5 THE REGISTRAR: Please be seated.

6 Veuillez vous asseoir.

7 THE COMMISSIONER: Good morning,

8 Mr. Manley.

9 HON. JOHN MANLEY: Good morning.

10 MR. DAVID: Good morning,

11 Mr. Commissioner.

12 We have with us Mr. John Manley

13 who will be providing testimony this morning.

14 Would you like to be sworn or 15 affirmed, Mr. Manley?

16 HON. JOHN MANLEY: I will swear.

17 THE COMMISSIONER: I will

18 administer the oath.

19 SWORN: JOHN MANLEY

20 THE COMMISSIONER: Your full name?

21 HON. JOHN MANLEY: John Manley.

22 THE COMMISSIONER: Thank you. You

23 may be seated.

24 EXAMINATION

25 MR. DAVID: First of all, thank

1 you for taking time to come before this Commission 2 to testify, Mr. Manley. I understand from your 3 partner, Ms McIsaac, that there will be some 4 flexibility in your billable hour ratio for this 5 month; so thank you.

6 --- Laughter / Rires

7 MR. DAVID: I would like to first
8 file your curriculum/CV as an exhibit and briefly 9 go through that with you.

10 THE COMMISSIONER: That will be 11 111.

12 MR. DAVID: Thank you.

13 EXHIBIT NO. P-111:
14 Curriculum Vitae of John
15 Manley

16 MR. DAVID: From your CV,
17 Mr. Manley, it's evident that you have vast 18 political experience. As I see, as I can count, I 19 believe that you have occupied eight various 20 portfolios as Minister, and I will briefly outline 21 those ministries with you.

22 First of all, you were elected in 23 1988 for the first time to Parliament?

24 HON. JOHN MANLEY: That's right.

25 MR. DAVID: You were Minister of 1 Industry from 1993 to 2000. You were also 2 Minister Responsible for Atlantic Canada and 3 Opportunities Agency, Minister of Western Economic 4 Diversification, Minister Responsible for the 5 Economic Development Agency of Canada for the 6 Region of Quebec, and this from 1996 to 2000?

7 HON. JOHN MANLEY: That's right.

8 MR. DAVID: You then served in a
9 senior position as Minister of Foreign Affairs 10 from 2000, and that would be from October of the 11 year 2000 to January of 2002?

12 HON. JOHN MANLEY: That's right.

13 MR. DAVID: And following the days
14 or weeks after the 9/11 attacks on September 11th, 15 you became chairman of a new ad hoc cabinet 16 committee which was entitled the Committee on 17 Public Security and Anti-terrorism?

18 HON. JOHN MANLEY: Yes.

19 MR. DAVID: And this is a position
20 that you occupied until December of the year 2003?

21 HON. JOHN MANLEY: Yes.

22 MR. DAVID: So for some 23 approximately 26 months you occupied that 24 position.

25 Then in January of 2002, the Prime

1 Minister appointed you Deputy Prime Minister of 2 Canada, and this position you occupied until 3 December of 2003?

4 HON. JOHN MANLEY: That's right.

5 MR. DAVID: And whilst being 6 Deputy Prime Minister of Canada, you were also the 7 Political Minister for Ontario, the Minister of 8 Infrastructure and Crown Corporations, as well as 9 the Chairman of the Cabinet Committees on Economic 10 Union and Social Union?

11 HON. JOHN MANLEY: That's right -- 12 actually, not right through to December 2003, but 13 for part of that time.

14 MR. DAVID: Okay. And finally, 15 you became Finance Minister in June of 2002 and in 16 fact tabled the federal budget in February of 17 2003?

18 HON. JOHN MANLEY: Right.

19 MR. DAVID: And presently you are 20 a senior partner, senior counsel, with the firm of 21 McCarthy Tetrault, both in Ottawa and in Toronto?

22 HON. JOHN MANLEY: Right.

23 MR. DAVID: Thank you. As a point
24 of reference to begin your testimony, I bring you 25 back to those days of the events of 9/11,

1 September 2001.

2 You were at that time Minister of 3 Foreign Affairs. I would like you to give us a 4 sense of your occupations in the months previous 5 to 9/11 as a benchmark, and the kinds of 6 initiatives that were being worked on with our 7 partners in the United States in terms of 8 agreements, bilateral agreements.

9 There was I believe the Biological 10 Arms Treaty, as well as the Anti-Ballistic Arms
11 Treaty that was in the works at that time.

12 So could you give us a sense of 13 the environment in which you were working in the 14 months previous to 9/11?

15 HON. JOHN MANLEY: Well, I was 16 Minister of Foreign Affairs. There were many 17 issues that we dealt with on an ongoing basis.
18 Canada was hosting the G-7, G-8 summit in 2002.
19 Consequently, for me as Minister, some of my work 20 in 2001 was to prepare the stage for our hosting 21 of the G-8.

22 The Minister of Foreign Affairs --
23 Canada is a member of a lot of clubs, if you could 24 put it that way, so that the Minister of Foreign 25 Affairs has a lot of travel to do and frequent

1 meetings in those contexts.

2 Some of the issues that you
3 referred to that came up, which gave us some 4 challenges with the United States, included their 5 indication that they would be withdrawing from the 6 Anti Ballistic Missile Treaty in order to build 7 their ballistic missile defence system; their 8 decision to not sign the Biological Weapons 9 Treaty, which Canada had advocated for. In 10 addition, they had decided not to enter into the 11 Land Mines Treaty for certain reasons.

12 So there were a number of issues 13 that were really on the international scene at the 14 time that found us in a somewhat different 15 position than the U.S.

16 MR. DAVID: One of the areas you
17 will be testifying on today is the Smart Border 18 Agreement that was signed and officialized as of 19 December of 2001. I would like you to give us a 20 sense of the kinds of work that was already 21 existing in the sense of our partnership with the 22 United States and the management of our border 23 with this country in the time period before 9/11.

24 HON. JOHN MANLEY: Prior to 9/11?
25 Well, there had been work that was been done under

1 the rubric of something called the Canada-U.S.
2 Partnership, CUSP, and a document had been 3 produced dealing with a lot of border improvement 4 issues.

5 That preceded my time at Foreign 6 Affairs, but I recall that in the first meeting 7 that I had with Colin Powell, when he was the new 8 Secretary of State for the United States, my 9 Assistant Deputy Minister for the Americas, George 10 Hainault, was very anxious that I give Mr. Powell
11 a copy of the CUSP report because border issues 12 were important to us. And he accepted it very 13 graciously.

14 I wouldn't say that he showed a 15 great deal of interest in border issues, but I 16 guess we had at least registered the fact that 17 these were matters of concern.

18 MR. DAVID: Would it be fair to 19 say that your sense in terms of priorities for the 20 Americans -- it certainly was a much higher 21 priority on Canada's agenda to make sure that we 22 had appropriate border mechanisms and agreements 23 with the States than it was a priority for the 24 United States?

25 HON. JOHN MANLEY: The U.S. was

1 paying very little attention to the northern 2 border at that stage.

3 MR. DAVID: Okay. Now, with the 4 events of 9/11, I would like to spend a bit of 5 time with you and the environment that this 6 created in terms of our relationship with the 7 United States.

8 Perhaps before coming to that 9 issue, could you give us a sense of the global 10 focus on security that occurred post 9/11 in terms 11 of international bodies and resolutions?

12 HON. JOHN MANLEY: Well post-9/11
13 there was an immediate response in the 14 international community to the events that had 15 occurred, and you had very rapidly a series of 16 resolutions adopted that really created the 17 framework for a number of states taking new 18 actions or enhanced actions with respect to 19 security or legislation related to anti-terrorism.

20 You had the U.N. resolution that 21 was adopted very quickly after 9/11. NATO invoked
22 Article 19, I guess it is. The OAS adopted a 23 resolution. Virtually all of these international 24 organizations adopted some form of resolution very 25 quickly after 9/11.

1 MR. DAVID: And could you give us
2 a sense of your work with the Americans in terms
3 of managing the crisis and the potential impact 4 that this was going to have, or could have, with 5 our border with the United States?

6 HON. JOHN MANLEY: The immediate 7 effect of the attacks on 9/11 was twofold. As 8 everyone knows, of course, the civil aviation 9 system in the United States was shut down, and 10 consequently we were asked to receive 11 international flights that were otherwise bound 12 for the United States.

13 Secondly, although the border, the 14 land border, never really closed, it wasn't really 15 open either. It seemed that nobody on the U.S.
16 side really knew what the situation was, how to 17 manage it, and everything from auto parts 18 companies through to ordinary travellers were 19 finding it next to impossible to get across the 20 border for several days following 9/11.

21 The delays then persisted,
22 although in the aftermath of 9/11 command systems 23 began to come into effect and people were able to 24 make decisions, and Customs and Immigration people 25 on the U.S. side were relaxing to some degree.

1 But in the weeks following, the 2 delays for shipments going into the United States 3 were way out of line with what was normal. So we 4 were certainly aware that there was a serious 5 issue brewing for Canada.

6 MR. DAVID: In terms of our 7 economy?

8 HON. JOHN MANLEY: Well, in terms
9 of the fact that if you shut down an auto assembly 10 plant, the cost is in the millions of dollars per 11 hour. And since a lot of the components were 12 crossing the border in order to make those plants 13 operate, obviously you don't want to have that 14 kind of obstacle to the operations on the Canadian 15 side of the border, for obvious reasons: our 16 market is much smaller.

17 MR. DAVID: And as Minister of 18 Foreign Affairs, did you get a sense from your 19 American counterparts that there were myths that 20 existed at the time wherein Canada was identified 21 as being a culprit in being the vehicle for the 22 terrorist attacks in New York City?

23 HON. JOHN MANLEY: Well, I
24 understand that it was reported very early in the 25 day on September 11th, on some of the U.S. media,

1 that at least some of the terrorists had entered 2 the United States from Canada. That has 3 persisted.

4 In fact, I noticed that a couple 5 of weeks ago Frank McKenna, our ambassador, was 6 obliged to ask Newt Gingrich to correct a 7 statement he made very recently to the effect that 8 9/11 terrorists entered from Canada.

9 I was asked by Prime Minister
10 Chretien to go and meet with Senator Clinton from 11 New York who had made a similar comment in months 12 following. So it became part of conventional 13 wisdom that some of these people must have come 14 across the northern border.

15 MR. DAVID: So there was this 16 prevailing myth in the United States' psyche that 17 Canada was somehow tied into these attacks? There 18 were potentially harsh economic realities to the 19 crisis.

20 We as a country responded, and we 21 responded in many ways.

22 I would like to focus with you,
23 Mr. Manley, on perhaps two areas of how our 24 government responded to the crisis.

25 The first -- and we have already

1 referred to it when we reviewed your CV -- was the 2 creation of the ad hoc committee. It was a 3 cabinet ad hoc committee on public safety and 4 anti-terrorism.

5 Could you give us a sense of when 6 that was created, the genesis of that committee 7 and its mandate?

8 HON. JOHN MANLEY: Well, it was 9 created, I guess, in -- I don't know if I have 10 that date. It would have been probably in about 11 October 2001, in the aftermath of 9/11 and with 12 the responsibility that Canada had to respond to 13 the U.N. resolutions that followed 9/11.

14 We didn't have in our cabinet
15 structure any kind of committee that was devoted 16 to national security or even to international 17 affairs and defence. Those matters were discussed 18 in full cabinet and didn't go to any of the other 19 cabinet committees.

20 So I think the Prime Minister --
21 Prime Minister Chretien did not look having a lot 22 of cabinet committees. Generally speaking he 23 preferred that Ministers do their jobs, and 24 particularly issues that were of broad concern to 25 the government should be discussed in full

1 cabinet.

2 In this case he was persuaded that 3 an ad hoc committee would be appropriate, given 4 that we did have a number of international 5 obligations to respond to, and it was expected 6 that the budget would include increased spending 7 on defence and security and somebody was going to 8 have to monitor how that money was actually spent 9 in the aftermath of the budget.

10 MR. DAVID: You have touched upon 11 perhaps the second point I was seeking to clarify 12 with you in terms of this country's response to 13 the 9/11 crisis, and that was the acceleration of 14 the budget cycle. We will come to that just in a 15 few minutes.

16 Before getting to that, the 17 function of this new ad hoc committee, is it fair 18 to say that you were vetting issues before the 19 full cabinet would discuss matters of security, 20 such as legislative response, Bill C-36?

21 Would that be an example of the 22 kind of work this committee would be doing?

23 HON. JOHN MANLEY: C-36 was 24 discussed at great length in the ad hoc committee 25 before going to full cabinet.

1 MR. DAVID: And you were the chair
2 of this committee. How many people comprised the 3 committee?

4 HON. JOHN MANLEY: How many were 5 on the committee? I can't really remember. Maybe 6 eight to ten Ministers?

7 MR. DAVID: How often would you
8 meet, Mr. Manley?

9 HON. JOHN MANLEY: In the early 10 stages when we were dealing with multiple issues, 11 we met weekly, and then it subsided somewhat.

12 Normally, cabinet committees would 13 meet weekly when Parliament was in session, and we 14 followed that pattern by meeting I think fairly 15 regularly after full cabinet on Tuesday at noon 16 hour.

17 But, as I say, we started I think 18 weekly, and then we backed off to every second 19 week and then less frequently.

20 MR. DAVID: And you were 21 responsible for setting the agenda of this ad hoc 22 committee?

23 HON. JOHN MANLEY: Privy Council
24 Office provided support to the committee, so the 25 agenda would be set by PCO in consultation with me

1 and with Ministers who had items that they wished 2 to have discussed at the committee.

3 MR. DAVID: So there was a
4 fulltime support team that existed within PCO for 5 the activities of the committee?

6 HON. JOHN MANLEY: Yes.

7 MR. DAVID: Would the ad hoc 8 committee discuss operational issues?

9 HON. JOHN MANLEY: Not generally 10 speaking, except to the extent that post-budget we 11 did -- one of the things that we endeavoured to do 12 was ask Ministers to come back to report on the 13 implementation of the additional funding that they 14 had received. So to some degree those were 15 operational issues.

16 But broadly speaking, no. Like 17 other cabinet committees, it was there for policy 18 focus rather than to assist in Ministers operating 19 their departments.

20 MR. DAVID: And coming now more 21 specifically to the mandate of this Commission of 22 Inquiry, to your knowledge, in the time the Arar 23 affair was an issue that the government was 24 dealing with on a daily basis, was Mr. Arar's fate 25 ever discussed at this ad hoc committee?

1 HON. JOHN MANLEY: Not that I
2 recall.

3 MR. DAVID: Okay. I would like to 4 spend a few moments with you in terms of 5 describing the American response and how Mr. Ridge 6 became your counterpart in terms of the ad hoc 7 committee's mandate and work.

8 It is my understanding that 9 Governor Ridge was appointed to the Office of 10 Homeland Security and became direct advisor to the 11 President of the United States, and this was as of 12 October 2001?

13 HON. JOHN MANLEY: That's right.

14 MR. DAVID: And eventually this 15 advisory position moved into a permanent structure 16 that we now know as the Department of Homeland 17 Security, and that was created as of January of 18 2003?

19 HON. JOHN MANLEY: That's right.

20 MR. DAVID: During the time you 21 were chair of the ad hoc committee, Mr. Manley, at 22 all times you were Mr. Ridge's direct counterpart 23 in his functions with the Department of Homeland
24 Security, and this until December of 2003?

25 HON. JOHN MANLEY: That's right.

1 MR. DAVID: How soon did you meet
2 Mr. Ridge in his new position as advisor to the 3 President?

4 HON. JOHN MANLEY: When Mr. Ridge
5 was named in a speech to Congress and as the 6 President's advisor, I think within a day or two 7 the Prime Minister asked me to act as his 8 counterpart. I was Minister of Foreign Affairs at 9 the time.

10 So I called him immediately. I 11 put a call in to the Governor's residence in 12 Pennsylvania and had a conversation with him. And 13 when he relocated to Washington some weeks later, 14 I paid an early visit to see him.

15 MR. DAVID: And what was on your 16 agenda at that time?

17 HON. JOHN MANLEY: Well, my agenda
18 was to try to minimize the effect of 9/11 on the 19 Canadian economy.

20 MR. DAVID: So you met Mr. Ridge
21 in that context?

22 HON. JOHN MANLEY: That's right.

23 MR. DAVID: And how would you
24 describe your relationship, your working 25 relationship, with Mr. Ridge as it occurred

1 between October 2001 and December 2003?

2 HON. JOHN MANLEY: We had a very 3 close working relationship. We cooperated on many 4 things. We built a personal friendship. I was 5 always grateful for the fact that we had, as an 6 interlocutor on these issues, somebody who was 7 familiar with the importance of Canada-U.S.
8 economic relations, having been the Governor of a 9 northern state, a Great Lakes state.

10 MR. DAVID: Now coming back to 11 Canada's second response -- one of the responses 12 that we had to 9/11, and that was the acceleration 13 of the budget cycle.

14 Could you explain to us in what 15 context this occurred, what brought this on, and 16 the role of the ad hoc committee with regard to 17 this increase in budgets for certain security 18 departments, such as the RCMP and CSIS?

19 HON. JOHN MANLEY: With respect to 20 the acceleration of the cycle, that's something 21 you might have to ask the Minister of Finance of 22 the day about.

23 But as I recall, in the immediate 24 aftermath of 9/11, there was a great deal of 25 economic uncertainty, and it seems to me that, in

1 part, the response was to try to deal with that as 2 well as creating a financial framework to 3 implement some measures that arose out of the 4 events of 9/11, including increased spending for 5 some of the agencies.

6 In part, that budget, because of 7 what was seen as a security imperative, impeded on 8 the contingency fund that had become a 9 characteristic of budgets. In the end, it wasn't 10 actually required, but it was seen as enough of an 11 imperative that Mr. Martin reduced the contingency 12 reserve in that budget.

13 Really, the ad hoc committee had 14 nothing to do with planning the budget. The 15 Ministers broadly are consulted prior to a budget 16 being finalized, and that normal broad 17 consultation occurred. In the normal course 18 everybody tries to advance their own case, no 19 matter what Ministry they have.

20 In the aftermath, though, as I 21 said earlier, the committee did play a role in 22 monitoring the implementation of some of the 23 incremental funds that had been made available in 24 the December 2001 budget.

25 MR. DAVID: And that included

1 holding agencies accountable for these increases 2 in their operating budgets, such as the RCMP and 3 CSIS?

4 HON. JOHN MANLEY: We would ask
5 them to come in, or for the Minister to come in 6 and to describe what they were doing and how they 7 were allocating the additional funds that were 8 made available to them.

9 MR. DAVID: Okay. I would like to 10 now come to deal with the issue of the Smart 11 Border Declaration, Mr. Manley.

12 I would refer you to two exhibits:
13 one is P-35 and the other is P-36.

14 These documents, Mr. Manley, have 15 already been filed, and they are issued from the 16 Department of Foreign Affairs, DFAIT.

17 The first is as of December 2001,
18 that's P-35; and the second is a progress report 19 that was filed in October 2003, so almost two 20 years after the fact. I would just like to go 21 through the contents of these documents with you 22 briefly.

23 First of all, the U.S. Smart 24 Border Declaration includes what is referred to as 25 a 30-point action plan, and this was

1 officialized -- it was signed on December 12th, 2 2001?

3 HON. JOHN MANLEY: That's right.

4 MR. DAVID: You have already 5 provided us with some context about this Smart
6 Border Declaration. In effect, the initiative 7 preexisted the 9/11 crisis?

8 HON. JOHN MANLEY: Most, if not 9 all of this, was in that Canada-U.S. Partnership 10 initiative, the CUSP.

11 MR. DAVID: Would it be fair to 12 say that one of the purposes, or the main purpose, 13 of the Smart Border Declaration was to develop a 14 North American zone of confidence against 15 terrorist activities?

16 HON. JOHN MANLEY: Well, one of 17 the objectives was to meet the concern about 18 security that had become the prevailing worry in 19 the United States. We would have shared that 20 objective, but I would have said from the Canadian 21 point of view, the principal objective was 22 economic.

23 MR. DAVID: Okay. And it was 24 clear that in a sense the crisis brought on by 25 9/11 created an opportunity, if I could express

1 myself that way, for Canada in terms of making
2 this a priority agenda item for the United States.

3 Is that a fair --

4 HON. JOHN MANLEY: Yes. I
5 wouldn't want to give the impression that we 6 somehow were happy that the opportunity had been 7 presented in this fashion.

8 MR. DAVID: I don't want to give 9 that impression either.

10 HON. JOHN MANLEY: But clearly we 11 now had senior U.S. people, particularly 12 Mr. Ridge, sitting in the White House, paying 13 attention to the northern border. That was 14 definitely an opportunity.

15 MR. DAVID: And so Mr. Ridge was 16 your counterpart in managing the implementation of 17 the Smart Border Agreement?

18 HON. JOHN MANLEY: Yes. Both Tom
19 Ridge and I had at that time a kind of parallel 20 role in the sense that neither one of us had 21 operational responsibility for any of the elements
22 of these things. In his case, it changed later; 23 and in our case, the change in machinery of 24 government came when Mr. Martin formed a 25 government.

1 But at that time neither one of us
2 had any kind of direct responsibility. He had the 3 clout of being across the hall from the Oval 4 Office, and I had the support of the Prime 5 Minister, but we didn't actually run any of the 6 relevant agencies.

7 MR. DAVID: Okay. Now, the 8 responsibility for implementing the declaration in 9 Canada fell upon, I understand, the Borders Task
10 Force, which was under the auspices of the Privy 11 Council Office. Could you explain that?

12 HON. JOHN MANLEY: Well, the Privy
13 Council Office, as a central agency, has a role to 14 play, and the Borders Task Force was very much key 15 to trying to get everybody, all of the cats 16 herded, that were working on this set of issues.

17 So they had to deal with -- 18 whether it was the RCMP, or CSIS, or the 19 immigration department or other, transport. There 20 were a host of departments and agencies that had 21 pieces of this. They had the coordinating role 22 with respect to it.

23 MR. DAVID: The declaration refers 24 to what are called four pillars: the first of 25 those pillars being the secure flow of people; the

1 second being secure flow of goods; the third being 2 a secure infrastructure; and finally, the fourth 3 pillar being the coordination and 4 information-sharing for the enforcement of these 5 objectives.

6 In terms of the secure flow of 7 people, essentially, Mr. Manley -- and correct me
8 if I am wrong -- it concerned identifying security 9 threats and establishing a secure system to 10 expedite the flow of low-risk travellers.

11 Would that be a fair statement?

12 HON. JOHN MANLEY: Yes, I think 13 that's a fair way to describe it. In other words, 14 if the border became the place where you checked 15 everybody, we are talking about an impossible 16 task. Therefore, to make it easy for frequent 17 travellers, for people who presented no particular 18 risk profile, we had to find ways to streamline 19 the processes.

20 MR. DAVID: And so the same 21 objective existed for the flow of goods; that is, 22 on one hand you want to identify goods that are 23 risk factors, and you also want to expedite the 24 flow of goods that don't pose a risk to security?

25 HON. JOHN MANLEY: Yes, probably

1 200 firms account for 90 per cent of the 2 cross-border flow of goods. If you can take that 3 90 per cent out of the necessity of thorough 4 checking, you expedite the movement of goods 5 across the border.

6 As I often said, it's very 7 unlikely that there is going to be a terrorist 8 lurking in a truckload of hub caps going to 9 General Motors. It's just not likely going to 10 happen. So don't stop the hub caps at the border.

11 MR. DAVID: The third pillar
12 concerns secure infrastructure, and this relates 13 to -- the document identifies airports, ports, 14 bridges, tunnels, pipelines and power lines. So 15 we want to minimize threats to infrastructure, and 16 that's one of the objectives or one of the pillars 17 of this agreement.

18 And finally, the fourth is the 19 coordination and sharing of vital information with 20 regard to identifying security threats.

21 So in terms of those four pillars,
22 Mr. Manley, there is identified a 30-point action
23 plan, and I certainly don't want to bring you 24 through each of those 30 points.

25 I just want to identify the ones

1 that seem the most relevant to the interests of 2 this inquiry.

3 That would be item 8 and that 4 would be on page -- well, it's identified at the 5 top as being page 24. It's the Advance Passenger 6 Information/Passenger Name Record information
7 exchange; Item 9, which is the Joint Passenger 8 Analysts Units; and Item 11, which is Compatible 9 Immigration Databases.

10 Those three action plans concern 11 the first pillar, which is the secure flow of 12 people.

13 And then I would like to highlight
14 four of the action plans that concern coordination 15 and information-sharing. Those would be items 24, 16 which is the Joint Enforcement Coordination; 25, 17 which is Integrated Intelligence; 27, the Removal 18 of Deportees; and finally 28, which is Counter 19 Terrorism Legislation.

20 And certainly Bill C-36 was a 21 response in that sense. Would you agree?

22 HON. JOHN MANLEY: I am sorry, 23 what was the question?

24 MR. DAVID: In terms of action
25 item number 28, Counter Terrorism Legislation, I

1 am just saying our response was the adoption of 2 Bill C-36 in that regard?

3 HON. JOHN MANLEY: Well, actually 4 I would say C-36 was a response to the U.N.
5 resolution, rather than to this item.

6 MR. DAVID: Rather than to the 7 item. Okay.

8 And then we have as Exhibit P-36,
9 Mr. Manley, a progress report.

10 There was a commitment that the 11 implementation of the Smart Border Declaration 12 would be followed closely, monitored by yourself
13 and Mr. Ridge?

14 HON. JOHN MANLEY: Well, we came 15 to that conclusion. I mean, things sometimes 16 happen rather slowly in government, believe it or 17 not, and in this case we made a point of meeting
18 regularly and reviewing progress on the Smart 19 Border Accord so we that could ensure that the 20 work was getting done and the implementation 21 occurred.

22 MR. DAVID: So essentially you
23 wanted to make sure -- there was a commitment by 24 both governments to keep this a high-priority item 25 on each of your respective agendas.

1 HON. JOHN MANLEY: That's right.

2 MR. DAVID: So we have this status
3 report that was filed as Exhibit P-36, and I am 4 certainly not going to bring you through each of 5 the status reports on the 30 items.

6 I note that the 30-point action
7 plan becomes a 32-point action plan in October 8 2003, with the addition of Biosecurity at Item 31, 9 and Science and Technology Cooperation as Item 32?

10 HON. JOHN MANLEY: Right.

11 MR. DAVID: We move now,
12 Mr. Manley, to the actual time line for the Arar 13 affair, and I would bring you to PCO, which is 14 P-48, Volume 1, and it would be tab 4.

15 HON. JOHN MANLEY: Tab 4?

16 MR. DAVID: Tab 4 of P-48, and 17 these are the PCO documents that have been filed 18 before this Commission.

19 We have moved now considerably 20 ahead in time, and this is a briefing note that is 21 going to the Prime Minister. You are now Deputy 22 Prime Minister of Canada, and it's my 23 understanding, Mr. Manley, that as DPM you were 24 receiving all briefing notes that were going to 25 the Prime Minister?

1 HON. JOHN MANLEY: Normally that 2 would be the case, but also normally it's 3 indicated on the document.

4 MR. DAVID: And we will see most 5 documents do indicate copy for the Deputy Prime 6 Minister.

7 HON. JOHN MANLEY: Right.

8 MR. DAVID: This is a memo, now, 9 that is going to our Prime Minister, and it's 10 dated October 18th.

11 I remind you that Mr. Arar landed 12 in New York City on September 26th of 2002 and was 13 deported from the country on October 8th of 2002.
14 So we are now on October 18th.

15 At this point in time Syria still 16 has not confirmed that they hold Mr. Arar, just to 17 situate you in terms of context.

18 In terms of this memo, I would 19 bring you to page 3 of the document, and it's the 20 third bullet.

21 Again, just to situate you 22 time-wise, there is reference to the fact in the 23 first bullet that Mr. Graham, the new Minister of 24 Foreign Affairs, has met the Ambassador of the 25 United States on October 15th.

1 And so on the 18th, the third 2 bullet refers to the following in terms of your 3 office as Deputy Prime Minister and says:

4 "Foreign Affairs has prepared 5 press lines respecting the 6 Arar case. It is understood
7 that Deputy Prime Minister
8 Manley will be meeting with 9 Homeland Security Chief Tom 10 Ridge on Friday, October
11 18th, and that these press
12 lines have been prepared in 13 support of that meeting. The 14 DFAIT press lines are 15 attached for your 16 information."

17 And if you go further on in the 18 documents, it's towards the end. In fact, in the 19 last four pages there are the press lines.

20 HON. JOHN MANLEY: Yes.

21 MR. DAVID: And there are also 22 suggested press lines.

23 Do you recall, Mr. Manley, having 24 read these press lines prepared by DFAIT at this 25 time?

1 HON. JOHN MANLEY: Not
2 specifically, no.

3 MR. DAVID: And do you recall
4 meeting Mr. Ridge in the way that this document 5 identifies?

6 HON. JOHN MANLEY: It would be 7 helpful if I knew where that meeting was supposed 8 to have taken place because I had numbers of 9 meetings with him. I wouldn't dispute that it 10 took place; I just don't remember which of many 11 meetings this might have been.

12 MR. DAVID: Okay. In this time,
13 which is October of 2002, specifically October 14 18th, I remind you that Mr. Arar has not been 15 confirmed by the Syrians to be in Syria. He is 16 not in the United States. There is certainly a 17 lot of activity on the part of Canadian 18 authorities to locate -- on the part of DFAIT
19 authorities to locate Mr. Arar.

20 Do you recall intervening directly
21 with Mr. Ridge to try to ascertain what happened 22 to Mr. Arar and where he was to be found? Do you 23 recall dealing with that issue?

24 HON. JOHN MANLEY: I don't recall
25 dealing with it at this point in time.

1 MR. DAVID: Do you recall if you
2 were requested by anybody within the government to 3 discuss the issue of where Mr. Arar was to be 4 found?

5 HON. JOHN MANLEY: No.

6 MR. DAVID: Okay. We go now to 7 tab 8 of this same binder, and this is a document 8 that is dated October 22nd. But where I want to 9 bring you is in reference to the fact that 10 Mr. Bilodeau, Robert Bilodeau, has been asked to 11 meet Mr. Ward Elcock, the Director of CSIS, on 12 October 17th.

13 First of all, could you tell us 14 who Robert Bilodeau was in terms of your office at 15 this time?

16 HON. JOHN MANLEY: Is it Robert?

17 MR. DAVID: Robert, yes.

18 HON. JOHN MANLEY: Well,
19 Mr. Bilodeau was Deputy Minister to the Deputy 20 Prime Minister.

21 MR. DAVID: Okay. So would it be 22 fair to say he was --

23 HON. JOHN MANLEY: A senior 24 bureaucrat.

25 MR. DAVID: And he was a close

1 collaborator of yours?

2 HON. JOHN MANLEY: Well, he was -- 3 he had other responsibilities in PCO, so I
4 wouldn't have said that he was -- in most cases a 5 Minister has a Deputy Minister. That's a unique 6 relationship.

7 In my case, it was a little bit of 8 an odd creation when I became Deputy Prime 9 Minister because I was given quite a range of 10 duties, and the Clerk assigned Mr. Bilodeau, who 11 had other responsibilities in PCO as well, to 12 function as my Deputy Minister. He was kind of 13 the person that I would go to if I needed things 14 done.

15 But I wouldn't have said that -- I 16 wouldn't have put it in quite the same terms that 17 you have.

18 MR. DAVID: Okay. And if we go to 19 page 1 of tab 8, Mr. Manley, it's at the very 20 bottom in the last paragraph.

21 It says the following:

22 "I am aware that Mr. Bilodeau
23 and Director Elcock discussed
24 the Arar case on Thursday
25 afternoon ..."

1 And that would be October 17th, 2 the day before you were meeting Mr. Ridge on 3 October 18th.

4 "... on Thursday afternoon in 5 terms of the potential for 6 this matter to be raised by 7 Deputy Prime Minister Manley
8 during a meeting scheduled 9 for the following day with 10 U.S. Homeland Security Chief
11 Governor Tom Ridge."

12 And on the next page, the very top 13 bullet says:

14 "I produced a note based on 15 the information I had 16 received and appended the 17 DFAIT press lines to it.
18 Gerry Deneault delivered the 19 note to Mr. Bilodeau Friday
20 morning. I was subsequently 21 informed Friday morning that 22 Mr. Bilodeau asked that the 23 note be abridged and 24 reproduced for the Prime 25 Minister with a copy to the

1 Deputy Prime Minister. Press
2 lines were also to be 3 prepared."

4 So it seems to me what is 5 happening here in this reference, Mr. Manley, is 6 that Mr. Bilodeau has met Mr. Elcock, in view of 7 your meeting with Mr. Ridge on the Friday and in 8 view of potentially discussing the Arar issue.

9 I was just wondering if this 10 refreshes your memory or reminds you of the chain 11 of events for these two days?

12 HON. JOHN MANLEY: I wasn't aware 13 of any of that.

14 By the way, it's Ron Bilodeau.

15 MR. DAVID: Ron Bilodeau? Okay.

16 HON. JOHN MANLEY: I knew there 17 was something wrong there.

18 MR. DAVID: I am relying on these 19 documents to give you the name, Mr. Manley.

20 --- Laughter / Rires

21 MR. DAVID: And were you aware 22 that Mr. Ron Bilodeau was meeting Mr. Elcock on 23 this day, on October 17th?

24 HON. JOHN MANLEY: No.

25 MR. DAVID: We now go to the DFAIT

1 documents, and I would bring you to tab 398.

2 THE COMMISSIONER: What volume is
3 that?

4 MR. DAVID: Volume 4.

5 THE COMMISSIONER: Thank you.

6 MR. DAVID: Again, we are 7 significantly moving ahead in time and it's now 8 April of 2003.

9 At this tab we have a letter that 10 is addressed to you on April 28th, 2003, that is 11 signed by Ms Monia Mazigh, Mr. Arar's wife.

12 Let me first ask you: Do you
13 recall ever discussing before this date, April 14 28th, 2003 -- Mr. Arar is still detained in Syria 15 at this time. We now know he is in Syria as of 16 October 21st, 2002. Mr. Arar is in Syria and he 17 was in Syria until October of 2003.

18 So I am asking you, first of all:
19 When you received this letter in terms of the time 20 reference, do you recall ever discussing with 21 Mr. Ridge before this date the issue of Mr. Arar?

22 HON. JOHN MANLEY: I can't be sure 23 what dates we had discussions about it. Certainly 24 we had an early discussion -- an earlier 25 discussion at the time of one of our meetings

1 about the fact that this was an issue; in 2 particular, we frequently had joint press 3 availability after our meetings, and he might have 4 been asked a question by Canadian journalists. In 5 fact, if I am not mistaken, he probably was.

6 So we would have had discussions.
7 But until he actually became the Secretary of 8 Homeland Security, he didn't have the direct 9 responsibility for any of the agencies involved.

10 I then know I had a later 11 discussion with him after Mr. Arar's return and 12 was told, although he was always very gracious, 13 that the United States had decided this was 14 Mr. Powell's matter to deal with and he wasn't in 15 a position to deal with it.

16 MR. DAVID: And before Mr. Arar
17 returns to our country, did you ever get any 18 information from Mr. Ridge to explain what had 19 happened to Mr. Arar?

20 HON. JOHN MANLEY: No.

21 MR. DAVID: So coming back now to 22 tab 398, this is Mrs. Mazigh's letter. She refers 23 to the fact that yesterday she had met you when 24 you had given a speech to the Ottawa Muslim 25 Women's Organization.

1 Do you recall meeting with Mrs.
2 Mazigh?

3 HON. JOHN MANLEY: Yes.

4 MR. DAVID: Could you describe
5 that for us?

6 HON. JOHN MANLEY: This was an 7 event the Ottawa Muslim Women's Organization held 8 in my constituency in Ottawa South. I was asked 9 to come and give greetings to it. I was there 10 for, I don't know, maybe 45 minutes, and delivered 11 some remarks. Then as I was leaving St. Elias 12 Church, Mrs. Mazigh pursued me and asked to talk 13 to me and she did.

14 MR. DAVID: And how long did that 15 meeting last?

16 HON. JOHN MANLEY: The 17 conversation with her?

18 MR. DAVID: Yes, the conversation.

19 HON. JOHN MANLEY: Probably ten 20 minutes, perhaps.

21 MR. DAVID: And do you recall what 22 was discussed?

23 HON. JOHN MANLEY: Well, she was 24 pleading for help in her husband's case. She had, 25 I think -- she either had a child or children with

1 her, or gave me a drawing that one of them had 2 done of their father, and I would have been 3 sympathetic to her and told her that I would look 4 into it, although it was not directly my 5 responsibility; that I would try to follow up and 6 see what we were doing.

7 MR. DAVID: And in effect at the 8 last paragraph of her letter at this page it says:

9 "I still remember the 10 insurance you gave me about 11 your involvement in the case
12 and I cannot forget the words 13 you mentioned during your 14 speech last evening."

15 So you did provide her with some 16 sort of commitment or assurance that you would do 17 you best?

18 HON. JOHN MANLEY: That I would 19 look into it.

20 MR. DAVID: I bring you now to 21 Exhibit P-88, please. Simply in terms of the 22 chronology, we have the letter from Monia Mazigh 23 on April 28th, and I bring you now to an entry; so 24 P-88.

25 It's tab 1, Mr. Manley, and if you

1 could go to page 24.

2 Just to situate you, these are the 3 personal notes of Mr. Gar Pardy, who was Director 4 General of Consular Affairs at DFAIT. There is an 5 entry for Wednesday, April 30th, 2003, in his 6 notes, and they read as follows:

7 "Marlene Catterall ..."

8 With her phone number.

9 "Spoke to John Manley.

10 Maher 'as worker' in Boston.

11 Could not see anything in 12 behaviour. Saw riding pres

13 'lawyer'"

14 I don't think that's really -- the 15 point is there is a note in Gar Pardy's agenda on 16 April 30th that Marlene Catterall would have 17 spoken to you.

18 Do you have any recollection about 19 Marlene Catterall -- Marlene Catterall, first of 20 all, you know that she is an MP for Ottawa West 21 and Nepean.

22 HON. JOHN MANLEY: Yes.

23 MR. DAVID: Do you recall Marlene
24 Catterall ever speaking to you around this time
25 about the Arar affair?

1 HON. JOHN MANLEY: Yes. I can't
2 be precise about the time, but certainly Marlene 3 raised this and was known for raising it vocally 4 and frequently, and she would have spoken to me
5 about it, I am quite sure.

6 MR. DAVID: Do you know if there
7 was any follow-up to that conversation?

8 HON. JOHN MANLEY: That I don't 9 know.

10 MR. DAVID: Okay. Coming back now
11 to the DFAIT binder, I bring you to tab 405, and I 12 will also ask you to go to tab 429, which is in 13 the next binder.

14 First of all, tab 405, Mr. Manley, 15 is the first document I want to bring you to.

16 And the second I referred to as 17 tab 429, but this has now become Exhibit P-103, 18 just to complicate things. It is the full 19 unredacted version of tab 429.

20 MS McISAAC: I think the problem
21 is, though, that your book's 405 is actually 505?

22 MR. DAVID: Okay. Thank you
23 Ms McIsaac. I think that this same problem had 24 been met by my colleague, Mr. Cavalluzzo.

25 MS McISAAC: Are you looking for

1 the CAMANT note or the Bowden's?

2 MR. DAVID: It's a CAMANT note for 3 May 12th at what I call 405, and I think you are 4 quite right in saying --

5 THE COMMISSIONER: It's 504, isn't 6 it?

7 MS McISAAC: 505.

8 MR. DAVID: Sorry about that,
9 Mr. Manley. There is some confusion in our 10 documents.

11 THE COMMISSIONER: What we are 12 looking at is 505 and P-103?

13 MR. DAVID: That is correct.

14 THE COMMISSIONER: Thank you.

15 MR. DAVID: Are you totally 16 confused, Mr. Manley?

17 HON. JOHN MANLEY: No more than 18 usual, Mr. David.

19 --- Laughter / Rires

20 MR. DAVID: At tab 505, we have an 21 entry, and I suggest to you the date is May 2nd, 22 2003, and it says the following -- these are 23 CAMANT notes, which is one of the internal data 24 management systems for DFAIT.

25 It's an e-mail that is coming from

1 Gar Pardy, and I am not sure who it's going to,
2 but it refers to Mr. Kunder, but I believe the 3 name is Klunder.

4 Would that be correct?

5 HON. JOHN MANLEY: Brian Klunder
6 was one of my political assistants.

7 MR. DAVID: He was one of your 8 political assistants, exactly.

9 So Mr. Gar Pardy is referring to a 10 conversation in the very top portion of that 11 entry, and the only place I am going to refer you 12 to is that very top message from Mr. Pardy, and it
13 says:

14 "I spoke to Mr. Klunder and 15 provided him with an update
16 on the case. He indicated
17 that Mr. Manley would be 18 speaking to Mr. Easter in the 19 coming days and would get 20 back to us. Gar."

21 So it's a fairly short reference 22 to the fact that you are, or were, intending to 23 speak to Mr. Wayne Easter, who was the Solicitor 24 General of Canada, in about May of 2003.

25 I bring you now to the other

1 exhibit, which is P-103, which is the loose
2 document, and I would refer you to paragraph 7, 3 which is on page 3.

4 This is, for your information, a
5 briefing note. The document itself is dated June 6 5th, 2003, and it is a briefing note going to 7 MINA, the Minister of Foreign Affairs, and 8 paragraph 7 says the following:

9 "Dr. Monia Mazigh has 10 continued her efforts to 11 obtain public and 12 governmental support for the 13 release of her husband. She 14 has written to the American 15 and Syrian ambassadors and 16 discussed the matter with the 17 Deputy Prime Minister at a 18 social function."

19 Which we have already seen. The 20 part I want to bring you to is the following:

21 "We have been advised that 22 the Canadian lawyer hired by 23 Dr. Mazigh, Mr. Michael 24 Edelson, a personal friend of 25 the Deputy Prime Minister,

1 will speak to him about the 2 matter as well. Mr. Manley
3 has asked a staff member to 4 make enquiries of the 5 Solicitor General..."

6 So there are two references in two 7 different documents that seem to indicate that you 8 are somehow intervening with Mr. Easter, the 9 Solicitor General, in about May, perhaps early 10 June, of 2003.

11 My question to you is: Do you
12 have any recollection of such an intervention?

13 HON. JOHN MANLEY: Well, when I
14 gave an undertaking to Dr. Mazigh, I would follow 15 up on it. So that's why Klunder would have become 16 involved in making some calls and I would be 17 indicating an interest.

18 I may have spoken to Mr. Easter.
19 Quite possibly I did. You know, I mean, in the 20 haze of events, I can't recall a specific 21 conversation that I had with him, but I would have 22 wanted to ensure that we were doing everything 23 possible at this point to try to find a way to 24 resolve the situation.

25 MR. DAVID: So you have, in terms

1 of either direct communication with Mr. Easter, or 2 indirect through Mr. Klunder, or anybody else 3 within your staff. You have no specific 4 recollection of the results of an intervention
5 with Mr. Easter or his office?

6 HON. JOHN MANLEY: No. I mean, I
7 would think -- at this point in time, it's really 8 a consular matter. It's an issue that Foreign 9 Affairs ought to be pursuing, and I can only 10 presume that we were -- that there was some 11 implication that somehow or other the RCMP had a 12 key that would be able to unlock this in some 13 fashion. But I don't recall the nature of a 14 discussion.

15 MR. DAVID: Okay. I would bring 16 you now to P-85. It would be tab 7 in P-85.

17 THE COMMISSIONER: Volume 1?

18 MR. DAVID: Volume 1, yes. These 19 are the redacted loose exhibits.

20 Mr. Manley, I apologize. We are 21 managing literally thousands of documents and we 22 are doing it as best we can.

23 So these are loose exhibits that 24 have been filed throughout the proceedings.

25 HON. JOHN MANLEY: Which tab is

1 it?

2 MR. DAVID: It's tab 7.

3 Now, this is a draft version of a 4 memo. As I say, it's a draft version, and it's 5 being prepared by Mr. Gar Pardy, Director General 6 of DFAIT for Consular Affairs. It is going to the 7 Minister of Foreign Affairs, and it is dated May 8 the 5th, 2003.

9 The final version I have referred 10 to already, and that is Exhibit P-103, and that's 11 the June 5th version. So the actual version that 12 goes to the Minister is not this one.

13 And there are two passages I would 14 like to bring you to in this draft version, which 15 is a month before the final version.

16 If you could go to the first page 17 of the document and the first bullet in terms of 18 the recommendations, the document says the 19 following:

20 "Efforts continue to 21 establish a common 22 understanding within the 23 government of Canada on this 24 case with the objective of 25 the issuance of a statement

1 signed by the Solicitor
2 General and the Minister of 3 Foreign Affairs that could be 4 used with the Syrian
5 authorities."

6 That is obviously a reference to 7 Mr. Easter and Mr. Graham.

8 I bring you now to the last bullet
9 on that page, and it says the following:

10 "If necessary that you meet
11 with the Solicitor General
12 and the Deputy Prime Minister 13 to arrive at a common
14 understanding on the case."

15 I can now bring you to page 4 of 16 this same document, the draft version, and it 17 would be paragraph 10. The first bullet says:

18 "In the days ahead, our 19 efforts will concentrate on:
20 - convening a meeting of 21 Canadian officials
22 representing CSIS, RCMP, PCO,
23 and the office of the Deputy 24 Prime Minister to develop a 25 common Canadian approach that

1 could be sufficiently clear
2 to communicate to the Syrian
3 authorities."

4 So the draft version of the memo, 5 Mr. Manley, as of May of 2003, certainly refers to 6 what we have identified or referred to as the 7 concern that Canada is or is not speaking with a 8 common voice, with one voice, in terms of 9 representations going to Syria about our 10 intentions for his return to Canada.

11 And my question to you is: Were 12 you aware that there were dissensions within the 13 ranks, if I could express myself in such a way, 14 and were you involved in any sort of 15 reconciliation of various positions of various 16 Canadian authorities?

17 HON. JOHN MANLEY: The answer to 18 your first question is that I had heard, as has 19 been widely reported, this notion that somehow or 20 other if you want to know what had happened, you 21 should ask our people, being either RCMP or 22 CSIS -- it was never really clear to me -- and 23 that the message that kept coming back from them 24 was, "We don't know what you are talking about."

25 So I was aware of that going on.

1 Was I part of any attempt to 2 resolve it? Not that I recall.

3 I notice in I suppose the cover 4 page, in paragraph 10 refers to involving my 5 office, which could well be a response to the 6 intervention by Klunder as opposed to me 7 personally, although he seems to be suggesting on 8 the front page that Mr. Graham meet with 9 Mr. Easter and myself.

10 I certainly don't recall a formal 11 meeting of that sort. Whether we had what is 12 commonly called a pull-aside, where we sort of 13 chatted in the corner of the room, I don't recall.

14 MR. DAVID: Okay.

15 HON. JOHN MANLEY: I have to say 16 that at that point in time I had rather a lot of 17 things going on because, in addition to being 18 Minister of Finance, there actually was a 19 leadership campaign. It wasn't widely reported, 20 but nevertheless there was one and I was in it, 21 and it was right then. So I was a little bit 22 preoccupied.

23 MR. DAVID: I bring you back to 24 the PCO documents, and they would be P-48.

25 I don't know if you still have

1 that -- no, I guess not -- and it would be tab 18.

2 I just want to note,
3 Mr. Commissioner, there are certain documents I
4 will be referring Mr. Manley to that I know for a 5 fact he has no direct knowledge about. It's 6 simply that he is being infocopied as Deputy Prime 7 Minister on these documents, and it's simply for 8 the purpose of putting these documents on the 9 record.

10 I do not believe it's our 11 intention to call the Prime Minister and so we are 12 going to be using the Deputy Prime Minister to 13 refer to these documents.

14 THE COMMISSIONER: Okay.

15 MR. DAVID: Before getting to 16 that, there was reference, if you recall, at 17 paragraph 7 of the memo I was just dealing with in 18 reference to the fact that Mr. Edelson intended on 19 speaking to you about his client, Mr. Arar.

20 I have had the opportunity of 21 meeting Mr. Edelson already, and I understand that 22 you were in the same law school together and you 23 know each other, and perhaps you are even friends.

24 Do you recall Mr. Edelson ever
25 speaking to you about Mr. Arar?

1 HON. JOHN MANLEY: I don't.

2 MR. DAVID: Or his fate. Okay.

3 THE COMMISSIONER: I might just 4 say, in terms of proving the letters, if the only 5 purpose is to establish they were sent, I don't 6 imagine there is any issue. So it's not necessary 7 from my standpoint to take Mr. Manley through 8 them, unless you have questions that you wish to 9 pose to him about those letters.

10 MR. DAVID: Perhaps we can just 11 bring them out, and if you have any comments, then 12 we will accept your comments, Mr. Manley.

13 At tab 18, this is one of four 14 letters I will be referring to that are written by 15 Monia Mazigh to the Prime Minister of Canada.
16 This is the first letter that she writes, and it's 17 dated May 21, 2003. It's going to the Prime 18 Minister and it's also going to you.

19 I am simply bringing out the 20 letter for the record. Any comments about this 21 letter, Mr. Manley?

22 HON. JOHN MANLEY: No.

23 MR. DAVID: Okay. We then go to 24 tab 443 of the DFAIT documents.

25 This is in reference to a

1 meeting -- it's a CAMANT note -- between Mr. Bill
2 Graham, the Minister of Foreign Affairs, and Monia
3 Mazigh.

4 And the paragraph I want to bring 5 you to is the fourth paragraph. It says the 6 following:

7 "The Minister responded to 8 Dr. Mazigh's questions and 9 comments by stating that we 10 have tried to pursue the 11 issue with the US authorities
12 and the Syrians, and continue 13 to use every diplomatic 14 opportunity to raise the 15 issue. The Minister is 16 currently preparing a letter
17 to the Syrian Foreign 18 Minister, and wanted to wait
19 until this meeting was held,
20 in order to share the 21 contents of the letter with 22 Ms Mazigh. The letter asks
23 for the release of Mr. Arar 24 and his immediate return to 25 Canada."

1 That's fine. The part I want to 2 bring you to is the following:

3 "MP William Cutler..."

4 And I would suggest to you that's 5 Cotler, not Cutler?

6 HON. JOHN MANLEY: And I would say
7 it's probably Irwin.

8 MR. DAVID: And I would say it is 9 also Irwin.

10 HON. JOHN MANLEY: Well, we are 11 working on first names.

12 MR. DAVID: Okay.

13 "...had tried to pursue the 14 matter with the American
15 authorities, and asked
16 Minister Manley if this issue
17 was raised with his US
18 counterparts, however Min.
19 Manley said no, that this was 20 a Consular matter."

21 Do you recall Irwin Cotler
22 intervening with you in this time period?

23 HON. JOHN MANLEY: I don't recall
24 it.

25 MR. DAVID: And that would have

1 been June of 2003. You have no recollection of 2 that.

3 HON. JOHN MANLEY: I don't recall
4 it.

5 MR. DAVID: Okay. We go now to 6 tab 464, and again, this is simply for the record.
7 This is your response to Ms Mazigh's April 28th 8 letter to you. Any comments about that?

9 HON. JOHN MANLEY: No.

10 MR. DAVID: Okay. We go back to 11 the PCO document, and that would be tab 20.

12 Again, these are briefing notes
13 that are going to the Prime Minister. You are 14 being infocopied on them, as you see in each 15 reference, and I bring you to page 3, Mr. Manley.
16 It is the letter that the Prime Minister signs on 17 July 11th that is addressed to the President of 18 Syria.

19 Do you have any knowledge about 20 the circumstances of the drafting of this letter 21 or the sending of this letter?

22 HON. JOHN MANLEY: Well, I vaguely
23 recall that it was being done, that we were -- you 24 know, that there had been discussion about what 25 appropriate intervention the Prime Minister could

1 make.

2 MR. DAVID: Do you have any direct 3 involvement in --

4 HON. JOHN MANLEY: Drafting the 5 letter? No.

6 MR. DAVID: -- production or the 7 discussion of the letter, the contents of the 8 letter?

9 HON. JOHN MANLEY: No.

10 MR. DAVID: If we go to PCO tab
11 29, again this is for the record. It is a 12 briefing note to the Prime Minister.

13 We see at page 5 of the document
14 there is Ms Mazigh's second letter to the Prime 15 Minister. It is dated July 23rd, 2003. And we 16 see the Prime Minister's response on page 3 of the 17 tab, which is dated September 4th.

18 Any comments about that?

19 HON. JOHN MANLEY: No.

20 MR. DAVID: Okay. We go now to 21 tab 31 of the PCO documents, and that would be in 22 Volume 2.

23 Tab 31, Mr. Manley, is a briefing
24 note that is dated September 25th, 2003, and it's 25 directly addressed to you. It's an update of the 1 Maher Arar case.

2 There is a reference in the first 3 bullet to the "impending Syrian trial" of 4 Mr. Arar, and my question to you is: Do you 5 recall why this memo was being sent directly to 6 you at this time concerning Mr. Arar? Who 7 requested the memo?

8 There is a reference, if you go in 9 the contents, to the circumstances or a chronology 10 that concern Mr. Arar before his deportation from 11 the United States, and then the next page is a 12 chronology post-deportation from the United 13 States.

14 The memo, as I say, is being 15 directly addressed to you in September of 2003.

16 HON. JOHN MANLEY: Yes. I can't 17 explain it, and it's particularly peculiar that it 18 was from Mr. Lavertu, who was the PCO foreign 19 policy advisor at the time.

20 The only explanation I can think 21 of is that I had expressed some interest in the 22 case. The leadership campaign was over, and I may 23 have decided that I was going to put a little bit 24 more effort into this to see whether we couldn't 25 shake it loose. But I can't say for sure,

1 Mr. David.

2 MR. DAVID: Okay. I bring you now
3 to a document dated September 29th, and it's P-85, 4 Volume 5.

5 Again, this is for the record. It
6 is a briefing note that is going to the Prime 7 Minister with a "cc" to you, and it refers to 8 Dr. Mazigh's third letter, dated September 18th.

9 HON. JOHN MANLEY: And the tab
10 number?

11 MR. DAVID: I am sorry. It's tab
12 2.

13 And if you go to the fourth page 14 of the document, you will see that there is 15 Ms Mazigh's third letter to the Prime Minister.
16 It is dated September 18th, 2003. Again, it is 17 urging the Prime Minister to intervene with a 18 message to the President of Syria, with a 19 recommendation for the signature of the letter 20 from the Prime Minister.

21 Any comments about that?

22 HON. JOHN MANLEY: No comments.

23 MR. DAVID: I bring you now to the 24 same exhibit, P-85, Volume 5, to tab 3, which is a 25 reference to Dr. Mazigh's fourth letter to the 1 Prime Minister, which is dated September 26th, 2 2003.

3 With regard to this letter from 4 Dr. Mazigh, there is no response that was provided 5 by the Prime Minister to her simply because of the 6 fact that he was released prior to --

7 HON. JOHN MANLEY: Right.

8 MR. DAVID: -- the ability of him
9 responding.

10 I bring you now to tab 37 of the 11 PCO documents, which is P-48.

12 Again this is simply for the 13 record. It is a recommendation to the Prime 14 Minister that he call his counterpart in Syria, 15 the President of Syria.

16 And for the record again, on 17 October 5th, Mr. Arar is released from Syria and 18 he is back in Canada on October the 6th.

19 If you could now go to tab 45 of 20 the same binder, again this is a briefing note to 21 the Prime Minister with a copy to you, and it 22 discusses two issues, if you would have any 23 comments on those two issues.

24 One is that Ministers should be 25 pushing their American counterparts on the 1 adoption of a protocol.

2 And if you go to page 4 of the 3 document, the last paragraph says the following.
4 It says:

5 "It is further recommended
6 that Canadian Ministers,
7 including the Minister of 8 Foreign Affairs and 9 International Trade, the 10 Solicitor General, and the 11 Deputy Prime Minister, press
12 their American counterparts
13 to put in place appropriate 14 arrangements with the U.S. to 15 ensure that never again will 16 a Canadian citizen be 17 deported by the Americans to 18 a third country without 19 appropriate formal
20 consultations with Canada."

21 This, we know, became the Monterey 22 Accord, which was signed in Mexico in January of 23 2004. The time frame here is November 2003.

24 Do you recall this push to try to 25 lobby the Americans in terms of adopting a

1 protocol that would protect Canadians from the 2 kind of treatment Mr. Arar --

3 HON. JOHN MANLEY: I recall that 4 that was an objective that we were --

5 MR. DAVID: And were you in any 6 way involved in that push or that initiative?

7 HON. JOHN MANLEY: I believe that
8 I met with Mr. Ridge around this time and raised 9 it with him.

10 MR. DAVID: In fact, there was a 11 meeting with Mr. Ridge on November 11th. Was the 12 protocol discussed with Mr. Ridge at this time?

13 HON. JOHN MANLEY: We discussed
14 the case. That in particular I recall as being a 15 meeting where he said this is a matter for 16 Mr. Powell.

17 MR. DAVID: There are also 18 reference at tab 45 to the fact that, in general, 19 the government wants to avoid the calling of a 20 public inquiry.

21 If I could refer you to page 3 of 22 the document, there is reference in the briefing 23 note to the fact that Mr. Arar and his lawyers, in 24 a press conference, are calling for a public 25 inquiry.

1 Do you recall whether there was a
2 feeling within cabinet or the government that a 3 public inquiry was not appropriate at this time, 4 given the sensitive nature of the information that 5 we would be dealing with?

6 HON. JOHN MANLEY: This is 7 something the Commissioner will have to decide, 8 whether there is a purpose in it or not.

9 I think one of the concerns that 10 we had was that the actions that we needed
11 information about were actions of the U.S.
12 government, which would not be compellable in 13 Canada in any event.

14 So how much exactly could we find 15 out about what really transpired? I guess we will 16 wait and see.

17 MR. DAVID: I would bring you now
18 to tab 812 of the DFAIT documents.

19 Before dealing with that, coming
20 back to your meeting with Mr. Ridge on October 21 11th, Mr. Manley, was the Arar affair discussed 22 directly?

23 HON. JOHN MANLEY: Yes, I raised 24 it with him, because at this point in time, not 25 only was Mr. Arar back in Canada but he had made

1 his disclosure about having been tortured in 2 Syria, and I felt that it was a serious matter.
3 So I raised it with him.

4 I think, you know, looking at it
5 as calmly as possible, the U.S. viewed Mr. Arar as 6 a Syrian citizen first and didn't think there was 7 anything particularly wrong with sending him to 8 Syria. We regarded him as a Canadian citizen who 9 was travelling on a Canadian passport, who had 10 been given Canadian consular attention and then 11 had been shipped off to a third country, and it 12 just wasn't acceptable.

13 MR. DAVID: So you voiced your 14 objection to the handling of Mr. Arar.

15 HON. JOHN MANLEY: Yes.

16 MR. DAVID: And what reaction did
17 Mr. Ridge provide you?

18 HON. JOHN MANLEY: As I said
19 earlier, Mr. Ridge was always very gracious and 20 prepared to give consideration to any matters I 21 raised with him, but it was quite clear in this 22 case that they had decided it was for Mr. Powell 23 to handle with Mr. Graham.

24 MR. DAVID: And do you recall
25 whether Mr. Ridge provided you directly with any

1 information concerning Mr. Arar's case?

2 HON. JOHN MANLEY: He gave me no
3 indication that he even had any information, 4 certainly.

5 MR. DAVID: Coming now to tab 812,
6 Mr. Manley, this refers to a conference that you
7 gave -- you were in New York City on November 24th
8 and 25th, and you gave a conference. I believe it 9 was at the invitation of the Consular General, 10 Pamela Wallin, and it was to the Council of the 11 Americas.

12 Do you recall attending such a 13 conference?

14 HON. JOHN MANLEY: Yes.

15 MR. DAVID: This tab refers to 16 certain statements that you made both during the 17 conference and in a private setting whilst you 18 were in New York City.

19 If I could bring you to page 3 of 20 the document, and I would just like to refer you 21 to a few of the paragraphs in this document.

22 It is a report that is being filed
23 by a consular official in New York City for DFAIT, 24 and the first paragraph says the following:

25 "The Arar deportation and

1 alleged torture was the main 2 topic for NY-based Canadian 3 media who have been chasing 4 the story along with their 5 colleagues at home and an 6 increasing number of U.S.
7 journalists in the last 8 couple of weeks. Manley was 9 direct in describing the Arar
10 situation as 'a serious 11 impediment' to cooperation."

12 Do you have any comments about
13 that?

14 HON. JOHN MANLEY: That's an 15 accurate report.

16 MR. DAVID: It is? The second
17 paragraph says:

18 "'We need a clear
19 understanding with the U.S.
20 that a Canadian citizen 21 cannot be deported by the 22 U.S.,' he told a news
23 conference. 'Any removal
24 should be to Canada.'"

25 This is a reference to the 1 protocol that was in the works?

2 HON. JOHN MANLEY: I wouldn't have 3 necessarily known about it as a protocol in the 4 works at this point. The protocol, as you know, 5 was signed after I had left office. But that's 6 what we were seeking.

7 MR. DAVID: The third paragraph
8 says:

9 "The Deputy Prime Minister
10 noted that he had raised this 11 matter with U.S. Secretary of 12 Homeland Security Tom Ridge 13 and that other ministers have 14 also spoken with their 15 American counterparts. 'We're 16 looking for a clear
17 understanding from the U.S.
18 authorities as to how in the 19 future cases like this will 20 be dealt with.' Asked if he 21 agreed with U.S.
22 Attorney-General John
23 Ashcroft's view that the Arar
24 deportation was legitimate,
25 Manley responded: 'No. A

1 Canadian citizen shouldn't
2 have been deported to Syria
3 ... it could have been dealt
4 with in the U.S. under U.S.
5 law.'"

6 Any comments about that?

7 HON. JOHN MANLEY: I am sure
8 that's an accurate quote.

9 MR. DAVID: Okay. In terms of you
10 raising the issue with Secretary Ridge, is this a 11 reference to your meeting on October 11th, or is 12 it a reference to another --

13 HON. JOHN MANLEY: I presume it's 14 a reference to November 11th.

15 MR. DAVID: The fifth paragraph
16 says:

17 "The minister referred to a
18 'stress point' in Canada-U.S.
19 relations that must be 20 resolved. There was no doubt
21 that Canada and the U.S. need 22 to exchange information on 23 security threats, 'but 24 Canadians will always insist 25 that laws related to civil

1 liberties will be
2 respected.'" "

3 Any comments about that?

4 HON. JOHN MANLEY: Again, I think
5 it's an accurate quote. I didn't think, actually, 6 this was all that newsworthy at the time. I felt 7 that it was pretty clear that we had to take a 8 very clear and very strong position on an issue of 9 this nature.

10 As I am quoted as saying, I was 11 concerned that it could undermine our ability to 12 cooperate on areas where we needed to cooperate, 13 which I thought would be very unfortunate.

14 MR. DAVID: The last document I 15 would like to bring you to -- and again this is 16 for the record -- is tab 61 of the PCO documents.

17 It is a briefing note to the Prime 18 Minister, with a "cc" to you, and it is signed by 19 the National Security Advisor to the Prime 20 Minister, who at the time was Mr. Rob Wright.

21 In it there are two references, if 22 you would have any comments.

23 One is --

24 MS McISAAC: Excuse me. I think 25 this document was probably produced after

1 Mr. Manley was no longer Deputy Prime Minister.

2 MR. DAVID: I believe it's 3 December 1st, 2003.

4 HON. JOHN MANLEY: It refers to 5 Justice Minister Cotler, which would have been 6 subsequent to my departing government.

7 MR. DAVID: Okay. So I think we 8 can end our examination there.

9 Thank you very much, Mr. Manley.

10 THE COMMISSIONER: Mr. Waldman, do 11 you know how long you will be?

12 MR. WALDMAN: Given the nature of 13 the evidence, it's quite apparent that Mr. Manley 14 has limited knowledge. I am sure we can finish by 15 the morning.

16 It would be of assistance if we 17 could take a break now so I could organize my 18 papers.

19 THE COMMISSIONER: What are you 20 saying? It's now 10:30. Can you give me an 21 estimate as to how long the cross-examination will 22 be?

23 I agree with your comment, that it 24 needn't be --

25 MR. WALDMAN: I would guess an

1 hour and a half.

2 THE COMMISSIONER: That long?

3 MR. WALDMAN: It may not be.

4 THE COMMISSIONER: Do you know how 5 long you will be, Ms McIsaac?

6 MS McISAAC: At the moment I don't 7 have any questions.

8 THE COMMISSIONER: We will take 9 the morning break for 15 minutes.

10 The point that I am making is the 11 same that you made. I think it's helpful to have 12 Mr. Manley here to give us the background the way 13 he has and the overview. It is important that we 14 have the person who was the Deputy Prime Minister 15 at the time. That said, there is not a lot of 16 direct connection to the case.

17 MR. WALDMAN: I agree.

18 THE COMMISSIONER: Okay. We will 19 take the break and then you feel free to 20 cross-examine as you see fit.

21 We will take 15 minutes.

22 THE REGISTRAR: Please stand.

23 --- Upon recessing at 10:26 a.m. /

24 Suspension à 10 h 26

25 --- Upon resuming at 10:41 a.m. /

1 Reprise à 10 h 41

2 THE REGISTRAR: Please be seated.
3 Veuillez vous asseoir.

4 THE COMMISSIONER: Mr. Waldman.

5 MR. WALDMAN: I don't think I will 6 be more than an hour.

7 THE COMMISSIONER: Thank you.

8 MR. WALDMAN: I have some 9 documents that I have already disclosed. I have 10 several copies of these.

11 Perhaps I can give them to the -- 12 I haven't included all the documents I disclosed.

13 THE COMMISSIONER: Is that for me?
14 Thank you.

15 Should we mark these collectively,
16 or do you want to mark them individually?

17 MR. WALDMAN: No, collectively is 18 fine.

19 THE COMMISSIONER: They will
20 be 112.

21 EXHIBIT NO. P-112:
22 Collection of seven
23 documents.

24 THE COMMISSIONER: Go ahead,
25 Mr. Waldman.

1 EXAMINATION

2 MR. WALDMAN: You have made my 3 task a lot easier, because I gather from what you
4 said you have limited recollection of the Arar 5 case, over and above what you told us this 6 morning, and a lot of the times when you were 7 taken to documents, you don't recall them, or 8 don't recall taking any direct intervention around 9 them.

10 Your recollection is very limited 11 with respect to this file.

12 HON. JOHN MANLEY: Well, my 13 involvement was very limited.

14 MR. WALDMAN: Yes, I agree. And 15 it's fair to say, as you said, that you were 16 occupied with the leadership campaign and other 17 matters during this time?

18 HON. JOHN MANLEY: In 2003.

19 MR. WALDMAN: Yes, right. Well, 20 most of this happened -- Mr. Arar was arrested in 21 September, and most of the main issues emerged 22 during this 2003 period, leading to his release in 23 October.

24 So when were you involved in the 25 leadership campaign, approximately?

1 HON. JOHN MANLEY: April 2003
2 until July 21st, 2003.

3 MR. WALDMAN: So in that time you 4 were mostly occupied with that, and that would 5 have been one of the reasons why you couldn't have 6 been directly involved in Mr. Arar's case?

7 HON. JOHN MANLEY: Well, it was
8 Mr. Graham's case. It was regarded as a consular 9 case, and it was primarily, therefore, 10 Mr. Graham's responsibility. Therefore, I would 11 only have been engaged on a peripheral basis or in 12 response to Dr. Mazigh's request.

13 MR. WALDMAN: I am just going to 14 ask you a few questions, generally speaking, about 15 your knowledge of the human rights situation in 16 Syria.

17 You were Minister of Foreign 18 Affairs between 2000 and 2002, and you visited 19 Syria in October-November of 2001, I understand.

20 HON. JOHN MANLEY: That's right.

21 MR. WALDMAN: Before you went, did 22 you get a briefing on Syria?

23 HON. JOHN MANLEY: I am sure I
24 did.

25 MR. WALDMAN: Do you recall

1 getting a briefing on the human rights situation
2 in Syria?

3 HON. JOHN MANLEY: I don't recall.

4 MR. WALDMAN: Do you have any 5 knowledge on your own as a result of your time at 6 Foreign Affairs of the human rights situation in 7 Syria?

8 HON. JOHN MANLEY: Syria is not a
9 liberal democracy, let's put it that way.

10 MR. WALDMAN: So when you heard 11 that Mr. Arar -- had knowledge, or were aware of 12 his situation, when you heard that he was in 13 Syria, would that have created concerns for you 14 about the treatment that he might have been 15 getting in Syria?

16 HON. JOHN MANLEY: I would have 17 been concerned, first and foremost, that a 18 Canadian citizen was removed to a third country 19 rather than to Canada, regardless of what the 20 treatment might have been.

21 MR. WALDMAN: Having accepted
22 that, wouldn't it have been a concern to you that 23 on top of that he was sent to Syria, which is a 24 country, as you said, that wasn't a liberal 25 democracy?

1 HON. JOHN MANLEY: And where we 2 couldn't be confident the process would be 3 entirely in accordance with standards that we 4 would consider to be acceptable.

5 MR. WALDMAN: So you are aware 6 that there were serious concerns about the 7 fairness of the judicial process in Syria?

8 HON. JOHN MANLEY: Yes, indeed.

9 MR. WALDMAN: So when Ms Mazigh
10 came to you and asked for your intervention, you 11 would have been aware that he was in Syria and 12 this was a country where the human rights 13 situation was problematic?

14 HON. JOHN MANLEY: I was very 15 sympathetic to her situation, yes.

16 MR. WALDMAN: Right. But yet 17 having said that, according to your evidence and 18 your recollection, the extent of your involvement 19 was possibly mentioning it to Mr. Klunder, and 20 that was as far as you went, because in your view 21 it was a consular matter?

22 HON. JOHN MANLEY: I followed up
23 on the meeting with Dr. Mazigh.

24 MR. WALDMAN: Right. And you
25 spoke to Mr. Klunder. You told Mr. David that.

1 But beyond that, you didn't do
2 anything more?

3 HON. JOHN MANLEY: Well, we have 4 been through whether there were conversations or 5 other things, you know, that -- very often, in 6 order to effect something, and I think you see it 7 in the documents, the very fact that I expressed 8 an interest generated some action on the part of 9 bureaucrats, which is what my intention was.

10 MR. WALDMAN: Aside from 11 expressing this interest on one occasion, do you 12 recall any other time that you expressed any other 13 concern about Mr. Arar to any of your officials?

14 HON. JOHN MANLEY: I am sorry, I 15 am having a little trouble hearing you. Could you 16 repeat the question?

17 MR. WALDMAN: Sorry. Aside from 18 this one time that it would appear from the 19 documents that Mr. Klunder was asked to follow up, 20 do you recall any other time that you took any 21 initiative on behalf of Mr. Arar prior to your 22 meeting with Mr. Ridge in November of 2003?

23 HON. JOHN MANLEY: I don't recall
24 details of anything. I think that the document 25 flow that we went through with Mr. David indicates

1 that there may have been conversations or 2 discussions that were held, but I can't give you
3 any details about them.

4 MR. WALDMAN: But you don't recall
5 anything?

6 HON. JOHN MANLEY: I don't recall
7 any details about them.

8 MR. WALDMAN: In your position as 9 chair of the cabinet committee on national 10 security, were you aware that there was a national 11 security investigation in Ottawa that commenced
12 shortly after 9/11 about a possible al-Qaeda cell?

13 HON. JOHN MANLEY: First of all,
14 it was Public Security and Anti-terrorism.

15 MR. WALDMAN: Okay.

16 HON. JOHN MANLEY: Not
17 specifically would I have had knowledge of an 18 investigation. Not that I recall.

19 MR. WALDMAN: So you don't have 20 any recollection of being informed by any of your 21 officials at any time after you became appointed 22 to this post on the cabinet committee that there 23 was an ongoing national security investigation 24 about a possible al-Qaeda cell in Ottawa?

25 HON. JOHN MANLEY: No. We

1 received, I believe, some more general briefings, 2 nothing specific about a particular cell in Ottawa
3 that I recall, no.

4 MR. WALDMAN: Don't you think it
5 would have been important for you to at least have 6 been made aware in general terms of the existence 7 of a national security investigation regarding an 8 al-Qaeda cell in Ottawa?

9 There were other allegations -- of 10 course, we are not privy to the secret documents, 11 but at least some of the media reports suggested 12 that there was concerns about different bomb plots 13 and things like that.

14 Don't you think that would have 15 been something that would have been important for 16 you to be aware of?

17 HON. JOHN MANLEY: Well, first of 18 all, I wasn't the Solicitor General. You can ask 19 Mr. Easter whether he was informed of it. I was 20 the chairman of a cabinet committee.

21 It may have been the view of the 22 agency that this was not something about which I 23 required knowledge.

24 MR. WALDMAN: I understand that.
25 I am just asking you your opinion now. You were

1 the chair of this cabinet committee that was 2 setting priorities and making policy
3 determinations about expenditures.

4 I am asking you whether you think 5 it might have been important for you to be aware 6 of the fact that there was this ongoing 7 investigation in Ottawa of an al-Qaeda cell.

8 HON. JOHN MANLEY: I am not really 9 clear on what the relevance of that would have 10 been to my role as chairman of the committee.

11 MR. WALDMAN: Well, we will leave 12 it at that.

13 I would like to move on to the 14 question of intelligence-sharing.

15 I handed up -- I don't propose to 16 go through it, but I handed up as part of P-112 a 17 recent paper that was presented on building a 18 North American community.

19 You were one of the authors of 20 this. On page 11, this document very strongly 21 advocates for even greater information-sharing and 22 intelligence-sharing at both the local and 23 national levels by law enforcement, military, and 24 that would include security agencies.

25 This report, of which you are one

1 of the authors, strongly advocates much more 2 intelligence sharing than we even have now and 3 more integration.

4 HON. JOHN MANLEY: Well --

5 MR. WALDMAN: Do you want me to 6 read it to you? It is page 11.

7 HON. JOHN MANLEY: I guess I am 8 having a little trouble.

9 Yes, I was part of a task force 10 that reported --

11 MR. WALDMAN: Well, do you agree 12 with what it says on page 11?

13 HON. JOHN MANLEY: Well, as you
14 say -- but this is in my private life. I was not 15 a Minister at this time. This is in fact in the 16 last month.

17 MR. WALDMAN: Right. Well, it's 18 relevant because one of the issues that we are 19 concerned about is the whole question of 20 intelligence-sharing that emerged post-9/11.

21 So I am just --

22 HON. JOHN MANLEY: Is the 23 question, do I think that we should share
24 intelligence information within North America?

25 MR. WALDMAN: More openly and

1 expansively than even at the present time?

2 HON. JOHN MANLEY: Well, I am not
3 quite sure what your benchmark is, but I don't 4 think that we can have a secure North American 5 continent without exchanging information between 6 intelligence and policing agencies in the three 7 countries.

8 MR. WALDMAN: So you would agree
9 with me that you believe that post-9/11 10 especially, we have to integrate as much as 11 possible with the United Nation [sic] in terms of 12 our border security, information and intelligence 13 sharing?

14 HON. JOHN MANLEY: With the United 15 States?

16 MR. WALDMAN: And Mexico as well,
17 I suppose.

18 HON. JOHN MANLEY: Well, first of 19 all, I actually don't think this is a matter of 20 9/11. I think this is a matter of the fact that, 21 whether you look at it as terrorism or more 22 broadly as criminal activity, these activities are 23 not restricted to individual jurisdictions; that,
24 therefore, the exchange of information is a 25 critical component to having adequate police

1 response and protecting the security of the 2 population.

3 MR. WALDMAN: But wouldn't you
4 agree with me that post-September 11th, the 5 integration and sharing of intelligence 6 information was accelerated as a result of that 7 event, between Canada and the United States?

8 HON. JOHN MANLEY: I think that 9 9/11 may have provoked a review of how things were 10 done in order to ensure that there was adequate 11 exchange of information. But that's not simply a 12 matter of between countries. In fact, I think 13 what was discovered in the United States was that 14 exchange of information between agencies of the 15 U.S. government was not perhaps as open as it 16 ought to have been.

17 You know, there is a lot of 18 resources devoted to trying to obtain information.
19 If it's not shared with police authorities, it's 20 not of much value in protecting the population.

21 MR. WALDMAN: I agree with you
22 that one of the focuses in the United States, 23 indeed in Canada, was sharing within agencies in 24 the country. But I would put to you that we have 25 heard evidence that suggests that after 9/11, the

1 amount of intelligence sharing between Canada and 2 the United States increased dramatically.

3 HON. JOHN MANLEY: You are really 4 asking me something that I can't evaluate because 5 I was not part of any of the agencies that held or 6 exchanged information.

7 MR. WALDMAN: But you were part of 8 the negotiations for the Canada-U.S. Smart Border
9 Declaration; correct?

10 HON. JOHN MANLEY: Correct.

11 MR. WALDMAN: And it's also 12 correct that point 4 of the Smart Border 13 Declaration talks about coordination and 14 information sharing as one of the key objectives.

15 HON. JOHN MANLEY: Right.

16 MR. WALDMAN: So would you not 17 agree with me that the Smart Border Agreement -- 18 and point 25 talks about open intelligence 19 sharing. So one of the central pillars of the 20 Smart Border Agreement was to ensure that there 21 was proper sharing of intelligence information
22 between Canada and the United States.

23 Is that right?

24 HON. JOHN MANLEY: Right.

25 MR. WALDMAN: And at different

1 points -- for example, in the June 28th, 2002, 2 Smart Border Progress Report, which is in the 3 material if you want to look at it, but we don't 4 have to unless it's necessary.

5 There is clear indication that 6 there are steps being taken -- I mean, you have 7 testified that you weren't directly involved 8 operationally, but you were certainly involved in 9 the overall negotiations of the integration that 10 led to the governments on both sides of the border 11 integrating their intelligence services.

12 We have integrated IBETs that 13 involve U.S. and Canadian agency officials 14 integrated together working on the border now, and 15 that was all part of the Smart Border Declaration?

16 HON. JOHN MANLEY: Actually if you
17 read the Smart Border Declaration, you will see 18 that it talks about expanding the IBETs. So they 19 actually preexisted 9/11 and they preexisted the 20 Smart Border Accord.

21 The word "integrated" is there.
22 It is Integrated Border Enforcement Teams to 23 cooperate on law enforcement in border areas.

24 As to the integration of 25 intelligence services, I am not sure that I am in 1 a position to answer that.

2 MR. WALDMAN: It's tab 35, which 3 is the Smart Border Agreement, P-35.

4 It's Exhibit P-35, which is the 5 Smart Border Agreement. It says integrated 6 intelligence.

7 It says:

8 "Establish joint teams to 9 analyze and disseminate
10 information and
11 intelligence."

12 I think it talks in terms of 13 establishing joint teams, not continuing to build 14 upon.

15 MS McISAAC: What page are you on?

16 MR. WALDMAN: It is page 3 of 4.

17 It's true it says expand IBETs.

18 HON. JOHN MANLEY: That's correct,
19 yes.

20 MR. WALDMAN: But in terms of 21 integrated intelligence, it says:

22 "Establish joint teams to
23 analyze and disseminate
24 information."

25 Would you not agree that one of

1 the key aspects of the Smart Border Agreement was 2 to encourage and accelerate intelligence sharing
3 between Canada and the United States?

4 HON. JOHN MANLEY: Yes, it is 5 there, absolutely.

6 MR. WALDMAN: And even in the last 7 status report dated December 17th, 2004, Canada
8 remains committed to this open information sharing 9 as part of the update on what was going on with 10 the Smart Border Agreement. So we are still 11 committed to that open --

12 HON. JOHN MANLEY: I wasn't in 13 cabinet in 2004, but I hope that they are.

14 MR. WALDMAN: Okay. Just to be 15 clear, when did you first become aware of Mr. Arar 16 and his deportation?

17 HON. JOHN MANLEY: I can't 18 specifically recall. It was a news story, I 19 think, and I think we saw -- Mr. David showed me 20 memos that were written in a time frame close to 21 his departure, or his removal. So I would assume 22 that I knew about it sometime in that time frame.

23 MR. WALDMAN: So it was after he 24 was deported. You had never heard his name 25 mentioned before he was deported to Syria?

1 HON. JOHN MANLEY: No.

2 MR. WALDMAN: Are you aware of an 3 internal investigation that was conducted by the 4 RCMP, by Chief Superintendent Brian Garvie?

5 HON. JOHN MANLEY: No.

6 MR. WALDMAN: In that 7 investigation, the Chief Superintendent 8 interviewed several persons involved in the 9 investigation of the alleged al-Qaeda cell, and it 10 was clearly stated that Mr. Arar was not a target 11 but was peripheral to the investigation.

12 Are you aware of that?

13 HON. JOHN MANLEY: No.

14 MR. WALDMAN: And are you aware 15 that Mr. Arar came to the attention of the RCMP as 16 a result of being seen with someone else who was 17 of interest to them in October of 2001? That's 18 also set out in the Garvie report.

19 HON. JOHN MANLEY: It's also set 20 out in what?

21 MR. WALDMAN: In this same report.

22 You are not aware of that fact
23 either, I take it.

24 HON. JOHN MANLEY: I had been 25 given some information by Mr. Wright at a point

1 late in this whole process, when it was being 2 explained to me that, yes, Mr. Arar may have been 3 of interest to security authorities.

4 However, there was no hard
5 evidence. Certainly it caused me to draw the 6 conclusion that there was no justification for the 7 actions that the United States took. But it was 8 very general.

9 MR. WALDMAN: Okay. So are you
10 aware that, for example, the RCMP obtained 11 Mr. Arar's lease from Minto Properties?

12 HON. JOHN MANLEY: I believe that 13 was reported in the media.

14 MR. WALDMAN: Are you aware that 15 shortly after the lease was obtained, the 16 information regarding Mr. Arar's alleged 17 connection with the other subjects of the 18 investigation was sent to the United States as 19 part of this ongoing information sharing?

20 HON. JOHN MANLEY: I can't say
21 specifically.

22 MR. WALDMAN: So we have 23 acknowledged that Mr. Arar was peripheral to the 24 investigation, and this is stated in the same memo 25 that Mr. David took you to before from Mr. Pardy,

1 where he says that he wasn't the subject of an 2 investigation but was of interest because of his 3 contacts.

4 This is also set out in the June 5 3rd memo.

6 So you are aware of that fact;
7 that according to at least all the public 8 documents that have been disclosed and the 9 evidence that we have seen, it clearly states two 10 facts: that Mr. Arar was very peripheral, was not 11 the target of an investigation on the one hand; 12 and on the other hand, the RCMP had sent 13 information very early on about Mr. Arar to the 14 United States?

15 HON. JOHN MANLEY: I wouldn't 16 dispute those facts. I mean, I am not sure 17 what --

18 MR. WALDMAN: Well, I will come to 19 it in a minute --

20 HON. JOHN MANLEY: -- degree of 21 confirmation you are expecting from me. I have 22 heard those things.

23 MR. WALDMAN: When did you become 24 aware that the RCMP had sent information about 25 Mr. Arar to the United States very early on, like

1 almost a year before --

2 HON. JOHN MANLEY: I couldn't
3 answer that. I don't know.

4 MR. WALDMAN: But you were aware
5 of that at some point?

6 HON. JOHN MANLEY: Well, not 7 specifically as a result of any communication to 8 me by the RCMP or, to my recollection, by 9 Mr. Wright.

10 MR. WALDMAN: Well, we also have 11 in evidence before us two documents. One is in 12 the material. It's a letter from a U.S.
13 Congressman which says that Mr. Arar -- to a U.S.
14 congressman, Markie, from Paul Kelly. It is page 15 78 of the disclosure, in which he says -- this is 16 the Department of State responding to a concern by 17 Mr. Markie, in which he says -- it's page 78 of 18 the document.

19 HON. JOHN MANLEY: 79?

20 MR. WALDMAN: 78.

21 HON. JOHN MANLEY: I don't think 22 it's 78. I think it's 79.

23 MR. WALDMAN: 79. Another example
24 of a numbering mishap.

25 In the second paragraph, it says:

1 "Mr. Arar's name was placed 2 on a terrorist lookout based 3 on information received from 4 Canada."

5 So we now have in the public
6 record information that Mr. Arar's problems arose 7 as a result of information that came from 8 Canada --

9 MS McISAAC: We have on the public
10 record that Mr. Paul Kelly, Assistant Secretary 11 Legislative Affairs, says that.

12 MR. WALDMAN: Well, we also have 13 on the record that Mr. Gar Pardy, in his memos of 14 June 3rd and June 5th, also made the same 15 statement: that the information that led the 16 Americans to be interested in Mr. Arar came from 17 Canada.

18 So does it surprise you that the 19 RCMP was sharing information with the U.S. about 20 someone who was of peripheral interest to them?

21 HON. JOHN MANLEY: Well, I am not 22 sure whether it surprises me or not. As I have 23 said, these agencies were never my direct 24 responsibility. I can't say that I have any --

25 MR. WALDMAN: But --

1 HON. JOHN MANLEY: In what context
2 are you asking me that? As a private citizen?

3 MR. WALDMAN: No. I am asking you 4 this in the context of the person in cabinet who 5 negotiated the Smart Border Agreement and who 6 encouraged the increase in the information 7 exchanges on an intelligence level between Canada
8 and the United States.

9 And I am asking you this because,
10 in the context of the encouraging of these 11 exchanges, we have a clear consequence in this 12 particular case. That's the reason why I am 13 asking you this question, sir.

14 Does it concern you that the RCMP 15 would send information to the United States in an 16 intelligence matter about a Canadian citizen who 17 was peripherally involved and, according to 18 yourself, according to the information that was 19 provided to you, they had no evidence of any clear 20 connection? Does it concern you?

21 HON. JOHN MANLEY: Again, I
22 consider it a question that is of a more technical 23 nature than that, because I think that the people 24 that deal in these issues are the ones that are 25 more competent to respond to that kind of 1 question.

2 From my point of view, I would be 3 concerned if the information was not based on 4 proper investigative techniques, or was unsound or 5 untrue in some fashion that was easily verifiable.
6 If they are trying to respond to a threat that is 7 demonstrably real in which their process must lead 8 them somehow or other to assemble disparate pieces 9 of information into some kind of mosaic out of 10 which they can perhaps save people's lives, well 11 then that's why I would have thought you have to 12 be able to exchange information.

13 MR. WALDMAN: Okay, I understand
14 that.

15 HON. JOHN MANLEY: We had the very 16 clear example of somebody trying to leave Canada 17 with a truckload full of explosives with the 18 intention of blowing up the Los Angeles Airport, 19 and if he had succeeded, it would have caused 20 enormous loss of life and enormous cost to Canada.

21 So, yes, they have to be able to 22 exchange information because maybe that's how they 23 put the pieces together.

24 MR. WALDMAN: Okay. Thank you for
25 that.

1 But aren't you aware that various 2 persons in documents have talked about the 3 different strategies undertaken between Canada and 4 the United States in the war on terrorism?

5 Deputy Commissioner Loeppky in 6 several memos, when dealing with the Arar file, 7 acknowledged that the U.S. and Canada have 8 different strategies.

9 Are you aware that we have 10 different strategies; that the Americans engage in 11 practices that would not be acceptable in Canada?

12 HON. JOHN MANLEY: That's why I 13 suggested to you that perhaps you were asking 14 questions that were of a rather technical nature 15 that somebody else should be responding to.

16 No, I don't know about that.

17 MR. WALDMAN: You weren't aware of 18 Guantanamo Bay during your time as Deputy Prime 19 Minister in charge of negotiating the intelligence 20 sharing agreements as part of the Smart Border 21 Agreement? You weren't aware of Guantanamo Bay?

22 HON. JOHN MANLEY: Well, of course
23 I am aware of Guantanamo Bay.

24 MR. WALDMAN: Do you think 25 Guantanamo Bay is something that would be

1 acceptable in Canadian law, under Canadian 2 standards?

3 HON. JOHN MANLEY: I am not sure 4 that it has been determined that it's acceptable
5 under U.S. law.

6 MR. WALDMAN: So your answer is 7 that it's not acceptable under Canadian law?

8 HON. JOHN MANLEY: Are you asking
9 me as a lawyer?

10 MR. WALDMAN: I am asking you,
11 sir, now as Deputy Prime Minister who negotiated 12 the intelligence sharing agreements. I think it's 13 relevant for us to know the degree and extent of 14 your knowledge of what was going on in the United 15 States during the time you negotiated the Smart 16 Border Agreement.

17 Were you aware of the Guantanamo
18 agreement -- the situation in Guantanamo Bay 19 during that time?

20 HON. JOHN MANLEY: Well, can you 21 be more particular about what you want me to be 22 aware of? I didn't visit Guantanamo Bay.

23 MR. WALDMAN: Were you aware of 24 the fact that the detainees in Guantanamo Bay 25 where held in conditions that, according to all of

1 the human rights organisations that reported on 2 it, were considered sub-human and unacceptable?

3 HON. JOHN MANLEY: I was aware
4 that the due process that we would have expected 5 to be applied was perhaps not being applied.

6 MR. WALDMAN: You didn't see
7 photographs of the prisoners walking around 8 shackled, hands and feet, and then --

9 MS McISAAC: Commissioner, really, 10 what does this line of questioning have to do with 11 Mr. Arar?

12 THE COMMISSIONER: It is very far
13 afield.

14 MR. WALDMAN: Mr. Commissioner,
15 with all due respect, I think it's highly relevant 16 that we understand the extent to which Mr. Manley, 17 who was the Deputy Prime Minister and who 18 negotiated the Smart Border Agreement, was aware 19 of what was going on in the United States at the 20 time that he negotiated the agreement, because I 21 suggest to you it's relevant to what happened to 22 Mr. Arar later on.

23 Clearly one of the issues that 24 emerges from this inquiry is whether there are 25 adequate safeguards with respect to the 1 intelligence sharing.

2 MS McISAAC: Mr. Manley in his 3 position as a senior politician would have been in 4 charge of negotiating the framework for the Smart
5 Border Accord, but he would not have been involved 6 in the day-to-day negotiations between various 7 agencies as to how that would be accomplished and 8 implemented, and that's quite a different matter; 9 moving from the policy level that we must chair to 10 the operational level as to when, how, what, under 11 what circumstances, et cetera.

12 MR. WALDMAN: With all due
13 respect, it seems to me that on a policy level it 14 would be extremely important for our Deputy Prime 15 Minister to be concerned about negotiating 16 adequate safeguards to ensure that Canadian 17 citizens --

18 THE COMMISSIONER: All right.
19 Let's --

20 MR. WALDMAN: I have only a few 21 more questions.

22 THE COMMISSIONER: Carry on with 23 the line of questioning.

24 It is just I think if you get into 25 the legalities of Guantanamo Bay, I am not sure

1 that it's fair to ask Mr. Manley, either as a
2 Minister --

3 MR. WALDMAN: I was just asking 4 him if he was aware of it as an example, because 5 his response to my question about whether he was 6 aware that there were different tactics between 7 the United States and Canada was that he didn't 8 know. And Mr. Graham yesterday testified that the 9 American threshold for terrorist activity was 10 somewhat less than in Canada.

11 And given his answer, I felt it 12 necessary to give him a specific example that's 13 well-known and on the public record.

14 If he would acknowledge that there
15 are clear differences in threshold between Canada 16 and the United States, it wouldn't have been 17 necessary for me to go to this length.

18 THE COMMISSIONER: Carry on.

19 MR. WALDMAN: So, sir, getting 20 back to Guantanamo Bay, would you agree with me 21 that what is practised in Guantanamo Bay is not 22 acceptable in Canada?

23 HON. JOHN MANLEY: Could I ask you 24 to be specific as to what practices you are asking 25 me about?

1 MR. WALDMAN: Lack of access to a
2 lawyer? Would that be acceptable in Canada?

3 HON. JOHN MANLEY: I believe that 4 under our law that access to a lawyer is 5 considered a right of an accused.

6 MR. WALDMAN: Holding people for 7 23 and a half hours, 23 hours a day in shackles in 8 a cell. Is that acceptable in Canada?

9 HON. JOHN MANLEY: Well, I am sure
10 it's not acceptable in Canada.

11 But again, I would appreciate it 12 if you could explain to me what your concern is 13 here, because I would rather address the concern 14 than be quizzed --

15 MR. WALDMAN: My concern is 16 whether you were aware that the Americans were 17 undertaking conduct in their war against terrorism 18 that would not be acceptable in Canada.

19 HON. JOHN MANLEY: Can we come to 20 the conclusion of your question, which is, should 21 we have therefore said, "Well, we are not going to 22 negotiate something like the Smart Border Accord 23 with the United States because they may be 24 engaging in practices of which we would not 25 directly approve"?

1 And my answer to that is I had too
2 much at stake for the people that I represent to 3 say, you know, you may have had thousands of 4 people killed in your jurisdiction and you may be 5 going over the top -- that's for someone else to 6 judge. But for me, I have got to get my citizens 7 their right to have their employment, and 8 therefore the fundamental thing that I was 9 concerned with was making sure that we reached an 10 understanding that was going to protect Canadian 11 interests.

12 MR. WALDMAN: Perhaps you could 13 let me ask my questions, and I still didn't get an 14 answer to the one I asked, which was, just 15 generally speaking, whether you were aware that 16 there were different tactics being used by the 17 Americans than Canada in the war on terrorism?

18 And if you would answer that 19 question, then I could ask the next question, 20 which was not the same as the one that you 21 answered.

22 HON. JOHN MANLEY: Well, I am not
23 aware of tactical considerations. I was not 24 responsible for an agency that engaged in those 25 tactics, so I couldn't have told you what the 1 tactics of our people were or the tactics of their 2 people.

3 MR. WALDMAN: Did we have a
4 Guantanamo Bay in Canada?

5 HON. JOHN MANLEY: Well, not to my 6 knowledge.

7 MR. WALDMAN: Okay. Thank you.

8 If we can acknowledge that at 9 least Mr. Graham was more forthcoming yesterday, 10 and if we assume that his evidence -- as you 11 acknowledged he was the point man on external 12 affairs. He acknowledged yesterday at page 4082
13 of the transcript, if anyone wants to look at it, 14 that the American threshold for terrorist activity
15 was somewhat less than in Canada. What this issue 16 raises is the extent to which we can share 17 information with other societies that don't have 18 the same rules as we do.

19 I think it's fair to say that the 20 Americans can do what they like, but other people 21 have acknowledged that U.S. uses measures that are 22 not acceptable, including Guantanamo Bay. We also 23 know about Abu Ghraib, and we have also heard 24 about rendition.

25 Wouldn't you agree that if the

1 U.S. or any regime is going to use Canadian 2 information and use it on a Canadian citizen, then 3 it better be with an understanding between Canada 4 and the U.S. that there is going to be respect for 5 Canadian civil rights?

6 Wouldn't you agree that would have 7 to be a precondition for any sharing of 8 information?

9 HON. JOHN MANLEY: I think that I
10 was quite clear, in both private discussion with 11 my counterpart and in public comments, that I did 12 not approve of the removal of Mr. Arar under any 13 circumstances, whether it was based on Canadian 14 information or not. I didn't approve of it 15 because he was a Canadian citizen; that he should 16 have been removed to Canada.

17 I would not be prepared to say 18 that we, as a policy matter, ought to impede our 19 ability to exchange information because we need 20 information coming to us as well. I understand it 21 is fundamentally important to our police 22 authorities in order to protect the civilian
23 population.

24 MR. WALDMAN: Well you said,
25 according to the summary that Mr. David took you

1 to -- perhaps you could look at it, page 812.

2 THE COMMISSIONER: Tab 812.

3 MR. WALDMAN: Tab 812 of DFAIT,
4 item 5.

5 "The Minister referred to a
6 'stress point' in 7 Canadian-U.S. relations that 8 must be resolved. There was 9 no doubt that Canada and the 10 U.S. need to exchange
11 information on security 12 threats, 'but Canadians will 13 always insist that laws
14 related to civil liberties 15 will be respected.'"

16 So that's what you have said and 17 you have ratified that.

18 What steps did you take, sir, in 19 your negotiations with Mr. Ridge, to ensure that 20 the rights of Canadians would be respected after 21 you became aware of what happened to Mr. Arar?

22 HON. JOHN MANLEY: Well, at most 23 of the time that I was in office, we were still 24 trying to find out what had happened to Mr. Arar.
25 I mean, you are citing something from November

1 2003. I was leaving office at that point in time.

2 MR. WALDMAN: So is the answer to 3 your question you didn't take any steps to 4 protect -- I mean, you are aware -- let's put it 5 this way. In November of 2003, you were aware 6 that Canadian information had been shared with the 7 Americans. You were aware that the Americans took 8 a decision with or without the consultation of the 9 Canadians to remove Mr. Arar to Syria. You 10 indicated you were aware in general terms that 11 there wasn't due process in Syria.

12 You said that we will insist that 13 laws related to civil liberties will be respected 14 in response to what happened to Mr. Arar.

15 So my question is to you: What 16 steps did you take to ensure that this was going 17 to happen? Or what steps did you take at that 18 time?

19 HON. JOHN MANLEY: I raised the 20 matter with my counterpart.

21 MR. WALDMAN: And that's as far as 22 you went: you raised the matter.

23 Don't you think there would be a
24 need, in light of what happened in Mr. Arar's 25 case, for there to be some kind of caveats put on

1 the sharing of information so that that 2 information that was shared could not be used to 3 violate the civil liberties of Canadians?

4 HON. JOHN MANLEY: I don't know
5 whether what you are suggesting is technically 6 possible because, as I say, the information that 7 is shared in matters of investigation tends to be 8 fragmentary and needs to be compiled with other 9 pieces of information in order to create a 10 picture.

11 Undoubtedly, sometimes the picture
12 created is inaccurate. There are many instances 13 of people having been falsely accused. It's not 14 unknown.

15 What we would be seeking to ensure 16 is that, when accused, a person has the right to 17 be able to make their defence, and that's why we 18 would insist on their civil liberties being 19 respected.

20 MR. WALDMAN: Right. But we know
21 that with Mr. Arar that didn't happen. In other 22 words, he was deported to Syria where, according 23 to him, he was subjected to torture.

24 So my question is: In light of 25 that, what steps were taken while you were still

1 in government to ensure that another case like 2 Mr. Arar's would not happen?

3 HON. JOHN MANLEY: In fact, after 4 I had left government, an agreement was reached 5 with respect to removal of persons from the United 6 States.

7 MR. WALDMAN: Okay. But the 8 sharing of information does not only occur in 9 terms of Canadian citizens that are in the United 10 States. We know of other circumstances of 11 Canadian citizens who are in other countries where 12 information was shared which led to difficulties.

13 The question is more general.
14 What steps have been taken or were taken while you 15 were still Deputy Prime Minister to ensure that 16 Canadian citizens would be protected so there 17 wouldn't be another Mr. Arar?

18 Or is the only step you took to 19 raise it with Mr. Ridge?

20 HON. JOHN MANLEY: In the 21 fulfilment of my responsibilities, the only avenue 22 that was available to me was to raise it with my 23 counterpart.

24 MR. WALDMAN: Well, you were 25 Deputy Prime Minister and in charge of the cabinet

1 committee that dealt with national security
2 matters. You didn't raise it in that context as a 3 matter of concern?

4 The leadership campaign was over
5 by then.

6 HON. JOHN MANLEY: I did raise it
7 in that, and that's why I raised it with 8 Mr. Ridge. He was my counterpart with respect to 9 that responsibility.

10 MR. WALDMAN: And what was 11 Mr. Ridge's response when you raised it with him?

12 HON. JOHN MANLEY: His response
13 was that it was a matter for Mr. Powell to deal 14 with Mr. Graham on.

15 MR. WALDMAN: I am going to move 16 on to another area.

17 Just give me a second.

18 --- Pause

19 MR. WALDMAN: During this period
20 of time, there are a whole series of government 21 initiatives that took place on the question of 22 accountability of the RCMP.

23 Were you aware of those 24 initiatives that were taking place vis-à-vis the 25 accountability of the RCMP?

1 HON. JOHN MANLEY: If you could be 2 more specific, I might be able to recall.

3 MR. WALDMAN: Perhaps we could go
4 to -- what is it, P-108.

5 And if you are not aware, then we 6 won't have to go through it.

7 HON. JOHN MANLEY: I mean, I was 8 aware of a lot of things, but I didn't necessarily 9 focus my mind on it if it wasn't in my area of 10 responsibilities.

11 MR. WALDMAN: Perhaps you could 12 just look at it, and if you weren't aware of the 13 specific initiatives --

14 HON. JOHN MANLEY: Is there a tab
15 in here?

16 MR. WALDMAN: Tab 17.

17 Do you recall seeing this? I
18 believe there was another one in another location 19 that was sent to you directly and it has the same 20 contents.

21 Do you recall seeing this? Do you
22 recall being aware of these specific initiatives?

23 MS McISAAC: This is a memo to the 24 Deputy Solicitor General.

25 Is there another one that you

1 would like to refer to that Mr. Manley might have 2 seen?

3 MR. WALDMAN: Well, the same thing
4 is reproduced in a memo to the Prime Minister, 5 which is at tab 12 of Volume 5 of P-85. It is 6 copied to the Prime Minister.

7 MS McISAAC: That document would 8 have been after Mr. Manley was no longer Deputy 9 Prime Minister.

10 MR. WALDMAN: All right. So then 11 we will go back to this, and if you are not aware 12 of what is contained in this, I won't ask you any 13 questions on it.

14 It is tab 17 in P-108.

15 HON. JOHN MANLEY: I don't think I 16 have ever seen the document.

17 MR. WALDMAN: Well, were you aware 18 that there were government initiatives to amend 19 the Memorandums of Understanding -- ministerial 20 directives with respect to the RCMP in terms of 21 national security responsibility and arrangements?

22 HON. JOHN MANLEY: Not that I
23 recall.

24 MR. WALDMAN: You weren't aware of 25 that. Okay.

1 Were you aware that there was 2 concern about a lack of oversight with respect to 3 the RCMP that was expressed at this time?

4 HON. JOHN MANLEY: I may have 5 been. Issues around RCMP oversight were 6 frequently raised, depending on circumstances, 7 including at the time of the APEC meeting in 8 Vancouver in 1997. So RCMP oversight is an 9 ongoing issue.

10 MR. WALDMAN: Just give me one
11 second. I might be done.

12 --- Pause

13 MR. WALDMAN: Thank you. Those 14 are my questions.

15 THE COMMISSIONER: Thank you,
16 Mr. Waldman.

17 Ms McIsaac?

18 MS McISAAC: I do in fact have a 19 couple of very short questions, sir.

20 THE COMMISSIONER: Go ahead.

21 EXAMINATION

22 MS McISAAC: Mr. Manley, I want to 23 take you back to the brief meeting that you had 24 with Mrs. Mazigh at the event for the -- I think 25 it was the Ottawa Muslim Women's Association?

1 HON. JOHN MANLEY: Yes.

2 MS McISAAC: I take it that you
3 were invited in your capacity as the Member of 4 Parliament for Ottawa South to give some opening 5 remarks or some greetings.

6 Is that correct?

7 HON. JOHN MANLEY: I believe
8 that's right, yes.

9 MS McISAAC: So you weren't 10 otherwise involved in that particular meeting?

11 HON. JOHN MANLEY: No.

12 MS McISAAC: This would be a
13 typical event that a Member of Parliament is asked 14 to attend and provide remarks?

15 HON. JOHN MANLEY: Yes.

16 MS McISAAC: When Ms Mazigh spoke 17 to you at the end of that meeting, just to be 18 clear, you went back to your office and at some 19 point spoke to your political assistant,
20 Mr. Klunder?

21 HON. JOHN MANLEY: That's right.

22 MS McISAAC: All right. What 23 would be the purpose of having Mr. Klunder 24 involved? What were you expecting him to do?

25 HON. JOHN MANLEY: I would have

1 said Dr. Mazigh spoke to me -- he may have even 2 been at the event with me. I don't recall.
3 "Would you follow up and see are we doing
4 everything that we should be doing? Is there 5 anyone that we should be speaking to?"

6 I was very sympathetic to the 7 situation that Dr. Mazigh described, and I thought 8 we, the government, collectively, ought to be 9 doing whatever we could to try to resolve it.

10 MS McISAAC: And I take it that 11 Mr. Klunder, from the documents that you looked at 12 with Mr. David, did in fact speak to Mr. Pardy at 13 the Department of Foreign Affairs?

14 HON. JOHN MANLEY: It seems to be 15 the case, yes.

16 MS McISAAC: And you recall from 17 your time at the Department of Foreign Affairs 18 that Mr. Pardy was the senior individual in charge 19 of consular matters.

20 HON. JOHN MANLEY: Yes, I knew
21 Mr. Pardy.

22 MS McISAAC: And if Mr. Klunder,
23 as a result of his discussions with Mr. Pardy,
24 felt there was something further that you, either 25 as Member of Parliament or in your capacity as

1 Deputy Prime Minister, could have done, would he 2 have reported that back to you?

3 HON. JOHN MANLEY: Yes, he would 4 have.

5 MS McISAAC: Can we assume then
6 that he reported back something along the lines
7 that the Foreign Affairs people were doing as much 8 as they could?

9 MR. WALDMAN: How much weight can 10 you give to such a leading question, with all due 11 respect?

12 MS McISAAC: Well, the 13 Commissioner will decide then, won't he?

14 THE COMMISSIONER: I think that's 15 really -- we have heard from others on the issue.

16 MS McISAAC: All right. Did you
17 hear anything back from Mr. Klunder that caused 18 you concern?

19 HON. JOHN MANLEY: Not that I
20 recall. The concern was that we didn't seem to 21 have -- that in general terms, we didn't seem to 22 have a means of resolving this and that, you know, 23 despite various best efforts there had not been a 24 way to satisfy the Syrian authorities that they 25 ought to return Mr. Arar to Canada.

1 MS McISAAC: And when you were 2 Minister of Foreign Affairs, had you had occasion 3 to deal with issues relating to individuals who 4 were citizens of more than one country?

5 HON. JOHN MANLEY: Yes.

6 MS McISAAC: And what was your 7 experience in terms of the consular challenges 8 that those cases arose?

9 HON. JOHN MANLEY: Well, it tended 10 to create particular difficulties. We had the 11 Sampson case, for example. He was in a Saudi 12 prison, a joint Canadian-British citizen. The 13 Saudis tended to prefer to deal with the British 14 authorities, and from time to time Mr. Sampson did 15 as well.

16 But I think that the overall issue 17 with consular cases is that, beyond being able to 18 try to monitor the condition of the citizen, it's 19 very difficult to get, in many countries, the 20 attention of the authorities at a high enough 21 level certainly to bring about the return of the 22 individual to Canada.

23 MS McISAAC: Thank you very much.

24 THE COMMISSIONER: Mr. David?

25 MR. DAVID: I have no further

1 questions, Mr. Commissioner.

2 THE COMMISSIONER: Okay. Well,
3 that completes your evidence.

4 Let me express my thanks to you,
5 Mr. Manley, for the time you have taken in 6 preparing to come here and coming here today. I 7 appreciate it very much.

8 HON. JOHN MANLEY: Not at all.
9 Thank you, sir.

10 THE COMMISSIONER: Thank you.

11 MR. DAVID: We will resume,
12 Mr. Commissioner, at 2:15 with Ms Catterall.

13 THE COMMISSIONER: Ms Catterall is 14 the next witness at 2:15?

15 MR. DAVID: That is correct.

16 THE COMMISSIONER: All right.

17 MR. ATKEY: Commissioner, I wonder
18 if I might have a word or two, before we conclude 19 for the break, as the amicus curiae, on the issue 20 of national security confidentiality?

21 THE COMMISSIONER: Certainly. I
22 think I should excuse Mr. Manley.

23 MR. ATKEY: Yes.

24 THE COMMISSIONER: He need not 25 wait in the witness box.

1 MR. ATKEY: He is welcome to 2 listen.

3 THE COMMISSIONER: He may want to 4 go into the body of the hearing room.

5 Thank you, Mr. Manley.

6 MR. ATKEY: Commissioner, I want
7 to share with you an observation as amicus that I 8 have made over yesterday and today that the 9 position of the government seems to have changed, 10 or at least has been far more accommodating than 11 has been previously been the case, both in regard 12 to the documents that have been filed and evidence 13 given by Minister Graham in terms of his 14 conversations with counterparts in the U.S. and in 15 Syria, and this morning, of course, the Minister 16 giving evidence of his conversations with his 17 counterpart in the U.S.

18 This is clearly national security 19 confidentiality information. Not to say that 20 there is a public interest in disclosure of this 21 information, and perhaps I might observe that the 22 government is waiving its NSC claims it might 23 otherwise have made in this case or perhaps has, 24 in its own way, balanced the public's right to 25 know against the necessity to protect national

1 security confidentiality arrangements.

2 All I can say at this point is 3 that I am observing that this development is 4 positive in its nature and I think is of 5 assistance to you in getting to the bottom of the 6 task you have; that is, to find out what Canadian 7 officials did, to whom, at what time, where and 8 when, et cetera.

9 So I simply at this point wanted 10 to observe that in the participation in the 11 proceedings: that today and yesterday I think did 12 represent a sea change in the position of the 13 government on NSC issues, and that is positive.

14 I might say I am optimistic that 15 you will be able to complete your task and within 16 a reasonable time. I share that with you.

17 THE COMMISSIONER: Thank you,
18 Mr. Atkey. I would make the same observation and 19 would add to your optimism. I am hopeful, as I 20 have said a number of times, that that type of 21 approach will become the norm in this inquiry and 22 that we will be able to proceed and complete the 23 task and have as much information as possible made 24 available to the public during the course of the 25 hearing process. So I, too, see it as a positive

1 development.

2 We will rise and come back at 3 2:15.

4 THE REGISTRAR: Please stand.

5 --- Upon recessing at 11:34 a.m. /

6 Suspension à 11 h 34

7 --- Upon resuming at 2:16 p.m. /

8 Reprise à 14 h 16

9 THE REGISTRAR: Please be seated.

10 Veuillez vous asseoir.

11 MR. DAVID: Good afternoon,
12 Mr. Commissioner. We have Ms Marlene Catterall, 13 Member of Parliament for Ottawa West and Nepean, 14 who will be testifying this afternoon.

15 THE COMMISSIONER: Would you like 16 to be sworn or affirmed?

17 MS CATTERALL: Sworn.

18 SWORN: MARLENE ANN CATTERALL

19 THE COMMISSIONER: Your full name?

20 MS CATTERALL: Marlene Ann

21 Catterall.

22 THE COMMISSIONER: Thank you.

23 EXAMINATION

24 MR. DAVID: Ms Catterall will be 25 providing testimony, Mr. Commissioner, concerning

1 her functions and her role as Member of Parliament
2 for the riding in which the Arars lived, and her 3 involvement as of late September 2002 until -- to 4 this day, I guess.

5 MS CATTERALL: Yes.

6 MR. DAVID: I would like to begin
7 by filing Ms Catterall's CV and to briefly review 8 some of the contents.

9 THE COMMISSIONER: 113.

10 MR. DAVID: Thank you.

11 EXHIBIT NO. P-113:

12 Curriculum Vitae of Marlene
13 Catterall

14 MR. DAVID: Ms Catterall, you have 15 been a member, an MP, for your riding which at one 16 time was called Ottawa West and is now called 17 Ottawa West and Nepean?

18 MS CATTERALL: Yes.

19 MR. DAVID: You were first elected 20 in 1988, and you have been re-elected four times 21 since.

22 MS CATTERALL: Yes.

23 MR. DAVID: So you are a five-term
24 MP?

25 MS CATTERALL: Yes.

1 MR. DAVID: You have occupied
2 various functions within Parliament. You were 3 Deputy Government Whip.

4 MS CATTERALL: Yes.

5 MR. DAVID: From 1994 to 2001, and 6 in fact became Chief Government Whip in 2001, 7 until 2003?

8 MS CATTERALL: Yes.

9 MR. DAVID: Mr. Commissioner, when 10 I asked Ms Catterall the functions of a whip, it 11 was a painful experience, and I would suggest to 12 you to rely on my experience in that regard.

13 In point of fact, you have the 14 honour of being the first woman to have that 15 function as being the Chief Whip.

16 MS CATTERALL: Yes.

17 MR. DAVID: In addition to that,
18 you are a member of many committees, parliamentary 19 committees. You are a member of the Standing 20 Committee on Environment, Human Rights and I
21 believe also on Justice?

22 MS CATTERALL: Yes. Procedure and 23 House Affairs.

24 MR. DAVID: Before we actually 25 begin your testimony on your direct involvement in

1 the Arar affair, I would like you to first comment
2 on your experience as an MP with the consular,
3 with the notion of detaining Canadians abroad.

4 You had occasion as an MP in your 5 riding to deal with such cases previous to 6 Mr. Arar's?

7 MS CATTERALL: I had not had a
8 constituent who was in this situation prior to 9 Mr. Arar.

10 MR. DAVID: Your initial contact
11 with the Arars, I believe, came through Ms Mazigh, 12 Monia Mazigh, Mr. Arar's wife?

13 MS CATTERALL: Yes.

14 MR. DAVID: I understand that 15 Ms Mazigh called your office within a day or two 16 from when Mr. Arar was to be in Canada?

17 MS CATTERALL: She contacted my 18 office, I think it was the 29th of September. If 19 these dates are important, I can firm them up for 20 you.

21 MR. DAVID: For your benefit, I am 22 just pointing out to you the fact that we do have 23 a calendar here. This is for October, but if you 24 prefer to have September. This is October 2002, 25 so it may help you in terms of situating the days,

1 the events as they unfold at the beginning.

2 If we could turn up a tab, and 3 that would be in Volume 1 of the DFAIT documents, 4 and that would be tab 19.

5 I want to set out with you,
6 Ms Catterall, the chain of events, how the initial 7 contact occurred and the flow of events that 8 occurred thereafter.

9 So the genesis of your involvement
10 essentially begins with a call from Ms Mazigh to 11 your office.

12 MS CATTERALL: Yes.

13 MR. DAVID: Did she speak to you 14 personally, or was it to one of your --

15 MS CATTERALL: Not at that time.
16 She spoke to Catherine Clark in my office.

17 MR. DAVID: And Catherine Clark
18 occupies what function in your office?

19 MS CATTERALL: Catherine was one
20 of two constituency assistants I had to deal day 21 in and day out with constituents with particular 22 issues. It covers a wide range.

23 MR. DAVID: I am showing you a
24 document. It's within a system of documentary 25 recording that the Department of Foreign Affairs

1 uses.

2 It is what is called a CAMANT
3 note, that is dated October 2nd, which witnesses
4 the fact that Catherine Clark spoke to a DFAIT
5 civil servant by the name of Nancy Collins on this 6 date, which was Wednesday, October 2nd, and the 7 note says that Ms Collins provided Ms Clark with 8 some background and indicated that:

9 "... we were trying to get 10 consular access and that we 11 were trying to arrange for a 12 visit. Catherine was 13 informed that we are active 14 in this case and that I was 15 in regular contact with 16 subject's brother in 17 Montreal."

18 Ms Mazigh calls. Do you speak to 19 Ms Mazigh right from the beginning?

20 MS CATTERALL: I believe she 21 called at the end of the previous week. Catherine 22 was still trying to get information from me. She 23 had initially called -- or for me. And I spoke to 24 Ms Mazigh early the following week.

25 Catherine had tried to contact

1 Mr. Gar Pardy because we had dealt with him before 2 on a number of cases. He was absent from Ottawa.

3 She then called another woman,
4 Helen -- I am sorry, I have forgotten her last 5 name.

6 MR. DAVID: Helen Harris?

7 MS CATTERALL: Yes. And Nancy
8 Collins re-called back on behalf of Helen Harris.

9 We also received a call from 10 Maureen Girvan, consulate in New York, and had 11 another conversation with her. I spoke to Gar 12 shortly after he was back in Ottawa.

13 MR. DAVID: Okay. And you have 14 just mentioned that you had dealt with Mr. Pardy
15 in the past in other consular cases.

16 MS CATTERALL: Yes.

17 MR. DAVID: Would that be in terms
18 of your functions as a Member of Parliament?

19 MS CATTERALL: Yes.

20 MR. DAVID: And was it for people 21 within your riding jurisdiction?

22 MS CATTERALL: Yes.

23 MR. DAVID: And were they not 24 cases of Canadians detained abroad?

25 MS CATTERALL: Not the particular

1 first one I remember, which was a case of a child
2 who had been kidnapped and taken to Lebanon.

3 MR. DAVID: So you had had 4 occasion to speak and work with Mr. Pardy in the 5 past?

6 MS CATTERALL: Yes.

7 MR. DAVID: And so the first
8 contact, or the first time you speak to Mr. Pardy, 9 do you recall when that was, concerning Mr. Arar?

10 MS CATTERALL: I can't be exactly 11 sure, no.

12 MR. DAVID: Would it be in the 13 early part of October?

14 MS CATTERALL: It would be in the 15 very early part of October.

16 MR. DAVID: Okay. Now, you 17 eventually called Ms Mazigh back while she was in 18 Tunisia?

19 MS CATTERALL: I would have called 20 her back in Tunisia before I spoke to Mr. Pardy, 21 yes.

22 MR. DAVID: Before you spoke to
23 Mr. Pardy?

24 MS CATTERALL: Yes. That was 25 having had the information from New York and from

1 Foreign Affairs here in Ottawa.

2 MR. DAVID: So some background
3 work had been done, you obtained some information, 4 and then you called Ms Mazigh back.

5 MS CATTERALL: Catherine had also 6 been in touch with Minister Graham's office, 7 Michelle Lebeau.

8 MR. DAVID: Who is an aide to 9 Minister Graham?

10 MS CATTERALL: Yes.

11 MR. DAVID: What did you learn 12 from Ms Mazigh when you spoke to her while she was 13 in Tunisia about this situation?

14 MS CATTERALL: Well, I learned
15 firsthand what had actually happened to her 16 husband and her very serious concerns about his 17 detention in New York. She was very much 18 concerned that he might be deported, and certainly 19 any information I had had from anybody, including 20 from the Minister's office, was that this would 21 not happen.

22 MR. DAVID: And the concern of 23 deportation, Ms Mazigh identified where the 24 deportation --

25 MS CATTERALL: Yes, she was afraid

1 that he would be deported to Syria. I believe in 2 that conversation she also mentioned that if he 3 were deported there, he could be charged with not 4 doing his military service.

5 MR. DAVID: And was this the first 6 that you heard of a risk or a threat of 7 deportation to Syria, or was that information that 8 you had also obtained from other sources?

9 MS CATTERALL: I can't recall. I 10 do know that I was assured that that simply would 11 not happen. I cannot recall if one of the Foreign 12 Affairs people I had spoken to before had actually 13 said that this possibility had been raised with 14 them. And it must have been because I know in 15 talking to Monia the first time, I did say to her 16 that I had been assured that that would not 17 happen. And I honestly think everybody in Foreign 18 Affairs believed that. It's something which had 19 never happened before.

20 MR. DAVID: Okay. In terms of 21 Foreign Affairs, did you follow up on that fear 22 that Ms Mazigh had, that her husband could be 23 deported to Syria?

24 MS CATTERALL: Yes, I certainly 25 discussed it with Gar Pardy. Again, the 1 conviction was that this would not happen.

2 THE COMMISSIONER: Can we just 3 interrupt? They are having trouble with the sound 4 system.

5 --- Pause

6 MR. DAVID: Okay. Take 2.

7 THE COMMISSIONER: We will go back
8 and start again now?

9 MS CATTERALL: I thought we were 10 making progress here.

11 --- Laughter / Rires

12 MR. DAVID: I will resist making 13 comments.

14 You were reassured, or you were 15 assured by various officials within DFAIT that 16 this scenario of deportation to Syria was not 17 going to happen.

18 Do you recall how that was 19 explained to you?

20 MS CATTERALL: Simply that the 21 Americans would not deport a Canadian citizen. If 22 they did anything, it would be either to send him 23 back to his last point of departure or to send him 24 to Canada, and they fully expected he would be 25 returned to Canada.

1 MR. DAVID: So it was clear to you
2 that DFAIT did not envisage deportation to Syria
3 as a likely scenario or realistic scenario?

4 MS CATTERALL: No, they did not.

5 MR. DAVID: Can you recall who 6 informed you, Ms Catterall, within DFAIT that 7 Syria was an unlikely thing to happen; that it was 8 not going to happen?

9 MS CATTERALL: I know that that 10 was the opinion provided by Maureen Girvan. I 11 think that was in her discussion with Catherine 12 Clark, which I would have wanted before I spoke to 13 Monia. It was certainly repeated to me by Gar
14 Pardy.

15 MR. DAVID: And was that dealt 16 with fairly early on in terms of the chain of 17 events?

18 MS CATTERALL: Yes. That would 19 have been in that week of October 1st.

20 MR. DAVID: If we could go to tab
21 58 in that same volume, I want to bring you to an 22 entry for October 10th, wherein Catherine Clark is 23 speaking to Helen Harris.

24 Let me just read that with you.
25 It says:

1 "Catherine Clark ... called 2 and wanted information/update
3 on the case."

4 Again, the date is October 10th.

5 It's Thursday.

6 "JPE/Harris explained that we 7 are very cautious about 8 providing briefings without 9 having the authority from the 10 individual to release
11 information. Catherine said 12 she had been contacted by the 13 spouse of the subject and 14 understood and subject was 15 unaccounted for in the 16 American system. JPE/Harris
17 said that a lot of DFAIT
18 Consular resources are 19 working on this at all levels 20 and various locations and we 21 would continue to do so until 22 we have substantive and 23 confirmed information on 24 subject and his whereabouts
25 and wellbeing. Harris also

1 noted that the family (wife, 2 brother, family friend) are 3 being updated regularly.
4 Catherine accepted this but 5 noted that Catterall may wish
6 to raise this with Minister
7 Graham because it is a
8 constituent and if the 9 Americans have taken the step 10 of sending the subject to 11 Syria (where he could be 12 arrested and charged with 13 avoiding military service)
14 when they know he is a
15 Canadian is unacceptable.
16 Catherine went on to note 17 that other constituents have 18 also raised the NEERS issue
19 with Ms Catterall."

20 My first question in regard to 21 this message -- this is October 10th, and this is 22 the date where DFAIT obtains confirmation from 23 American sources --

24 MS CATTERALL: Yes.

25 MR. DAVID: -- and other sources

1 that Mr. Arar has in fact been deported from the 2 United States and is possibly in Syria.

3 My first question is: Did you
4 know, as of this date, that Mr. Arar was no longer 5 in the United States?

6 MS CATTERALL: Only that his wife
7 had been in touch with Catherine and had told her
8 that.

9 MR. DAVID: That day or previous?

10 MS CATTERALL: That day, I 11 believe.

12 MR. DAVID: Okay.

13 MS CATTERALL: Yes.

14 MR. DAVID: And the idea that is 15 being raised here, that you may wish to raise the 16 matter or the issue with Minister Graham, had you 17 been in contact with the office of Minister Graham 18 up to this point?

19 MS CATTERALL: Yes.

20 MR. DAVID: And who had you --

21 MS CATTERALL: Michelle Lebeau.

22 MR. DAVID: Michelle Lebeau?

23 MS CATTERALL: I believe at that 24 time Michelle was the Ontario person in 25 Mr. Graham's office.

1 MR. DAVID: How is it that you
2 learned on a confirmed basis that Mr. Arar had 3 been deported to Syria, and when was that?

4 MS CATTERALL: From Gar Pardy. I
5 can't be specific about when.

6 Just following my normal course of 7 operations, as soon as I knew about this call from 8 Monia, I would have been in touch with Mr. Pardy.

9 MR. DAVID: If we could go to tab
10 87, this is an entry now for October 15th. Again, 11 you are seeking an update from DFAIT and it says 12 the following:

13 "Received a call yesterday
14 from Marlene Catterall ..."

15 So that would have been on the 16 15th of October.

17 "... MP seeking an update on 18 the case. I mentioned that 19 the actions taken by DMCUS
20 and AMMAN to try to locate
21 subject and that MINA..."

22 "MINA" being the Minister of 23 Foreign Affairs.

24 "... was to raise this case
25 with the US Ambassador

1 yesterday.

2 She was pleased with this 3 last point but wanted info on 4 Gar Pardy's meetings in 5 Washington. Call was 6 transferred to Gar."

7 What did you know of Mr. Gar
8 Pardy's presence in Washington at this time?

9 MS CATTERALL: My recollection --
10 and as I warned you, I do not keep detailed notes 11 on conversations I have.

12 My recollection is that Mr. Pardy
13 was in Washington to try and follow the trail and 14 find out what had happened in terms of Maher 15 Arar's disappearance from -- well, deportation 16 from New York.

17 I believe he was meeting -- what I
18 was told is he was meeting with the INS officials 19 there.

20 MR. DAVID: Okay. I will just 21 bring you now to Mr. Pardy's personal notes in 22 this regard if you could take Exhibit P-88, which 23 you don't have but which will be brought to you.

24 Mr. Registrar, I will be referring 25 to Mr. Pardy's notes quite often, so it's probably

1 a good idea if Ms Catterall keeps possession of 2 them.

3 If you could go to tab 1 in this 4 binder and go to page 4, you will see about 5 halfway down there's a reference. It says Marlene 6 Catterall with a phone number?

7 MS CATTERALL: I am sorry, page
8 30 --

9 MR. DAVID: No, page 4, I am
10 sorry. Page 4 at the bottom.

11 THE COMMISSIONER: It is 4 of 33
12 down on the bottom right-hand corner.

13 MR. DAVID: There's an entry, and 14 this is for October 15th?

15 MS CATTERALL: Mm-hmm.

16 MR. DAVID: And it simply says:
17 "Voice mail message from Ms 18 Marlene Catterall, Member of 19 Parliament for Mr. Arar"

20 On the same day, on October 15th, 21 the day that you called and spoke to this fellow 22 by the name of Paquette, who was the deputy 23 director of JP.

24 MS CATTERALL: Yes.

25 MR. DAVID: Do you recall speaking

1 to Mr. Pardy about his meetings in Washington and 2 getting confirmation from him?

3 MS CATTERALL: I can't remember.
4 I know we would have spoken, but I can't be sure 5 if it was while he was still in Washington or 6 after he got back.

7 MR. DAVID: And what did you learn
8 from Mr. Pardy when you did speak to him, if you 9 recall?

10 MS CATTERALL: That there was 11 still a great deal of confusion about what had 12 happened to Mr. Arar, about where he was. I think 13 at that point we still didn't know where he was.

14 MR. DAVID: That is correct.

15 MS CATTERALL: I knew that we were 16 having discussions with the Jordanians because it 17 was certainly suspected that he had flown directly 18 to Jordan; that we were making extensive 19 inquiries, both in Jordan and in Damascus about 20 his whereabouts, and weren't able to find out
21 anything.

22 MR. DAVID: Okay. If you could 23 now go to an entry for October 22nd -- or around 24 that date, I should say, that would be tab 179.

25 MS CATTERALL: In the other book?

1 THE COMMISSIONER: You have a new 2 book.

3 MR. DAVID: I am sorry, that would 4 be Volume 2.

5 So it's tab 179. If you could go
6 to the third page of that tab, and the last 7 message at the bottom -- this is a compilation of 8 various e-mails that are being uploaded into this 9 CAMANT system.

10 I am referring you to a specific 11 message. It's the last one at the bottom of the 12 page. It's a message coming from Robert, and it's 13 going to Gar, and it says:

14 "As soon as we hear anything
15 out of Syria or the US on 16 Arar case please let me know.
17 I need to keep Marlene
18 Catterall in the loop. I 19 know we may not be able to 20 tell her everything all the 21 time but she is very involved
22 in the issue as you know. I
23 know you have spoken to her
24 as well.

25 Let me know if she is calling

1 you in tandem."

2 And it's Robert.

3 This, I would suggest, is Robert
4 Fry, who is in Minister Graham's office?

5 MS CATTERALL: And what was the 6 date? That would be Robert Fry.

7 What was the date of that e-mail?

8 MR. DAVID: We don't have an exact 9 date. The only thing I can tell you is that it is 10 no later than October 22nd that this message came 11 through from Robert Fry to Gar Pardy.

12 MS CATTERALL: I think I have an 13 explanation for the wording of that memo.

14 MR. DAVID: Mm-hmm?

15 MS CATTERALL: I believe it was on 16 October 21st -- and I can confirm this, as 17 necessary -- that the news became public, over the 18 media, that we had learned that Mr. Arar was in 19 Syria.

20 MR. DAVID: I can tell you that 21 Syria did officially confirm that they held 22 Mr. Arar as of October 21st.

23 MS CATTERALL: And I can tell you 24 that the way I found out was in my car over the 25 radio at about supper time. I was on my way to a

1 reception with Mr. Graham, and I was infuriated; 2 that having been in close touch with his office, 3 with Foreign Affairs, about Mr. Arar's case, that 4 I had to learn over the radio what had happened to 5 my constituent.

6 When I arrived at the reception, I
7 hauled Ben Costello, his executive assistant, out 8 of the reception, and tore a strip off him.

9 And that may explain Robert's 10 comments "that we have to keep Ms Catterall in the 11 loop".

12 MR. DAVID: Okay. And I think we 13 will see that you are kept in the loop thereafter, 14 through the documents.

15 Do you recall having spoken to 16 Robert Fry concerning your opinion that DFAIT
17 should be issuing a travel advisory to Canadians 18 going to the United States?

19 MS CATTERALL: Yes, I do.

20 MR. DAVID: Could you give us the 21 context?

22 MS CATTERALL: I confirmed with my 23 office the origin of that request. Again, I
24 believe it was on the 18th of October that I met 25 with a constituent, who does business back and

1 forth with the United States, sells medical 2 equipment. His regular practice was to leave
3 Ottawa at 4 a.m. to drive to New York for meetings
4 by 9 a.m., and he was quite upset by the NEERS
5 process because he said I can't now count on being 6 able to do business in the United States.

7 With him still in my office, I
8 contacted Robert Fry and suggested that we should 9 be issuing a travel advisory to Canadians of 10 origins in the Middle East considering travelling 11 to the United States.

12 Robert laughed. I said, "Robert,
13 this is no laughing matter. It might have been a 14 few weeks ago, but what has happened to Maher Arar 15 can happen to any Canadian citizen born in any of 16 those countries."

17 Tuesday the following week, in 18 fact, a changed travel notice for the United 19 States was issued.

20 MR. DAVID: We move forward now,
21 Ms Catterall, and we are going to go to December 22 of 2002.

23 I understand that you learned at 24 one point that either the RCMP or CSIS had gone to 25 Syria.

1 Do you recall learning that
2 information?

3 MS CATTERALL: I recall knowing
4 that information. I do not recall who told me.

5 MR. DAVID: Okay. And do you
6 recall specifically when you learned that
7 information?

8 MS CATTERALL: No, I am not
9 absolutely sure.

10 MR. DAVID: Would it have been --
11 I suggest to you in December. Is that an accurate 12 month? Or even the month that I have identified 13 may not be accurate.

14 MS CATTERALL: It may not be 15 accurate. I know I knew by December.

16 MR. DAVID: And did you react or 17 act on that information in any way?

18 MS CATTERALL: I certainly would 19 have discussed it with the Minister's office, yes, 20 and whether they knew anything about it.

21 MR. DAVID: Do you recall learning 22 anything from the Minister's office in that 23 regard?

24 MS CATTERALL: No.

25 MR. DAVID: We go now to December

1 16th, 2002, and simply for the record you 2 attended, I believe, a candlelight vigil on 3 Parliament Hill for Mr. Arar, organized by his 4 wife, I believe.

5 MS CATTERALL: Yes. I had had 6 another commitment in my riding before I heard 7 about the candlelight vigil, and so I didn't 8 arrive when the cameras and everybody was there.
9 I did come as soon as I could get away from my 10 other commitment.

11 MR. DAVID: Okay. We go now to 12 December 19th, and that would be tab 264 in Volume 13 3.

14 If you want to take Volume 1 and 2
15 back, that's fine.

16 MS CATTERALL: Sorry. What tab
17 number?

18 MR. DAVID: It's tab 264. This is 19 a briefing note going to Minister Graham, and it's 20 dated December 19th, 2002.

21 In this briefing note it is 22 suggested -- I believe it's a draft -- it's 23 suggested that he call in the Ambassador of Syria, 24 Mr. Arnous, for a discussion.

25 But that's not the point I want to 1 get to.

2 There is reference, and I bring 3 you to paragraphs 9 and 15 at page 3 of the 4 document.

5 At paragraph 9 it says the 6 following:

7 "Several Canadian 8 parliamentarians have 9 expressed a desire to 10 intervene on Arar's behalf.
11 If they do travel to Syria,
12 they could assist in 13 presenting the compassionate 14 and humanitarian grounds for 15 returning Mr. Arar to
16 Canada."

17 And at paragraph 15, it says:

18 "Two parliamentarians,
19 Mr. Assadourian and Ms
20 Catterall, have indicated 21 interest in travelling to 22 Syria to intervene on 23 Mr. Arar's behalf. They 24 would be briefed on the 25 results of your meeting with

1 Ambassador Arnous."

2 Could you explain to us the 3 circumstances in which this idea was generated, 4 that you and Mr. Assadourian could be going to 5 Syria on behalf of Mr. Arar?

6 MS CATTERALL: Mr. Assadourian is 7 Armenian, but was Syrian born and raised.

8 MR. DAVID: First of all, could 9 you just identify Mr. Assadourian.

10 MS CATTERALL: Sarkis Assadourian
11 was a Member of Parliament, one of my colleagues 12 in the previous Parliament. And as I said, he is 13 Armenian but born and raised and Syria and had 14 been in Canada since he was about 18.

15 He of course knew Syria well, knew 16 many people there, had travelled there a number of 17 times, spoke Arabic. He felt that perhaps he 18 could be helpful by going, and he and I had 19 discussed the possibility of Members of 20 Parliament, such as himself and myself, going to 21 Syria.

22 MR. DAVID: So do you recall
23 specifically whose idea it was in the beginning?

24 MS CATTERALL: It probably 25 originated with Sarkis, from my point of view.

1 MR. DAVID: Okay. And the 2 follow-up that you gave to the idea -- first of 3 all, did you find it was a good idea?

4 MS CATTERALL: I knew that at that 5 time Sarkis had been planning a trip to the Middle 6 East, had intended to be in Syria, and had talked 7 to Foreign Affairs about whether he could make any 8 representations on Mr. Arar's behalf while he was 9 there.

10 There was no real follow-up on 11 that until into the New Year.

12 MR. DAVID: And how did you follow 13 up on the idea of going to Syria? Who did you 14 speak to?

15 MS CATTERALL: It was discussed
16 later with Mr. Pardy, and I frankly can't remember 17 if I raised it with him or if he raised it with me 18 first.

19 MR. DAVID: If we could go to 20 Mr. Pardy's personal notes, which you have in the 21 binder to your right, and go to page 17, we will 22 see an entry for February 21.

23 MS CATTERALL: I am sorry, under 24 which tab?

25 MR. DAVID: Page 17. It's tab 1.

1 MS CATTERALL: One.

2 MR. DAVID: It's the top note, and 3 it's dated the 21st of February.

4 It says:

5 "Marlene Catterall

6 - visit to see Maher.

7 - Possibility of Monia.

8 - 1st March to Australia."

9 Do you recall what that entry may 10 concern?

11 MS CATTERALL: I don't recall. As 12 I said, I don't record all my conversations.

13 MR. DAVID: Okay. Do you recall
14 raising with Mr. Pardy the idea that maybe 15 Ms Mazigh could accompany you on this trip to 16 Syria, and did you speak to --

17 MS CATTERALL: I was concerned,
18 and in a number of meetings she raised regularly 19 with me the fact that it had been so many months 20 since she had seen her husband or spoken to him.
21 So I would have raised with Gar if that might be a 22 possibility.

23 MR. DAVID: And did you discuss
24 the notion with Ms Mazigh?

25 MS CATTERALL: No, I didn't.

1 MR. DAVID: The next entry,
2 Ms Catterall, is on February 24th, and that is the 3 second candlelight vigil that you attended.

4 MS CATTERALL: Sorry, what date
5 was that?

6 MR. DAVID: I don't have a
7 document for you.

8 MS CATTERALL: What date was that?

9 MR. DAVID: It was February 24th.

10 MS CATTERALL: Mm-hmm.

11 MR. DAVID: Did you attend another
12 vigil on Parliament Hill? Do you recall?

13 MS CATTERALL: I think I attended
14 any vigil there was, yes.

15 MR. DAVID: If we could again
16 refer, for an entry on February 27th, to 17 Mr. Pardy's notes at page 17, it says:

18 "Marlene Catterall

19 Wayne Easter ...

20 No problem.

21 Marlene Catterall ...

22 Did speak to Wayne & based on

23 conversation with RCMP -

24 nothing. CSIS as well."

25 MS CATTERALL: Yes.

1 MR. DAVID: Obviously this is in 2 view of a possible trip to Syria.

3 Do you recall speaking to 4 Mr. Easter in regard to your plans of going to 5 Syria?

6 MS CATTERALL: Yes.

7 MR. DAVID: And could you give us
8 the circumstances?

9 MS CATTERALL: First, if I can put 10 that in a bit of a context, one of the things that 11 was very frustrating to me throughout this whole 12 thing, once we knew Mr. Arar was in Syria, was the 13 importance of not offending the Syrians.

14 And why I say it was frustrating
15 was that many things I would have liked to say 16 publicly I refrained from saying publicly because 17 Foreign Affairs was extremely concerned about them
18 withdrawing any access to Mr. Arar.

19 I think it was in that context,
20 though, that I decided that, especially as Chief 21 Government Whip and a representative of the 22 government, not just a Member of Parliament, that 23 it was important that I find out if there were any 24 good reasons I should not take this trip.

25 That is why I called Mr. Easter

1 and --

2 MR. DAVID: So you actually spoke
3 to Mr. Easter in regards to your plan?

4 MS CATTERALL: I am not sure that 5 I spoke directly with Mr. Easter or with 6 Mr. Morill in his office.

7 MR. DAVID: And what feedback did 8 you get?

9 MS CATTERALL: The feedback was 10 that there was no objection to my going from 11 either CSIS or the RCMP.

12 MR. DAVID: Now, was this reported
13 to Mr. Pardy?

14 MS CATTERALL: Yes.

15 MR. DAVID: If we go to an entry 16 for the next date, February 28th, that would be 17 tab 327 in Volume 4.

18 MS CATTERALL: Can I just comment
19 on another item on that page, and that is the 20 Monia Mazigh. I think that was a follow-up from 21 the first notation there.

22 Having talked to Mr. Pardy about 23 the possibility of her going to Syria, he 24 indicated that we could pursue that, if I wished.

25 I did talk to her to see whether

1 in fact she would be interested in doing that, and 2 essentially her comment was that she did not want 3 to give any legitimacy to the idea that the 4 Syrians had the right to hold him, and she did not 5 want to.

6 MR. DAVID: Okay. So coming now
7 to the entry on February 28th, Ms Catterall, and 8 that would bring you to tab 327. And it's the 9 bottom message halfway down. You will see that 10 it's a message coming from Gar Pardy and it says:

11 "I spoke to Ms Marlene
12 Catterall last evening ..."

13 Referring to February 27th, 2003.
14 And it concerns again the planned trip, and four 15 items are noted.

16 The first is that:

17 "(a) in her conversation with 18 Mr. Easter, he checked with 19 both the RCMP and CSIS before
20 providing her with a green
21 light for the visit. Neither
22 organization objected to Ms
23 Catterall's visit.

24 Mr. Easter cryptically seemed 25 to remark that Mr. Arar's

1 problems were caused by this 2 department!"

3 Referring to DFAIT.

4 "I will follow up further on 5 this one."

6 Did you hear anything in that 7 regard, in regard of blame being put on the agency 8 of DFAIT, from Mr. Easter's office when you were 9 in consultation?

10 MS CATTERALL: Yes, I do recall
11 that. I do not recall exactly what he said.

12 Forgive me if I am, you know, 13 sometimes not sure. There were so many 14 conversations of what information I got from Ken 15 Morill in Mr. Easter's office and, when I spoke to 16 Mr. Easter because of course I would see him three 17 or four times a week and might have a casual 18 conversation with him as well.

19 MR. DAVID: Okay. And do you know
20 what was the basis for pointing the finger, if I 21 can say, to DFAIT in terms of explaining the 22 situation that Mr. Arar found himself in?

23 MS CATTERALL: No, I don't. As 24 far as I remember, he wasn't specific at all.

25 MR. DAVID: The second item,

1 paragraph (b), says:

2 "(b) Ms Catterall agrees that 3 a visit to Syria could best
4 be organized with a departure
5 from here on Tuesday, March 6 11 with a return on Friday,
7 March 14. Will be in touch
8 with her office to make 9 travel arrangements."

10 And (c) says that:

11 "(c) Ms Catterall believes 12 that a letter from the 13 Minister..."

14 The Minister of Foreign Affairs.

15 "... would be most valuable."

16 Could you give us some context
17 about this letter? Is it something that you were 18 proposing, you were suggesting, or was that idea 19 already floating around?

20 MS CATTERALL: I believe that idea 21 was already floating around, probably in 22 conversations with Mr. Pardy. I am not sure that 23 I would have initiated it, but if we were going to 24 be trying to meet with Foreign Affairs officials 25 there, it seemed to me that would be the purpose

1 of the meeting, was to deliver a message from the 2 Minister.

3 MR. DAVID: And do you know what 4 the contents of that message would have been?
5 Were you ever briefed on that?

6 MS CATTERALL: I knew that there
7 were substantive discussions going back and forth 8 about the contents of the letter, and I knew that 9 from contacts with the Minister's office.

10 I know that what I, what Ms Mazigh
11 and what Foreign Affairs wanted the letter to say 12 was that there was no evidence in Canada of 13 wrongdoing by Mr. Arar and that we wanted him
14 returned to Canada.

15 MR. DAVID: And I will bring to 16 you documents that deal specifically with that 17 issue so we can get the exact language.

18 But you were basically in 19 agreement with you carrying the letter from 20 Minister Graham --

21 MS CATTERALL: Yes.

22 MR. DAVID: -- to a Syrian
23 counterpart for delivery.

24 MS CATTERALL: Yes.

25 MR. DAVID: Going now to page 18

1 of Mr. Pardy's notes for this same date, February 2 28th, at the very top there's an entry:

3 "Marlene Catterall
4 - Speak to Assadourian.
5 - Any value in letter from
6 Wayne Easter.
7 - Any resistance? From his 8 people."

9 Was there a question, to your 10 recollection, of Mr. Easter issuing a letter, as 11 well as Mr. Graham?

12 MS CATTERALL: I am sorry, I just 13 can't remember absolutely surely about that.

14 MR. DAVID: Okay. We go now to an 15 entry for March 2nd, and that would be tab 330,
16 Ms Catterall.

17 Again there is a compilation of 18 e-mails. I bring you to the first page, at the 19 bottom half. It's an e-mail going from Gar Pardy 20 on March 2nd to John McNee, who is the ADM, the 21 Associate Deputy Minister for Africa and the 22 Middle East.

23 In it says that Mr. McNee had 24 spoken to Mr. Assadourian and confirms his 25 availability to travel with you.

1 The last sentence of the first 2 paragraph refers to the idea that:

3 "It has been agreed that we 4 will not say anything to the 5 family until such time as we 6 have agreement on Syrian
7 visas."

8 Do you recall discussions in that 9 regard?

10 MS CATTERALL: Yes. I had 11 specifically asked that Monia not be told until we 12 knew the visit was going to happen. I was very 13 concerned about getting her hopes up and then not 14 having it occur and having her disappointed again.
15 She was under enough stress, so I really wanted to 16 let her know only when it was sure that we would 17 be going.

18 MR. DAVID: Okay. And going now 19 to tab 328 for an entry on March 3rd, we have 20 coming from GMR, which is the Middle East 21 geographic region of DFAIT, suggested talking 22 points, and I would like to briefly review those 23 with you, because they are suggested talking 24 points for you for JPD use.

25 It says that:

1 "... message to DMCUS should 2 reassure them that we are 3 emphasizing to Mrs. Catterall
4 the importance of emphasizing
5 the positive, as per what 6 follows."

7 And there are five points that are 8 listed.

9 I just want to know if you were 10 apprised or sensitized to these points, the first 11 being:

12 "- I have been asked by 13 Mr. Arar's wife to convey to 14 you her family's concern
15 about Mr. Arar's situation 16 and their ardent hope soon to 17 be reunited. My mission is 18 one of humanitarian concern."

19 Was that one of the messages that 20 you were to bring to Syria?

21 MS CATTERALL: Yes.

22 MR. DAVID: Okay. And the second:

23 "- Mr. Arar's family is 24 grateful that the Syrian
25 authorities have granted

1 consular access to the 2 Canadian Embassy."

3 Was that a message that you were 4 asked to convey?

5 MS CATTERALL: I remember being 6 asked to express our gratitude as government that 7 that access had been granted.

8 MR. DAVID: Okay. The third 9 message refers to the idea that:

10 "- Syria has gone well beyond 11 the customary consular
12 requirements ..."

13 Given the dual nationality
14 situation.

15 Was that also one of the points
16 that you were asked to highlight?

17 MS CATTERALL: Not in those 18 specific terms, in terms of recognizing that Syria 19 has gone well beyond customary consular 20 requirements of international law.

21 But it was certainly stressed to 22 me at numerous times that it was totally 23 discretionary for Syria to allow us consular 24 access; that they regarded him as a Syrian 25 citizen; and that they had no obligation, under

1 those circumstances, to provide consular access.
2 And in fact I was told very early on that it was a 3 positive sign that they had allowed consular 4 access.

5 And, again, I go back to I was 6 told regularly how important it was, and I believe 7 Monia was told this as well, not to be overly 8 critical of the Syrians, at the risk of 9 jeopardizing consular access to him.

10 So, yes, I was certainly asked to 11 express our appreciation for the fact that he had 12 been allowed consular visits.

13 MR. DAVID: And that's clearly the 14 points raised in numbers 4 and 5 also.

15 MS CATTERALL: Mm-hmm.

16 MR. DAVID: We can go now to tab
17 324. And this is an entry for March 3rd again.
18 And this is a message that is coming from Gar 19 Pardy and it's going to Franco Pillarella in 20 Syria, and it concerns the visit.

21 Mr. Pardy is providing background 22 to the ambassador in Syria, the Canadian 23 ambassador.

24 And we see, in paragraph 4, that 25 the visit should be seen, it's explained.

1 "... in the context of Ms
2 Catterall's constituency
3 responsibility for the Arar
4 family."

5 Was that your understanding of the 6 situation?

7 MS CATTERALL: Only partly. Do we 8 know the date of this memo?

9 MR. DAVID: This is March 3rd of 10 2003.

11 MS CATTERALL: Only partly, in 12 that I was also delivering the letter from the 13 Minister to their Deputy Minister of Foreign 14 Affairs, so I personally regarded that as a little 15 more than just a Member of Parliament going on 16 behalf of her constituent, although that certainly 17 was my prime concern.

18 MR. DAVID: And then paragraph 5 19 refers to the fact that:

20 "JPD and MJM will carefully
21 brief the MPs prior to their 22 departure to provide a clear 23 sense of the context of the 24 visit and to encourage 25 reasonable expectations."

1 And there is a reference again to 2 the same talking points that we have reviewed.

3 I would simply note that on the 4 next page there is an addition in terms of talking 5 points, and it's the second one, the second 6 bullet.

7 It says:

8 "- The Canadian government
9 would be extremely pleased if 10 Mr. Arar could be returned to 11 Canada."

12 MS CATTERALL: Yes.

13 MR. DAVID: Do you recall that as 14 being one of your messages?

15 MS CATTERALL: Yes.

16 MR. DAVID: We go now to tab 332,
17 and this is an entry for March 4th. If you go to 18 page 2, the message is coming from Monia Mazigh to 19 Gar Pardy.

20 The message is on March 2nd, and 21 the response from Mr. Pardy is on March 4th.

22 So one of the concerns that 23 Ms Mazigh is expressing, about halfway down, is 24 that:

25 "My own MP Marlene Catterall

1 who showed some interest in 2 the case isn't now even 3 returning my messages and do
4 you know what Mr. Bill Graham 5 insisted on telling on the 6 phone conversation he had 7 with me? 'Please, if you
8 have any concern let Marlene
9 know about it ...' he told 10 me."

11 So there is an idea here that 12 maybe Ms Mazigh is not entirely satisfied with the 13 way things are going in terms of your office.

14 MS CATTERALL: I think that's 15 quite understandable. If I had been in her 16 position, nothing would have been enough until my 17 husband was home safely.

18 And much as I would have liked to 19 spend a great deal more time talking with her, at 20 this particular time I was essentially trying to 21 arrange the visit to Syria, not knowing whether it 22 was or wasn't going to happen.

23 And at one point, you know, I just 24 had to decide that I needed to spend -- I could 25 spend the time responding to her on an almost

1 daily basis, or I could spend the time doing the 2 other things on this case that I felt I had to do.

3 MR. DAVID: Okay. Mr. Pardy's
4 response to her on March 4th is -- and refers to 5 in the third paragraph -- the fact that you are in 6 Australia.

7 MS CATTERALL: Yes, I was at that 8 time, yes.

9 MR. DAVID: It says:
10 "Ms Catterall left last 11 Saturday for a week in 12 Australia and is expected to 13 return to Ottawa this 14 weekend. I can assure you 15 that your plight is 16 constantly with her and we 17 spoke on several occasions 18 last week. You can be 19 assured that she will be in 20 touch as soon as she 21 returns."

22 And I believe, in fact, you called 23 Ms Mazigh from Australia?

24 MS CATTERALL: I called her as 25 soon as it appeared that the visit to Damascus

1 would take place, because at the time I left for 2 the parliamentary delegation to Australia, we 3 still didn't know whether it would or wouldn't.

4 MR. DAVID: And to that effect,
5 Ms Catterall, I bring you to an entry on March 6 5th, which is at tab 342, and it would be the 7 third page of that tab.

8 There is a message from Monia,
9 again going to Gar. The message is dated March 10 7th, but the actual content I will be referring to 11 refers to an entry for March 5th, and it goes as 12 follows:

13 "Thank you for your call this 14 morning. I hope that we can 15 meet before Marlene goes to 16 Syria. She phoned from 17 Australia before
18 yesterday..."

19 Which would be March 5th.

20 So that is a reference clearly to 21 your conversation with her?

22 MS CATTERALL: Mm-hmm.

23 MR. DAVID: And that is when you 24 would have informed Ms Mazigh that you were 25 intending to go to Syria?

1 MS CATTERALL: Yes, and I think
2 that was following -- I had called Mr. Pardy from 3 Australia to see if it seemed likely that we would 4 be going to Australia(sic), and as soon as it
5 seemed like that was going ahead, then I called 6 Monia to tell her.

7 MR. DAVID: Okay. And then the 8 next date, on March 5th -- and we have this at tab
9 336 -- Robert Fry is signing off a letter in terms
10 of the Office of the Minister of Foreign Affairs, 11 addressed to you, saying that:

12 "... we would be pleased to 13 provide support to you for a
14 visit to Syria in the coming 15 days in order that you might 16 raise with the Syrian 17 authorities the matter of 18 Mr. Arar's continuing 19 incarceration. We hope that 20 it will be possible for you
21 to meet with Mr. Arar."

22 So we do here have the official
23 sanction from Mr. Graham's office.

24 We go now to an entry on March 25 9th, at tab 338, and here we have a report coming

1 from Syria, coming from the ambassador,
2 Mr. Pillarella, on March 9th, saying that this 3 trip is not turning out to be the best in terms of 4 timing.

5 The message is rather pessimistic
6 in terms of your ability to meet the President of 7 Syria, in terms of your ability to meet the 8 Foreign Minister of Syria, Minister Shara'a; that 9 you could meet with the Vice-Minister, 10 Mr. Mouallem, and it was uncertain that you could 11 meet Maher Arar at all, as this required the 12 approval of the General in charge of the 13 intelligence service under which Mr. Arar is being 14 detained.

15 Were you apprised of this message
16 from Mr. Pillarella at this time?

17 MS CATTERALL: I wasn't
18 specifically apprised of this message, I don't 19 believe. I was aware that there were problems in 20 terms of requests to meet with the President.

21 That, I believe -- no, I know.
22 That had been raised by Mr. Assadourian in a 23 conversation with the Syrian ambassador to Canada, 24 Mr. Arnous. Mr. Assadourian had suggested that we 25 would like to meet the President and the Minister

1 of Foreign Affairs, and Mr. Pardy certainly told 2 me that that had caused some significant concern
3 in Damascus.

4 MR. DAVID: Okay. Now, there was 5 some confusion in fact about the intentions of 6 both yourself and Mr. Assadourian as to meeting 7 with the President and the Foreign Minister, 8 Shara'a, and we see at tab 342 that this issue is 9 being clarified on March 10th.

10 If you could go to page 1 of that 11 tab, the message is coming from Tim Martin, who is 12 the Acting Director of the Middle East Geographic 13 Region, and it's going to Mr. Pillarella, and it 14 says the following:

15 "For your background, I have 16 spoken on the telephone today
17 with Ambassador Arnous. He 18 had spoken with Vice-Minister
19 Mouallem yesterday to clarify 20 matters in terms of who the 21 MPs expected to see. I
22 explained that the request 23 was for a meeting was with 24 Vice-Minister Mouallem and,
25 subject to the necessary

1 approvals, with Mr. Arar. He 2 asked for confirmation in 3 writing of this, so we 4 provided a diplomatic note to 5 the Embassy, the text of 6 which is reproduced below.
7 We will try to speak with 8 Ambassador Arnous tomorrow to 9 see whether he received 10 authorization to issue the 11 visas. Naturally, we would 12 welcome any update from your 13 end before we meet with the 14 MPs tomorrow."

15 And the actual diplomatic note is 16 reproduced just below, and it says at the end of 17 the first paragraph we would:

18 "... be grateful for the 19 assistance of the Government
20 of the Syrian Arab Republic
21 in obtaining a meeting with 22 Vice-Minister Mouallem of the 23 Ministry of Foreign Affairs
24 as well as a meeting with 25 Mr. Arar."

StenoTran

1 And further on we will see that 2 the confusion seems to have come from a discussion 3 between Mr. Arnous and Mr. Assadourian in that 4 regard.

5 Do you have any recollection about
6 that?

7 MS CATTERALL: That is also my 8 recollection, that Mr. Assadourian had raised this 9 with Mr. Arnous.

10 MR. DAVID: Okay. If we go to tab
11 343 now, Ms Catterall, it is an entry for March 12 11th. Again, it is a message coming from 13 Mr. Pillarella in Syria to Gar Pardy and Tim -- I 14 am not sure who Tim is.

15 MS CATTERALL: Tim Martin.

16 MR. DAVID: Tim Martin; thank you.

17 And Mr. Pillarella is herein
18 reporting that there are no final confirmations 19 from Mr. Mouallem concerning the trip and that 20 basically everything is still up in the air.

21 And this was in view of the fact 22 that on March 11th you are meeting Mr. Pardy for 23 the final briefing before you are departing.

24 MS CATTERALL: Yes.

25 MR. DAVID: So again, were you

1 informed of the contents of this message from 2 Mr. Pillarella?

3 MS CATTERALL: I wasn't informed
4 specifically about this memo. Certainly when I
5 was back in Ottawa, I believe I spoke to Mr. Pardy
6 on Sunday night at his home. I knew that the 7 visas had not been received yet, but we were going 8 ahead in any case with the meeting on the Monday 9 morning in my office.

10 So I was aware of the problem with 11 the visas. I wasn't aware of the specific memo.

12 MR. DAVID: The meeting that you 13 had on March 11th was held, as you say, in your 14 office. Mr. Pardy was in attendance and 15 Mr. Assadourian was there. I believe that 16 Ms Mazigh was there also?

17 MS CATTERALL: Yes.

18 MR. DAVID: Do you recall who else
19 was there?

20 There was a friend, I believe, of 21 Ms Mazigh's who accompanied her?

22 MS CATTERALL: Yes.

23 MR. DAVID: And do you recall who 24 that friend was?

25 MS CATTERALL: I am not absolutely

1 sure. I think I know who it was, but I am not 2 absolutely sure.

3 MR. DAVID: And the purpose of 4 this briefing, this meeting, was what?

5 MS CATTERALL: Simply to brief us
6 on what to expect in Damascus, kinds of messages, 7 more general briefing about what was going on in 8 the Middle East.

9 I think Monia and her friend
10 stayed with us for about the first hour perhaps.

11 There was at least one other
12 senior Foreign Affairs official there.

13 MR. DAVID: Okay. I bring you now
14 to tab 344. It is a document that we are not sure 15 as to who authored it. It is dated that same 16 date, March 11th, and it's addressed to you as 17 well as a "cc" to Mr. Pardy.

18 I think that you have had 19 opportunity to review this document.

20 Do you recall if this was the 21 possible contribution of the friend that 22 accompanied Ms Mazigh to this meeting?

23 MS CATTERALL: I honestly am not 24 sure. I have wracked my brains since you showed 25 me this document yesterday, and I cannot be sure.

1 As I mentioned to you, it
2 reiterates a number of things Monia had said, but 3 then there are other things that aren't consistent 4 with things she had said to me previously.

5 MS McISAAC: I think Mr. Pardy
6 testified that it was prepared by Foreign Affairs 7 political division.

8 I am looking at page 3657 of the 9 transcript of Mr. Pardy.

10 MR. DAVID: Okay. Thank you for 11 that, Ms McIsaac.

12 THE COMMISSIONER: Thank you.

13 MR. DAVID: We go now to tab 345.

14 MS CATTERALL: 345?

15 MR. DAVID: Yes, and if you could 16 go to page 2 of that document, this is a message 17 coming from Tim Martin and it's going to the 18 ambassador in Damascus, Mr. Pillarella.

19 MS CATTERALL: Mm-hmm.

20 MR. DAVID: Confirming that 21 because the visas were not obtained in time for 22 the planned visit, that basically the trip will be 23 postponed, and suggesting that the trip be 24 postponed to some time between April 14th and 25 April 25th in light of the fact that Parliament

1 would be recessed in that time period.

2 MS CATTERALL: Yes, and in part
3 that was because, as Chief Government Whip, I 4 simply couldn't leave while Parliament was 5 sitting.

6 MR. DAVID: This document, in its 7 second paragraph, identifies the confusion that 8 may have existed in terms of who you were 9 intending to visit in Syria, and it says:

10 "The confusion concerning a 11 possible call on the 12 President and the Foreign 13 Minister of Syria stemmed 14 from discussions between the 15 Syrian Ambassador and MP
16 Assadourian."

17 I bring you to the third 18 paragraph, or the third readable, just below the 19 black part.

20 It says:

21 "Mrs. Catterall planned to 22 invite Ambassador for lunch
23 on Parliament Hill in order
24 to explain in a friendly way 25 the interest of the 1 Parliamentarians in the case

2 and urge a positive response
3 from the Syrian authorities."

4 I understand that you in fact did 5 meet the ambassador in this regard?

6 MS CATTERALL: Yes,
7 Mr. Assadourian and I had lunch with the 8 ambassador, yes.

9 MR. DAVID: We will come to 10 documents that deal with that in detail.

11 The next paragraph says:

12 "Mrs. Catterall noted that 13 the issue of coordination
14 between DFAIT and the 15 Solicitor General is an 16 important one. and indicated
17 that she would consult 18 further with the Solicitor
19 General and seek a letter
20 from him on the Arar case."

21 Could you comment on that, please?

22 MS CATTERALL: It was very clear
23 to me that -- I mean, by that time, we had heard 24 comments from the Americans about RCMP and CSIS 25 being involved in certainly information that was

1 used to decide on the deportation of Maher Arar.

2 I was deeply concerned that the 3 impression was out there, especially after meeting
4 with Mr. Arnous, that we didn't want him back; 5 that very mixed messages were getting sent both to 6 the Americans during his detention in New York, 7 but since then to the Syrians about the Canadian 8 position on Mr. Arar.

9 MR. DAVID: If I could just 10 specify, you meet, I believe, the ambassador on 11 March 21st.

12 MS CATTERALL: Yes.

13 MR. DAVID: This message is dated 14 March 11th and it's raising the issue of you 15 seeking a letter from the SOLGEN.

16 Is that something that you recall?

17 MS CATTERALL: It was very clear
18 to me that different messages were getting sent on 19 Canada's position on Arar's return.

20 I felt that only the Solicitor
21 General could provide a letter saying we have no 22 evidence on which to charge this man and...

23 The only way I can put this is it 24 offends my sense of justice as a Canadian that 25 repeated innuendos can be made about a man that

1 have so dramatically damaged his life and that of 2 his family, and nobody has to put on paper what he 3 is suspected of.

4 My comments at various times had 5 been: Either some charges should be made and he 6 should have the opportunity to defend himself, or 7 somebody should say there are no charges, there is 8 no evidence against this man.

9 And that is what I would have 10 wanted to discuss with Mr. Easter and to have 11 clear from him, either there is evidence and there 12 are charges that can be laid or there isn't. And 13 under our system of justice, that means a man is 14 innocent.

15 MR. DAVID: This, am I to 16 understand, was to respond to the Syrian -- it was 17 to provide further feedback or information to the 18 Syrian government about what this country's 19 position was?

20 MS CATTERALL: It was in the 21 context, certainly, of preparing to go to Syria, 22 but it was just the whole situation of knowing 23 that when we were dealing with people in the 24 States, when we were dealing with people in Syria, 25 there seemed to be two messages. There wasn't a

1 consistent government message.

2 MR. DAVID: And this appreciation
3 that you had, Ms Catterall, was coming from where?
4 What was it based on?

5 MS CATTERALL: Going back to 6 October pretty well, when I was raising
7 questions -- I mean, this just went on for so long 8 and so intensely for me that it's hard to be 9 specific about when did I first learn that, for 10 instance, the RCMP were waiting at Dorval Airport
11 for Mr. Arar's return?

12 I just don't know. I just knew 13 that news kept coming out or suspicions that 14 information had been provided to the Americans 15 about Mr. Arar that led them to deport him; that 16 that deportation was based on information they got 17 from American officials.

18 I know Monia had tried to get a 19 clear statement through lawyer Michael Edelson if 20 there was or was not evidence against her husband.

21 I think it was just a sense I
22 wanted to go to Syria with a very clear message: 23 that the Government of Canada wants him back, and 24 I wanted to be able to say we have no evidence on 25 which to charge this man. There is no evidence

1 against him.

2 MR. DAVID: Thus the idea that is 3 raised in this document that you obtain a letter
4 from Mr. Easter.

5 Was that pursued by you? Did you
6 in fact ask Mr. Easter to write a letter?

7 MS CATTERALL: Did I ask Wayne
8 directly, or did I ask through Ken Morill I
9 honestly do not remember. But I know it was clear 10 there was not going to be a letter from 11 Mr. Easter; that Mr. Graham's letter was going to 12 be the position of the Government of Canada.

13 MR. DAVID: If we could go to the 14 first page of this very same tab, tab 345, we see 15 the third report coming from Mr. Pillarella about 16 the trip.

17 Now he has spoken to Mr. Mouallem
18 and confirms that Mr. Mouallem will be meeting 19 you, and furthermore confirms that he will arrange 20 for a meeting with Maher Arar, and this 21 confirmation is coming again from Ambassador 22 Pillarella on March 12th.

23 If we could, for the record, go to 24 tab 351, this is again a series of e-mails.

25 The first one I would bring you to 1 is on page 2 --

2 MS CATTERALL: I am sorry, was
3 that 351?

4 MR. DAVID: 351. And we have a
5 message coming from Gar Pardy to Monia on March 6 16th, and it's the middle of the page, on the 7 second page?

8 MS CATTERALL: Mm-hmm.

9 MR. DAVID: It is dated March 16th
10 and it says:

11 "Monia, following the 12 cancellation of the trip by 13 Ms Catterall and 14 Mr. Assadourian, we were 15 again in touch with the 16 Syrian authorities. The 17 Syrian authorities have now 18 issued the instructions for 19 visas for both and we are now 20 working with Ms Catterall and 21 Mr. Assadourian on when they 22 will be able to visit Syria.
23 In their response the Syrians 24 stated they would be 25 permitted to meet with Maher

1 and discuss the matter with 2 senior security and foreign 3 ministry officials. We 4 should have the timing for 5 the visit established later
6 this week. In the meantime,
7 the embassy is seeking 8 another visit with Maher
9 hopefully this week. Will 10 call later this week."

11 So we have now the information
12 being passed on to Ms Mazigh.

13 If I could bring you to the first 14 page of this tab, it is the second message. It 15 starts on Wednesday.

16 It is at the top, on Wednesday,
17 March 19th.

18 MS CATTERALL: Mm-hmm.

19 MR. DAVID: Again it's going to 20 Monia and says:

21 "Monia, yes, as I mentioned 22 to you earlier this week, the 23 visit is still on but the 24 timing needs to be worked out 25 with Ms Catterall. I would

1 hope that by the weekend we 2 would have sense of when this 3 will happen."

4 Again, this is just for the record
5 I was putting that in.

6 Tab 374, Ms Catterall, is an entry
7 for March 19th. And on the first page it is 8 Mr. Fry, who is seeking an update from Gar about 9 the trip, and Gar is responding:

10 "Robert, no new developments.
11 We are waiting for word from 12 Damascus for another visit to 13 Maher. Also Marlene and 14 Sarkis were to meet with the 15 Syrian Ambassador for lunch
16 today..."

17 "Today" referring to March 19th.
18 "... but so far no report. I 19 will be on my cell for the 20 next two days.

21 Take care, Gar."

22 Again, the idea is being raised
23 here of you meeting Ambassador Arnous.

24 We can now go to Exhibit P-99 25 concerning that luncheon meeting with the

1 ambassador.

2 And I would like to bring you
3 through this document carefully.

4 What this document is,
5 Ms Catterall, it's a report that is being drafted 6 by Myra Pastyr-Lupul, who is within DFAIT, and she 7 is reporting on a phone conversation that she had 8 with you on March 21st.

9 In this phone conversation, you
10 provided her with a briefing, basically, about 11 your meeting with the ambassador on that same day, 12 Wednesday, March 21st.

13 Do you recall that meeting?

14 MS CATTERALL: Yes, I certainly 15 recall the lunch.

16 MR. DAVID: Who was present at 17 this meeting?

18 MS CATTERALL: Myself and 19 Mr. Arnous and Sarkis Assadourian.

20 MR. DAVID: So you were three?

21 MS CATTERALL: Yes.

22 MR. DAVID: And how long did the 23 meeting last?

24 MS CATTERALL: We had lunch
25 together, so probably an hour?

1 MR. DAVID: Okay. The message
2 from Ms Pastyr-Lupul begins with the following 3 reference:

4 "Marlene Catterall and Sarkis
5 Assadourian met with the 6 Syrian Ambassador last 7 Wednesday, March 21st. They 8 discussed the case of Maher
9 Arar and made a personal and 10 humanitarian pitch for the 11 release of Arar and asked 12 what the Syrians need for 13 this to happen."

14 Is that an accurate depiction?

15 MS CATTERALL: Yes.

16 MR. DAVID: It goes on and it
17 says:

18 "They learned that..."

19 And that would be you and 20 Mr. Sarkis.

21 "...initially during this 22 case that CSIS officials told 23 the Syrians that they 'have 24 no interest in Arar.' The 25 Syrians took this to mean

1 that the CSIS have no
2 interest in having Arar
3 back."

4 And then the next sentence says:
5 "They may have meant that 6 they have no security reasons
7 to investigate Arar in
8 Canada."

9 Now, that last sentence I just 10 read, "They may have meant that they have no 11 security reasons to investigate Arar in Canada", 12 is that a comment coming from Mr. Arnous or is 13 that a comment coming from Myra Pastyr-Lupul?

14 MS CATTERALL: No. That came 15 during our conversation with Mr. Arnous, and it 16 was Sarkis particularly that said, "I think you 17 misunderstood what they said. They might have 18 said this is not a person of interest to us", 19 which usually means we have no -- you know, we are 20 not investigating this person.

21 Clearly the Syrian government had 22 taken whatever they said to mean that we have no 23 interest in having him returned to Canada.

24 MR. DAVID: So there are two 25 notions here, and I want to make the record very 1 clear in this regard.

2 On one hand, what Ambassador
3 Arnous is informing you is that the way they have 4 interpreted what CSIS has told them is that it 5 basically means that CSIS is quite content with 6 Arar staying in Syria?

7 MS CATTERALL: Yes, that the 8 impression they got was that they there was no 9 interest in having Arar back in Canada.

10 MR. DAVID: In Canada?

11 MS CATTERALL: Yes.

12 MR. DAVID: Okay. And this is 13 being communicated to you by the ambassador.

14 MS CATTERALL: Yes.

15 MR. DAVID: Now, the idea that 16 they may have meant -- so in other words, the 17 speculation as to what CSIS really meant by its 18 message to the Syrians, this speculation is coming 19 from Mr. Sarkis Assadourian?

20 MS CATTERALL: Yes.

21 MR. DAVID: Okay.

22 MS CATTERALL: Sarkis responded to
23 that.

24 MR. DAVID: The message goes on to 25 say:

1 "Due to the miscommunication,
2 the Syrians believed that
3 CSIS did not want Arar back
4 in Canada and therefore 5 decided to detain him/keep 6 him in Syria."

7 Was this something that was 8 conveyed to you by the ambassador?

9 MS CATTERALL: Yes.

10 MR. DAVID: The next paragraph are 11 suggestions that are being provided by Myra
12 Pastyr-Lupul, and it says:

13 "What we need to do now is 14 send a clear message in 15 writing to the Syrians from 16 CSIS that outlines clearly
17 that we have no information
18 which has led us to believe 19 that Mr. Arar poses a
20 security threat to Canada.
21 Furthermore, the Syrians need
22 to hear from the security
23 people and DFAIT in writing 24 that if we do not have any 25 information that shows any

1 involvement in terrorist
2 activity that we will charge
3 him in Canada and deal with 4 his case through the usual
5 law enforcement channels."

6 Those suggestions that are being 7 made in this document by Ms Pastyr-Lupul, were 8 they discussed with you on the phone, or is this 9 simply her own report?

10 MS CATTERALL: This is her report.
11 I had not seen this memo before you showed it to 12 me. But frequently, if Mr. Pardy wasn't 13 available, I would talk to Myra, knowing that the 14 information would get to him and that anything she 15 told me I could rely on as coming from him.

16 MR. DAVID: My question, though,
17 is did Myra and you discuss what she is suggesting 18 in this document: that, for instance, CSIS and 19 DFAIT send messages to Syria?

20 Is that something that you
21 discussed with Myra Pastyr-Lupul, or is this 22 simply Myra noting this idea in her report?

23 MS CATTERALL: I would have said,
24 because I had been saying it for some time, that 25 we need a clear message from the Government of 1 Canada, all elements of the Government of Canada, 2 that Canada wants this man back.

3 MR. DAVID: Did you --

4 MS CATTERALL: I would maybe
5 not -- I would likely not have been specific about 6 who that should come from.

7 MR. DAVID: So the reference that 8 CSIS should be doing that would be not from you, 9 would be from Myra?

10 MS CATTERALL: I would think so,
11 yes.

12 MR. DAVID: The next paragraph 13 says -- and these are suggestions that are coming 14 from you:

15 "Ms Catterall suggested that 16 Gar Pardy meet with 17 Ambassador Cellucci or 18 Mr. Kelly this week to 19 request their influence in 20 ensuring that Mr. Arar be 21 released and returned to
22 Canada."

23 Do you recall suggesting that to 24 Myra?

25 MS CATTERALL: I do not recall who

1 Mr. Kelly is.

2 MR. DAVID: That's two of us.

3 --- Laughter / Rires

4 MR. DAVID: No. Mr. Kelly
5 actually is the Deputy Ambassador of the U.S.
6 Embassy in Ottawa.

7 MS CATTERALL: I knew he was a
8 senior person at the embassy. That was all I 9 could recall.

10 MR. DAVID: Okay. So do you
11 recall making that suggestion to Myra in your --

12 MS CATTERALL: I don't recall
13 specifically. If she says so in her notes, I am 14 sure I did.

15 MR. DAVID: Okay. And the last
16 paragraph says:

17 "Ms Catterall and 18 Mr. Assadourian are planning
19 to visit Syria as soon as 20 things calm down in the 21 Middle East and would ask 22 that we work on these 23 requests as a parallel plan."

24 Do you recall making such a 25 request?

1 MS CATTERALL: I can't be 2 absolutely sure that I would have said that in 3 that particular conversation.

4 MR. DAVID: Did Mr. Arnous at this 5 meeting that you had with him on March 21st say 6 anything else about CSIS to you in regard to 7 Mr. Arar?

8 MS CATTERALL: Not that I recall.

9 MR. DAVID: So essentially the 10 message that was conveyed is reflected in this 11 document?

12 MS CATTERALL: Yes.

13 MR. DAVID: And upon hearing such 14 a message coming from the Ambassador of Syria, 15 what was your reaction to these comments, to this 16 information, your personal assessment of the 17 situation?

18 MS CATTERALL: It was simply 19 another confirmation, in fact, that there were 20 mixed messages being given from the Government of 21 Canada; that whatever Foreign Affairs was 22 attempting to do in securing Mr. Arar's release 23 was being undermined or counteracted by what was 24 being said and done by others.

25 MR. DAVID: Did you indicate

1 anything to Ambassador Arnous that this was a very 2 serious misinterpretation that the Syrians were 3 making?

4 MS CATTERALL: Yes, we both did.

5 MR. DAVID: You both did?

6 MS CATTERALL: I do recall it was 7 Mr. Assadourian who first sort of said -- jumped 8 on this and said that, you know, he thought this 9 was a misinterpretation of what had been said. I 10 would certainly have added that Foreign Affairs, 11 in my experience, was doing -- it speak did for 12 the Government of Canada and was doing everything 13 possible to have Mr. Arar returned.

14 MR. DAVID: So the message to the 15 ambassador was that we were speaking with one 16 voice, and that there was one message, and that is 17 that we want Mr. Arar in Canada?

18 MS CATTERALL: Yes.

19 MR. DAVID: That was conveyed to 20 Mr. Arnous.

21 MS CATTERALL: Yes.

22 MR. DAVID: Now we will see, and 23 we will see this in detail, you in fact go to 24 Syria. You are in Syria, and you are meeting with 25 various officials on April 22nd.

1 Did you do anything during your 2 time in Syria to clarify this serious
3 misinterpretation on the part of the Syrians in 4 regard of their understanding of what CSIS wished 5 or did not wish?

6 MS CATTERALL: I would not have 7 referred to this specific conversation.

8 --- Pause

9 MS CATTERALL: Again, this is one
10 of those times I wish I had kept detailed notes.

11 I did say verbally words to the 12 effect that there were no charges against Mr. Arar 13 in Canada; that if there were evidence of 14 wrongdoing, he would be charged in Canada.

15 That was, you know, part of a much 16 larger conversation.

17 MR. DAVID: And did you follow up 18 with this information that you learned from the 19 ambassador with either Mr. Easter or with 20 Mr. Graham?

21 MS CATTERALL: I would have made
22 both of them aware of it.

23 MR. DAVID: And did you seek a 24 letter from CSIS to clarify the issue, the matter?

25 MS CATTERALL: I would not ever

1 have gone directly to CSIS, no.

2 MR. DAVID: That's not what I
3 mean.

4 MS CATTERALL: Through the 5 Minister.

6 MR. DAVID: Would you have 7 suggested, did you suggest to either Minister that 8 CSIS should be sending a letter directly to the 9 Syrians in this regard, to clarify this 10 misinterpretation?

11 MS CATTERALL: I don't recall
12 specifically. I do recall raising the issue and 13 basically being told that the Minister couldn't do 14 that; that any communications with the Syrian 15 government were going to be from the Minister of 16 Foreign Affairs.

17 MR. DAVID: And do you recall,
18 Ms Catterall, whether you shared this information
19 with Monia Mazigh?

20 MS CATTERALL: I don't remember.

21 MR. DAVID: Okay.

22 Mr. Commissioner, maybe now would 23 be an appropriate time for the afternoon break.

24 THE COMMISSIONER: All right. We 25 will rise for 15 minutes.

1 MR. DAVID: Thank you.

2 THE REGISTRAR: Please stand.

3 --- Upon recessing at 3:38 p.m. /

4 Suspension à 15 h 38

5 --- Upon resuming at 3:59 p.m. /

6 Reprise à 15 h 59

7 THE REGISTRAR: Please be seated.

8 Veuillez vous asseoir.

9 THE COMMISSIONER: My apologies
10 for the delay. I got on the phone. My 11 responsibilities from my other life occasionally 12 intrude.

13 Please proceed.

14 MR. DAVID: Ms Catterall, a
15 further entry on March 24th in Mr. Pardy's notes 16 refers to a conversation you had with him.

17 I would like to bring you to page 18 19 of his notes, and there's a reference to Arar:

19 "Marlene Catterall

20 - Mtg with Syrian Amb.

21 - CSIS

22 - Clear msg to Syrians no
23 threat/risk..."

24 Do you recall discussing the 25 contents of your meeting with Mr. Arnous with

1 Mr. Pardy?

2 MS CATTERALL: I don't recall
3 clearly discussing it with Mr. Pardy. As I say, I 4 had so many conversations with him over the 5 months. But clearly it reflected what Myra had 6 put in a note to him.

7 MR. DAVID: Moving on now to the 8 same page, April 1st however, at the bottom, 9 there's a reference to a phone conversation
10 between yourself and Mr. Pardy and it says:

11 "- Ken Morill/Easter's
12 Office.

13 - No paper from Easter."

14 Really, I think that is the only 15 entry I want to bring you to.

16 Do you recall speaking to 17 Mr. Pardy about discussions that you may have had 18 with Ken Morill from Mr. Easter's office?

19 MS CATTERALL: I don't recall
20 specifically that conversation.

21 MR. DAVID: Was the issue of the 22 letter being discussed at this time from 23 Mr. Easter?

24 MS CATTERALL: I mean, it's pretty 25 evident from Mr. Pardy's notes that that is the 1 case. As I said, you know, I had hundreds of 2 conversations over this file.

3 MR. DAVID: If you can go to an 4 entry on page 21 for April 10, it's at the top.

5 It says:

6 "- Spoke to Bill Graham.
7 Possibility of a letter.
8 - Spoke to Wayne Easter.
9 Supports Mr. Graham's
10 position.
11 - Rob Fry. Mr. Graham has 12 agreed to a letter.
13 - Tim Martin.
14 - Money.
15 - Monia."

16 Does that jog your memory in any 17 way?

18 MS CATTERALL: I believe at this
19 time I knew we were getting close to the possible 20 time for a visit. I knew that a letter was being 21 prepared for Mr. Graham's signature for us to take 22 to Syria with us. And I knew that there were 23 discussions back and forth between Mr. Easter's 24 office and Mr. Graham's office about the contents 25 of that letter.

1 MR. DAVID: So the reference to 2 "Spoke to Wayne Easter, supports Mr. Graham's 3 position" would be in reference to Mr. Graham's 4 letter?

5 MS CATTERALL: Yes.

6 MR. DAVID: Okay. If we could go
7 now to tab 376, this is an entry for April 12th.
8 There are two memos on the first page, and if we 9 start with the top one, that's a memo coming from 10 Gar Pardy on April 12th, going to Monia.

11 Mr. Pardy is reporting to Monia
12 the difficulties in getting the visas that you 13 require for your travels.

14 He goes on to say in the third
15 paragraph, and this is where I want to bring you 16 to:

17 "I do not agree with your 18 analysis of the relationship 19 between Syria and Canada, or 20 Syria and any other country
21 for that matter."

22 And what Ms Mazigh was saying was 23 that basically Canada is a big country and Syria 24 is a small country and our weight should have more 25 impact on what is happening to Mr. Arar.

1 And Mr. Pardy says:

2 "A major part of the problem
3 here is that not everyone in 4 the government of Canada
5 agrees with what we are doing
6 in support of Maher. The 7 Syrians are well aware of 8 that and that undoubtedly 9 influences their willingness 10 to be more cooperative. As 11 well, the Syrian authorities 12 have made certain claims with 13 respect to Maher and it does 14 not matter whether or not we 15 believe them, the Syrians are 16 acting as if they were true."

17 So this seems to be, again,
18 pointing out to the theme that you have already 19 evoked, and that's the mixed messaging that the 20 Syrians may be getting from various government 21 agencies?

22 MS CATTERALL: Yes.

23 MR. DAVID: Were you getting this 24 message also from Mr. Pardy?

25 MS CATTERALL: Yes.

1 MR. DAVID: That it was a major
2 problem?

3 MS CATTERALL: Yes.

4 MR. DAVID: And were you getting 5 this message from anybody else than Mr. Pardy?

6 MS CATTERALL: I think certainly I 7 was reading and hearing comments from various 8 American officials that -- I think the famous 9 quote from Cellucci was "ask your own people."

10 MR. DAVID: Okay. We now have to 11 go to PCO documents, tab 16, and that would be 12 Volume 1, P-48.

13 MS CATTERALL: Which tab, sorry?

14 MR. DAVID: It is tab 16.

15 It is a diplomatic report that is 16 going to PCO. It is dated April 16th. It is from 17 Tim Martin and it is going to Ambassador 18 Pillarella.

19 First of all, he confirms that the 20 visas have been approved for your travel to Syria, 21 and secondly, on the second page it says that your 22 access to Mr. Arar has been confirmed by the 23 intelligence authorities in Syria. And was what 24 explained the delay in the issuance of the visas.

25 MS CATTERALL: What was the date

1 of this?

2 MR. DAVID: This is April 16th.

3 MS CATTERALL: April 16th. And 4 the question was...?

5 MR. DAVID: Were you aware of this 6 approval?

7 MS CATTERALL: No. In fact,
8 before leaving for Syria, I was not aware that we 9 would be able to see Mr. Arar. In fact, when I 10 arrived in Damascus, and in my briefing that first 11 morning with the ambassador, I wasn't told that we 12 would be able to see Mr. Arar. As far as I knew, 13 that decision was made in our meeting with the 14 Deputy Foreign Minister.

15 MR. DAVID: We go now to 16 Mr. Pardy's notes once again, at tab 1, and if you 17 could go to pages 21 and 22.

18 There is a reference at the bottom 19 for Thursday, April 17th:

20 "Marlene Catterall"

21 And the next page says:

22 "Damascus. Trying to arrange

23 - Letter

24 - Manley"

25 Do you know what this refers to?

1 MS CATTERALL: We would have
2 discussed the letter from Mr. Graham in terms 3 of --

4 MR. DAVID: When you say "we", is
5 that --

6 MS CATTERALL: Myself and
7 Mr. Pardy.

8 MR. DAVID: Okay.

9 MS CATTERALL: We would have
10 discussed the letter that was still up in the air 11 in terms of the contents; the letter from 12 Mr. Graham that we were hoping to deliver when we 13 went to Damascus.

14 MR. DAVID: And the reference to 15 Manley, do you know what that refers to?

16 MS CATTERALL: I am not sure.

17 MR. DAVID: Okay. Tab 388, the 18 top message.

19 The top message is from Gar, and 20 it says -- I am not sure who it's going to, but it 21 must be Robert Fry because the second paragraph
22 says:

23 "Robert, Ms Catterall was 24 hopeful of obtaining a letter
25 from Mr. Easter. Have you

1 heard if she was successful?
2 Gar."

3 Do you recall this still being an 4 issue at this time?

5 MS CATTERALL: I don't recall that
6 still being an issue at that point, no.

7 MR. DAVID: And do you recall any 8 interest on the part of Mr. Graham's office, or 9 Mr. Fry, in discussions that you would have had 10 directly with his office in this regard?

11 MS CATTERALL: I was aware that 12 the letter that had originally been drafted for 13 Minister Graham was being revised based on input 14 from the security perspective.

15 MR. DAVID: Now at this tab, tab
16 388, we have in the bottom portion of the message 17 a copy of the first draft that we have of 18 Mr. Graham's letter that you would be bringing to 19 Syria.

20 Let me just point out that there 21 is a difference between this language in this tab 22 and the language that you will find in the final 23 version, which is at tab 385. There seems to be 24 two significant changes between those two 25 versions.

1 So let's deal with the first 2 version first.

3 MS CATTERALL: The first draft?

4 MR. DAVID: Yes, the first draft,
5 tab 388.

6 The first paragraph refers in the 7 last sentence. It says:

8 "I asked Ms Catterall and 9 Mr. Assadourian to visit your 10 country at this time in order 11 to bring to the attention of 12 your government our hopes
13 that Mr. Arar would be
14 permitted to return to Canada
15 at the earliest possible
16 time."

17 So there is a fairly encompassing
18 language here, and there is certainly language
19 that indicates direct involvement from Mr. Graham 20 and in fact reflects the position of the 21 Government of Canada in terms of our hopes.

22 If you go to the final version of 23 this letter -- and I am now at tab 385 -- that 24 same reference is phrased very differently and 25 says:

1 "Ms Catterall and
2 Mr. Assadourian are visiting 3 Syria at this time in order
4 to reaffirm their hope..."

5 It's no longer our hope; it's 6 their hope.

7 "... that Mr. Arar would be
8 permitted to return to Canada
9 at the earliest possible
10 time. I fully share their 11 desire."

12 Do you have any comments about the 13 evolution of this language?

14 MS CATTERALL: I don't know how it
15 evolved but it's a significant change. I felt 16 that Sarkis and I were going with the blessing of 17 the Minister, as his representatives, to deliver 18 this letter personally, this letter to the Foreign 19 Minister, and this change clearly suggests that we 20 are going on our own initiative as individual 21 Members of Parliament.

22 The other significance of the 23 change from the previous draft is that the 24 previous draft said "we wanted to bring to the 25 attention of your government our hope", i.e. the

1 government's hope, that Mr. Arar would be 2 permitted to return to Canada. That is, in my 3 mind, significantly different than saying that the 4 two MPs are visiting Syria in order to reaffirm 5 their hope that Mr. Arar would be permitted to 6 return to Canada at the earliest possible time.

7 MR. DAVID: And was this change of 8 language discussed with you?

9 MS CATTERALL: Not specifically,
10 no.

11 MR. DAVID: By anybody within 12 Mr. Graham's office?

13 MS CATTERALL: No, not
14 specifically.

15 MR. DAVID: And did anybody, any 16 Canadian official, provide you with any 17 explanation for this change of language?

18 MS CATTERALL: No. As I say, I
19 wasn't aware of the original draft language.

20 MR. DAVID: Right.

21 MS CATTERALL: I was aware of the 22 second major change in this letter from the draft, 23 having to do with the security concerns and how we 24 would express that part of our interest in 25 Mr. Arar.

1 MR. DAVID: So let us come to 2 that, Ms Catterall.

3 I bring you to the second 4 paragraph of the first draft, which is at 388, and 5 it says -- and it's the last sentence of the 6 paragraph:

7 "Canadian officials have 8 determined that Mr. Arar has 9 not contravened any Canadian 10 laws and since arriving in 11 Canada with his family many 12 years ago has been a good
13 citizen of this country."

14 That's the first draft.

15 And then the final version is at 16 385 and it says:

17 "Let me again assure you that 18 there is no Canadian 19 Government impediment to 20 Mr. Arar's return to Canada."

21 So you were apprised of this 22 language evolving?

23 MS CATTERALL: Yes.

24 MR. DAVID: And could you just 25 give us your appreciation of what was involved in

1 those two different versions, and what occurred to 2 bring on the second, the final draft?

3 MS CATTERALL: I think this change
4 from the draft to the final letter that was sent 5 is at the very nub of the problem that faced
6 Foreign Affairs in trying to secure Mr. Arar's 7 release, because the first draft is a very clear 8 statement -- I frankly would have liked to see it 9 even stronger -- is a very clear statement that 10 Mr. Arar has not contravened any Canadian laws, 11 which he hasn't. That's a matter of fact. And I 12 don't know why a matter of fact would be removed 13 from a letter going to a foreign government.

14 That is substantially stronger
15 than saying "let me assure you that there's no 16 Canadian government impediment to his return".

17 This language also came out, 18 "since arriving in Canada with his family many 19 years ago has been a good citizen of this 20 country".

21 As far as anybody knows, that's 22 the truth. Why would a simple statement of fact 23 be removed?

24 It is that kind of fudging on 25 Mr. Arar's status, based on no evidence, no

1 charges, no opportunity to defend himself against 2 anybody's suspicions that I find so offensive.

3 I know my personal opinion doesn't 4 count for much. You want information from me.
5 But this kind of thing just should not happen in a
6 democracy.

7 MR. DAVID: And who is it that 8 informed you of the back and forth, if I can say, 9 that was going on on the language?

10 MS CATTERALL: I would have been 11 aware of it from probably both Robert Fry and Gar
12 Pardy.

13 MR. DAVID: We go now to tab 389
14 for an entry on April 18th, Ms Catterall. If you 15 could go to page 3 of this tab, Mr. Pardy is 16 simply reporting that he has now briefed you for 17 your trip and it says -- it is the middle message, 18 dated April 18th.

19 It's going from Gar to Franco
20 Pillarella, and I just want to bring you to the 21 third paragraph of that message.

22 It says:

23 "I spoke to Ms Catterall last 24 evening in Cairo and 25 everything is in place for

1 her arrival on Monday
2 evening."

3 That would be in Syria.

4 "I briefed her on all recent 5 developments both specific to 6 the case and more generally
7 in the region. As discussed 8 you will want to meet with 9 her at the earliest possible
10 time in order to provide her 11 with details on any 12 developments on Monday. Take 13 good care. Gar."

14 Do you recall this briefing, this 15 conversation that you had with Gar at this time?
16 And could you tell us what was discussed, if you 17 can recall.

18 --- Pause

19 MS CATTERALL: I don't recall the 20 details of that conversation, no.

21 MR. DAVID: Okay. In fact you
22 arrive in Syria, and you are in Syria on April 23 22nd of 2003, and I would bring you to tab 395 in 24 regard to your presence in Syria.

25 I have broken it down in basically

1 four different meetings for your time in Syria.

2 The first meeting -- and we will 3 go through each meeting in detail. The first 4 meeting is your meeting with Deputy Foreign 5 Minister Mouallem, and the second meeting is with 6 the security officials at the prison where 7 Mr. Arar was brought to you, and the third meeting 8 would be the meeting that you had with Mr. Arar at 9 this facility, and then the final meeting I want 10 to discuss with you is your debriefing with 11 Ambassador Pillarella after having met Mr. Arar.

12 Before we analyze those meetings, 13 there was first and foremost a debriefing by 14 Mr. Pillarella?

15 MS CATTERALL: Yes.

16 MR. DAVID: I would like you now 17 to describe that to us, what Mr. Pillarella and 18 you discussed.

19 MS CATTERALL: The briefing before
20 we met with Minister Mouallem?

21 MR. DAVID: That's correct.

22 First of all, where did the 23 briefing take place?

24 MS CATTERALL: At the Canadian 25 embassy in Damascus in a secure room.

1 MR. DAVID: And who was present?

2 MS CATTERALL: The ambassador,
3 myself, and Sarkis Assadourian. I am not sure if 4 there was a fourth person.

5 I think likely. I think so, but I
6 am not absolutely sure.

7 MR. DAVID: Okay. And do you
8 recall the approximate duration of that meeting?

9 MS CATTERALL: It would have been 10 a good hour.

11 MR. DAVID: And can you now tell
12 us about what was discussed, what was said?

13 MS CATTERALL: Primarily the 14 ambassador was briefing us on the consular visits 15 that had been held with Mr. Arar, the fact that 16 there had not been any consular visits at that 17 point for several months, but also conversations 18 he had had with security officials in Damascus and 19 their concerns about Mr. Arar's involvement in 20 terrorist activities.

21 MR. DAVID: So discussions with 22 security officials of Syria?

23 MS CATTERALL: Yes. Yes.

24 MR. DAVID: And did Mr. Pillarella
25 provide you with details of what he had been told

1 by these Syrian intelligence officials about
2 Mr. Arar?

3 MS McISAAC: I don't want to 4 interrupt, but if Ms Catterall was provided any 5 details in confidence, then perhaps we need to be 6 careful.

7 I don't know what she was told, so
8 I am at a bit of a loss.

9 THE COMMISSIONER: Did
10 Ms Catterall have top secret clearance?

11 MS CATTERALL: No.

12 THE COMMISSIONER: So she would 13 not have been told anything.

14 MS McISAAC: I am not sure what 15 she was told, so I simply don't know.

16 THE COMMISSIONER: Well, I don't 17 know either.

18 MR. DAVID: I do. I think I do.

19 MS McISAAC: Then we will rely on
20 Mr. David.

21 THE COMMISSIONER: Do we start out 22 with the notion that if it was told to 23 Ms Catterall, who isn't sort of classified to 24 receive top secret information, that there
25 wouldn't be a problem. Is that not a good

1 starting point?

2 She is a Member of Parliament.
3 Did you receive this information as a result of 4 any undertaking you gave not to disclose it?

5 MS CATTERALL: No. I was aware 6 that we were being briefed in a room that could 7 not be bugged, though.

8 THE COMMISSIONER: Right.

9 MS CATTERALL: No, I wasn't asked 10 for any undertaking not to disclose.

11 MS McISAAC: I just wanted to 12 check, sir, because I have no idea what was 13 discussed.

14 THE COMMISSIONER: Right.

15 MR. DAVID: If it's appropriate,
16 maybe I could take a one-minute recess and have a 17 discussion with Ms McIsaac.

18 THE COMMISSIONER: Do you just 19 want to do it while I stay here?

20 MR. DAVID: Sure. Maybe that 21 would be a good idea.

22 --- Pause

23 MR. DAVID: It's my belief,
24 Mr. Commissioner, that the information that 25 Mrs. Catterall can relate to us is essentially all

1 on the public record in one form or another as it 2 stands.

3 THE COMMISSIONER: Go ahead.

4 MR. DAVID: And that there will be 5 no new earth-shattering revelations by this 6 information.

7 Could you provide us with what you
8 learned from Mr. Pillarella with regard to 9 information that he had obtained from Syrian 10 officials about Mr. Arar's involvement in various 11 organizations?

12 MS CATTERALL: That they had 13 serious concerns that he had been involved with 14 al-Qaeda, had perhaps attended training in 15 Afghanistan.

16 MR. DAVID: Was it specified when 17 he would have been trained in Afghanistan to you?

18 MS CATTERALL: I don't believe so.

19 MR. DAVID: It was simply a 20 reference to --

21 MS CATTERALL: I did learn that at 22 some point in time, but ...

23 MR. DAVID: But not from 24 Mr. Pillarella?

25 MS CATTERALL: I can't be sure.

1 MR. DAVID: Okay. So, so far you
2 are hearing involvement with al-Qaeda?

3 MS CATTERALL: Yes.

4 MR. DAVID: You are hearing
5 training in Afghanistan? What else do you learn?

6 Is there any reference to being a
7 member of the Muslim Brotherhood?

8 MS CATTERALL: Yes, but I had 9 heard that before; that there might be more 10 concern -- that the initial concerns were that he 11 had skipped his military training and, two, that 12 the Syrians would probably be more concerned, 13 however, about any involvement he had had with the 14 Muslim Brotherhood.

15 But that was speculation that 16 those might be concerns of the Syrian government, 17 and reasons that he might in fact be detained and 18 face charges in Syria.

19 But I had that information
20 earlier.

21 I had not previously had 22 information directly that the Syrians were 23 concerned about an involvement with al-Qaeda and 24 training in Afghanistan. That was brand new 25 information.

1 MR. DAVID: You had never heard
2 any reference of Mr. Arar having gone to 3 Afghanistan?

4 MS CATTERALL: No. Not in any 5 briefings I had had in Canada.

6 MR. DAVID: And as a result of 7 this information that you are getting from 8 Mr. Pillarella, are you now sensing that there is 9 a good chance that Mr. Arar will be charged, will 10 face charges, in Syria?

11 I guess basically how do you react
12 to this information?

13 MS CATTERALL: I remember saying 14 that this was not information that we had had in 15 Canada; that this was new information to me. And 16 I was quite surprised, in fact, that I had not 17 been given this kind of information before we left
18 Canada.

19 MR. DAVID: Did you have any 20 personal assessment about now his facing charges
21 in Syria?

22 MS CATTERALL: It was clear to me
23 that the situation -- I didn't jump to the 24 conclusion that that means he is going to be 25 facing charges, but it was quite clear to me that

1 the situation was even much more serious.

2 MR. DAVID: If we could now go to 3 tab 395, we will review what is being reported by 4 the embassy in Syria, by the Canadian Embassy, 5 about this meeting.

6 If you go to the last page it's 7 drafted by someone by the name of Ian Shaw, 8 consulted was Leo Martel and approved is the 9 ambassador in terms of its contents.

10 THE WITNESS: Mm-hmm.

11 MR. DAVID: I would like to review
12 the contents of this document with you.

13 MS McISAAC: I don't want to tell 14 my friend how to do his job, but wouldn't it be 15 better to ask Ms Catterall to tell us about the 16 meeting with the Syrian authorities in her own 17 words?

18 MR. DAVID: I think you are 19 telling me how to do my job.

20 THE COMMISSIONER: I think 21 Mr. David can approach the line of questioning as 22 he sees fit.

23 MS McISAAC: All right.

24 MR. DAVID: So in terms of the 25 first meeting, Ms Catterall, that is a meeting

1 with the Deputy Foreign Minister --

2 THE COMMISSIONER: Unless, of 3 course, just to finish that point, you have some 4 reason to believe this is an inaccurate memorandum 5 prepared by the ministry staff.

6 MS McISAAC: No, sir, I just 7 thought it would be useful to have Ms Catterall 8 tell us about the meeting.

9 MR. DAVID: Well, my approach will 10 be to ask Ms Catterall to certainly comment and to 11 add anything that you wish on the contents of this 12 document.

13 The first paragraph refers to your 14 meeting with Deputy Foreign Minister Walid 15 Mouallem on April 22nd, and if you could go to the 16 second page --

17 MS CATTERALL: May I stay on the 18 first sentence of that memo?

19 MR. DAVID: Sure.

20 MS CATTERALL: This, I think, is 21 one of the problems, and I think this is one of 22 the things that was of great concern to me during 23 my briefing with the ambassador.

24 The second line at the end says
25 the visit:

1 "... regarding the case of 2 Maher Arar, a terrorist
3 suspect..."

4 Now, I don't know on what grounds
5 a Canadian official defines Mr. Arar as a 6 terrorist suspect.

7 MR. DAVID: Okay. I bring you to 8 paragraph 3 with regard to this meeting with the 9 Deputy Foreign Minister.

10 About halfway down there's a 11 sentence that starts with:

12 "She thanked Mr. Mouallem..."

13 MS CATTERALL: Mm-hmm.

14 MR. DAVID: I will just read that 15 to you.

16 "She thanked Mr. Mouallem for 17 the opportunity to discuss 18 the Arar case, and handed 19 over a letter from Foreign 20 Minister Graham to Foreign 21 Minister al-Sharaa, in which 22 the former reiterated
23 Canada's hope that Mr. Arar
24 would be permitted to return
25 to Canada. She explained

1 that Mr. Arar was not wanted
2 in Canada for any criminal 3 activity and that Mr. Arar's
4 wife and two young children
5 were experiencing a very 6 difficult time since his 7 deportation to Syria.
8 Mr. Arar was the breadwinner
9 of the family, and since his 10 arrest, the family has no
11 source of income."

12 Does this reflect, as you recall, 13 your discussions, your conversation, with the 14 Deputy Foreign Minister?

15 MS CATTERALL: Yes, I certainly 16 said all those things. I would also have 17 commented on the fact that we were grateful that 18 Syria -- I would have recognized their position 19 that Mr. Arar is a Syrian citizen, again just 20 having been advised to take this approach, and 21 that we appreciated the consular access that we 22 had been granted to Mr. Arar.

23 MR. DAVID: Had anybody suggested 24 that there were certain topics you should not be 25 discussing? Were there limits, in other words,

1 placed on you in terms of what you should be 2 saying or not saying?

3 MS CATTERALL: No, except the 4 general limit that I had been living with for many 5 months. We don't want to offend the Syrians; that 6 can only make Mr. Arar's situation worse.

7 MR. DAVID: And this meeting took 8 place where? Do you recall where?

9 MS CATTERALL: In Mr. Mouallem's
10 office.

11 MR. DAVID: This was a different 12 location than where you eventually went to when 13 you met Mr. Arar?

14 MS CATTERALL: Yes.

15 MR. DAVID: And did the 16 conversation take place in English?

17 MS CATTERALL: Yes, in English.

18 MR. DAVID: In English. The 19 reference, Ms Catterall, to the fact that you 20 would have explained that Mr. Arar was not wanted 21 in Canada for any criminal activity, is that the 22 extent of what you would have said to
23 Mr. Mouallem?

24 MS CATTERALL: I can't be sure.
25 It was at least a half-hour conversation, from my

1 recollection.

2 MR. DAVID: And do you recall why
3 you made a point of saying that, of underlining
4 that?

5 MS CATTERALL: Probably recalling
6 my conversation with the ambassador in March. I 7 wanted to ensure --

8 MR. DAVID: With the Syrian
9 ambassador, Mr. Arnous.

10 MS CATTERALL: Yes, with 11 Mr. Arnous.

12 I wanted to be -- I believe I also 13 said at the same time that, were there any 14 evidence, that charges would be laid, but that 15 there were no charges against Mr. Arar.

16 MR. DAVID: Okay. And at the end
17 of this meeting, what did Mr. Mouallem do? Do you 18 recall?

19 MS CATTERALL: Yes. He said, "Do 20 you want to see Mr. Arar?" And I said, "Yes, of 21 course." He picked up the phone, spoke in Arabic, 22 and put down the phone seconds later to say you 23 can go and see him now.

24 That came as a great surprise to 25 me because nobody had told either myself or

1 Mr. Assadourian that we would be able to see him.

2 MR. DAVID: So how did you get to 3 where Mr. Arar was going to be met?

4 MS CATTERALL: We were driven 5 there. We drove in the ambassador's car and we 6 were escorted.

7 MR. DAVID: And do you recall how 8 long that drive took?

9 MS CATTERALL: Perhaps 15 minutes.
10 I wasn't watching my watch.

11 MR. DAVID: Just before we leave 12 the meeting that you had with Mr. Mouallem, the 13 letter that you handed over to him from 14 Mr. Graham, did Mr. Mouallem actually read it in 15 front of you?

16 MS CATTERALL: I don't recall.

17 MR. DAVID: And this letter was 18 addressed to the Foreign Minister?

19 MS CATTERALL: Yes, it was.

20 MR. DAVID: Was there any 21 discussion with regard to the delivery of that 22 letter to the Syrian Foreign Minister?

23 MS CATTERALL: Only when I
24 presented it to him, I would have said, "This is a 25 letter from our Minister of Foreign Affairs to 1 yours."

2 MR. DAVID: Okay. We go now to 3 the second meeting, and it's paragraph 6 that 4 essentially provides the summary about this 5 meeting. That is with security officials at the 6 actual location where you met Mr. Arar.

7 Did you know where this was, what 8 this building was, what this facility was?

9 MS CATTERALL: No, I didn't know.

10 MR. DAVID: Did it seem to you to 11 be a prison, or to be something else?

12 MS CATTERALL: It didn't seem to 13 me to be a prison. It seemed to be an office 14 building.

15 MR. DAVID: Okay. I am sorry, I
16 missed something about the first meeting.

17 If I could bring you to paragraph 18 5, it still concerns that first meeting with 19 Mr. Mouallem.

20 It says:

21 "Turning to the Arar case,
22 the Deputy Foreign Minister
23 explained that the US
24 decision to deport Arar to 25 Syria via Jordan had taken

1 his government by surprise.
2 The Syrians had not asked for 3 Arar and had expected him to 4 be deported to Canada."

5 How did you react to this 6 revelation? Was this told to you by the Deputy 7 Minister -- Foreign Minister?

8 MS CATTERALL: I don't think I 9 realized the significance of it until I saw it in 10 this memorandum.

11 What this indicated clearly to me,
12 as I read this, was that they had known when he 13 was in custody in the United States. The fact 14 that they say they had expected him to be deported 15 to Canada makes it clear that they knew of his 16 detention in the United States before he was 17 actually deported.

18 That raises all kinds of questions
19 of why they would not -- when we were making so 20 much effort to find out if he was in Syria, if the 21 Syrians knew his whereabouts for nearly ten days, 22 as I recall, that they would not have indicated 23 any knowledge of him to our officials.

24 It also indicates to me, however,
25 that the Americans were in touch with them, and I

1 can only -- I am speculating totally and if that's 2 valid, I will go ahead and do it.

3 As I understand international 4 law -- and I am not a lawyer, so it's a totally 5 lay understanding -- you have to provide consular 6 access to a foreign citizen you detain on your 7 soil. We had trouble getting that for Mr. Arar.

8 You have to notify his country of 9 citizenship before you take action against him.

10 So it seems to me that while we 11 were having discussions with the Americans, they 12 were also having discussions with the Syrians.
13 And I think that it's perhaps beyond the scope of 14 this inquiry. I wish it weren't.

15 MR. DAVID: The paragraph goes on 16 to say:

17 "Since Mr. Arar had dual 18 Syrian-Canadian citizenship, 19 he had to be treated under 20 Syrian law as a Syrian 21 citizen. Since Syria was 22 committed to the 23 international campaign to 24 combat terrorism, it had no 25 choice but to take custody of 1 Mr. Arar and question him on 2 his alleged affiliation with 3 al-Qaida. The result of this 4 questioning was that the 5 Syrian Security Services

6 still had concerns that 7 Mr. Arar could be connected
8 to al-Qaida. Then in the 9 presence of the MPs, the
10 Deputy Foreign Minister
11 phoned General Hassan Khalil,
12 the head of the Syrian 13 Military Intelligence, to 14 arrange for an immediate 15 visit with Mr. Arar."

16 I forgot to bring you to that 17 paragraph about that first meeting.

18 MS CATTERALL: Mm-hmm.

19 MR. DAVID: Dealing now with the 20 second meeting, which is with the security
21 officials at the location where Mr. Arar was met 22 by you, the reference in the document is at 23 paragraph 6, and it says:

24 "At the Syrian Military
25 Intelligence, the MPs,

1 accompanied by the Ambassador
2 and Political Counsellor, met
3 with Colonel George (no 4 surname was given) and 5 several other officials. The 6 Colonel explained that they 7 had finished their 8 investigation of Mr. Arar and 9 would shortly be sending him 10 to stand trial on charges of 11 belonging to al-Qaida and 12 having received military 13 training in al-Qaida camps in 14 Afghanistan. Mrs. Catterall 15 again explained that the 16 Solicitor General had 17 indicated that Mr. Arar was 18 not wanted in Canada for 19 criminal activity and that 20 his young family was 21 suffering tremendously
22 because of detention. She 23 conceded that for the Syrian
24 Government, Mr. Arar was a
25 Syrian citizen. The Colonel

1 said that the case would now
2 be the responsibility of the 3 Syrian courts.
4 Mr. Assadourian asked if 5 Mr. Arar's family would be 6 able to attend the court
7 proceedings. The Colonel 8 responded that whether the 9 trial would be open or closed 10 would be decided by the 11 court. In response to the 12 Ambassador's inquiry, the 13 Colonel also said that once 14 Mr. Arar was handed over to 15 the court authorities, he 16 would be moved to another 17 detention centre and that the 18 Embassy would need to go 19 through the Ministry of 20 Foreign Affairs to ensure 21 continued consular access to 22 Mr. Arar at this new 23 facility. The Colonel then 24 called in Arar and asked the 25 MPs to confine their

1 questions to matters related 2 to his health and family
3 matters and not raise 4 questions relating to the 5 substance of the case."

6 My first question is: Does that 7 reflect, to your best recollection, the contents 8 of the meeting that you had with this official?

9 MS CATTERALL: Yes.

10 MR. DAVID: And do you have 11 anything else to add in terms of -- in terms of 12 you are now being informed that Mr. Arar is going 13 to be charged. Did you seek further clarification 14 about the basis of those charges, about what 15 justified them charging that he was a member or 16 was connected to al-Qaeda?

17 MS CATTERALL: I did not. I was 18 stunned to hear that. I asked if he had been 19 informed of that. I wanted to know before he came 20 into the room if he already knew that.

21 MR. DAVID: Was there any 22 reference made to the basis of the charges being 23 tied somehow to belonging to the Muslim
24 Brotherhood?

25 MS CATTERALL: No.

1 MR. DAVID: And was there any
2 reference to the charges being related to the fact 3 that he had not fulfilled his military 4 obligations?

5 MS CATTERALL: No.

6 MR. DAVID: So that the charges
7 were clearly only related to some sort of 8 participation in al-Qaeda?

9 MS CATTERALL: Yes.

10 MR. DAVID: And reference to 11 training in Afghanistan in that regard.

12 MS CATTERALL: Yes.

13 MR. DAVID: Your second reference
14 to the fact that Mr. Arar was not wanted in Canada 15 for criminal activity says that you would have 16 attributed that to the Solicitor General.

17 The message, if you read it, says:

18 "Ms Catterall again explained
19 that the Solicitor General
20 had indicated that Mr. Arar 21 was not wanted in Canada for 22 criminal activity."

23 It's about the fourth or fifth
24 line down.

25 MS CATTERALL: Yes.

1 MR. DAVID: Do you have any 2 comments on that reference?

3 MS CATTERALL: No, I don't. I
4 would not have said that, though, had I not heard 5 that from Mr. Easter.

6 MR. DAVID: Okay. And did you
7 seek to identify the more precise evidence that 8 the Syrians may have against Mr. Arar?

9 MS CATTERALL: No, I did not.

10 MR. DAVID: Was there any reason 11 why you didn't pursue that?

12 MS CATTERALL: I think it was just 13 that, frankly, I was stunned to hear that they 14 were planning to charge him soon, was the word 15 they used.

16 MR. DAVID: Could you explain to 17 us -- the next meeting is with Mr. Arar -- how 18 those two meetings meshed and how it evolved; how 19 Mr. Arar came to be in your presence,
20 Ms Catterall?

21 MS CATTERALL: To be perfectly
22 honest with you, I left the room for a minute to 23 use the washroom, which is right next door, and 24 when I got back to the room, Mr. Arar was already 25 there.

1 MR. DAVID: Okay. So you met
2 Mr. Arar in the exact same room --

3 MS CATTERALL: Yes.

4 MR. DAVID: -- where you had met
5 this person by the name of Mr. George?

6 MS CATTERALL: Yes.

7 MR. DAVID: Could you just give us
8 a sense of that meeting. How long did it last?

9 MS CATTERALL: Perhaps 15 to 20
10 minutes.

11 MR. DAVID: And was it a 12 controlled exercise?

13 MS CATTERALL: Very controlled.

14 MR. DAVID: Just give us a sense 15 of that.

16 MS CATTERALL: He was only allowed
17 to speak in Arabic.

18 MR. DAVID: Was that made clear to
19 Mr. Arar --

20 MS CATTERALL: Yes.

21 MR. DAVID: -- in your presence?

22 MS CATTERALL: Yes.

23 MR. DAVID: So Mr. Arar was to 24 speak to you in Arabic only?

25 MS CATTERALL: Yes.

1 MR. DAVID: And you were permitted
2 to speak to him in English?

3 MS CATTERALL: Yes. There was no
4 other option.

5 MR. DAVID: And Mr. Assadourian
6 was, however, fluent in Arabic?

7 MS CATTERALL: Yes.

8 MR. DAVID: So somehow he was able 9 to monitor.

10 MS CATTERALL: That's one of the 11 reasons I was very happy to have him there, so I 12 didn't have to rely only on their translators.

13 MR. DAVID: You had never met
14 Mr. Arar before?

15 MS CATTERALL: I had never met him
16 before, no.

17 MR. DAVID: In fact, before 18 Ms Mazigh called your office in the latter part of 19 September of 2002, you had had no connections 20 whatsoever with this family?

21 MS CATTERALL: No, none.

22 MR. DAVID: When you met Mr. Arar,
23 how did you present yourself? Just give us a 24 sense of what preliminary steps or preliminary 25 matters of that meeting.

1 MS CATTERALL: I honestly can't 2 remember if I introduced myself or if the 3 ambassador did. I had pictures of his family, 4 messages from Monia, drawings his daughter had 5 done to give him, and that's the first thing I
6 did.

7 It was a very emotional meeting
8 for all of us, and I think he was very happy to 9 see us, to see me, to know that I had been in 10 touch with Monia, that I had met his children and 11 been at his home. I made a point of telling him 12 how hard Monia was working on his behalf.

13 MR. DAVID: In terms of his 14 appearance, Ms Catterall, could you give us your 15 appreciation of his condition, his physical 16 condition, his mental condition, his emotional 17 condition.

18 Was he oriented? Just give us
19 your appreciation.

20 MS CATTERALL: He was pale, which 21 was understandable. He looked thinner than 22 photographs I had seen of him which had been taken 23 during their holiday in Tunisia.

24 --- Pause

25 MS CATTERALL: He was clean; had

1 clean clothes on. I was asked a number of times
2 after did I see any signs of torture, and all I 3 could say was, no, I saw no visible signs that he 4 had been mistreated. But I always qualified that 5 by saying, but I am no expert on detecting if 6 people have been tortured.

7 MR. DAVID: Was he handcuffed, was 8 he shackled when he was in your presence?

9 MS CATTERALL: No, he was not.

10 MR. DAVID: And in terms of 11 orientation?

12 MS CATTERALL: I know he is 13 described in this memo as seeming somewhat 14 disoriented. Never having met him before, I had 15 nothing to compare with, and that wasn't a strong 16 impression I had.

17 Clearly anybody would not be 18 totally at ease walking into a room full of people 19 who had just flown in from Canada just to see him, 20 of people he had never met before, being in this 21 strange situation.

22 I would want to hear the 23 ambassador explain that terminology.

24 MR. DAVID: Were you the principal 25 interlocutor? Was Mr. Assadourian participating

1 in the meeting?

2 MS CATTERALL: Yes, he was as 3 well.

4 MR. DAVID: Who was speaking the 5 most?

6 MS CATTERALL: I think I did,
7 simply in terms of talking to him about his wife 8 and the efforts she was making in Canada for his 9 return, and trying to reassure him that the 10 Canadian government was doing everything possible 11 for his return as well.

12 MR. DAVID: Did you provide 13 Mr. Arar with any additional messages apart from 14 Ms Mazigh's letters? Did you provide him with any 15 additional messages from Monia?

16 MS CATTERALL: Just to tell him -- 17 and I don't think she said this in her message to 18 him -- of her efforts on his behalf in Canada.

19 MR. DAVID: Did you inform 20 Mr. Arar of the fact that Mr. Graham had sent a 21 letter along with you to the Foreign Minister of 22 Syria?

23 MS CATTERALL: I don't recall if I
24 did or not.

25 MR. DAVID: And did you discuss

1 the fact of what you had just learned in your 2 previous meeting with the colonel, the fact that 3 he was going to be charged?

4 MS CATTERALL: No.

5 MR. DAVID: Did you discuss 6 anything to do with links he may have to al-Qaeda,
7 to training in Afghanistan --

8 MS CATTERALL: No. It was very 9 clear before he came into the meeting that these 10 were things not to be discussed.

11 MR. DAVID: And that was made 12 clear by whom?

13 MS CATTERALL: By the colonel.

14 MR. DAVID: Okay. In regard to 15 the consular report for this meeting, I would 16 bring you to paragraph 7.

17 It says:

18 "Mr. Arar was brought into 19 the room and introduced to 20 the MPs and Embassy staff.
21 He appeared tired and 22 disoriented but generally in 23 good health."

24 I think you have provided a 25 sufficient context to that comment.

1 MS CATTERALL: Mm-hmm.

2 MR. DAVID: And:

3 "Mr. Arar was instructed by 4 Colonel George to speak only
5 in Arabic (so that the Syrian 6 staff could understand what 7 he was saying). During the 8 interview, this restriction
9 was relaxed several times, 10 especially when it came time
11 for Mr. Arar to dictate a 12 letter to his wife."

13 Do you recall that portion of your 14 meeting?

15 MS CATTERALL: His dictating the 16 letter to his wife? Yes.

17 MR. DAVID: And who took down the 18 letter?

19 MS CATTERALL: Mr. Shaw.

20 MR. DAVID: And that was done in 21 English?

22 MS CATTERALL: Yes.

23 MR. DAVID: "The Colonel also told 24 Mr. Arar to refrain from 25 commenting on security

1 aspects of his case and to 2 speak about his health,
3 prison conditions and family
4 members."

5 Did he discuss in any way with you
6 his prison conditions with the Syrians?

7 MS CATTERALL: I don't think so.
8 I don't recall that, no.

9 MR. DAVID: Okay.

10 MS CATTERALL: I don't recall that 11 he did.

12 MR. DAVID: We will go on to 13 paragraph 8 now.

14 "Ms Catterall explained that 15 she was a Member of 16 Parliament for the 17 constituency in with Mrs.
18 Arar lived, and it was 19 because of his wife's strong
20 efforts that Mrs. Catterall
21 and Mr. Assadourian had come
22 to Syria to see him. Mrs.
23 Catterall gave Mr. Arar some 24 recent family photos, 25 drawings by his children and

1 two letters from his wife.
2 The meeting was emotionally
3 charged, with Mr. Arar close
4 to tears on several occasions
5 as he received news of his 6 family from Ms Catterall."
7 Is that an accurate reflection?
8 MS CATTERALL: Yes.
9 MR. DAVID: Okay.
10 "He was particularly moved 11 when he learned that Mrs.
12 Catterall had visited his 13 family in their Ottawa home."
14 Is that accurate?
15 MS CATTERALL: Yes.
16 MR. DAVID: "On several occasions, 17 he expressed his belief that 18 he would be freed soon 19 because he was innocent."
20 Is that also accurate?
21 MS CATTERALL: Yes.
22 MR. DAVID: "In the letter that he 23 dictated to the Political 24 Counsellor, he again
25 expressed this hope and

1 thanked his wife for all her
2 efforts to secure his return
3 to Canada. The only copy of 4 this letter was given
5 immediately to Mrs. Catterall
6 to convey to Mrs. Arar."

7 Was that done?

8 MS CATTERALL: Yes.

9 MR. DAVID: "No copy of the letter
10 was requested by the Syrian
11 officials present. Only once 12 during the meeting was 13 Mr. Arar gently reminded by 14 the Colonel to refrain from 15 discussing details of his 16 case."

17 Does that seem accurate?

18 MS CATTERALL: I don't recall

19 that.

20 MR. DAVID: You don't recall of 21 the reminding?

22 MS CATTERALL: No.

23 MR. DAVID: Okay.

24 "At the end of the meeting,
25 Mrs. Catterall asked Mr. Arar

1 whether he needed anything.
2 He asked if his wife could 3 every six months send him
4 some money."

5 Is that accurate?

6 MS CATTERALL: Yes.

7 MR. DAVID: Do you have anything
8 else that you would like to add about this meeting 9 with Mr. Arar before we move on?

10 --- Pause

11 MS CATTERALL: I guess only that 12 in retrospect, I would do different things. And I 13 think it's safe to say that Mr. Arar was not the 14 only person in that room close to tears. A number 15 of us were.

16 MR. DAVID: Okay. Mr. Arar was 17 then escorted out of the room and the meeting 18 continued.

19 MS CATTERALL: Yes, for a few
20 minutes.

21 MR. DAVID: Were the same players
22 present at this follow-up meeting?

23 MS CATTERALL: Yes.

24 MR. DAVID: What was discussed?
25 Who said what at this time?

1 MS CATTERALL: We went on to ask
2 further about court. I believe it was the 3 ambassador who particularly raised the issue of 4 resuming consular visits. At that time there had 5 not been a consular visit since December, if my 6 memory is correct, and that was becoming of 7 increasing concern. That was why actually seeing 8 him face-to-face was so important.

9 It also led me to wonder, however, 10 why Mr. Martel wasn't at the meeting since he was 11 the one who had had previous visits with him and 12 would have noticed probably better than anybody 13 else any changes.

14 MR. DAVID: Was there any
15 indication or discussion about when the trial 16 would be taking place and in what circumstances?

17 MS CATTERALL: No. Just they said
18 he would be charged soon, and of course April, 19 May, June, July, August -- four months later, he 20 still hasn't been charged.

21 MR. DAVID: And was there any 22 discussion of providing assistance to Mr. Arar in 23 facing this trial in Syria?

24 MS CATTERALL: Yes. I don't 25 remember which of us asked would his family have

1 access to the court? We asked about legal 2 representation. Would the embassy be able to have 3 access to the court?

4 And there was particular emphasis
5 on renewing visits with him.

6 They said very clearly that once
7 he was charged, that would be -- well, they said 8 two contradictory things, really. That it would 9 be up to the courts to determine various things, 10 but at the same time they also said that that 11 would have to be arranged through Foreign Affairs.

12 But they had been saying that to 13 the ambassador for several months, and requests of 14 Foreign Affairs in Syria for visits had not 15 received any positive response, in fact had 16 virtually not received a response, according to 17 Mr. Pillarella.

18 MR. DAVID: Was there any 19 discussion, if you recall, about having a Canadian 20 legal observer present during the trial?

21 MS CATTERALL: I don't recall that
22 we asked specifically about legal representation, 23 but there was a question about whether the 24 Canadian embassy would have access, I believe.

25 Yes, I think that was asked. I

1 know we asked about the family having access.

2 MR. DAVID: Ms Catterall, it's now
3 about three minutes to five. Are you content in 4 continuing on a bit, or is it preferable that we 5 adjourn at this time?

6 MS CATTERALL: I do have to be 7 somewhere else at six and I would prefer to 8 adjourn now, if that is all right.

9 THE COMMISSIONER: What is the 10 schedule for tomorrow, Mr. David? How much longer 11 will you be?

12 MR. DAVID: I would estimate about 13 an hour, Mr. Commissioner.

14 THE COMMISSIONER: How long will 15 you be, Mr. Waldman?

16 MR. WALDMAN: I don't anticipate I
17 will be more than an hour.

18 THE COMMISSIONER: Two hours.

19 Ms McIsaac?

20 MS McISAAC: Possibly an hour.

21 THE COMMISSIONER: That's three 22 hours.

23 As I understand the schedule
24 tomorrow, we can start at two o'clock and you have 25 to leave at five?

1 MS CATTERALL: I have to be back
2 in Parliament for votes, yes, at the end of the 3 day.

4 THE COMMISSIONER: Are we going to 5 be able to make it? All I am thinking is if there 6 is any more time we can use now or whatever. If 7 we don't finish tomorrow, then you have to come 8 back another day.

9 MS CATTERALL: I want to be 10 helpful in any way I can to the Commission and I 11 will make myself available.

12 THE COMMISSIONER: Okay. But it
13 strikes me that we should be able to finish this 14 witness, working together, in three more hours.

15 MR. DAVID: All right.

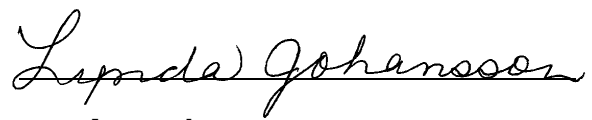

16 THE COMMISSIONER: With that then,
17 we will rise. We are going to start tomorrow 18 morning at nine o'clock, Mr. David?

19 MR. DAVID: That is correct.

20 THE REGISTRAR: Please stand.

21 --- Whereupon the hearing adjourned at 5:00 p.m., 22 to resume on Wednesday, June 1, 2005, at
