2	Upon resuming on Tuesday, May 19, 2009
3	at 10:00 a.m. / L'audience reprend le mardi
4	19 mai 2009 à 10 h 00
5	39969 COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: Good morning,
6	counsel. Be seated, please.
7	PREVIOUSLY SWORN: THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY /
8	SOUS LE MÊME SERMENT : LE TRÈS HON. BRIAN MULRONEY
9	39970 COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: Mr. Yarosky
10	at the podium, good morning, sir.
11	MR. YAROSKY: Good morning. As you
12	know, Mr. Commissioner, I will use any excuse I can to
13	get to the podium here.
14	First of all, Mr. Commissioner, we
15	all hope that you are feeling somewhat better.
16	39973 COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: I am, thank
17	you.
18	MR. YAROSKY: Good.
19	39975 Second, you asked the other day
20	whether the Commission has had its first baby and I
21	undertook to come to the podium and inform you of it.
22	39976 Apparently Mr. Philippe Lacasse's
23	wife he is not here today and this is why.
24	39977 COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT:
25	Understandably so.

1	39978 MR. YAROSKY: On Saturday Sunday
2	morning Sunday morning gave rise to an 8-pound baby
3	girl. So I am very pleased to be at the podium and be
4	able to advise you and everyone of it.
5	39979 COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: Thank you
6	very much.
7	39980 MR. YAROSKY: I have done my thing
8	now.
9	39981 COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: I'm sure that
10	everyone would join with me in extending best wishes to
11	the new baby and the family.
12	39982 Mr. Wolson?
13	39983 MR. WOLSON: I'm sure that
14	Mr. Lacasse is pleased that he has been on national
15	television.
16	I will give you an update on
17	Mr. Schreiber as well.
18	In speaking with Mr. Auger,
19	Mr. Schreiber is out of the hospital, at home, but
20	convalescing slowly.
21	39986 COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: Yes.
22	39987 MR. WOLSON: It is very unlikely that
23	he could testify this week. I would say that that is
24	not going to happen, and we will just see how he is
25	doing during the week and we will keep you posted.

1	39988 COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: Thank you.
2	39989 I'm not sure whether any explanation
3	has been given for the delay. I was scheduled to leave
4	Winnipeg last night at 8 o'clock. I arrived at the
5	airport to take the flight. Air Canada advised me at
6	that point in time that the flight had been cancelled;
7	that the aircraft was unserviceable.
8	The lady was very quick to report,
9	however, that it was not an Airbus; it was an RJ.
10	39991 So I got a flight to Toronto on
11	WestJet, stayed there at a hotel overnight and got an
12	early flight in here this morning.
13	39992 So I'm sorry. I apologize to
14	everyone for the delay, but it wasn't my fault.
15	39993 COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: Maybe turn
16	your microphone on, sir.
17	39994 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: The
18	service was much more reliable when I was in office.
19	Laughter / Rires
20	EXAMINATION: THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY BY
21	MR. WOLSON (cont'd) / INTERROGATOIRE : LE TRÈS HON.
22	BRIAN MULRONEY PAR Me WOLSON (suite)
23	MR. WOLSON: Good morning, sir.
24	39996 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Good
25	morning, sir.

1	39997 MR. WOLSON: I just want to ask you a
2	number of questions confirming what you said to me on
3	Thursday and Friday of last week. Hopefully, they
4	won't take very long.
5	The money that you received in the
6	United States was in Canadian funds?
7	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
8	40000 MR. WOLSON: All three payments were
9	Canadian funds?
10	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I
11	believe so, sir.
12	40002 MR. WOLSON: The funds that you
13	received in the United States stayed in the United
14	States?
15	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes,
16	sir.
17	40004 MR. WOLSON: You didn't bring any of
18	those monies back to Canada?
19	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: No, I
20	did not.
21	40006 MR. WOLSON: Okay. You knew that if
22	you were going to bring back an amount over $10,000 you
23	have to make a declaration of sorts, but that didn't
24	come into play?
25	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: No.

And that declaration requirement I think was sometime 1 2 later. 40008 MR. WOLSON: All right. Your 3 retainer of $225,000, there was no particular period of 4 time that the retainer was to cover? It was an 5 open-ended retainer? 6 40009 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes, 7 8 sir. 40010 MR. WOLSON: There was only one --THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: At 10 40011 11 least -- excuse me. MR. WOLSON: Yes...? 12 40012 13 40013 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: At least that's the manner in which I construed it, given 14 what had been told me. 15 16 40014 MR. WOLSON: All right. There was only one retainer arrangement and that was never 17 18 renegotiated? 19 40015 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: is right. There was a request for renegotiation in 20 2000 given to Mr. Doucet but which never came to pass. 21 22 40016 MR. WOLSON: All right. And that was 23 something that he told us about but it never occurred? THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: It 24 40017 25 never occurred, yes.

1	40018 MR. WOLSON: You never declared your
2	income or this retainer to the income tax between '93
3	and '99?
4	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I
5	declared it when I was required to, yes, sir.
6	40020 MR. WOLSON: You declared it in 2000
7	by way of a voluntary disclosure.
8	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:
9	Having initiated discussions with the tax departments
10	of Québec and Canada in 1999.
11	40022 MR. WOLSON: All right. The retainer
12	you received was to further the Thyssen Project or the
13	Thyssen vehicle?
14	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Mr.
15	Schreiber's corporate interests, which at that time I
16	principally construed as the Thyssen vehicles.
17	40024 MR. WOLSON: Prior to using the
18	funds, you either kept them in a safe in your home in
19	Canada, $150,000, or the $75,000 you received in the
20	States you kept in a box, a safety deposit box in the
21	States?
22	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: That
23	is right.
24	40026 MR. WOLSON: You did use some of the
25	monies for expenses, either Canadian or let me ask

1	you.
2	40027	For expenses did you take some money
3	out of your	safe?
4	40028	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:
5	Approximatel	y $45,000 was used in expenses.
6	40029	MR. WOLSON: Okay. And would that be
7	from the mor	nies you had in your Montréal home?
8	40030	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
9	40031	MR. WOLSON: The money that you had
10	in the box i	n this States or in your safe at home in
11	Montréal, yo	ou didn't use the bulk of those funds until
12	you had made	e your voluntary disclosure?
13	40032	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I
14	never used a	a nickel of those funds until the money
15	became mine.
16	40033	MR. WOLSON: But you did use some of
17	those funds	for expenses.
18	40034	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: For
19	expenses.
20	40035	MR. WOLSON: Okay. You kept records
21	by way of a	VISA or other documents to document your
22	expenses and	d when you made your voluntary disclosure
23	after you di	d that, in the ordinary course you disposed
24	of those red	cords?
25	40036	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes,

1	because I decided not to claim any expenses. I
2	declared everything as income. I claimed no expenses
3	against the income, deducted no expenses, and paid the
4	220 tax on the $225,000.
5	40037 MR. WOLSON: Did you have, in the
6	past, any other financial or business dealings with
7	Karlheinz Schreiber or any of his companies?
8	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: No,
9	sir.
10	40039 MR. WOLSON: And I am assuming you
11	have no current business dealings with Karlheinz
12	Schreiber or any of his companies?
13	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: That
14	is a safe assumption, sir.
15	MR. WOLSON: I thought it might be.
16	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
17	40043 MR. WOLSON: Did you have in the past
18	or do you now have any financial business dealings with
19	Karlheinz Schreiber or his companies through third
20	parties?
21	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: No, I
22	do not.
23	40045 MR. WOLSON: Or third-party
24	corporations?
25	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: No, I

1	do not, sir.
2	40047 MR. WOLSON: Having reviewed the
3	contacts that you had last week with Mr. Schreiber
4	and you recall we went through a book of purported
5	contacts where we had diary entries in Schreiber's
6	diary, sometimes in Mr. Doucet's diaries, backup
7	letters. From 1987 until 1993 there were about eight
8	to ten contacts.
9	You recall me raising those with you
10	last week?
11	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I do,
12	sir.
13	40050 MR. WOLSON: Then on June 3rd you met
14	with him? No question about that?
15	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
16	40052 MR. WOLSON: Ninety-three, that is.
17	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: M'hm.
18	40054 MR. WOLSON: Yes?
19	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
20	40056 MR. WOLSON: And then you met with
21	him August 27th, '93 at Mirabel.
22	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
23	40058 MR. WOLSON: The Queen Elizabeth
24	December 8, '93.
25	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes,

1	sir.
2	40060 MR. WOLSON: And finally, December 8,
3	'94 in New York at the Pierre Hotel.
4	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:
5	That's right. And then in February of '98 in Zürich.
6	40062 MR. WOLSON: And of course you had
7	met with him at Harrington Lake on the 23rd as well.
8	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: That
9	is right, m'hm.
10	40064 MR. WOLSON: I'm now going to ask you
11	some questions regarding Mr. Kaplan.
12	40065 You told Mr. Kaplan could
13	Mr. Mulroney have the Kaplan binder, please.
14	40066 Could you turn up Tab 1, sir.
15	40067 You told
16	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:
17	Excuse me, sir.
18	40069 MR. WOLSON: Sure. Tab 1 would be
19	December 2, 1997.
20	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes,
21	I have it.
22	40071 MR. WOLSON: It starts off:
23	"I was in Toronto at a Board
24	meeting."
25	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.

1	40073	MR. WOLSON: This is a note that
2	Mr. Kaplan prepar	ed while he was writing the book
3	"Presumed Guilty"	, the first of the two books that he
4	wrote involving y	ou.
5	40074	Do you recall that?
6	40075	You recall that he wrote a book
7	40076	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
8	40077	MR. WOLSON: "Presumed Guilty"?
9	40078	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: M'hm.
10	40079	MR. WOLSON: He says in his notes,
11	the second line,	that you related to him:
12		"I knew Schreiber in a
13		peripheral way."
14	40080	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: M'hm.
15	40081	MR. WOLSON:
16		"He was associated in my mind
17		with the Alberta Progressive
18		Conservatives. That was a
19		limited extent to which I knew
20		anything about him, I knew who
21		he was, and that he'd been
22		involved in Bear Head."
23	40082	That's a true statement? You told
24	Mr. Kaplan that,	or words to that effect?
25	40083	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Very

1	probably, sir.
2	40084	MR. WOLSON: Okay. You also
3	40085	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I
4	don't know what	the what the question was. It
5	doesn't indicate	e here what the question was.
6	40086	MR. WOLSON: I understand.
7	40087	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: So I
8	don't know the $\epsilon$	extent to which the context might apply
9	40088	MR. WOLSON: You told Mr. Sheppard
LO	and we discussed	d this the other day at page 85 of
L1	the discovery:
L2		"And on the infrequent occasions
L3		when I would see him on
L4		business, when he was promoting
L5		the Tissen(sic) Project"
L6	40089	That is a statement that you made,
L7	sir?
L8	Pause
L9	40090	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Well,
20	my answer is muc	ch more complete than that, sir.
21	40091	MR. WOLSON: I appreciate that, but
22	that is part of	the answer that you gave:
23		"And on the infrequent occasions
24		when I"
5	40092	THE DICHT HON BRIAN MILLPONEY. Vec

1	but as I say, the context is, and I am responding to a
2	question, sir, that says:
3	"And can you go on to describe
4	your relationship over the
5	years?"
6	40093 In office. And I say:
7	" I came to know him as a
8	and the people in Alberta who
9	had been his partners described
10	him as a a hard working,
11	diligent, successful business
12	person who was very interested
13	in this particular project and
14	worked very hard to try and
15	secure its realization.
16	I suppose it's the same
17	thing today, any serious
18	multinational company comes to
19	see the Prime Minister or the
20	Minister of Industry and says,
21	'I can create a thousand (1,000)
22	jobs in the east and of Montreal
23	or in Cape Breton', you can bet
24	your bottom dollar that there's
25	going to be interest in that.

1		And so Mr. Schreiber was also,
2		as a German-Canadian, he was
3		extremely well-informed
4		extremely well informed on
5		questions such as German
6		reunification which was
7		beginning in the after
8		nineteen eighty-nine (1989) to
9		acquire a degree of importance.
10		And on the infrequent occasions
11		when I would see him on
12		business, when he was promoting
13		the Tissen(sic) Project, he
14		would raise this German
15		reunification issue and speak
16		very knowledgeably about it."
17	40094	And so on.
18	40095	MR. WOLSON: Yes. And I was only
19	interested an	nd I appreciate you being clear, that
20	you did say to t	the examiner you saw him on business
21	40096	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: M'hm.
22	40097	MR. WOLSON: on infrequent
23	occasions. That	t's the only point that I make.
24	40098	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes,
25	and that is full	y accurate.

1	40099 MR. WOLSON: Okay. Now, you know
2	William Kaplan to be a lawyer?
3	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
4	40101 MR. WOLSON: To be an author?
5	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
6	40103 MR. WOLSON: And to be somewhat of a
7	legal historian. You don't challenge any of that?
8	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I was
9	not aware of the legal historian dimension to his CV,
10	but if you tell me that I will certainly accept it.
11	40105 MR. WOLSON: That is what he has told
12	us and there has been no challenge to that.
13	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
14	40107 MR. WOLSON: He wrote his first book
15	about you and your battle with the Government of Canada
16	called "Presumed Guilty".
17	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
18	40109 MR. WOLSON: Your spokesman, Luc
19	Lavoie, has told Mr. Kaplan that you had the highest
20	regard for Mr. Kaplan.
21	40110 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I
22	notice that he accurately put it in the past tense.
23	40111 MR. WOLSON: Yes.
24	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
25	40113 MR. WOLSON: You had a very high

1	regard for him
2	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: That
3	is right.
4	40115 MR. WOLSON: as he was writing the
5	book "Presumed Guilty"?
6	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
7	He approached the Chairman of my firm, Yves Fortier,
8	and originally Mr. MacAdam who worked for me, both of
9	whom knew him, and he asked if he could come to see me
10	and begin the process of writing a book on what he
11	referred to in his correspondence as this travesty of
12	the Airbus affair, the original one. And I was
13	disinclined to do it.
14	40117 As I indicated, I reluctantly met
15	with him and determined after a little while that he
16	was genuinely interested in this.
17	40118 He had written a book I think on
18	Mr. Justice Leo Landreville on the Northern Ontario
19	matter, natural gas matter I think, and I was impressed
20	by the meticulous research and careful writing. So I
21	agreed to see him, yeah.
22	40119 MR. WOLSON: Just turn up Tab 15 if
23	you would, please, Mr. Mulroney.
24	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Tab
25	15 of?

1	40121 MR	. WOLSON: Tab 15 of the Kaplan
2	materials.
3	40122 TH	E RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: M'hm.
4	40123 MR	. WOLSON: This is an interview
5	with Mr. Lavoie, who	o was your spokesperson and friend.
6	40124 TH	E RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
7	40125 MR	. WOLSON: That's all true, isn't
8	it?
9	40126 TH	E RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:
10	Absolutely.
11	40127 MR	. WOLSON: And this is Friday,
12	January 4, 2002.
13	40128 TH	E RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: M'hm.
14	40129 MR	. WOLSON: And if you turn to the
15	second page, you wil	ll see the very last line where
16	Mr. Lavoie we car	n read the whole sentence if you
17	like.
18		"He said that everything I wrote
19		in the book was true and that
20		when I suggested that the news
21		startled me and left me feeling
22		as if I had been manipulated"
23	40130 Th	is is Kaplan speaking to Lavoie:
24		" in a cynical way he
25		insisted that it was not the

1	case"
2	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
3	40132 MR. WOLSON:
4	" and Mulroney had the
5	highest regard for me."
6	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: M'hm.
7	40134 MR. WOLSON: That would be a true
8	statement by Mr. Lavoie as far as you knew?
9	40135 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I
10	think so.
11	40136 MR. WOLSON: Okay. In effect what
12	Mr. Kaplan did was he came to your defence in the book
13	and found you totally innocent of the Airbus hoax?
14	40137 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: As
15	did the Government of Canada when they apologized to me
16	and acknowledged in writing that they had never had any
17	justification of any kind to write the falsehoods about
18	me that they sent to Switzerland.
19	40138 I was completely vindicated by them
20	and by the RCMP in a letter from the Commissioner who
21	indicated, as you know, sir, that from the beginning
22	this thing had been a hoax orchestrated by Ms Stevie
23	Cameron and by Giorgio Pelossi.
24	40139 It was based on their information
25	that the letter had been sent to Switzerland so

1	40140 MR. WOLSON: I can assure you that I
2	am not going to examine you on the hoax of Airbus. It
3	is not within our parameters, but I was more concerned
4	with the fact that Mr. Kaplan defended you and found
5	you to be innocent.
6	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
7	40142 MR. WOLSON: And I'm only concerned
8	about Kaplan for the moment.
9	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes,
10	I think that's right. And I think that, as he
11	indicated, he was seriously impressed by the facts of
12	the case obviously, and they indicated equally as
13	clearly that I was completely innocent.
14	40144 So it wasn't a big surprise to me, or
15	to anyone else, that he arrived at the same conclusion.
16	40145 MR. WOLSON: He testified in this
17	inquiry that when he received information from another
18	journalist that you had received funds from
19	Mr. Schreiber, talking about the $300,000 and I know
20	there is a contest as between, or a disagreement as
21	between you and Schreiber as to the amount.
22	But at least from his perspective,
23	Mr. Kaplan says when he found out that you had received
24	money from Karlheinz Schreiber, he started his own
25	investigation, which you can't speak to, but you can

1	speak to this. He did speak to you on a number of
2	occasions after that?
3	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I
4	believe he did, yes.
5	40148 MR. WOLSON: Yes. You had a friendly
6	relationship with Mr. Kaplan?
7	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
8	40150 MR. WOLSON: If you turn to Tab 7,
9	please, and if you turn to the last page I'm sorry,
10	the second-last page of Tab 7, it starts off with a
11	question:
12	"Are you around next weekend?"
13	Do you see that, sir? The
14	second-last page of Tab 7.
15	40152 COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: The number 8
16	appears at the top, I believe, does it not?
17	40153 MR. WOLSON: Yes, it does.
18	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Tab 7
19	that I have, sir perhaps I'm wrong here. The
20	second-last page?
21	40155 MR. WOLSON: Please. And the
22	number
23	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes,
24	I have that.
25	40157 MR. WOLSON: Okay.

1	40158	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
2	40159	MR. WOLSON: If you look at the
3	bottom of that pa	age, Mr. Kaplan records you as saying
4	the following:
5		"If you want my cooperation"
6	40160	And just to put this in proper
7	perspective, this	s is October 24, 2003.
8	40161	You can accept that. It's at the
9	beginning of the	tab.
10	40162	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: What
11	date again, sir?
12	40163	MR. WOLSON: October 24, 2003.
13	40164	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
14	40165	MR. WOLSON: He says that you told
15	him:
16		"If you want my cooperation and
17		friendship, then you cannot be a
18		friend and an opponent at the
19		same time. That is my
20		position."
21	40166	Do you see that?
22	40167	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: And
23	it goes on to say	y :
24		"Obviously, I don't want to hurt
25		Karl Heinz Schreiber."

1	40168	MR. WOLSON: Yes. I understand that.
2	40169	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
3	40170	MR. WOLSON: He has indicated that
4	you were trying	to convince him not to write about the
5	$225,000 or $300	,000.
6	40171	Do you agree with that; that you had
7	many attempts wi	th him to try and convince him not to
8	write about it?
9	40172	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Let's
10	go, if I can, ju	st for completeness, Mr. Commissioner,
11	just go back a b	it.
12	40173	I think Mr and you can correct me
13	if I'm wrong on	this, because a lot has been said and I
14	can't remember e	verything.
15	40174	But in much the same way as Mr.
16	Kaplan subsequen	tly reproached Mr. Sheppard for not
17	having asked me	any direct question in that regard, I
18	don't believe he	asked me the question himself either.
19	I don't believe	that he ever said to me in that
20	context, in that	timeframe: Did you ever have a
21	commercial relat	ionship with Mr. Schreiber and what was
22	it?
23	40175	When he asked me the question in
24	regard to the se	ries he was writing for the Globe and
25	Mail

1	40176	MR. WOLSON: Yes?
2	40177	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: in
3	November of 2003
4	40178	MR. WOLSON: November 10th is the
5	article.
6	40179	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: That
7	is right. When h	ne asked me the question, I gave him
8	the honest answer	r. The answer was yes. And I
9	described the rel	lationship to him.
10	40180	But I should point out to you that
11	this may very wel	ll be in context that I won't I
12	suppose it's need	dless to anyone else, Mr. Commissioner,
13	to get into it.
14	40181	The Globe did a three-part series,
15	but there were fo	our parts to it and the fourth part was
16	extremely importa	ant as well.
17	40182	COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: Is that the
18	series that was w	vritten by Mr. Kaplan?
19	40183	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:
20	That's right.
21	40184	And for some unknown reason, some
22	mysterious reason	n, they chose not to write the
23	fourth or publ	lish the fourth article.
24	40185	My disagreement with Mr. Kaplan, as I
25	remember it, Mr.	Wolson, was much more about the

1	publication of the fourth article which dealt with the
2	genesis of Airbus and the things we know now, plus
3	other irrelevant matters that have not been published,
4	than anything else.
5	But I can tell you, as you know
6	and I was very disappointed when that fourth article
7	failed to be published by the Globe and Mail.
8	That said, when he asked me for that
9	series, whether I had had a commercial dealing with
10	Mr. Schreiber, I said yes.
11	And when he said to me was it
12	$300,000, I said no, it was less than that.
13	And when he asked me whether work had
14	been done, I said yes and described part of it. That
15	was confirmed by Mr. Schreiber.
16	When he asked me what kind of
17	contract it was and this, too, was confirmed by
18	Mr. Schreiber I said it was above board in all
19	respects; that he had hired me I think as the best
20	advocate that he could hire, and that I had done the
21	work and the contract was excellent in that regard.
22	40191 I confirmed all of that. I sought to
23	hide nothing from him and that appeared that day.
24	40192 MR. WOLSON: But my question to you
25	was: Did you attempt to convince Mr. Kaplan not to

1	write about your relationship with Karlheinz Schreiber?
2	40193 Did you do that?
3	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Well,
4	obviously I would have been happier, for reasons I have
5	already indicated, had that not come out. But inasmuch
6	as I had confirmed it to him, I knew of course it was
7	going to come out.
8	40195 MR. WOLSON: Let's turn to Tab 6,
9	please.
10	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes,
11	sir.
12	40197 MR. WOLSON: Tab 6 is dated the 12th
13	October 2003. At the top of the page of page 2 you ask
14	Mr. Kaplan a question:
15	"I got the impression that you
16	plan to write about Karl Heinz
17	Schreiber and me?
18	Answer from W.K.: It's part of
19	the story."
20	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: M'hm.
21	40199 MR. WOLSON: Response from you:
22	"It is not part of the story at
23	all. It is a different story."
24	And you go on to indicate that you
25	had been investigated, and you go on to indicate that:

1		"So if you write about this it
2		will be a big red herring that
3		will please Stevie Cameron and
4		distress myself"
5	40201 You	say those things, do you?
6	40202 THE	RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: If
7	it's there, I assume	I did. But I don't I would
8	have to see the conte	xt of the full question and the
9	full answer, sir.
10	40203 But	I have no quarrel with what you
11	have said.
12	40204 MR.	WOLSON: All right. If you turn
13	to Tab 2
14	40205 THE	RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: May I
15	just go back, Mr. Com	missioner, to the question that I
16	was asked by Mr. Wols	on?
17	40206 COMM	MISSIONER OLIPHANT: Which tab?
18	40207 THE	RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: The
19	same tab, sir.
20		"Question from Brian Mulroney:
21		I got the impression that you
22		plan to write about Karl Heinz
23		Schreiber and me?
24		Answer from W.K: It's part of
25		the story."

1	40208 And I say:
2	"It is not part of the story at
3	all. It is a different story.
4	Don't forget that I have already
5	told you this, that I have never
6	done anything wrong or been
7	involved with anyone for any
8	improper purpose. Everything
9	has been fully legal and proper.
10	Don't forget that it has been
11	fully examined by the RCMP.
12	Don't forget also that there are
13	also certain things that ELG
14	knows that I don't know and
15	there are certain things that I
16	know"
17	40209 Et cetera. And this is going to be a
18	big red herring for Stevie Cameron.
19	40210 Mr. Commissioner, this is in direct
20	reference to the fact that Ms Cameron and Mr. Pelossi
21	were able in 1995, September 29, 1995, to persuade the
22	RCMP to write a false libelous travesty to the
23	Government of Switzerland about me on the basis of
24	statements, all of which turned out to be false all
25	of which turned out to be false.

1	40213	I was, as I have indicated before,
2		simply concerned, as I suspect most people would be,
3		that the same kind of attempts by Ms Cameron and her
4		allies in the media, the fifth estate and so on, would
5		use this to try and get back at me and my family again.
6	40212	That's all.
7	40213	MR. WOLSON: So the issue and we
8		are not here again to discuss the Airbus, but it does
9		play a role in your mindset obviously, because having
10		been burned once you were careful after that,
11		obviously.
12	40214	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
13	40215	MR. WOLSON: You would agree with
14		that statement?
15	40216	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
16	4021	But, Mr. Commissioner, the interest
17		again of completeness, may I just say this: I have
18		read often statements coming from authorities here in
19		Ottawa that this particular Commission was granted
20		because, among other things, it is one that I had asked
21		for.
22	40218	That is a completely inaccurate
23		statement.
24	40219	On the 8th of November when I saw the
25		storm clouds rising, sir, for calls for an inquiry, I

1	issued a statement and I said in my statement: If
2	there is going to be a Commission of Inquiry
3	appointed there was no doubt in my mind that one
4	would be it must go back to 1988 and begin in 1988	8
5	with the Airbus matter and take in all of the
6	activities of everyone from prime ministers to
7	lobbyists to journalists that brought about this
8	travesty, and then go on to the end.
9	Now, that certainly would have take	n÷
10	in, sir - certainly would have taken in this question	n
11	of the relationship between Mr. Schreiber and me, but	t
12	that would have been, effectively, a fairly small
13	chapter in a big book, because we would have gotten,	chapter in a big book, because we would have gotten,
14	probably, to the heart of this thing.
15	This, in part, if I may say, sir, w	ıas
16	the subject of the fourth article of the Globe that
17	never appeared.
18	40222 So that was what I believed in, and	l I
19	just wanted to point out to you that every time that
20	statement is made, that Brian Mulroney asked for this	s
21	particular inquiry, it is an inaccurate statement.	I
22	did not, sir. I am happy to be here with you and Mr	•
23	Wolson -
24	40223 Happy is not the right word.
25	Laughter / Rires

1	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:	Let
2	me say that I am here.
3	But when I was asked, my request	. was
4	to get this thing vidé - emptied once and for all	, and
5	I had specifically asked that it go back to 1988	and
6	begin, and put them all in the box - all the prim	.e
7	ministers, all the ministers of justice, all of t	hem,
8	including the journalists, those who had sworn ou	t
9	false information - put them all in there, and th	en
10	have Mr. Wolson interrogate them all, not just me	and
11	Mr. Schreiber.
12	40226 MR. WOLSON: And, you know, fram	nkly,
13	I would be pleased to do that, but that isn't our
14	mandate.
15	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:	I
16	understand.
17	40228 MR. WOLSON: Our mandate is a fo	ocused
18	mandate on the business and financial dealings be	tween
19	Mr. Schreiber and you, and because there is no Ai	rbus
20	dealing - that's your evidence -
21	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:	Yeah.
22	40230 MR. WOLSON: we are focusing,	,
23	then, on the money that you received from Mr.
24	Schreiber.
25	I didn't ask you, and I don't pl	lan to

1	ask you, whether y	ou wanted an inquiry, but I would
2	like you to focus,	if you will, please, sir, on the
3	issues at hand, wh	nich are the issue of the Bear Head
4	matter and the fin	nancial payments in 1993 and 1994.
5	40232	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I am
6	happy to do so, si	r.
7	40233	MR. WOLSON: Good.
8	40234	COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: Mr. Wolson, I
9	would like to ask	a question of Mr. Mulroney, if I
10	might, dealing wit	h the page under Tab 6.
11	40235	Mr. Mulroney, I just want to have you
12	clarify, if you co	ould, this. In that interview, at the
13	first page of the	interview - and you have read it -
14	after you say, "I	got the impression that you plan to
15	write about Karl H	Heinz Schreiber and me - "
16	40236	Do you see that at the top of the
17	page?
18	40237	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes,
19	sir.
20	40238	COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: Further down
21	you say:
22		"So if you write about this it
23		will be a big red herring that
24		will please Stevie Cameron and
25		distress myself because it is a

1	false accusation because there
2	is nothing there, you can be
3	certain of that."
4	40239 A simple question: When you made
5	that statement, were you referring to your relationship
6	with Mr. Schreiber?
7	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I was
8	referring to the fact that the implication floating
9	around in Toronto was that the payments from Mr.
LO	Schreiber for this contract were in some way because of
L1	Airbus.
L2	40241 COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: Okay. That's
L3	fine, thank you.
L4	MR. WOLSON: Okay, let's focus, and
L5	maybe we can get through this in a timely way.
L6	40243 If you would turn up Tab 2 - I am
L7	going to come back to Tab 6, but let's do Tab 2 for
L8	now.
L9	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes,
20	sir.
21	40245 MR. WOLSON: Mr. Kaplan has
22	testified - this is January 9, 2002, Tab 2. He has
23	testified that he first called and spoke with Mr.
24	Lavoie - and you can take it that he talked to Mr.
25	Lavoie on the 4th of January 2002. If you have trouble

1	with that, it's Tab 15, but I don't think you should
2	have trouble with the date that he spoke to Lavoie.
3	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:
4	M'hmm.
5	40247 MR. WOLSON: He then indicates at Tab
6	2 that you called him, and he indicates that he wasn't
7	surprised that you called him, because you called him
8	on the 9th, after his conversation with Lavoie, where
9	you raised this whole issue of the taking of money.
10	You say at the second line of Tab 2:
11	"To the best of my recollection,
12	during my entire life, I have
13	never done anything wrong,
14	unethical or illegal."
15	That's what you tell him. Right?
16	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I
17	don't see the question, sir, there.
18	40251 MR. WOLSON: Oh, I'm sorry. Are you
19	at Tab 2?
20	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I am
21	at Tab 2, yes, and it says, "Interview with B. Mulroney
22	on January 9, 2002."
23	40253 MR. WOLSON: That's right. The first
24	line is, "He called me - "
25	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.

1	40255	MR. WOLSON: meaning you called
2	Mr. Kaplan -
3	40256	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
4	40257	MR. WOLSON: "which did not
5	surprise after my	discussion with Luc Lavoie."
6	40258	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:
7	That's right.
8	40259	MR. WOLSON: The second line:
9		"To the best of my recollection,
10		during my entire life,"
11	40260	this is you talking now:
12		"I have never done anything
13		wrong, unethical or illegal."
14	40261	Right?
15	40262	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes,
16	that's right.
17	40263	MR. WOLSON: And that is consistent
18	with you telling	us the other day of your legal
19	commercial relati	onship with Karlheinz Schreiber.
20	Right?
21	40264	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I
22	told you the trut	h, which is that I have never,
23	knowingly, done a	nything wrong in my entire life.
24	40265	MR. WOLSON: No, I'm not - I wish you
25	would just lister	to my questions -

1	1 40266 THE RIGHT	HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I am
2	listening, sir.
3	3 40267 MR. WOLSON	N: I am making a statement
4	4 that you said the other day	. You said that your
5	5 relationship with Mr. Schre	iber was a legal
6	6 relationship - a legal comm	ercial relationship.
7	7 40268 THE RIGHT	HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: That
8	8 is right.
9	9 40269 MR. WOLSON	N: Okay. You say at the
10	0 bottom of that page:
11	1 "I ca	an also tell you that I have
12	2 decla	ared every cent that I have
13	3 ever	received and I have paid
14	4 all :	income tax on all monies
15	5 owing	J."
16	6 40270 THE RIGHT	HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: That
17	7 is right.
18	8 40271 MR. WOLSON	N: You declared on your
19	9 income tax, for three years	, $37,500 for each of three
20	0 years.
21	1 40272 That's tru	ıe?
22	2 40273 THE RIGHT	HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I
23	3 referred the matter to my t	ax advisors in 1999. They
24	4 resolved the matter with th	e Government of Canada and
25	5 the Government of Quebec, a	nd after their discussions

1	and negotiations, all I was advised of was that the
2	matter had been resolved and that certain monies were
3	to be paid, and the cheques were issued.
4	That was the extent of my involvemen
5	in it.
6	40275 MR. WOLSON: You don't know that you
7	declared $37,500 for each of three years?
8	40276 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I
9	declared whatever the amounts were, sir. I declared
LO	what I was advised by the tax attorneys, and the
L1	cheques were issued, and that was it.
L2	40277 MR. WOLSON: But I am only asking
L3	you -
L4	40278 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I ha
L5	no involvement whatsoever -
L6	40279 MR. WOLSON: I am only asking you
L7	this question: Did you -
L8	I'm sorry, Mr. Pratte is up.
L9	40281 MR. PRATTE: I'm sorry; just to
20	clarify something, Mr. Commissioner.
21	Thank you, Mr. Wolson.
22	The facts are clear that the tax
23	authorities were advised that the payments made
24	totalled $225,000, in total. Ultimately, an agreement
2.5	was reached with the tax authorities apprised of that

1	fact, which i	resulted in amendments to the income tax
2	returns, with	n payments of $37,000 declared for those
3	years.
4	40284	But that was the agreement that was
5	negotiated.	As the witness indicated, he was not
6	involved in t	that.
7	40285	I just want the record to be crystal
8	clear here.	When Mr. Wolson says that the amounts
9	declared were	e $37,500, that is ultimately what the
10	assessment wa	as. No one disputes that. I think we put
11	this in by wa	ay of agreement of facts the other day.
12	40286	COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: That is the
13	amount upon v	which tax was paid.
14	40287	MR. PRATTE: That's correct.
15	40288	COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: Just while we
16	are clarifyir	ng it, let me get this straight.
17	40289	If Mr. Mulroney had earned $75,000
18	and declared	it in 1993, he would have paid tax on
19	$75,000 presi	umably.
20	40290	MR. PRATTE: I assume so.
21	40291	COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: He earned
22	$75,000, or d	declared that he earned $75,000 in '93,
23	'94, '95 - wh	natever the three years were -
24	40292	MR. PRATTE: Right.
25	40293	COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: and ended

1	up, with a voluntary disclosure, paying tax on only
2	half of what he would have paid had he declared it in
3	the year earned?
4	MR. PRATTE: Here we are entering the
5	very treacherous ground that I made my motion about,
6	sir, and I say that because the tax authorities of
7	Canada and Quebec, aware of the amounts - the total of
8	the amounts -
9	40295 COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: I don't
10	disagree with that.
11	40296 MR. PRATTE: followed, as I think
12	the evidence will indicate, a practice that was then
13	prevalent in the Province of Quebec, not knowing that
14	Mr. Mulroney was the person, and applying it, and
15	simply because the years involved were, I think, what
16	they refer to as "prescribed" -
17	40297 COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: Right.
18	MR. PRATTE: then, ultimately,
19	signed on to an agreement where the amounts paid were
20	on $37,500.
21	I just want to be crystal clear here
22	that the tax authorities were fully aware of the total
23	received by the taxpayer - and we are talking about 22!
24	because that's what the taxpayer said - and the tax
25	authorities - in fact, Mr. Mulroney was unaware, as he

1	has indicated, because he didn't get involved at all i
2	the negotiations - followed the practice that was
3	prevalent in the Province of Quebec to everybody.
4	I just want to make sure there is no
5	innuendo here that the taxes were not paid, as was
6	required under the policy.
7	40301 COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: I did not see
8	any innuendo in the question that Mr. Wolson asked.
9	MR. PRATTE: Very well, then. I may
10	be oversensitive, for the reasons we have discussed
11	before, and if there was no innuendo, I gather there
12	can't be one now.
13	40303 MR. WOLSON: My question - and I am
14	going to get to the tax matters in some detail, and we
15	will deal with them in due course. My question of the
16	witness was: Were you aware that, for each of three
17	years, you declared $37,500?
18	That's my only question.
19	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: No, I
20	was simply aware, having given the information to -
21	given my instructions to the tax advisors, they
22	resolved it and told me that it had been resolved to
23	the satisfaction of the tax authorities of Canada and
24	the Government of Quebec, and that the amounts - X, Y
25	and ${ t Z}$ - were to be paid, and that's what took place.

1	40306 MR. WOLSON: All right. So you had
2	no knowledge of the fact that the declaration was for
3	not $75,000 a year, but $37,500.
4	You had no knowledge of that.
5	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: No, I
6	had no knowledge of anything in that regard.
7	40309 MR. WOLSON: When you joined your law
8	firm, Ogilvy Renault, you had an independent consulting
9	practice apart from your law practice.
10	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: That
11	is right.
12	40311 MR. WOLSON: If you would turn to Tab
13	3, please, this is December 4, 2002 -
14	Are you there, sir?
15	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes,
16	I am.
17	40314 MR. WOLSON: If you turn the page to
18	the second page, it says at the bottom of the page:
19	"He told me the following,"
20	40315 meaning that you told Mr. Kaplan
21	the following:
22	"when he joined Ogilvy Renault
23	he made it clear that he would
24	have an independent
25	international consulting

1		practice. He has had such a
2		practice. The names of his
3		clients are confidential and
4		will not be released without
5		their permission."
6	40316	All of that is correct so far?
7	40317	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:
8	That's right.
9	40318	MR. WOLSON: And that is no more or
10	less than you ha	ve said already in your evidence.
11	40319	That's a true statement.
12	40320	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: That
13	is a true statem	ent.
14	40321	MR. WOLSON: All right. And it says:
15		"If, and he emphasized the word
16		if, a client paid him in
17		cash"
18	40322	We are now on page 3:
19		"that would be reflected in
20		the books of the company and all
21		taxes have been paid, all income
22		declared."
23	40323	Is this transaction with Mr.
24	Schreiber on the	books of your company, Cansult?
25	40324	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: As it

1	turns out, it is not, sir. I believed it was at the
2	time, and this conversation, I think, took place
3	approximately ten years later, and that was an
4	inadvertently inaccurate statement on my part.
5	Everything else in the quotations is fully accurate,
6	but that is not.
7	40325 MR. WOLSON: And Cansult is the name
8	of your company.
9	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:
10	That's right, yes, sir.
11	40327 MR. WOLSON: C-A-N-S-U-L-T, or
12	something like that?
13	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:
14	That's right.
15	40329 MR. WOLSON: When did you find out
16	about the Britan account?
17	40330 When did you know of the existence of
18	such an account?
19	40331 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I
20	think, Mr. Wolson, that I first heard of the Britan
21	account in 1999. I believe that to be true. And I
22	found out about it, I think, because apparently Philip
23	Mathias, in the National Post, wrote a story the
24	morning that the fifth estate was going to air with an
25	accuration that said that Britan was Brian and that I

1		would have been paid out of this particular account.
2	40332	I knew nothing about it, but I did
3		find out - I did see that that very day Mr. Edward
4		Greenspan, Mr. Schreiber's lawyer, wrote to the fifth
5		estate and said - and I repeat this in paraphrase: I
6		understand that you are going to air tonight with a
7		program that says Britan is Brian. If that is so, and
8		you do that, you will be committing a grave error.
9		This is a lie. It would do a great disservice to Mr.
10		Mulroney. Mr. Mulroney has nothing to do with Britan,
11		and I put you on notice right now, as Mr. Schreiber's
12		attorney, that this is the case. Britan is not Brian,
13		and to suggest that is wrong.
14	40333	MR. WOLSON: When did you find out,
15		though, that Britan was Brian - Brian Mulroney?
16	40334	Do you have a time when you found
17		that out?
18	40335	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I
19		don't believe that Britan ever was Brian. I knew
20		nothing about it whatsoever.
21	40336	MR. WOLSON: So you never knew it.
22		You only knew what Mr. Greenspan had said, you had no
23		independent thought of it.
24	40337	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: When
25		there was testimony before you, sir, then Mr. Schreibe

1	appeared and completely repudiated what his lawyer had
2	written in 1999, and he appeared before the
3	parliamentary committee and before you and said the
4	exact opposite, that Britan was Brian.
5	But, look, no one will be surprised
6	by Mr. Schreiber reversing his testimony and saying
7	whatever is convenient, because at this point in time
8	the object of the entire exercise was for him to avoid
9	extradition.
10	40339 MR. WOLSON: But, Mr. Mulroney, I am
11	only asking you a specific question, and if you could
12	focus on my question -
13	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I
14	have answered your question.
15	40341 MR. WOLSON: Did you ever know that
16	Britan wasn't Brian?
17	Did you ever know that?
18	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I
19	think I have told you that I never did.
20	MR. WOLSON: Okay, thank you.
21	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: And
22	don't to this day.
23	40346 MR. WOLSON: All right.
24	40347 Mr. Kaplan testified and said the
25	following, which is in his book at page 161:

1	"Mulroney's unrelenting campaign
2	to persuade me not to publish
3	the story about the money for
4	one reason only - to protect his
5	reputation - was brutal,
6	heavy-handed and extremely
7	wearing."
8	Were you aware of that comment by Mr.
9	Kaplan?
LO	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: My,
L1	my, my, what a sensitive soul. He hasn't spent much
L2	time in the House of Commons, I'll tell you that, or
L3	anywhere else.
L4	We had infrequent conversations, as
L5	you know, and I have already acknowledged that, for the
L6	reasons I have explained, I sought to persuade him not
L 7	to convey that information. Although, I must repeat,
L8	Mr. Wolson, that when he asked me the direct question
L9	for publication in the Globe, I told him the truth. I
20	didn't deny anything, I told him the truth.
21	40351 MR. WOLSON: He testified that you
22	had called him on a number of occasions, some of which
23	he has made notes of, others that he hasn't, in and
24	around a month or so leading up to the November 10th
25	issue, when he wrote about you in the Globe and Mail -

1	that you had called him, he said, in an unrelenting
2	campaign - and I am not going to compare it to the
3	House of Commons, I have seen the activities there.
4	They are rather dramatic.
5	Let's leave the House out, because
6	that's a place for only certain people.
7	In this room here, I ask you: Did
8	you call Mr. Kaplan on a number of occasions prior to
9	the November 10th date, when the article appeared in
10	the paper - did you call him attempting to convince him
11	not to write about the legal commercial relationship
12	that you had with Mr. Schreiber?
13	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I
14	didn't - I have no recollection of calling him for tha
15	specific objective. As you can see from the documents
16	that you have filed, much of the conversations are
17	redacted, and we were in the process - he would call me
18	from time to time. When I had a chance I would call
19	him. Various subjects in which he was interested would
20	come up, in various conversations - about his book and
21	the areas of interest that he wanted to talk about, and
22	obviously this was one of them.
23	But I think I can tell you that (a)
24	that question by Mr. Kaplan was never asked in these
25	instances, but when he did ask me the question - and I

1 think it was in Toronto. I think we finally met face-to-face on this, and he asked me the question, and 2 I told him the truth. 3 MR. WOLSON: I am still going to ask 40356 4 5 you, did you phone him a number of times, as he has said, in an attempt to convince him not to publish the 6 story that he was going to publish about you receiving 7 8 cash payments from Mr. Schreiber? 40357 Did you do that? 9 40358 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: 10 11 think, sir, that the manner in which that is put is 12 inaccurate. If you asked me: Did I have conversations 13 with him? Yes, sir; I think, invariably, in response to calls or e-mails that he sent to me. 14 I would then call him back in the 15 40359 16 evening, one time - when I had some time, I would return his telephone calls, and we would have a pretty 17 18 open conversation, yes. 19 40360 I don't deny that at all. 20 40361 MR. WOLSON: Okay. At page 1814 of his testimony, which was the 23rd of April '09 -21 22 40362 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Do I 23 have that, sir? 40363 MR. WOLSON: You may or may not have 24 his testimony, but let me read four lines to you. 25

1	40364	I said to him at line 4 of page 1814:
2		"And in terms of your receiving
3		a number of calls from him, can
4		you tell the Commissioner the
5		nature of those calls in a
6		general way regarding your
7		publishing this story?"
8	40365	Mr. Kaplan then testifies:
9		"Mr. Mulroney did not want the
10		story about the cash payments to
11		become public and encouraged me
12		on a number of occasions not to
13		report on that."
14	40366	Is that an accurate statement by Mr.
15	Kaplan, as he	e testified before this Commission of
16	Inquiry?
17	40367	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I
18	don't think t	chat's an unfair statement, sir -
19	40368	MR. WOLSON: Okay, thank you.
20	40369	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: in
21	the context of	of precisely what I have told you.
22	40370	MR. WOLSON: All right.
23	40371	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I
24	wouldn't want	t him or me to convey the impression that
25	he called me	specifically to talk about that, or I did

1	t	the same.
2	40372	We had general conversations. Every
3	t	time that he talked - he would save up the questions
4	t	that he wanted to deal with in the course of a
5	(	conversation, he would call me, my office would tell
6	ŀ	nim that I could get back tonight, or I'm in Latin
7	I	America and I will get back next week, or whatever, and
8	V	we would have a fairly general conversation. And,
9	ι	unquestionably, that matter came up in that regard, but
10	1	not beyond that.
11	40373	MR. WOLSON: Now, would you agree
12	V	with me that by 2003 things had calmed quite a bit from
13	t	the time of your LOR and the lawsuit that followed?
14	40374	Would that be a fair statement?
15	40375	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: It
16	Ţ	was more calm, yes, sir.
17	40376	MR. WOLSON: I had asked you about
18	7	your testimony at the discovery on the lawsuit in
19	ľ	Montreal, and I had suggested to you that if the news
20	C	of a financial - a legal financial relationship between
21	7	you and Schreiber had come out at that inquiry, in that
22	I	poisoned atmosphere, that it would add fuel to an
23	ć	already raging fire.
24	40377	Would that be a fair statement?
25	10378	THE DICHT HON DOINN MILLDONEY. Vac

you said that, sir. 1 2 40379 MR. WOLSON: And do you agree with 3 that statement? THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I 40380 4 5 indicated, I think, in response - (a) I agree with what you said, but I think, in response to that particular 6 question, I indicated, as well, that we had already 7 8 offered to the Government of Canada all of the - give them all of the information -9 MR. WOLSON: Yes, we heard that. 10 40381 11 40382 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: -and they turned us down. 12 13 40383 MR. WOLSON: Okay. Then, let me ask you this. Now, in 2003, with the climate being a lot 14 better than it was in and around the time of the LOR -15 16 40384 You would agree with that; true? THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I 17 40385 18 think that's a fair statement. 19 40386 MR. WOLSON: If the matter came out that you took cash payments from Karlheinz Schreiber in 20 '03 - if the matter had come out in '03 - that would 21 22 have, I suppose, added to your anxiety. Would that be a fair statement? 23 40387 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes, 24 40388 25 that's a fair statement. But the truth of the matter is that Mr. Lavoie, my friend and advisor, was right. 1 Inasmuch as this was an innocent transaction, I would 2 3 have been well served by following his advice and putting it out myself. 4 It was an innocent transaction. 5 40389 There was nothing wrong with it. It was legal. It was 6 above board. I did the work for it, I was paid for it, 7 8 and I declared taxes on it. 40390 Moreover, we had a statement from the Commissioner of the RCMP, at that point, saying that I 10 11 was - and I am paraphrasing - completely innocent of any of these accusations. 12 13 40391 MR. WOLSON: And you and I would agree that hindsight has perfect vision -14 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yeah, 15 40392 16 that's right. That's exactly right. 17 40393 MR. WOLSON: -- and I won't say more 18 than that, but turn to Tab 16, if you will, please. 19 40394 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes, sir. 20 40395 MR. WOLSON: Tab 16 is an evening 21 22 that Mr. Lavoie - or, at least, part of an evening -23 had with Mr. Kaplan. 24 40396 Would you turn to the second page. 25 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes, 40397

1	sir.
2	40398	MR. WOLSON: Mr. Lavoie is talking
3	now, according	to Mr. Kaplan, and he says:
4		"He told me that Mulroney was so
5		afraid of this information
6		coming out that he panicked and
7		that explains why he kept it
8		secret."
9	40399	Is that a fair statement?
10	40400	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I
11	assume he is re	ferring to the original years, back
12	then. I don't	know the context here, sir.
13	40401	MR. WOLSON: All right. Well, he
14	says, "He told	me that Mulroney was so afraid of this
15	information com	ing out," and the information was the
16	taking of cash.
17	40402	As a matter of fact, you can go back
18	a page - and I	don't know whether I need to read this
19	on the record,	you have it there -
20	40403	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: It's
21	March 8th, '06?
22	40404	MR. WOLSON: March 8th, '06, sir,
23	yeah.
24	40405	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yeah.
25	40406	MR. WOLSON: And he says:

1	"However, he told me both in the
2	middle of the dinner and at the
3	end of the evening that he was."
4	This is now Lavoie speaking -
5	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
6	40409 MR. WOLSON: that he was upset.
7	40410 He uses the words "pissed off" to
8	find out about the cash, but didn't take it personally.
9	I am not looking for your comment on
10	that, but the next page:
11	"He told me that Mulroney was so
12	afraid of this information
13	coming out that he panicked and
14	that explains why he kept it
15	secret. that no one could care
16	less today even if the story
17	came out about the voluntary
18	declaration."
19	So he is obviously talking about the
20	money, the cash here.
21	Is that a correct statement, did you
22	panic?
23	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: No,
24	of course - I didn't panic. I think that's probably an
25	infelicitous turn of phrase, but I - I certainly didn't panic, but, as I have explained to you, my strong 1 preference would have been that this matter remain 2 3 private. Look, it was a private matter, in the 40415 4 5 private sector, between two private individuals, after I left office, without a nickel of public funds 6 involved at all. I was interested, as you would be, 7 8 sir, in keeping a private transaction private, that's all. 9 MR. WOLSON: All right. 10 40416 11 40417 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: That was my situation and my mindset at the time. 12 13 40418 MR. WOLSON: Let's turn to Tab 5, if you will, please. 14 Tab 5 is an interview with you, on 15 40419 the 5th of October 2003. 16 17 40420 I would ask you to turn to the third 18 page, if you would, please. 40421 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes. 19 40422 MR. WOLSON: If you turn to the last 20 question on the page - I will read it to you. 21 22 40423 Are you at page 3, where it says, "Q. 23 The Mathias report."? 40424 Are you there? 24 25 40425 It's the last question on the third

1	page.
2	40426	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
3	40427	MR. WOLSON: All right.
4		"The Mathias report indicates
5		that Karl Heinz Schreiber gave
6		you money, that is not
7		defamatory there is nothing for
8		him to worry about in a
9		courtroom."
10	40428	Your answer - you are flipping the
11	page back.	Are you with me?
12	40429	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: The
13	answer is -
14	40430	MR. WOLSON: Your answer is:
15		"What Mathias seems to know is
16		mostly false. It is a much
17		larger story. The money came to
18		Britan. This money was not for
19		me. I know who Britan was. Now
20		there is a big story for you.
21		For the moment it is not
22		relevant to my role but I know
23		that I wasn't Britan and I know
24		who Britan was."
25	40431	Is that a true statement?

1	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:
2	Absolutely.
3	40433 MR. WOLSON: Who was Britan?
4	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:
5	Britan - well, let's dissect this. "What Mathias seems
6	to know is mostly false. It is."
7	40435 MR. WOLSON: Now, if you would just
8	stop there, what Mathias is purporting is that you
9	received $300,000 from Schreiber.
10	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: From
11	a Britan account.
12	40437 MR. WOLSON: Yes.
13	40438 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: And
14	what I knew then, since 1999 - and this was taking
15	place, I think, in 2003 - what I knew was Mr.
16	Greenspan's letter to the fifth estate, saying very
17	firmly and categorically: Britan is not Brian.
18	Inasmuch as no one had ever raised
19	the word "Britan" with me, I just assumed that Mr.
20	Greenspan, acting on instructions from his client, and
21	committing this to writing, was telling the truth. And
22	I'm sure he was, the truth as he was told by Mr.
23	Schreiber.
24	So that's what I knew about Britan.
25	I knew that it was not me.

1	40441 MR. WOLSON: Who was it?
2	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I was
3	told that Britan was simply Breton, B-R-E-T-O-N, and
4	that the matter was set aside for a leading figure in
5	Breton, in Cape Breton.
6	40443 MR. WOLSON: Well, let's
7	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: And
8	inasmuch
9	40445 MR. WOLSON: Yes?
10	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:
11	Inasmuch as and it was indicated to me who that
12	leading political figure might be. But inasmuch as
13	there has been so much untruths about Britan and about
14	me, I am not about to trample on his reputation the way
15	mine has been trampled upon.
16	40447 MR. WOLSON: All right. Let's in
17	fact dissect this.
18	The question that he asks you:
19	"The Mathias report indicates
20	that Karl Heinz Schreiber gave
21	you money"
22	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: M'hm.
23	40450 MR. WOLSON:
24	" that is not defamatory"
25	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: M'hm.

1	40452	MR. WOLSON:
2		" there is nothing for him to
3		worry about in a courtroom."
4	40453	So what he is saying basically in his
5	question is (a)	you got money
6	40454	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: M'hm.
7	40455	MR. WOLSON: and (b) it's a legal
8	transaction.
9	40456	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: M'hm.
10	40457	MR. WOLSON: L-E-G-A-L, legal
11	transaction.
12	40458	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
13	40459	MR. WOLSON: That is basically what
14	he is saying; rig	ght?
15	40460	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: He
16	appears to be say	ying that, yes.
17	40461	MR. WOLSON: You answer:
18		"What Mathias seems to know is
19		mostly false."
20	40462	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: M'hm.
21	40463	MR. WOLSON:
22		"It is a much larger story."
23	40464	So let's stop there. What he knows
24	is false.
25	40465	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.

1	40466 MR. WOLSON: You did get money, did
2	you not?
3	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Oh,
4	but Mathias knew this and spoke about this and prepared
5	a draft for the National Post three or four years
6	earlier. There was nothing new in this.
7	40468 MR. WOLSON: Well, it's new because
8	it hadn't been published and it wasn't the story out in
9	the public venue.
10	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: It
11	perhaps wasn't published, but it was rather widely
12	known in certain circles in Toronto, yes.
13	40470 MR. WOLSON: Did you know, by the
14	way, in 2001 that Mathias had prepared a story which
15	did not get published?
16	Did you know that; that there had
17	been a story out there that you received cash payments
18	from Karlheinz Schreiber?
19	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I did
20	not know it then. I knew it after. I was told after.
21	40473 MR. WOLSON: After when?
22	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Oh, I
23	suppose a year or two later.
24	40475 MR. WOLSON: All right, but let's
25	then stick to this answer.

1	"What Mathias seems to know is
2	mostly false."
3	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
4	40477 MR. WOLSON: And what he knows, what
5	he has suggested, was you got money from Schreiber.
6	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: No.
7	40479 MR. WOLSON: That is in the question.
8	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: No.
9	No, no. What he is suggesting Mathias knew what you
10	have just said three years earlier.
11	40481 What Mathias the thrust of
12	Mathias' statement is that Britan was Brian, as I
13	understood it, as I understood the article.
14	I never saw the article because it
15	was never published, but Mathias used to have an
16	association with the fifth estate. I think he worked
17	there for a number of years. And Phil Mathias, who was
18	a good journalist, apparently prepared this article in
19	which the thrust, the main thrust of which was that
20	this money came from kind of like a secret account
21	called Britan and that had been dealt with, as I have
22	described, by Mr. Greenspan.
23	That was to be the main thrust and
24	indeed it turned out to be the thrust of one of the
25	many programs by the fifth estate.

1	40484	MR. WOLSON: Mr. Mulroney, the main
2	thrust I woul	d suggest to you, sir, is that you got
3	money from Sc	hreiber. That is the main thrust.
4	40485	Irrespective of whether it comes from
5	Britan, Breto	on, Brian, whomever it comes from, the main
6	thrust and yo	our big concern, I would suggest to you, is
7	you didn't wa	nt it to be made public that you got money
8	from Schreibe	er.
9	40486	Is that not a correct statement?
10	40487	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Well,
11	how could you	say that, sir, when this interview
12	appears to ha	we taken place on the 5th of October, the
13	5th of Octobe	er 2003, and as I recollect that was five
14	days before M	r. Kaplan published his story
15	40488	MR. WOLSON: No. He published it on
16	the 10th of N	Tovember.
17	40489	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:
18	Fifteen days	or a month and a half, whatever it was.
19	40490	And certainly I acknowledge that in
20	my conversati	on with him, that indeed I had received
21	the money and	I I explained the circumstances.
22	40491	I just fail to see, sir maybe I'm
23	wrong the	mystery of this. I would have
24	acknowledged	that.
25	40492	If you read the article by

Mr. Kaplan, you will see an acknowledgment by me. I 1 didn't deny it. I never fudged the issue. I said yes. 2 3 When he asked me the question, I gave him the answer. 40493 MR. WOLSON: So the answer that you 4 have here: 5 "What Mathias seems to know is 6 mostly false." 7 8 40494 And what Mathias knew was you got $300,000. Is that your response, that it is false? 9 40495 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Well, 10 11 (a), that's false, I didn't get $300,000. And Mathias' main thrust was that it came from the Britan account 12 13 and the Schreiber parties have already denied that at this point in time. 14 MR. WOLSON: Okay. 15 40496 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: 16 40497 all I'm saying, sir, is that as reported to me, the 17 18 Mathias article is largely false. That's all I'm 19 saying. 20 40498 But when Mr. Kaplan asks me the specific question, I tell him the truth. 21 22 40499 MR. WOLSON: Well, let's turn up the 23 tab to Tab 6, please. 40500 Tab 6 is something that we have 24 covered in part and it is October 12, 2003. 25

1	40501	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: M'hm.
2	40502	MR. WOLSON: Are you there?
3	40503	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes,
4	sir.
5	40504	MR. WOLSON: Turn one page in to the
6	second page.
7	40505	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: M'hm.
8	40506	MR. WOLSON: It starts off with
9	"Question from B	rian Mulroney".
10	40507	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: M'hm.
11	40508	MR. WOLSON: Are you on that page?
12	40509	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
13	40510	MR. WOLSON: Okay. Let's look at the
14	last question on	the page:
15		"Question from W.K.: Well,
16		there are two issues here."
17	40511	Are you with me on this, sir?
18	40512	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
19	40513	MR. WOLSON:
20		"The first is that it is said
21		that Karl Heinz Schreiber paid
22		you $300,000 on four separate
23		occasions and the second issue
24
27		is on the transcript."

1	from the discover	TY.
2	40515	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
3	40516	MR. WOLSON: You understand that?
4	40517	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: M'hm.
5	40518	MR. WOLSON:
6		"You don't indicate a commercial
7		relationship with Schreiber."
8	40519	Your answer:
9		"All that is false. His reading
10		of it might give him that
11		impression but the transcript is
12		fine."
13	40520	So you are talking about the
14	transcript of the	e discovery there; right?
15	40521	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
16	40522	MR. WOLSON: Then you say:
17		"Regarding the money, I can tell
18		you that there would be enough
19		inaccuracy in what was just said
20		to maintain a lawsuit."
21	40523	Right?
22	40524	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
23	40525	MR. WOLSON: What is the inaccuracy:
24	that instead of $	3300,000, it was $225,000; and instead
25	of four times, it	was three times?

1	40526	Is that the inaccuracy?
2	40527	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:
3		That's the beginning of it. The context of it, the
4		suggestions that were floating about was that there was
5		something untoward in this.
6	40528	And I should tell you that when
7		Mr. Kaplan wrote his articles, after he had finished
8		his complete analysis, he, in fairness to him, stated
9		that the amount was less than $300,000; that it was a
10		proper commercial relationship; that I had done the
11		work for the money; and that taxes had been paid on the
12		amounts received.
13	40529	This was all contained and and if
14		I may say with regard to the second point, sir, that he
15		raises, talking about the transcript, Mr. Kaplan
16		appears to have read this many, many times and one of
17		his principal conclusions in that article was that in
18		the hundreds of questions that the government lawyers
19		put to Mr. Mulroney, not one of them asked him whether
20		he had had a commercial transaction with Mr. Mulroney.
21	40530	And he then concluded I have
22		examined this seven ways to Sunday, and I have
23		concluded that there was no dishonesty or perjury of
24		any kind in his testimony.
25	40531	That is my recollection of the

1	article.
2	40532 MR. WOLSON: Well, first of all,
3	Mr. Mulroney, Mr. Kaplan, in the previous tab we looked
4	at, did not allege any legal transaction. He did not
5	allege that, nor is he alleging it here at Tab 6.
6	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: That
7	is right, sir.
8	MR. WOLSON: That is the first thing.
9	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I
10	acknowledge that.
11	40536 MR. WOLSON: All right.
12	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Sure.
13	40538 MR. WOLSON: Secondly, I want you to
14	look carefully at the question from Kaplan:
15	"Well, there are two issues
16	here. The first is that it is
17	said that Karl Heinz Schreiber
18	paid you $300,000 on four
19	separate occasions and the
20	second issue is on the
21	transcript. You don't indicate
22	a commercial relationship with
23	Schreiber."
24	Do you have that question?
25	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I do,

1	yes.
2	40541	MR. WOLSON: Okay. You start off on
3	the next page tel	lling him that "the transcript is
4	fine". I am not	going to press you right now on that.
5	40542	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes,
6	m'hm.
7	40543	MR. WOLSON: I'm not going to probe
8	that right now.
9	40544	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: M'hm.
10	40545	MR. WOLSON: We have done that
11	before. We don't	have to revisit that territory.
12	40546	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: No.
13	40547	MR. WOLSON:
14		"Regarding the money, I can tell
15		you that there would be enough
16		inaccuracy in what was just said
17		to maintain a lawsuit."
18	40548	And then you say, and we agree on
19	this:
20		"I will tell you what I have
21		told you before, everything I
22		have done is completely honest
23		and above board."
24	40549	Right?
25	40550	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:

1	"Before, during and after
2	political life."
3	40551 Yes, sir.
4	40552 MR. WOLSON: Yes. So what I'm
5	interested in is the money.
6	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: M'hm.
7	40554 MR. WOLSON: So he is basically and
8	has said to you, this is an honest, legal relationship,
9	of which you agree that he has told you that?
10	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
11	40556 MR. WOLSON: So what are you going to
12	make a lawsuit about?
13	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Well,
14	the same thing I made a lawsuit of when Mr. Schreiber
15	sued me in Toronto on this kind of issue for the funds
16	and said the amount now was $545,000.
17	40558 MR. WOLSON: No, this is $300,000.
18	So what is the lawsuit going to be?
19	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: This
20	is what the amount was inaccurate. He was thrown
21	out of court in Toronto and he tried again in Montréal,
22	and he had to withdraw his action in regard to the
23	amounts of money and services rendered in Montréal. He
24	lost in both provinces.
25	40560 All I'm saying I appear to be

1	saying here, because I don't have the complete context
2	of everything question from Kaplan:
3	"Well, there are two issues
4	here. The first is that it is
5	said that Karl Heinz Schreiber
6	paid you $3,000(sic) on four
7	separate occasions"
8	40561 MR. WOLSON: $300,000.
9	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:
10	Excuse me.
11	" $300,000 on four separate
12	occasions and the second issue
13	is on the transcript."
14	The first statement is false.
15	40564 MR. WOLSON: We are not going to the
16	transcript again.
17	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: No,
18	no. No, I'm not
19	40566 MR. WOLSON: I'm only interested in
20	the $300,000.
21	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:
22	That's what I'm talking about.
23	40568 MR. WOLSON: Yes?
24	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I
25	said the first statement is false. He did not pay me

1	$300,000 and he did not pay me on four separate
2	occasions.
3	40570 And it was not included at that time
4	what subsequently appeared in the paper, that it was ar
5	entirely normal contract and above board.
6	40571 COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: Mr.
7	Mulroney?
8	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes,
9	sir.
10	40573 COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: Mr. Wolson
11	asked that specific question about six questions ago,
12	whether the inaccuracy to which you alluded was the
13	$300,000 and the four payments.
14	Is that the inaccuracy to which you
15	refer?
16	40575 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: That
17	is the principal inaccuracy.
18	But you see, My Lord, I am at
19	somewhat of a disadvantage because I don't have the
20	context of the entire discussion that took place.
21	But in regard to that, yes.
22	40578 COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: Okay.
23	40579 MR. WOLSON: With due respect, you
24	are not admitting you got paid any money. You are
25	saying there is enough inaccuracy in the allegation

that you got $300,000 that you are prepared to issue a 1 lawsuit. You are not saying that you got money. 2 You didn't say: You know, Kaplan, I 3 40580 got $225,000, not $300,000. You didn't tell him that? 4 40581 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: 5 did he then get my statement, my acknowledgment to him 6 that indeed I was paid, that he put in the newspaper on 7 8 November 10th, as you say? 40582 MR. WOLSON: He put it in the newspaper based on the fact that he had a story from 10 11 Mathias that you didn't reject, but I'll get --THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Are 12 40583 13 you sure of that? MR. WOLSON: Well, we are going to 14 40584 get to that article and we will deal with that and 15 dissect it --16 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes. 17 40585 18 Yes, please. 19 40586 MR. WOLSON: -- up ways --20 40587 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Seven 21 ways to Sunday. 22 40588 MR. WOLSON: -- every which way to 23 Sunday. THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Let's 24 40589 do that. 25

1	40590	COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: Just a
2	moment, please,	gentlemen.
3	40591	Mr. Pratte?
4	40592	MR. PRATTE: I just want again,
5	I'm sorry to in	terrupt Mr. Wolson, but since we are
6	talking about w	hat Mr. Kaplan said or testified when he
7	was here, my re	ecollection of his evidence was crystal
8	clear: that Mr	. Mulroney never denied to him and I
9	think he told m	ne this explicitly when it was put to
10	him that the	ere was a commercial relationship.
11	40593	So I'm slightly puzzled at this line
12	of questioning	of Mr. Wolson.
13	40594	Mr. Kaplan, whose notes these are,
14	who testified b	pefore you, never intimated that when
15	confronted with	this information Mr. Mulroney attempted
16	to deny that.
17	40595	What he did say, as Mr. Wolson
18	brought out, is	s that Mr. Mulroney then tried to
19	persuade him no	et to publish it for the reasons.
20	40596	But the existence of the transaction,
21	he made it crys	stal clear that that was never denied by
22	Mr. Mulroney or	anyone else on his behalf.
23	40597	COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: Thank you.
24	40598	Mr. Wolson?
25	40599	MR. WOLSON: Well, I am looking at

1	Tab 6 where he says at the bottom of the second page:
2	"Well, there are two issues
3	here. The first is that it is
4	said that Karl Heinz Schreiber
5	paid you $300,000 on four
6	separate occasions and the
7	second issue is on the
8	transcript."
9	40600 What you respond to him is there is
10	inaccuracy, enough for a lawsuit. You didn't say to
11	him: No, Mr. Kaplan, it was $225,000, not $300,000,
12	and it wasn't on four occasions, but three.
13	40601 MR. PRATTE: Mr. Commissioner, I have
14	a problem here.
15	40602 Mr. Kaplan was here, called as a
16	witness for the Commission. We are now trying to
17	interpret his notes made at the time. We don't have
18	the context. I appreciate that that doesn't make them
19	worthless, by any stretch of the imagination, but in my
20	respectful submission, since we are trying to divine
21	what Mr. Kaplan may have said or thought or understood
22	from Mr. Mulroney, he should have been asked then, if
23	that was a concern: Was Mr. Mulroney did you
24	understand him to try to deny the existence of a
25	relationship?

1	40603 He, when he was here, Mr. Kaplan made
2	it crystal clear that at no time Mr. Mulroney did he
3	try to deny that there was a commercial relationship.
4	He disputed the amounts. And Mr. Kaplan wasn't asked:
5	Put yourself back on that day; did you understand
6	Mr. Mulroney to deny the relationship?
7	So now the witness is being asked in
8	effect, and the question suggests, that he may have
9	tried to mislead Mr. Kaplan into thinking there was no
10	commercial relationship.
11	We can't divine that from the notes
12	when the person who made the notes said the opposite.
13	40606 COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: Mr.
14	Wolson?
15	40607 MR. WOLSON: Well, you know,
16	Mr. Kaplan was a witness here. I went through all of
17	these conversations with Mr. Kaplan. I don't recall
18	one question of Mr. Pratte of Mr. Kaplan on specific
19	conversations.
20	I am asking him because I think I
21	must ask Mr. Mulroney. He was a party to the
22	conversation.
23	I am putting the conversation that
24	Mr. Kaplan has noted and I am asking him about the
25	convergation If I didn!t do that I would in my

1	view, be in error. It is my duty, in fairness to this
2	witness, that I should put to him comments that
3	Mr. Kaplan has made and get the witness' position on
4	it. And that's what I'm doing.
5	40610 MR. PRATTE: That I don't dispute,
6	Mr. Commissioner, and I don't want to prolong this.
7	40611 All I'm saying is of course he can
8	cross-examine or ask questions of Mr. Mulroney to the
9	best of his recollection. But let us remember where
10	this is coming from.
11	And when the author of those notes
12	said explicitly that it was never denied, that's all
13	I'm pointing out. So to try to divine from those notes
14	something that the author apparently never divined,
15	because he made it crystal clear, in answer to one of
16	my questions.
17	But beyond that I have made my
18	point. I will not repeat it. Beyond that, I have no
19	objection to Mr. Wolson asking questions of the witness
20	in the full context.
21	40614 MR. WOLSON: Did you ask Mr. Kaplan
22	or did you tell Mr. Kaplan: Look at, Bill and I'm
23	assuming you called him Bill. You had a relationship
24	with him.

25 40615

THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: M'hm.

1	40616 MR. WOLSON: He met with you many
2	times. Would that be correct, sir?
3	You would call him by his first name?
4	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:
5	That's right.
6	40619 MR. WOLSON: All right. Did you say
7	to him: Bill, you know, it wasn't $300,000. It was
8	$225,000 and on three occasions.
9	Did you tell him that at this time
10	back on October 12, 2003 and the document that I read
11	to you?
12	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I
13	must have told him that, sir, at a given point in time,
14	because that's what he put in the paper.
15	40622 MR. WOLSON: Okay. You didn't say
16	that here, though.
17	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I
18	have no recollection of that.
19	I should point out to you, you know,
20	we are on the second page here
21	40625 MR. WOLSON: Yes. Sure.
22	40626 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: in
23	terms of there are two issues here, Schreiber and the
24	transcript.
25	My concern was then, as I have

1	explained to you	and go back one page. Kaplan's
2	notes.
3	40628	On the first page on the meeting on
4	October 12, 2003,	he says:
5		"The second thing I was looking
6		for was anything relating to
7		Britan."
8	40629	That was one of the major points of
9	that conversation	and, as I have tried to tell you, I
10	didn't have a clue	e about Britan and I was of the view
11	that anything a	all of these questions relating
12	thereto were false	e. But he came in, as I remember,
13	with a view that t	the denunciation of Mr. Greenspan of
14	the truthfulness of	of that statement was still in play,
15	and I was simply s	saying you can ask me all the
16	questions you want	about Britan. I don't have a clue
17	about Britan. I h	nave no idea.
18	40630	All I can tell you, as I did when he
19	ultimately asked r	me the specific question, I did not
20	deny that I had a	relationship with him. I did not
21	deny that the amou	unt was less than $300,000, that work
22	was done and that	taxes were paid on it.
23	40631	I think if you check the story, you
24	will see that.
25	40632	MR. WOLSON: So your response, then,

1	is that it wasn't about $300,000 being paid from
2	Schreiber to you. It was about the source of the
3	funds, Britan, and not the monetary payment.
4	Is that your response?
5	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Look,
6	he is giving me a statement directly coming from an
7	interview that he had with Mr. Schreiber. These are
8	Schreiber's at that point his two arguments, trying
9	to do me damage.
10	He is putting out the word that it
11	was $300,000 and that there was something wrong with m
12	transcript. We have heard testimony to that effect.
13	Both of those were false. Both of
14	those statements were wrong. That's all I'm telling
15	you.
16	40637 MR. WOLSON: So you took this
17	statement to be more about the source than the fact
18	that it was money paid?
19	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: He
20	didn't ask me if money was paid. He began by stating,
21	as he says:
22	"Question from W.K.: Well,
23	there are two issues here. The
24	first is that it is said that
25	Karl Heinz Schreiber paid you

1		$300,000 on four separate
2		occasions and the second issue
3		is on the transcript."
4	40639	Both of those statements are false.
5	That is all I wa	s saying.
6	40640	MR. WOLSON: Could you go to Tab 7,
7	please. Three back from the end, you will see it has a
8	number 7 on top.
9	40641	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes,
10	sir.
11	40642	MR. WOLSON: Mr. Kaplan says to you:
12		"I accept that what happened
13		between you and Schreiber was
14		not unlawful."
15	40643	Do you see that at the bottom of page
16	7?
17	40644	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
18	40645	Excuse me, let me just excuse me.
19	40646	MR. WOLSON: This is October 24,
20	2003, Tab 7.
21	40647	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes,
22	sir.
23	40648	MR. WOLSON: Okay. And are you on
24	what is noted as	page 7 at the top?
25	40649	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I'm

1	on yes, page 7.
2	40650 MR. WOLSON: All right. Kaplan says:
3	"I accept that what happened
4	between you and Schreiber was
5	not unlawful."
6	Do you see that?
7	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
8	40653 MR. WOLSON: Your answer:
9	"Somebody has given you a wrong
10	slant on this."
11	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: M'hm.
12	40655 MR. WOLSON: What is the wrong slant?
13	He is alleging that you got paid by Mr. Schreiber and
14	your response is:
15	"Somebody has given you a wrong
16	slant on this."
17	What is the wrong slant?
18	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: That
19	is not what he is alleging, sir. He is alleging that I
20	got paid $300,000 on four separate occasions and that
21	there is something wrong with my transcript, namely
22	that there was perjury involved.
23	This is the subtle suggestion of
24	Mr. Schreiber who, as you know, in 2007 wrote me a
25	letter of blackmail and extortion that I refused to get

1		into.
2	40659	This is the prel	iminary rounds
3		involving the testimony of a black	mailer, which you
4		know, because you have seen the le	etter.
5	40660	MR. WOLSON: So	you are suggesting
6	40663	THE RIGHT HON. B	RIAN MULRONEY: I am
7		simply saying:
8		"Somebody h	as given you a wrong
9		slant on th	is."
LO	40662	MR. WOLSON: And	it has nothing to do
L1		with the lawful, legal relationshi	p, commercial
L2		relationship.
L3	40663	Isn't that what	Mr. Kaplan was trying
L4		to probe you about: whether or no	ot you had a lawful,
L5		legal relationship? Isn't that the	ne whole essence of
L6		these conversations?
L 7	40664	THE RIGHT HON. B	RIAN MULRONEY: No,
L8		that wasn't the whole essence. He	e must have known that
L9		I had a lawful, legal relationship	o. That's what he
20		wrote. He had every reason to bel	lieve that.
21	40665	There was no evi	dence of any kind
22		of any kind that I had ever dor	ne anything wrong in
23		my life.
24	40666	Mr. Commissioner	, on July 1st this
25		country will be 142 years old We	have had 22 Drime

1	Ministers. I have been investigated more thoroughly
2	and at a greater cost than all 21 other Prime Minister
3	combined. And yet in 2003 the RCMP wrote to me and
4	said in spite of this the RCMP wrote and said havin
5	taken a real look at this nationally and domestically
6	and internationally, we have examined everything.
7	There is no evidence whatsoever of any wrongdoing by
8	you so no charges will of course be laid.
9	So that's the context, sir, in which
10	I am responding to this.
11	So how then, if that is true what I
12	told you, how did we wind up here, Mr. Commissioner?
13	We wound up here on the basis of a
14	false affidavit filed on the 7th of November of which
15	you are aware. You have established, sir, that all th
16	provisions, or just about, of the affidavit are false.
17	And he threw my name in and Prime Minister Harper's
18	name in to panic the government and Parliament and
19	caused this Ethics Committee to sit and us to be here.
20	But if you examine it carefully,
21	which you are in the process of doing, what was in the
22	article by Mr. Kaplan on the 10th of November is
23	essentially what has been confirmed here today.
24	40671 MR. WOLSON: Well, let me ask you
25	this question: You have told this Inquiry that when

1	you left office, you had sufficient means to take care
2	of your family and take care of business, so to speak.
3	That's true?
4	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I was
5	confident of my capacity to do that.
6	40673 MR. WOLSON: What Mr. Kaplan has told
7	us he has also put it in his book, and it is at page
8	1833 of the transcript, line 20.
9	I will read this to you. It is just
10	four lines:
11	"'I can tell you,' Mulroney told
12	me on June 4, 1998, 'when I
13	first started out, I needed
14	money quite badly.'"
15	Is that an accurate statement that he
16	has made?
17	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Well,
18	what he may have construed from an answer is that I
19	certainly didn't have a strong cash flow. I mean I had
20	these these great prospects, which have turned out
21	to be even better than I had any reason to hope, from
22	the international corporations on whose boards I came
23	to sit, the Washington Speakers Bureau which was
24	tremendous.
25	But in terms of having a pile of

1		cash, no.
2	40678	What I was conveying to him is what I
3		told you, sir, is that I had a lot less money coming
4		out of office than when I went in. That's all I was
5		saying.
6	40679	And it terms of an amount of money to
7		tide me over, that didn't concern me because I had good
8		bank credit and I had a senior partnership in a major
9		law firm. I had these other matters signed up, and I
10		could see that in a brief horizon I should be able to
11		look after all of my responsibilities, including my
12		family and my late mother, and so on.
13	40680	MR. WOLSON: Is the statement an
14		accurate one, that you told him on the date in question
15		that you needed money quite badly when you left office?
16	40683	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I
17		doubt if I said that.
18	40682	MR. WOLSON: Okay.
19	40683	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I
20		mean I have regard for Mr. Kaplan's integrity, but that
21		one I would disagree with because there was no it
22		would certainly be an inadvertent description of my
23		situation.
24	40684	MR. WOLSON: All right then. I'm
25		going to take you to page 1828 of Mr. Kaplan's

testimony when he talks about meeting with you the day 1 before the article was published. And the day before 2 3 was November 9th. The article was published on November 10th. THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: May I 5 40685 see that testimony, please? 6 40686 7 MR. WOLSON: Just so that we have it, 8 it's April 23, 2009. It is page 1828. THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Page 40687 10 1828, yes. 11 40688 MR. WOLSON: Just to put it in its proper context, at line 7 you were going to meet with 12 13 Mr. Kaplan and according to Mr. Kaplan he asked you --I'm sorry, you asked him to bring a copy of the article 14 that he was going to publish the next day, a draft of 15 16 that article. 40689 So is that an accurate statement? 17 18 40690 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I 19 have no recollection of that. 40691 MR. WOLSON: Okay. You don't contest 20 21 that? 22 40692 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Well, 23 it would be unusual for me to ask anybody to bring along a draft of anything, quite frankly. 24 25 40693 MR. WOLSON: Okay.

1	40694	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I
2	nev	ver saw I don't believe I even when he was
3	wri	ting the first book, I don't think that I I don't
4	bel	ieve that I asked for or saw a draft of anything he
5	was	doing.
6	40695	MR. WOLSON: So to the best of your
7	rec	collection, based on your general habit, you wouldn't
8	hav	re done that.
9	40696	Is that your evidence?
10	40697	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I
11	don	i't believe I would have done that.
12	40698	MR. WOLSON: Okay. So let's then go
13	to	his evidence at line 14.
14		"Finally, there was our
15		conversation early Sunday
16		morning, November 9, 2003. I
17		was completely worn out by the
18		process of getting the series
19		ready for publication, while
20		working at my day job, and worn
21		down by his effort to stop the
22		publication of the last in a
23		series of three articles in the
24		Globe and Mail."
25	40699	And:

1		"The purpose of this
2		conversation"
3	40700	Referring to 1829, line 2, or line 2:
4		"The purpose of this
5		conversation was, for him, to
6		address my concerns with his
7		misleading testimony at the
8		examination on discovery."
9	40701	I say at line 10:
10		"MR. WOLSON: The misleading
11		testimony that you referred to
12		was?"
13	40702	He said:
14		"It was him suggesting that he
15		had at best a casual
16		relationship with Mr. Schreiber
17		involving the occasional cup of
18		coffee at a place like the Queen
19		Elizabeth Hotel in Montréal and
20		his evidence in which he said he
21		never had had any dealings with
22		Mr. Mulroney, and his evidence
23		further on in the examination of
24		discovery when he was talking
25		about the relationship when he

1		said, quote unquote, that was
2		it.
3		MR. WOLSON: All right."
4	40703	He continues:
5		"This was the first time, in all
6		the years I've known him"
7	40704	So he is talking about knowing you.
8	40705	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: M'hm.
9	40706	MR. WOLSON:
10		" and in countless
11		conversations, many lasting
12		hours"
13		"The purpose of this
14		conversation"
15	40707	He says was for you to address his,
16	Kaplan's:
17		" concerns with his
18		misleading testimony"
19	40708	And then page 1830, line 9:
20		"At some point in our
21		conversation, not long after we
22		began, Mulroney told me it was
23		not an interview. This was the
24		first time, in all the years
25		I've known him and in countless

1		conversations, many lasting
2		hours, that he had ever said
3		that. I should have said no,
4		that it was an interview and
5		that if it continued I could and
6		would feel free to quote what he
7		said. We reviewed the
8		transcript. I directed him to
9		the problems. It was an
10		emotional conversation and, at
11		the time, the stakes truly
12		seemed enormous. We both
13		believed, quite wrongly as it
14		turned out, that Canadians would
15		notice and care."
16	40709 Pa	ge 1831, line 11, he continues:
17		"He talked about honour. I
18		pointed out that he was not the
19		only person with honour. I had
20		sat in his house and he had told
21		me that he barely knew
22		Schreiber and that was not
23		true. He responded: 'I regret
24		any inconvenience that I may
25		have caused.'"

1	40710 Did you say that?
2	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I
3	have no recollection of that at all, but may I comment
4	or are you going to ask a question on specifics?
5	40712 MR. WOLSON: I was going to ask you a
6	lot of questions on this, but let me ask you this: Did
7	you say:
8	"'I regret any inconvenience
9	that I may have caused.'"
10	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Look,
11	all I remember all I can remember is that you seem
12	to be focusing in on the discussion in my transcript.
13	That seems to be the thrust of it.
14	Am I right on that?
15	40715 MR. WOLSON: That's what he seems to
16	be saying.
17	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
18	40717 MR. WOLSON: Did you say:
19	"'I regret any inconvenience
20	that I may have caused.'"
21	Did you say that?
22	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Let
23	me let me answer the question.
24	40720 MR. WOLSON: Sure.
25	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Mr.

1	Kaplan has clearly examined, as I say, the transcript
2	seven ways to Sunday. A few days later in his final
3	article, having analyzed everything, he said what I
4	told you in paraphrase.
5	I have examined the transcript.
6	Hundreds of questions were asked and not one question
7	dealt with that fundamental issue. Therefore, I
8	conclude that there was no perjury of any kind involved
9	by Mr. Mulroney. That's what he wrote.
10	And if he is talking about emotional
11	conversations that took place before, you better
12	believe it. I was telling him that if somebody has
13	convinced you that I misled anyone in that court, they
14	have sold you a bill of goods. Let us take the
15	transcript item by item, question by question, as you
16	and I went through it, sir.
17	40724 Context is everything in this and I
18	think I was able to establish obviously to his
19	satisfaction that when placed in proper context,
20	notwithstanding the completely disjointed nature of the
21	examination on discovery, that I was able to prove to
22	his satisfaction that nothing was misleading.
23	That is why he concluded in his
24	article that no perjury of any kind was involved.
25	That's what I recollect from this.

1	40726 MR. WOLSON: Okay. But I want to
2	bring you back to this conversation. Did you say to	)
3	him:
4	"'I regret any inconvenience
5	that I may have caused.'"
6	40727 That's at page 1831, line 17.
7	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I
8	have no recollection of that whatsoever.
9	40729 MR. WOLSON: You don't deny it.
10	40730 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Wh	at
11	I do remember is the let me tell you, there is
12	another thing, Mr. Commissioner.
13	40731 He talks at the beginning of this
14	about the stress on him about getting the three
15	articles ready, you know, for publication, which I	an
16	understand.
17	He hasn't told you something very
18	important. There were four articles and I was count	ing
19	very heavily on the fourth, which is why I cooperate	ed.
20	with him in regard to the others.
21	40733 He doesn't talk about the fourth
22	article. He doesn't tell you why that fourth artic	.e
23	did not appear. That is the one that interested me	a
24	great deal.
25	40734 So I suppose that had any such

1	expression been made, I would have thought that he
2	would have had he is a great advocate for the
3	volunteering of information. I would have thought that
4	he would have had the decency to volunteer to meet
5	prior to publication: Oh, by the way, I told you there
6	were going to be four articles. I know that we have
7	amassed great information for the fourth article, but
8	by the way, Brian, we have decided not to go ahead with
9	the fourth. We are going to leave you hanging on that
10	one.
11	He never made such a statement to me.
12	So if there was anyone who would have
13	been apologizing for inconvenience, I would have
14	thought that it would have been him. But he never told
15	me that.
16	40737 MR. WOLSON: You see, Mr. Mulroney, I
17	can tell you that I didn't know about a fourth article,
18	but
19	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yeah.
20	40739 MR. WOLSON: but I didn't hear any
21	questions being put to him by anyone else in this room
22	that would have known about a fourth article. So I can
23	tell you that I knew of three.
24	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Mr.
25	Wolson, can I just ask?

1	40741 MR. WOLSON: Yes?
2	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Why
3	didn't he volunteer it to the Commissioner? He is a
4	great advocate of the concept of volunteering
5	information for questions that are not asked.
6	40743 MR. WOLSON: Well, you are very
7	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Why
8	didn't he volunteer it?
9	40745 MR. WOLSON: You are very well
10	represented and I didn't hear any of those questions.
11	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
12	40747 MR. WOLSON: But then I come back to
13	my question at page 1831, line 17. Did you say:
14	"'I regret any inconvenience
15	that I may have caused.'"
16	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I
17	have no I have told you. I have no recollection of
18	that whatsoever.
19	40749 MR. WOLSON: Okay. You deny it?
20	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:
21	Excuse me, sir.
22	40751 COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: No
23	recollection is your answer?
24	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes,
25	I have no recollection of that whatsoever.

1	40753	MR.	WOLSON: You don't deny it? If
2	he has it noted,	you o	don't challenge it, or do you?
3	40754	THE	RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I
4	just say I have r	no red	collection of it.
5	40755	MR.	WOLSON: Okay.
6	40756	THE	RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:
7	Whatsoever.
8	40757	MR.	WOLSON: Line 20, page 1831:
9			"'I could not believe my ears."
10			"'I had trusted Brian Mulroney.
11			He had looked me in the eye. He
12			had told me the same story he
13			told the Canadian people the
14			same misleading story that he
15			had but a 'peripheral'
16			relationship with Karl
17			Schreiber. He regretted the
18			inconvenience?"
19			"'Raising my voice for the first
20			time ever in a discussion with
21			him, I told him it was not good
22			enough. He then said, "I'm
23			sorry." Although he called my
24			house later that night, I did
25			not answer the telephone. I

1	have not spoken to Brian
2	Mulroney since.'"
3	Did you say to him, as he has	noted
4	here in this context at line 10, when he said:
5	" 'I told him it was n	ot good
6	enough.'"
7	derivative 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2
8	" 'I'm sorry.'"
9	9 40760 Page 1832, line 10. You can g	o back
10	to line 7 for that matter.
11	40761 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:	1832,
12	I'm sorry.
13	MR. WOLSON: Yes, please.
14	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:	Line
15	10?
16	MR. WOLSON: Or go back to line	e 7:
17	"'Raising my voice for the	e first
18	time ever in a discussion	with
19	him, I told him it was no	t good
20	enough. He then said, "I	'm
21	sorry."
22	Did you say that?
23	40766 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:	Of
24	course not.
25	MR. WOLSON: Okay.

1	"'Although he called my house
2	later that night, I did not
3	answer the telephone.'"
4	Did you call later that night?
5	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I
6	have no recollection of that, but I doubt it.
7	MR. WOLSON: Okay.
8	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I'm
9	not saying it didn't happen. We spoke frequently.
10	But this is this is this
11	apparently is about the context of this is about the	he
12	relationship with Mr. Schreiber which I had in one
13	context described as peripheral?
14	That is the genesis of this?
15	40774 MR. WOLSON: It is.
16	40775 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: This	3
17	broken heart, that's it?
18	Well, I have explained to you that
19	reality and I explained to this Court that I had to	0
20	put it in context, I had and have an intimate
21	relationship with my family, my wife and my children.
22	I have a very close relationship with friends from Ba	ie
23	Comeau and St. FX and Ottawa and elsewhere. And my
24	advisors, like Derek Burney and Bernard Roy, I had a
25	very close relationship with them. I had a close relationship with my caucus in Cabinet and many others. 1 2 40777 And I had what was, of necessity, 3 essentially a peripheral relationship with many, many others. 4 It is not a term of derision. 5 40778 It is not a term of -- it is not a pejorative reference. 6 is a simple statement of fact: that with regard to 7 8 Mr. Schreiber and many others my relationship with him was essentially peripheral. 9 40779 COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: Mr. Mulroney, 10 11 I think if you will recall we dealt with this once before. 12 40780 13 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes. 14 Yes. 15 40781 COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: I asked you 16 when you used the word "peripheral", if you were talking in relative terms. 17 18 40782 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: 19 sir. 20 40783 COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: And that was clarified then. 21 22 40784 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes, 23 I was. 40785 24 COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: Okay. You made the point then. 25

1	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
2	40787 COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: And it need
3	not made again. Okay?
4	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
5	I will except that obviously, sir. I just wanted to
6	point out to Mr. Wolson that I had indeed made that
7	exact point that you referred to earlier.
8	40789 MR. WOLSON: As a matter of fact, on
9	that point and I am just going to ask you two more
10	areas and then we will take a little break.
11	At page 1943 of his transcript,
12	Mr. Pratte asks him at line 14:
13	"MR. PRATTE: Okay. So in your
14	mind what cannot make it
15	peripheral is the fact he had a
16	commercial relationship after he
17	left office?"
18	40791 And this is what Mr. Kaplan says and
19	I would like your comment on it:
20	"MR. KAPLAN: What cannot make
21	it peripheral is a former Prime
22	Minister of Canada meeting with
23	someone he had dealt with in an
24	official capacity, one month
25	after he stepped down from being

1	Prime Minister, while he was
2	still a Member of Parliament,
3	meeting him in a motel, taking
4	$100,000 in cash, taking another
5	$100,000 in cash at a subsequent
6	meeting at the Queen Elizabeth
7	Hotel, taking a third $100,000
8	in cash in New York City, not
9	declaring the income in the year
10	in which it was received, as
11	required by CRA, not telling the
12	Canadian people about it,
13	sending his lawyers and
14	spokespeople out to convince all
15	of us, including me, that there
16	was nothing to do with
17	Schreiber, and then not
18	providing a proper explanation
19	about what the money was for and
20	what the services were that he
21	provided."
22	What do you say about that?
23	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I say
24	that some of it is inaccurate. Some of it is no doubt
25	accurate, but it's I think based on the and this is

1	in reference to the transcript by and large.
2	40794 Mr. Kaplan has taken offence at the
3	fact that I he does not accept the view that most
4	lawyers and people of law in Canada would accept that
5	your responsibility is to answer questions in court
6	that you were asked and not answer questions that you
7	were not asked. He disagrees with that.
8	40795 He thinks that if you have served a
9	Prime Minister that your obligation is to come in
10	and I think he has explained this to you and to
11	volunteer information, everything that happened to be
12	ongoing at the time because you served as Prime
13	Minister.
14	40796 Does this apply to the Governor
15	General? Does this apply to the Chief Justice of the
16	Supreme Court if she is involved in litigation? Does
17	it involve Judges, Premiers and so on, because if it
18	does it is certainly, in my mind anyway, an exception
19	to Article 15 of the Charter when we are all equal
20	before the law, and no one has privileges and no one
21	has added burdens, that I am aware of, in terms of
22	testimony in court rooms.
23	40797 So I accept that there is a
24	difference of opinion with Mr. Kaplan. I am not
25	denigrating his opinion.

1	40798 I will say that I think it is a novel
2	opinion. It is not one that has been upheld in any wa
3	by any of the courts.
4	If I might say parenthetically,
5	Mr. Wolson, some day not today I would like to
6	hear a client of yours in a very serious trial in
7	Winnipeg say that well, you didn't ask me the question
8	but my lawyer has told me he has told me to tell the
9	truth and the whole truth, but you didn't ask me any
10	questions. So Mr. Wolson has told me to volunteer to
11	you the following facts in the circumstances that we
12	are aware of.
13	40800 It may be a respected school of
14	thought. It is not one that obtained in my case and I
15	have never heard of anything else. So I told the
16	truth. My lawyers had told me in these circumstances
17	tell the truth, the whole truth, answer the question
18	that you have been asked and do not volunteer any
19	information.
20	40801 He doesn't agree with it so he says
21	these things and what can I tell you.
22	40802 MR. WOLSON: And then I just have one
23	more note on Mr. Kaplan, one more question and I would
24	like your position on it, at page 1908 of the
25	transcript, line 16.

2	sorry, sir, 1908?	)
3	40804	MR. W	OLSON: 1908 is the page, line
4	16 is the line.
5	40805	Tell	me when you are there.
6	40806	THE R	IGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I'm
7	here.
8	40807	MR. W	OLSON: All right. This is what
9	Mr. Kaplan says.
10	40808	We wi	ll go back to line 13:
11			" I do believe he had an
12			obligation, because of the
13			public trust he enjoyed as Prime
14			Minister, to be fully
15			forthcoming.
16			Moreover, Mr. Pratte, and you
17			know, you really can accuse me
18			for being you can accuse me
19			of being old-fashioned, but I
20			believe that when someone is
21			Prime Minister, the public trust
22			doesn't just involve their
23			activities when they are Prime
24			Minister but it involves their
25			activities before they are Prime

1		Minister and after Prime
2		Minister."
3	40809	Do you agree with that statement?
4	40810	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Look,
5	I'm not	going to comment on anything other than the
6	entire	context of this. We have just discussed what he
7	said.
8	40811	This is an opinion from a lawyer
9	practis	sing in Toronto. You would get a dozen different
10	opinior	ns, most of them I think sustaining the point of
11	view th	nat I have just put out.
12	40812	I can't comment on everything that he
13	said.
14	40813	But I can, with your permission,
15	Mr. Con	mmissioner, repeat something that is very
16	importa	int.
17	40814	He reproaches me for not
18	volunte	eering. The ultimate stage of his theory would
19	have me	e, after two days of hearings in Montréal,
20	confror	ated by nine lawyers representing the Government
21	of Cana	ada and the RCMP, not one of whom, as Mr. Kaplan
22	has wri	tten, not one of whom in the hundreds of
23	questic	ons they asked me, not one of whom asked me about
24	a comme	ercial relationship of any kind with
25	Mr. Sch	areiber.

1	40815	Remember the context which is so
2		important. The hostility 14 months later is the
3		hostility after the publication of a statement sent to
4		the Swiss government that could have had the effect of
5		destroying me, my wife, my children, my mother, my
6		father's good name. It was a massive libel against me
7		and my family.
8	40816	What was my reaction to it? My
9		reaction was not to hide. My initial reaction was to
10		send Roger Tassé to Ottawa and have Mr. Tassé, a
11		distinguished former public servant, volunteer all
12		information. Have Mr. Mulroney come up here. You can
13		ask him any questions. He will answer any questions
14		that you have in any way.
15	40817	They threw him out and they began a
16		14-month multimillion dollar assault on me based on
17		evidence provided by Stevie Cameron and Giorgio
18		Pelossi, a convicted felon; Ms Cameron by then I
19		believe a secret representative, a secret police
20		informant.
21	40818	This was the evidence on which they
22		had sent to Switzerland they sent to Switzerland,
23		and this is the situation that I am confronted with,
24		this hostile situation of 14 months where I walk into
25		the courtroom.

1	40819	Here is what Mr. Kaplan's theory
2	presumably wou	ld have me do: They interrogate me,
3	these nine law	yers, or two or three principal ones.
4	They interroga	te me. They ask me hundreds of
5	questions. Ha	d they asked me the question, I of course
6	would have ans	wered truthfully, as I would have
7	volunteered pr	obably in Ottawa to avoid this becoming
8	public. It wa	s that important to me.
9	40820	No one asks me the question and the
LO	theory is they	Mr. Sheppard says well, Mr. Mulroney,
L1	we have no mor	e questions for you. And I say thank
L2	you, and we le	ave.
L3	40821	Mr. Kaplan's theory is that I say oh,
L4	Mr. Sheppard,	pardon me, you have asked me hundreds of
L5	questions. Yo	u are trying to ruin me, destroy me, put
L6	me in jail, bu	t why don't you ask the following
L7	question. You	neglected to ask me this question.
L8	40822	Harvey Yarosky, my attorney from
L9	Montréal, a ve	ry distinguished lawyer who spent about
20	50 years at th	e Bar, said to the media: This is the
21	first time in	my experience that an individual accused
22	of something i	s running after the police to try and get
23	the police to	listen to him so that the truth will come
24	out rather tha	n the other way around, the police
2.5	running after	him

1	40823	He goes up to Ottawa and says to the
2		RCMP, anything you want, documents, answers, anything,
3		I'm ready to give to you. They throw him out.
4	40824	As Harvey said, the first time in his
5		vast experience that someone is chasing the police
6		rather than the other way around.
7	40825	So I did my I responded to the
8		questions. I did my best. I told the truth, and
9		Mr. Kaplan has a different point of view. It is a
10		novel point of view and an exceptional point of view:
11		that the obligation not only on me, but I presume you
12		can't limit under section 15 to any public office
13		holder, or what have you, is not to answer the
14		questions truthfully but to go into a courtroom where
15		you are being accused falsely of something and
16		volunteer to the other side any degree of information
17		that might be helpful to them and for which they have
18		not sought answers.
19	40826	That is the context.
20	40827	MR. WOLSON: Can I ask you one other
21		question, please?
22	40828	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes,
23		sir.
24	40829	MR. WOLSON: Do you believe that a
25		Prime Minister must regard the public trust when he is

1	a Prime Min	ister?
2	40830	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I'm
3	sorry, what	's the
4	40831	MR. WOLSON: Do you believe that a
5	Prime Minis	ter has to consider the public trust when he
6	is Prime Mi	nister?
7	40832	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:
8	Absolutely.
9	40833	MR. WOLSON: Do you believe that he
10	has to cons	ider the public trust shortly after leaving
11	office?
12	40834	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes,
13	I do, which	is why I refused and would never accept a
14	mandate to	lobby the Government of Canada or to do any
15	business wi	th the Government of Canada, which I never
16	did, or the	Government of Québec or any provincial
17	government,	or the government of any municipalities,
18	anything.
19	40835	This was a transaction involving two
20	people in the	he private sector after I had left office, a
21	limited tra	nsaction internationally for which I was
22	paid $225,0	00 and on which tax was paid.
23	40836	It involved not a nickel of public
24	funds in any	y way. The transaction was above board. My
25	testimony w	as above board. No acquestions of any kind

1	after 21 years of investigation, no accusations and
2	false rumours on which they were based, no accusation
3	of any kind was ever laid against me, nor will there
4	be, and I think I can tell you why: because I have
5	never knowingly ever done anything wrong in my life.
6	40837 MR. WOLSON: So the answer to my
7	question is that when you are in office there is an
8	issue of public trust.
9	40838 You agree with that?
10	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:
11	Absolutely.
12	40840 MR. WOLSON: When you are out of
13	office, there is an issue of public trust as well?
14	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Well,
15	my answer to that
16	40842 MR. WOLSON: That's the only question
17	that I ask you.
18	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: My
19	answer to that is yes, sir.
20	40844 MR. WOLSON: All right.
21	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: But I
22	think it is governed to some extent by convention
23	and/or comments, commentary and/or rules and
24	regulations that might exist.
25	40846 MR. WOLSON: Thank you, sir.

1	40847 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Thank
2	you.
3	40848 MR. WOLSON: We can take perhaps the
4	morning break. I still have a number of questions.
5	I'm sorry to tell you this. I still
6	have a number of questions to ask you, but I don't
7	expect to be questioning you on Mr. Kaplan, with
8	perhaps one exception.
9	So if this is convenient,
10	Mr. Commissioner I know it is five to 12:00. I
11	would very much, if I possibly could, like to finish my
12	questions of Mr. Mulroney today.
13	I have been asking him questions for
14	three days. I think he would love me to sit down and
15	be quiet and I would like nothing more than to do that
16	I hope you are not going to comment
17	on that, but you might.
18	40853 So I have
19	40854 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I
20	would simply like to know, Mr. Commissioner, for my
21	own I have been here five days and I would simply
22	like to know and I'm not offending anybody I don't
23	think by saying that there has been a fair amount of
24	re-asking of questions and so on, which is okay. But I
25	would just like to know when my wife and I can leave

1	and move on to do	other things.
2	40855	MR. WOLSON: I am hoping, sir, to be
3	finished today.
4	40856	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: M'hm.
5	40857	MR. WOLSON: There has been, you say,
6	a lot of re-asking	g
7	40858	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I
8	understand.
9	40859	MR. WOLSON: and a lot of
10	re-answering. So	I know at least I can assure you
11	from my perspecti	ve that I do everything with you with
12	respect.
13	40860	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: M'hm.
14	40861	MR. WOLSON: But that said, I have 20
15	pages more of que	stions. I hope I can finish today,
16	but we may need to	o extend the day a wee bit, if that
17	works for all the	other parties and for the witness and
18	for you, Mr. Comm	issioner.
19	40862	COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: Mr.
20	Pratte?
21	40863	MR. PRATTE: I just wondered,
22	Mr. Commissioner,	whether you would allow counsel to
23	discuss the timeta	able a little bit for the balance of
24	the day.
25	40864	COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: Absolutely.

1	40865	MR. PRATTE: And whether or not that
2	might include	taking a shorter break.
3	40866	So I don't know whether you want to
4	do this before	we actually fix the
5	40867	COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: Well, let me
6	ask the questi	on. We started at 10:00. It's 12:00
7	now. Do you w	ant to take a short morning break and
8	come back or d	o you want to take a shorter lunch break,
9	say from 12:00	until 1:00?
10	40868	MR. PRATTE: I just wonder whether,
11	Mr. Commission	er, without necessarily emptying the
12	room, whether	counsel might just meet for two minutes
13	and we could t	ell you, because I can say my preference
14	and then we wi	ll be negotiating this.
15	40869	COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: Okay. All
16	right. Well,	rather than emptying the room, we will do
17	that.
18	40870	But before we do that I'm not sure,
19	Mr. Wolson, wh	at area you wish to cover with
20	Mr. Mulroney r	egarding Mr. Kaplan.
21	40871	Does it have anything to do with the
22	articles, beca	use I am concerned about learning for the
23	first time tod	ay about this fourth article.
24	40872	Will you be delving into that?
25	40873	MR. WOLSON: Well, I learned of it

1	myself today, so
2	40874 COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: You see, I
3	just have a couple of questions. I would like to ask
4	you about that because this has caught me by surprise.
5	40875 You told Mr. Wolson earlier that you
6	don't ask people who write articles about you to show
7	you the articles. That is not your style.
8	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:
9	That's right.
10	40877 COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: How did you
11	know there was a fourth article?
12	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:
13	Because I was aware of the information that gave rise
14	to it, and that information was conveyed to Mr. Kaplan
15	by independent third parties who were involved in this
16	and it was conveyed to others as well.
17	40879 COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: But just a
18	second. Did you assume by virtue of the fact that
19	other information had been conveyed that he had written
20	a fourth article or do you know for sure that he did?
21	40880 It is an important question because
22	Mr. Kaplan was served with a subpoena.
23	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: M'hm.
24	40882 COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: And we are
25	hearing about this for the first time.

1	40883	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Mr.
2		Commissioner, I will tell you this. I don't know the
3		answers to your question, but I can tell you this:
4		Given the nature of the information of which they were
5		aware, you can reasonably conclude that another article
6		was coming very quickly.
7	40884	COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: But that's
8		the danger of circumstantial evidence, where you draw a
9		conclusion based on known facts. The conclusion can be
10		wrong.
11	40885	So are you telling me, Mr.
12		Mulroney and I'm asking you this seriously: Do you
13		know that Mr. Kaplan wrote a fourth article or are you
14		concluding that reasonably based on information that
15		you have?
16	40886	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: He
17		didn't convey to me that he had written any of the
18		three articles. I knew that a story was coming. And I
19		reasonably concluded, as would I think you, that given
20		the information that he had and was conveyed to the
21		Globe and Mail as well, that this major fourth article
22		would also appear.
23	40887	I think that I hope that answers
24		your question.
25	40888	COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: Just a last

1	question. You never saw a fourth article in rough
2	draft or manuscript?
3	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: No, I
4	did not.
5	40890 COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: Okay.
6	40891 MR. WOLSON: Just before we break, I
7	have one last question, and it is in fairness to the
8	witness because it should be out there and what is fair
9	is fair.
10	40892 So I'm just going to read and I
11	would just read one line. I don't think you need it in
12	front of you, but it is consistent with what you have
13	said, sir. So I want to put it on the record in
14	fairness to you.
15	It is from the third page of the
16	article of the 10th November and it says this:
17	"Asking for Mulroney's side of
18	the story was the first step.
19	Eventually he explained that
20	Schreiber had paid him the
21	money though he disputes the
22	amount for his assistance in
23	promoting a fresh-cooked pasta
24	business Schreiber had started
25	in Canada as well as his

1		international interests."
2	40894	So it should come out clearly, as you
3	have said, that he	e noted that you told him of the
4	money. That should	ld come out.
5	40895	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:
6	That's right.
7	40896	MR. WOLSON: There should be no
8	misunderstanding a	about that.
9	40897	And then I have to ask you one last
10	question on Mr. Ka	aplan and then we can throw away the
11	book on Mr. Kapla	n for now, both.
12	40898	Well, this is the question: He says:
13		"Eventually he explained that
14		Schreiber had paid him the
15		money"
16	40899	And that is the point you have made.
17	40900	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
18	40901	MR. WOLSON:
19		" though he disputes the
20		amount"
21	40902	That is also a point you made.
22	40903	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
23	40904	MR. WOLSON:
24		" for his assistance in
25		promoting a fresh-cooked pasta

1	business Schreiber had started
2	in Canada as well as his
3	international interests."
4	Did you tell Kaplan that the money
5	was for pasta or did you tell him the money was for
6	Thyssen?
7	40906 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:
8	Thyssen.
9	40907 MR. WOLSON: Okay.
LO	40908 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: He
L1	also, if that is a quote of the article,
L2	Mr. Commissioner, I think he goes on to say that
L3	Mr. Schreiber confirmed to him that it was a perfectly
L4	legal contract, above board, for professional services
L5	to be rendered; that I rendered the services to his
L6	satisfaction.
L7	40909 And then he concludes by saying I
L8	carefully examined the transcript with regard to the
L9	second point he raised. The transcript is clean.
20	There was no perjury of any kind involved.
21	40910 That is my recollection. Thank you
22	very much.
23	40911 COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: Okay. Thank
24	you very much.
2.5	40912 Now. counsel. do vou want to just confer here at the table, you said without emptying the 1 room, Mr. Pratte? 2 MR. PRATTE: Well, it's just, 3 40913 Mr. Commissioner, to decide on the balance of the 4 5 schedule before you depart and whether we take a break now and a shorter lunch, and that kind of thing. 6 40914 COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: Why don't you 7 8 just all get together and confer. 9 40915 MR. PRATTE: Thank you, sir. 40916 COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: We will just 10 11 relax for a minute here. --- Pause 12 13 40917 MR. WOLSON: Why don't we just stand down for five minutes so that Mr. Mulroney could relax, 14 not sitting in that seat. 15 16 40918 COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: All right, fine. 17 We will recess for five minutes. I 18 40919 19 will just wait back in the hall here. --- Upon recessing at 12:00 p.m. / Suspension à 12 h 00 20 --- Upon resuming at 12:15 p.m. / Reprise à 12 h 15 21 COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: Be seated, 22 40920 23 please. Mr. Wolson. 24 40921 MR. WOLSON: The situation is this. 25 40922

If we could finish today by six o'clock, all parties -1 and I have spoken to you, obviously. You would be 2 3 prepared to sit until six. 40923 I suppose it will depend on when I 4 5 finish, and then Mr. Auger will have to assess how much time he needs, but if he and I could finish by six, 6 then I think all parties would be agreeable to that. 7 8 Then, Mr. Mulroney wouldn't have to come back. 40924 But let's just see, if we start at 1:30, an hour and 15 for lunch, where we are at, say, 10 by three o'clock or so. 11 12 40925 I can tell you that I had 28 pages of questions, and I have done 8. 13 COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: Six o'clock 14 40926 on what day did you want to finish? 15 --- Laughter / Rires 16 17 40927 MR. WOLSON: I am waiting for summer 18 in Ottawa, but today is the day. 19 40928 COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: It could be fall by the time you get through. 20 --- Laughter / Rires 21 22 40929 MR. WOLSON: I can only tell you that 23 the idea is to finish today, but if we can't, we can't. 40930 COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: That's fine, 24

but it's crucial that no counsel - and I don't know

1 what the intentions of other counsel are, but it is crucial that nobody feel hurried in terms of the time 2 3 for cross-examining. I want to make that clear. I want to convenience Mr. Mulroney as 40931 4 5 much as I can, but, at the same time, in fairness to counsel that wish to cross-examine, they have to be 6 given the time that they need. 7 8 40932 So we will break now until 1:30, and 9 the plan is that we will go until six o'clock, and I understand that that is in keeping with everybody's 10 11 line of thinking. 12 40933 MR. WOLSON: Again, only if we are 13 going to finish today. 14 40934 COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: Only if we are going to finish today. 15 If I am until 4:30 with 16 40935 MR. WOLSON: the witness, and Mr. Auger thinks he has two hours or 17 18 two and a half hours, then there is no point in 19 starting. 20 40936 COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: Okav. will see how things develop during the course of the 21 22 afternoon. In the meantime, we will break now until 1:30 this afternoon. 23 --- Upon recessing at 12:18 p.m. / Suspension à 12 h 18 24 --- Upon resuming at 1:43 p.m. / Reprise à 13 h 43 25

1	40937	COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: Be seated,
2	please.
3	40938	Mr. Wolson
4	40939	MR. WOLSON: Mr. Mulroney, I am now
5	going to turn	to another area, and it is the area of
6	what services	you performed on behalf of your retainer.
7	40940	Is it your evidence that at the
8	meeting at the	e New York Pierre Hotel on December 8,
9	1994, you deta	ailed your time regarding the services you
10	had done for 1	Mr. Schreiber?
11	40941	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
12	40942	MR. WOLSON: And I take it that,
13	basically, in	terms of this retainer, after that
14	meeting
15	40943	Did you have other services that you
16	provided for l	nim on the retainer?
17	40944	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
18	40945	MR. WOLSON: What did you do after
19	the New York 1	Pierre Hotel, December 8th, '94 what
20	services did	you do?
21	40946	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I had
22	a meeting with	n President Mitterrand. I had, at least,
23	another meeti	ng with President Mitterrand.
24	40947	MR. WOLSON: So you had a second
25	meeting with M	Mitterrand?

1	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
2	40949 MR. WOLSON: Do you know when that
3	was?
4	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes,
5	in October 1995.
6	40951 MR. WOLSON: October of '95?
7	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
8	40953 MR. WOLSON: You know what Mr.
9	Schreiber's evidence is from the New York meeting.
10	I will just highlight it for you, and
11	I would like your response to it.
12	I think I know what your response is,
13	but we should have it on the record.
14	40956 Mr. Schreiber has said that the
15	retainer was a domestic one, not an international one.
16	40957 Your, hopefully, brief answer on
17	that?
18	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:
19	False.
20	40959 MR. WOLSON: That's pretty brief.
21	40960 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Brief
22	and accurate is what you want, sir.
23	40961 MR. WOLSON: I do, absolutely.
24	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:
25	That's both.

1	40963 MR. WOLSON: He says that at no time
2	did you tell him at that meeting what you had done for
3	him up until that point.
4	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: That,
5	too, is false.
6	40965 MR. WOLSON: He said that it is
7	totally incredible, or words to that effect I am
8	paraphrasing now that you would even think of
9	selling or promoting Thyssen to communist countries.
10	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Well,
11	it wasn't my intention to promote or sell Thyssen to
12	communist countries, it was my intention, as part of
13	the concept, to ascertain whether all of these
14	countries on the P5 might be amenable to the idea of
15	standardization and acquisition by the UN of a product
16	ultimately.
17	40967 MR. WOLSON: So your retainer
18	obviously, if somebody had said that they wanted a
19	number of vehicles, you would have advised Mr.
20	Schreiber, but your interpretation of the mandate was
21	that you were going to see what you could do through
22	the UN.
23	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:
24	Precisely.
25	40969 MR. WOLSON: Now, the China trip.

1	40970	If you would take Book 2
2	40971	Just provide me one moment.
3	Pause
4	40972	MR. WOLSON: Tab 72.
5	40973	COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: Book 2 of Mr.
6	Mulroney's docume	nts?
7	40974	MR. WOLSON: Yes.
8	40975	COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: Tab 74?
9	40976	MR. WOLSON: Tab 72.
10	40977	This is a redacted form of your
11	itinerary for the	trip.
12	40978	That's true?
14	is true.
15	40980	MR. WOLSON: And it's redacted,
16	basically, not to	disclose the client whose principal
17	role and work you	were doing on this China trip.
18	40981	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: That
19	is true.
20	40982	Well, also, their confidentiality
21	to respect their	confidentiality.
22	40983	MR. WOLSON: I am not critical of the
23	redactions, but I	am putting it on the record why there
24	are redactions.
25	40984	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:

1	That's right.
2	40985 MR. WOLSON: You attend with a
3	corporation for whom you were working.
4	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:
5	That's right.
6	40987 MR. WOLSON: And you go with a number
7	of members of that company
8	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:
9	Eight, I believe.
10	40989 MR. WOLSON: and you fly
11	Were you on a private jet?
12	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: We
13	were on a private plane going out, yes.
14	40992 MR. WOLSON: And coming home you were
15	on a domestic flight?
16	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: We
17	came home via Hong Kong, and I believe, from Hong Kong
18	on through Paris, it was commercial. I am not sure,
19	but I believe so.
20	40994 MR. WOLSON: Okay. And you were
21	there it had to do with hydro-electric and that type
22	of issue, did it?
23	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: No,
24	hydro-electric was one part of the mandate, there were
25	many others.

1	40996	MR. WOLSON: And that mandate you are
2	talking about i	s the mandate for the company on whose
3	business you we	ere there.
4	40997	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: That
5	is right.
6	40998	MR. WOLSON: But what you were doing,
7	in effect, was,	if the opportunity arose, you would
8	also deal with	other clients, and in the case of the
9	China trip it w	was Mr. Schreiber's interests at one
10	point that you	raised with some Chinese officials.
11	40999	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: That
12	is right.
13	41000	MR. WOLSON: The trip was October 1
14	through 11.
15	41001	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
16	41002	MR. WOLSON: And on one of the days,
17	I think it was	October the 5th, you, in an unredacted
18	form it's ou	tlined here, the activities of that
19	particular day.	Right?
20	41003	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes,
21	sir.
22	41004	MR. WOLSON: Basically, the itinerary
23	was a pretty ti	ght itinerary for all of the days, and
24	had prearranged	d meetings, and that was the nature of
25	this trip that	you were on.

1	Would that be a fair statement?
2	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:
3	Essentially, yes.
4	41007 MR. WOLSON: Do you recall and I
5	am looking at the time 1130 to 1330 on October the
6	5th
7	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes?
8	41009 MR. WOLSON: That would have been the
9	first opportunity that you would have had to advance
10	any issue on behalf of Mr. Schreiber, as I look at this
11	itinerary at least.
12	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I
13	think so.
14	41011 MR. WOLSON: And that would have been
15	a two-hour lunch with someone from CITIC C-I-T-I-C.
16	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
17	41013 MR. WOLSON: CITIC is a trade
18	council, is it?
19	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: No,
20	it's the largest or it then was, I believe, the
21	largest government controlled corporation in China.
22	41015 MR. WOLSON: All right. And you, of
23	course, were principally meeting with the official Wei
24	Ming Yi you were meeting with him principally on
25	behalf of your corporate client that took you to China.

1	1 41016 THE RIGHT HON. BR	IAN MULRONEY: Yes,
2	who was there with us.
3	3 41017 MR. WOLSON: Yes.	And you would have
4	4 had these other business people who	you were there
5	with it says eight business peop	ole
6	6 41018 THE RIGHT HON. BR	IAN MULRONEY:
7	7 M'hmm.
8	8 41019 MR. WOLSON: Your	answer is yes?
9	9 41020 THE RIGHT HON. BR	IAN MULRONEY: Yes.
10	10 41021 MR. WOLSON: a	nd they would have
11	been present while you were you	and your colleagues
12	were having lunch with the chairman	n of CITIC.
13	13 41022 THE RIGHT HON. BR	IAN MULRONEY: They
14	would have been at the luncheon, su	ıre.
15	15 41023 MR. WOLSON: Yes.	Do you
16	specifically recall raising with th	nis gentleman, the
17	17 Chairman of CITIC, Mr. Schreiber's	interests?
18	18 41024 THE RIGHT HON. BR	IAN MULRONEY: I
19	don't specifically recall it there	but CITIC was, as
20	say, really a creation of Rong Yire	en, who became the
21	Vice-President of China who was	the Vice-President
22	of China, I believe, at that time.
23	23 41025 So this, while a	business development
24	corporation, was also largely polit	cical. I mentioned
25	in earlier circumstances that I was	subsequently

1	asked invited to join the Board of Directors of this
2	corporation, which I did.
3	41026 MR. WOLSON: And you specifically
4	recall, at this meeting with CITIC that's the only
5	question that I want to ask you about that meeting
6	do you have a specific recall of speaking to one of the
7	Chinese officials about Mr. Schreiber's interests?
8	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I
9	don't have a specific recall there, no.
10	41028 MR. WOLSON: Okay. Now, if you go
11	down to 1430 to 1530, a one-hour meeting that you have
12	with another Chinese official, the Vice-Minister of
13	Foreign Affairs for the People's Republic of China
14	You see that.
15	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
16	41031 MR. WOLSON: And there are eight
17	business people that came with you to China who were
18	with you.
19	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
20	41033 MR. WOLSON: And you have a meeting
21	with the Vice-Minister of Foreign Affairs.
22	Do you specifically recall, at that
23	meeting, raising Mr. Schreiber's interests?
24	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
25	41036 MR. WOLSON: What, specifically, did

1		you say in that regard?
2	41037	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: We
3		had a preliminary conversation. I indicated, in other
4		circumstances, that what I was going to try to find out
5		from the Chinese government would be their interest in
6		the concept that I wanted to raise
7	41038	MR. WOLSON: The UN concept.
8	41039	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes,
9		the UN concept that I wanted to raise. So the
10		conversation would have been informal: Can you tell me
11		where you fellows are at the UN? What do you think of
12		this? What do you think of that? By the way, on the
13		peacekeeping side, do you have any views in that
14		regard? Have you any advice you can give me? What
15		would your reaction be?
16	41040	MR. WOLSON: And what was the general
17		response?
18	41041	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: The
19		general response for the Chinese is always a great
20		interest in anything that involves the United Nations,
21		because at that point in time it was their principal
22		this was before they acquired the enormous strength and
23		influence that they have today it was their
24		principal pierre angulaire, their principal anchor for
25		foreign policy in the West.

1	41042	So they were very interested in that,
2	and
3	41043	MR. WOLSON: They were interested
4	in
5	41044	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:
6	noncommittal, a	s the Chinese always are when you are
7	talking initial	ly. They were noncommittal, but said:
8	Look, this is a	n interesting concept.
9	41045	MR. WOLSON: All right. Was there
10	some kind of ar	rms embargo that Canada was involved in
11	with China at t	he time?
12	41046	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: We
13	had embargoes o	of different kinds at different times,
14	but I wasn't tr	ying to sell them any arms.
15	41047	If this had come to fruition, there
16	wouldn't have b	een a sale to China, there would have
17	been a sale to	the United Nations.
18	41048	MR. WOLSON: Is it your evidence that
19	the United Nati	ons would have been if the five
20	members of the	Security Council, who are China, Russia
21	France, the Uni	ted States and Great Britain
22	41049	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: The
23	United Kingdom,	yeah.
24	41050	MR. WOLSON: the U.K if those
25	countries had a	greed to some form of united

1	peacekeeping front, the idea was that it was the UN
2	that would buy the equipment from Thyssen?
3	Is that the idea?
4	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: No, I
5	hadn't advanced to that point. The idea would have
6	been, quite simply, that I would have taken it to the
7	Secretary General of the United Nations at that point
8	in time, developed with the client the necessary backup
9	to indicate the advantages that this would cause them
LO	to receive, from standardization, from the
L1	harmonization of the vehicles and their spare parts,
L2	the whole question of the pre-location of these
L3	vehicles, under United Nations control, and the
L4	efficiency that this might bring to an otherwise very
L5	challenged situation.
L6	41053 MR. WOLSON: Who was going to buy the
L 7	equipment, though?
L8	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: No
L9	one was certain then, but my thought was that I would
20	bring this to the Secretary General's attention, with a
21	business plan, with some backup that would persuade him
22	and help him bring it to the attention of the Security
23	Council. The Security Council would consider it. If
24	they found that it was a pretty good idea, they would
2.5	then refer it back through the Secretary General to the

1	U	Inited Nations Peacekeeping Division, and hopefully we
2	W	ould have wound up with some part of that concept
3	a	accepted.
4	41055	MR. WOLSON: But the vision that you
5	h	ad, which was one that hadn't been, to your knowledge,
6	a	vision that had been out there before at least not
7	t	o your knowledge
8	41056	Would that be a fair statement?
9	41057	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Well,
10	i	t was being actively discussed, as you know, in NATO
11	a	t the time. These multilateral organizations
12	е	experience similar problems, and I just felt that it
13	W	ould be because Canada was still involved in an
14	i	mportant and difficult situation in the former
15	Y	ugoslavia, with thousands of peacekeepers and lots of
16	е	equipment, that this might be a good illustration and a
17	g	good peg for me to operate with.
18	41058	MR. WOLSON: Had your vision
19	р	progressed to the point where it was your thought, at
20	1	east, that the UN would buy the equipment?
21	41059	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I
22	t	hought that was a distinct possibility, yes.
23	41060	MR. WOLSON: Even though they were
24	h	aving, themselves, financial difficulties?
25	41061	Is that not your evidence, that the

1	U.S. had sort of backed away and the United Nations was
2	hard done for money?
3	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Sure.
4	41063 MR. WOLSON: To your knowledge, had
5	the UN ever bought equipment peacekeeping
6	equipment purchased it, and then, I take it, used it
7	for UN Forces throughout the world?
8	41064 Had that ever happened before?
9	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I am
10	sure they have, but not on the scale that I was talking
11	about, and not with the concept that I was trying to
12	elevate to mature discussion.
13	41066 MR. WOLSON: Had you raised the idea
14	with Fred Bild, the Ambassador to China, when you were
15	in China?
16	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: No.
17	41068 MR. WOLSON: So your conversations
18	were, you believe, with the Foreign Minister
19	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yeah,
20	they were with the people who attended the lunch of the
21	Vice-Minister, who was very influential, there
22	41070 MR. WOLSON: And then, at 1800 hours,
23	there's a banquet
24	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
25	41072 MR. WOLSON: inviting the people

1		who had attended these meetings to a two-hour banquet,
2		I believe, and you had some further discussions there.
3	41073	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: With
4		Zhu Rongji, yes, the Vice-Premier and the Governor of
5		the Bank of China, whom I knew.
6	41074	MR. WOLSON: And what were those
7		conversations?
8	41075	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:
9		Similar, along with he had a large banquet for us, I
10		think, in the Great Hall of the People, after some
11		private meetings that we had had with him, and there
12		were a lot of people there, and a big head table, and I
13		think that I was on his immediate right, my principal
14		client was on his immediate left, and there were
15		cabinet ministers and vice-ministers throughout, and
16		the ambassadors were generally over here, and so on.
17	41076	It was kind of like a head table at a
18		Chamber of Commerce or you know
19	41077	MR. WOLSON: And what was the
20		attitude of that person when you raised the issue of
21		the UN perhaps buying equipment for peacekeeping, and
22		then the five members of the Security Council would
23		advance that?
24	41078	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I
25		simply explored with him the concept that we had discussed, and he certainly didn't appear to be in any 1 way unfriendly to the idea. 2 3 41079 MR. WOLSON: Were these brief discussions? 4 41080 5 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Over dinner --6 7 41081 MR. WOLSON: Okav. 8 41082 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Over dinner, basically. 41083 MR. WOLSON: Again, I am sure that 10 11 your main preoccupation was the client for whom you 12 were there, for the most part. 13 41084 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes, but let me tell you, sir, that I had another client, a 14 major Canadian corporation, and I thought that if I 15 16 could, in the normal course of affairs, raise questions of interest to him -- because the days are long, the 17 18 banquets go on for four or five hours, you have lots of 19 chance to converse, and I raised it in another circumstance, and that gave rise, within a year, to an 20 offer from the Government of China for us to come in on 21 22 behalf of that client and do a business development in 23 China. 41085 MR. WOLSON: So even -- obviously it 24 25 goes without saying -- if someone of your stature

1	advances a proposition, even if it's a five or
2		ten-minute conversation, it may result in business for
3		a client, and you took the opportunity on behalf of Mr.
4		Schreiber.
5	41086	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: It
6		did in this case in this other case I have just told
7		you about. It resulted in an invitation from the
8		Government of China to this international Canadian
9		corporation to come in and do a joint development with
10		them.
11	41087	MR. WOLSON: All right. Let me ask
12		you this. The Commissioner asked you, but I didn't
13		I was waiting for the answer, but I didn't hear the
14		answer.
15	41088	Could you succinctly tell me, if you
16		can, was China ever involved in peacekeeping before?
17	41089	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: To
18		the best of my knowledge, at the time, China, while an
19		excellent and vigorous, vigilant member of the Security
20		Council and the General Assembly a big supporter of
21		the UN I can't remember the Chinese themselves
22		either initiating or participating, in a major way, in
23		any peacekeeping.
24	41090	MR. WOLSON: How about Russia?
25	41091	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:

1	Russia was involved in what they called peacekeeping
2	throughout the Soviet Union at the time.
3	41092 MR. WOLSON: In their own country.
4	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: In
5	their own country.
6	41094 MR. WOLSON: Okay. What they called
7	peacekeeping.
8	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:
9	M'hmm.
10	41096 MR. WOLSON: That's not what you
11	would necessarily call peacekeeping.
12	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Not
13	all the time.
14	41098 MR. WOLSON: No. All right.
15	Did you ever meet with the Secretary
16	General of the UN to advance this proposal?
17	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Oh, I
18	met with the Secretary General of the UN, but not to
19	advance this particular proposal.
20	I told you that my intention was to
21	meet the P5 and then to meet with him, and then to
22	flesh out the program, if it developed that way.
23	41102 MR. WOLSON: No, but you had met with
24	China, you had met with Russia, you had met with
25	France

1	41103	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:
2	M'hmm.
3	41104	MR. WOLSON: you had met with the
4	United States
5	41105	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: No, 1
6	had not an of	ficial I didn't meet with officials of
7	the United St	ates
8	41106	MR. WOLSON: All right, so you had
9	met with thre	e.
10	41107	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I met
11	with James Ba	ker, I met with Cap Weinberger for
12	information a	nd advice, and so on, and counsel, but I
13	didn't have a	formal meeting in that regard with the
14	Clinton admin	istration, which was then in office.
15	41108	And I did not meet with the U.K.
16	41109	MR. WOLSON: All right. So you had
17	met with thre	e of the five France, China and
18	Russia
19	41110	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: When
20	we got interr	upted by Airbus, yes.
21	41111	MR. WOLSON: Okay. And, I take it,
22	after Airbus	at least I am advised as to what you
23	have told ano	ther forum after Airbus you had no
24	further deali	ngs with Schreiber's retainer.
25	41112	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: In

1	that regard.
2	41113 MR. WOLSON: Yes.
3	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: We
4	met, as you know, in Zurich in February of 1998, and
5	I have indicated to you, that was the first time that
6	he raised the question of the
7	41115 MR. WOLSON: Pasta.
8	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:
9	anti-obesity pasta machines and products.
10	41117 MR. WOLSON: But you didn't pursue
11	it. You didn't pursue that situation, other than you
12	made a call to McDonald's.
13	But you indicated the other day,
14	unless I am wrong, that you didn't that wasn't
15	really part of the retainer process.
16	41119 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I
17	didn't take it as part of the retainer, but I did mon
18	than that. Apart from that, there were communication
19	with Archer Daniels Midland, as I have said. I then,
20	in Toronto, with Mr. Alford, visited their laboratory
21	and warehouses in Toronto with Greg Alford.
22	And then I visited the restaurants
23	that they had set up in Toronto, I think at Commerce
24	Court West, on a couple of occasions, to see not only
25	the product, but to understand the technology a littl

1	bit	better.
2	41121	MR. WOLSON: Did you actually take it
3	as	part of your retainer that you were going to do
4	som	mething with pasta anti-obesity pasta?
5	41122	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I
6	was	sn't sure, but as you can see from the
7	cor	respondence, and the testimony I think that this
8	was	s in 1988-89. In 2000, I think, when he met with Mr.
9	Dou	ncet, he wondered whether I would accept a mandate in
10	the	e pasta business, as we have described, and in 2004
11	he	wrote me a lengthy, I may say, eulogistic letter,
12	ask	sing me to intervene with Bill and Melinda Gates, who
13	are	e friends of mine, in regard to the financing of
14	the	ese machines for schools throughout North America,
15	cla	aiming and I think he was right in this
16	cla	aiming the great value of this product for the
17	nut	crition of school children. That was his matter.
18	41123	So I was, I would say, intermittently
19	inv	volved on his behalf. Initially I suspected that
20	thi	s might be an extension of the mandate, as he
21	cle	early wanted me to do, but I, by that point in time,
22	had	d chosen to terminate that association.
23	41124	MR. WOLSON: All right. Now, when
24	you	said that you had called McDonald's on his
25	beh	nalf

1	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: No,
2	didn't say that I called McDonald's on his behalf. I
3	said that I had received a request, and I wasn't
4	sure I couldn't remember whether there had been a
5	communication with George Cohen or not. I wasn't sure
6	but I do recollect a period of time where Elmer MacKay
7	who had been one of his co-investors in the Seattle
8	pasta business, and a close friend of his, had spoken
9	to me about it. I wasn't sure if I had made that call
LO	I may have, but I couldn't recollect it for you.
L1	41126 MR. WOLSON: All right. When we
L2	heard that
L3	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I wa
L4	asked to do it, no doubt.
L5	41128 MR. WOLSON: Yes.
L6	When we heard that the other day, we
L7	took all of Mr. Schreiber's telephone calls, and I
L8	wonder, Mr. Hughes, if you could provide to Mr.
L9	Mulroney the Compendium of Telephone Contacts.
20	We found 44 Mr. Mulroney, we found
21	44 contacts telephone contacts, starting there
22	were just a few of them prior to 1995 August 23rd
23	and August 27th of '93 and that would have been
24	around the time you met with him, on August the 27th.
) 5	Allal Then we found a number of calls in

1 '95, '96 and '97, but I want to point some things out to you, because they speak to matters that you have 2 3 talked to. If you would look at Tab 23 --41132 4 5 41133 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: 6 23, yes. COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: Are you 7 41134 8 looking at the Compendium of Contacts? 41135 MR. WOLSON: I am looking at the Compendium of Telephone Contacts. 10 11 41136 I advised Mr. Mulroney that, I think, 12 there were 43 telephone calls -- two in '93, one in 13 '94, and then a series in '95, '96, '97. 14 41137 And I take it, generally speaking, Mr. Mulroney, that you don't -- you said the other day 15 16 that you had many telephone contacts with him, particularly after the LOR. 17 That would be a true statement? 18 41138 19 41139 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes. 20 41140 MR. WOLSON: Okay. Now, I want to point these things out to you, because you have 21 22 commented on them. 23 41141 Are you at Tab 23? THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I 24 41142 25 think I am, yes.

1	41143	MR. WOLSON: February 4, '97, excerpt
2	from Karlheinz Sch	hreiber's diary.
3	41144	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
4	41145	MR. WOLSON: In support of what you
5	have said, I feel	that I should put this on the record.
6	41146	February the 4th if you go into
7	the tab, do you ha	ave February the 4th?
8	41147	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes,
9	sir.
10	41148	That is what year?
11	41149	MR. WOLSON: 1997.
12	41150	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
13	41151	MR. WOLSON: It's Tab 23, and it
14	would be the first	t entry after the tab which outlines
15	the date.
16	41152	If you look at February the 4th, at
17	about 1600 hours,	it says, "Telephone Brian" and the
18	next word is a Ger	rman word that means "re:"
19	"McDonald's".
20	41153	Do you see that?
21	41154	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
22	41155	MR. WOLSON: Which is supportive of
23	what you have said	d, or at least it is an issue that I
24	thought I would p	ut on the record.
25	41156	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I

don't see "Brian" here, I see "Telephone..." 1 MR. WOLSON: It says, "Telephone 2 41157 3 Brian" -- B-R-I-A-N -- 1600 hours, and then there is a word that I think means "re:" and then it has "McDonald's". 5 6 41158 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Well, mine doesn't say "Brian", it says "Telephone" -- it 7 8 looks like "Rooter". 41159 Am I wrong in that? 9 41160 MR. WOLSON: February 4th of '97? 10 11 41161 You are on the 3rd. Look to the right, at the top it will say "February 4". 12 13 41162 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Oh, I'm sorry, you are quite right. 14 MR. WOLSON: It says, "Telephone 15 41163 16 Brian re: McDonald's." THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: It is 17 41164 18 right above "R. Canteloupe" -- "Canteloupo" I guess. 19 41165 MR. WOLSON: Yes. 41166 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: 20 That's where I am. 21 22 41167 MR. WOLSON: I wanted to point that 23 out, because it is something that you have talked about, and we were able to find that. 24 25 41168 Then, if you would go to Tab 24,

1	please
2	41169	COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: Mr. Wolson,
3	is this book ar	n exhibit?
4	41170	MR. WOLSON: If it's not, it should
5	be the next exh	nibit.
6	41171	COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: I don't
7	believe that it	is.
8	41172	MR. WOLSON: The parties have it, and
9	unless anyone o	objects, I would like to make it the next
10	exhibit.
11	41173	COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: I am not sure
12	if counsel have	e had an appropriate length of time to
13	consider it, bu	ıt
14	41174	MR. WOLSON: They have had it for
15	days.
16	41175	COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: They have had
17	it for days, o	cay.
18	41176	Mr. Pratte, are you prepared to
19	consent to this	s going in as an exhibit, sir?
20	41177	MR. PRATTE: I am, sir.
21	41178	COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: Thank you.
22	41179	Mr. Vickery
23	41180	MR. VICKERY: Yes.
24	41181	COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: Mr.

1	1 41182 MR. HOUS	TON: Yes, sir. Thank you.
2	2 41183 COMMISSI	ONER OLIPHANT: Mr. Auger
3	3 41184 MR. AUGE	R: Agreed.
4	4 41185 COMMISSI	ONER OLIPHANT: All right.
5	The Compendium of Telephor	ne Contacts will be received
6	and marked as Exhibit P-51	L.
7	7 EXH	IBIT P-51: Compendium of

9	9 41186 MR. WOLS	ON: Then, if you would look,
10	sir, at Tab 24 look to	February the 5th.
11	1 41187 THE RIGH	T HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
12	2 41188 MR. WOLS	ON: That would also be Feb.
13	5, '97. If you look under	February the 5th at 1900
14	hours, "Telephone Brian,"	there is another word, and
15	then "McDonald's".
16	5 41189 Do you s	ee that?
17	7 41190 THE RIGH	T HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes,
18	and then Fiegenwald.
19	9 41191 MR. WOLS	ON: Well, we are not going
20	there again.
21	1 41192 THE RIGH	T HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: And
22	then Kohl.
23	3 41193 MR. WOLS	ON: Yes, we are not going to
24	go to Mr. Fiegenwald agair	1.
25	5 41194 THE RIGH	T HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Why

not, sir?
1
                    MR. WOLSON: Because, quite frankly,
 2
    41195
       we have done it --
 3
                          THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I
    41196
         withdraw that remark.
 6
    41197
                          MR. WOLSON: All right.
                          COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: Just while we
    41198
 8
         are at it, Mr. Mulroney, we don't have to go to Stevie
         Cameron --

                          COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: -- and we 12
         don't have to go to the Letter of Request. You have 13
         made your point eloquently. It was eloquent the first time, it never got any better the second, third, fourth

         or fifth times. Okay?

19
    41201
                          THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I
         appreciate that, sir, as long as the point was made.
20
                          COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: Okay.

    41202
22

                          MR. WOLSON: It's made in spades, as 23
      they say, Mr. Mulroney.

                          Now, if you would go to Tab 28 --

WOLSON: Go to 14 of June. 41211 14 Ιt says at 1500 hours, "Brian -- pasta activities." 15 16 41212 Do you see that? THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: 17 41213 18 I do. 19 41214 MR. WOLSON: All right. I just wanted to -- I don't plan to go through all of the 20 phone calls, but there are three that we could find 21 22 where you dealt -- where, at least, Mr. Schreiber said 23 that he was calling you regarding pasta, and I thought 24 we should deal with those. 25 41215 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yeah,

I am mystified why that would be there, because he 1 didn't raise it with me, that I can recall, until 1998 2 3 in Zurich. 41216 MR. WOLSON: All right. I didn't 4 5 raise it, quite frankly, to challenge you on the 6 year --THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: No, I 7 41217 8 am mystified why he would put that in there. 41218 MR. WOLSON: Well, it's there, and I put that on the record. 10 11 41219 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes. 41220 MR. WOLSON: Now, I went slightly out 12 13 of context and I did that because you mentioned your Midland Corporation and Archer Daniels, and I thought 14 it was a convenient time to put that there. 15 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: M'hm. 16 41221 41222 17 MR. WOLSON: But I want to come back 18 to more mundane matters, Russia and Cyprus. 19 41223 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes. 41224 MR. 1	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:
2	August 23, yes.
3	41239 MR. WOLSON: That is where you are
4	departing Moscow to is it called Sochi?
5	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:
6	Sochi, yes.
7	MR. WOLSON: And on there it says:
8	"Note:
9	1. The programme provides for a
10	meeting with President B.
11	Yeltsin and his wife, a round of
12	the city and its surroundings".
13	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
14	41243 MR. WOLSON: And you met with
15	Mr. Yeltsin? You did?
16	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes,
17	sir.
18	41245 MR. WOLSON: I know that you had a
19	very good relationship with him. I know you had sent
20	him some couches at one point.
21	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:
22	That's right.
23	41247 MR. WOLSON: He liked the couches at
24	24 Sussex and you sent him a gift of some comfortable
25	Canadian couches.

1	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:
2	That's right.
3	41249 MR. WOLSON: I hope they were
4	Canadian.
5	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: They
6	were.
7	41251 MR. WOLSON: And you were with him.
8	You have a nice rapport with Mr. Yeltsin and at one
9	point he leaned over to him tell me if I'm wrong, a
10	least I have read this and you asked him whether he
11	would be interested in your proposal?
12	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:
13	Essentially, yes.
14	I think the schedule itself,
15	Mr. Commissioner, I think there was a change on Monday
16	because we wound up in Sochi for two days, two nights
17	with the Yeltsins.
18	We had many I think we had at
19	least one dinner, a couple of lunches with them, and s
20	on. They were in the villa right next door to us.
21	41255 MR. WOLSON: All right. So this is
22	social visit.
23	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
24	And we had a tour I remember we had a tour on his -
25	on the presidential yacht. We had a lunch or dinner

1	there with Mila and the kids in his children and
2	grandchildren.
3	So it was and throughout this -	· - ]
4	shouldn't say throughout. On a couple of occasions	in
5	the two-day period we had meetings. I wouldn't cal	1
6	formal meetings because I was no longer in office.
7	41258 MR. WOLSON: What did you raise wi	.th
8	him regarding Mr. Schreiber?
9	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I
10	didn't raise Mr. Schreiber with him.
11	41260 MR. WOLSON: No, no, but regarding	ſ
12	the retainer that you were on with Mr. Schreiber.
13	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I
14	discussed with him, as I did with the Chinese and
15	subsequently did with the French authorities, what	he
16	thought of the idea and whether he thought that he
17	could be helpful to us in this.
18	He told me that he thought it was	a
19	good idea. He misconstrued what I was saying and s	aid
20	I would like to buy some of those but I can't affor	d
21	it; we are broke.
22	41263 MR. WOLSON: Did you correct him?
23	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:
24	Pardon?
25	41265 MR. WOLSON: Did you correct him?

1	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: No,
2	he was broke. I didn't correct him.
3	41267 MR. WOLSON: No, no, I'm sure he was
4	broke.
5	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
6	41269 MR. WOLSON: Well, I don't know that
7	he was broke. He had a yacht.
8	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:
9	Believe me believe me, the Canadian taxpayers knew
10	he was broke
11	41271 MR. WOLSON: But did you tell him
12	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:
13	because we helped him out a lot.
14	41273 MR. WOLSON: Did you tell him that
15	your idea wasn't to sell to Russia.
16	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes,
17	I did.
18	41275 MR. WOLSON: Your idea was to have
19	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Seek
20	his advice in regard to the United Nations. And he
21	said look, I think it is a good concept. Just because
22	we can't afford any now, we certainly can see how that
23	would have advantages and could have benefits. Why
24	don't you push it forward and if we can help you along
25	the way, we will be happy to try.

1	41277	MR. WOLSON: What did you attribute
2		as expenses towards your retainer on this trip,
3		approximately?
4	41278	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Well,
5		as you know, I did not claim any expenses
6	41279	MR. WOLSON: No, that's not what I'm
7		asking.
8	41280	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Well,
9		I think it's relevant, sir, if I may.
10	41281	I didn't claim any expenses when I
11		paid my income tax, and so all of that was declared as
12		income. I took no no expenses.
13	41282	But I think the amount was somewhere
14		in the neighbourhood of $12,000.
15	41283	MR. WOLSON: Okay. You would agree
16		with me, though, sir, that you told me you spent
17		about and I'm not going to quibble with the
18		amounts $10,000 on the China trip.
19	41284	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:
20		Something, yes.
21	41285	MR. WOLSON: $12,000
22	41286	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:
23		Approximately $40,000 or $45,000, as I remember now.
24	41287	MR. WOLSON: All right. And what you
25		did was you made either notes or you kept your

1	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I
2	kept an account.
3	41289 MR. WOLSON: credit card accounts.
4	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: M'hm.
5	41291 MR. WOLSON: And you could attribute,
6	if one had to. You had an inventory of your expenses.
7	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
8	Well, it was an inventory, not as good as a chartered
9	accountant might have, but it was an inventory indeed.
10	41293 MR. WOLSON: Well, you are not a
11	chartered accountant.
12	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: No,
13	I'm not.
14	41295 MR. WOLSON: I wouldn't accuse you of
15	that, but you did keep an inventory as it were.
16	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes,
17	I did.
18	41297 MR. WOLSON: Okay. Now, I want to
19	ask you, your trip to your first trip to see
20	Mr. Mitterrand, that was the 28th and 29th of
21	September, Tab 75.
22	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes,
23	sir.
24	41299 MR. WOLSON: He found out that you
25	were in Paris, you said.

1	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:	M'hm.
2	41301 MR. WOLSON: He called you and you	ou
3	had a visit with him?
4	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:	Yes,
5	he called us and we he invited Mila and me to -	·- it
6	was late in the afternoon when he called the hotel	and
7	he invited us over to L'Élysée, and we went over a	ınd
8	spent a part of the evening with him.
9	41303 MR. WOLSON: Fid you raise the i	ssue
10	of the UN involvement and the Thyssen product with	ı him?
11	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:	Yes,
12	both there and in 1995 in October with him.
13	41305 MR. WOLSON: Okay. And was '95
14	similar to this trip in '94? It was because I	had
15	not heard about the '95 trip, so let's cover them	both
16	now.
17	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:	M'hm.
18	41307 MR. WOLSON: The '94 trip you ha	ve
19	told us about. You had a meeting or during you	ır
20	meeting with him you raised the idea of the UN Sec	urity
21	Council?
22	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:	Yes.
23	41309 MR. WOLSON: He told you, as I
24	understand it, that France is trying to develop th	neir
25	own vehicle.

1	1 41310 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN	N MULRONEY: M'hm.
2	2 41311 MR. WOLSON: Your ar	nswer is?
3	3 41312 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN	N MULRONEY: Yes.
4	4 41313 MR. WOLSON: And tha	at that was in the
5	5 interest of France to have their own	product as opposed
6	6 to buying a German or a Canadian prod	uct.
7	7 41314 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN	N MULRONEY: He
8	8 told me that that Thyssen vehicle of	which I spoke was
9	9 well known to him under the German-Fr	ench partnership.
10	0 41315 MR. WOLSON: Yes.
11	1 41316 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN	N MULRONEY: He
12	knew pretty well everything about that	t, including
13	procurement, because they were working	g on procurement
14	deals together, he and Chancellor Koh	1. And he told me
15	5 that he knew the product. He thought	it was excellent.
16	But he said you know, Brian, we are t	rying to develop
17	our own thing here.
18	8 41317 And I said well, I w	understand that,
19	but I'm not trying to move anybody in	or move anybody
20	out in regard to your national polici	es with Germany.
21	1 I'm just wondering what your attitude	might be or do
22	you think it is a good idea in terms	of the
23	standardization and the harmonization	and the
24	4 pre-planning and the pre-positioning	of these vehicles
25	in trouble spots. Do you think that	is a good idea?

And he said yes, I do. 1 2 And I said what would your attitude 41318 3 be if this came before the Security Council? He said well, we would like to examine it very carefully, but I 5 find much to commend -- much to be in support of in this idea. Why don't you go ahead and keep me posted. 6 MR. WOLSON: What about the '95 7 41319 8 visit? Tell us about that. 41320 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: The 1995 visit --10 11 41321 MR. WOLSON: Why were you there, first of all? 12 13 41322 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Well, I wasn't in France. It was in Colorado Springs. 14 Bush Presidential Library had convened a number of 15 16 people for a special event to record memories, the end of the Cold War. It was being moderated by Jim Lehrer 17 18 of MacNeil/Lehrer and PBS and was to be televised in a number of series, but mostly all the footage would be 19 retained for the Presidential Library. 20 MR. WOLSON: But let me stop you 21 41323 22 there, because I don't need to have too much detail 23 about it. You had a chance to meet with 24 41324 Mitterrand there? 25

1	4132	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:
2		Mitterrand and Chancellor Kohl and Mrs. Thatcher and
3		President Bush and I were invited to deal with our
4		recollections of the end of the Cold War.
5	4132	MR. WOLSON: Did you have a private
6		discussion with President Mitterrand then regarding the
7		UN project that you had talked to him about in 1994,
8		September 28th and 29th?
9	4132	7 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
10		He initiated it and said to me I think it was over
11		breakfast he said Brian, how are you coming along
12		with your UN project? I said well, I think we are
13		moving along, but it is as you know with the UN and
14		with this kind of international thing, events or
15		progress is pretty glacial.
16	4132	8 He said you're telling me, I know all
17		about that, but keep going. I think it is a pretty
18		good idea.
19	4132	9 MR. WOLSON: All right. And while
20		you were there, did you have a chance to speak with
21		Mrs. Thatcher, the fourth person or was she then
22		still Prime Minister?
23	4133	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: No,
24		she had long since departed.
25	4133	MR. WOLSON: Okay. So was Mitterrand

1	the President of France at that time?
2	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: He
3	was, he had been up until a few months before.
4	41333 MR. WOLSON: So when you met with him
5	in Colorado Springs, he was no longer President.
6	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: That
7	is right.
8	41335 MR. WOLSON: Okay.
9	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:
10	Although he very much was, of course, when first I met
11	him at the L'Élysée.
12	41337 MR. WOLSON: Yes, I understand that.
13	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
14	41339 MR. WOLSON: Did you go to the United
15	States to meet with U.S. officials regarding this idea?
16	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes,
17	I did. I had long conversations with Jim Baker about
18	the United Nations. In fairness to Jim, I cannot
19	recall any specific conversation dealing with
20	procurement with him. What I was interested in getting
21	from Jim Baker was his remarkable experience and advice
22	as to what the UN excuse me, what the U.S. reaction
23	and role might be.
24	It is a fact of life, if you can't
25	get it past the United States at the United Nations or

1	at NATO or the G7 or elsewhere, it is not going to go
2	very far.
3	So I had conversations where I really
4	sought Jim's wise counsel. He had spent he had been
5	both Secretary of the Treasury, Chief of Staff to
6	President Reagan and Secretary of State under President
7	George Herbert Walker Bush.
8	41343 MR. WOLSON: What was his position at
9	the time? Was he still in government?
10	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: He
11	had just stepped down.
12	MR. WOLSON: Okay.
13	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: And I
14	would meet with him, just get some spoke to him, get
15	some counsel as to the general approach to the United
16	Nations, to the Secretary General, the weak spots, and
17	so on; and the same kind of approach with Cap
18	Weinberger, who had been the Secretary of Defence for
19	President Reagan for I think eight years or
20	thereabouts.
21	MR. WOLSON: So he, too, was out of
22	office when you talked to him?
23	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: He
24	was out of office.
25	41349 MR. WOLSON: And when were these

1	meetings?
2	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: They
3	would have taken place prior to prior to 1995, I'm
4	sure. Prior to the end of 1995.
5	41351 MR. WOLSON: All right.
6	41352 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I
7	should say that Secretary Weinberger, who knew a lot
8	about this, you know, his position was this is going to
9	be a tough one for the Americans because the Americans
10	are going to want to provide the equipment themselves
11	because of their military background.
12	And I said well, you know, Cap, but
13	this is not military in the conventional sense. He
14	said no, that's why I think that you might have a
15	chance here. It might be an opportunity for any
16	administration to show some opening here and to give it
17	to another to another strong member of the United
18	Nations.
19	And he said, look, it will take some
20	political negotiation here, but he said given your
21	especially strong relationship with the leaders of the
22	American administrations, both in Congress and the
23	White House, you may be able to make this happen.
24	41355 MR. WOLSON: So your meetings with
25	various people you met in '93 with the Chinese.

1	41356	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: M'hm.
2	41357	MR. WOLSON: Right? Your answer is
3	yes?
4	41358	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes,
5	sir.
6	41359	MR. WOLSON: You met in 1994 with
7	Yeltsin.
8	41360	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
9	41361	MR. WOLSON: You met in 1994 with
10	Mitterrand for th	he first time while he was in office.
11	41362	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
12	41363	MR. WOLSON: You met in 1995 with
13	Mitterrand when h	he was out of office; you met him in
14	Colorado Springs?	?
15	41364	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
16	41365	MR. WOLSON: You met with Caspar
17	Weinberger of the	e United States, who was not in office,
18	in 1995.
19	41366	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: M'hm.
20	41367	MR. WOLSON: Your answer?
21	41368	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes,
22	sir.
23	41369	MR. WOLSON: You met with James
24	Baker, who was no	ot in office. You met with him in
25	1995?

1	41370 T	HE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: That
2	is right, yes.
3	41371 M	IR. WOLSON: Then and I'm only
4	going to say this,	not to give you an opportunity to
5	respond too vocife	rously. Then the LOR came down.
6	41372 I	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: And
7	then the LOR came of	down.
8	41373 M	IR. WOLSON: And that ended your
9	retainer activities	s until you saw Mr. Schreiber in 1998
10	at the hotel in Zü:	rich?
11	41374 I	HE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:
12	That's right.
13	41375 M	IR. WOLSON: Now, if we could then go
14	to Tab 82.
15	41376 T	HE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
16	41377 M	IR. WOLSON: Tab 82 is a redacted
17	schedule for your	trip to Klosters, Frankfurt and Rome.
18	41378 T	HE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes,
19	sir.
20	41379 M	IR. WOLSON: And it is redacted again
21	for issues of your	privacy.
22	41380 T	HE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
23	And my clients, pr	incipally my client's privacy.
24	41381 M	IR. WOLSON: And I'm not challenging

that, but for someone who looks at this document to see

25

1	the reductions, that is why they are there.
2	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
3	41383 MR. WOLSON: Now, if you would look
4	to the first page, it is a trip to these three
5	countries, Switzerland, Germany and Italy, from the
6	30th of January to the 6th of February, '98.
7	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
8	41385 MR. WOLSON: Did you fly on a private
9	aircraft or did you fly commercially?
10	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:
11	Private.
12	41387 MR. WOLSON: Okay. You were there to
13	do work on behalf of one of your retainers, aside from
14	Mr. Schreiber?
15	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: The
16	World Gold Council.
17	41389 MR. WOLSON: Okay. I didn't want to
18	mention the name, but
19	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
20	No, that's okay.
21	41391 MR. WOLSON: but that is why you
22	were there. And you were going to these three
23	locations to speak to various people at those
24	locations?
25	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I had

1	scheduled meetings and I met with the Governor of the
2	Central Bank of Switzerland, the Governor of the
3	European Central Bank in Frankfurt
4	41393 MR. WOLSON: I really don't need to
5	know.
6	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:
7	That's what I was doing.
8	41395 MR. WOLSON: Okay.
9	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:
10	Meeting the Governors of the banks.
11	41397 MR. WOLSON: You were meeting with
12	various people.
13	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
14	41399 MR. WOLSON: If you turn to the
15	second page of Tab 82
16	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: M'hm.
17	41401 MR. WOLSON: February 2, 1998.
18	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
19	41403 MR. WOLSON: Are you there?
20	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes,
21	I am.
22	41405 MR. WOLSON: That is the day that you
23	meet with Mr. Schreiber in Zürich at the Savoy Hotel?
24	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: That
25	is right.

1	41407 MR. WOLSON: You were in another
2	location and it indicates:
3	"A limousine from Brunel
4	Carriage will pick you up at the
5	hotel and proceed to the SAVOY
6	Hotel in Zurich".
7	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: M'hm.
8	41409 MR. WOLSON: So you were in Klosters,
9	I think, and you were being picked up and driven to
10	Zürich. Is that fair to say?
11	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I was
12	in Klosters for meetings with Peter Munk, the Chairman
13	and Founder of the Barrick Gold Corporation and I was
14	picked up after the meetings
15	41411 MR. WOLSON: Yes?
16	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:
17	and driven to Zürich.
18	41413 MR. WOLSON: And you arrive in
19	Zürich you are to arrive in Zürich at 11:30 in the
20	morning.
21	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: M'hm.
22	41415 MR. WOLSON: It says:
23	"MBM will arrive at the Savoy
24	Hotel"
25	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.

1	41417 MR. WOLSON: Do you see that?
2	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
3	41419 MR. WOLSON: You are going to have
4	lunch in your room, it says at that the next page of
5	the document.
6	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
7	MR. WOLSON: Now, the lunch with
8	Schreiber and that's who you were having lunch with
9	right?
10	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: That
11	is right.
12	41423 MR. WOLSON: It doesn't say that, but
13	that is who you were going to have lunch with.
14	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I
15	suppose so, yes.
16	MR. WOLSON: Okay. When did the
17	lunch start and how long was the lunch?
18	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Well,
19	it looks to have started at 12:30 and, I don't know, I
20	suppose it was 45 minutes or something like that.
21	41427 MR. WOLSON: It says 12:30 and then
22	at 2:15 a limo was going to pick you up.
23	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: M'hm.
24	Yes.
25	MR. WOLSON: Okay. So the lunch

would have been some time from 12:30 on until the limo 1 picked you up, or shortly before that? 2 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Not 3 41430 necessarily. I was nursing what's called a frozen 4 shoulder. 5 MR. WOLSON: Yes, you have said that. 6 41431 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: 7 41432 8 have indicated that. It was extraordinarily painful. I had to take medication for it and I had to, as often as I could, take hot baths to deal with it, and change. 10 11 So I would have -- whatever the number was you can, I 12 suppose, knock a half an hour off and I would have done 13 things I had to do with the medication and so on and then gotten out of there and got on my way to -- I 14 quess I was going to Frankfurt that day. 15 16 41433 MR. WOLSON: All right. So an hour or so for lunch. 17 18 41434 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: 19 Probably an hour. 20 41435 MR. WOLSON: Can we agree on that? 41436 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes, 21 22 sure. 23 41437 MR. WOLSON: Okay. So you go to Zürich. You are in Zürich from 11:30 until 2:15, so 24 about two hours 45 by my math.

1	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
2	41439 MR. WOLSON: And of that time you are
3	spending part of it with Mr. Schreiber?
4	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: That
5	is right.
6	MR. WOLSON: When was the time that
7	you last saw Mr. Schreiber prior to the 2nd of February
8	of 2000?
9	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:
10	Nineteen ninety-eight.
11	41443 MR. WOLSON: Yes. This is 1998,
12	February 2, and what I would like to know is when did
13	you see Schreiber last prior to that date.
14	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: That
15	is what I'm saying, 1994.
16	41445 MR. WOLSON: Ninety-four?
17	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:
18	That's right.
19	MR. WOLSON: At the Pierre Hotel.
20	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: At
21	the Pierre Hotel, yes.
22	MR. WOLSON: December 8, '94?
23	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:
24	That's right.
25	41451 MR. WOLSON: All right. And you know

1	what Mr. Schreiber has to say about this meeting.
2	Schreiber has testified that you
3	appeared nervous, but then again you are in pain,
4	obviously.
5	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Well,
6	didn't Mr. Terrien testify that I looked entirely
7	normal, in good humour?
8	41454 MR. WOLSON: Okay. But
9	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I
10	wasn't I wasn't nervous. I was certainly in pain,
11	but I wasn't nervous.
12	41456 MR. WOLSON: Okay.
13	41457 Mr. Schreiber says that the
14	meeting the principal point of the meeting was that
15	you wanted to know from him whether there was any
16	evidence of you having received money from him.
17	You know that that is what
18	Mr. Schreiber has said?
19	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:
20	That's what he said.
21	41460 MR. WOLSON: Okay. So I want your
22	position on that.
23	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:
24	That's untrue.
25	41462 MR. WOLSON: Did you raise with him

at all the money you had received from him by way of a 1 retainer? 2 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Not a 3 41463 bit. 4 41464 MR. WOLSON: So they two hundred --5 6 41465 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: did he. 7 8 41466 MR. WOLSON: So the $225,000 retainer was not a subject that was alluded to at all by either of you? 10 11 41467 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: No, 12 it was not. 13 41468 MR. WOLSON: Okay. Why would you have met with him in Zürich? You had not seen him in 14 four years. What was the reason that you wanted to see 15 16 him? THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Well, 17 41469 18 you will remember that Mr. Schreiber and I, at that 19 time and at the time of Airbus, you know the manner in which I knew him, how he was introduced to me. 20 was a business guy of good reputation and we got 21 22 knocked with his Airbus thing. 23 41470 And as far as it dealt with me, the accusations were as false about him as they were about 24 me in terms of me, Brian Mulroney. 25

1	41471 He had been, in the course of this,
2	and objective ally. He had called me many times. He
3	is the one who let me know about it. He called me man	У
4	times. His lawyer at the time was Robert Hladun from
5	Edmonton, an outstanding attorney who was very helpful
6	to me and my wife and family.
7	We didn't have a clue what was going
8	on and Bob Hladun helped us, as did Mr. Schreiber, in
9	providing us with information after we had to suffer
10	the and I will respect what you said,
11	Mr. Commissioner but after we had suffered the
12	damage from the false accusations in 1995.
13	So we have spoken many times in the
14	course of that and in the course of subsequent years,
15	you know, leading up to this.
16	This was my first opportunity I
17	was going to be in Switzerland, the first time I had
18	been there for many years. Mr. Schreiber, I was
19	informed by Mr. MacKay, had moved from Germany to
20	Switzerland. I didn't know why. We now know why, but
21	I didn't know at the time.
22	41475 And I thought that and remember,
23	he and I were friendly at the time. I thought that as
24	a simple courtesy, inasmuch as we were going to be
25	there that I should invite him to have lunch and say

1	hello. So my o	ffice communicated with his in
2	Switzerland and	he came over. We had that brief
3	luncheon and he left.
4	41476	MR. WOLSON: All right. Now, you
5	knew and I d	on't want to get into the whole issue
6	except that you	knew, Brian Mulroney knew that you had
7	no involvement	in this Airbus scandal.
8	41477	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:
9	That's right.
10	41478	MR. WOLSON: But you didn't know
11	about Schreiber	?
12	41479	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I did
13	not, no.
14	41480	MR. WOLSON: You didn't know whether
15	Schreiber was a	s involved as can be. You didn't know
16	that?
17	41481	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I
18	didn't, sir.
19	41482	I just knew that, as it applied to
20	me, it was fals	e.
21	41483	MR. WOLSON: Did you not think that
22	it might be bet	ter I understand that he told you
23	about the Lette	r of Request and I understand that you
24	talked many tim	es.
25	41484	Did you not think, knowing that you

1	had nothing to do with the scandal, to sort of keep
2	your distance from Mr. Schreiber.
3	It was nice that you had
4	communications by telephone; he was helpful to you.
5	But did you not feel that perhaps you should keep your
6	distance or, in the alternative, would your counsel not
7	have suggested to you, you know, Mr. Mulroney, we know
8	about you, but we don't know about this guy. Stay away
9	from him, he might be bad news.
10	Did you feel that way or did you get
11	that advice?
12	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: No,
13	neither. I knew that the people to stay away from was
14	the Department Of Justice and the RCMP, because they
15	had falsely
16	41488 MR. WOLSON: Yes.
17	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:
18	completely falsely sent that letter trying to destroy
19	me. They were the people that I was interested in
20	staying away from, not someone who had been equally
21	charged and equally vilified, and all I knew about him
22	as applies to me was that there was no wrongdoing.
23	41490 MR. WOLSON: No, I understand that
24	perfectly, but you never thought that it would be good
25	sense to watch your steps with him?

1	That wasn't an issue you thought of?
2	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I
3	didn't, sir.
4	41493 MR. WOLSON: Okay. And you rented
5	probably, if not the most expensive hotel in
6	Switzerland, certainly the Savoy is an expensive chain
7	of hotels. I have never stayed at one, but you would
8	say that they are an expensive hotel?
9	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: When
10	you work for the World Gold Council
11	41495 MR. WOLSON: They pay in gold so you
12	are in good shape.
13	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:
14	they look after you pretty well.
15	So given my beat-up shape with the
16	41498 MR. WOLSON: All right.
17	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:
18	frozen shoulder and what have you, I didn't think this
19	was inappropriate. For Zürich. Zürich is not
20	inexpensive anywhere.
21	41500 MR. WOLSON: All right. So the
22	answer to the question is the World Gold Corp. was kind
23	enough to pay for the hotel?
24	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
25	41502 MR. WOLSON: That's the answer?

1	41503	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:
2	That's right.
3	41504	MR. WOLSON: All right. Thank you,
4	sir.
5	41505	Now, it is quarter to 3:00. I am
6	going to move to	another topic. I could suggest we
7	have a brief rec	ess now.
8	41506	I can tell you I am on page 15, so we
9	are making some	progress.
10	41507	I leave it to counsel and to
11	Mr. Mulroney whe	ther we would like a brief break now or
12	I should motor a	long.
13	41508	COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: I am most
14	concerned about	Mr. Mulroney. He is on the witness
15	stand.
16	41509	Would you like to take a break now or
17	continue for a w	hile?
18	41510	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Well,
19	if Mr. Wolson sa	ys he is on page 15, 15 of how many?
20	41511	MR. WOLSON: Fifteen of 28. We are
21	doing well.
22	41512	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I
23	think we should	continue for a while.
24	41513	MR. WOLSON: Perfect.
25	41514	COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: Okay.

1 41515 MR. WOLSON: All right, let me 2 take --THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: How 3 41516 about until 3:00, Mr. Commissioner. Would that be all 4 5 right? 6 41517 MR. WOLSON: Let me take you, then, 7 to the year 1999. 8 41518 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes, sir. 41519 MR. WOLSON: That was an important 10 11 year in your relationship with Mr. Schreiber because in 12 August of '99 he was arrested. 41520 13 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: That's right. 14 MR. WOLSON: He was charged with 15 41521 fraud, tax evasion, bribery and corruption. 16 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes. 17 41522 18 41523 MR. WOLSON: He was wanted in 19 Germany. This is what you learned. 20 41524 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes, sir. 21 22 41525 MR. WOLSON: And although you would 23 be the first to say that he was and ought to have been presumed innocent, these criminal allegations put a 24 25 different slant on things?

1	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
2	41527 MR. WOLSON: If he had not been
3	charged criminally, would you have reported the
4	$225,000 to CRA in that year?
5	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Well,
6	that is a hypothetical question. I didn't have to
7	report anything because I was on a retainer. I was not
8	late with my taxes. And when the retainer came to an
9	end, I would have declared it as income, taken into my
10	income and paid taxes on it.
11	41529 MR. WOLSON: When did the retainer
12	come to an end?
13	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: When
14	I decided in December of that year that it was time to
15	terminate the retainer and to move on.
16	41531 MR. WOLSON: And why did you
17	terminate the retainer?
18	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Well,
19	for two reasons. First, the one that you raise, sir.
20	41533 MR. WOLSON: The criminal charges.
21	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: The
22	criminal charges were very important.
23	41535 MR. WOLSON: What was the second
24	reason?
25	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I

1	wasn't I knew then of course I wasn't dealing at all
2	with the man I thought I was.
3	The other thing, I was taken aback,
4	Commissioner, by the fact that he hadn't told me at all
5	about anything like this when we met in Switzerland or
6	where when we spoke. And apparently the German
7	authorities had been moving in on him. He left Germany
8	and went to Switzerland. The Swiss authorities started
9	to move on him. He moved out of there to Canada where
10	he had dual citizenship and was arrested in Toronto.
11	He had ample opportunity to tell me
12	what was going on, but I never heard a word. So that
13	disturbed me that this took place.
14	41539 MR. WOLSON: Yes.
15	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: And
16	then, as I have indicated to you, sometime in early
17	December, or thereabouts, Mr. Schreiber I was
18	advised that Mr. Schreiber had said to someone else
19	that Brian Mulroney has an income tax problem.
20	Now, Brian Mulroney didn't have an
21	income tax problem, but it was very clear to me that
22	Mr. Schreiber intended to create an income tax problem
23	for Brian Mulroney. And the guy that was charged in
24	Germany with bribery, corruption, fraud and income tax
25	evagion was no was no shild in this league

1	41542	So I felt that it was this was the
2	beginning of	a threat. I took it that way, and I
3	figured that	t it would be inappropriate for me to
4	continue a f	formal association with him in terms of the
5	retainer.
6	41543	MR. WOLSON: All right. And I'm
7	going to com	ne to the tax issues in a short while, but I
8	want to cont	inue on with 1999.
9	41544	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
10	41545	MR. WOLSON: If you turn, please, to
11	Tab 87 of Bo	ook 2 that's the large book, Tab 87.
12	41546	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes,
13	sir.
14	41547	MR. WOLSON: This is the fifth estate
15	show, Octobe	er 20, 1999.
16	41548	And I'm not looking for your views of
17	the fifth es	state because I know them, but I am going to
18	direct you t	to a couple of particular areas.
19	41549	And just to put things in
20	perspective,	your friend and colleague Mr. Doucet
21	testified be	efore this inquiry.
22	41550	Amongst other things he said that
23	when he hear	rd this when he became aware of this
24	show, he tho	ought that (a) Schreiber was getting too
25	chatty with	the media; and (b) he didn't like the way

1	things were unfold	ding. So he became more diligent in
2	memorializing cert	cain events.
3	41551	Were you aware of the show?
4	41552	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I was
5	aware of it, yes.
6	41553	I should tell you, I didn't see it
7	and I have never r	read this transcript, but I was
8	certainly aware of	it.
9	41554	MR. WOLSON: Okay. I'm going to
10	point to a couple	of things in the transcript.
11	41555	If you look at page 1
12	41556	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
13	41557	MR. WOLSON: I mentioned this to you
14	the other day and	now we have this document so I want
15	to raise it with y	ou.
16	41558	Linden MacIntyre, the very last line
17	of the first page:
18		"The whole world clearly
19		didn't"
20	41559	Well, let me back it up.
21		"One of Mr. Schreiber's former
22		business associates was talking
23		about Schreiber and the way that
24		Schreiber did business."
25	41560	And then Mr. MacIntyre says:

1	"The whole world clearly didn't
2	include then Premier Peter
3	Loughheed's Alberta, according
4	to"
5	This business associate. Then at
6	page 2 it says:
7	"Loughheed told everybody in his
8	office here in Edmonton that
9	anybody who does business with
10	Karlheinz Schreiber or his
11	associates is out, in other
12	words, doesn't get nothing."
13	Were you aware of Peter Loughheed's,
14	Premier Loughheed's view of Mr. Schreiber?
15	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: No, I
16	was not.
17	41564 MR. WOLSON: Okay. Then I want you
18	to continue along to page 7 of this transcript, if you
19	will, please.
20	You touched on this earlier.
21	Mr. Doucet has mentioned this, so I want to read this
22	to you. The second paragraph.
23	They talk about a Conservative
24	convention and I don't much care about that in terms of
25	raising that with you, but I want to go to the line, it

1	is the third line down:
2	"July 26th Schreiber transferred
3	$500,000 from that Frankfurt
4	sub-account into a new Canadian
5	dollars sub-account"
6	And he gives a number:
7	" code-name 'Britan.' The
8	next day someone withdrew more
9	than $100,000 in cash. Then
10	there was another $100,000 cash
11	withdrawal three months later,
12	and the following year, another
13	$100,000 in cash.
14	We wanted to speak directly to
15	the man best positioned to
16	explain those transactions"
17	41568 And they ask Mr. Schreiber about
18	Britan and Schreiber doesn't say anything.
19	Do you see that?
20	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
21	MR. WOLSON: Okay. And that's how
22	you became aware of the Britan account. You said
23	earlier that some fifth estate show had aired.
24	Is this how you became aware of it,
25	the Britan account?

1	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I
2	became aware of it I think after this was conveyed to
3	me.
4	41574 MR. WOLSON: This is the Greenspan
5	and somebody must have told you about this fifth estate
6	show, probably Mr. Doucet.
7	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes,
8	I was told about it, yes.
9	MR. WOLSON: Okay.
10	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: And
11	it also in that same context, sir, I do remember
12	something along those lines where the moderator said:
13	"All of which raises the
14	intriguing possibility that
15	Karlheinz Schreiber created a
16	phony paper trail to fool the
17	German taxman, leaving room for
18	inevitable speculation about
19	some important Canadians like
20	Brian Mulroney"
21	Et cetera, et cetera.
22	41579 MR. WOLSON: All right.
23	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: That
24	sounds familiar, I think.
25	41581 MR. WOLSON: I have read it.

1	41582 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes
2	41583 MR. WOLSON: You know of it. I'm
3	sure the Commissioner knows about it. Probably most
4	counsel know of it.
5	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes
6	41585 MR. WOLSON: But let's then move
7	along.
8	41586 Fred Doucet says that when he hears
9	this information, he became concerned for you. And	70u
10	knew Fred would protect your back. There is no
11	question about that.
12	Fred would help you if he could.
13	41588 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes
14	indeed, he would help me to the limits of his abilit	7
15	and
16	41589 MR. WOLSON: Sure.
17	41590 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:
18	and in a fully honest fashion. He wouldn't go beyon	ì
19	that.
20	41591 MR. WOLSON: And then if you turn t	0
21	Tab 89, you will see a memo that Mr. Doucet creates	:0
22	memorialize, albeit in 1999 he memorializes the
23	December 8, '94 meeting that you had with
24	Mr. Schreiber.
25	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I s	ee

1	that, sir.
2	MR. WOLSON: Okay. Were you aware
3	that he had done that?
4	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: No.
5	MR. WOLSON: Were you aware that Fred
6	was concerned Mr. Doucet I should say, to be more
7	proper; that he was concerned that Mr. Schreiber was
8	getting very chatty with the media?
9	And the concern that Mr. Doucet
10	had and I'm assuming he passed it on to you was
11	that perhaps he was feeding the fifth estate
12	information.
13	Is that something that Mr. Doucet
14	advised you?
15	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: He
16	may have. All I knew, sir, was that the general view
17	was that the new element here, the new element
18	beginning the 1st of September, thereabouts, 1999
19	and now we are heading towards the end of the year
20	is that Mr. Schreiber is under an extradition order to
21	be returned to Germany.
22	MR. WOLSON: Yes.
23	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: That
24	became the driving force of his existence: to do
25	anything he could to avoid being returned to Germany,

1	where it was said	d it was said that with these
2	serious charges a	against him, he would probably spend
3	the rest of his	life in jail.
4	41601	MR. WOLSON: Okay. But I want to ask
5	you whether Mr. I	Doucet had told you of his concerns
6	about Schreiber?	Do you recall that?
7	41602	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes,
8	he told me that	something to the effect that he
9	didn't like the	smell of this whatsoever.
10	41603	MR. WOLSON: Okay.
11	41604	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: That
12	Schreiber was man	noeuvring in the background to put out
13	stories that were	e inconsistent with the facts, as he
14	knew them.
15	41605	Yes, he told me that, sir.
16	41606	MR. WOLSON: Did you know that he was
17	going to meet wit	th Mr. Schreiber on Boxing Day 1999?
18	41607	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: No, I
19	did not.
20	41608	MR. WOLSON: You found out about it
21	afterwards?
22	41609	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
23	41610	MR. WOLSON: He briefed you on the
24	meeting?
25	41611	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I

1 believe Mr. Schreiber asked him to call me and debrief. 2 MR. WOLSON: That's not what I'm 41612 3 asking, who asked. But you know that Mr. Doucet briefed you on the meeting? 4 5 41613 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I'm sorry, I thought you had asked me that, sir. 6 MR. WOLSON: 7 41614 No. 8 41615 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: 41616 MR. WOLSON: Did Mr. Doucet suggest to you that it would be a good idea after the December 10 11 26th meeting to have a subsequent meeting which took place, we know, on the 11th of January of 2000 at the 12 13 Royal York? 14 41617 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: 15 he did not. 16 41618 MR. WOLSON: Did you know that there was such a meeting planned? 17 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I 18 41619 19 don't think I knew that it was planned, but I was advised it took place. 20 MR. WOLSON: Okay. And you were 21 41620 22 advised that in the 26th of December meeting that (a) 23 Mr. Schreiber was upset with Luc Lavoie and his comment calling him -- calling him words to the effect that he 24 wasn't -- wasn't very forthright. 25

1 41621 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes, wasn't very truthful. 3 41622 MR. WOLSON: Yes. THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes, 41623 I was aware of that. 6 41624 MR. WOLSON: Now, I want to focus, 7 then, on the January the 11th meeting. 8 41625 It is three minutes to 3:00. So why don't we break. 41626 I can tell you I am all the way up to 10 11 page 16, so we are making some progress. 12 41627 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Good. 13 Thank you. COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: All right. 41628 14 41629 We will break for 15 minutes and come 15 16 back at 3:15. --- Upon recessing at 3:00 p.m. / Suspension à 15 h 00 17 18 --- Upon resuming at 3:30 p.m / Reprise à 15 h 30 19 41630 COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: Be seated, please. 20 Mr. Wolson...? 21 41631 22 41632 MR. WOLSON: Mr. Mulroney, if you 23 would turn up Tab 91, please. THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes, 24 41633 25 sir.

1	41634	MR. WOLSON: That is Book 2, Tab 91.
2	41635	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
3	41636	MR. WOLSON: These are the notes that
4		Mr. Doucet took of his meeting with Mr. Schreiber on
5		the 11th of January of 1991 I'm sorry, of 2000, I
6		should say.
7	41637	And just to put things in
8		perspective, I can tell you that the day before this
9		day, January the 10th of 2000, is a letter that goes
10		out on the voluntary disclosure. I just want to put
11		things in perspective.
12	41638	I will deal with the voluntary
13		disclosure letter in a short time.
14	41639	But a letter goes out from your
15		counsel, Mr. Lefebvre, to the Voluntary Disclosure,
16		Canada Customs and Revenue, on the 10th of January of
17		2000. On the 11th of January of 2000 this meeting
18		takes place between Mr. Schreiber and Mr. Doucet.
19	41640	Now, if you look at point number
20		three of Mr. Doucet's notes, he says:
21		"Now on our friend"
22	41641	He identifies you:
23		" I was quite taken by your
24		concern at our house"
25	41642	And he is talking about the December

1	26th, '99 meeting	g at the house:
2		" regarding an apparent
3		statement that Brian made.
4		Since you had invited me to tell
5		B.M. everything, I did. And
6		Brian quite frankly could not
7		understand where you would be of
8		that impression."
9	41643	You recall that? That was put to you
10	by your counsel.
11	41644	And apparently Mr. Doucet had part of
12	the text of the	discovery, and you will recall in your
13	testimony when M	r. Pratte was asking you questions,
14	Mr. Mulroney, you	u hit your forehead, emulating what
15	Mr. Schreiber die	d; sort of the light went on and he
16	understood bette	r your testimony at the discovery.
17	41645	You recall being asked that and
18	giving that type	of answer?
19	41646	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes,
20	I do.
21	41647	MR. WOLSON: Did you know that
22	Mr. Doucet starte	ed to inquire of Mr. Schreiber what he
23	would say when he	e was under oath?
24	41648	Were you aware of that?
25	41649	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: No.

1	41650 MR.	WOLSON: You will see that it
2	says:
3		"Now K.S"
4	41651 This	is the second paragraph of point
5	number three:
6		"Now K.S. let us imagine that
7		what you had in mind when you
8		called me to set up the Mirabel
9		meeting etc. regarding M.B.'s
10		consultancy internationally
11		comes out during your
12		discoveries."
13	41652 So he	e is asking Mr. Schreiber what he
14	is going to say at his	discoveries.
15	41653 And	for more evidence of that he
16	says, a little later o	on, the fourth line from the
17	bottom:
18		"Now if you are asked under oath
19		about the post 1993 period is
20		this what you're going to say."
21	41654 Do y	ou see that?
22	41655 THE	RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
23	41656 MR.	WOLSON: Okay. So he is asking
24	Mr. Schreiber what Mr.	Schreiber is going to say when
25	he is under oath to te	ell the truth.

1	41657	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
2	41658	MR. WOLSON: Did he tell you that he
3	was going to ask	a Schreiber that?
4	41659	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: No.
5	41660	MR. WOLSON: Did he tell you
6	afterwards that h	ne asked Schreiber that?
7	41661	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: If he
8	says in his notes	s that he called me or was asked by
9	Mr. Schreiber to	fill me in on the discussion, then he
10	probably did. Bu	at I have I have no recollection of
11	that, no.
12	41662	MR. WOLSON: You don't recall that?
13	41663	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: No.
14	41664	MR. WOLSON: Would you have asked him
15	to question Schre	eiber as to what Schreiber would say
16	when he was under	coath?
17	41665	Is that something you would ask
18	Mr. Doucet to do?
19	41666	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: No.
20	41667	MR. WOLSON: So if he did it, he did
21	it on his own?
22	41668	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
23	Mr. Doucet I thir	nk has testified that when he watched
24	the program, he o	came to the conclusion that maybe
25	Mr. Schreiber was	s up to something that he felt was

1	inappropriate and he, I assume, just wanted to nail
2	down as best he could the documentation.
3	Remember, it was Mr. Doucet who had
4	called me initially to say that Mr. Schreiber wished to
5	see me in August of 1993.
6	41670 MR. WOLSON: And I can tell you that
7	at page 2306, line 8 of Mr. Doucet's evidence, he says
8	that I probably discussed this with Mr. Mulroney.
9	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: It's
10	possible.
11	41672 MR. WOLSON: Okay. As a matter of
12	fact, I will read to you and if you require the
13	transcript, I'm sure Mr. Hughes can provide it to you.
14	You are going to ask me the date,
15	Mr. Hughes, and I don't know, but it is 2306.
16	I think it was April the 27th
17	April 28th.
18	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes,
19	sir.
20	41676 MR. WOLSON: I asked Mr. Doucet at
21	page 2306, line 1:
22	"You are obviously asking him
23	what he is going to say at his
24	discovery"
25	That is Mr. Schreiber's discovery,

1	Mr.	Mulroney:
2		" because it concerned you
3		were obviously of concern that
4		it would be matters touching on
5		Mr. Mulroney. Obviously.
6		MR. F. DOUCET: Correct.
7		MR. WOLSON: Had you discussed
8		that with Mr. Mulroney?
9		MR. F. DOUCET: I probably had."
10	41678	You don't challenge that? If
11	Mr.	Doucet said he probably discussed that with you,
12	you	accept that?
13	41679	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes,
14	sure	e.
15	41680	MR. WOLSON: Okay. Now, Mr. Doucet
16	has	told the Inquiry that he asked you whether or not
17	ther	re was a mandate document, and you had said no and
18	he s	said that he told as a friend that there ought to be
19	some	ething memorialized.
20	41681	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: M'hm.
21	41682	That is at 2313, line 7. You will
22	see	it there.
23	41683	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
24	41684	MR. WOLSON: I asked him a question
25	at l	line 7. "I had asked him" I'm reading now what

1	Mr. Doucet said	•
2	41685	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: M'hm.
3	41686	MR. WOLSON:
4		"'I had asked him if in fact
5		there had been such a document.
6		He had told me 'no', and I told
7		him that it was my advice as a
8		friend that there ought to be
9		something. Even if there wasn't
10		at the time, it ought to be
11		somehow memorialized'"
12	41687	And I ask him if that's a correct
13	statement and he	e agrees that it is.
14	41688	Do you recall Mr. Doucet having this
15	type of conversa	ation with you?
16	41689	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: With
17	me?
18	41690	MR. WOLSON: Yes.
19	41691	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: He
20	very probably d	id, yes.
21	41692	MR. WOLSON: All right. So you
22	don't if Mr.	Doucet said it under oath in this
23	hearing, you don	n't challenge that?
24	41693	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: That
25	he would have sa	aid this to me?

1	41694 MR. WOLSON: Yes.
2	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: No.
3	41696 MR. WOLSON: Okay. And in fact there
4	had been no mandate document. We know that.
5	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: That
6	is right.
7	41698 MR. WOLSON: And that you thought,
8	following his advice to you, it would be a good idea.
9	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Well,
10	remember, sir, the context. At least three events had
11	taken place prior to this.
12	41700 First, Mr. Schreiber is arrested at
13	the end of August 1999. Then there is the CBC fifth
14	estate program in October of 1999. Then there is
15	Mr. Schreiber's statement that I may have an income tax
16	problem.
17	And then there's the fourth statement
18	that he makes to Mr. Doucet on the 26th of December at
19	his home that there might be perjury in my these are
20	not the acts of a friendly man.
21	41702 MR. WOLSON: No.
22	41703 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: And
23	so obviously Mr. Doucet was being very prudent, I
24	suppose, and concerned, that Mr. Schreiber might be up
25	to no good.

1	MR. WOLSON: And if there could be a
2	mandate, an accurate mandate which would memorialize
3	the agreement, even if it was years after the fact
4	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: M'hm.
5	41706 MR. WOLSON: that would be
6	something to keep in one's hip pocket?
7	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Well,
8	not necessarily. It would be something that would
9	indicate what the original agreement was.
10	41708 MR. WOLSON: All right. And then I
11	want to go on with regard to Mr. Doucet's testimony at
12	2315.
13	Mr. Doucet says, at 2315, line 12:
14	"'I sensed that there was a lot
15	of ambiguity about what the
16	assignment was, a lot of
17	innuendo and as far as some
18	media were concerned, they
19	appeared to be on a fishing trip
20	that would lead to no good.'"
21	So you are basically agreeing with
22	that. That's what Fred words like that Fred told
23	you, and obviously because of ambiguity and because of
24	the matters that you have just articulated,
25	Mr. Mulroney, it would be a good idea to have a

1	memorialized man	date.
2	41711	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I
3	thought the sugg	estion that Mr. Doucet made was a
4	worthwhile one,	yes.
5	41712	MR. WOLSON: All right. And I would
6	like to turn to	the mandate document.
7	41713	You will find it at Tab 93 of Book 2.
8	41714	The first document and let's just
9	focus on that on	e for a minute or two. That's a
10	document that wa	s typed up by Mr. Doucet, according to
11	his testimony.
12	41715	Do you see that document?
13	41716	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes,
14	sir.
15	41717	MR. WOLSON: Okay. And what he said
16	about that docum	ent at 2335, he said I prepared the
17	mandate document	based on Mr. Doucet's recollection,
18	because you know	that he was there on December 8th at
19	the Pierre Hotel	; right?
20	41718	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:
21	Excuse me. 2335	?
22	41719	MR. WOLSON: Yes.
23	41720	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes,
24	sir.
25	Pause

1	41721 MR. WOLSON: So if we go to the top
2	of page 2335, I say to Mr. Doucet:
3	"But you told the Commissioner
4	that when you prepared this
5	document"
6	And I am talking about the mandate
7	document here:
8	" you prepared it based on
9	your own recollection
10	MR. F. DOUCET: Yes."
11	And let's just stop there for a
12	minute.
13	Mr. Doucet was at the meeting at the
14	Pierre Hotel in New York, obviously.
15	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
16	41726 MR. WOLSON: He was a witness to what
17	was said; right?
18	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
19	41728 MR. WOLSON: All right. So when he
20	says on his own recollection, he answers yes, then I
21	say:
22	" based on what Mr.
23	Schreiber had told you"
24	41729 At line 5 of 2335, and he said:
25	"Yes."

1	41730	Then I said:
2		" and based on what Mr.
3		Mulroney had told you."
4	41731	He answered:
5		"Correct."
6	41732	You had told him your version of what
7	the mandate was?
8	41733	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Well,
9	remember that Mr	. Doucet first called me to ask me if I
LO	could accommodate	e Mr. Schreiber's request for a meeting
L1	at Mirabel. He	then asked Mr. Schreiber what the
L2	mandate was and	was told by Mr. Schreiber, which
L3	Mr. Schreiber re	peated to me.
L4	41734	He set up the meeting at the Queen
L5	Elizabeth Hotel,	in the coffee shop of the Queen
L6	Elizabeth Hotel,	and I would debrief him on these
L7	matters. And he	attended the meeting in the Pierre
L8	Hotel.
L9	41735	So he had a pretty good idea of what
20	was going on. A	nd meanwhile of course he was, I
21	believe, still co	ontinuing to act for Mr. Schreiber so
22	he had his own i	ndependent source of information.
23	41736	MR. WOLSON: Yes. But two things.
24	Number one, Mr. 1	Doucet doesn't recall setting up the
25	Queen Elizabeth 1	Hotel, just for the record; and,

1	secondly, he wasn't at the Mirabel Hotel.
2	So when I read to you from 2335, I
3	would like you to confirm, if you can, that you had,
4	according to line 8, that when Mr. Schreiber prepared
5	this mandate document it came I'm sorry, when
6	Mr. Doucet prepared the mandate document it came from
7	three sources: his own recollection, what
8	Mr. Schreiber told him and what you told him.
9	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:
10	That's probably very accurate.
11	41739 MR. WOLSON: Now let's take a look at
12	the mandate document itself. The first page is what he
13	typed up, and the second page is what was put in in
14	handwriting, partly, he says Mr. Doucet says by
15	him, and partly by Mr. Schreiber.
16	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
17	41741 MR. WOLSON: The mandate talks about
18	a three-year period, the fee to cover services and
19	expenses
20	Do you see that?
21	That would be in the
22	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes,
23	I see that.
24	41745 MR. WOLSON: Let's just look at the
25	blank document.

1	The mandate will be for a three-year
2	period. You see that.
3	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
4	41748 MR. WOLSON: And if you turn the page
5	that you are on, Mr. Mulroney, you will see another
6	it's the same document, this time with handwriting on
7	the document.
8	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
9	41750 MR. WOLSON: Are you there?
10	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
11	MR. WOLSON: All right. And the
12	handwriting on the document, we have been told by Mr.
13	Doucet, is his handwriting
14	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
15	MR. WOLSON: Doucet's handwriting,
16	and some of Mr. Schreiber's handwriting.
17	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
18	41756 MR. WOLSON: Mr. Schreiber denies
19	that he wrote anything on the document, and it is a
20	miracle that his handwriting is on the document, but
21	let's just focus for a minute or two on Mr. Doucet's
22	evidence. That is what I am going to ask you to do.
23	You will see at the top right-hand
24	corner of the document first of all, at the top of
25	the document it says "February 4, 2000".

1	41758	Do you see that?
2	41759	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
3	41760	MR. WOLSON: And I can tell you that
4		February 4th, 2000 is two days after you make your
5		voluntary disclosure in final form.
6	41761	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Is
7		there something sinister about that?
8	41762	MR. WOLSON: No, I am just pointing
9		it out, because when we get to the document, I don't
10		want to have to come back to the mandate document.
11	41763	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I
12		see.
13	41764	MR. WOLSON: Quite frankly, if there
14		were something sinister I am only asking the
15		questions, it's not for me to make any determination of
16		the
17	41765	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: No,
18		it's just that you have come back to that twice, and I
19		just wanted clarification, that's all.
20	41766	MR. WOLSON: Then let me tell you
21		right up. The meeting with Schreiber on the 11th of
22		January of 2000, and the mandate document of February
23		4th of 2000, all take place during the time that your
24		counsel was negotiating with the CRA, or the voluntary
25		tax people. So that puts it in perspective.

1	Now, let's keep on the mandate.
2	February 4th, 2000 that's at the top middle of the
3	page; right?
4	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
5	MR. WOLSON: On the side, '93-'94,
6	that's the first year of the mandate, '94-'95 is the
7	second year of the mandate, and '95-'96 is the third
8	year of the mandate.
9	You see that.
10	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes,
11	I do.
12	41772 MR. WOLSON: It says, "To provide a
13	watching brief to develop economic opportunities for
14	our companies," and then there are the letters A, B and
15	C inserted. Right?
16	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:
17	M'hmm.
18	41774 MR. WOLSON: Your answer is?
19	I only ask you because
20	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Oh,
21	yes. It does indeed, yeah.
22	41777 MR. WOLSON: "M'hmm" doesn't work
23	in these proceedings.
24	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
25	41779 MR. WOLSON: I am going to get you on

1	that page yet, b	ut we will continue:
2		"including travelling abroad
3		to meet with government and
4		private sector leaders to assist
5		in opening new markets for our
6		products and to report
7		regularly in this regard."
8	41780	That's accurate?
9	41781	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
10	41782	MR. WOLSON:
11		"In this context, priority
12		should be given to opportunities
13		relating to Canadian based
14		manufacturing of peace keeping
15		and/or peace making military
16		equipment in view of Canada's
17		prominence in this area."
18	41783	That's accurate?
19	41784	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes,
20	sir.
21	41785	MR. WOLSON: "The mandate will be for
22	a period of three	e years."
23	41786	That's accurate?
24	41787	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: It
25	had not been stip	oulated that precisely, but I

1	thought I construed fro	m the payments that it was
2	for three years. But he h	ad never no one had ever
3	said to me, "This is for t	hree years," and limited it
4	4 precisely to three years.
5	5 41788 MR. WOLSO	N: Okay. This is a
6	document that you were ult	imately briefed on by Mr.
7	7 Doucet.
8	8 41789 THE RIGHT	HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: That
9	9 is right.
10	0 41790 MR. WOLSO	N: And you, according to
11	Mr. Doucet, had not asked	for any changes to be made.
12	2 41791 That's wh	aat Mr. Doucet has testified.
13	3 41792 THE RIGHT	HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:
14	4 That's right.
15	5 41793 MR. WOLSO	DN:
16	6 "The	e mandate will be for a
17	7 peri	od of three years. The fee
18	8 to d	cover services and expenses
19	9 is s	set at $250,000 for the
20	0 peri	.od."
21	1 41794 You see t	hat?
22	2 41795 THE RIGHT	HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I do,
23	yes.
24	4 41796 MR. WOLSO	N: Mr. Doucet had indicated
25	that he told you that, and	you said "That's fine." You

1		never said anything more than that.
2	41797	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I
3		said that I thought the whole document was fine.
4	41798	MR. WOLSON: Okay. Then, on that
5		document are three companies, which Mr. Doucet
6		indicated were put in by Mr. Schreiber.
7	41799	Yes?
8	41800	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes,
9		but I have to say, Mr. Commissioner, that when this
10		matter was raised with me, none of this was conveyed to
11		me these various companies and so on. I can't
12		remember any conveyance of those names, or what have
13		you, but the main body of it, yes.
14	41801	MR. WOLSON: All right. I am going
15		to cover that in a moment.
16	41802	What this document is intended to do
17		is to put you back to August 27th of '93, when you made
18		an agreement you entered into an agreement with
19		Schreiber.
20	41803	That's what this document is intended
21		to do; right?
22	41804	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:
23		That's right.
24	41805	MR. WOLSON: And your response to the
25		three companies is that it's not something that you

if you heard it from Mr. Doucet, it didn't much matter 1 2 to you. THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: No. 3 41806 MR. WOLSON: Then, it indicates at 41807 4 the bottom your initials on the left-hand side. 6 41808 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I didn't sign anything. 7 8 41809 MR. WOLSON: No, no, no, I understand that. I think what Mr. Doucet was trying to convey is that this was the document, and it indicates that -- it 10 11 has an initial there. I know you didn't put the initial on. 12 13 41810 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes. MR. WOLSON: And then it has "FDCI", 14 41811 15 which is Mr. Doucet's company. THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes. 16 41812 17 41813 MR. WOLSON: And then, on the 18 right-hand side, it has an initial, which I can't make 19 out --20 41814 Right? 21 41815 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes. 22 41816 MR. WOLSON: And then it has: "1. The mandate is accurate." 23 41817 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes. 24 MR. WOLSON: And 2, the two companies 25 41818 were Bayerische and Bitucan, Calgary, and any other 1 2 company that may be appropriate. THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes. 3 41819 41820 MR. WOLSON: And the amount paid over 4 5 the three years is $250,000. 6 41821 It has that. You see that. THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes, 41822 7 8 it does. 41823 MR. WOLSON: Now, Mr. Doucet says, when the document was completed, that he called you and 10 11 told you of the document. THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes. 41824 12 13 41825 MR. WOLSON: Just so we have his words, he did call you and he described the document to 14 you, and, in effect, you accepted that as the mandate 15 16 document. THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I 17 41826 18 have no recollection of it, but if Mr. Doucet said he did, he certainly did. 19 41827 MR. WOLSON: Well, I can tell you --20 and just for the sake of completeness -- at page 2343 21 22 of his testimony, at line 11, I asked this question --23 41828 It should be on the top of each page, 24 2343.

THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes,

1	sir.
2	41830	MR.	WOLSON: At line 11 I ask Mr.
3	Doucet:
4			"So you actually told Mr.
5			Mulroney, after this document
6			was effected, that the amount of
7			fees to cover services and
8			expenses was $250,000."
9	41831	You	see that.
10	41832	THE	RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes,
11	I do.
12	41833	MR.	WOLSON: "You told Mr. Mulroney
13	what Schreiber ha	ad to	old you."
14	41834	Mr.	Doucet said, "I did."
15	41835	And	I say, "And just to be sure," and
16	I tell him the pa	age n	number that I am referring to in
17	his evidence, and	l he	says at line 23:
18			"I just reported faithfully on
19			what Schreiber had told me."
20	41836	And	then, at page 2344:
21			"In other words, you reported to
22			Mr. Mulroney, after this
23			document had been effected "
24	41837	Mr.	Doucet said, "Yes."
25			"MR. WOLSON: that the amount

1	of money that Schreiber said was
2	involved was $250,000."
3	Doucet says, "Correct".
4	41839 And then I asked this question
5	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I'm
6	sorry, sir, what
7	41841 MR. WOLSON: Page 2344, line 11
8	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
9	41843 MR. WOLSON: "And he [meaning
10	Mulroney] made no changes."
11	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:
12	That's right.
13	41845 MR. WOLSON: So that's a document
14	that you accepted when Mr. Doucet told you about it.
15	That's fair to say?
16	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes,
17	it seemed to me to be by my recollection, to be very
18	largely accurate and reflective of what had taken
19	place. I didn't spend time going over anything. It is
20	fully consistent with what I had told Mr. Kaplan,
21	namely, that the amount was not $300,000, that it was
22	less than that, and so on and that it was a watching
23	brief.
24	That was the case.
25	41849 MR. WOLSON: Then, at page 2345, just

1	to put punctuation on all of this, at line 13 I ask
2	Let's go back to line 9.
3	41851 At 2345, when I asked Mr. Doucet when
4	he told you about this document, he said:
5	"I would guess that it was
6	probably in the days that
7	followed."
8	41852 I said, "Okay, fair enough. So
9	sometime in February of 2000," and Mr. Doucet says,
10	"Correct".
11	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes,
12	sir.
13	41854 MR. WOLSON: Why did you accept the
14	document that said $250,000 and not 225?
15	41855 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I
16	didn't accept any document, Mr. Doucet read it to me
17	over the telephone and I
18	41856 I don't think I saw this document at
19	any time until it was deposited before the
20	parliamentary committee. I think that's when I first
21	had a look at it.
22	41857 MR. WOLSON: But why not say to Fred
23	Doucet, "Fred, you know, the amount is 225, not 250.
24	would like you to speak to Mr. Schreiber"?
25	41858 Obviously, according to Douget.

1		Schreiber was in a cooperative mood to meet with him.
2	41859	Why didn't you say to Mr. Doucet,
3		"Mr. Doucet," or Fred, "that's inaccurate"?
4	41860	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Well,
5		when he read it to me, I remember thinking that Mr.
6		Schreiber has changed the number. He used to say it
7		was $300,000, and now he is saying it's 250, and I knew
8		that it was I thought I knew pretty clearly that it
9		was 225.
10	41861	I didn't pay much attention, except
11		that I thought, maybe, Mr. Schreiber had a different
12		way of calculating expenses that may have taken place,
13		or what have you. It wasn't, to my mind, a major
14		event. I knew it was an inaccuracy, but you will
15		remember that I have told you something, I think,
16		important, which is that in December of the previous
17		year I had decided to terminate my relationship with
18		Mr. Schreiber and had moved to do precisely that.
19	41862	So while I was pleased that Mr.
20		Doucet was, on his own dime, trying to out of his
21		own volition, trying to clarify things, I didn't view
22		it as an exercise in the ultimate detail of anything.
23		He was just seeking to clarify the nature of the
24		mandate.
25	41863	So that's what happened.

1	41864 MR. WOLSON: But if you wanted to
2	have and that was Fred Doucet's advice to you an
3	accurate document to have memorialized
4	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
5	41866 MR. WOLSON: why not say to Mr.
6	Doucet unless you weren't sure, and if you weren't,
7	please tell me that the amount of 250 was
8	inaccurate?
9	41867 Was it inaccurate?
10	41868 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Well,
11	first of all, I was not being sent a document for my
12	signature. This was not I was not asked to finaliz
13	my recollection of anything, I was told in a quick
14	telephone call that this meeting had taken place, and,
15	generally speaking, here were the arrangements that
16	they had talked about.
17	What struck me about it was the
18	accuracy of the important part, namely, the mandate up
19	above. Indeed, that was an accurate reflection of wha
20	he had told me and what I had tried to do.
21	I noticed that the I do remember
22	that the total figure was, in my case, slightly
23	inaccurate, it was 225 rather than 250, and from Mr.
24	Schreiber's recollection, he had always said that it
25	was 300, and it was down to 250 here.

1	41871	But I had not been sent this for
2	ratific	ation or signature. Had I been sent it and he
3	said, "	I want you to sign it once it is cleaned up,"
4	and so	on, I would have gone back to Mr. Doucet
5	immedia	tely and said: Look, I think there is a slight
6	error h	ere, and a slight error here. Why don't we
7	clarify	that before there is any signature?
8	41872	MR. WOLSON: All right, but Mr.
9	Doucet	said that he phoned you, he told you that it was
10	$250,00	0 one two, he told you that it was for a
11	three-y	ear period, and you said, "That's fine," you
12	asked h	im to make no changes.
13	41873	Is that accurate?
14	41874	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: No
15	well, y	es, it is accurate.
16	41875	MR. WOLSON: Yes?
17	41876	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: It is
18	accurat	e, what Mr. Doucet said.
19	41877	But as I point out to you, sir, this
20	was a b	rief telephone call, where he simply told me,
21	among c	ther things, what had been going on, and he
22	didn't	say: Look, here is what took place. I've got
23	this pi	ece of paper here. Here it is, with all kinds
24	of thin	gs scribbled all over it, written by Mr.
25	Schreib	er and myself on this draft mandate. This thing

1	here. What I am going to do is clean this up, send yo
2	a piece of paper, and I am going to ask you to sign it
3	and I am going to do the same thing for Mr. Schreiber.
4	None of that took place.
5	41879 All he told me, fairly briefly, was
6	the nature of the conversation. That's all.
7	41880 MR. WOLSON: All right.
8	41881 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: And
9	gave him the answers, to the very best of my
10	recollection, and obviously, had I received the paper,
11	I would have been able to focus in on things.
12	41882 MR. WOLSON: And if it were not for
13	period of three years, why not tell Mr. Doucet: Fred,
14	never mind the 250, but this was an ongoing
15	retainer/mandate, and it just didn't cover a three-yea
16	period. There was no date which it covered. It
17	started in '93, but we were open as to the years that
18	we would have this relationship.
19	Why wouldn't you do that, sir?
20	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Well,
21	remember the three-year interruption for Airbus that
22	impacted us all in that timeframe. So I didn't sit
23	down that day and calculate things. I, quite frankly,
24	expected that if this were going to be brought to
25	fruition, that rather than the brief conversation I had, somebody would send me a document, I would look at 1 it, study it carefully, and then sign off on it, having 2 made the corrections that we had to make. 3 MR. WOLSON: But Mr. Doucet never 41885 4 5 asked Mr. Schreiber to sign, he never asked you to sign, he was just doing this on your account, he 6 said --7 8 41886 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: No, that's wrong. 9 MR. WOLSON: He wasn't acting for 10 41887 11 you? THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: No. 12 41888 He told you, and I think he told us in testimony, Mr. 13 Commissioner, that this was of his volition. He 14 initiated this. 15 16 41889 MR. WOLSON: But he was doing it for 17 you. 18 41890 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: He 19 was not doing it on my account; he initiated it. 20 41891 MR. WOLSON: Okay. I see. 41892 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I 21 22 think that's fair to say that's the testimony. 23 41893 MR. WOLSON: Well, what's fair to say is that he phoned you and asked you whether there was 24 such a document in existence. You said no --25

1	41894 T	HE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
2	41895 M	R. WOLSON: he suggested that
3	there ought to be o	one, and you thought that was a good
4	idea.
5	41896 T	HE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yeah,
6	his idea I thought	was a good idea, not mine.
7	41897 M	R. WOLSON: I see.
8	41898 B	y the way, when this document was
9	executed, in terms	of its preparation and I know
10	that there are no s	signatures on it when this
11	document was prepar	red, it was prepared in February of
12	2000, when you woul	d have known (a) the amount of money
13	of the agreement, a	and (b) the duration of the
14	agreement, because	you were trying to put yourself back
15	in the original pos	sition.
16	41899 I	s that not correct?
17	41900 T	HE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I
18	was as I say, I	have no problem with anything you
19	say. I received a	telephone call from Mr. Doucet, who
20	had undertaken this	s of his own volition. He was trying
21	to be helpful to bo	oth parties.
22	41901 A	s it turns out, neither Mr.
23	Schreiber nor I	certainly not me in the brief
24	telephone conversat	cion corrected him on the 225, and
25	Mr. Schreiber, who	was there, and whose handwriting

1	appears on the document, didn't correct him with regard
2	to the 250 as opposed to the $300,000. He told him
3	that it was 250, apparently.
4	So there were some errors in it, but
5	the thrust of the document retains its integrity, and
6	had I been asked to sign it, I would have made the
7	small corrections that were necessary and sent it back.
8	41903 MR. WOLSON: At Book 2, Tab 94, is
9	Mr. Doucet's summary of the events.
10	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes,
11	sir.
12	41905 MR. WOLSON: He starts off on the
13	first point, "Events Post 1992".
14	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
15	41907 MR. WOLSON: He starts off
16	discussing, or at least memorializing, I should say,
17	Schreiber asking if he can arrange a meeting between
18	you and Mr. Schreiber, and this turns out to be, we
19	know, the August 27th meeting.
20	You agree with that.
21	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
22	41910 MR. WOLSON: Point 2 is the actual
23	meeting at Mirabel.
24	You agree with that.
25	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.

1	41913 MR. WOLSON: Point 3 is, subsequent
2	to Mirabel, you informed Mr. Doucet that he and "K.S."
3	had concluded an arrangement for an initial period of
4	three years, whereby you, through your consulting
5	company, would provide a watching brief, and, where
6	appropriate, make inquiries or representations in the
7	international area.
8	You agree with that.
9	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
10	41916 MR. WOLSON: Then he talks, at
11	paragraph 4, about a meeting he doesn't say the
12	Queen Elizabeth, but when I questioned him, he agreed
13	that he was talking about the Queen Elizabeth.
14	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
15	41918 MR. WOLSON: Paragraph 5 is talking
16	about the meeting that the two of you and Mr. Schreiber
17	had at The Pierre Hotel in New York.
18	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
19	41920 MR. WOLSON: And then, at paragraph
20	9, he reported to you on his discussions with "K.S."
21	"(with K.S.'s knowledge and approval)" and suggested
22	to you that they meet again "K.S." and he to
23	present in writing what "he had told me the mandate for
24	the consultancy was" with you, the terms and the fees:
25	I met him on February 4th, 2000, and I presented a

1	written statement to him.
2	You agree with that.
3	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes,
4	sir.
5	41923 MR. WOLSON: And right at the end,
6	the last sentence of that paragraph:
7	"With his own (K.S.) handwriting
8	my notes show his identifying
9	those companies and when I asked
10	him what the fee was he told me
11	that the fee for services and
12	expenses had been set at
13	$250,000 for the period '93/94
14	[that's Year 1]; '94/95 [Year
15	2]; '95/96 [Year 3]."
16	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes,
17	sir.
18	41925 MR. WOLSON: Now, you had told this
19	inquiry that you had never before dealt in cash with a
20	international consulting arrangement.
21	That's true.
22	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes,
23	sir.
24	41928 MR. WOLSON: You are on the Board, or
25	were, certainly, at the time of your discovery, on the

1	Board of many, many companies.
2	I think you testified at the
3	discovery that you were involved with Barrick Gold.
4	You were on the Board?
5	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
6	41932 MR. WOLSON: You were on the Board of
7	Archer Daniels Midland.
8	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
9	41934 MR. WOLSON: You were on the Board of
10	Horsham.
11	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
12	41936 MR. WOLSON: And these companies are
13	international in nature, and Horsham has holdings in
14	Europe, at least.
15	At least that's what you told the
16	discovery real estate holdings.
17	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes,
18	that's right.
19	41939 MR. WOLSON: You were on the Board of
20	Power Corporation, an international company?
21	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: No,
22	the International Advisory Council of Power
23	Corporation.
24	41941 MR. WOLSON: The International
25	Advisory Council.

1	41942	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I was
2	never on the Boar	d.
3	41943	MR. WOLSON: PetroFina?
4	41944	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
5	41945	MR. WOLSON: Whose headquarters are
6	in Brussels?
7	41946	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
8	41947	MR. WOLSON: Just let me back up.
9	When did you get	on the Board of Barrick Gold?
10	41948	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: 1993.
11	Late 1993, I thin	k.
12	41949	MR. WOLSON: Okay. And Archer
13	Daniels Midland?
14	41950	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: The
15	same time.
16	41951	MR. WOLSON: And Horsham?
17	41952	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: About
18	the same time.
19	41953	MR. WOLSON: Power Corp.?
20	41954	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I
21	wasn't on the Boa	rd of Power Corp.
22	41955	MR. WOLSON: You said that.
23	41956	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: The
24	International Adv	isory Council.
25	41957	Sometime in '94, '95, I would guess.

1	41958	MR. WOLSON: PetroFina?
2	41959	Were you on the Board?
3	41960	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: About
4	the same time.
5	41961	MR. WOLSON: Ninety
6	41962	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: '94,
7	'95.
8	41963	MR. WOLSON: ProAGRA?
9	41964	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: That
10	was in Latin Amer	cica, sometime in '96, '97.
11	41965	MR. WOLSON: China International
12	Trust and Investm	nent?
13	41966	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: About
14	the same time.
15	41967	MR. WOLSON: '95, '96?
16	41968	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: '96,
17	'97, '98.
18	41969	MR. WOLSON: The International
19	Advisory Board fo	or the Chemical Bank of New York?
20	41970	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: '94
21	perhaps.
22	41971	MR. WOLSON: Bombardier?
23	41972	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: About
24	the same time.
25	41973	MR. WOLSON: And these are all companies -- I am sure that's not an exhaustive list --1 I'm not sure. There may be others, and it's none of my 2 3 business if there are others, but these were public at the discovery. 41974 I want to ask you, you have had a lot 5 of dealings with those companies, from early on -- '93 6 forward, I take it. Right? 7 8 41975 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: 41976 MR. WOLSON: And when you were paid by any of those companies, you were paid by cheque, 10 11 obviously. 12 41977 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes. 13 41978 MR. WOLSON: Now, tax matters --14 41979 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes, 15 sir. 16 41980 MR. WOLSON: You would appreciate that people in your income group pay about 50 percent 17 18 income tax on the income declared. 19 41981 That's a rough guide. You would agree with that? 20 41982 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I 21 22 would say roughly, yes. 23 41983 MR. WOLSON: In terms of your 24 expenses on the consultancy arrangement with Mr. Schreiber, your expenses are roughly $45,000. 25

1	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
2	41985 MR. WOLSON: I would suggest to you
3	that it's basic accounting principles and basic tax
4	advice that one deduct from their income expenses.
5	That's quite basic, isn't it?
6	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
7	41988 MR. WOLSON: You didn't do that.
8	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: No, I
9	did not.
10	41990 MR. WOLSON: Why not?
11	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:
12	Because I instructed in 1999 my tax advisors to resolve
13	this matter, both with the federal and the Quebec
14	governments, and to resolve, as I have always done, any
15	doubt in favour of the government. They took it on,
16	and came back with the matter resolved.
17	I had no problem with them not
18	deducting expenses. I thought it was important that
19	the matter be resolved in a fair manner, and that's
20	what they did, and I was presented with the conclusions
21	at the end, simply saying that the matter is resolved,
22	prepare cheques for the following amounts, and that's
23	the end of it.
24	41993 MR. WOLSON: All right. And what you
25	did when you paid your taxes

1	41994	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
2	41995	MR. WOLSON: by way of the
3		voluntary disclosure, you disposed of, at some point in
4		the ordinary course, your expense records, although
5		they might not have been the kind that an accountant
6		would have, they were the kind that you had, which
7		outlined your expenses on the retainer.
8	41996	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes,
9		sir.
10	41997	MR. WOLSON: You would agree with me
11		that it's basic business acumen that when one has in
12		their pocket, safe or bank safety deposit box $225,000,
13		that basic business acumen is that you invest that
14		money and earn interest on it.
15	41998	That's basic advice that any
16		accountant, any tax lawyer, any businessman would give
17		you.
18	41999	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: It
19		wouldn't have been very good advice in the last year,
20		given what has happened to everybody's investments, as
21		it turns out, but as a general rule I would agree with
22		you.
23	42000	MR. WOLSON: And back in those days,
24		as I recall, term deposits were in and around 5
25		percent.

1	42001	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Very	7
2	possik	oly.
3	42002	MR. WOLSON: Five percent on your
4	money	, with a very safe term deposit, for many years,
5	is mor	ney lost, if you don't invest it, obviously.
6	42003	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I
7	would	say so, yes. Obviously.
8	42004	MR. WOLSON: You wouldn't recommend
9	that p	people take a quarter of a million dollars, or 2	5
10	percer	nt less than a quarter of a million dollars, and
11	keep :	it in their pocket, their safe, their safety
12	depos	it box. It's not a very savvy thing to do.
13	42005	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: You
14	are r	ight, unless you had put your money in Lehman
15	Brothe	ers last September, or Wells Fargo, or the Bank	of
16	Americ	ca, or any of these big financial institutions.
17	42006	Things change, but that does not
18	dimin	ish the general approval that I would have for
19	your s	statement.
20	42007	MR. WOLSON: Sure.
21	42008	And as a matter of fact, back in
22	193-19	94, while they may not have been the best of
23	econor	mic times, they were a far cry from today in ter	ms
24	of the	e crumbling of
25	42009	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I

would agree with that. 1 2 42010 MR. WOLSON: -- of the financial institutions. 3 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes, 42011 4 5 sir. 6 42012 MR. WOLSON: Yes. And it wouldn't be 7 very smart advice to say to somebody keep your money in 8 your mattress because the banking system may go south. It's not the kind of advice --42013 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I 42014 10 11 agree with that, too. 12 42015 MR. WOLSON: -- you would give to 13 somebody. THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I 42016 14 15 agree with that, too. 16 42017 MR. WOLSON: You instructed your tax advisor that you had $225,000 to declare. 17 18 42018 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: That 19 is right. 20 42019 MR. WOLSON: Had you in 1993, '94, '95, '96, '97, '98 or '99 declared on your income tax a 21 22 reserve of the $225,000; that is, declared it but taken 23 as a reserve? Had you done that? 42020 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: No, I 24 have not, because my -- while I am not a tax lawyer, 25

1	Mr. Commissioner, my understanding of the retainer
2	provisions at the time was that if you receive funds
3	for a retainer account, you are entitled to take
4	expenses if you wish, and they are documented, but you
5	don't have to declare as income any sums that are
6	outstanding unless and until you take them into income
7	the money becomes yours.
8	And I did that in 1999, so I believed
9	that I was not late in any way on my income tax; and
10	that when I paid the income tax in '99-2000 that the
11	amount was paid and fully resolved, with one exception
12	I chose not, because I didn't believe
13	that I had sufficient documentation I had
14	documentation, but I didn't want to quarrel over
15	anything. I did not claim any deductions for the
16	approximate $45,000 that I had spent in expenses.
17	42023 And so I said to my advisors count it
18	all as income, deduct nothing, declare it to the
19	governments and pay tax on it.
20	MR. WOLSON: The whole idea, though,
21	of declaring your income in the years that you receive
22	the money and there on is you declare the $225,000 to
23	the income tax, but you don't pay tax on it because you
24	haven't earned it yet, potentially. You make a reserve
25	of the $225,000.

1	But you didn't do that.
2	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I
3	didn't do that and I did not think or know that I had
4	to do that.
5	MR. WOLSON: Okay.
6	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: And
7	my advice to this day was that I didn't have to do it.
8	I may be wrong on that, but that's where I was.
9	42029 MR. WOLSON: Okay. In 1993 you went
10	to China and you did some work for Mr. Schreiber.
11	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:
12	That's right.
13	42031 MR. WOLSON: You would have earned a
14	fee for doing that work and that is
15	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:
16	Against the retainer, yes.
17	42033 MR. WOLSON: Against the retainer you
18	earned a fee. But you also had an expense.
19	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:
20	That's right.
21	42035 MR. WOLSON: Did you not think in
22	1993 or 1994 that you would declare the money that you
23	earned on behalf of Mr. Schreiber's interests against
24	the retainer and you would write off, then, the
25	expense let's say you earned $20,000 for your trip

1	to China. You had $10,000 in expenses. Would you not
2	think that you would write up in 1994 I will stop.
3	42036 COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: Mr.
4	Pratte?
5	42037 MR. PRATTE: I don't want to stop the
6	line of questioning necessarily, Mr. Commissioner, but
7	I just want to register, and to a degree I suppose
8	repeat the comments I made when I asked some questions
9	of Mr. Mulroney on the tax disclosure thing; and as
10	well harken back to the discussion we had on the issue
11	of clarifying your ruling, with regard in particular to
12	the application of the Income Tax Act.
13	I don't want to stand up I know
14	Mr. Wolson thinks I have stood up too often thus far,
15	but I would just like to record that in my respectful
16	submission, these matters effectively touch on
17	compliance of various rules of the Income Tax Act.
18	I am not asking you to rule on that,
19	Mr. Commissioner. I should simply like to record that
20	whilst these questions can proceed for a while, they
21	are proceeding under a reserve of my objection that
22	these matters effectively are matters of compliance
23	with the Income Tax Act; that they are not matters tha
24	you should concern yourself with under your mandate.
25	42040 So I would just like to record that

1	,	objection.
2	42041	Mr. Mulroney has already testified
3		that he is not an expert in the Income Tax Act. He
4		told you what he felt was his honest belief and now we
5		are getting into whether or not his belief was accurate
6		under the Income Tax Act, yes or no.
7	42042	So that's why I rose at that point.
8	42043	But that being said,
9	]	Mr. Commissioner, I am prepared to let Mr. Wolson
10		proceed. I just want this umbrella objection to be
11		recorded and for you to know that I am not waiving any
12		rights in respect of that issue.
13	42044	I appreciate you have to hear the
14		evidence and at some point later we might argue about
15		it.
16	42045	COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: Yes. I will
17		just say, quite frankly, that I haven't read into the
18		questions being asked any assertion that there was a
19		failure to comply with the Income Tax Act.
20	42046	Mr. Mulroney has taken advantage of
21		provisions of the Income Tax Act that are available,
22		but Mr. Wolson was asking him about reserves which he
23		didn't do and claiming income in a certain year with
24		expenses charged against that income.
25	42047	I don't see that as a failure to

1	comply. I perhaps would like to hear from Mr. Wolson
2	on that.
3	42048 MR. WOLSON: Well, quite frankly,
4	there are more issues than just compliance. You said
5	when you made your clarification ruling that you would
6	be informed by the Income Tax Act.
7	We are not here to castigate somebody
8	for noncompliance, but it is a factor in other ways.
9	If you want me to articulate in which ways, I would
10	prefer that we do so in the absence of the witness.
11	But more importantly, I don't think
12	my friend, while he has risen and made a statement, he
13	is not objecting so I am going to go on unless you tell
14	me otherwise.
15	42051 COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: Well, he said
16	there was an umbrella objection.
17	42052 MR. PRATTE: Mr. Commissioner, I know
18	that Mr. Wolson and I may differ as to the purpose of
19	the questions and whether or not appropriateness is
20	distinct from compliance. We have had that discussion
21	before. And where that ends up at the end of the day
22	is something you will have to assess once all the
23	evidence is in and the arguments have been made.
24	42053 All I am stating is that I don't want
25	to stand up and have this argument on every question

1	and ask you to rule on every question as to whether or
2	not it comes closer to compliance or appropriateness.
3	My respectful submission is that
4	these questions ultimately, to the extent that they go
5	to compliance, are not appropriate and, further, as I
6	have argued before, that ultimately appropriateness in
7	this context resolves itself and is equal to
8	compliance.
9	That's all I'm saying. I am going to
10	argue that most likely when we reconvene on June the
11	10th.
12	42056 And with that general objection, it
13	is acceptable if Mr. Wolson keeps going on this line of
14	questioning. I just don't want you to think that I am
15	waiving the argument at the end of the day. That's all
16	I'm saying.
17	42057 He is looking at his watch and I am
18	going to sit down on that. I hope my position is
19	clear.
20	42058 COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: I never
21	anticipated that you would waive any argument on any
22	point, Mr. Pratte.
23	I think that, you know, the best way
24	to deal with this is to hear the evidence. You can
25	make your argument at the end

1	Believe me, as you know, judges all
2	the time hear evidence that ultimately is not accepted
3	because it is inadmissible or it lacks weight. And you
4	will be free to make your argument at an appropriate
5	time. Okay?
6	42061 MR. PRATTE: With that, I am content
7	to sit down. Thank you.
8	42062 COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: Fine.
9	42063 Mr. Wolson?
10	42064 MR. WOLSON: If he sits down, I will
11	stand up then.
12	The question that I was asking you
13	about, Mr. Mulroney, was this: In 1993 you went to
14	China. You did some work there for Mr. Schreiber.
15	42066 You have explained that work to the
16	Commissioner; true?
17	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
18	42068 MR. WOLSON: My question to you is
19	this: You incurred about $10,000 worth of expenses on
20	that trip and I am not challenging that in my question
21	to you now.
22	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Fine.
23	42070 MR. WOLSON: You would have earned
24	some fee
25	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.

1	42072 MR. WOLSON: as against the
2	retainer for the work that you had done, and you would
3	be entitled, legitimately, to earn that fee.
4	Why did you not, then, take the fee
5	that you earned, less the expenses, and declare that o
6	your 1993 or I think you went in October or 1994
7	income tax?
8	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: As I
9	indicated to you, I believed that I was operating in a
10	retainer arrangement. I chose not to, and the money
11	would become mine only when the retainer was exhausted
12	or had been collapsed. And I took neither the fees
13	into income, because I didn't charge any fees at the
14	time. I wasn't in that business at the time because i
15	was a retainer.
16	And I didn't claim any of the
17	expenses.
18	42076 Mr. Wolson, I guess and
19	Mr. Commissioner, I could probably put it this way:
20	Over the years I received $225,000 in fees for fees an
21	expenses. I declared the entire amount, $225,000, as
22	income and paid tax on it.
23	I claimed no expenses to reduce my
24	income. I paid the amount on the full tariff.
25	That was my understanding of the

1	retainer provisions, retainer and/or advance provisions
2	as they then were, and I was told, parenthetically and
3	in conclusion, that by utilizing as my advisors did, a
4	voluntary disclosure, it indicated these are used by
5	thousands of Canadians every year for all kinds of
6	reasons.
7	In my case, my circumstances allowed
8	me to conclude that there was no acceptance of any
9	degree or any kind of culpability in using this. It
10	was an entirely appropriate vehicle for me to use in
11	the circumstances.
12	Now correct me, sir, if I am wrong.
13	MR. WOLSON: Yes.
14	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: But I
15	think it is important that I be allowed to say this.
16	My understanding of the retainer
17	provisions was that I did not owe any taxes. I paid
18	the taxes appropriately when I did. I had nothing to
19	do with the negotiations with either the federal
20	government or the Québec government. I gave the file
21	to my advisors. When they came back to me, having
22	resolved it, they just simply told me it is resolved.
23	Please send a cheque for such and such amount to Ottawa
24	and Québec. That was it.
25	42084 MR. WOLSON: All right. I just want

1	you to focus on the particular question that I asked.
2	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes,
3	sir.
4	42086 MR. WOLSON: I have asked you about
5	China.
6	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
7	42088 MR. WOLSON: I'm assuming the answer
8	that you would give is that you didn't know that you
9	should declare the income you earned on your China trip
10	in a timely way and take that income, deduct the
11	expense, and declare what income you earned.
12	You didn't understand that you should
13	be doing that?
14	42090 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I did
15	not. My belief was the one for retainers that I have
16	articulated for you.
17	MR. WOLSON: Okay.
18	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: And
19	may I say, I'm not I'm not going to quarrel at all
20	with you, sir. I'm not entirely sure that the
21	principle that you have just articulated is or was
22	applicable in 1993, '94 or '95.
23	I am not an expert
24	42094 MR. WOLSON: Yes.
25	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:

1	but I was given contrary advice.
2	42096 MR. WOLSON: Yes. And we are going
3	to have somebody here from CRA on the issue of
4	retainers.
5	In 1994 you went to Russia. You
6	incurred expenses.
7	42098 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes
8	42099 MR. WOLSON: About $12,000.
9	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:
10	Approximately, yes.
11	42101 MR. WOLSON: And you earned a fee by
12	doing what you did in Russia with Mr. Yeltsin. And you
13	are entitled to earn a fee.
14	You did earn a fee, didn't you?
15	42103 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I
16	did.
17	MR. WOLSON: Okay.
18	42105 In 1994 you went to France to see
19	Mr. Mitterand, or you were in France
20	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
21	42107 MR. WOLSON: and saw
22	Mr. Mitterand.
23	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I was
24	in Belgium and I saw Mr. Mitterand when I was in
25	France, yes.

1	42109 MR. WOLSON: In Paris.
2	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
3	42111 MR. WOLSON: Okay. It caused some
4	expenses, legitimate expenses; right?
5	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
6	MR. WOLSON: You made a fee; right?
7	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
8	42115 MR. WOLSON: As against the retainer?
9	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
10	MR. WOLSON: In 1994, five or six did
11	you declare to the income tax the fees that you had
12	earned in Russia or in France as against the expenses
13	that you incurred and pay the income tax on it?
14	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: No.
15	I indicated to you, sir, that I resolved the matter in
16	1999 fully.
17	42119 MR. WOLSON: Okay. Now, you say you
18	had an ongoing retainer; right?
19	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
20	MR. WOLSON: But the mandate document
21	talks about a three-year mandate which would be over in
22	1995-96.
23	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
24	MR. WOLSON: Not an ongoing retainer.
25	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:

1	That's right.
2	42125 MR. WOLSON: Why didn't you declare
3	in 1996 or '97 or '98 or '99, write up the fee that y
4	had earned, create a paper trail by doing so?
5	Why didn't you do that?
6	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:
7	Because three years were blown out of my life in 1995
8	by the Airbus matter. We were blown up completely with
9	that, and in many ways my life almost came to an end
10	because of that.
11	MR. WOLSON: Okay.
12	42129 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: And
13	so you can be certain that there was no work going on
14	of that nature at that time.
15	42130 MR. WOLSON: But if you turn to Tab
16	124
17	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Of
18	what book, sir?
19	MR. WOLSON: Tab 124, Book 2, please,
20	sir.
21	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
22	Pause
23	42134 MR. WOLSON: If you would go to page
24	3 of that tab so go three pages in Tab 124.
25	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Tab

124, sorry. Yes. 1 42136 2 MR. WOLSON: This is a letter written 3 on Ogilvy Renault stationery by your tax advisor, your tax lawyer, Wilfrid Lefebvre; right? 42137 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: There 5 6 are a number of letters. Which one? 42138 MR. WOLSON: The third page in, which 7 8 would be January 27, 2000. THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: 42139 January 27. 10 11 42140 MR. WOLSON: It is the third page in the set of documents. Are you there? 12 13 42141 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes, I'm here, yes. 14 MR. WOLSON: Okay. Your tax advisor, 15 42142 tax lawyer I should say --16 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes. 42143 17 18 42144 MR. WOLSON: And this is, by the way, Mr. Lefebvre. I don't know him. I don't know a lot of 19 tax lawyers. But he is a very competent and senior tax 20 counsel? 21 22 42145 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes, 23 he is. MR. WOLSON: Okay. He indicated to 42146 24 25 CRA or to the voluntary tax people -- he indicated to

1	them that he was disclosing:
2		"$75,000 is the amount involved
3		for each of the following
4		taxation years: 1993, 1994 and
5		1995."
6	42147	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
7	42148	MR. WOLSON: He wasn't dealing with
8	thi	is as if this were an ongoing retainer. He was
9	dea	aling with this as if the fees were earned '93, '94,
10	195	5. That's how he dealt with it.
11	42149	Is that your knowledge of the matter?
12	42150	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I
13	hav	ve no understanding or no information at all in
14	reg	gard to any of his correspondence.
15	42151	Mr. Lefebvre, who is an excellent tax
16	lav	wyer, accepted my mandate and went away and did his
17	thi	ing.
18	42152	MR. WOLSON: But you had to give him
19	son	me basic information.
20	42153	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes,
21	Ις	gave him the information that I thought was
22	apr	propriate and relevant, and I went away and he
23	res	solved the matter.
24	42154	I never saw any communications or
25	any	ything like that.

1	42155 MR. WOLSON: But he surely can't
2	dream up that the years were '93, '94, '95. That has
3	to be something coming from you.
4	42156 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I
5	think he probably made that assumption, sir. I don't
6	know.
7	42157 I had no conversations with him
8	beyond the original mandate conversation and at the end
9	of which, the complete end of which, he told me the
10	matter was resolved and to have cheques prepared,
11	period.
12	I had told him to resolve any doubt,
13	any doubt, in favour of the federal government; to
14	declarer the amount which I was asked, $225,000, and
15	pay tax on it.
16	42159 MR. WOLSON: And you don't know where
17	he got the years '93, '94, '95 from?
18	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I
19	assume that he got them I don't know, perhaps from
20	me, perhaps from correspondence or discussion. I don't
21	know.
22	42161 MR. WOLSON: But he must
23	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:
24	Perhaps from my accountant, I don't know.
25	42163 MR. WOLSON: I thought you had said

1	at one point
2	MR. PRATTE: Mr. Commissioner, when I
3	raised these questions, Mr. Mulroney also said that we
4	are not waiving matters of solicitor-client privilege.
5	I have let Mr. Wolson go, but to the
6	issues I have already raised with you, I also wanted to
7	raise with this one; that we are now into
8	correspondence before the final agreement.
9	42166 Mr. Mulroney has said over and over
10	again he was not involved in the details; he didn't
11	even see these letters. And now effectively Mr. Wolson
12	is trying to well, he is asking questions which
13	necessarily go to solicitor-client privilege.
14	So I bring that to your attention,
15	Mr. Commissioner.
16	42168 COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: Seeing that
17	you have raised the issue of solicitor-client
18	privilege, surely the privilege is waived by the filing
19	of the letter.
20	42169 MR. PRATTE: To the extent of the
21	information in the letter, but where the information
22	came from, who he checked it with, those are matters -
23	the information is there, the exchange. That is what
24	is told to the income tax authorities, but
25	42170 COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: Yes. And

1	Mr. Mulroney has said that he wasn't aware of this and
2	he is making assumptions as to where Mr. Lefebvre might
3	have got the information.
4	MR. PRATTE: Just on that point, sir,
5	that I rise. Beyond that, you are correct.
6	42172 COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: Fine.
7	42173 Mr. Wolson?
8	42174 MR. WOLSON: Mr. Mulroney, other than
9	the mandate document, was there any document outlining
10	the three-year mandate, other than the mandate
11	document?
12	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I
13	don't think there was a document. I simply concluded
14	from conversations with Mr. Schreiber that he was
15	looking at an open-ended arrangement, but which I kind
16	of concluded, because of the nature of the three
17	payments, might be three years.
18	42176 It turned out that might not have
19	been entirely accurate, because in 1998 he raised with
20	me again the I'm sorry, he raised for the first time
21	the pasta matter and was very clear that he wished
22	he obviously wished me to do something, because at the
23	end of his meeting with Mr. Doucet he asked Mr. Doucet
24	if he would speak to me to renew the retainer
25	arrangement for another period of years.

1	42177	So I placed the construction on it
2	that I thought wa	s fair.
3	42178	MR. WOLSON: Well, I'm just trying to
4	find out where, a	side from you, any lawyer could find
5	out the three yea	rs of the retainer agreement. Could
6	it have come from	someone other than you?
7	42179	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: No,
8	but I think if yo	u do the calculation, sir, it is very
9	simple. It's not	a mystery novel.
10	42180	He retains me in 1993. Work is done
11	in 1993, 1994 and	'95. As I say, my world is blown
12	apart in 1995. T	hree years pass and I meet him in 1998
13	and he is talking	them there was a big hole in the
14	heart of the reta	iner at that point in time, three
15	empty years.
16	42181	So I work with him. I meet him in
17	1998 and I try an	d move things along. And then what
18	happened in 1999	causes me, for reasons I have told
19	you, to seek to t	erminate it.
20	42182	MR. WOLSON: Except that the mandate
21	document that was	prepared was prepared in 2000
22	42183	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
23	42184	MR. WOLSON: which was the point
24	that I raised wit	h you before.
25	42185	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.

1 42186 MR. WOLSON: If in fact it wasn't the 2 years that are noted on the mandate document that were disclosed to you by Mr. Doucet, '93-'94, '94-'95, 3 195-196 --4 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: M'hm. 5 42187 6 42188 MR. WOLSON: -- wouldn't you have 7 said well, hold on, Fred, my world -- and I'm not 8 challenging you on this. I know the pain that you suffered. 9 42189 Wouldn't you have said to Mr. Doucet 10 11 that is inaccurate. The mandate was '94-'95, '95-'96, but then there was a hiatus? 12 13 42190 Wouldn't you have said that? THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I 42191 14 have already -- you think that Mr. Doucet didn't know 15 that? Of course he knew it, sir. 16 17 42192 I indicated to you that before I 18 would have signed any document, including this 19 embryonic attempt at trying to reconstruct a mandate, I would have sat down and examined it very carefully and 20 made the necessary connections -- corrections before 21 22 signing it. And I think in fairness so would Mr. Schreiber. 23 42193 So I take it for what it was: 24 an honest attempt by a friend of both sides to try and 25

1	r	memorialize something that had taken place a few years
2	6	earlier.
3	42194	MR. WOLSON: The question that I have
4	-	for you is this: Given the mandate document, given
5	3	your lawyer's letter to the voluntary tax people where
6	]	he outlines the years '93, '94 and '95, why didn't you
7	1	pay income tax in '96 or '97 or '98 or '99?
8	42195	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I
9	1	have already told you. I got $225,000 in income and I
10	1	paid I declared it all as income and paid income on
11	:	it at a time that I thought was entirely appropriate,
12	1	namely at the end of the retainer.
13	42196	Now, you may argue or have somebody
14	(	come forward and argue that my interpretation of the
15	=	retainer provisions of the Act were inaccurate or less
16	1	than adequate at the time. That may be.
17	42197	All I'm telling you is that I had
18	:	$225,000 of income and I paid taxes on it. I paid
19	1	taxes to the satisfaction of the Canadian government
20	ć	and the Québec government.
21	42198	So I feel that I did the right thing.
22	:	I feel that I was not late in paying taxes.
23	42199	You know, you may have a technical
24	3	you may be absolutely right, I don't know a
25		technical argument as to whether this should have been

1	paid in 93 or	whether had I done that, I suppose my
2	income would l	have been reduced by the $45,000 and so
3	the tax man wo	ould have gotten less.
4	42200	But I didn't claim the expenses. I
5	declared it a	ll as income and paid taxes on that.
6	42201	And I told my advisors if there is
7	any doubt any	where, please resolve the doubt in favour
8	of the tax dep	partment of the Government of Canada and
9	the Government	of Québec.
10	42202	MR. WOLSON: But if you had paid in
11	1996, you wou	ld have declared $225,000. Whether you
12	declared expen	nses or not would be your issue. You
13	would have pa	id about half of the $225,000, so about
14	$110,000 or $3	115,000 is what you would have paid if yo
15	declared the	$225,000 in '96 or '97 in the ordinary
16	course of you	r business dealings.
17	42203	You would agree with that statement?
18	42204	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: No, I
19	wouldn't, beca	ause in that year I was before the courts
20	in Montréal.
21	42205	MR. WOLSON: What does that have to
22	do with
23	42206	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: It
24	has to do a lo	ot. As far as I was concerned, the
25	retainer arra	ngements were suspended, were in hiatus.

1	42207	You have indicated to me that you
2	ur	nderstand the enormity of what happened to me in those
3	yε	ears. And so as far as I was concerned, my life kind
4	of	f, in that area, re-began after the resolution of that
5	11	itigation and sometime in 1998 when I met
6	Mı	r. Schreiber in Zürich.
7	42208	And so I was of the view and still
8	an	m; you may have an expert who can correct me on
9	th	nis that I, using this in a proper way for
10	re	etainer, owed no taxes until I took it into income.
11	Ar	nd I only took it into income in the year 2000, and
12	tł	nat is when I paid.
13	42209	Now, how this was dealt with by tax
14	ad	dvisors and the two tax departments I don't know.
15	42210	But I just can tell you that I paid
16	mΣ	y taxes fully, to the best of my knowledge at all
17	ti	imes, and that it was resolved to the satisfaction of
18	bo	oth governments and that I was told, Mr.
19	Сс	ommissioner and this is important to me. You
20	be	etter believe it is important; it would be to anybody.
21	42211	The use of the vehicle chosen by my
22	ad	dvisors indicated no culpability of any kind on my
23	pā	art. I did what I thought was right and I did it
24	fı	ılly.
25	42212	And to make absolutely certain that

1	the gove	rnment was getting the benefit of the doubt, I
2	told the	m do not claim any expenses of any kind. Put
3	it all i	nto income and I will pay tax on it.
4	42213	MR. WOLSON: Mr. Mulroney, I asked
5	you beca	use it came from a comment that you made: If
6	you had	paid taxes in 1996, you would have paid half of
7	$225,000	approximately; right?
8	42214	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I
9	have no	idea.
10	42215	MR. WOLSON: But you said when I
11	started	asking you questions in the tax area that
12	approxim	ately you pay half of your income to income
13	taxes.
14	42216	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes,
15	minus al	1 the expenses.
16	42217	MR. WOLSON: All right. So that if
17	you decl	ared it in 1996 or 7, you would have paid
18	$225,000	you would have declared $225,000 and paid
19	about $1	15,000 ballpark and you could have taken from
20	the $225	,000 expenses and then you would have paid half
21	of what	was left; right?
22	42218	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I
23	don't kn	ow the answer to that, sir.
24	42219	MR. WOLSON: You don't, I see.
25	12220	THE PICHT HON BRIAN MILLDONEY. All T

1	know you are asking me about 1996?
2	42221 COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: If you don't
3	know the answer, that is sufficient, Mr. Mulroney.
4	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I
5	just don't know the answer. That is a highly technical
6	question. I'm sorry I don't know.
7	42223 COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: You say you
8	don't know the answer. If you keep talking, you will
9	convince me that you do know the answer.
10	MR. PRATTE: Well, Mr. Commissioner,
11	we are really going, with the greatest of respect,
12	beyond
13	42225 COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: I think it is
14	time to move on.
15	42226 MR. PRATTE: We are into
16	hypotheticals on tax law now.
17	42227 COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: We are going
18	to move on.
19	42228 Mr. Wolson?
20	42229 MR. WOLSON: What you can say is that
21	when you made your voluntary disclosure, while your
22	lawyer disclosed $75,000 for three years, $225,000, you
23	declared $37,500 in each of those three years and paid
24	about half of each $37,500.
25	You can say that?

1	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I
2	can't say that.
3	42232 MR. WOLSON: You can't?
4	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I
5	told you that I turned it over to my tax advisor, whom
6	you have described as a very eminent and able person.
7	42234 MR. WOLSON: I didn't know him, but
8	you did and I accept that.
9	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
10	Well, he was senior tax counsel of the Justice
11	Department for over 20 years and he is certainly a man
12	held in the highest regard. I gave it to him and I
13	said Wilfrid, would you please look after this, resolve
14	any doubt in favour of the government and he came back
15	a month or a month and a half later and said it's
16	resolved.
17	That's all I know. And I paid I
18	claimed, as I say for the last time, no expenses and I
19	paid all the tax.
20	42237 MR. WOLSON: Okay. We will cover
21	that in another way in a moment or two.
22	If you look at Tab 124, the tab that
23	was open
24	42239 COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: Mr. Mulroney,
25	if at any time you need a break, just let me know.

1	Okay?
2	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Sure.
3	I think that what time was it agreed that we would
4	take a Mr. Wolson indicated.
5	MR. WOLSON: I have about somewhere
6	around depending on how precise my questions are and
7	your answers, I have about half an hour in which, if I
8	were to continue, I would finish.
9	42242 Your counsel is nodding, but you are
10	up there and if that works for you
11	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Sure.
12	42244 MR. WOLSON: I'm happy to
13	continue. If it works for all other counsel as well.
14	42245 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: So in
15	about a half an hour you will have terminated?
16	42246 MR. WOLSON: In about well, I
17	don't want to use that word, but in about a half an
18	hour
19	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: How
20	about concluded?
21	42248 MR. WOLSON: Yes, that would be a
22	better way of putting it. I don't want to terminate
23	for a long time, but that may be up to some higher
24	source.
25	42249 COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: I think we

1	should put things into context here, gentlemen.
2	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:
3	That's right. That's right, Commissioner.
4	42251 MR. WOLSON: Now, January 10, 2000,
5	that is the first letter in the book at Tab 124.
6	42252 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I'm
7	sorry, what 124?
8	42253 MR. WOLSON: Yes, please.
9	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
10	42255 MR. WOLSON: And that indicates the
11	following. Your counsel sends a letter on that date,
12	January 10, 2000.
13	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
14	42257 MR. WOLSON:
15	"The complete disclosure of the
16	amount involved (between
17	$150,000 and $225,000) will be
18	completed by March 5, 2000."
19	Do you know why he said $150,000 or
20	$225,000?
21	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: No, I
22	do not.
23	42260 MR. WOLSON: The amount was $225,000?
24	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes,
25	it was.

1	42262	MR. WOLSON: Okay. And then look at
2	the next letter,	which is two in, the 27th.
3	42263	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
4	42264	MR. WOLSON: This is a letter in
5	which your couns	el says to CRA, or to the voluntary
6	disclosure offic	er
7	42265	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: M'hm.
8	42266	MR. WOLSON: that the amount for
9	each year involv	ed '93, '94, and '95, is $75,000.
10	42267	Do you see that? That is point 2 of
11	the January 27,	2000 letter.
12	42268	So you should be three pages in on
13	Tab 124.
14	42269	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
15	Yes, I am, yes.
16	42270	MR. WOLSON: Okay. If you look at
17	point 2, Mr. Mul	roney
18	42271	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
19	42272	MR. WOLSON:
20		"$75,000 is the amount involved
21		for each of the following
22		taxation years: 1993, 1994 and
23		1995."
24	42273	Right?
25	42274	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.

1	42275 MR. WOLSON: And you don't know why
2	he chose three years?
3	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I
4	don't. And I notice that he also says:
5	"Although a significant portion
6	of those amounts was used to
7	defray expenditures that would
8	be eligible for deduction,
9	evidentiary difficulties
10	preclude us from claiming said
11	expenditures."
12	42277 MR. WOLSON: That is one question in
13	advance of what I was going to ask you.
14	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:
15	That's right.
16	42279 MR. WOLSON: But while you are there
17	what are the evidentiary issues? I thought you had
18	kept
19	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I
20	did.
21	42281 MR. WOLSON: Thought you had kept
22	just for completeness of the question, I thought you
23	had kept a running tab.
24	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I
25	did.

1	42283 MR. WOLSON: And kept your credit
2	card documents which would indicate what the expenses
3	were.
4	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I
5	did.
6	42285 MR. WOLSON: What are the evidentiary
7	issues?
8	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I had
9	kept the I had paid everything essentially with
10	credit cards and the evidentiary issue was that I felt,
11	when I looked at it again, that what I had was not so
12	much the credit card documentation as, as I have
13	indicated to you from the beginning, the annotations
14	that I would make on all of my travel documents in
15	terms of personal expenditures precisely when required
16	for this.
17	And it was the deficiency there that
18	led us to say well, look, rather than get into any
19	difficulty or any quarrel with the government of any
20	kind, forget the expenses. Declare it all as income
21	and we will pay tax on it.
22	42288 MR. WOLSON: And if you had declared
23	it as expenses
24	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
25	42290 MR. WOLSON: and your documents

were challenged, you would then have to explain your 1 retainer and the client and what you had done to earn 2 3 the money and the expenses you incurred. 42291 You would have to do that. 4 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: 5 42292 would have had to -- my attorney would have had to meet 6 with them, as I was informed simply --7 8 42293 MR. WOLSON: Yes. 42294 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: meet with them and explain quite the inadequate 10 11 documentation. I didn't have all the credit card receipts. I didn't have the travel documents on which 12 13 some of the expenses had been noted. 14 42295 For example, I had no documentation 15 whatsoever of that nature for Colorado Springs, which 16 was a significant expenditure. 17 42296 So we just felt that let's pay it 18 all -- declare it all as income and pay the taxes. that's what we did. 19 20 42297 MR. WOLSON: Would you turn the page of the February 2 -- or get to the February 2, 2000 --21 22 just before you do that, while you are on the letter of 23 the 27th of January 2000, if you go to the second page of that letter, your lawyer repeats in paragraph 4 --24 he says: 25

1	"As	indicated in my letter of
2	Jan	uary 10, 2000, it will be
3	nec	essary to agree on a basis of
4	imp	osition, in accordance with
5	the	Agency's policy and taking
6	int	o account that the taxation
7	yea	rs in question are 1993 to
8	199	5 inclusively."
9	42298 Do you s	ee that?
10	42299 THE RIGH	T HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes,
11	I see that.
12	42300 MR. WOLS	ON: And then if you turn the
13	page to the February 2nd l	etter, please.
14	42301 THE RIGH	T HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes,
15	sir.
16	42302 MR. WOLS	ON: This is the letter, if
17	you look at the date, Febr	ruary 2, 2000
18	42303 THE RIGH	T HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
19	42304 MR. WOLS	ON: Paragraph 2
20	42305 THE RIGH	T HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
21	42306 MR. WOLS	ON:
22	"It	is agreed that the amounts
23	des	cribed in my letter of
24	Jan	uary 27, 2000, involve the
25	amo	unt of $75,000 for each of

1		the following taxation years"
2	42307	Again.
3	42308	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
4	42309	MR. WOLSON:
5		" 1993, 1994 and 1995."
6	42310	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes,
7	sir.
8	42311	MR. WOLSON:
9		"These amounts will be taxed at
10		the federal and provincial
11		levels as follows:
12		a) The taxpayer will file an
13		application for an amended
14		return correcting the amounts
15		entered in his returns for 1996,
16		1997 and 1998"
17	42312	And I understand that you had to go
18	three years forwa	ard because they couldn't go as far
19	back as '93.
20	42313	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: M'hm.
21	42314	MR. WOLSON: At least that is what I
22	have been advised	d by counsel.
23	42315	And instead of adding $75,000 for
24	each year, you ac	dd $37,500 for each of the years, in
25	effect half of th	ne $75,000.

1	That is what he says.
2	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: That
3	is what he says.
4	42318 MR. WOLSON: And you end up paying
5	tax on $37,500 times three, or you end up paying tax on
6	income of about $112,500; right?
7	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I
8	don't know.
9	42320 MR. WOLSON: Well, $37,500 times
10	three is what you end up paying tax on.
11	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes,
12	but I don't know how it worked out in my income tax
13	return.
14	But you go ahead, sir. Your
15	point?
16	42323 MR. WOLSON: The point is he tells
17	the tax people that you had earned $75,000 in each of
18	the years.
19	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
20	42325 MR. WOLSON: But you don't declare
21	$75,000 according to the agreement reached. You
22	declare $37,500 for each year.
23	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Well,
24	this is I don't know. He is writing as I see it,
25	he is writing to the tax department.

1	42327	MR. WOLSON: Yes.
2	42328	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: This
3	constitutes	an agreement between the taxpayer involved,
4	et cetera,	et cetera. He negotiated this with the tax
5	department.
6	42329	MR. WOLSON: Yes. In the final
7	42330	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: It
8	had nothing	to do with really nothing to do with me,
9	if I may.	I had no involvement in this whatsoever.
10	42331	I understand my name was not even
11	mentioned in	n any circumstances. This was an anonymous
12	taxpayer.
13	42332	I was told, in retrospect, that this
14	was an enti	rely conventional arrangement, arrived at in
15	Montréal wi	th the federal and Québec governments in
16	those days,	pursuant to procedures and customs that
17	were widely	accepted.
18	42333	So I knew nothing about it. I just
19	paid the ta	xes that I was told.
20	42334	MR. WOLSON: All right. But in the
21	end result,	instead of paying taxes on income of
22	$225,000, yo	ou pay taxes on income of $112,500.
23	42335	You would agree with that because
24	that is v	well, that is what happened.
25	42336	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: No.

Well, right off the bat, I would have to say I paid 1 taxes on an amount that normally would have been 2 3 reduced by at least $45,000 for expenses, and I didn't claim any expenses. 5 42337 So I can't quarrel with you, sir. I can't quibble with you. I have told you what happened 6 and taxes -- income was declared and taxes were paid. 7 8 42338 MR. WOLSON: Okay. 42339 COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: It is right there in the letter for all to see. 10 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: There 11 42340 it is. 12 13 42341 COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: Right. 42342 And you have said you didn't know 14 about the deal that got negotiated on your behalf by 15 Mr. Lefebvre. 16 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: 17 42343 18 That's right. 19 42344 COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: He did the deal and told you what you had to pay. 20 42345 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: 21 22 That's right, sir. 23 42346 COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: It's a pretty good deal, you would agree with that. 24 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: He is 25 42347

1	a pretty good lawyer.
2	42348 COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: Mr.
3	Pratte?
4	MR. PRATTE: Yes, but with the
5	greatest respect, Mr. Commissioner, because things are
6	liable to be misinterpreted, the agreement is reached
7	with two separate authorities so that this document is
8	complete, with their not knowing on whose behalf it is
9	being negotiated, as the last paragraph of the letter
10	states.
11	42350 COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: I recognize
12	that.
13	42351 MR. PRATTE: And the tax authorities
14	that accepted it are told of the total amount,
15	$225,000, and they accept the basis pursuant to the
16	policy that was en rigeur at the time.
17	So I just want so that the whole
18	context is there.
19	42353 COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: Absolutely.
20	There is no issue; it was upfront. But Mr. Lefebvre
21	negotiated a pretty good deal here.
22	MR. PRATTE: But he might have done
23	so, sir, in respect of any other person in the same
24	42355 COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: Of course.
25	Of course.

1 42356 MR. PRATTE: -- on the same anonymous 2 basis. That's all. COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: There is no 3 42357 question about that. 4 5 42358 But the point that was made was that instead of paying income tax on $75,000 in each of the 6 three years, despite the fact that the tax people were 7 8 aware of it, tax was paid on $37,500 in each of the three years. 9 42359 MR. PRATTE: You are right. 10 11 42360 COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: And the 12 taxation authorities were probably so happy to get the 13 money, they agreed to that. MR. PRATTE: Yes. My only concern, 42361 14 Mr. Commissioner, is that we are not here -- well, in 15 16 my respectful submission -- to debate --17 42362 COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: Nobody is 18 being --19 42363 MR. PRATTE: -- whether or not the amount matters. 20 42364 COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: Let me just 21 22 say this. I'm not being critical, nor do I think is 23 Mr. Wolson, of Mr. Mulroney. A deal was concluded with the tax 24 42365 people, both federally and provincially, and this is 25

1	the result of the deal, period.
2	42366 MR. WOLSON: Mr. Mulroney, if you
3	believed your retainer ended in 1999, why didn't you
4	just report to the income tax people your income of
5	$225,000 in your '99 income tax, when the retainer had
6	ended, and pay what was owing in 1999 on the $225,000?
7	42367 If you chose to deduct expenses
8	that's one thing. If you chose not to, I suppose
9	that's another.
10	But why didn't you just do it if the
11	retainer ended in '99 as opposed to going to a
12	voluntary tax return? If your retainer ended in 1999,
13	why not simply declare it in 1999?
14	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: The
15	retainer didn't end in 1999. I chose to end the
16	retainer in 1999.
17	42370 MR. WOLSON: Yes.
18	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY:
19	That's what happened.
20	42372 MR. WOLSON: Yes, I understand that.
21	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: So
22	with regard to going to a voluntary tax disclosure, I
23	had nothing to do with that. I turned the matter
24	simply over to my tax advisors and they did what they
25	did.

1	42374 MR. WOLSON: But in the ordinary
2	course, if you terminated a retainer, generally
3	speaking you would pay tax in the year that you
4	terminated it by way of declaring the income you earne
5	and paying the tax that was owing. And if there were
6	any expenses, deal with those as well.
7	But you didn't do that.
8	42376 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I'm
9	not arguing with you, sir.
10	42377 MR. WOLSON: Okay.
11	42378 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I'm
12	telling you that I terminated the retainer with
13	Mr. Schreiber. I turned it over to Mr. Lefebvre for
14	resolution, with his vast experience and the extremely
15	high regard in which he is held by both tax
16	departments. He resolved the matter, told me that it
17	had been resolved, instructed me to make cheques to pa
18	what he said I owed after I had told him two things:
19	We are not claiming any expenses and resolve any doubt
20	in favour of the governments.
21	He told me the amounts. I paid the
22	amounts and that I believe was it.
23	42380 MR. WOLSON: You have previously mad
24	a statement that you were being generous with the tax
25	department. Do you believe that?

1	42381 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: No, I
2	wasn't being generous with the tax department. I
3	simply wanted any doubt resolved in their favour.
4	42382 MR. WOLSON: Did you disclose to your
5	counsel and don't answer this. Don't answer it. I
6	am going to put a question out but it may be objected
7	to.
8	The question that I am going to ask
9	is: Did you disclose to your counsel that this was a
10	cash transaction (a); and (b) the money was in your
11	safe and in a safety deposit box?
12	42384 COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: Mr. Pratte,
13	you can sit down. That question need not be answered.
14	42385 MR. WOLSON: That's why I told you
15	not to answer it.
16	Pause
17	42386 MR. WOLSON: If I may just have one
18	moment, please?
19	Pause
20	42387 MR. WOLSON: I have maybe seven
21	minutes left, save for one area that I have raised with
22	Mr. Pratte. I don't want to go into the area. It is
23	obvious that we are going to have to come back
24	tomorrow, not for me unless I delve into this area, but
25	certainly for Mr. Auger, because it is 5 o'clock.

1	42388	8 But	save for that area, I just hav	e a
2		few closing questions	s for you, Mr. Mulroney.
3	42389	9 THE	RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Ye	s,
4		sir.
5	42390	0 MR.	WOLSON: And then you are rid	of
6		me.
7	42391	1 You	indicated in your testimony on
8		more than one occasion	on that prior to the LOR becomin	ıg
9		public, you had offer	red to the RCMP, to the governme	∍nt,
10		that you would come i	n and disclose everything to the	nem
11		in response to the ho	orrible allegations that they ha	ad
12		made against you. An	nd they didn't take you up on th	nat.
13	42392	2 That	t is a true statement?
14	42393	3 THE	RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Ye	s,
15		sir.
16	42394	4 MR.	WOLSON: With regard to your
17		relationship with Mr.	Schreiber, your legal commerci	ial
18		relationship, you hav	ve had the opportunity to become	∍
19		or to go public a lon	ng time ago, but you didn't do s	30.
20	42395	5 Woul	ld that be a correct statement?
21	42396	6 THE	RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I'	m
22		sorry?
23	42397	7 MR.	WOLSON: I said with regard to
24		your relationship wit	ch Mr. Schreiber, your lawful
25		commercial relationsh	nip, you have had the opportunit	ΞУ

to go public on it a long time ago, but you didn't do 1 2 so. THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Well, 3 42398 I felt, as I have indicated to you, it was a private 4 transaction between two private citizens in the private 5 sector after I had left office. 6 MR. WOLSON: Okay. 7 42399 8 42400 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: With not a nickel, not a nickel of public funds involved anywhere. 10 11 42401 MR. WOLSON: All right. THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: 42402 So I 12 13 felt it was a private transaction. I was out of office and I felt I had nothing to automatically disclose, any 14 more than, for example, Mr. Chrétien should be called 15 16 upon to disclose his latest business dealings in the private sector. 17 18 42403 MR. WOLSON: Let's not go to 19 Mr. Chrétien. 20 42404 THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Well, I'm just saying --21 22 42405 MR. WOLSON: I'm only asking you 23 about you and your involvement. So your answer to me, I take it, is 42406 24 that you felt this was a private transaction and that's 25

1	1 your answer?
2	2 42407 THE RIGHT HON. BRIA	N MULRONEY:	That
3	is why I held the view that I did.
4	4 42408 MR. WOLSON: Okay.
5	5 42409 THE RIGHT HON. BRIA	N MULRONEY:	I
6	6 also indicated to you that given the	manner in w	hich
7	7 this has evolved, with the assistance	of the fif	th
8	8 estate and others, that I ought to ha	ave accepted	the
9	good advice from Luc Lavoie earlier a	and simply h	ad a
10	press conference, or what have you, a	and let it a	ll out
11	as opposed to this situation which, a	as you know,	sir
12	and this is very important for us to	remember.
13	13 42410 Driven by Mr. Schre	iber's inter	nse
14	desire to avoid extradition, he produ	ıced that fa	lse
15	affidavit in November of 2007 in which	ch he named
16	Mr. Harper and myself.
17	17 42411 That affidavit has	been shredde	ed in
18	its credibility. There is none left.	. But it wa	s a
19	good enough instrument to prolong his	s stay by tw	o years
20	almost in Canada.
21	MR. WOLSON: All ri	ght, but
22	THE RIGHT HON. BRIA	N MULRONEY:	So
23	that's why.
24	MR. WOLSON: But th	e point to h	oe made
25	is this: Because you felt it was a p	orivate

1	arrangement, you	kept your silence on it.
2	42415	And you agree with that statement.
3	42416	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I
4	kept my silence	in the sense, yes, that there was no
5	obligation on me	to call a press conference and tell
6	people what I ha	d done in the private sector.
7	42417	MR. WOLSON: Mr. Lavoie, as you have
8	said, had urged	you to come forward and in hindsight it
9	was probably goo	d advice. But again hindsight is
10	perfect vision.
11	42418	You didn't come forward when he had
12	suggested to you	that you should. That's true?
13	42419	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes,
14	sir, but he also	told you in the second part of his
15	commentary that	he can readily understand why I didn't,
16	because he knew	the manner in which this would be
17	distorted and us	ed against me and my family again in
18	the light of the	Airbus experience.
19	42420	He told you two things, and I agree
20	with both of the	m.
21	42421	MR. WOLSON: All right.
22	42422	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: But I
23	will acknowledge	I should have followed the first.
24	42423	MR. WOLSON: Okay. I appreciate
25	that.

1	42424	In 2003 when Mr. Kaplan's article
2	became public
3	42425	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
4	42426	MR. WOLSON: November 10, 2003
5	where he made	a statement about you receiving monies
6	from Mr. Schre	iber, you could have then held a news
7	conference.
8	42427	But I am assuming that you are
9	talking about	what Mr. Lavoie told you, and you simply
10	didn't accept	the advice for reasons you have
11	articulated al	ready.
12	42428	You could have come forward earlier.
13	42429	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Why
14	would I hold a	news conference in 2003, sir?
15	42430	Mr. Kaplan had told you the entire
16	story, essenti	ally what we know today.
17	42431	MR. WOLSON: But you could have come
18	forward to say	, look at you could have had a news
19	conference and	said this is a private arrangement with
20	Mr. Schreiber.	These were the terms of the
21	arrangement.	This is what I have done regarding the
22	arrangement.
23	42432	You could have done that if you were
24	so inclined.	Would you agree with that statement?
25	42433	I know you didn't, but you could

1		have.
2	42434	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: But I
3		did.
4	42435	MR. WOLSON: Did you have a news
5		conference?
6	42436	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: No,
7		but I confirmed those facts to Mr. Kaplan essentially.
8	ı	That's how he was able to write about them on the 10th
9		of November.
10	42437	I acknowledged that I had a
11		transaction with Mr. Schreiber; that I had been paid in
12		cash; that the amount was less for less than
13		$300,000; that it was for a contract for professional
14		services to be rendered; that the contract was above
15		board in all respects, as confirmed that day by
16	]	Mr. Schreiber; and that not a nickel of public funds
17		was involved in any way.
18	42438	That came out on the 10th November
19		2003 and that is essentially what we know today about
20		this amount.
21	42439	MR. WOLSON: Okay. When you gave
22		your speech at St. FX where you stated that you would
23		be before a Royal Commission with bells on, I have done
24	:	nothing wrong and I have absolutely nothing to hide,
25		you admit today that what you have done wrong was you

1	f	failed to document a cash transaction, which you
2	á	admitted at the beginning of your testimony.
3	42440	You admit that.
4	42441	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes,
5	]	I acknowledge that the circumstances surrounding the
6	t	transaction in a significantly undocumented manner
7	C	could give rise to a situation where reasonable people
8	n	might conclude that something was amiss.
9	42442	Nothing was amiss, as I think we have
10	$\epsilon$	established, but I acknowledge readily that that was
11	ι	unwise.
12	42443	MR. WOLSON: Are you suggesting that
13	I	prior to this Inquiry that you made a statement, a
14	f	formal statement admitting that you and Schreiber had a
15	k	ousiness deal and that that business deal was a private
16	k	ousiness deal, and that he paid you $225,000, and that
17	7	you did work for Mr. Schreiber on an international
18	k	pasis?
19	42444	And the work you did was, as you have
20	j	indicated in your evidence, you attended to China, to
21	F	Russia, to France, to the United States.
22	42445	You never did that.
23	42446	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: No, I
24	ł	nave told you what I did. I confirmed to Mr. Kaplan
25	t	the essence of this story that was published on

1	November 10th.
2	The eight column headline that day,
3	in case you happened to miss it, sir
4	MR. WOLSON: Oh, I have it.
5	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
6	MR. WOLSON: We can spend some time
7	if you would like to go over it.
8	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: It
9	said "Schreiber hired Mulroney".
10	MR. WOLSON: Yes.
11	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: That
12	was it. And the story told the facts that I have
13	enunciated.
14	Most of those, sir, were confirmed by
15	me. So I felt that the matter, to the extent the
16	public was entitled to know things, I thought a lot of
17	it was there and I felt that I had done what I ought to
18	do in those circumstances.
19	42455 MR. WOLSON: So it was your
20	position and you will find the article. It is Tab
21	23 of the Kaplan materials.
22	I can go through it line and verse
23	with you.
24	You would agree with me that you did
25	not come out and make a formal statement such as the

1	ones that you have made at this Inquiry.
2	You didn't do that.
3	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Well
4	no, of course not.
5	MR. WOLSON: Okay.
6	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: I
7	didn't have to. Here I received a polite invitation
8	from the Commissioner and so I appeared, and of course
9	I am under oath.
10	Mr. Kaplan is not the Commissioner.
11	Mr. Kaplan was a journalist writing a story.
12	42463 MR. WOLSON: No, I'm not talking
13	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: You
14	people are authorized
15	42465 MR. WOLSON: Yes.
16	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: to
17	do what you're doing.
18	42467 MR. WOLSON: I'm not talking about
19	speaking to Kaplan.
20	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
21	42469 MR. WOLSON: I'm talking about having
22	a formal news conference and stating what you have
23	stated here today.
24	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
25	MR. WOLSON: And if you had, we may

1	not be here today.
2	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Yes.
3	MR. WOLSON: But you chose not to do
4	that.
5	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: No, I
6	wouldn't you know, I understand what you are saying
7	sir, but I'm not so sure of that.
8	There are some people in the media
9	and you know who I'm talking about who are hell-ben
10	on making certain that after 21 years of inquiries and
11	millions of dollars being spent in pursuit of me and m
12	family, that some significant degree of wrongdoing
13	exists.
14	None has been found and none will be
15	found, sir, because, as I told you, I have never in my
16	life knowingly done anything wrong. There is nothing
17	there.
18	42477 MR. WOLSON: Mr. Mulroney, I am ahead
19	of schedule and I have asked you the questions that I
20	want to ask you, save for the area that I raised with
21	your counsel.
22	I appreciate you answering my
23	questions. I appreciate that and I wish you well.
24	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Thank
25	you. I appreciate your courtesy, sir, and that of the Commissioner, and all other members, and I thank you 1 very much. 2 3 42480 MR. WOLSON: Thank you. COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: Those are 42481 4 5 your questions then, are they, Mr. Wolson? 6 42482 MR. WOLSON: They are, thank you, 7 sir. 8 42483 COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: All right. 9 Thank you. The time is 5:10. I said around noon 42484 10 11 today that I wasn't going to put any counsel into a position of having to hurry to complete 12 13 cross-examination today. But before I get into that, I would 14 42485 15 like to ask counsel for an indication as to where they 16 are going, if anywhere, in terms of asking Mr. Mulroney questions by way of cross-examination. 17 18 42486 Mr. Vickery, can you indicate to me 19 what your intentions are, sir? 20 MR. VICKERY: At this point I don't expect to be asking questions. That may change, 21 22 however. 23 42488 COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: It may 24 change.

1	42490 COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: What,
2	overnight?
3	MR. VICKERY: My instructions may
4	change, yes.
5	As instructed at this moment, I will
6	not be asking questions.
7	42493 COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: All right.
8	So you don't know whether you are going to be asking
9	questions or not?
10	MR. VICKERY: As matters now stand, I
11	will not be asking questions, sir.
12	42495 COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: You don't
13	know whether you are going to be asking questions or
14	not.
15	MR. VICKERY: That's right.
16	42497 COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: Okay.
17	42498 Mr. Houston?
18	MR. HOUSTON: I have no questions.
19	Thank you, sir.
20	42500 COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: All right.
21	42501 Mr. Auger, I assume and I should
22	never assume anything that you will have some
23	questions. How long you expect to be, sir? And I know
24	that is hard to estimate.
25	42502 MR. AUGER: My best estimate,

1	Commissioner, is	in the range of two hours.
2	42503	COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: So barring
3	questions by oth	er counsel, you should be able to
4	complete your wo	rk by noon tomorrow?
5	42504	MR. AUGER: I'm confident I will
6	complete by noon
7	42505	COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: All right.
8	42506	Well, Mr. Mulroney, I'm going to have
9	to ask you to co	me back. I'm sorry, but that's just
10	the way it goes.
11	42507	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Sure.
12	42508	COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: We will break
13	now and come bac	k at 9:30.
14	42509	Mr. Vickery, if you can get further
15	instructions ove	r the course of the evening, I would
16	appreciate it ve	ry much and you can let me know off the
17	hop tomorrow whe	ther you intend to cross-examine or
18	not. Okay?
19	42510	MR. VICKERY: Yes, of course. I will
20	let you know as	soon as I possibly can.
21	42511	COMMISSIONER OLIPHANT: Thank you
22	very much.
23	42512	Good afternoon. I will see everyone
24	at 9:30 tomorrow	morning.
25	42513	THE RIGHT HON. BRIAN MULRONEY: Thank

1	you, sir.
