not have still been 2 useful intelligence?

3 MR. HOOPER: I really can't 4 comment on Mr. Cabana's position on that. He was 5 the lead of A-OCANADA. If he said that, I'm sure 6 he had good reasons for it.

7 MR. WALDMAN: But in your view, 8 information that may not be admissible but is 9 relevant to the investigation is still useful;
10 correct?

11 MR. HOOPER: That's my view
12 sitting from my side of the fence. It's easy for 13 me to make that call.

14 MR. WALDMAN: Well, you are the 15 one we are cross-examining today, not Inspector 16 Cabana.

17 I think this is a simple question,
18 but there is a difference between a foreign 19 intelligence agency and a foreign law enforcement 20 agency; correct?

21 MR. HOOPER: You can actually cut
22 it more than two ways but I accept your point, yes 23 there is.

24 MR. WALDMAN: The CIA is an 25 intelligence agency in the United States, and the 1 FBI would be the enforcement agency; correct?

2 MR. HOOPER: Yes.

3 MR. WALDMAN: And as the foreign 4 intelligence agency, according to the ministerial 5 directive, CSIS is to be the primary contact with 6 the CIA; correct?

7 MR. HOOPER: On foreign 8 intelligence matters, yes.

9 MR. WALDMAN: And this was the 10 understanding even before the new ministerial 11 directives. We saw there were some --

12 MR. HOOPER: Yes.

13 MR. WALDMAN: So would it surprise
14 you that a member of the RCMP testified that he 15 considered the CIA to be a foreign law enforcement 16 agency within the meaning of the RCMP policy on 17 disclosure?

18 MR. HOOPER: Would it surprise me?

19 MR. WALDMAN: Yes, would it
20 surprise you?

21 MR. HOOPER: Well, I think it's 22 incorrect.

23 MR. WALDMAN: If it were incorrect
24 and a senior inspector -- superintendent in the 25 RCMP had that belief, you would find that

1 surprising, wouldn't you?

2 MR. HOOPER: Somewhat, yes.

3 MR. WALDMAN: Well, I can tell you
4 that that was Inspector Cabana's evidence, and 5 it's found at page 7803 of the transcript, for 6 those of you that are curious.

7 But this would be significant,
8 wouldn't it, because am I not correct in stating 9 that if the CIA was characterized as a law 10 enforcement agency by the RCMP, they wouldn't have 11 to go through CSIS to exchange information as the 12 primary contact.

13 Is that correct?

14 MR. HOOPER: I don't know what the 15 direction -- I don't know if there even was 16 direction to the RCMP at that time. But as far as 17 I was concerned, if there was to be any 18 interaction between the RCMP and the CIA, it ought 19 to have come through us.

20 MR. WALDMAN: Right. I'm 21 interested in the protocols that were put in place 22 regarding the information that was passed on to 23 the RCMP.

24 My understanding is that if the 25 RCMP wanted to share information obtained from

1 CSIS with other foreign law agencies it would have 2 to seek approval, is that correct, from CSIS?

3 MR. HOOPER: That's our 4 expectation of every agency with whom we share
5 information.

6 MR. WALDMAN: And if 7 information -- now, are you aware of whether the 8 RCMP obtained CSIS' consent on every occasion 9 prior to the sharing of information with the 10 foreign partners?

11 MR. HOOPER: I always have to 12 qualify my answers around the material time and 13 afterwards. At the material time, I wasn't, but I 14 became aware of it afterwards.

15 MR. WALDMAN: What did you become 16 aware of?

17 MR. HOOPER: Well, you referred to 18 the data dump.

19 MR. WALDMAN: Right.

20 MS McISAAC: Again, there has been 21 no confirmation as to whether, in fact, CSIS 22 information was contained in the data dump, but 23 I'm quite content that the witness could answer it 24 on the basis that if there was CSIS information in 25 there, what the consequence would be.

1 MR. WALDMAN: I think the Garvie
2 report does make reference to breaches of caveats
3 between the RCMP and CSIS with respect to sharing 4 with --

5 MS McISAAC: I just want the 6 witness to be very careful about how far he goes 7 in terms of the kind of information that might or 8 might not have been shared, please.

9 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Exhibit C-85 and 10 Exhibit P-85 are the exhibits which indicate which 11 information was in the -- if we call it the data 12 dump.

13 However, if the Government is 14 taking an NSC position in respect to whether there 15 was CSIS information as part of the data dump, 16 then that's as far as we can go.

17 MS McISAAC: Give me a moment to 18 look at P-85, please, sir?

19 --- Pause

20 THE COMMISSIONER: What is the tab
21 in P-85? Do you have it?

22 MS McISAAC: I'm sorry, I don't 23 want to be making a claim if it's not a legitimate 24 claim, but I'm quite frankly at a loss, not having 25 been here for all of the RCMP evidence.

1 So if someone can show me where 2 this information is on the public record, then of 3 course -- but I just want to be sure I've got it 4 right, sir.

5 MR. WALDMAN: P-227, that was the 6 e-mail we dealt with with Sergeant Flewelling, and 7 in the context of that e-mail, it was indicated 8 that Sergeant Flewelling expressed concern about 9 CSIS information being sent to the United States.

10 MR. CAVALLUZZO: In respect of 11 that particular question that I posed, I 12 subsequently received a letter indicating that the 13 Government takes the position that as far as that 14 question to Mr. Flewelling is concerned that CSIS 15 will neither confirm nor deny that any of its 16 information was part of that transfer which 17 occurred on October the 4th, which is different, 18 of course, than the data dump.

19 The question I asked of 20 Mr. Flewelling related to the information that was 21 sent on October 4th, but we're referring to 22 something different --

23 MR. WALDMAN: I understand that.
24 But I referred to that because my understanding 25 was that it was clear from your question that CSIS

1 information was contained. Now I'm just learning
2 for the first time that that's no longer clear 3 so ...

4 THE COMMISSIONER: Well, it may 5 not be -- what Ms McIsaac is saying that whether 6 it happened or not is not part of the public 7 record.

8 MR. WALDMAN: Right. I understand
9 that. But I thought --

10 THE COMMISSIONER: It's in volume
11 1 of P-85 at tab 24.

12 MS McISAAC: Thank you, sir.

13 THE COMMISSIONER: And I think --
14 just take a quick look at it, Ms McIsaac, but I 15 think your point is well-taken.

16 --- Pause

17 THE COMMISSIONER: So I think it's 18 not part of the public record, so one can only 19 say -- I guess you'd have to put it in as a 20 hypothetical.

21 MR. WALDMAN: Maybe I can ask a 22 more generic question.

23 Without going into details about 24 what specific evidence might have been shared with 25 the Americans, are you aware of whether or not the

1 RCMP breached any CSIS caveats at any time in the 2 sharing of information in the A-OCANADA
3 investigation?

4 MR. HOOPER: There's been so much
5 NSC water under the bridge since I was up here
6 last time, I'm really on shaky ground. If I
7 answer that question, it has to be in reference, I 8 think, to Deputy Commissioner Loepky's testimony
9 before the Commission.

10 If memory serves me correctly, I
11 think he made that point. So if he did indeed 12 make that point, I would go by what Deputy 13 Commissioner Loepky said.

14 MR. WALDMAN: Now you testified 15 that you had no knowledge of caveats being down.

16 MR. HOOPER: No.

17 MR. WALDMAN: Right. And the 18 evidence of Inspector Cabana was that his 19 understanding was that caveats were down.

20 MR. HOOPER: That's my 21 understanding.

22 MR. WALDMAN: Right. So given
23 that that was Inspector Cabana's understanding, it 24 wouldn't be surprising to you that if he thought 25 that may, it might have happened that there might

1 have been sharing of CSIS information without 2 authorization?

3 MR. HOOPER: In the hypothetical
4 sense.

5 MR. WALDMAN: Right. So doesn't 6 it concern you that a senior inspector in the 7 RCMP, in charge of the A-OCANADA investigation, 8 was under the clearly mistaken impression that he 9 could share information -- CSIS information with 10 the Americans without obtaining consent?

11 MR. HOOPER: It bothers me when I
12 put that up against the caveats that accompany 13 information that we release, and the expectations 14 by my Service that they be respected by the 15 receiving party.

16 MR. WALDMAN: So it's problematic?

17 MR. HOOPER: For me it is, yes.

18 MR. WALDMAN: Right. Because the 19 purpose of the caveats is to protect -- we've 20 already gone through that. I won't go through it 21 again.

22 MR. HOOPER: Yes.

23 MR. WALDMAN: But it's very 24 important to the credibility of your Service that 25 the caveats be respected?

1 MR. HOOPER: Yes.

2 MR. WALDMAN: For all the reasons,
3 and I think you explained them last time.

4 Now, we have to introduce a new 5 exhibit. This is one I thought was going to be 6 introduced, but because the order was switched,
7 this is something that were in the Dickenson 8 documents that were sent to us, so I'm just going 9 to ask that it be ...

10 THE COMMISSIONER: 239.

11 EXHIBIT NO. P-239: Undated
12 draft memo from the Dickenson
13 documents

14 --- Pause

15 MS McISAAC: I just wish to put on 16 the record that when Mr. Dickenson testifies, I 17 believe he'll indicate that this was a draft 18 document, not a final version.

19 THE COMMISSIONER: Thank you.

20 MR. WALDMAN: If Mr. Dickenson had 21 testified, he would have given us a date. There's 22 no date to the memo, I don't know if anyone knows 23 the date. That might be of assistance.

24 MS McISAAC: I gather it's 25 probably October 22nd, but I'm also informed that

1 there's probably the final version that's in the 2 Dickenson documents as well.

3 MR. WALDMAN: Well ...

4 Could I ask you to go to the last 5 bullet on the first page, please? It says:

6 "I learned about 1700 hours
7 on Thursday that Director
8 Elcock, CSIS, had spoken with 9 Mr. Bilodeau regarding Arar.
10 A meeting was scheduled
11 between DP Manley and US
12 Homeland Secretary Tom Ridge
13 on a number of matters and it
14 was understood the DPM Manley
15 would raise the Arar case 16 with Governor Ridge. I was 17 informed that the Director
18 had encouraged the DPA
19 against raising the Arar
20 case." (As read)

21 So this is the first example of a 22 message. I just want to ask you some questions.

23 Is this not your view that it is 24 the role of CSIS to advise the government of 25 potential threats to the security of Canada, and

1 not to advise the government as to how it should 2 be conducting its affairs with other governments?

3 MR. HOOPER: I think there's an 4 expectation that the Director of the Service is a 5 Deputy Minister in the federal bureaucracy and 6 provides advice to his Minister. It's up to the 7 Minister as to whether he takes it or not.

8 MR. WALDMAN: Would you not agree
9 with me though that it would be highly unusual -- 10 Mr. Arar case was already getting publicized, and 11 it was clearly a political case by this point, for 12 the Director to get involved in a political case 13 and interfere with government policy in this way?

14 MR. HOOPER: I don't view this as 15 interfering with government -- I don't see any 16 government policy here, Mr. Waldman, not to be 17 argumentative.

18 MR. WALDMAN: Well, there were 19 representations made by various people to have the 20 deputy Prime Minister raise Mr. Arar's case with 21 Mr. Ridge, and the Director of CSIS is encouraging 22 him against raising it?

23 MR. HOOPER: I think that would 24 constitute advice by my Director as a Deputy 25 Minister of this government providing advice.

1 Again, it comes down to whether or not the 2 Minister chooses to accept that advice.

3 MR. WALDMAN: Okay. Let's just 4 look at the situation. As I understand it, there 5 might have been several reasons why the matter 6 might have been raised with Mr. Ridge -- perhaps 7 before I do that, I want to clarify one point that 8 just occurred to me.

9 Is it not correct that the 10 Director of CSIS would report directly to the 11 Solicitor General and not to the Deputy Prime 12 Minister?

13 MR. HOOPER: If you'll recall, I
14 think it's correct at this time, the Deputy Prime 15 Minister was also the chair of a -- there was an 16 ad hoc group on public security and 17 anti-terrorism.

18 So I think as it regarded matters 19 related to terrorism, there was probably a 20 bifurcated reporting relationship. Actually, if 21 you roll in the security intelligence coordinators 22 role, Mr. Bilodeau, I think there's -- there 23 really is one line of authority, it's the 24 Solicitor General, but there is also 25 contemporaneous reporting requirements for the

1 Director to go to the coordinator and to the DPM 2 who had that public security mandate.

3 MR. WALDMAN: My recollection of 4 Mr. Manley's evidence was that he didn't remember 5 anything, and he certainly didn't have the view 6 that he had any kind of operational responsibility 7 with respect to national security matters.

8 MR. HOOPER: I don't think that 9 this speaks to an operational responsibility, I 10 think this is a clinical responsibility.

11 MR. WALDMAN: His view -- I think 12 he described it that his view was to try and keep 13 the borders open. That was his major concern in 14 his negotiations with Mr. Ridge. He didn't 15 recall -- I mean he had a very limited 16 recollection of anything having anything to do 17 with Mr. Arar's case at all.

18 MR. HOOPER: Fine.

19 MR. WALDMAN: If you go back to 20 the questions here, I could see that there would 21 be several reasons why the Deputy Prime Minister 22 might want to raise the matter with Mr. Ridge.

23 One might be to protest the 24 conduct of the United States government in 25 deporting a Canadian citizen to a country -- not

1 to Canada, and presumably to a country with a 2 deplorable human rights record.

3 And, on the other hand, a second 4 reason why, and this is a theme that came up on 5 numerous occasions through the evidence, was that 6 there was a suggestion that maybe if we went to 7 the Americans they might be able to assist Canada
8 in getting Mr. Arar back, that they made a mistake 9 and this is a theme that came up on numerous 10 occasions later on. Ms Catterall made suggestions 11 that the American Ambassador be approached.

12 So there were two reasons why
13 Mr. Manley might raise the matter with Mr. Ridge.
14 One was to protest, and the other was to get the 15 American assistance.

16 Would you agree with that?

17 MR. HOOPER: I think you
18 characterize those as speculative, so I accept 19 them as speculation around what the reasons might 20 have been. I don't know what the reasons were.

21 MR. WALDMAN: So if the purpose
22 was to seek the protection of Canadians, and to 23 ensure that there were no previous deportations, 24 I'm sure you're aware that after Mr. Arar came 25 back and the case received a great deal of 1 publicity, the Canadian government attempted to 2 negotiate a protocol that didn't really achieve 3 the desired result, but the intent of the Canadian 4 government was to try and make the Americans agree 5 that this not happen again.

6 So one of the legitimate concerns
7 was to not -- to make sure that no other Canadians 8 were deported.

9 Correct? You're aware of that?

10 MR. HOOPER: Yes.

11 MR. WALDMAN: So there would be 12 nothing wrong with Mr. Manley protesting to 13 Mr. Ridge and saying, you know, "We don't want 14 this to happen again," because that's government 15 policy now, right?

16 MR. HOOPER: The only -- if your 17 point is, is there anything wrong with doing it or 18 trying to rationalize why the advice was that he 19 not do it, I would suggest that it might not be 20 the most appropriate channel.

21 To go back to the example around
22 the negotiation of a protocol with the U.S.
23 government, that's not be something that would be 24 negotiated through the Homeland Security Office so 25 ...

1 I mean, this is pure speculation
2 on my part as to why it might have been a good 3 idea, why it might not have been a good idea.

4 MR. WALDMAN: Well, even if the 5 purpose at this point wasn't to negotiate a formal 6 protocol, clearly there are a lot of Canadians who 7 are outraged and incensed about a Canadian citizen 8 being deported, and a protest by the Deputy Prime 9 Minister to his counterpart was something that was 10 highly desirable so that the Americans would be 11 put on notice that we don't want it to happen 12 again.

13 Wouldn't you agree?

14 MR. HOOPER: I think that's a call
15 to be made at the political level.

16 MR. WALDMAN: Okay. But there
17 wouldn't be anything that would be problematic 18 about that being the issue.

19 Right?

20 Protesting the deportation of 21 Mr. Arar so that it wouldn't happen to other 22 Canadians?

23 Or would CSIS like to see other 24 Canadians deported to countries where they're 25 subject to torture?

1 MR. HOOPER: No.

2 MR. WALDMAN: Now, with respect to 3 the second possible reason -- well, can you think 4 of any other reason why Mr. Manley might have 5 protested -- or spoken to Mr. Ridge other than to 6 trying to seek it wouldn't happen, or trying to 7 get American assistance?

8 MR. HOOPER: I'm having a hard
9 time situating the political dynamic of the time 10 outside of my specific area of responsibility. I 11 can speak to the threat environment, I can speak a 12 little bit around the politics of the threat 13 environment, but between Mr. Manley and Mr. Ridge, 14 I don't know what other time --

15 MR. WALDMAN: So the threat
16 environment would be paramount in Mr. Elcock's 17 mind too --

18 MR. HOOPER: That's his job.

19 MR. WALDMAN: His concern wouldn't 20 be protecting Canadians and it wouldn't be trying 21 to help Mr. Arar, his main concern would be the 22 threat environment.

23 So would you agree with me then 24 that the reason why Mr. Elcock -- the only reason 25 why he would give this advice is because he didn't

1 care about protecting Canadians, and he didn't 2 care about getting Mr. Arar back, but he wanted to 3 make sure that Mr. Manley was aware of the threat 4 environment and the implications from the threat 5 point of view?

6 MR. HOOPER: No, I think
7 Mr. Elcock was acutely interested in protecting 8 Canadians. I don't see getting Mr. Arar back and 9 protecting Canada as being, you know, inimical to 10 one another.

11 MR. WALDMAN: What possible reason
12 could Mr. Elcock have had of giving Mr. Ridge this 13 advice? I mean clearly the purpose of the 14 intervention was to get American help in getting 15 Mr. Arar back into Canada, and to make sure that 16 the Americans understood that Canada didn't want 17 this to happen again?

18 What possible reason could there 19 have been given, other than worried about the 20 implications in U.S.-Canadian security 21 intelligence relations to encourage Mr. Manley not 22 to speak to Mr. Ridge?

23 MR. HOOPER: Mr. Waldman, this is 24 a discussion that I wasn't party to. I don't --

25 MR. WALDMAN: I'm asking you to 1 speculate then, sir.

2 MR. HOOPER: I'm not going to 3 speculate, Mr. Waldman.

4 MR. WALDMAN: Well, I'm going to 5 suggest to you that the fact of the matter was 6 that this is just another example of the same 7 points that Mr. Cavalluzzo took you to, that CSIS, 8 in its mandate, was prioritizing its national 9 security interests over the human rights of a 10 Canadian citizen?

11 MR. HOOPER: I think without 12 knowing the full facts of the matter you can't 13 come to that conclusion. I certainly wouldn't 14 agree with that conclusion.

15 MR. WALDMAN: Well, can you
16 provide me then with any reason why Mr. Elcock 17 would have discouraged Mr. Manley from raising 18 this, other than -- other than the one I've just 19 posed to you?

20 MR. HOOPER: I won't speculate,
21 Mr. Waldman.

22 MR. WALDMAN: You can't come up
23 with any other reasons then?

24 MR. HOOPER: Oh, I can, but they 25 have no merit whatsoever other than being pure

1 conjecture and speculation.

2 MR. WALDMAN: So they don't have 3 any merit. I would agree with that. Thank you.

4 If I can take you to P-117,
5 volume 2, tab 75. We've already gone through this 6 this morning.

7 MR. HOOPER: That was tab 75, sir?

8 MR. WALDMAN: Tab 75, tab 4, page
9 2. Mr. Cavalluzzo has already gone through this 10 extensively this morning, but I just want to point 11 out to you, sir, that this first arose in October 12 of 2002, and in May of 2003, Mr. Elcock is taking 13 exactly the same position.

14 "Furthermore, the US
15 Government may also question
16 Canada's motives and resolve,
17 given they deported ARAR to 18 Syria because of concerns
19 about alleged terrorist
20 investigations."

21 So I would suggest to you that 22 this is just another example of how the U.S.
23 Government -- that Mr. Elcock and CSIS were more 24 concerned about the U.S. perception than they were 25 about protecting the rights of Canadian citizens?

1 MR. HOOPER: No, I think, as I
2 indicated to Mr. Cavalluzzo, that's reflective of 3 the Director's responsibility to inform his 4 Minister of the political dimensions of the issue.
5 That's all. Nothing more, nothing less.

6 MR. WALDMAN: Well, I guess we'll 7 leave it at that.

8 How would you describe CSIS'
9 relationship with the ISI and DFAIT? Was it a 10 good relationship?

11 MR. HOOPER: It was a very engaged 12 relationship. I would say it was a good
13 relationship.

14 MR. WALDMAN: And you respect the 15 individuals who work at ISI?

16 MR. HOOPER: Absolutely. I
17 consider Mr. Livermore to be a very close 18 colleague and a valued colleague.

19 MR. WALDMAN: Would you say the 20 same about Mr. Gould as well then?

21 MR. HOOPER: Mr. Gould and I go 22 back to the mid '90s, when he worked in GMR and 23 had responsibility for Middle East and Saudi 24 Arabia. We were very active interlocutors at that 25 time.

1 MR. WALDMAN: So I'd like to take 2 you through a few documents. Perhaps if we could 3 go through P-134 in the Pillarella documents.

4 On page 3 --

5 MR. HOOPER: Tab 3, sir?

6 MR. WALDMAN: Tab 15, page 3.

7 THE COMMISSIONER: Tab 15?

8 MR. WALDMAN: Tab 15, page 3.

9 So this is a briefing note in 10 January of 2003, and the last paragraph -- the 11 second last paragraph.

12 "The Syrian Vice Foreign 13 Minister informed Ambassador
14 Pillarella that according to 15 their information, Arar does 16 not wish to return to Canada
17 ...

18 CSIS had discussions with 19 the Syrian authorities
20 concerning Arar. The ...
21 informed the Ambassador that,
22 according to his information,
23 CSIS had indicated to Syrian 24 military intelligence that 25 they have no wish to see

1 Mr. Arar return ..."

2 MR. HOOPER: Yes.

3 MR. WALDMAN: So we've already 4 taken you to P-99 -- I just want to ask you -- I'm 5 just going to take you through the body of 6 evidence and then I'm going to ask you for some 7 comments.

8 That was the Catterall
9 conversation with the Syrian Ambassador that 10 occurred in March of 2003. You've already looked 11 at that document?

12 MR. HOOPER: Yes.

13 MR. WALDMAN: So you're aware that 14 in March of 2003, the indication was that the 15 Ambassador raised with Ms Catterall this belief 16 that CSIS did not want Mr. Arar back.

17 MR. HOOPER: That initially he had 18 formed that belief.

19 MR. WALDMAN: Well, I think there 20 is several interpretations to that document, but 21 we'll leave that one.

22 If I could ask you to go to P-117
23 in the Easter documents, volume 1, tab 23.

24 --- Pause

25 MR. HOOPER: P-17?

1 MR. WALDMAN: Tab 23.
2 Mr. Cavalluzzo took you to this.
3 MR. HOOPER: I'll need volume 1.
4 THE COMMISSIONER: Yes, volume 1.
5 MR. WALDMAN: There's only one
6 Volume. P-117 -- oh, volume 1, tab 23.
7 MR. HOOPER: Could you repeat the 8 reference, please, Mr. Waldman.
9 MR. WALDMAN: P-117, tab 23.
10 Volume 1, tab 23.
11 MR. HOOPER: I have it.
12 MR. WALDMAN: Last paragraph:
13 "There is not sufficient
14 evidence against Arar for him
15 to be charged him with 16 anything in Canada. CSIS has 17 made it clear to the 18 Department that they would 19 prefer to have him remain in 20 Syria, rather than return to 21 Canada. CSIS officials do 22 not seem to understand that,
23 guilty or innocent,
24 Maher Arar has the right to 25 consular assistance ..."

1 Then I would like you to go to 2 Senator De Bané's notes, P-229.

3 MR. HOOPER: Will I be expected,
4 Mr. Waldman, to comment on these individually, 5 because I would rather do this one at a time
6 rather than remember all the references I'm 7 getting right now.

8 MR. WALDMAN: You have already 9 commented on most of these. The ones you haven't 10 commented on, if you want to comment on them, you 11 will. But I think these have already been taken 12 to you.

13 MR. HOOPER: Then, if I may, my 14 comments made in examination-in-chief to 15 Mr. Cavalluzzo in respect of these references, I 16 stand by them.

17 THE COMMISSIONER: I think, in 18 fairness, I take that to be the case.

19 MR. WALDMAN: Yes, I assumed that.
20 If you could go to P-229, this is 21 Senator De Bané's notes.

22 THE COMMISSIONER: 229?

23 MR. WALDMAN: Right. Page 19.

24 This is a briefing that took place
25 in July of 2003.

1 I know that Mr. Pardy was there.
2 I can't remember Mr. Pardy's evidence. I know
3 that there were quite a few people there. I don't 4 remember if there was anyone from CSIS or not at 5 the briefing.

6 MR. HOOPER: Do you mind -- it's 7 difficult reading other people's notes. These are 8 in French, so I might want to take a little bit 9 more time.

10 MR. WALDMAN: It's the second
11 reference. It's the only one that mentions CSIS.

12 "aurait dit aux Syriens : «
13 Gardez-le. »

14 MR. HOOPER: Yes.

15 MR. WALDMAN: CSIS had said to the 16 Syrians, "Keep him."

17 So at a briefing in July of 2003,
18 Senator De Bané, who is on his way to go to Syria, 19 as the Prime Ministerial envoy with a letter, is 20 being briefed by DFAIT and he is being told that 21 CSIS told the Syrians, "Keep him."

22 You weren't taken to this. I 23 don't know if you have anything you want to say on 24 this.

25 MR. HOOPER: I've never seen this

1 document before. This was in July of 2003, prior 2 to the visit by Mr. De Bané?

3 MR. WALDMAN: Senator De Bané.

4 What I'm trying to suggest to you,
5 sir, is that, in July of 2003, at a briefing 6 Senator De Bané is being told that that is the 7 CSIS position.

8 MR. HOOPER: From the notes, yes.

9 MR. WALDMAN: Now, if I could ask
10 you to go to P-237 --

11 MS McISAAC: I think the witness
12 was going to ask if Senator De Bané had explained 13 what his notes meant because it's not clear. I 14 mean, the notes are, as we know, not always 15 reflective completely of what the evidence might 16 have been.

17 THE COMMISSIONER: What was the 18 tab number?

19 MR. WALDMAN: No, it's --

20 THE COMMISSIONER: I've got it.

21 MR. WALDMAN: P-229. I think if 22 one looks at Senator De Bané's evidence, that is 23 what he said that is what he was told.

24 THE COMMISSIONER: I can't recall
25 what the Senator said about that.

1 MR. WALDMAN: I'm pretty sure. He 2 took us to page 19 of his notes, and he said that 3 the two things on page 19 that struck him were 4 that the statement about the RCMP and the 5 statement about CSIS.

6 THE COMMISSIONER: Okay.

7 MR. WALDMAN: I'm pretty sure of 8 that.

9 THE COMMISSIONER: Carry on.

10 MR. WALDMAN: Now, if we could go 11 to P-237, tab 3, this is a July 30th, 2003 memo, 12 sir.

13 MR. HOOPER: I don't think 14 Mr. Cavalluzzo took me to this one, so I may have 15 comments with respect to it.

16 MR. WALDMAN: The relevant section
17 is paragraph 5, and this is signed by the Director 18 of the Foreign Intelligence Division of ISI.

19 "It is curious in the media 20 today that none of the 21 approbium for passing
22 intelligence about Arar to 23 the Americans has fallen on 24 CSIS. The Syrians have 25 maintained that a senior CSIS

1 officer told them we did not
2 want Arar back in Canada -
3 although the CSIS officer
4 denies he said that. Another
5 senior CSIS officer told MKM
6 that DFAIT should curtail its 7 efforts to have Arar
8 released, as it was CSIS's
9 preference that Arar not 10 return."

11 I don't want to go into the 12 particulars. I just wanted to point out to you, 13 sir, that as of July 30th, 2003, the prevailing
14 view by senior officials in DFAIT was that CSIS
15 did not want Mr. Arar back.

16 MR. HOOPER: That wasn't the 17 position of the Service.

18 MR. WALDMAN: Well, I just find it
19 a bit strange, sir. I just took you to a large 20 number of documents, starting in October of 2002, 21 and going right through to July 30th, 2003, just a 22 month and a half before -- well, two and a half 23 months before Mr. Arar gets back, and they come 24 from a whole variety of sources, Syrian Military 25 Intelligence. And, you know, we must not forget

1 Mr. Gould's evidence of yesterday -- 2 Mr. Cavalluzzo took us to that -- that his 3 impression was not only from a telephone call but 4 was from conversations he had with colleagues in 5 CSIS.

6 So we have General Khalil, we have 7 the Syrian Ambassador to Canada, we have Members 8 of Parliament, we have officials in ISI, officials 9 in the consular bureau, all telling us, as late as 10 July 30th, 2003, that they understood that the 11 message from CSIS was that CSIS didn't want 12 Mr. Arar back and that their preference was that 13 he stay in Syria.

14 So wouldn't you agree to me that,
15 somehow or other, this was the message that CSIS 16 managed to convey, intentionally or not?

17 MR. HOOPER: I don't want this to 18 sound flippant, but I think maybe it speaks to the 19 power of rumour over fact. Again, I testified 20 earlier this morning that as far as the Service 21 was concerned, the whole issue around whether or 22 not we wanted Mr. Arar back in Canada was dealt 23 with, and it was a case closed on January the 24 16th, 2003.

25 I was not aware, nor was the

1 Service aware, of any of these memoranda, any of 2 these comments until after the disclosure exercise
3 after the commencement of these proceedings. I 4 find it very troubling.

5 MR. WALDMAN: You told us, sir, 6 the purpose of your phone call was to clarify any 7 misunderstandings about this, so you must have 8 been aware that there were misunderstandings going 9 on, because you just testified that this phone 10 call was to clarify those misunderstandings.

11 MR. HOOPER: I think I
12 contextualized my answer. There are always hurt 13 feelings and misunderstandings where there are 14 difficult discussions, complex discussions, 15 protracted discussions going around an issue where 16 different departments have conflicting mandates.

17 MR. WALDMAN: Right.

18 MR. HOOPER: The purpose of my 19 phone call to Ms McCallion, an element of that was 20 to make sure she was getting the message straight 21 from the Service; the institutional position, not 22 the position that may have been conveyed in any 23 heated discussion among lower-level officials.

24 MR. WALDMAN: But there obviously 25 were lower-level officials that were conveying

1 this message to Mr. Gould --

2 MR. HOOPER: I don't think that's 3 obvious at all.

4 MR. WALDMAN: Well, Mr. Gould
5 testified to that.

6 MR. HOOPER: Fine. Right.

7 MR. WALDMAN: So I want to put to 8 you something else.

9 If it's your position now that 10 this wasn't CSIS' position, can you explain to me 11 why there are so many indications in so many 12 documents that this was CSIS's position?

13 MR. HOOPER: No, I can't, and I
14 find it very troubling, actually.

15 MR. WALDMAN: Right. And can you 16 explain to me, sir, why it is that, having 17 reviewed all of the numerous documents and looking 18 very hard, I haven't been able to find one single 19 document, at least not in the public record, that 20 clearly shows the opposite to be true? There is 21 not one document anywhere that suggests to me that 22 CSIS had any interest in bringing Mr. Arar back.

23 Can you explain to me why, if that 24 was CSIS' position, there is nothing in the 25 record, not an e-mail, not a single document, to 1 show that?

2 MR. HOOPER: Yes, I can. Because 3 we have an institutional responsibility for 4 advising government on threats to the security of 5 Canada. We do not have an institutional view, 6 independent of the Department of Foreign Affairs,
7 as it relates to consular issues. That is the job
8 of the Department of Foreign Affairs.

9 To expect that there is going to 10 be a body of information floating around CSIS that 11 speaks to our institutional position on a consular 12 matter, you are not likely going to find it.

13 MR. WALDMAN: But there is a body
14 of evidence that speaks to CSIS' institutional 15 position on a consular matter suggesting the 16 opposite to be the case, a body of evidence that 17 strongly suggests that CSIS didn't want Mr. Arar 18 back.

19 And Mr. Cavalluzzo -- I'm not 20 going to repeat it -- clearly put to you all the 21 reasons why CSIS wouldn't want Mr. Arar back as an 22 institution.

23 MR. HOOPER: I think there is a 24 body of evidence that suggests the Director of 25 this Service was doing his job in providing advice

1 to his Minister.

2 MR. WALDMAN: Right, and the 3 advice that he provided to his Minister was that 4 if Mr. Arar comes back it creates problems for us 5 with the Americans; correct?

6 That is what that memo said?

7 MR. HOOPER: I think the memo said
8 that if Mr. Arar comes back, there is an American 9 dimension to the political issue around Mr. Arar.

10 MR. WALDMAN: Exactly. So if 11 Mr. Arar comes back -- the advice would be, if 12 Mr. Arar comes back, there are going to be 13 political problems with our relations with the 14 U.S. intelligence service.

15 That's his advice; correct?

16 MR. HOOPER: No. There is going 17 to be a political issue around it.

18 MR. WALDMAN: Around what?

19 MR. HOOPER: Around the return of 20 Mr. Arar to Canada.

21 MR. WALDMAN: Right. It's going 22 to create problems for our relationship with the 23 Americans. and indeed we know from other 24 documents that the concerns about calling the 25 inquiry was around the concerns about political

1 problems with the Americans.

2 So the Director's advice to the 3 Minister was if Mr. Arar comes back, it's going to 4 create political problems for us; correct?

5 MR. HOOPER: Sure. And we were 6 prepared to live with them. As a government, we 7 were prepared to live with those problems, as we 8 are now.

9 MR. WALDMAN: Yes, but you are 10 talking to us -- we are now, Mr. Arar is back.

11 But you are telling us that the 12 Minister's advice would be that there would be 13 political problems if Mr. Arar came back -- I 14 mean, the Director's advice to the Minister?

15 MR. HOOPER: Certainly.

16 MR. WALDMAN: Right. And you
17 already told Mr. Cavalluzzo that there would have 18 been operational problems that would arise?

19 MR. HOOPER: Did I say that?

20 MR. WALDMAN: Well, if the 11
21 people came back and --

22 MR. HOOPER: That's not a problem;
23 that's a fact.

24 MR. WALDMAN: That's a fact.

25 MR. HOOPER: That's a reality --

1 MR. WALDMAN: There would be 2 resource implications, I believe.

3 MR. HOOPER: Of course there would 4 be.

5 MR. WALDMAN: One other point. It
6 seems to me very, very strange, sir, and I just 7 want to confirm that it's your evidence today that 8 the Syrians -- the Syrian Ambassador, DFAIT,
9 Mr. Gould, other members of ISI,
10 Mr. Heatherington, all of these people just simply 11 misunderstood CSIS' message, all of them?

12 This was just a matter of all of 13 these different people from all these different 14 departments and all these different -- indeed, 15 foreign officials, it was just a simple 16 misunderstanding that all these different separate 17 entities had with respect to your position?

18 That is your evidence?

19 MR. HOOPER: That's my evidence, 20 and further, that I certainly wish somebody would 21 have asked us to clarify that. But none of these 22 people ever came over and said, "We understand 23 this to be the institutional position of CSIS.
24 There it is. It's out there. This is what we 25 believe. What is your position?"

1 There is no reference to that ever
2 being asked of my organization.

3 MR. WALDMAN: Can I just have one
4 second, Mr. Commissioner?

5 --- Pause

6 MR. WALDMAN: We have gone about 7 an hour and a quarter and I'm about halfway done.
8 We want to find this one document. Would it be 9 all right if we took a break now and I continued?

10 THE COMMISSIONER: Could we make 11 it -- you are going to be another hour and 15 12 minutes?

13 MR. WALDMAN: I'm halfway through 14 my notes.

15 Oh, we found it.

16 THE COMMISSIONER: Why don't we 17 carry on if you have what you need.

18 MR. WALDMAN: Could I ask you to 19 go to P-117, volume 2.

20 I just want to be clear before we 21 go there. Your evidence is, "boy, I wish somebody 22 would have told me"; right?

23 MR. HOOPER: Yes.

24 MR. WALDMAN: Why don't we look at 25 P-117, volume 2, tab 75, tab 5. Then I'm going to

1 put to you, sir, that somebody told you. It was 2 right there in front of you in black and white.

3 If I could ask you to go to the 4 transmittal slip, sir, this is a June 5th Pardy
5 memo, where Mr. Pardy is talking about CSIS' role 6 and their lack of cooperation, and it's clearly 7 stated on this transmittal slip that the June 5th
8 memo went to CSIS. Consultation?

9 MR. HOOPER: No. No, sir. If I
10 might? I can't speak for how things are 11 transmitted in the Department of Foreign Affairs, 12 but they work the same as in CSIS, from what I can 13 see.

14 There are people that get this 15 memo, and there are people who are consulted in 16 the development of this memo. We were consulted 17 in the preparation of this memorandum, from what I 18 can see, or with the letter that was attached to 19 the memorandum.

20 MR. WALDMAN: All right. Well, we 21 will come back to that, sir, because I would 22 suggest to you that there is evidence on the 23 record that CSIS had that memo, and we will have 24 to come back to it.

25 On October 7th, the Service

1 learned about A-OCANADA's request to interview
2 Mr. Arar in the United States.

3 Is that correct?

4 MR. HOOPER: Run that by me again,
5 please, Mr. Waldman.

6 MR. WALDMAN: On October 7th, the 7 Service learned about A-OCANADA's request to allow 8 investigators access to Mr. Arar. That's the 9 evidence, I think.

10 MR. HOOPER: Could you bring me to 11 a document that speaks to that? I just want to be 12 careful before I answer.

13 MR. WALDMAN: It's the CSIS
14 summary, paragraph 17.

15 "October 7th. The RCMP
16 provided CSIS with a report
17 that stated that Project
18 A-OCANADA submitted a request 19 through channels to allow 20 investigators access to Maher
21 Arar to conduct an 22 interview."

23 MR. HOOPER: Agreed.

24 MR. WALDMAN: So that's in the 25 CSIS summary.

1 MR. HOOPER: Yes.

2 MR. WALDMAN: Okay. Did CSIS have 3 any concerns about this request?

4 MR. HOOPER: About the RCMP
5 request to interview Mr. Arar --

6 MR. WALDMAN: Mr. Arar while he 7 was in the United States?

8 MR. HOOPER: In New York?

9 MR. WALDMAN: Yes.

10 MR. HOOPER: We didn't have a
11 position on it.

12 MR. WALDMAN: And you are aware 13 that the RCMP had sought to interview Mr. Arar in 14 January of 2002, and he wanted to have a lawyer 15 present and that's why the interview didn't take 16 place?

17 MR. HOOPER: I wasn't aware of 18 that at the time. I'm aware of it now.

19 MR. WALDMAN: So do you have any 20 concerns about the -- CSIS -- the RCMP requesting 21 an interview with Mr. Arar while he was in New 22 York given what had happened in Canada previously?

23 MR. HOOPER: No. Didn't have a
24 position on it.

25 MR. WALDMAN: I want to go on to 1 Mr. Arar's statement.

2 We've heard a lot of evidence
3 about the need to conduct reliability assessments 4 on documents; right?

5 MR. HOOPER: Yes.

6 MR. WALDMAN: And Ambassador
7 Pillarella brought back the document in Arabic,
8 ISI gave it to CSIS, the CSIS liaison to DFAIT.
9 It was translated and it was brought back and it 10 was discussed at a meeting.

11 MR. HOOPER: That's right.

12 MR. WALDMAN: Right. You are 13 aware of that?

14 MR. HOOPER: Yes.

15 MR. WALDMAN: And then there is 16 the memo that I think you have been taken to -- if 17 not, it's P-134, tab 9, if you want to look at it 18 if necessary -- in which they say:

19 "CSIS made no comments about
20 the credibility of the 21 document that said even if 22 true was not necessarily 23 damning evidence against 24 him."

25 MR. HOOPER: Correct.

1 MR. WALDMAN: And that's an 2 accurate reflection of what CSIS' position is with 3 respect to that first statement; correct?

4 MR. HOOPER: That's correct.

5 MR. WALDMAN: So that would mean 6 that CSIS viewed the document with suspicion, and 7 also that there wasn't enough evidence to reach 8 any conclusions. Is that fair?

9 MR. HOOPER: That's our position,
10 yes.

11 MR. WALDMAN: So would it be fair 12 to say that CSIS viewed the document with 13 suspicion because it came from a country with a 14 poor human rights record and possibly could have 15 been extracted as a result of abuse?

16 MR. HOOPER: That's a thing that 17 you have to have in the back of your mind when you 18 are assessing the reliability of a document.

19 MR. WALDMAN: And at this point 20 you would also have been privy to some of the 21 consular reports on Mr. Arar. I believe there is 22 evidence that the first consular visit, P-134, tab 23 3 --

24 MR. HOOPER: I think we had access
25 to one consular report by that time.

1 MR. WALDMAN: We didn't have 2 access. Perhaps I could ask you to...
3 Could you see if you recall seeing 4 this document, P-134, tab 3.
5 MR. HOOPER: Tab number,
6 Mr. Waldman?
7 MR. WALDMAN: Three.
8 --- Pause
9 MR. WALDMAN: Is that one of the 10 consular documents you had access to?
11 MR. HOOPER: If I may take a 12 moment, please?
13 MR. WALDMAN: Please.
14 --- Pause
15 MR. HOOPER: Could I consult with 16 counsel? I'm more familiar with -- if there 17 were --
18 MS McISAAC: I believe the 19 information is that this one was not provided, but 20 I'm not -- 21 MR. CAVALLUZZO: To be fair to the 22 witness, our information is that CSIS had two 23 consular reports, one January the 7th of 2003, the 24 other being April 22nd, which was the 25 Assadourian-Catterall report.

1 I didn't bring the witness to 2 those documents; I just summarized them for him.
3 So the fact that he is looking at this document 4 now with some question, you know, doesn't cast any 5 doubt on his testimony. It's just that I didn't 6 bring him to them.

7 It is our information there are 8 only two, January 7th of 2003 and April 22nd of 9 2003.

10 MR. HOOPER: The reason I asked
11 the question, Mr. Commissioner, is that this one 12 is not familiar to me, its contents, so I have to 13 conclude that it's not one that the Service 14 received.

15 MR. WALDMAN: If you haven't seen
16 it, then I'm going to move on to another area.

17 MR. HOOPER: Okay.

18 MR. WALDMAN: So I think you would 19 agree with me, Mr. Hooper, that it is important 20 for CSIS to have an understanding of how foreign 21 intelligence agencies work; correct?

22 MR. HOOPER: Yes.

23 MR. WALDMAN: And you have to have 24 an understanding of who is in charge of the 25 agency, the structure of the agency as well,

1 correct, in order to be able to evaluate the 2 reliability of the information obtained, 3 et cetera?

4 MR. HOOPER: Not so much the 5 reliability of the information; the ability to 6 interact effectively. It is nice to know how they 7 are organized and it's good to know who is in 8 charge. I don't know that that's particularly 9 helpful in assessing the information that comes 10 from that agency.

11 MR. WALDMAN: Right. And that you 12 need to have some understanding of the 13 relationship between the intelligence agency and 14 the government as well. That would be important 15 for you to be able to establish a working 16 relationship?

17 MR. HOOPER: That's one of the 18 elements.

19 MR. WALDMAN: And you would also 20 want to know about the methods of the foreign 21 intelligence agency in terms of how they obtain 22 information, gather information, before you make a 23 decision of how you are going to work with them; 24 correct?

25 MR. HOOPER: Absolutely.

1 MR. WALDMAN: And one of the 2 things you would want to know is whether or not a 3 foreign intelligence agency engages in abuses and 4 torture and things like that before you engage 5 them; correct?

6 MR. HOOPER: I think I've 7 testified that that is an essential ingredient in 8 assessing before we ever engage in a relationship.

9 MR. WALDMAN: And I would suggest 10 to you that it's important for at least two 11 reasons, and you might be able to think of 12 others -- I'm sure you will. But the two reasons 13 that come to my mind is it would be important in 14 terms of your ability to assess the reliability of 15 the information that you got, and it would also be 16 very important in terms of assessing the extent to 17 which you could share information?

18 MR. HOOPER: Those are very good 19 reasons, yes.

20 MR. WALDMAN: I would like to take 21 you to -- I'm just going to read to you a very 22 brief bit of Mr. Elcock's evidence. It's at page 23 289 of the transcript.

24 In response to a question that I
25 raised, which was as follows -- I just want to see

1 if you are in agreement. I assume you are.

2 "In a regime that there was a
3 reasonable suspicion of 4 torture, if I understand you 5 correctly, you told us that 6 if there was a very high
7 national security risk, you 8 would share information with 9 a regime that you suspect of 10 torture because the balance
11 would be in favour of sharing 12 the information in a very 13 exceptional case?"

14 And Mr. Elcock answers:

15 "It would have to be an 16 absolutely extraordinary
17 case. As an example,
18 conceivably if information
19 that tomorrow a bomb was 20 going off in a major capital
21 of a country that uses
22 torture and I had information
23 about the identity of the 24 bomber or we as a service had 25 information about the

1 identity of the bomber, the 2 likelihood that the operation
3 would take place should we 4 not provide the information
5 to that service."

6 So Mr. Elcock's evidence was that 7 when it comes to sharing information with a 8 foreign intelligence agency that engages in 9 torture, it would only happen in exceptional 10 circumstances.

11 Do you agree with that?

12 MR. HOOPER: Yes, sir.

13 MR. WALDMAN: Right. And that 14 would be even more true if we were talking about 15 sharing of information with respect to Canadians 16 that are in detention in that foreign agency where 17 there might be a risk of torture?

18 MR. HOOPER: Yes, sir.

19 MR. WALDMAN: So if we go to 20 November 2002, CSIS is about to meet with military 21 intelligence; correct?

22 MR. HOOPER: Yes.

23 MR. WALDMAN: And we know that
24 they had some kind of prior relationship. You may 25 not want to confirm that, but whatever.

1 Are you claiming National Security
2 Confidentiality over the fact that you might have 3 had contacts with the Syrians before?

4 MR. HOOPER: Yes.

5 MR. WALDMAN: So we don't know
6 that.

7 And I would suggest to you that 8 you would have expected that CSIS agents would 9 have done their homework and would have a thorough 10 understanding of how Syrian Military Intelligence 11 operates before they went there; correct?

12 MR. HOOPER: I was confident that 13 the CSIS delegation knew those features, yes.

14 MR. WALDMAN: And you would know 15 that the Syrian Military Intelligence prefers to 16 deal with intelligence agencies and not with law 17 enforcement agencies; correct?

18 MR. HOOPER: They have that 19 preference, yes.

20 MR. WALDMAN: And you know that 21 the military intelligence is second-in-command to 22 the President when it comes to detaining prisoners 23 and that they are very much involved in decisions 24 around what people get detained and when they get 25 released?

1 MR. HOOPER: The intelligence
2 services?

3 MR. WALDMAN: Yes.

4 MR. HOOPER: Yes.

5 MR. WALDMAN: And your agents
6 would have, I assume, had an understanding of the 7 methods used by the military intelligence, 8 including the fact they use coercive methods, 9 interrogations, et cetera?

10 MR. HOOPER: We had read that.

11 MR. WALDMAN: Yes. Perhaps I
12 could ask you to go to P-192.

13 --- Pause

14 MR. WALDMAN: In the third
15 paragraph, the one that starts "Subject advised", 16 this is the El Maati consular note. Have you ever 17 had the occasion of seeing this?

18 MR. HOOPER: No.

19 MR. WALDMAN: Well, we know it was 20 discussed at a meeting involving Department of 21 Justice, RCMP, A-OCANADA, DFAIT, and CSIS, so some 22 of your officials were aware of this.

23 MR. HOOPER: Yes.

24 MR. WALDMAN: And in the 25 information it says:

1 "During his 2-1/2 months of 2 detention in Syria, subject
3 advises that he was beaten
4 (feet/legs) and tortured
5 (electric shock) and forced 6 to give false information.
7 When asked what false
8 information, subject advised 9 that he would only discuss
10 with ... CSIS."

11 So it's fair to say that your 12 operatives would have been aware of this 13 allegation, of the statement by Mr. El Maati that 14 when he was detained in Syria he had been beaten 15 and tortured with electric shocks because this 16 note had been provided to CSIS?

17 MR. HOOPER: I have to make that 18 presumption.

19 MS McISAAC: I think the witness
20 can confirm what he knew about Mr. El Maati's 21 circumstances, but I don't know that we are 22 confirming the extent to which information such as 23 this might have been received by the Service in 24 respect of Mr. El Maati from Foreign Affairs.

25 MR. WALDMAN: Well, I think, with

1 all respect, Mr. Commissioner, the evidence is 2 that this memo was distributed at a meeting, and 3 CSIS officials were -- no? It was discussed at a 4 meeting where CSIS officials and RCMP and 5 A-OCANADA were present.

6 Were you aware of the allegations,
7 the statements that Mr. El Maati made that he had 8 been tortured in Syria?

9 MR. HOOPER: I'm aware of them 10 now. I can't recall when I was made aware of 11 them.

12 MR. WALDMAN: Now, if some 13 official in CSIS had attended this August meeting 14 and had seen and discussed this memo that dealt 15 with treatment in Syria, would you not have 16 expected that your officials and your delegation 17 would have been apprised of this before they went?
18 Wouldn't that have been normal protocol?

19 MR. HOOPER: Can you just give me
20 a moment, Mr. Waldman?

21 MR. WALDMAN: Sure.

22 --- Pause

23 MR. HOOPER: I'm trying to find a
24 reference where this was discussed at a meeting
25 involving CSIS and A-OCANADA personnel.

1 MR. WALDMAN: Well, we can give 2 you the reference. It has come out in the 3 evidence that the memo was received, it was 4 forwarded to the RCMP -- no, the RCMP was advised 5 about it and an urgent meeting was convoked in 6 which representatives from DOJ, CSIS, A-OCANADA 7 all attended and there are references to that and 8 there are reference to that effect.

9 MR. HOOPER: Could you bring it to 10 me, please, or refer me to it?

11 MS McISAAC: I think if 12 Mr. Waldman could do that, we could bring some 13 precision to what the witness can and can't say.

14 MR. WALDMAN: P-211, redacted
15 personal notes of Rick Flewelling, page 28.

16 THE COMMISSIONER: Page 20?

17 MR. WALDMAN: Twenty-eight. I
18 think Ms Pastyr-Lupul also testified to that 19 effect, but it is here in black and white.

20 Here it says under the heading 21 "10:30:"

22 "Meeting with PCO, DFAIT,
23 CSIS, and RCMP, Myra,
24 consular affairs, DFAIT."

25 Now there is the reference to the

1 meeting and who was present, and Ms Pastyr-Lupul 2 testified that it was at this meeting that she 3 discussed this memorandum.

4 THE COMMISSIONER: And that was at 5 the August 15th meeting.

6 MR. WALDMAN: Right.

7 THE COMMISSIONER: Yes.

8 MR. WALDMAN: So the evidence 9 before you is that there was a meeting that the 10 RCMP, Sergeant Flewelling -- or at that time 11 Corporal Flewelling attended, and the 12 representatives of CSIS and DFAIT there, and Ms
13 Lupul's evidence was with respect to that meeting, 14 she mentioned that when she was there this memo 15 was present. She saw that RCMP had it, and it was 16 discussed.

17 MR. HOOPER: I'm not trying to be 18 difficult here; I'm trying to be helpful. But if 19 there's testimony of Ms Lupul that I can be taken 20 to because I'm not making the connection. I think 21 for me to make the connection between Sergeant 22 Flewelling's notes, this memorandum and the 23 testimony, I really do need to see the testimony.

24 MR. WALDMAN: I can get it. It's 25 going to take me five minutes to find it.

1 THE COMMISSIONER: Why don't we 2 take the break? How long? Is ten minutes 3 sufficient for you?

4 MR. WALDMAN: Yes. I'm almost 5 two-thirds done.

6 THE COMMISSIONER: All right. We 7 will break for ten minutes.

8 THE REGISTRAR: Please stand.

9 --- Upon recessing at 3:12 p.m. /
10 Suspension à 15 h 12

11 --- Upon resuming at 3:24 p.m. /
12 Reprise à 15 h 24

13 MR. WALDMAN: Mr. Commissioner, at 14 the break, Ms McIsaac was very kind to say to me 15 that, if the issue was whether CSIS was aware of 16 Mr. El Maati's allegations set out in August 17 of 2002, the answer is yes. So we don't have to 18 go -- we saved ourselves a lot of time.

19 THE COMMISSIONER: Great. Okay.
20 Thank you.

21 MR. WALDMAN: I understand that 22 that's the case.

23 I just want to -- I was sort of in 24 the middle -- I'm going to go back and just set -- 25 take us to that.

1 I just want to confirm that the 2 position that Mr. Elcock took that you agree with 3 is that CSIS would only share information in the 4 case of a -- with a regime that violates human 5 rights, especially if there are Canadian citizens 6 detained there, about those same Canadian 7 citizens, if they were an imminent threat?

8 MR. HOOPER: I think he said
9 "under extraordinary circumstances."

10 MR. WALDMAN: Under 11 extraordinary -- like, the example he gave, if a 12 bomb was about to blow up and they knew the 13 identity of the bomber.

14 Is that fair?

15 MR. HOOPER: Yes.

16 MR. WALDMAN: And you would 17 agree --

18 MR. HOOPER: I agree with 19 Mr. Elcock.

20 MR. WALDMAN: I'm glad to hear
21 that.

22 MR. HOOPER: Even though he's no
23 longer the Director.

24 MR. WALDMAN: You still agree with 25 him?

1 MR. HOOPER: I still agree with
2 him.

3 MR. WALDMAN: So the CSIS agents
4 knew about the -- how the Syrian Military 5 Intelligence operated, they knew about the 6 structure and they also knew about the human 7 rights situation, and they were aware of this 8 allegation of Mr. El Maati?

9 MR. HOOPER: Yes.

10 MR. WALDMAN: Could I ask you to 11 go to P-237, tab 5, page 7? This is the new 12 chronology, and if I could ask you to go to 13 16/12/02 on page 7 of tab 5? Have you found that?

14 MR. HOOPER: Yes. Just for 15 precision, this is the Foreign Affairs chronology?

16 MR. WALDMAN: Right. And there's 17 other references, but Mr. Gould was taken to this 18 reference yesterday and confirmed that the 19 information here was correct, and it says:

20 "In response to a request for 21 a debriefing on CSIS' visit
22 to Damascus, CSIS provides a 23 report summarizing what 24 appears to be information
25 provided to Syrian Military

1 Intelligence by Arar under 2 interrogation." (As read)

3 And Mr. Gould was asked 4 specifically about this yesterday, and he said, to 5 his knowledge, this was accurate.

6 MR. HOOPER: Let me just quickly
7 read this, please.

8 --- Pause

9 MR. HOOPER: That's correct.

10 MR. WALDMAN: So that we know, 11 then, that information was obtained by CSIS and 12 the debriefing was given.

13 MR. HOOPER: And the debriefing
14 of ...

15 MR. WALDMAN: Of the information
16 obtained was given to DFAIT?

17 MR. HOOPER: That's correct.

18 MR. WALDMAN: Now, I just want to 19 take you to a few documents. Can I ask you to go 20 to exhibit P-134, tab 8.

21 --- Pause

22 MR. HOOPER: Tab 8?

23 MR. WALDMAN: Right.

24 So if you go to the bottom, it 25 says "SECRET", the very last:

1 "For your personal
2 information, following a
3 meeting with DMA of 18
4 November, senior DFAIT
5 representatives asked CSIS to
6 delay their visit to Syria.
7 While CSIS indicated that
8 they would not attempt to 9 visit Mr. Arar, they still 10 intended to continue with the 11 planned visit ... PCO chose 12 not to intervene in the 13 debate, so unless the 14 Minister intends to block
15 this visit, CSIS will arrive
16 in Damascus on schedule."

17 Now, this is sent by ISI to 18 Mr. Pillarella, Head of Mission.

19 MR. HOOPER: Yes.

20 MR. WALDMAN: Then if you go up,
21 it says:

22 "You will remember that at an 23 interdepartmental meeting
24 held on Wednesday, November
25 6, it was agreed that it

1 would be useful if CSIS were 2 to travel to Syria to speak
3 to Syrian authorities ..."

4 MR. HOOPER: Yes.

5 MR. WALDMAN:

6 "In light of recent media
7 reporting on Arar, we had 8 doubts about the timeliness
9 of the CSIS visit, although 10 not about its substance."

11 Okay. And then in the next

12 paragraph:

13 "We have consulted with 14 CSIS ... We have been 15 informed that the (blank).
16 The purpose of the visit is
17 to consult with Syrian
18 intelligence and take
19 advantage of their knowledge
20 on Al-Qaida and terrorist
21 threats. CSIS is not
22 visiting Arar, but given the 23 high profile of the issue in 24 Canada, we suggest below
25 press lines in the unlikely

1 event that there will be 2 press coverage ..."

3 And then they suggest press lines.

4 MR. HOOPER: Yes.

5 MR. WALDMAN: So would you agree
6 with me that based upon this e-mail, the purpose
7 of the trip to Syria was to exchange information 8 and there was no indication of any imminent 9 threat?

10 MR. HOOPER: We were there to 11 elicit information, not to exchange information.

12 MR. WALDMAN: Elicit, right.
13 Elicit information. But there's no indication of 14 any imminent threat in any of this?

15 MR. HOOPER: In the e-mail?

16 MR. WALDMAN: Right.

17 MR. HOOPER: The e-mail does not 18 speak to an imminent threat.

19 MR. WALDMAN: Right. And the 20 suggestion is that the purpose of the trip is to 21 consult and to elicit information from the 22 Syrians.

23 MR. HOOPER: Yes.

24 MR. WALDMAN: Well, I think they 25 use the word "exchange," but ...

1 And we also know that the two
2 targets of the investigation, A-OCANADA
3 investigation, Mr. Almalki and Mr. El Maati, were 4 both in detention in November of 2002, as was 5 Mr. Arar. Mr. Almalki and Mr. Arar were in Syria
6 at the time and Mr. El Maati was in Egypt.

7 MR. HOOPER: That's correct.

8 MR. WALDMAN: So in terms of these 9 three individuals, I think you would agree with 10 me, they weren't an imminent threat to Canada's 11 national security or to anybody's national 12 security if they're sitting in 3-by-6-by-7 cells
13 in Syria or Egypt?

14 MR. HOOPER: I think I have to 15 bring clarity to that.

16 The purpose of our visit, and I
17 think it -- let me just find the reference here.

18 "The purpose of the visit is
19 to consult with Syrian
20 intelligence and take
21 advantage of their knowledge
22 on Al-Qaida and terrorist
23 threats."

24 This was quite apart from anything
25 to do with Mr. Arar and Mr. Almalki and Mr. El

1 Maati --

2 MR. WALDMAN: Yes, I understand
3 that. But there was no imminent threats. You 4 were getting general information. It wasn't that 5 there was -- you knew about a bomber, you wanted 6 to find out about a bomber that was about to set a 7 bomb up in Canada.

8 What I'm trying to suggest to you,
9 sir, is that there was nothing about the visit 10 that was dealing with imminent threats. There was 11 no suggestion that there was some bomber who was 12 about to put a bomb -- blow up a bomb in Ottawa
13 because the two main targets of the A-OCANADA 14 sleeper cell were sitting in jail in Syria and 15 Egypt and -- so that there was no -- this was a 16 visit to get information. But there was no 17 evidence of an imminent threat at that time.

18 MR. HOOPER: I think I need to 19 speak to that, because if you put that around the 20 context of the times and certainly the 21 geopolitical situation of Syria, I mean, it was 22 evident that there was going to be an incursion 23 into Iraq; and given Syria's situation, we 24 expected that it would be used as an infiltration 25 and exfiltration route for jihadis.

1 At that time, we also in Canada
2 had -- and OCanada and A-OCANADA were 3 manifestations of that -- we had a number of 4 targets of interest who we believed were serious
5 and imminent threats to the security of Canada.

6 So to say that there was no
7 imminent or serious threat at play around the time
8 of this visit isn't strictly correct. But if you 9 bring it -- I do take your point, that if you take 10 it back to Mr. Elcock's comment about -- there's 11 nothing of the quality of a bomb that's going to 12 go off at the Union Station at five o'clock on 13 Friday afternoon on November 27th. I think that's 14 a qualitative difference.

15 MR. WALDMAN: Right. So there 16 would be nothing in the information that you had 17 at that time that would have justified you, CSIS, 18 sharing information with a regime that you had 19 reasonable grounds to believe in torture, 20 especially in light of Mr. El 21 Maati's allegations --

22 MR. HOOPER: Again, we weren't 23 sharing information, they were receiving
24 information --

25 MR. WALDMAN: I'm understanding

1 that.

2 MR. HOOPER: Yes.

3 MR. WALDMAN: But there would have 4 been nothing that would have justified sharing 5 information based upon Mr. Elcock's definition of 6 "imminent threat"?

7 MS McISAAC: I think perhaps if we 8 established that we didn't share any information, 9 I would prefer, for national security grounds, we 10 don't keep talking about whether there was some 11 threat out there or not or some reason why it 12 might be appropriate to share information.

13 I think he's testified they did 14 not share information. Couldn't we leave it at 15 that?

16 THE COMMISSIONER: Does that -- is 17 that the point you wish to make?

18 MR. WALDMAN: So that the evidence 19 is that no evidence was shared with the Syrian
20 Military Intelligence?

21 MR. HOOPER: You used the word 22 "evidence" again, Mr. Waldman. No information was 23 shared --

24 MR. WALDMAN: Now we're at a
25 hearing. The evidence that you're giving today,

1 sir, is --

2 MR. HOOPER: Yes.

3 No. We were there in receive 4 mode. We were there to receive information, not 5 to exchange it.

6 MR. WALDMAN: Right. Would you
7 agree with me that -- so that -- this is dealing 8 with the November visit.

9 MR. HOOPER: Yes.

10 MR. WALDMAN: So I don't take it
11 that the admission in the statement goes beyond 12 the November visit then in terms of, you never 13 shared -- did you ever share information about 14 Mr. Arar with Syria?

15 MR. HOOPER: I won't answer that 16 question in public testimony.

17 MR. WALDMAN: Am I right to say 18 that if you -- based upon what Mr. Elcock said, if 19 you were to have shared information about Mr. El 20 Maati, Mr. Almalki, or Mr. Arar, given 21 Mr. Elcock's definition, it would have had to have 22 come in the context of an imminent threat.

23 Correct?

24 MR. HOOPER: Mr. Elcock gave a 25 description of one imminent threat.

1 MR. WALDMAN: Right.

2 MR. HOOPER: Of a hypothetical 3 event.

4 MR. WALDMAN: Right. But if, at 5 any point, CSIS -- and I know we're not going to 6 find out here in the public hearings today -- 7 whether CSIS did or did not, but I want it clearly 8 stated on the record. The only circumstance in 9 which CSIS would have properly shared information 10 about any Canadian citizen detained in Syria would 11 have been if there was an assessment that there 12 was an imminent threat?

13 MR. HOOPER: Yes. "Imminent 14 threat" could take a number of different forms.

15 MR. WALDMAN: That's fine.

16 So the evidence with respect to 17 Inspector Cabana and the evidence that was given 18 by -- I'm trying to remember -- Sergeant 19 Lauzon? -- was that in the furtherance -- that 20 they would have had no difficulty in sharing 21 information with Syria about their investigation.
22 I take it that, from CSIS's point of view, that 23 would have been -- that's problematic?

24 MR. HOOPER: What the RCMP does or 25 intends to do is the RCMP's business. It's not

1 what we would do. So it's not a question of 2 problematic or not. It's just they have --

3 MR. WALDMAN: The RCMP would not 4 share information with a regime that engages in 5 torture unless there was an imminent threat -- 6 CSIS, sorry. I'm sorry. I meant to say CSIS and 7 I said the RCMP. Sorry, I'm tired. It's a long 8 day.

9 CSIS would not share information 10 with a regime that engages in torture except in an 11 imminent threat?

12 MR. HOOPER: In the context of an 13 imminent threat, yes, a serious threat.

14 MR. WALDMAN: Okay. Thank you.

15 Just give me one second. I just 16 want to check my notes.

17 --- Pause

18 MR. WALDMAN: Sorry, given his 19 evidence, I'm just trying to go through my notes
20 and see what I can skip.

21 THE COMMISSIONER: Take your time.

22 --- Pause

23 MR. WALDMAN: Now, we're now at 24 the CSIS officers going to Syria. They're in 25 Syria. We have two Canadians sitting in jail,

1 Mr. Almalki and Mr. El Maati -- Mr. Almalki and 2 Mr. Arar, sorry. And I would posit that you must 3 have expected that Mr. Arar's and Mr. Almalki's 4 names would have come up during the course of 5 conversations? It's reasonable to assume.

6 Correct?

7 MR. HOOPER: Yes. It's reasonable 8 to assume.

9 MR. WALDMAN: That it would have 10 come up.

11 And indeed, considering the stated
12 purpose of the visit was al-Qaeda and discussing 13 Arar, and considering that Mr. Arar was deported 14 by the Americans based upon the allegation that he 15 was al-Qaeda, it was very likely that you must 16 have anticipated that his name was going to come 17 up during the course of your conversations with -- 18 your officials' conversations with the Syrian
19 Military Intelligence?

20 MR. HOOPER: Mr. Arar's name?

21 MR. WALDMAN: Right.

22 MR. HOOPER: Yes.

23 MR. WALDMAN: And we, in fact,
24 know that Mr. Arar was discussed.

25 Correct?

1 MR. HOOPER: Yes.

2 MR. WALDMAN: We know that. You
3 got information.

4 So could you tell us whether it
5 was CSIS that brought up Mr. Arar's name or Syria?

6 MR. HOOPER: I don't know that. I 7 know what instructions my people were given. If 8 the Syrians offered information, we were going to 9 receive it.

10 MR. WALDMAN: Did CSIS reveal to 11 the Syrians that Mr. Arar was part of, in some way 12 or other, a national security investigation?

13 MR. HOOPER: Not to my knowledge,
14 no.

15 MR. WALDMAN: So can you tell me, 16 did CSIS provide the Syrians with any additional 17 information concerning Mr. Arar in their 18 conversations with them?

19 MR. HOOPER: We didn't provide 20 them any information.

21 MR. WALDMAN: None at all?

22 MR. HOOPER: Any additional
23 information.

24 MR. WALDMAN: So if you didn't 25 provide any information, what kind of discussion

1 could you have had about Mr. Arar? He was 2 discussed. That is what the evidence says, 3 Mr. Arar was discussed.

4 MR. HOOPER: Which evidence is 5 that, sir? If I made that statement, I qualified 6 it by saying that we were there to receive 7 information, not to elicit it or to offer it.

8 MR. WALDMAN: But you did bring 9 back information on Mr. Arar, we know that and you 10 have just confirmed that?

11 MR. HOOPER: Yes.

12 MR. WALDMAN: All right. And 13 would you not agree with me, by accepting this 14 information, the message you were giving the 15 Syrians was that you had an interest in receiving 16 information on Mr. Arar?

17 MR. HOOPER: That we had an 18 interest ...?

19 MR. WALDMAN: In receiving
20 information on Mr. Arar.

21 MR. HOOPER: If they offer it and 22 we take it. You can draw a conclusion, I don't 23 know what conclusion.

24 MR. WALDMAN: Would you think it 25 would have been a reasonable conclusion for the

1 Syrian Military Intelligence to come to, that
2 CSIS --

3 MR. HOOPER: I think the Syrian
4 Military Intelligence service by this time had a 5 pretty strong indication from other sectors that 6 the Canadian government was interested in 7 Mr. Arar.

8 MR. WALDMAN: Right.

9 MR. HOOPER: So the long way
10 around your question, I think it is reasonable.

11 MR. WALDMAN: Reasonable that the 12 Syrian Military Intelligence would think that the 13 Canadian Intelligence Services had an interest in 14 obtaining information on Mr. Arar?

15 MR. HOOPER: That is a conclusion
16 they could have drawn, yes.

17 MR. WALDMAN: And it would be a 18 reasonable conclusion?

19 MR. HOOPER: I'm at the point
20 where I'm not sure what is reasonable in the mind 21 of the Syrian Military Intelligence Service any 22 more.

23 MR. WALDMAN: Did not concern you,
24 sir, that in light of Syria's abysmal human rights
25 record, and Mr. El-Maati's allegations of torture,

1 that by even signalling an interest in obtaining 2 information about Mr. Arar you might be putting 3 him at risk?

4 MR. HOOPER: Did we run that 5 danger in accepting the information?

6 MR. WALDMAN: Yes.

7 MR. HOOPER: I don't think so, no.

8 MR. WALDMAN: You don't think so?

9 MR. HOOPER: No.

10 MR. WALDMAN: You don't think that 11 by signalling to the Syrians that you would like 12 to receive information from Mr. Arar you might be 13 encouraging them to please you by giving you 14 further information?

15 MR. HOOPER: There are a lot of 16 words in there. "That we would like to receive."
17 They offered information and we received it and 18 that was kind of the beginning and end. Whatever 19 went on in the minds of the Syrian Military 20 Intelligence officials I really can't speak to.

21 MR. WALDMAN: So you don't think 22 it is a reasonable inference that a reasonable 23 person might draw that by receiving information 24 you were encouraging the Syrians to try and get 25 more information?

1 MR. HOOPER: Not in the least.

2 MR. WALDMAN: Now, I just want to
3 clarify one issue. Remember it was your evidence 4 before that you had absolutely no idea that these 5 kind of memos were going around from DFAIT?

6 MR. HOOPER: Yes.

7 MR. WALDMAN: Perhaps I could ask
8 you to go to Exhibit P-185.

9 --- Pause

10 MR. WALDMAN: So this is a
11 briefing note to the Commissioner, the RCMP 12 Commissioner, that talks about a meeting that was 13 held, and the meeting discussed a draft of the 14 Pardy memo on May 12th. CSIS representatives were 15 there, and I would suggest to you that what this 16 Briefing Note clearly indicates is that CSIS 17 representatives had a copy of an earlier draft of 18 Mr. Pardy's memo, because that is what it says.

19 "A meeting was held on 2003
20 May 12th with DFAIT, SolGen,
21 RCMP, CSIS and PCO present.
22 Discussions surrounded the 23 current state of Arar's RCMP
24 interest." (As read)

25 And:

1 "RCMP agreed that at this
2 point RCMP has the lead in 3 terms of investigating Arar.
4 Both RCMP and [so and so] are 5 aware of the opinion that 6 while there is a suspicion 7 surrounding the historical 8 activities of Arar there is 9 insufficient evidence to 10 claim he is a member of 11 al-Qaeda." (As read)

12 Then it goes on in the 13 next-to-last paragraph, it starts off:

14 "H.G. Pardy, Director
15 General, Consular Affairs,
16 DFAIT, had prepared a memo
17 for Minister addressing Arar.
18 CSIS, the RCMP and SolGen
19 expressed concern over some 20 of the wording in the memo."
21 (As read)

22 So I would suggest to you, sir, 23 that what this briefing note clearly indicates is 24 that CSIS had a copy of the memo.

25 Perhaps I could take you to that

1 memo, because it is the one that would be most 2 contemporaneous in time because there are a whole 3 series of different incarnations. This is at 4 tab 75, tab 3. This is the May 5th draft of 5 Mr. Pardy's memo, which is the one -- okay, P-117, 6 tab 75, tab 3. Volume 2. P-117, volume 2, tab 7 75, tab 3.

8 --- Pause

9 MR. WALDMAN: I take you to this,
10 sir, because of your evidence that you said, 11 "Well, if CSIS would have had -- if you would have 12 had any understanding that there was still this 13 communication problem, you know, so long after 14 January 18th, you would have taken steps to 15 clarify it.

16 What I'm suggesting to you, sir,
17 is that at least someone from CSIS attended at a 18 meeting where this draft was discussed and there 19 were requests about changes in the wording. This 20 meeting, in my submission, clearly suggests that 21 as of May 5, 2003 there is clearly indications 22 that there are people who thought that CSIS didn't 23 want Mr. Arar back.

24 Perhaps we could go to that.

25 Paragraph 8.

1 MR. HOOPER: Yes.

2 MR. WALDMAN: Paragraph 8.

3 "CSIS officials visited Syria

4 earlier this year and

5 discussed Mr. Arar with their

6 counterparts. They did not

7 meet Mr. Arar. Subsequent to

8 these discussions Syrian

9 officials informed us that

10 they were informed by CSIS

11 officials that Canada did not

12 want to have Mr. Arar

13 returned. The CSIS officials

14 denied that they had said

15 this to the Syrians."

16 MR. HOOPER: Yes.

17 MR. WALDMAN: The next page.

18 "there is [urgent} need for 19 an unambiguous statement by 20 the government of Canada,

21 preferably signed by the

22 Solicitor General and the

23 Foreign Minister, to the

24 effect that we have no

25 evidence in Canada, or from

1 foreign sources, that
2 Mr. Arar is or was a member
3 of al-Qaida, that we do not
4 believe that such information
5 exists and that Mr. Arar
6 should be permitted to return
7 to Canada."

8 MR. HOOPER: Yes.

9 MR. WALDMAN: Then it goes on to 10 say:

11 "While we will continue to 12 engage the Syrians on the 13 case, there can be little
14 expectation that they will 15 respond positively as long as 16 the American claims remain
17 unchallenged and there is a
18 denial that Canadian security
19 and police officials do not
20 want to see Mr. Arar returned
21 to Canada."

22 So what I'm putting to you, sir, 23 is that your officials had a clear indication from 24 this memo that there was still a belief that 25 Canadian security and police officials do not want

1 to see Mr. Arar returned to Canada.

2 So maybe it didn't come up the 3 train to you, but someone in CSIS was aware in May 4 of 2003, and you already told us, sir, that if you 5 had only known you would have clarified it, but 6 you didn't know.

7 So is this a communication problem
8 with CSIS?

9 MR. HOOPER: I'm looking for the 10 clear indication that there is a continued
11 misperception on the part of the Syrian 12 government -- or a clear understanding by the 13 Syrian government that we don't want Arar back in 14 Canada. I don't see that in the memo, unless I'm 15 misreading something. Perhaps you could direct me 16 to --

17 MR. WALDMAN: I think your 18 evidence was -- and unfortunately we have had to 19 come back to this because I didn't have this 20 evidence before. Your evidence was that you were 21 completely unaware that there was this 22 communications problem and that there was this 23 misconception in terms of what was believed about 24 CSIS's position and that you would have cleared it 25 up?

1 MR. HOOPER: Yes, if somebody had 2 signalled that to us.

3 MR. WALDMAN: Right. What I'm 4 suggesting to you is that the signal is here.

5 MR. HOOPER: Where, Mr. Waldman?

6 MR. WALDMAN:

7 "While we will continue to
8 engage the Syrians on the 9 case, there can be little
10 expectation that they will
11 respond positively as long as
12 the American claims remain
13 unchallenged and there is a
14 denial that Canadian security
15 and police officials do not
16 want to see Mr. Arar returned
17 to Canada."

18 So the clear statement here is 19 that the "Canadian security and police officials 20 do not want to see Mr. Arar returned to Canada."

21 MR. HOOPER: Maybe it is the 22 double negative that is throwing me off here, but 23 I don't see that there is a signal to us here that 24 there is still a misunderstanding by the Syrian 25 government as to whether or not we want to see

1 Mr. Arar back in Canada. I'm not trying to be 2 obtuse, but I'm just having difficulty situating 3 your thesis against what is in that sentence
4 there.

5 MR. WALDMAN: Well, the way I read
6 the sentence, and I suppose we will have to leave 7 it up to the Commissioner to decide, is is there a 8 clear signal here in this sentence, that was 9 attended by your CSIS representative, that there 10 was still big confusion about what was the 11 position of CSIS. And Mr. Pardy says there has to 12 be an unambiguous statement by the Government of 13 Canada and there has to be a denial from the 14 security services that they don't want Mr. Arar 15 back.

16 MR. HOOPER: I'm sorry, 17 Mr. Waldman, I don't -- I don't read as much into 18 that -- I don't see that as a cry for help or a 19 cry for the --

20 MR. WALDMAN: "A request for a 21 clear an unambiguous statement from the security
22 services" --

23 MR. HOOPER: From the Government
24 of Canada.

25 MR. WALDMAN: It says from SolGen,

1 if I'm not mistaken?

2 MR. HOOPER: "By the government of 3 Canada, preferably signed by the Solicitor General
4 and Foreign Minister."

5 MR. WALDMAN: Well, we will leave 6 it up to ...

7 Now I would like to move on to 8 another area. You have already told us -- and I 9 am getting towards the end.

10 You have told us that CSIS has an 11 elaborate targeting process.

12 MR. HOOPER: Yes.

13 MR. WALDMAN: I think it is also 14 fair to say that -- at least the evidence that we 15 have is -- we are not going to ask you what your 16 view is, but A-OCANADA told us that Mr. Arar was 17 not a target at the beginning, that it was 18 Mr. Almalki and Mr. El-Maati. Indeed, if you look 19 at the Garvie report -- and I won't take you it to 20 due to time -- but all of the investigators that 21 were investigated said he wasn't a target, he was 22 peripheral to the investigation, that he was a 23 potential witness. That was the evidence in the 24 Garvie report.

25 MR. HOOPER: Yes.

1 MR. WALDMAN: Indeed, Inspector
2 Cabana testified that their wish was to interview
3 Mr. Arar as a potential witness. You were aware 4 of that as well?

5 MR. HOOPER: Yes.

6 MR. WALDMAN: So that was, I
7 think, a common understanding with respect to 8 Mr. Arar's status?

9 MR. HOOPER: Within the RCMP.

10 MR. WALDMAN: Right. Okay.

11 If we go on to the discussion
12 around the letter, I think it was agreed that the 13 purpose of the letter was to pressure the Syrians 14 to release Mr. Arar.

15 Correct?

16 MR. HOOPER: Correct.

17 MR. WALDMAN: This Ministerial
18 letter?

19 MR. HOOPER: Correct.

20 MR. WALDMAN: We already know that 21 the proposal put forward by the Ministers was no 22 evidence and CSIS was concerned about that 23 phrasing.

24 Correct, because you --

25 MR. HOOPER: The no evidence

1 phrase?

2 MR. WALDMAN: Yes?

3 MR. HOOPER: I think that was more
4 a preoccupation of the RCMP, because that means 5 something special to the RCMP. We have no concern 6 about evidence.

7 MR. WALDMAN: So what was CSIS's 8 concern about the wording proposed by the 9 Minister, because I thought this was a joint 10 CSIS-RCMP concern.

11 MR. HOOPER: Can you take me to 12 that, Mr. Waldman?

13 MR. WALDMAN: I will have to 14 find it.

15 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Exhibit P-117,
16 tab 75, sub tab 9.

17 MR. WALDMAN: I have that one.
18 that is the first wording. I was looking for 19 the --

20 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Sub tab 10.

21 MR. WALDMAN: Here, this is it.
22 Sub tab --

23 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Sub tab 8, the 24 last page.

25 MR. WALDMAN: No. No, I was

1 worried about the draft wording that CSIS had but 2 that is at sub tab 9. This is the proposed
3 letter.

4 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Sub tab 8 is the 5 "RCMP/CSIS have concerns" --
6 --- Off microphone / Sans microphone

7 MR. WALDMAN: Right. But I wanted
8 to take him back to sub tab 8, because he said he 9 didn't have the -- sub tab 9 -- the original 10 wording. Because I thought there was agreement 11 between RCMP and CSIS about the concerns, but 12 Mr. Hooper is saying he didn't have concerns. So 13 I just want to take him to the wording, and it is 14 found at tab 9, the proposed letter that the 15 Minister wanted to sign?

16 MR. HOOPER: So we are at tab 9?

17 MR. WALDMAN: Tab 9, third page 18 in.

19 MR. HOOPER: This is the --

20 MR. WALDMAN: Proposed letter that 21 was rejected?

22 MR. HOOPER: -- proposed letter,
23 yes.

24 MR. WALDMAN: And it says, in the 25 second paragraph:

1 "I [would] assure you that
2 the Government of Canada has
3 no evidence Mr. Arar was 4 involved in any terrorist
5 activity ..."

6 That was the objectionable phrase?

7 MR. HOOPER: Yes.

8 MR. WALDMAN: So CSIS didn't 9 have any objection to that phrase, it was the RCMP 10 that did?

11 MR. HOOPER: I don't know how 12 they -- this was floated during a consultation and 13 I don't know who said what in respect to that, but 14 I do know that this would probably be more 15 provocative to the RCMP than it would be to us.

16 MR. WALDMAN: But I'm asking,
17 because at tab 8 we have the proposed wording that 18 both you and CSIS accepted, which is --

19 MR. HOOPER: Both we and the RCMP?

20 MR. WALDMAN: Both you and the 21 RCMP accepted?

22 MR. HOOPER: That is on page 1?

23 MR. WALDMAN: Page 3 of 3 of tab
24 8.

25 "Mr. Arar is currently the

1 subject of a National 2 Security Investigation in 3 Canada. Although there is 4 not sufficient evidence at 5 this time to warrant Criminal
6 code charges, he remains a 7 subject of interest."

8 That was the proposed wording and 9 Mr. Cavalluzzo already took you to that and 10 suggested it wouldn't have been particularly 11 helpful?

12 MR. HOOPER: Okay.

13 MR. WALDMAN: So I just want to 14 clarify, then, your evidence.

15 CSIS was prepared to sign off on:
16 "I [would] assure you that
17 the Government of Canada has
18 no evidence Mr. Arar was
19 involved ..."

20 And this was just the RCMP that 21 was objecting, or CSIS objected too?

22 MR. HOOPER: I can't say, not 23 having been there. We probably would have 24 supported the RCMP. But I can tell you that words 25 like "evidence" -- "subject of interest" has no

1 meaning in our lexicon. That is why I'm drawing 2 that conclusion, but it is a conclusion.

3 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Mr. Commissioner
4 there is in-camera evidence dealing with that 5 particular point.

6 MR. WALDMAN: I just wanted to go
7 on and cover one last area.

8 Your evidence was that the primary 9 concern with respect to the other phraseology was 10 that the letter be accurate.

11 Correct?

12 MR. HOOPER: Yes.

13 MR. WALDMAN: I just want to take 14 you to the wording.

15 We know that Mr. Arar wasn't a 16 target.

17 Right? From the RCMP point of 18 view.

19 MR. HOOPER: From the RCMP point
20 of view? I can't speak to that.

21 MR. WALDMAN: So the wording
22 "subject of a National Security Investigation", 23 what did that mean to you?

24 MR. HOOPER: Where are you,
25 Mr. Waldman? You are on --

1 MR. WALDMAN: The wording that was 2 proposed by CSIS and the RCMP.

3 MR. HOOPER: Okay. Yes?

4 MR. WALDMAN: I mean, if this is 5 an effort to be helpful, what does it mean when 6 you say someone is the "subject of a National 7 Security Investigation"?

8 I mean, I know from CSIS' point of 9 view it is meaningless, right, because you don't 10 have subjects, you have targets.

11 Correct?

12 MR. HOOPER: That's correct.

13 MR. WALDMAN: So to you "subject" 14 is a meaningless concept.

15 Right?

16 MR. HOOPER: Where this is going 17 at some point I'm going to have to indicate that 18 I -- I can't get into a complete discussion around 19 all of this without invoking national security 20 confidence. I have a sense of where this 21 discussion is going.

22 MR. WALDMAN: Well, I guess the 23 difficulty I have --

24 MR. HOOPER: I think it puts me in 25 a position of having to say whether or not

1 Mr. Arar was a target of the Service --

2 MR. WALDMAN: No, that is not --

3 MR. HOOPER: -- to make any sense
4 of any answer I might give.

5 MR. WALDMAN: Well, you just told 6 us that "target" has one meaning and "subject" 7 doesn't have a meaning to you.

8 Is that correct?

9 MR. HOOPER: It has no meaning in 10 our lexicon.

11 MR. WALDMAN: Right. So to 12 say someone was a "subject" doesn't mean anything 13 to you?

14 MR. HOOPER: "A person of 15 interest" means nothing to us. A person is a 16 "target" or he' is not.

17 MR. WALDMAN: A person of 18 interest, a peripheral person of interest, target, 19 none of those things mean any -- nothing to you?

20 MR. HOOPER: Those are not words 21 we use in our targeting regime.

22 MR. WALDMAN: So I suppose what 23 I'm trying to understand is, why would CSIS
24 propose a wording that was particularly unhelpful
25 to Mr. Arar? I think we have all acknowledged

1 that. That was particularly -- it was completely
2 meaningless to CSIS?

3 MR. HOOPER: I don't know that we 4 proposed this language. I know that this was -- 5 let me read this here.

6 I think this was proposed in 7 consultation between the Department of Foreign 8 Affairs, ourselves and the RCMP. Whether this was 9 our proposal or the RCMP's, I can't say.

10 MR. WALDMAN: Okay.
11 Mr. Cavalluzzo covered the area of the leak.

12 Thank you. Those are my 13 questions.

14 THE COMMISSIONER: Thank you very 15 much, Mr. Waldman.

16 Ms McIsaac, I guess you are ...
17 --- Pause

18 MS McISAAC: I don't have any 19 questions, sir.

20 THE COMMISSIONER: Thank you.
21 Mr. Shore?

22 MR. SHORE: Yes. Thank you, sir.

23 EXAMINATION

24 MR. SHORE: Just a couple of 25 matters, Mr. Hooper.

1 You indicated, sir, that you have 2 known Gar Pardy for many years.

3 MR. HOOPER: That's correct.

4 MR. SHORE: During the period,
5 say, from the middle of January to the middle of 6 May 2003, did he ever call you and ask you to 7 clarify the CSIS position with regard to Arar's 8 return --

9 MR. HOOPER: No.

10 MR. SHORE: -- from Syria?

11 MR. HOOPER: No.

12 MR. SHORE: Or anybody else --

13 MR. HOOPER: Not that I recall.

14 MR. SHORE: -- from his department 15 call you?

16 MR. HOOPER: No.

17 MR. SHORE: If there had been such 18 a call or such a request, what would you have done 19 with it?

20 MR. HOOPER: I probably would have 21 asked at a senior level within Foreign Affairs, 22 what are we going to do about it? Is there 23 something we can do in collaboration with you or 24 independently of you?

25 We would not take a unilateral

1 action, I can say that. We wouldn't take action
2 without consulting with the Department of Foreign 3 Affairs.

4 MR. SHORE: But if they are asking
5 you for your help, would you have been reluctant 6 to provide it?

7 MR. HOOPER: No.

8 MR. SHORE: Was there ever an 9 official CSIS position that they didn't want Arar 10 back in Canada?

11 MR. HOOPER: No.

12 MR. SHORE: Was there ever an
13 official CSIS position that they didn't want a 14 letter to go from the Canadian Foreign Minister to 15 his counterpart in Syria requesting his return?

16 MR. HOOPER: No.

17 MR. SHORE: Leading up to the 18 conversation that you had with Ms McCallion in 19 early June of 2003, let's take it a week or two 20 before that, what was your understanding with 21 regard to the proposed letter that had been 22 discussed with the various agencies that the 23 Foreign Minister was to sign?

24 MR. HOOPER: I didn't have an 25 acute awareness of the general state of play on

1 any given day, but as far as I was concerned, 2 towards the middle of May, the issue around the 3 language that was going to be used in the letter
4 from Mr. Graham, as it related to Mr. Arar's 5 status had been negotiated and was settled.

6 MR. SHORE: Where did you get that
7 information?

8 MR. HOOPER: Where did I get it?

9 MR. SHORE: Yes.

10 MR. HOOPER: There are two 11 officials, at least two officials of the Service 12 that had been involved in discussions on an 13 ongoing basis and I learned from one of them.

14 MR. SHORE: Were you content with 15 that position?

16 MR. HOOPER: With the position
17 that had been negotiated?

18 MR. SHORE: Yes.

19 MR. HOOPER: Yes.

20 MR. SHORE: In your call to 21 Ms McCallion, was there any intention on your part 22 to have that languaging changed --

23 MR. HOOPER: No.

24 MR. SHORE: -- or not changed?

25 MR. HOOPER: No.

1 MR. SHORE: Was there any 2 discussion with Ms McCallion with regard to 3 whether or not CSIS wanted Arar to stay in Syria 4 because of resource issues?

5 MR. HOOPER: No.

6 MR. SHORE: Were resource issues
7 in fact even discussed with Ms McCallion?

8 MR. HOOPER: Not to the best of my 9 recollection, no.

10 MR. SHORE: I'm talking about 11 resources from the human perspective, human 12 resources, or financial perspective?

13 MR. HOOPER: No. No.

14 MR. SHORE: Was the discussion
15 of resources part of your purpose in calling 16 Ms McCallion?

17 MR. HOOPER: No.

18 MR. SHORE: All right, sir.

19 Those are my questions. Thank 20 you.

21 THE COMMISSIONER: Mr. Cavalluzzo?

22 MR. CAVALLUZZO: No questions.

23 THE COMMISSIONER: Okay. Well,
24 thank you very much, Mr. Hooper. You are, as you 25 know, going to be giving evidence, tomorrow

1 morning it will be now, in camera, at 10 o'clock.

2 MR. HOOPER: Yes.

3 THE COMMISSIONER: So that we will 4 see you again in the morning, but thank you for 5 your evidence here today. It has been helpful. I 6 appreciate the time and effort you have put in to 7 preparing.

8 MR. WALDMAN: Can we just clarify
9 what's happening next week?

10 Is Mr. Dickenson on Monday?

11 THE COMMISSIONER: Yes,
12 Mr. Dickenson is on at 9 o'clock Monday morning.

13 MR. WALDMAN: Do we need to start
14 at 9:00? It is the only witness tomorrow. I 15 guess it's up to you.

16 MR. CAVALLUZZO: Yes, we do,
17 because Mr. Dickenson has a personal engagement.
18 --- Off microphone / Sans microphone

19 MR. WALDMAN: Okay. Thank you.

20 THE COMMISSIONER: Okay. Then it
21 is Mr. Martel on Tuesday --

22 MR. WALDMAN: Tuesday and 23 Wednesday.

24 THE COMMISSIONER: -- and 25 Wednesday, and that will complete the evidence for 1 this inquiry.

2 MR. WALDMAN: Thank you.

3 THE COMMISSIONER: We will rise
4 now and resume public hearings at 9 o'clock Monday 5 morning.

6 THE REGISTRAR: Please stand.

7 --- Whereupon the hearing adjourned at 4:07 p.m., 8 to resume on Monday, August 29, 2005, at 9 9:00 a.m. / L'audience est ajournée à 16 h 07,
