Amendments to Consultation Paper
December 14, 2004

Following are amendments that have been made to the Consultation Paper, since its publication in October 2004. The amendments are highlighted below in bold, and unless otherwise stated, were made in both the French and English versions of the Paper.

| Page | Amendment |
|-------------|--|
| 8 | “...the Communications Security Establishment...” (Changed in english version only) |
| 25 | “SIRC does not have the authority to make binding conclusions, but its findings and recommendations are set forth in a public annual report to the Minister. The report is then laid before Parliament, thereby providing a form of legislative accountability for CSIS.” |
| 29 - 30 | In first paragraph under “Belgium” section, deletion of phrase “...and while Belgium’s criminal code does not include any terrorism-specific offences...” |
| 32 | In first paragraph under “Sweden” section, deletion of phrase “...and does not appear to have a separate statutory mandate”. Replaced by: “Its mandate is set out in an ordinance.” |
